WEDDING IS INTERESTING

MISS PEGGY STEWART BECOMES BRIDE OF WALTER LONGWILL AT CEREMONY LAST NIGHT

A wedding of considerable interest took place last evening at the Manse when Miss Margaret (Peggy) Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Stewart, Edinburgh, Scotland, was united in marriage to Walter Longwill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Longwill of Reading, England. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. Fritsch, pastor of First Presbyterian Church.

The bride was tastefully dressed in a gown of white georgette trimmed with crystal and wore a flowing veil of white net with wreath of orange blossoms and white heather. She carried a shower bouquet of pink Ophelia roses and maiden hair fern.

The bridesmaid, Miss Bina Marshall wore a charming gown of powder blue georgette trimmed with sequins with a picture hat of beige silk crinoline trimmed under the brim with blue georgette and blue velvet ribbon. Her bouquet was of pink carnations and delphiniums.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the brother-in-law and sister of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McMeekin, 341 Fourth Avenue East. Mrs. McMeekin, wearing a gown of beige georgette and lace, assisted in receiving the guests. The house was decorated with carnations and delphiniums and many beautiful gifts were displayed. A buffet supper was served with Mrs. W. W. Wraithall and Mrs. David Ritchie presiding at the urns.

The happy couple sailed at midnight on the Prince George to spend a honeymoon in the south after which they will return to the city to take up residence. Both Mr. and Mrs. Longwill are well known and popular in Prince Rupert, and their many friends will offer their best wishes and congratulations. The bride came out from Scotland a few years ago and has been on the staff of McMeekin's stores. The groom is a pioneer of the city, being engaged in the sheet metal and plumbing business.

KETCHIKAN IS GOOD FIELD FOR NEWEST GYRO ORGANIZATION

The formation of a new Gyro Club at Ketchikan, which will be the first one in Alaska and the farthest north club in the world, seems practically assured following the visit there yesterday of L. W. Waugh, president of the local club, and William Cruikshank, secretary. The officers of the local club who returned home last night, report having met with splendid response during their brief visit at the "First City." They had a conference with about a dozen young business and professional men. The local club will sponsor the new Ketchikan organization if it is finally decided to proceed with it.

NO COMPLAINT REGARD WHAT MACKENZIE KING SAID REGARD TREATY

LONDON, April 27.—There is not the least reason to complain about anything Premier Mackenzie King said in the Canadian House of Commons on March 26 as to Canada's attitude on the recent Anglo-Egyptian treaty negotiations. Lord Salisbury, Government leader, told the House of Lords Thursday in a discussion of the matter.

ARMISTICE DAY TOLD ABOUT AT PRESTON TRIAL

TROOPS THOUGHT "THE STAFF PULLED A BOSSER" WHEN ANNOUNCED

COBOURG, April 27.—Operations of the Canadian corps south of Mons were explained to the jury yesterday by veterans of the Fourth Canadian Infantry Brigade who gave testimony in the libel suit brought by Sir Arthur Currie against W. T. Preston and F. W. Wilson, publisher of the Fort Hope Guide.

It is possible the case will end tonight. How the soldiers of the Nineteenth Battalion received the news that the armistice was signed is described by Captain Joseph O'Neill, M.C., former company commander of that unit. The troops thought "the staff had pulled a bosser," said O'Neill.

Colonel Hopper was also doubtful of the sincerity of the enemy with respect to the armistice, when word was received. Brigadier General J. A. Clarke, M.P. former commander of the Seventh Canadian Infantry Brigade, was a witness yesterday.

DRUM LUMMON MINE OPENING

LOS ANGELES-VANCOUVER MINING CO. TO START WORK ON COAST PROPERTY AT ONCE

Word was received in the city this morning that the Drum Lummon mine near Hartley Bay, under the coast from here, is to be reopened immediately to the newly formed Los Angeles-Vancouver Mining Co. which will carry out considerable development of the property. A party of nine miners came up from Vancouver on the steamer Caradena this trip to institute the work. The Drum Lummon, which is one of the best known properties on the coast and which has shown considerable promise, has been shut down for some time. It has been worked spasmodically for some years but no continuous effort to prove it up has yet been made.

Search for the Killer of Comox Avenue Woman Seems to Have Shifted to Points in the South

HAS the search for the killer of Esther Killas on Comox Avenue on April 17 moved elsewhere? Certain circumstances of recent development might point to the affirmative in answering the query. It is to be noted, at least, that certain city police officers who have been working in plain clothes are back in uniform. And, possibly of greater significance, is the fact that, after a lengthy conference with Inspector Spiller and Sergeant J. P. M. Hannah, Inspector Forbes Cruikshank, chief of the investigation department of the provincial police, who has been working on the case for several days, left hurriedly last night for the south. The police this morning would not say what Inspector Cruikshank was going for or where his destination might be. It must have been for some good reason that he went with the investigation apparently not yet concluded.

There are rumors that some clues of importance have been found. Inspector Spiller would neither confirm or deny this report this morning. Nor would he commit himself on any other aspect of the case. That progress is being made in the investigation might, at least, be judged.

NATIVE DROWNS COW BAY TODAY

ARTHUR COLLISON OF KITKATLA, AGED 30, WAS WELL KNOWN FIGURE IN PRINCE RUPERT

Arthur Collison, aged 30, well known Kitkatla native, lost his life early this morning when he fell into the water off his seineboat, "Collison," which was moored at the Cow Bay floats and was drowned. It was at 10 minutes to three when the accident occurred and the police, who were notified and immediately took charge, recovered the body at 9.55 this morning. An inquest will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon when further details of the tragedy will be revealed by a number of witnesses. Funeral arrangements are in the hands of the B.C. Undertakers.

