CHRISTMAS DINNER FUND FOR THOSE NOT NOW PROVIDED FOR

No one realizes better than ourselves the large number of calls there are made on citizens at this time of year, and it is with reluctance we have held a party to add one more. However, we cannot enjoy our own Christmas heartily unless we know others are doing the same. The Salvation Army is planning to take care of all who have no funds for this purpose. The Daily News will hold the fund until Christmas and then turn it over to the Army to spend for the purpose for which it was intended. It will not go into the Army general fund.
 Donations may be left at the News office or given to any of the Salvation Army officers. All will be acknowledged through the medium of the Daily News.

For the convenience of out-of-town subscribers the following coupon may be cut out and used:

Enclosed find dollars contribution toward the Christmas Dinner Fund of the Salvation Army to provide a dinner for those not otherwise remembered on Christmas Day and for the provision of Christmas hampers for poor families.

ASKING PATROL FISHING AREA

Deep Sea Fishermen's Union Will Try to Bring Pressure on Government
 KETCHIKAN, Dec. 5.—Intention of the Deep Sea Fishermen's Union to request the government to station a large vessel on the halibut banks to render aid to fishing boats whenever required during the season was announced in Ketchikan by Frank Semers, local representative of the union. Mr. Semers pointed out that Norway and other small nations maintain several government steamers which patrol their fishing grounds for the express purpose of helping vessels in distress.

As soon as the fate of the Brunvol and Imperial is definitely decided, the union here will start action to bring pressure to bear on the proper officials, he said. A communication will be sent to Dan Sutherland, delegate to congress, requesting his help in the matter. "A trip of a coast guard cutter is not sufficient; a large steamer, of at least 1000 tons, should be on the banks at all times during the halibut season," Mr. Semers said. A large vessel was stationed by the government on the Alaska banks in 1913, but was discontinued a short time later. Since then, the matter has been brought up several times.

Three men have been mentioned for the position. They are, left to right: Hon. Dr. James H. King, British Columbia's representative to the Federal Cabinet; Sir Campbell Stuart, and Laurent Baudry, Counsellor to the Department of External Affairs.

CHOOSING MINISTER TO JAPAN

King Slowly Improving But is Still Very Sick

Welcome Announcement From Buckingham Palace Today Must Not Be Taken With Too Great Optimism

LONDON, Dec. 6. — King George's physicians this morning issued this bulletin: "The King has passed a fair night and his temperature this morning is lower. The general condition is slowly improving and the infective process, which remains severe, is becoming more localized. The statement that King George's general condition was slowly improving made by the physicians in the morning bulletin was the most welcome announcement from Buckingham Palace since His Majesty's illness became critical. Probably it will seem unwise to interpret too optimistically the words of the bulletin, for the King has been ill 17 days and is granted to be still a very sick man."

Conservative Leader Charged With Pessimism at Victoria by Minister of the Interior

VICTORIA, Dec. 6.—In addressing the final Liberal rally last night in the interest of Dr. MacLean, Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of the interior, charged R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, of the following in his predecessors' footsteps of pessimism. Mr. Bennett, the minister said, admitted prosperity of the country, but warned against the future. "We have had those warnings for seven years," he said. Minister of Health King declared that Bennett endorsed the Liberal policy when he admitted here Tuesday night that Canada was prospering under the Liberal government.

Huge Still on Texada Island Big Enough to Slake Thirst of Whole Coast, Has Been Seized

VANCOUVER, Dec. 6.—Alleged to be the largest illicit distillery ever located in British Columbia, an immense plant at Pocohantas Bay, Texada Island, has been seized by customs preventive officers after an intensive search by seaplane from Jericho Beach air station and by the customs launch Despatcher. Two men have been arrested and two more are being searched for by air and land. "It is big enough to supply the whole Pacific coast," said Chief Inspector James Barton in describing the still. The place was guarded by a lookout, but so stealthy was the approach of the raiders that the man on duty had barely time to fire a warning shot when the officers were upon him. The sentry and one other were arrested, but two others made their escape.

