The third member, Dr. Finn Malmgren, the noted Swedish scientist, had been dead for a month.

Malmgren was a member of the Norge expedition of 1926. Mariano and Zappi said they had given up hope in what seemed their last agonizing moments, when the Russian airplane appeared out of the low hanging mist and inspired them with hope.

Kergin Mentioned as a Possibility for Minister of Mines in MacLean Government Says Victoria Dispatch

VICTORIA, July 12.—The latest political suggestion here is that there is a possibility of H. F. Kergin, candidate in Atlin, being taken into the cabinet as minister of mines. It is pointed out that Mr. Kergin represents not only the largest mining constituency in the province but also one that is almost entirely devoted to mining. He is a pioneer in the province and has represented Atlin for about nine years.

It is said that what the government is seeking is a man who knows at first hand the problems of the miners and the mining industry. Mr. Kergin fills that requirement. He has been the instigator of a lot of legislation which has been of great advantage to the prospector, miner and mine owner, and as such has a claim on the position and it is understood his claim is being favorably considered.

Awards in Daily News Great Gift Campaign to Total Nearly $4,000

Two Latest Model New Automobiles Will be Grand Capital Prizes and Cash Also to be Given to Others

Today The Prince Rupert Daily News inaugurates a most stupendous "Everybody Wins Something" automobile and cash gift distribution. Gifts approximating $4,000, including two handsome automobiles and cash prizes as high as $500, are to be distributed among the men and women in Prince Rupert, Northern and Central British Columbia.

This is to be a memorable event. It is to be unlike anything ever before attempted here. It is to be a "Friend Making Campaign."

In addition to the two automobiles and the prizes of cash The Daily News is making it possible for every man, woman, boy and girl who takes part in this distribution to be a prize winner. "Everybody Wins" is the slogan. And everybody DOES WIN.

That every one participating in this campaign may know in advance that "Everybody Wins," The Daily News has set aside a sum of money to be paid in commissions. This is over and above the prizes.

Did you ever hear of anything more fair? No, and no one else ever did. WORK IN SPARE TIME

Very little is required of you to win. You have the time, plenty of it. An hour a day properly spent among your neighbors and friends for The Daily News is sufficient to win the biggest gift in the list. You have the time. Really, your spare time—a few minutes of an evening—is worth more to you these next few weeks than any full-time employment you could imagine. Yet it is but a side issue—a spare-time proposition. It is a business proposition. Nothing more. There is no sentiment about it. To earn money honorably is desirable. The money and the big, handsome cars are now provided. They are here for you.

YOU CAN NOT LOSE

You can not lose. If you comply with the easy rules of the campaign you will be well paid for every minute of your time. Every active non-gift winner is given an ABSOLUTE GUARANTEE that he or she will be paid for his or her time—one-tenth of every subscription is yours if you fail to land one of the big gifts. That, in itself is a good business proposition. We all have spare moments after work that we turn into cash.

There is one thing, however, that is certain. There is absolutely no way you can secure one of these gifts—either cars or cash—except by votes. There are two ways you can get votes. One is by collecting the free vote coupons which will appear in each issue of The Daily News. The other is by securing new subscriptions or renewals.

Cut out or tear out the nomination blank in this issue of The Daily News. Write your name, your address and, if you have a telephone, your telephone number. Mail or bring your nomination to The Daily News campaign office. That is the first step. That starts you off with 5,000 votes.

Nominations may be made by any one for any one. A nomination is a nomination. A friend can nominate you. You can nominate a friend. You can nominate yourself. But only one nomination counts for each entry. No one is barred. Men, women, boys and girls are all eligible. Make the start. Let's go!

SHORT AND SNAPPY

This campaign will not be a long drawn out affair of several months' duration. It extends over a period of only a few weeks. It closes September 14, 1928. Think of securing in just a few short weeks, gifts that would ordinarily require months, yes, even years of self-denial and saving to acquire—and these are given to you for your spare time and a little interest in helping The Daily News enlarge its subscription list.

INFORMATION AND ASSISTANCE

In order to give every one who participates in this big campaign the greatest possible assistance, and to properly handle the circulation so that each new subscriber will get his paper promptly and to avoid confusion, The Daily News has secured the services of a Circulation Campaign Manager. He is thoroughly experienced in this line of work. He will give his entire time and attention to those who desire to take part in this gift distribution. If there is anything you want to know about this campaign, anything you do not understand, call and see him, or telephone him.

The Daily News campaign office (located on the second floor of The News building, 243 Third Avenue, Prince Rupert) will be open from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. each day. You will always find the Circulation Manager here. Put him to work for you. He will be glad to help. Telephone him if you wish. Telephone 534. If you prefer a representative of The Daily News will call and explain just how to go about winning the gift of your choice, if you request it.