The deceased is survived, besides a young widow, by his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Collison. Other members of the family, most of whom had come to town to make preparations for the forthcoming salmon fishing season, include a brother, Henry C. Hinch. The family is very well known in the city. The late Arthur Collison was a frequent visitor here. A deformity made him a well known figure.

It is probable that the body will be taken back to Kitkatla for burial after the inquest.

Canon Burd of Saskatchewan quoting immigration statistics yesterday before the House of Commons immigration committee expressed his "very deep alarm" over the preponderance of Europeans entering Canada. Figures were quoted by Canon Burd, "to show that the present system is detrimental to those of us who are living in the west."

Men Who Are Principals in the Big Legal Battle at Coburg, Ont., Best Known as Currie Libel Suit

COBOURG, Ont., April 27. (by the Canadian Press).—The national prominence of the principals engaged in the legal battle at Cobourg, where the war commander of the Canadian Expeditionary Force, General Sir Arthur W. Currie, G.C.M.G., K.C.B., is seeking to obtain $50,000 damages against W. T. R. Preston and F. W. Wilson, of Fort Hope, Ont., for alleged libel, has stamped this litigation as one of the outstanding cases in Canadian jurisprudence.

SIR ARTHUR CURRIE Sir Arthur Currie is one of the citizen-soldiers of Canada who, in the brief space of little more than two years, rose from the rank of Colonel, commanding a brigade of infantry, to Lieutenant-General, commanding an Army Corps of four divisions. At the outbreak of the war, on August 4, 1914, General Currie, who was then in Victoria, B.C., volunteered for active service and on the formation of the 1st Canadian Division at Valcartier, Quebec was offered and accepted, command of the 2nd Canadian Infantry Brigade. He was promoted Colonel while in England in January, 1915, and with this rank proceeded to France in February of that year. Colonel Currie, as he then was, took part with his brigade in the 2nd Battle of Ypres in April, 1915, and for his work in this engagement was awarded the Companionship of the Bath by His Majesty the King, and was also made a Commander of the Legion of Honor by the Republic of France. Colonel Currie participated in the battles of Festubert and Givenchy in May and June of 1915; and, when General Alderson, then commander of the 1st Canadian Division was withdrawn to England, it was to the leader of the 2nd Brigade that command of the division was given, with the rank of Major-General. From September 1915 until June 1917 General Currie commanded his division, and his tenure of office saw him participating in many of the hottest battles of the war. In June 1916 the division was deeply committed once more at Ypres, when the Germans made a strong bid to sweep away Canadian opposition in an effort to open the way to the Channel ports. It was the attacks of his command which restored the ground previously lost to the enemy on Observatory Ridge, Mount Sorrel and Sanctuary Wood.

Seven weeks later saw the Canadians engaged in the protracted struggle on the Somme, and the 1st Canadian Division took part in much of the severe fighting then in progress. On Pozieres Ridge, Moquet Farm, Le Sars, Pys and at the Regina Trench, the 1st Canadian Division delivered attack after attack, contributing much of the eventual withdrawal of the Germans from that area in the spring of 1917. General Currie continued in command of the division for the greater part of 1917 during which time occurred the famous battle of Vimy Ridge, with its subsequent engagements at Arleux and Fresnoy. The 1st Canadian Division participated in all of these actions; but Fresnoy was the last battle in which General Currie led his old division, for, on the promotion of Sir Julian Byng to command of the Third British Army, the command of the Canadian Corps devolved upon General Currie. Simultaneously, he was created Knight Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George.

His first engagement as commander of the Canadian Corps was that at Hill 70 where, according to recent information, the Canadians inflicted on the enemy losses that were proportionately greater than any sustained by the Germans either prior or subsequent to that battle. This was fought in August, 1917. There followed then the heavy fighting Passchendaele Ridge which was captured on November 6, 1917. This closed the active fighting for that year, but in the spring of 1918 the Canadians were engaged in repulsing the strong German attack of March 21 in the vicinity of Lens and of March 29 in front of Arras. It was the Canadian Corps under Sir Arthur Currie which struck the heaviest on August 8 and 9 at Amiens, contributing most to what Ludendorff characterized as "Germany's Black Day." The Germans excused their defeat on those two days by the words of Von Hutier, Ludendorff's brother-in-law, and commander of the defeated German Army: "We were opposed by the elite of the French Army and the celebrated (continued on page six)

PEACE AND PRINCE RUPERT

The season is dragging along and still nothing is being done, at least on the surface, to link up Prince Rupert and Peace River country. People are going into the country in large numbers and next year will see a very greatly increased acreage of land under cultivation. Each year this will have increased. By the time a railway could be built, the output would be very large. What is needed there now is action. We have been asking for it for some time but without results.

LARDER OF THE WORLD

Canada is getting to be to some extent the "larder of the world." The United Kingdom depends to a considerable extent upon Canada for foods and the United States is extending the variety and increasing the volume of its food imports from the Dominion. Following are some of the main foodstuffs exports of Canada in 1927: Grain and grain products, $447,222,564; fish, $32,786,516; meats, $256,293,881; cheese, $22,012,543; living animals, $20,709,685; canned vegetables, $12,760,033; sugar, 11,145,850; fresh milk, $7,850,903; condensed milk, $4,208,975; butter, $1,068,610; and eggs, $168,063. The total value of these few items is approximately $592,000,000, and of this, purchases of the United Kingdom represented $320,000,000 and the United States $71,500,000. The remainder went into every corner of the globe. The title "Larder of the World" would today be appropriate and justified.