NO EXCITEMENT AT VICTORIA

Election Does Not Rouse People of Capital City Very Much

VICTORIA, Dec. 6.—While both parties are claiming victory at the polls here today, there is no great excitement and the poll may not be heavy as was expected. A number of Conservatives who would like to see Dr. MacLean elected are absenting themselves from the poll. The outcome is very much in doubt with the leaning perhaps a little toward D. B. Plunkett, the Conservative candidate.

CAMPBELL PICKS SAHARA TO BREAK SPEED RECORD

Captain Malcolm Campbell, the British racing motorist, has decided to investigate the possibilities of making an attempt on the world's motor speed record at a remote spot in the Sahara Desert. SPORT CHAT

Basketball is going strong in Anyox now and some fine play is being turned in. There are many local fans who would like to see inter-town games between the smelter town and Prince Rupert, before the season ends and it is hoped that arrangements with this end in view may be successfully carried out. In the last league games at Anyox, the Mechanics won an exciting game from the Mine 26-20. High School girls won their opening game against Beach Ladies 11-6.

Tunney's article for the 14th edition of the reference work will not be on Shakespeare, boy athletics or golf, but will deal with the game that gave him his fortune—boxing. Governor Alfred E. BIG GAME IS INCREASING

Keeping Down Wolves Gives Animals Chance to Breed Unmolested

WINNIPEG, Dec. 6.—Big game hunters who journeyed out into the passes adjacent to the borders of Jasper National Park during the 1928 season found the animals greatly increased in numbers and there is no record of parties having returned to the railroad without securing at least some fine trophies as a result of their hunt, it was stated by Roy Hargreaves, hunting and trail outfitter at Robson, B. C., who is in Montreal on a business trip. The increase in trapping activities along the lines of the Canadian National Railways on both borders of Jasper National Park have reduced the number of vermin fur bearers, Mr. Hargreaves states, with a result that the young animals, sheep and goats and moose are given a much better chance of reaching maturity as there are fewer coyotes and wolves to prey on them.

In preparation for next year's hunting, many parties are already booked up for time in the Mount Robson and Moosejaw and Smoky Pass areas. Mr. Hargreaves stated. Spring hunting for bears he declared is becoming increasingly popular and in the territory adjacent to the national park boundaries there are many thousands of black, cinnamon and grizzly bears awaiting the big game hunter who is prepared to get away from civilization and railroads for twenty or thirty days and go after his trophies.

Though the number of hunting parties going into the territory adjacent to the borders of Jasper National Park is increasing, the increase in game animals which are breeding within the boundaries of the park is more than keeping pace with the increase in hunters, in Mr. Hargreaves opinion.

OTTAWA, Dec. 6.—Henry H. Horsey has been appointed to fill the vacancy in the Senate for Ontario caused by the death of the late Senator John Webster.

GOOD FIGHT IS OFFERED

Dido Gurvich and Eddie McGooty Are in Pink of Shape for Bout Tonight

With both boys feeling in the pink of condition and each confident of his abilities to win, a real snappy boxing bout is promised for tonight when Dido Gurvich of Prince Rupert and Eddie McGooty of St. Paul, Minn., meet in a 10-round engagement at the Moose Hall. Dido, who will weigh in at 162 pounds, says he never felt better in his life. He is looking good, too. The big boy from the American prairies also appears fit and tips the scales today at 165. It is not their first meeting. Two months ago they fought in Bellingham and Dido was given the decision by a shade. It is several months now since a fight card has been offered here and this one should suit all tastes and draw a big crowd.

It was announced this morning that Pete Laporte would referee and Roi Barnes and Charlie Brown judge the main event. This trio should give the boys a fair shake.

There is an interesting bill of preliminaries with Ned Byrne of Prince Rupert and Dan McMillan of Kitimaat featuring the semi-windup. Nina Gurvich and Tommy De Marco will next be offered and Young Batt and C. Lowe will give the duce-spot. The curtain-raiser will be between Pete Chenski and Young Kennedy (Young Scotland).

ARE LOCATING RADIO TROUBLE

Set Being Borrowed From Government Department and in Use Already

An effort is being made to locate the radio interference, in Prince Rupert. A portable super-heterodyne receiving set has been loaned to the local radio association by the radio telegraph branch of the Dominion Government and is being used by the association and the city officials are co-operating. Yesterday it was in use on Third Avenue.