THE PORK BARREL

The Tolmie faction of the Conservative party in British Columbia expresses itself as very much concerned over what it calls "the pork barrel policy" of the Liberal party.

Premier MacLean says he thinks he is better able to do business with the friendly Dominion government than the man who for years had organized the Conservative forces against them. Then, from purely selfish interests, the people should return MacLean in order to have the railway deal completed. That is the pork barrel policy.

And, after all, throughout life we adopt the pork barrel policy. All business is selfish, most religions are selfish and mostly politics is a selfish business. We elect a man because we think he will help to make conditions better than if we elect the other man. So today it is suggested to electors of British Columbia that they would be wise to elect a supporter of the present government rather than an opponent because the country is likely to benefit from such action. That is the pork barrel policy.

We have two good men offering themselves for election. Undoubtedly Mr. Pattullo is the more able of the two but Mr. Thompson is also an able man and will do his duty as he sees it. We think all will agree about that. The Conservatives could not have made a better choice. But Mr. Pattullo is a member of the government that is able to help us. He can help dispose of the P.G.E. to advantage and he can help us in our fight for recognition here. He has represented us well and there is no good reason why he should not continue to do so. Prince Rupert needs to consider the pork barrel a little just now.

SUCCESSION DUTIES

(Vancouver Star)

When it is demanded that particular taxes be done away with it should also be stated from what source the deficiency of revenue is to be made up. If the succession duties are abolished, taxation to an equal amount must be obtained elsewhere, presumably from industry and labor. As at present imposed, the succession duties bear very lightly on small inheritances, and much more lightly on large inheritances that go to near relatives than on those that go to distant relatives. Surely, as in the latter case, a remote connection who inherits a million say, that he has done nothing whatever to earn, and of which he might have been deprived had the testator so decided, may well be asked to contribute a reasonable sum to the expenses of the government that has protected the property constituting his legacy.

KERGIN FOR MINISTER

The despatch we publish today suggesting that H. F. Kergin may quite possibly get the portfolio of mines in the cabinet of the MacLean government is interesting in that it indicates the value placed on the Atlin member in the capital.

So far as this paper is concerned we shall be glad to lend our support in helping Mr. Kergin get the portfolio. We believe he is well qualified and that his appointment would be popular in the north. If we all unite in a request to the provincial authorities it is quite probable we may succeed.

WONDERFUL ADDRESS

The address by Hon. A. M. Manson at the big meeting last night was the most remarkable political speech ever heard in Prince Rupert. There was almost a total absence of flippancy. So serious was it that one might have fancied himself at a religious instead of a political meeting. The hall was packed to the doors and it was impossible to have been present and not be impressed with the righteousness of the Liberal cause in the present campaign. No sign of dissent was there to anything said and indeed it would have been difficult to argue, so complete was the case made by the attorney general in favor of the return of the present administration.

HUGE AUDIENCE HEARD MANSON TELL WHY LIBERALS SHOULD BE RETURNED BY ELECTORS.

...the Liberal members, the Council. An over British Columbia the annual meeting was being held and on July 10 the directors would be decided upon. The speaker suggested the following questions for the shareholders to consider in reaching their decision:

FOURFOLD POLICY

1—How had business been under these directors? Had the assets been developed and had progress been satisfactory?

2—What kind of administration had been given? Had it been honest and reasonably efficient and were the finances in good shape?

3—In examining the statute book, was the legislation passed in the interests of the rank and file? Had the government made good to the common humanity of the province? Had the legislation which was passed encouraged business?

4—What policy had the directors to offer for the future. Was it retrograde, standstill or forward looking?

There should also be examined the policies of those who would substitute the present government as well as criticisms that had been made. One criticism was that the debt had increased tremendously and was a burden upon the people. Another was that the rate of taxation had gone up. Still another was that the directors had been reckless in their expenditure and had spent money without bounds.

WHISPERING CAMPAIGN

Mr. Manson described briefly the fact that personalities, insinuation, abuse and whispering should enter into the campaign. Though it had been seldom if ever that such a campaign of maligning had proven profitable, there were incidents of indiscreet abuse in this campaign. For instance, Mr. Pooley, the first lieutenant of Dr. Tolmie, had said that Dr. MacLean was unworthy of belief, that he would not believe him on a stack of Bibles, that he was touched in the upper-story. That type of speech-making, the speaker believed, would cost Mr. Pooley his seat. His fine constituents would resent and condemn that kind of language.