VALUE OF BOXING

The value of boxing as a sport is one that has been the subject of a good deal of criticism. It is claimed that the exhibitions staged today are brutal and degrading. On the other hand the claim is made that the race is tending to become soft and more given to pink teas than real manly sport. Men must train themselves to endurance. They must be able to give and take punishment if they are to succeed and if the race is not to deteriorate and disappear before the inroads of the colored races.

Boxing tends to harden a man and to teach him to keep his temper and not squall when he is hurt. It trains the perception, its advocates say.

No matter what the critics say, people flock to a prize fight in ever increasing numbers and the sport is every day becoming more popular.

BEAUTIFYING OTTAWA

There is no objection to spending a certain amount of money on the capital city of Canada but why the rest of the country should be taxed for any extensive scheme we cannot see. We agree with R. B. Bennett, leader of the opposition, that it is necessary to count the cost and to see that all other places have their share. Prince Rupert needs a post office and until we get that necessary improvement we shall object strenuously to a policy such as that being backed by the present government at Ottawa.

NEW WHEAT LANDS

An interesting feature of the Canadian National report and one which affects us very materially, is that which mentions the fact that in Alberta during last year 410,000 acres of land had been broken in Alberta contiguous to their lines and 190,000 acres in Saskatchewan. If that land in Alberta yields twenty bushels to the acre it will give a gross production of over eight million bushels this year. Doubtless this bringing in of new land will continue this year so that it is easily seen how the production of the country from which Prince Rupert draws its supply will continue to produce more and more and we should get an ever increasing share of the product.

SCIENTIFIC PARTY HERE

LOCAL DELEGATION OUT TO MEET HAROLD McCracken AND OTHERS WHO ARE GOING NORTH

STUDENT INDIAN LORE

STOPPED AT KITWANGA TO TAKE MONTHS OF THE TOTEMS EN ROUTE HERE YESTERDAY

There was a good delegation of local people at the train yesterday afternoon, to meet the McCracken exploration party who arrived here to join the schooner Kila M. Morrissey prior to sailing early next week. Milton Gonzalez, vice-president, and A. Brookbank, secretary of the board of trade, F. E. Robertson and Joe Scott, entertainment committee of the board, R. F. McNaughton, representing the railway and several others, including Captain Bartlett of the Morrissey.

The train yesterday stopped at Kitwanga long enough for the party to go through the Indian village where moving pictures were taken. Mr. McCracken himself being an experienced moving picture operator. It was like renewing acquaintances for him to be at Kitwanga for he spent two weeks there not long ago with Harlan I. Smith the Dominion archeologist, studying the Indian totems at that place and neighborhood.

Mr. McCracken is taking with him a set of moving pictures of life in Africa to show the Eskimos in the far north. These were taken for scientific purposes by the Crown Prince of Sweden and some of them have never been exhibited to the general public, the scanty nature of the natives making them censurable for general audiences.

The leader of the expedition has visited Alaska before but has not stopped at Prince Rupert. He is familiar with the native life of the coast.

The group is an interesting one, each of the party having special qualifications for the work to be done. Ed. M. Weyer, the archeologist, spent a year at Luxor where the famous Tutenthamen tomb was opened. Ed. Manley the wireless man, was on the Morrissey on her trip to Baffin Land; F. L. Jaques is an artist of renown, and Andrew Johnston is an expert taxidermist. Dr. Anthony, the naturalist, is following on the next train arriving Sunday.

One of the interesting members of the party hitherto not mentioned in press despatches is "Tough," an English bulldog, owned by Mr. McCracken but adopted by all members of the party and humored and honored as much as any. He is making the round trip to the polar regions.

This evening the party will be guests of the board of trade at a dinner in the Commodore Cafe at 6:30 and tomorrow afternoon they will be entertained by the Women's Canadian Club.

PRINCE RUPERT NEEDS TIMBER

WITHOUT IT, GEORGE NICKERSON SAYS, CITY CAN NEVER EXPECT TO BECOME GREAT

Without the development of the timber in this district we can never expect Prince Rupert to become a big city declared G. W. Nickerson in addressing the Rotary Club at its luncheon meeting yesterday. The value of such men as Chief Hanson to the district is very great.

Mr. Nickerson mentioned that this was forestry week all over the continent. All the people were in the timber business for four million dollars of revenue was derived by the province from it out of a total revenue of nineteen millions. There was an annual payroll of forty millions in B.C. and the total income to the province derived from timber was estimated at eighty millions.

It was estimated that in B.C. the stand of timber covered 149,000 square miles of which 119,000 is still in the hands of the people. The output for the province was 350,000,000 board feet, as to how fast the timber was being used, there were some who said it would all be gone in 20 years and others who said there would be more here in 100 years than there is now. What they did know was that it was an advantage to protect it from fire.

The speaker urged campers and others to see that fires were put out in order that this valuable asset might be conserved.

President Borie asked all to give good heed to Mr. Nickerson's advice.

BARTLETT AND PEARY CRITICS

CAPTAIN OF MORRISSEY TELLS SECRET OF THEIR REACHING NORTH POLE FIRST

"I see red when I hear some of the criticisms of Peary. They do not breed many such men," declared Captain Bartlett at the Rotary Club luncheon yesterday afternoon at the conclusion of a brief address.