The set which the society is using is fitted with a directional loop antennae which helps to localize trouble in electrical apparatus. It also locates regenerative receivers, commonly known as "squealers" which interfere so greatly with local reception.

Great hope is expressed that the local situation will be cleaned up and radio reception here be very much improved.

HALIFAX BLAST TEN YEARS AGO

Anniversary of Terrible Explosion Which Practically Wrecked Eastern Port

It was eleven-years at 9:06 this morning since the city of Halifax was practically wrecked with the loss of many hundreds of lives as a result of the collision in the harbor of the French munition boat Mont Blanc and the Belgian relief vessel Imo and the ensuing explosion of the deadly ammunition aboard the Mont Blanc. The whole northern part of the city was virtually destroyed.

Among survivors of the disaster living in this city today are F. D. Rice and family, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Dawes and Mr. and Mrs. R. V. G. LePine. Mr. Rice's wife was killed and his elder daughter, Evelyn, saved the lives of her little brother and sister, Dwight and Rose. Mr. and Mrs. Dawes lost their eighteen-month old son and have never since heard of the child.

ASK MINIMUM HALIBUT PRICE

Fishing Vessel Owners to Meet Saturday in Seattle to Discuss Matters

KETCHIKAN, Dec. 6.—Bearing recommendations and resolutions regarding the halibut fishing industry passed by Ketchikan and Petersburg members of the Fishing Vessel Owners' Association, J. E. Johnson, resident manager, will attend the annual meeting of the organization to be held in Seattle Saturday.

Chief among innovations favored by the two Alaskan branches are the setting of a minimum price for halibut and the establishment of a closed season from November 1 to February 1. The Ketchikan vessel owners have also gone on record as being opposed to granting to any government authority the power to fix regulations concerning the halibut industry.

A draft covering the views of the local branch regarding the setting of a minimum price is being prepared by Alfred Hgwe and will be presented for consideration at the Seattle meeting by Mr. Johnson.

If further finances are found to be necessary for the Brunvol and Imperial search party, part of the cost will be defrayed by the association, it was decided at the meeting here, attended by 17 vessel owners.

Surprise Party Numbering About Fifty Invaded Home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Iverson

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Iverson were much surprised last evening when their home was invaded by about 50 friends, who came to help them celebrate their third wedding anniversary. The home on Eighth Avenue West was a merry place for a few hours. Cards were played and dancing enjoyed, but the great event of the occasion was the presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Iverson of a beautiful standard lamp. The presentation was made by C. Jensen, on behalf of those present. Suitable replies were made by the recipients.
The event was kept up to a late hour.

JAPAN SAYS "NEVER AGAIN"

Through the courtesy of George G. Kitigawa of Prince Rupert, now visiting in Japan, a copy has been received of the Osaka Mainichi, printed in English, telling of the coronation of Emperor of Japan. Enclosed was also a copy of the same paper for the following day which happens to be Armistice Day. In it the following striking editorial article is found:

On the eleventh of November, 1918, the world war came to an end through the signing of the armistice. Ever since the summer of 1914, nations had been engaged in ruinous warfare spurred by a temporary onrush of hostile sentiment. The world, alas, was organized into a compact mechanism which could not sustain its orderly function in the face of serious disorder in its essential part. The ripple that was created on the calm surface of the water expanded throughout its width and length until the entire sea was in turmoil. Very few nations escaped being embroiled in the commotion; not a nation was saved from receiving detrimental effects from it.

Men naturally love their own country. They cannot stand aloof and calmly gaze upon enemies devastating their beloved land. Patriotism came to a full sway and bloody actions were committed with a clear conscience, in the name of loyalty to one's own country. That mere patriotism does not justify violation of the essential laws of humanity did not occur to their minds in the moment of emergency call. The mortal frailty of men grievously prevented them from rising above momentary impulses, and ask "Why the war?" Nations turned into veritable Leviathans and men were temporarily converted into wild beasts. The precious civilizations their ancestors created through centuries of hard labor they ruthlessly destroyed. When men are struggling for each others' lives, what crimes, what sins are too atrocious for them to commit?