Mr. Manson referred to the serious charges that had been launched a year ago by Mr. Twigg, the Conservative of Victoria. To investigate those charges, the senior judge of the land, Mr. Justice Morrison; a churchman of fifty years standing, Rev. J. S. Henderson, and a leading Vancouver Conservative and prohibitionist, W. H. Malkin, had been appointed. They had heard all the evidence and their verdict was unanimously that there was not a jot or tittle of evidence to support the charges. "Yet I see in a window on the street here a cartoon of the same old insinuation—a fair sample of what men without a case will resort to." Mr. Manson also referred to a Conservative pamphlet, bearing a genial face upon its frontispiece, which devoted considerable space to his (Mr. Manson's) department and described him as "almost inhuman wretch or most despicable type." Why if it is true, I do not think you have a estimation of me. It is just another part of the campaign of insinuation, vilification and whispering.

ACCELERATOR OR BRAKE

While no government should take all the credit or all the responsibility for the progress and business of the country, a government could act as an accelerator or brake upon the wheels of progress. He asked the audience to consider how business had been in this progress. In this connection, the speaker gave many facts and figures to show how the basic industries of the province had increased in the period from 1916 to 1926. Agriculture had shown an increased production of 192 percent; population had increased 38 percent but imports had gone up only 20 or 22 percent while exports had increased 300 percent. Due largely to the administration of Mr. Pattullo, lumber production had seen an increase of 240 percent, waterborne trade going up 994 percent and pulp and paper production rising by 368 percent. Mineral production had gone up 101 percent until now B. C. produced a quarter of the mineral wealth of the Dominion. The production of the fishing industry had increased by 75 percent and the average increase of the province's industries was 101 percent. Was that not a magnificent increase?

Speaking of local affairs, Mr. Manson spoke briefly of the political opposition to the development of the Port of Prince Rupert—both federally and provincially. It would amaze the people here to know how petty and jealous certain other portions of the province had been in the matter of the development of this part of the province. "But you have been fortunate," asserted Mr. Manson, "to have had Hon. T. D. Pattullo to fight on your behalf." The speaker referred to the advances that had been made by this port in a short space of two years. There was the new mill at Seal Cove and the second one building at the other end of the Island; the magnificent elevator, better streets and many other improvements.

POOR ADVERTISING

Why should people lose their common sense and why should they be bitter in surveying the progress of the province as a business proposition? Any reasonable person could not but admit that magnificent progress had been made. "Capital is now coming into British Columbia as it never came before in this province, or, for that matter, any part of Canada or the United States in history. But what is the message that Dr. Tolmie and his supporters broadcast through all Canada and the United States and even to the ships in the Pacific Ocean? That British Columbia is in the doldrums, she is distressed, groaning under a burden of taxation, the boys and girls are leaving the land and business is broken down. What do you think of a party that would pay the price for power of besmirching the fair name of the province? It is an ill bird that fouls its own nest."

Mr. Manson referred to the development of power and the strides that were being made in that connection in the province. Politics had crept in and Prince Rupert, in its early days, had blundered, yes, woefully blundered, when it had stopped the development of electrical energy here and prevented the industries from coming in. Too late, the mistake was now realized and many would undo what they had done. "But let me tell you, you may get another chance. Mr. Pattullo is working hard and if you again give us five members from the north we will make our voice heard and may be able to rectify the terrific mistake that the people of Prince Rupert made."

In the matter of administration, Mr. Manson referred to the fact that each of the directors gave one was a husband and a father. Each had taken into the cabinet a record of successful private business and personal honor. "There are no drunks or profligates but a body of men I am proud to be associated with. When the Liberals had taken office, the financial situation was so bad that the banks had gone so far as to warn the government that it could not honor its cheques unless an adequate increase was made in taxation. After years of continuous deficit and saddled with a load of unprovided for debt, the government had so administered that, in all its twelve years of office, there was not a single year when expenditures had exceeded revenue. It was true that the debt had been increased but much service had been given. In the matter of the increase of the debt, the Conservatives, however, might be fair. They said that the debt had increased from $20,000,000 to $100,000,000. But they took on one hand the net debt they had left and, on the other, the gross debt now. The true figures were in 1916 a net debt of $20,000,000 and a gross debt of $25,000,000; in 1927 a gross debt of $79,000,000 and a net debt, deducting sinking and repayment funds, of $45,000,000. The fair comparison was $20,000,000 and $45,000,000. Then Mr. Manson explained how this increased debt had come about—in building highways, liquidation of old debt, the University buildings, institutions such as Tranquille sanitarium, Boys' Industrial school, Home for the Deaf and School for the Blind, soldiers housing, soldiers' employment, continuation of the P.G.E. Even with all this, the debt of British Columbia was less than that of some cities of the Dominion.