The captain told of a number of the difficulties Peary encountered in financing and of his methods in using the Eskimos to get to the North Pole. According to the captain, Peary learned the habits of the Eskimos and followed them with the result that where other explorers starved, he succeeded.

Bartlett is a Newfoundlander and in telling the club that he expressed the hope that Newfoundland would soon be a part of Canada. He told of meeting prominent British people in the Old Country with his commander and how eventually Sir Alfred Harnsworth, later Lord Northcliffe, had made them a present of the Windward and had the boat delivered to them in New York.

Peary started to learn the polar game just as a banker learns to do banking at an early age, and kept it up throughout his life. He got to know the Eskimos, lived their ways, used the same kind of igloos, the Eskimo dress, and by adopting the northern customs lived comfortably and was able to do more than any who preceded him.

CATHOLIC REVIVAL FATHER IS COMING

Father Moriarty, O.M.I., Due Tomorrow From Vancouver to Open Week's Campaign Here

Father Moriarty, O.M.I., well known missionary and revivalist father of the Roman Catholic Church, will arrive in the city on the Prince Rupert tomorrow morning from Vancouver and on Sunday will open a week's series of lectures in the local church. These lectures will be given twice on Sunday and once each day next week.

Father Moriarty was here four years ago when he conducted a similar campaign. From here he will go to Anyox, Stewart and interior points.

MAGIC FLAME IS ODD THEME

The story of "The Magic Flame," feature film tonight and tomorrow, opens in a tiny one-ring Italian circus playing the towns along the Mediterranean where Bianca, the tight rope walker and parachute artist, is in love with Tito, the clown.

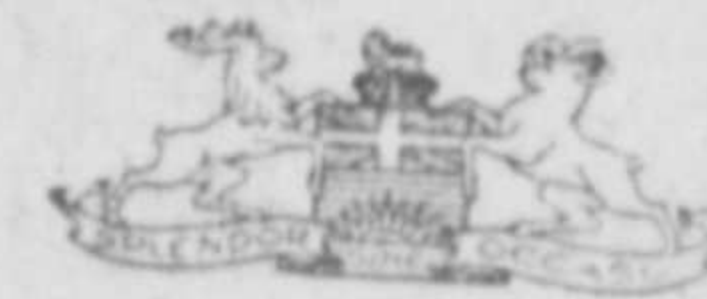

Prince Vittorio, of Ilyria, travelling incognito, meets Bianca as she lands from a parachute jump and immediately falls in love with her. He haunts the circus and incites the antagonism of Tito. When Bianca refuses to succumb to the charms of the Prince, he entices her by a forged note to come to his room at the hotel. Resisting his advances, she escapes by making an acrobatic leap from the window to the limb of a tree.

Not knowing that the girl has escaped, Tito goes to her rescue. In the fight that ensues, the Prince, in leaping at Tito, plunges through the window and over the cliffs into the sea below. Tito, panic-stricken, escapes from the hotel by making use of his remarkable resemblance to the Prince and donning his uniform.

At the door of the hotel, he is met by secret agents of the Ilyrian government who, mistaking him for the Prince, announce that the King is dead and that he is now King. Despite Tito's protestations, mild because vengeance would establish him as the murderer of the Prince, they take him back to Ilyria, leaving Bianca to think that the murdered man is Tito.

In revenge, Bianca leaves the circus and goes to Ilyria, where she attempts to kill the King. Her recognition of the King as Tito, her lover, and the method of their escape unharmed from Ilyria despite the animosity of the old Prince Minister constitutes a vivid drama which Henry King has woven into a new highlight of the cinema. The story ends with Bianca and Tito happily going their "turn again in the little circus of the Mediterranean.

Diabetes Mellitus

Diabetes is not a kidney disease as many people think, but a condition in which the kidneys become involved, and ultimately break down as a result of their strenuous efforts to eliminate sugar from the blood stream.

The presence of sugar in the blood has a double significance. It points out that the cells of the body are not assimilating the much-needed carbohydrates so necessary to its physical economy, besides the irritating effect it has on the kidneys in the discharge of their duties.

Up to date all so-called cures for diabetes mellitus have proved a complete failure.

By my natural methods I do not combat the disease, but aid the natural tendencies of the system to right itself in a crisis.

If you are suffering from diabetes I will be glad to have you call in and allow me to go into your case in detail. This consultation service I will gladly render free of charge.

TERRACE WILL FORM A GOLF CLUB AT ONCE

DECIDED TO GET TEN YEAR LEASE FOR PROPERTY AND PUT IN NINE HOLE COURSE

SITE CLOSE TO TOWN
Fee for Membership Set at Ten Dollars With Which It is Hoped to Carry on TERRACE, April 27.—A public meeting was held in the Terrace Theatre, Tuesday evening, to hear a report of the activities of the golf committee appointed by the board of trade, and to consider a proposition in regard to the starting of a golf course here. The meeting was not largely attended but those who were present were very enthusiastic and before the evening was over the organization of a golf club got away to a good start.

J. K. Gordon was appointed chairman of the meeting with H. Halliwell as secretary.

A. H. Barker was chairman of the committee which have been at work for some time on the project placed before the meeting a proposition for the starting of a nine-hole course on the Little pre-emption near town, which was the only available site where it would be possible to start play immediately and without having a considerable amount of capital involved.