Four years of relentless destruction radically changed the aspect of the world. Its most fertile sections were turned to battle grounds and the shortage of food became threatening—famine became a matter of common occurrence. The factories and workshops that ought to be making the necessaries of daily subsistence were given up to the mad fabrication of the tools of destruction. In the absence of the supply, men, women and children had to shiver through severe winters in rags and bare feet. The manpower which in normal times would have been mending streets and railways, tending to the supply of communal dispensaries and looking after public health and sanitation, was snatched away to the scenes of carnage. Not only was life deprived of comforts, but also robbed of the necessary safeguard of existence. Plague raged and crimes became rampant.

Even more disheartening than the material havoc was the moral devastation. Amidst the universal rage of hostility and vengeance, tapped and whetted by parliaments and governments, how could men uphold loving sentiment and tender affection which they had been taught to make up the religious foundation of communal well-being? Gordian knot was cut loose and the garb of refinement was thrown off. Decency and respectability were even deliberately regarded in individual conduct, and by one mighty stroke society reverted to its pre-historic barbarity. Untrammelled indulgence in instinctive cravings became men's utmost preoccupation, turning scornful contempt towards moralism and aestheticism. The thoroughness and rapidity with which the civilized influence, which had been supposed to have soaked deeply into man's personality, was nullified, was distressing.

At last humanity rebelled against the accelerating savagery. Among thinking classes of the people throughout the world the voices of protest arose against the reckless destruction of human wealths, material and spiritual. The force of public opinion brought its pressure to bear upon the belligerent governments and compelled them to slacken their frenzied fighting. An unexpected coup d'etat conducted in the heart of the Central Powers completely shattered the flimsy hope of their victory and abruptly brought about the end of hostilities. The day on which the armistice was formally signed was the eleventh of November, 1918.

It has henceforward become the established usage of the world to observe the day as the anniversary of peace. The practice no doubt is intended to afford the peoples time to ponder afresh upon the significance of the world war. Public memory is admittedly short. Lest mankind let pass in oblivion the costly lessons of the historical calamity, and again be loitering on the brink of a dangerous preceps, the day has been set apart on which we should re-enforce our moral courage to overcome wars and build up the world of perfect peace. Every one of us, thank God, is now busy with some productive pursuit; and yet none is too busy to spend a moment in calm meditation upon how best to perpetuate the blessed reign of peace. Let us at least cry in unison, NEVER AGAIN!

AROUND PRINCE RUPERT
 Work on Silver Tip Continuing This Winter; New Company for Stewart Formed; Mountain Boy to Resume in Spring

Work at the Silver Tip in the Portland Canal district has settled down for the winter with the driving of a tunnel along the hanging wall of one of the quartz porphyry dykes, a series of which occur on this property and appear to "make ore" in the greenstone or tuffs that lie between them. This tunnel was started midway between two of these dykes, driven in for about 50 feet and then swung to the left and continued as a cross-cut till the dyke was encountered which occurred at 78 feet from the portal. It was then swung to the right and is now being continued alongside the dyke on which some exceptionally fine ore has been found on or along the surface. In the cross-cut six feet before the quartz porphyry was encountered two feet of silified material was passed through. Samples of this assayed 94.5 ounces in silver and 0.06 ounces in gold, or a total value of $56. Recent assays of the face of the drift showed values of $15. It is the intention to continue this tunnel several hundred feet and then cross-cut through the porphyry. Later in the winter, owing to transportation difficulties, it may be necessary to close down work. George E. Winkler is managing engineer and J. V. Clegg mine superintendent.

Having been delayed by stormy weather in the north, C. P. R. steamer Princess Mary, Capt. Thomas Cliff, arrived in port at 4:30 this morning from Alaska and sailed an hour later for Vancouver and Victoria. The vessel will make her next call here northbound a week from Saturday.