RETURNED MEN

Speaking of what had been done for thirty percent more returned men who had come to the province than had left here for the war, Mr. Manson asserted that it had been not only the duty but the privilege of the province to give some service to these men in return for the great services they had given for the country. He told, how, in every department of the government returned men were given the preference in employment. It had been a case of give employment or have a bread line and the government had chosen the former although it had increased the debt. "We have made some mistakes, we admit, for we are only human and average business men, but

THE DAILY NEWS Reserves the Right to Add to the Prize List

The Plan in Brief

The object of this distribution is two-fold—primarily to increase the already large subscription list of The Prince Rupert Daily News, to collect arrears and advance subscription payments from present or old subscribers, and at the same time to afford our friends and readers an unparalleled opportunity to profit and in a big way, through their spare time during the next few weeks. So it is a plan that works both ways, and to the ultimate good of all concerned.

In order to gain this end quickly and advantageously, the most valuable and attractive list of prizes ever offered by a local newspaper in this section of the country has been made ready for distribution among those who participate most heartily. Ambition and energy are the only requisites for success.

The plan adopted is the fairest and most impartial conceivable. There will be no "double vote" offers, extra votes given or any other vote inducements whatever inaugurated during the competition except as outlined in this announcement. Neither will there be any long term subscriptions accepted. The plan of the campaign is straight-forward and simple and is fully outlined in this announcement.

Let it be fully understood at the very outset that this is not a "beauty" nor "popularity" contest, but a strictly legitimate competitive proposition for enterprising men and women, and boys and girls, and one in which no element of chance enters. One feature of this competition is the fact that there will be no losers in this race.

HOW TO ENTER THE CAMPAIGN

The first step, in order to become a candidate and compete for a prize, is to clip the nomination coupon appearing on this page; fill in your name and address and mail or deliver to the campaign department of The Daily News, 243-3rd Avenue, Prince Rupert, B.C. This coupon entitles you, or the person whom you nominate, to 5000 FREE votes. These votes are given you as a starter, and speed you on your way to win. Only one such nomination coupon will be credited to each candidate. You may nominate either yourself or a friend.

HOW VOTES ARE SECURED

The next step is to call on or write the campaign department for a free working outfit (consisting of a special receipt book, sample copies of the paper and full information relative to launching an active campaign).

Thus equipped, you have but to go to your friends and neighbors, relatives and acquaintances, and have them clip all the free coupons from their papers or pay up a subscription to The Daily News through you. THAT'S ALL THERE IS TO IT. However, you will never win anything unless you make the start; and while it will not be a very difficult matter to capture one of the big prizes, nevertheless you should start at once. You must plan out your campaign the same as any successful business man plans his work for the season, and, above everything else, let no one discourage you, but stick to the finish. Anything worth having is worth striving for. A few short weeks and you can be riding in your own automobile.

It takes votes to win and votes are secured in three ways: First, by clipping the free voting coupons appearing in each issue of the Daily News. Begin by gathering them now. In a short time these coupons will be reduced to a lesser number of votes. The only restriction placed on coupons is that they must be deposited at the campaign department of The Daily News on or before the expiration date printed thereon. Get your friends saving these coupons for you—they all count.

Votes can also be secured by using the opportunity and first and second week coupons which will appear in this paper. Instructions to how these coupons are to be used will be printed on them plainly.

The other, and fastest way to get votes is by securing new and renewal subscriptions to The Daily News. On each subscription turned in a certain number of votes are issued, the number varying according to the amount paid and during which "period" same are received at the campaign department (see schedule of votes elsewhere). So, you see, the more subscriptions you secure the more votes you get and the better your opportunity is to secure the grand capital prize.

EARLY START MEANS EASY FINISH!

The advantages of an early start are manifest. Not only do you have the FULL TIME in which to secure the winning votes, but now and up to and including Monday, August 20, you will receive the maximum schedule of votes on subscriptions. Then, too, the first in the field will undoubtedly get the "cream" of votes and subscriptions, while those who put off entering until a later date will have to take what is left.

Don't lose valuable time waiting to "see what the other fellow is going to do," but pitch right in and show the "other fellow" how to do it.

THE ADVISORY BOARD OF JUDGES

It is the sincere aim of this newspaper to conduct this campaign, from start to finish, in a fair, honorable and impartial manner. Every precaution has been taken to safeguard the interests of participants, and absolute honesty in all dealings is guaranteed.