They had obtained from Mr. Little what they considered very advantageous terms on a long time lease of the thirty-five acres in question. The terms of the lease were one hundred dollars per year for the first ten years with the privilege of renewing for another ten years at $200 per year.

Mr. Little also agreed to sell the property outright for eight thousand dollars.

Mr. Barker pointed out many advantages in favor of accepting Mr. Little's terms on the lease agreement.

The site was within easy reach of town so that little time would be used in getting there.

There was a likelihood of having many more local players than if they needed cars to get to the course.

The site was already cleared, seeded and fenced and play could commence at once, whereas if they bought property further out it would be two years at least before play could be started and then only after much trouble, labor and heavy expense.

It was close to the railroad and should be good advertising for the district.

No club house would be necessary at the beginning.

Another big advantage was that it would be possible to get on it two months earlier in the spring than could be done on any outside property.

Under the lease arrangement the project could be dropped at any time, if not successful or if a change of site seemed advisable, with no penalty attached.

If a club was formed all money accruing through fees, after the year's rent was paid, could be used in improving the grounds, so that it would be to the mutual benefit of all concerned to get as many interested as possible.

The only apparent advantage that the site offered was the fact that it could never be extended to an eighteen hole course, but it was felt that if the sport became so popular within a few years time that a large course was required a suitable site could be arranged for and prepared while the smaller one was still being used.

Much interesting discussion followed Mr. Barker's proposition, all present expressing themselves as being in favor of accepting the terms of the lease which were considered to be a big concession on the part of Mr. Little and an arrangement which showed great public spiritiveness on his part.

The amount of the annual fee came up for discussion and it was agreed it should not be too high at first while the course was being got into shape and in order that more persons might be induced to join, then another year, if deemed necessary the fee could be increased. It was finally agreed that $10 per member would be a suitable fee.

In regard to the possibility of obtaining outside members, Mr. Barker said he had been in correspondence with Prince Rupert men who thought that undoubtedly there were many Prince Rupert people who would avail themselves of the chance to play, especially if there was any likelihood of a gas-electric car being put on. Some years ago the matter had been discussed in Prince Rupert but was dropped when a deadlock occurred, the railway wanting assurance of a certain number of passengers before operating the car, and the people wanting assurance of a car before they would agree to action in the matter.

W. H. Burnett, another member of the committee and an experienced golfer expressed approval of the proposition and said the grounds could be put into condition to start with very little expense to begin with and gradually improved as more money came in. Sand greens could be arranged at little expense. The fairways were rough but usable. He felt that the matter should either be dropped altogether or a club formed at the meeting and have the matter taken out of the hands of the board of trade.

On motion it was unanimously decided to form a golf club with the annual fee of ten dollars.

The following comprise the committee appointed Messrs Barker, Burnett, E. T. Kenney, Kirkaldy, Dover.

A vote of thanks was tendered the board of trade committee for their work in the interests of the sport.

YANKEES AND INDIANS EVEN

STRUGGLE FOR SUPREMACY OF AMERICAN LEAGUE CONTINUES —GIANTS WERE BEATEN YESTERDAY

(Special to Daily News)—NEW YORK, April 27.—New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians, with all other teams far down on the list, are continuing their struggle for American League supremacy. Both teams won their games yesterday and are still on even footing as far as the difference between victories and losses are concerned, though the Yankees are a few points ahead in the standing because they have played fewer games than the Indians, Philadelphia Athletics, as a result of a series of recent victories, have climbed from seventh to third place. St. Louis Browns are in fourth place and Washington Senators, beaten several times lately, have been relegated to the second division after having made a promising early season start. Boston is now in the cellar and the Chicago White Sox and Detroit Tigers are not far above them.

New York is still leading the National League but lost yesterday to Philadelphia and the gap between the Giants and the runners-up, St. Louis Cardinals and Chicago Cubs—is now lessened. Brooklyn Dodgers, Cincinnati Reds and Philadelphia are all hanging at the 500 mark unable to win more than one successive game which would put either team up.

The Pittsburgh Pirates have come to life and won two straight games. Boston is still in the basement although it won yesterday by shutting out the Dodgers.

Yesterday's scores were as follows:

NATIONAL LEAGUE
New York 4, Philadelphia 5.	Brooklyn 0, Boston 4.	Cincinnati 2, Pittsburgh 7.	St. Louis-Chicago, cold.
AMERICAN LEAGUE

The financial report for 1928 showed a balance of $124 in the Stuart Benefit Shield fund after all injuries last year had been taken care of. In the general fund, there is a balance of about $50.

The Moose Lodge gave notice that it would be unable to field a team this season.