The Nelley W and May groups, bonded during the fall by Jack Pedersen and W. R. Harner, have been incorporated into the Black Hill Mining Co. The name was taken on account of Pedersen and Harner having also bonded the Black Hill group from John Haathi. The Black Hill adjoins the Nelley W, and the May and carries excellent showings of both high grade and large bodies of a good milling ore. Both Pederson and Harner are well known and successful locators and operators, because of its past history. Or Harner was responsible for the original location and incorporation of Marmot Gold.

Work has been suspended for the winter on the Mountain Boy property in the Bear River valley, of which Pat Daly is manager. Advantage will be taken of the snow crust in February or March to take in supplies and machinery. A pipe line from the lower camp to the workings has been laid, a distance of 1500 feet. At the lower camp, the compressor house is completed. At 14-Mile (American Creek), a 20 by 40 warehouse has been constructed, capable of holding 100 tons of material. This will be filled during the winter.

A letter has been received from a gentleman who wishes to sign himself "Not a Sucker" in which he takes a fall out of the Ku Klux Klan which is being organized here. No address of the writer is given although he signs himself "Not a Sucker". It is doubtful if a good newspaper should be the medium for an attack on an organization successful locators and operators, because of its past history. Organizers of other societies have operated for private gain and notoriety.

CRITICISMS OF THE ENGINEER

Final Public Session of Inquiry Held Last Night by Committee of Council

SIDEWALK BUILDING

Overtime and Other Matters Also Under Review at Meeting in City Hall

As far as the taking of evidence was concerned, the committee of the city council consisting of Ald. Brown, chairman, Ald. Collart and Ald. Dibb, which was appointed to investigate criticisms of the engineering department which were made by Ald. Prudhomme, held its final session last night and adjourned at 10:20 p.m. The committee has further matters to look up and will probably hold some private discussion before preparing its report for submission to the council later in the month.

At the opening of last night's session of the investigation, Ald. Brown stated that it was the desire of the committee to bring the inquiry to a close with this meeting. He asked those interested to be as brief as possible in their arguments.

Ald. Prudhomme brought up the matter of quantities of reinforcing steel used in the construction of concrete sidewalks. He claimed that there was excessive use of steel. In one 100 foot piece of sidewalk 840 pounds of steel had been used and in another 2780 pounds. In still another place, 1440 pounds of steel had been used in 150 feet. He felt that more money was being spent here on the concrete sidewalks than was necessary.

The quantity of steel used, Mr. McLean replied, depended on the width of the sidewalks and on other conditions. Where 840 pounds had been used, piers were close together. In one of the other places, it had been necessary to use steel rails for bridging. The engineer admitted that lighter steel could have been used, but the steel which had been used had been obtained at a cheap price.

In answer to further criticisms by Ald. Prudhomme, Mr. McLean described how steel had been used to prevent seepage of water washing away the streets.

Ald. Prudhomme next referred to excessive time spent on building forms and the unnecessary strength of same. Mr. McLean replied that second-hand lumber had been used, which required more nailing and thus took more time. At one point, the construction had not been heavy enough and strengthening had to be done. He denied that two nails had been used at every joint.

"It all comes back to the point that Ald. Prudhomme continues to criticize concrete work when he doesn't know anything about it," averred Mr. Patmore, counsel for the city engineer.

Ald. Brown thought that Mr. Patmore was making a rather broad statement.

Ald. Prudhomme replied that he himself had built concrete sidewalks forty years ago. He had also built the concrete foundation for the King Edward School here, as well as the vault in the old land registry office, which had withstood a fire which destroyed the building.

Ald. Brown concluded that Mr. McLean had apparently chosen to be safe rather than sorry in the building of forms.

EARL JELICOE VISITS DISABLED TOMMIES

Ald. Prudhomme referred to material for the sidewalks which had been piled up on the job long before the work started and which had been an obstruction both to the work and to traffic. In one case, the engineer replied, there had been delay in the work owing to property owners being unable to decide what they were going to do about their foundations.