However, not all wisdom lies with any one man or institution, and for that reason an Advisory Board has been decided upon, whose function shall be to decide any question of sufficient moment that might happen to arise during the competition and from which a committee shall be selected to act as judges and count the votes the last night of the campaign.

The personnel of the Advisory Board of Judges is as follows:

- Col. S. P. McMordie, Mayor.
F. E. Robertson, Bank Manager.
C. H. Orme, Druggist.
J. W. Scott, Hardware Merchant.
H. B. Rochester, Hotel Proprietor.

All the members of the Advisory Board are well known to every one in Prince Rupert and surrounding territory, and the results as given out by them will be beyond dispute.

In the event a member of the advisory board or a near relative of any member of the advisory board should enter this campaign it will automatically eliminate that member from being chosen a judge to help count the votes the last night of the campaign.

Rules and Regulations

1. Any reputable man, woman or child residing in Prince Rupert City, and those parts of the province of British Columbia and surrounding territory which are covered by the Daily News is eligible to enter this campaign and compete for a prize. Nominations may be made at any time during the campaign.

2. No person employed and working in the offices of the editorial department, business office or composing room, or near relative of any person in the business office of The Daily News is eligible to enter this distribution. The management reserves the right to reject any nominations at any time, without giving reasons for so doing. Children under 16 must have the written consent of parent or guardian.

3. The winners of the prizes will be decided by their accredited votes, said votes being represented by ballots issued on subscriptions, by free voting coupons clipped from the paper, and by votes issued on the nomination coupon, the first subscription coupon, first and second week coupons and the opportunity coupons. At the option of the management votes may also be issued for the sale of advertising due bill cards, and the management herewith reserves the right to incorporate this feature at any time during the campaign. In the event the sale of ad cards is added to the campaign votes will be issued on them on the same basis as on 1 year subscriptions.

4. Candidates are not confined to their particular town or community in which to secure votes and subscriptions, but may take orders anywhere in this section, or, for that matter, anywhere in the Province, the Dominion, or the entire world.

5. Cash must accompany all orders where votes are desired and under no conditions will any moneys turned in for subscriptions be refunded. There will be no exceptions to this rule. Candidates will be allowed to collect back subscriptions and renewals as well as entirely new subscriptions and votes will be issued on both.

6. Votes are free. It costs the subscriber nothing extra to vote for his or her favorite. Subscribers should ask for votes when paying their subscriptions at The News Office, otherwise they will forfeit this privilege.

7. Votes cannot be purchased. Every cent accepted through the campaign department must represent subscriptions.

8. Votes are not transferable. Candidates cannot withdraw in favor of another candidate. Should a candidate withdraw from the race, his or her votes will be cancelled. Neither will it be permissible for candidates to give, or transfer subscriptions to another candidate. Votes on such transferred subscriptions will be subject to disqualification at the discretion of the management. (With the consent of the campaign manager, however, a candidate may withdraw from the race and transfer his or her votes and subscriptions to an entirely new candidate or new worker).

9. Any effort or collusion on the part of any candidate or candidates to discourage competition by the spreading of false rumors or exaggerated stories, or anything done by any candidate or combination of candidates to the detriment of this newspaper will be tolerated. Any candidate or candidates entering into or taking part in any such agreement, arrangement or effort, will forfeit all rights to a prize or commission.

10. Any votes issued on subscriptions may be held in reserve and voted at the discretion of the candidates. The printed coupons appearing in each issue of the paper must be voted before the expiration date appearing thereon.

11. In the event of tie for any one of the prizes, a prize identical in value will be given each of the candidates.

12. No statement or promise made by any solicitor, agent or candidate varying from the rules and statements published through the columns of this newspaper, will be recognized by the publishers.

13. In case of typographical or other error, it is understood that neither the publisher nor the campaign manager shall be held responsible except for the necessary correction upon the same.

14. Every candidate is an authorized agent of The Daily News and as such may collect arrears and subscription payments from present as well as from new subscribers.

15. Extensions of subscriptions will receive votes according to the regular vote schedule in effect when the first subscription was paid, except that no extension votes will be given the final period.

16. It is distinctly understood and agreed that candidates will be responsible for all moneys collected and that they will remit such amounts in full at frequent intervals, or on demand to the campaign department.

17. There will be several big prizes awarded, besides a 10 per cent cash commission to all ACTIVE non-prize winners, but it is distinctly understood that in the event ANY candidate becomes INACTIVE failing to make a weekly cash report, be or she will, at the discretion of the management, become disqualified and thereby forfeit all right to a prize or commission. The 10 per cent commission will be paid only on moneys turned in for subscriptions, and subscriptions only. No commission will be awarded to a prize winner. READ THIS RULE OVER AGAIN.