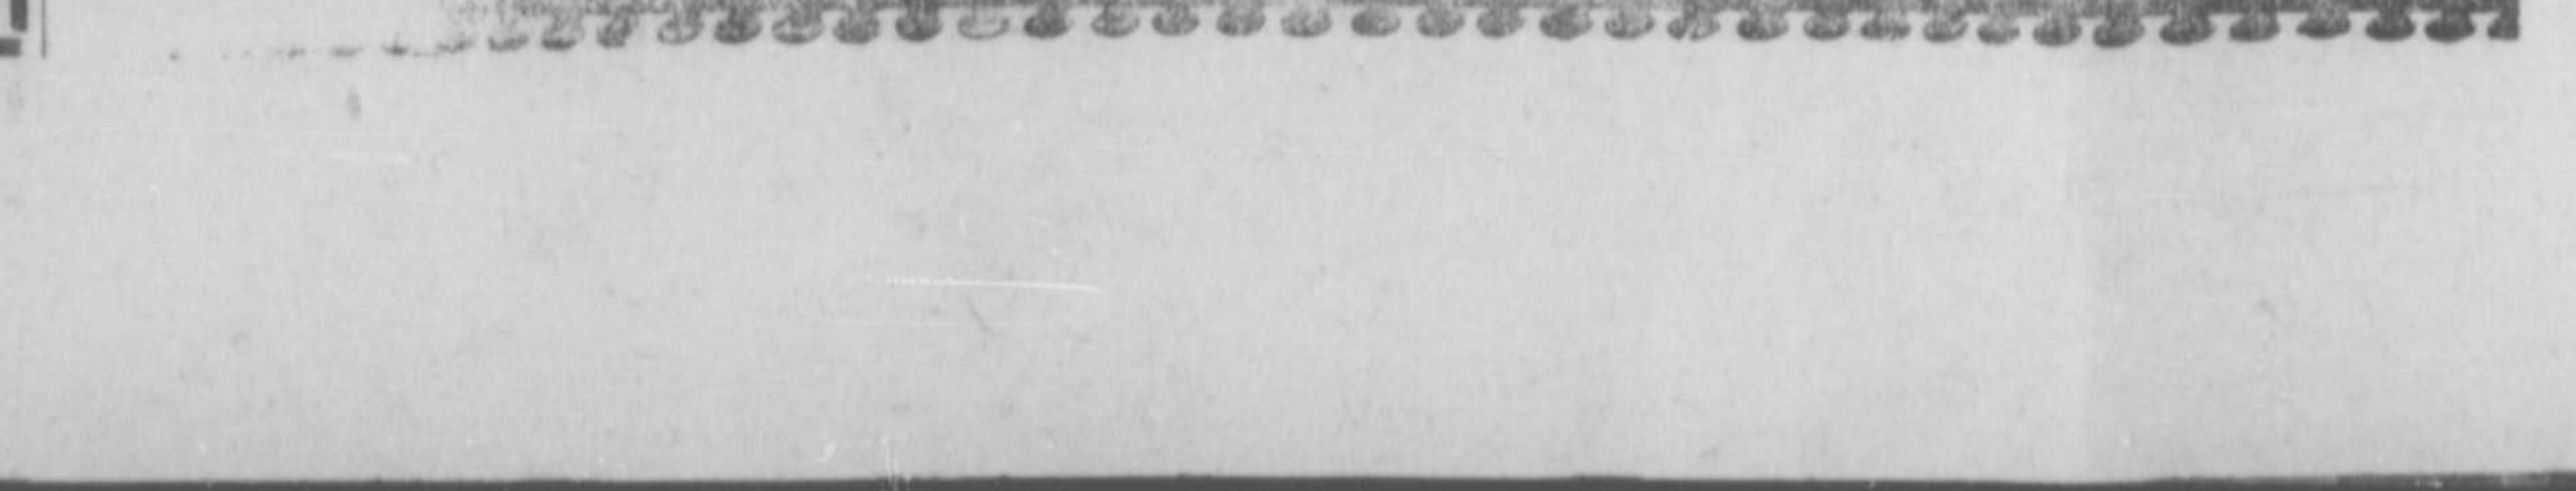

The executive of the association will have a meeting next Tuesday evening

A Bad Case of Eczema

Are you reading the weekly Canadian letters, telling stories of suffering from skin diseases and how relief was effected? Here is part of a letter from Mrs. E. Gibson, Box 112, St. Hubert, Ont. Write her if you desire. "I had a very bad case of eczema on my face and neck, also scalp. Could not find anything to give me relief. One small bottle of D. D. D. gave me great relief, so then I secured a large bottle, and I am now without a blemish!"

The proof of the pudding is in the eating. When a prescription for skin disease has letters of endorsement from nearly every city and town in the Dominion, surely it is enough to convince the most skeptical.

Relief from itching torment is immediate. Try one $1.00 bottle of D. D. D. today on the positive guarantee. And D. D. D. Soap, too.

G. H. Pethick of Smithers, assistant district engineer for the provincial department of public works, has been a visitor here laying out the program of road work in the district for the year. Extensive work is planned including the extension of the highway connecting Hazelton with Terrace.

The Hanson boom at Cedarvale has again been swung across the Skeena River to receive logs from the several camps up the river as far as Skeena Crossing. It is hoped to get all the timber down before the river starts to rise.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gow entertained a number of friends at solo and bridge on Friday evening in honor of Mrs. Frank Wait of Smithers who was visiting with Mrs. John Cuthbert at South Hazelton. Mrs. C. H. Sawie won the solo prize and Mrs. Wait the bridge award.

Mrs. George Parent and son, Louie, left at the end of last week for a trip to Montreal.

Mrs. Pease and children of the Silver Cup mine are spending a couple of weeks in town.

The Oyster Bridge Club met last evening at the home of Mrs. H. W. Thornton. The prizes for the month were won by Mrs. Thornton and Mrs. Goddard.

H. L. Batten, Vancouver mining engineer, after spending some time in the Topley region, was in New Hazelton at the first of the week and inspected the Silver Standard mine.

A daughter was born at the Hazelton Hospital last Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Taylor of Vanderhoof.

Roads between New Hazelton and the Bulkley Valley should be in fairly good shape for travelling by the end of this week.