Errors in grades of sidewalks alleged by Ald. Prudhomme were next taken up. The alderman said that in no two cases were grades uniform and in one case an additional five inches had later to be put on. The authority of the city engineer to give grades for buildings was discussed and there was some disagreement on the point. Mr. McLean stated that in one case J. H. Pillsbury had been called in to prove a grade. Mr. Pillsbury's grade disagreed with having been put on later at the his (Mr. McLean's) and the Board of Works had accepted Mr. Pillsbury's grade. This explained the additional five inches of sidewalk corner of Third Avenue and Sixth Street. Mr. McLean contended that his grade had been the proper one. Owing to the slope of both Third Avenue and Fulton Street, Mr. McLean explained that the sidewalk on each of the four corners there was at different elevation. The committee disagreed with the principle of building sidewalks to conform with the level of old and not permanent buildings.

Ald. Prudhomme referred to the state of the sidewalk on Third Avenue in front of the Federal Block. He had been over this and contended that there were protrusions under that sidewalk which would have caused a walk of any mixture or reinforcement to crack. This rather than the engineer's explanation that Vancouver specifications had been used was the cause of the condition there, Ald. Prudhomme felt. He wondered why the engineer had used his discretion on all other sidewalks and had failed to do so here.

Sinking of Walk
The engineer and certain members of the committee took the view that if this walk had been of the same mixture and reinforced like other walks, it probably would not have sunk and cracked, in spite of obstructions that might be under it. There was discussion of the preparation of beds for the concrete sidewalks. The engineer stated that he had been instructed to follow Vancouver specifications in this particular piece of work.

Progress sheets were discussed. Ald. Prudhomme stated they did not give an accurate idea of how expenditures were going. Progress sheets were merely a guide and could not be expected to be exactly accurate, the engineer said. Final figures for the cost of work were obtainable in the office of the city treasurer.

Mr. McLean admitted that he had not yet got out the final costs of Sixth Street work which had been done last spring. There were various charges to be taken into account. Ald. Prudhomme felt that this was not a good system of cost accounting. It would never do in private work. The engineer replied that city work was going continuously and at the end of the year charges had to be arrived at and made against the various pieces of work. It thus differed from private work.

The system of accounting in the engineer's department was a matter for the city auditor to deal with, Ald. Brown felt. Mr. McLean stated that the city auditor had inspected his system of bookkeeping and had had no criticism to make.

When the matter of the operation of the rock crusher came up, Ald. Brown asked Ald. Prudhomme why he had not taken this up in the Board of Works. Ald. Prudhomme, who suggested that the rock crusher had been operated inefficiently, replied that he had been fighting with the Board of Works since February to have certain matters dealt with but in spite of repeated attempts, he had failed to get the attention of the committee. He had been stalled off from meeting to meeting and had finally been told to bring his criticisms in writing to the council. This investigation had been the result.

Charge Board of Works
Mr. Patmore felt that Ald. Prudhomme should have laid his charges against the Board of Works rather than against the city engineer. Ald. Prudhomme was inclined to agree to some extent with this contention.

The storage and care of tools came under discussion. Ald. Prudhomme having alleged carelessness in this connection. Mr. McLean replied that tools were either stored overnight in the city stores or in tool boxes. Both Ald. Prudhomme and Ald. Dibb stated they had seen tools lying around at night on certain jobs.

Ald. Prudhomme had some criticisms to make in the matter of overtime. One man he said had been allowed 22 hours in a single day. When lots of men were without work, the alderman felt that it was not fair to give others so much overtime. Ald. Prudhomme suggested favoritism in the giving of overtime.

Overtime Necessary
The engineer stated that, in certain stages of cement work, it was necessary that the work should go on till completed. It was not always practicable to change shifts. The surface finisher was the man who got the most overtime. Also in sewer construction, it was necessary to work overtime, especially when there was danger of slides, or freshets in excavation or pipe fitting.

The committee decided to examine the payrolls to check up on the complaints regarding overtime.

Ald. Prudhomme enquired if he would be permitted to sum up the evidence. Ald. Brown felt that this was unnecessary. He could assure all concerned that the committee would give all matters its earnest deliberation and that all would get their just dues.

Engineer's Experience

Mr. Patmore was given permission to put in certain photographs and documents testifying to long experience the city engineer had had in large construction work, particularly concrete. These photographs were perused by the members of the committee.