18. The week of August Sixth to August Eleventh, both inclusive, will be known as opportunity week. During this time there will be a vote bonus of one hundred thousand extra votes for every four renewal subscriptions of not less than one year each; two hundred thousand extra votes for every four new subscriptions of not less than one year each and three hundred thousand extra votes for each six year subscription, either new or renewal, but only four six-year subscriptions can be turned in by any candidate to apply on this extra offer.

19. To insure absolute fairness in the awarding of the prizes, the race will be brought to a close under a "sealed ballot box" system, and will be under the personal supervision of two or more judges selected from the Advisory Board. During the entire last period of the campaign, the box-locked and sealed—will repose in a local business house, where candidates and their friends will deposit their final collections and reserve votes. And not until the race has been declared closed, will the seals be broken, the box un-locked and the judges begin the final count. In this way, no one, not even the campaign manager, can possibly know the voting strength of the respective candidates, which precludes any possibility of favoritism and insures fairness to the minutest degree.

20. The management reserves the right to amend or add to the rules of this campaign, if necessary for the protection of the interests of both the candidates and this newspaper. The right is also reserved to increase and add to the list of prizes.

21. The Daily News guarantees fair and impartial treatment to all candidates, but should any question arise, the decision of the management will be absolute and final.

22. Two hundred thousand extra votes will be awarded each candidate with every three one-year subscriptions, or the equivalent turned in during their first week in the campaign; one hundred and fifty thousand extra votes will be awarded each candidate with every three one-year subscriptions, or the equivalent, turned in during their second week in the campaign. These are in addition and above all regular votes, but this arrangement will not be in effect during the last period of the campaign.

23. All extra votes will be issued and credited to the accounts of the various candidates at the convenience of the campaign manager.

24. The spreading of malicious propaganda and rumors intended to slow up and discourage other candidates is not permitted. It will not be tolerated and endangers a candidate's ability of same to disqualification.

25. Campaign opens today—Closes September 14, 1928. IN ACCEPTING NOMINATIONS CANDIDATES AGREE TO ABIDE BY THE ABOVE CONDITIONS.

It should be thoroughly understood by every one that the prices as listed on this page for these prize cars are the present market price on these cars and subject to change without notice. In case the market price should take a drop on either of these cars during the period of this campaign The News is contracting only to deliver to the car winners the model cars listed on this page, regardless of what the retail price of the prize cars might be at the expiration of the campaign.

HOW THE TERRITORY IS DIVIDED

The territory covered by The Prince Rupert Daily News will be divided into two districts for the purpose of assuring an equitable distribution of the many prizes in the mammoth "Everybody Wins" campaign, with a complete set of prizes for each district. The territory covered by The Daily News comprises Prince Rupert City, Northern British Columbia and adjoining territory.

DISTRICT NO. 1, will include only those participants residing within the city limits of Prince Rupert. One of the Prize Cars and as many cash awards as there are active participants will be awarded to participants living in this district.

DISTRICT NO. 2, will include only those participants residing outside the city limits of Prince Rupert. One of the Prize Cars and as many cash awards as there are active participants will be distributed to participants living in this district.

HOW THE PRIZES WILL BE AWARDED

Every active participant in The Prince Rupert Daily News Free Gift Distribution will receive either a cash commission, a cash prize or one of the two excellent cars. The person polling the greatest amount of votes in the campaign, regardless of which district he or she may be in, will receive the Grand Capital Prize which is a 1928 Model Pontiac 2-door Sedan. Then the candidate who is highest in the other district will receive the Ford Tudor Sedan. Then the candidate who has the next highest number of votes in the campaign—regardless of which district he or she may be in—will receive the prize of $500 in cash. Then after the two prize cars and the $500 cash prize have been awarded, the two persons in the two respective districts with the next highest number of votes will each receive $100.00 in cash. All other non-prize winning candidates (those who do not win one of the above gifts) in each district, will each receive a cash commission equal to 10 per cent of all money he or she has turned in for subscriptions, according to the rules of the campaign.

This plan assures that each district will receive one of the cars; that either district can win the $500 cash prize; that each district will receive one of the $100 cash prizes, and that each and every active candidate who does not win one of the big prizes will be well paid—on a basis of ten per cent—for every effort he or she puts forth in the campaign.