Mrs. William Grant returned to Hazelton last Sunday after having spent a holiday in Smithers.

PRINCE GEORGE

George Boyce, local automobile dealer, received a shipment of fifteen cars this week.

The week starting April 30 has been designated "Clean-up Week" by the Prince George city council.

"Forest Week" tags here have been distributed by the following local Boy Scouts: Donald Gower, William Quinn, James Van Esmer, Roland Allen, Harvey Perkins, Forest Craig and Allen Davis.

R. C. McCorkell of Vanderhoof has succeeded in moving the mining plant of the Allotte Co. into Manson Creek. The Ogilvie company has also got its plant into the district. The two companies will demonstrate the worth of the gravel in that area during the coming summer.

Spring-like weather has been experienced here during the past week, the highest thermometer reading having been 70.5 on Monday.

SMITHERS

Judge Young in County Court here last week gave judgment for $42.51 with costs in favor of B. J. Shees of Houston who was suing P. J. McGittigan for wages. His Honor declined to relieve the municipality of Smithers of responsibility in the matter of the maintenance of the Belknap children who are now living near Telkwa. In a criminal hearing, Judge Young fined George Say of Hazelton $20 for assault.

Having been given the work by the contractor, Mr. Carson of Vancouver, E. Haun started the excavation and pile-driving for the new High School building here. The building, which is to be ready for occupancy in time for the fall term, will be 66 feet long and 37 feet wide.

During the week a great deal of new machinery has arrived at the Topley-Richtfield mine. The camp is to be lighted by electricity. Progress of development work in the mine discloses very satisfactory results.

Provincial government road work has started in the west end of Omineca district. First work centres on the McDowell hill about two miles east of Telkwa where a dangerous turn is to be cut down and widened, the ultimate intention being to eliminate it altogether by putting in a bridge.

The amount of ore is now taxing the capacity of the mill at the Dutlie mine. As a result of recent rich strikes, production is becoming greatly increased.

A rich strike of high grade silver-lead ore has just been made on the Golden Eagle property at Topley, owned by Heenan and Matheson and being developed by Vancouver interests. Owing to water conditions, work has been closed down temporarily and a pumping plant is now being rushed to the mine.

Four prizes will be awarded by the local assembly, Native Sons of Canada, for the best essays written in the local public schools. V. Crockett, F. Hoadley, L. B. Warner, L. S. McGill and Dr. C. H. Hankinson have been appointed judges. The Native Sons have named the following as committee chairmen for the year: membership, Stuart Campbell; visiting, C. L. Dimock; entertainment, A. R. McDonald; publicity, L. B. Warner; refreshments, J. H. Birnie.

Government Agent and Mrs. Stephen H. Hoskins celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary last Saturday evening. They were married in Fernie on April 21, 1903, guests at their nuptials including Hon. W. R. Ross and Mrs. Ross; James McDonald, well known railway contractor, and Col. J. H. McMullin, now superintendent of provincial police.

Frank H. Taylor has taken an option on the Silver Queen group of claims at Owen Lake from Dr. H. C. Wrinch, M.L.A. He has also similarly acquired the adjacent Cole property. As soon as weather conditions permit, Mr. Taylor will go in to decide on a development program on these properties which lie twenty-six miles from Houston and are served by a fair road.

A meeting of the Omineca branch of the British Columbia Chamber of Mines was held here last night.

There was a large attendance at a variety concert and dance here last Friday night. Those contributing to the program included Mrs. Charles Reid, W. J. O'Neill, Mrs. S. H. Hoskins, Mrs. Williams, Miss Della Carpenter, Rev. J. B. Gibson, Miss Olive Stephens, Miss Margaret Windt, Miss Vera Doodson, Miss Marjorie Warner, Miss Avis Wall, Miss Margaret Downey, Miss Dolly Carpenter, Miss Vera Eby, Miss Geraldine Warner, Mrs. L. B. Warner, J. A. Finney, J. H. Hetherington, G. H. Wall, H. M. Matthews, Bert Wilson and G. H. Gazeley.

Three shifts are being put to work in the lower tunnel at the Victory property which is being developed for Capt. J. J. O'Brien of Philadelphia with F. H. Taylor in charge. Softer rock is now being worked up in the King Tut mine adjoining the Dutlie and it is expected that the roadway will be encountered by May 1. Five men are working under O. Herriott and the tunnel has now been driven 180 feet. Frank H. Taylor has taken a half interest in the property with Capt. J. J. O'Brien of Philadelphia. A fire board has been organized in connection with the Bulkley Valley Farmers' Institute with representatives as follows: Deep Creek, William Cox; Round Lake, J. Clarkson and George Jilmore; Woodmere, Emory Barger; Macleure Lake, Charles Killeen. Two carloads of automobiles arrived here this week for the Smithers Garage & Electric Co. Mrs. E. E. Warner, president of the Associated Barons of Trade of Central British Columbia left at the first of the week for Prince George to address the board there. Austin Goodenough, who has been ill for several weeks, is now sufficiently recovered to make a trip to Cedarvale to watch the progress of the pole drive on the Skeena River. H. N. Monk, accountant at the Topley-Richtfield mine, was a business visitor in town at the first of the week. Sam Marsh for the fifth year is the first autoist of the season to make the trip from Burns Lake to Smithers. He covered the distance of 95 miles in six hours on Sunday. Rev. Father A. YOU know how you douse your dainty lingerie up and down in a bowl of sudsy water... that's the way your clothes are washed in a modern laundry. They are not rubbed or scrubbed but are gently swished back and forth in warm filtered rainsoft water until the pure soap actually foams. Every particle of dirt is loosened without unduly lessening the tensile strength of the fabric. Then come many rinses of rainsoft water so that your laundry washed clothes not only look and feel clean but are scientifically clean.