Ald. Prudhomme pointed out to the committee that Mr. Rice, the city engineer's expert witness, had been engaged in such work as the Cape Breton fortifications where cost was no consideration and dam work at Anxox which was an altogether different variety of construction work than in a city where economy was an important consideration. Ald. Prudhomme referred to what he termed unsatisfactory estimates which only showed total costs and never gave quantities of material used.

Mr. McLean explained that he would have been glad at any time to give the information with regard to quantities of material used etc. Such information was always available.

Ald. Collart pointed out that two previous engineers had always overrun their estimates whereas Mr. McLean had always kept within his.

"Because the estimates are not exceeded is no proof that the estimates are not excessive," Ald. Prudhomme remarked.

Ald. Brown: "The engineer at least showed good judgment."

These were the parting shots as the investigation concluded.

This afternoon's train, due from the east at 3:30, was reported this morning to be on time.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

December 6, 1918

The Prince Rupert sawmill closed last night following receipt of notification that the contract with the Imperial Munitions Board for airplane spruce had closed. Stock will now be taken and the plant will probably reopen soon, states E. F. Duly, manager. All mills in the district have been notified to cease cutting airplane spruce.

CLEAN FUN FOR BIG AUDIENCE

Sparkling Farce at Westholme Last Night Will be Repeated Tonight

It has been said that "Silk Stockings" contains a laugh in every line and one may well believe it judging from the roars which greeted every humorous situation as the story was unfolded at the Westholme last night. It fairly bubbled over with good, clean fun and the large audience was delighted.

Lovely Laura La Plante has never had a role which suited her so well and she made the most of it. Excellent comedies round out a first-class bill which will be repeated tonight.

E. Georgeson and Capt. J. Muir are local passenger and local freight representatives respectively and Capt. E. Mabbs is one of the trustees.

BIG CAST IN NEW JOHNNY HINES FILM

An exceptionally large cast of clever screen players was secured by Producer C. C. Burr, for the filming of his latest First National picture, "The Wright Idea," starring Johnny Hines, which shows at the Capitol Theatre tonight.

This interesting comedy of a young man's struggles to market his unique invention of an ink possessing luminous qualities, gives Johnny Hines a vehicle in which he can display his versatility in the most laugh-provoking situations. The comedian has been getting away from the slap-stick, gag type of comedy, and is introducing new situations which develop from the struggles of every-day-folks to get ahead.

An opportunity to invest in a high-class local security

$55,000

Prince Rupert Amusement Co. Limited

7 PER CENT FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

Dated September 1st, 1928 Due September 1st, 1943

PRICE: 98.90 and INTEREST

Yielding 7.12 Per Cent

Trustee:—Montreal Trust Company Denominations $500 and $1,000

Principal and interest are payable at any branch of the Royal Bank in British Columbia.

Bonds are callable at 105 on any interest date on sixty days' prior notice. A Sinking Fund of $3,000 per year will be paid to the Trustee who may invest same in these bonds if procurable at 105 or less, but if not, then it shall be invested in Trustee Securities.

The Prince Rupert Amusement Company was organized for the purpose of operating a moving picture theatre in the City of Prince Rupert. Up to the present the Company has operated in a rented building but has now completed construction of a very fine building on the main street of the City at a cost of approximately (including value of land) $109,000. This building has been leased to B. C. Paramount Theatres Limited for 15 years on the following terms: Rental $8,000 per year, together with one-half the net profits remaining after payment of such rental and other operating expenses. The Lessor also gives to the Lessee an option for three years to purchase the said property for $150,000. If this option is not exercised then the Lessee may, during the balance of the term pay $12,000 per year rental in lieu of $8,000 and one-half the net profits.

According to official records, five-sixths of the issued capital of B. C. Paramount Theatres Limited is issued in the name of Famous Players Canadian Company Ltd.

Interest and Sinking Fund on these bonds will amount to $6,850 per year.

This amount is fully taken care of by the rental to be received from the Lessee without taking into consideration any revenue to be derived from profits.

In addition to the above, the Prince Rupert Amusement Company will have a rental of about $2,500 per year from three stores in the new building. This will be more than ample to take care of all real estate taxes and incidental expenses.