$1,500.00 - - - IN CASH - - - $1,500.00

A Special Fund of $1,500 in Cash has been set aside to be distributed in the form of salaries among active non-prize winners on a 10 per cent basis. Any candidate who remains active through the campaign, making a regular weekly cash report, but fails to win one of the Big Prizes offered, will participate in this commission feature. Think of it! One-tenth of every subscription you collect goes into your pocket if you fail to win a prize. This assures compensation to all candidates—there will be no losers in this race. Could anything be fairer or more liberal?

and the bankers say?" The speaker referred to steps that were being taken to reduce the debt. And the real test was that of taxation. Whereas, in the ten years previous, taxation had been 10.9 percent of what the people produced, it had been 7 1/2 percent in the last ten years.

BENEFIT COMMON PEOPLE
Mr. Manson then dealt with legislation. He did not mean to take away from Mr. Bower the credit for instituting the Workmen's Compensation Act but he would say the present government had greatly increased its scope and benefits. Some of the legislation this government had passed to benefit the common people and with which Mr. Manson dealt in detail included free employment service, eight-hour day, mining regulations, weekly half holiday, old age pensions, adopted children's act, rural nursing, deserted wives act, prospective mothers act, minimum wage, legitimate children, mothers pensions, etc., etc.

In connection with old age pensions, Mr. Manson asserted that Conservatives, including Dr. Tolmie, had persistently voted against the measure both in federal and provincial houses. Mr. Peuley had asked that the bill be withdrawn and a resolution substituted. "You can't vote for Tolmie and Peuley and vote for the old timers at the same time."

The minimum wage act provisions, Mr. Manson held, gave a living wage to white men, and in so doing, he contended tended to eliminate Orientals to a large extent.

Mr. Manson told how Canon Hinchcliffe had never been able to prove his assertions regarding mothers' pensions though he had been given ample opportunity. "It is one thing to say and another to prove. Yet Joshua Hinchcliffe comes on this very platform and high sheds tears over mothers' pensions."

CO-OPERATE WITH LABOR
Mr. Manson referred to praise that had been given the British Columbia government for its social legislation, even by the head of Labor in Canada, Tom Moore. "That is why we are supporting Labor and Labor is supporting us." Mrs. Paul Smith of Vancouver, with no previous political affiliations, had felt it her duty to accept the Liberal standard because of the legislation the government had passed for women. "How can women but support a government which has done so much for women and children?" Charles Upper was a Labor man who had said it his duty to accept the Liberal standard.

"As for Dr. Tolmie and the Vancouver millionaires from Shaughnessy resign the common people could expect little from them. Dr. Tolmie had said he would reduce the succession duty tax. And who would that benefit? Dr. Tolmie's millionaire friends, of course. Mr. Manson told of hearing with his own ears. General A. D. McRae said that "I cannot do anything else because Tolmie is the man I chose."

BITTERNESS AND FEUD
There was bitterness and feud in the Conservative camp, asserted Mr. Manson. General McRae had wanted the leadership but could not get it. Though it was in the interests of government that there should be a good opposition well led, Dr. Tolmie had refused repeated opportunities to take his seat in the house and had not left Ottawa until trouble threatened in his own party. Was that discharging his duty as leader of the opposition. Mr. Manson paid his respects to Mr. Peuley, stating that he was an extremely weak leader and had not even been mentioned at Kapiipoos.

Finally Mr. Manson dealt with the Tolmie manifesto. Dr. Tolmie said that he would encourage the use of Canadian books in B.C. Schools. He alone was a patriot. The speaker quoted the words of Ben Johnson: "Patriotism is the last refuge of a scoundrel." Dr. Tolmie had said that he would make a week-end trip up the P.G.E. and then say what he would do. At Nelson he had read his policy from the back of an envelope. The speaker paid his respects generally to the manifesto. "Now which will you choose," concluded Mr. Manson "a house in disorder, dissension, bitterness and controlled by a few men or a house in order and unanimity, a house which chose its new leader unanimously after three minutes of deliberation? Will you choose, Mr. Thompson, fine citizen that he is, to go as a junior member in the opposition, for thirty seats there is no doubt we will get, or send back the Minister of the crown who has served not only you but this province faithfully and well for so many years? Let me suggest that you will best serve yourselves and the province of British Columbia by returning as your member the Honorable T. D. Pattullo."

Mr. Manson was given an ovation at the close of his address and many of his former friends went up to greet him before leaving the hall.