The Endless Chain

The nervous system is like an endless chain. From the brain every act of the body, conscious or unconscious, is directed. Out of the brain, through the spine, to organ or limb, goes a command, together with the vital energy—the motive power—necessary to performance.

Back from limb or organ, over a sensory nerve, comes word that the command has been obeyed, or that its performance is impossible. The latter is usually a pain wave, and comes always when a spinal bone is pressing upon the nerve concerned. Its message is—"See your Chiropractor!"

By my chiropractic health method I correct diseases of the eyes, ears, nose, throat, lungs, heart, stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels and lower organs.

MEN WHO ARE PRINCIPALS THE BIG LEGAL BATTLE

Canadian Corps." From then on the Canadians delivered blow after blow at the Germans, at Arras in the latter days of August, 1918, the Canal du Nord in September, Cambrai, captured by the Canadians early in October, and so on to Valenciennes and Mons where the war ended on November 11, 1918.

Following the war the Canadian government appointed Sir Arthur Currie to the post of Inspector General of the Forces, a position which was abolished when Sir Arthur resigned to become Principal of McGill University. This function he has filled since 1920 when he succeeded Sir Auckland Geddes, then appointed British ambassador to Washington.

W. T. R. PRESTON

"In the last two decades of the 19th century, now sunk by nearly 30 years beneath time's horizon, all Canadians who took an interest in the country's politics, a definition which included nearly everybody, knew W. T. R. Preston or knew about him." In these terms John W. Daeoe, editor of the Manitoba Free Press, introduces his review of the recently published book by Mr. Preston: "My Generation of Politics and Politicians." Mr. Preston is another of the principals in the libel action, and it is of an article written by him and published in the Port Hope Guide in June 1927 that complaint is made. Mr. Preston is in his 77th year, and those years have been replete with activity. He was born in Bytown six years before it was picked to be the capital of Canada and renamed Ottawa. He was present when the foundation stone of the Parliament Buildings was laid by the Prince of Wales in 1860 and his interest in politics begins in those pre-Confederation years of Canada. He started his political career as a speaker on behalf of the Liberal party in 1878 and it was his immediate success that determined his career.

"For the next 20 years," continues Mr. Daeoe "he was in the thick of the political battle. Then followed 15 years of service abroad in various official capacities. First, in the immigration department, and afterwards as commissioner of trade to Japan, and later to the continent of Europe." Mr. Preston remained in England in 1911 when the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier was defeated in Canada, and he was employed in some important capacities by the British government. With the coming of the Union government during the war, Mr. Preston returned to Canadian politics as the representative overseas of the Canadian Liberals in the war-time elections.

"He returned to Canada shortly afterwards," continues Mr. Daeoe, "was a figure of some prominence in the Liberal convention of 1919, contested a constituency unsuccessfully in 1921, was charged by the Liberal government with various important commissions with respect to freight rates on the Great Lakes and the North Atlantic, between 1921 and 1925, then retired to his old home in Port Hope to write his reminiscences."

It is however in his role of Liberal organizer that Mr. Preston is best known. "Tens of thousands of people noted him in action," says the review, "and came to know him and his characteristics; the slight, wiry active figure, alive with combativeness, the rapid flow of words in a somewhat high-pitched acid voice, the uncompromising unqualified story of the contrast between a party wholly good or nearly so and one trembling on the brink of perdition, the refusal to give or ask quarter. Preston, the organizer, the platform debater, the pamphleteer, the planner of party strategy, was a personification of the Liberal fighting spirit, as it showed itself in the long and never-ending campaign stretching from the disaster of 1878 to the crowning mercies of 1896. He became the best known and certainly the best abused of all the Liberal champions of that time."

Mr. Preston's 77 years present a kaleidoscope in which the great political figures of the past rise up and live again.

The volume referred to is Mr. Preston's second work, the first being his "The Life and Times of Lord Strathcona."

Wilson has been a "country editor," in that period advancing through all the stages of a small provincial newspaper, from "printer's devil" to proprietor. Mr. Wilson, the third principal in this cause celebre, was born in Port Dover 68 years ago. He has been in the newspaper business all his life. The Port Hope Guide, whose destinies he directs, is one of the oldest newspapers in Canada, having been founded in 1831 by William Firth. Interesting in this connection is the fact that some of the type and fixtures employed to set up the paper nearly a century ago were purchased from William Lyon Mackenzie, grandfather of the present Prime Minister, at a time when the leader of the revolt of '37 was issuing "The Patriot" in Toronto.

Some earlier experiences of newspaper work were obtained by Mr. Wilson in Hamilton, Ont., but at the age of 17 he settled in Port Hope and with his father engaged in producing the Port Hope Guide.

"I had all the ups and downs of the country newspaper," said Mr. Wilson, "principally the downs."
Mr. Wilson has made frequent trips to Europe, but in general has not wandered far afield from Port Hope. He is nine years younger than Mr. Preston, with whom he is co-defendant in the suit.

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. A. Johnstone, arrived in port at 11:30 this morning from the south and left afternoon for the Naas River whence she will return to sail from here at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.