While the National League is experiencing one of the lean seasons in its history, the attendance in the American has not been so good. With the race regarded practically as over, in so far as the pennant is concerned, the fans patronize the games in which the world champion New York team appears and preserve an attitude of more or less friendly indifference to many of the others. The Huguenot attract great crowds at home and on the road. Some few years ago, when the Athletics were in eighth place, they played Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday at New York and got more for "their bit" than they got in a two weeks' stand at home.
 Supreme indifference pervades flistic circles over the forthcoming Tunney-Heney "championship" battle, according to New York despatches. All the approved methods of ballyhoo fail to stir out of their lethargy quarters usually highly enthusiastic over heavyweight titular matches. Tunney, although he whipped Dempsey 17-out of 20 rounds in their Philadelphia and Chicago contests, is not the picturesque battler that was Dempsey. Heney earned a chance with Tunney, but he defeated no very high-class "heavies." It must be said for him, however, that he did all that was required of him. Sponsors of the Tunney-Heney meeting plainly are becoming concerned over the apathy of the so-called experts, and the public generally. Hype Igooe of The New York Evening World, insists that Dempsey and Tunney will meet again.

SPORT CHAT
 There should be no alibi in regard to condition tomorrow night of the principles in the Gurvich-Clark bout as both boys finished training last night in strenuous workouts and they are said to be in the pink of condition waiting for the bell. There is plenty of confidence in both camps and it is hard to pick a winner. The local boy has gained a lot of followers from his workouts. Gurvich has plenty of confidence. Clark is not talking but says he will demonstrate Friday night. The semi-final between heavyweights will bring together Norway vs. Sweden. Everyone is waiting to see the big boys box and there is plenty of interest here. The bouts will start at 9 o'clock following the football game.
 The complete card follows:
 Pete Chenoski vs. Young Batt.
 Tommie DeMarco vs. Ned Gurvich.

CRICKET PRACTICE
 In the cricket game last night between the Probables headed by Principal Pettie and the Possibles with Wilson Murray as captain, the former won the toss and went to the wicket. By the time the others got a chance to bat, the light had failed and they were beaten.
 The team to meet the Durban eleven will be chosen today.

PRESENTATION TO RUSHBROOK

WELL-KNOWN MISSIONARY GIVEN PRIZE OF GOLD AT SOCIAL EVENT AT PORT ESSINGTON

PORT ESSINGTON, July 12.—On Monday evening Canon Rushbrook's many friends of Port Essington and Balmoral gathered to do him honor on the occasion of his farewell visit to Port Essington. Old and new friends alike expressed their regret at the departure of one who was ever kind, faithful and sympathetic.

Canon Rushbrook has been in charge of St. John's Anglican Church for the past twenty-four years and his withdrawal elsewhere is being felt very keenly.

An enjoyable evening was spent in games and contests, but the main feature of the evening was the presentation of a concrete expression of the appreciation of all. Dr. R. G. Large read the address and H. Morry made the presentation.

Canon Rushbrook responded with his sincerest thanks, and expressed his regret at leaving the community in which he had spent so many happy days. He, furthermore, wished to thank all who had so generously assisted him in many different ways in his work.

Rev. W. H. Pierce, who was present, also expressed on behalf of the native people of Port Essington, their regret that Canon Rushbrook was leaving their midst.

During the evening Dr. Large rendered a vocal solo which was enjoyed immensely. Delightful refreshments, under the management of Mrs. H. Morry and Mrs. G. Davis, were served.

Man in the Moon

Once there was a little party
Tory, 'tis true,
Tried to fool the northern people
That's me'n you.

Asked the people to support them
Didn't know just why
Spent their spare time just inventin'
Some campaign cry.

On election day they'll waken
Out in the cold,
For the sour doughs are too clever
To be thus sold.

Those who do not vote are usually
The ones who grumble at the Government. A word to the wise is sufficient.

The poor need credit but they pay cash. The rich do not need credit but they get all they wish.

MANSON SURE OF ELECTION

SPEAKING TONIGHT AT SMITHERS AND THEN RETURNING TO OMINICA

There were a number of old friends gathered at the station yesterday afternoon to meet Attorney General A. M. Manson on his arrival in the city to address last night's public meeting. Mr. Manson left at 4 o'clock this morning by way of freight on his return to the interior. He is speaking at Uak today and is going to Smithers tonight to address another meeting on behalf of Dr. H. C. Wrench, Liberal candidate for re-election in Skeena riding. He will be back in his own riding of Omineca tomorrow to continue his campaign.

So strong is Mr. Manson in Omineca this election that his supporters expect that he will get a majority at every poll except three—namely Wis- suess, the home of the Conservative candidate, Arthur Sheldford; Colley- mount and Fort St. James. Even Conservative Vanderhoof is expected to give Manson a majority this time. It is notable that several prominent Conservatives of former campaigns are taking no active part on this occasion. Mr. Manson recalled that it was just twenty years ago today that he landed in Prince Rupert and established himself with Billy Williams in the law business in pioneer quarters on old Centre Street. It proved a hard struggle for the two young men for sev- eral years but they have both prospered and brought honor to both—Mr. Manson particularly.
