VANCOUVER POLICE INQUIRY GOES ON

LAWYER STOPPED EVIDENCE JUST AS MOST INTERESTING

Deputy Chief Declares Vancouver Mayor Did Not Want Closed Town

Did Not Like Chinese Lotteries Running But Would Not Report Over Head of His Chief to Commissioners

VANCOUVER, May 15.—Acting Chief of Police Dan Leatherdale at the police inquiry yesterday said Chief Long told him the Mayor did not want Chinese lottery joints raided. Further Leatherdale said he understood the Mayor "did not want to close up the town. I did not like the idea of these places running but I did not consider it my place to report to the police commission over the chief's head."

Commissioner Lennie treated G. G. McGeer's attack on himself and a subsequent apology as a closed incident. Upon Alex. Henderson, K.C., counsel for the Mayor's making reference to McGeer's remark the latter repeated the apology verbally, declaring he had "lost his head" and asked that the remarks referred to be "expunged from the record."

Leatherdale confirmed the evidence that Chief Long had told him the Mayor was objecting to a policeman standing in front of Joe Celoni's resort. The deputy had not told Constable Thompson to keep away from Celoni's place, merely instructing the officer to use his own discretion. The deputy chief said the resorts of the city could be closed but it was necessary to keep after them as the always opened up again.

OBJECTION TO CHEAPER FRUITS OR VEGETABLES

MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT URGE DUMPING CLAUSE TO PROTECT GROWERS THIS COUNTRY

OTTAWA, May 15.—A motion to go into committee of supply brought a renewal of the House of Commons debate on the anti-dumping issue raised by Hon. S. F. Clarke as an amendment to the supply bill. The amendment asked that the government take steps to control the importation into Canada of the natural products of the class produced in Canada.

Speaking for the amendment, Mr. Anderson, Conservative of Halifax, urged that it would be a calamity, a tragedy, if the fruit and vegetable interests of the country were jeopardized. Grote Sterling of Yale, Conservative, said that it was a fallacy to say the objection of the dumping duty meant necessity that the consumer paid more.

Hon. J. A. Robb, minister of finance, remarked that what was really sought by the amendment was an increase in the tariff.

The debate continued until the House adjourned.

Paid $50 a Month for Protection by Police States One of Partners in Gambling Concern in Vancouver

VANCOUVER, May 15.—The first definite intimation that money had been paid for police protection of gambling operations in Vancouver was given at the police inquiry late yesterday.

Joe Yem, Chinese, testified through an interpreter that a gambling syndicate operating at 846 Main Street, of which he had been a partner, had paid $50 monthly for police protection.

When about to name the persons to whom he had been told the money had been paid by Chow Wong Lum, "boss" of the syndicate, he was stopped by the objection of R. L. Maitland, counsel for Detective Sergeant McLaughlin of the morality squad.

"Just a moment," said Maitland. "Surely this is a case where you need direct evidence?"

"Well, this surely is direct evidence," said A. H. McNeill, counsel for the commission.

Thereon a verbal battle based on the admissibility of this evidence occupied the remainder of the session, which adjourned until this morning.

YESTERDAY'S BASEBALL

NEW YORK, May 15.—Chicago Cubs, unwontedly docile during the first month of the National League season, have come from the depths of the second division two weeks ago to second place today, one game back from Cincinnati. The Reds retained the leadership giving the Phillies their tenth straight defeat.

Ruth hit his ninth homer in the seventh inning in the New York Detroit game and is now four ahead of last year.

John McGraw, manager for the Giants, after seeing his team lose, suffered a slight leg injury when he was struck by an automobile.

THEY OWED FIVE MILLIONS

According to the word received from Ottawa at the week-end the brewers and distillers are now paying up a sum of something like five million dollars they owed the government. What it is difficult to understand is how they could have got behind that much. Most people feel that they have to pay their taxes and do so promptly, but here is a case where a great deal of latitude was allowed by officials of the department, much more than seems reasonable.

In Prince Rupert we find the Dominion government is pretty keen to get its taxes paid up. If they are not paid, a stern reminder is given, and rightly so. People do not mind having to pay if all are treated alike. What annoys is being forced to pay promptly when others are allowed all kinds of latitude.

BOMBS IN SEATTLE

Bombs are becoming rather common in Seattle. Why they are made and discharged nobody seems to know but doubtless there is a direct reason. What is clear is that they indicate a spirit of lawlessness in that city which it is dangerous to allow to continue. It is somewhat along the line of the lawlessness of Chicago.

The person who will set bombs which doubtless are designed to kill or injure some particular person or persons and may also injure many others is not fit to be allowed his liberty.

GRAIN THIS YEAR

There is every prospect that the grain crop this year will be larger than last. The acreage sown is much larger and even if the crop is not as heavy, there should be as much to market, unless something happens to it. Last year as a result of the late spring the area to grain was reduced considerably. This year there is not only what was lacking last year but increased areas of newly broken lands which add to the permanent acreage of the farms.

The early reports indicate that seeding has been done under good conditions and the wheat is coming up well. The lack of moisture in some districts is nothing unusual at this time of year.

MAKE GOOD CHARGES

Modern methods are making it more difficult for people to make statements against politicians and others without the necessary information to back it up. Sir Arthur Currie's libel case is giving courage to those who have been the butts of irresponsible people who are continually broadcasting general charges which in many cases are without foundation in fact.

Recently one of the Regina aldermen made a statement that members of Parliament had been trafficking in immigration permits. He was summoned to appear at Ottawa to lay his evidence before the committee of the House which is just now hearing evidence in regard to immigration matters.

While we realize that it is difficult to always back up statements with proper legal evidence, we are also of opinion that charges should not be made without a very clear chain of evidence behind them. To make statements that members of Parliament are doing something irregular, reflects on all the members. We do not believe our own member is guilty of any such thing as trafficking in immigration certificates and the charges made by the alderman should be cleared up so that his name may be cleared in connection with this.

PERMITTED TO POST SIGNS ON BOARDING AROUND NEW THEATRE

In response to a request made by a delegation of adjoining business men consisting of Steve King, Max Hellbroner and Joe Brown, the city council last night decided to permit the posting of signs on the boarding surrounding the new theatre site on Third Avenue providing the owners of the boarding are willing.

Steve King pointed out that the boarding straddling into the road, obscured his premises and he was desirous of putting up a sign so that people would know where he was. He did not wish to put up advertising matter.

City Solicitor Jones knew of no bylaw which would prevent this being done providing the owners of the boarding were willing.

Joe Brown stated that, although he had the permission of the owners of the boarding to put up a sign, the city engineer had ordered him to take it down.

It was decided, on motion of Ald. Rudhamme, seconded by Ald. Rudderism, to allow the posting of the signs requested providing there was no infringement of the bylaw.

B.C. Mining Industry Now Becoming Self-supporting - Pat Daly Forms New Company - Sibola District to Receive Development

While some of the mining companies of this province, such as Britannia and Granby, writes Dr. Victor Dolmadge of the Geological Survey, are American companies and while the controlling interest of other companies, such as Premier, are held by Americans, still the money now being spent by these companies in an endeavor to develop new deposits comes from the profits of their present local mining conditions and might, therefore, be properly considered as of local origin. Conceding this and taking into account the large amounts being spent on new development by these companies, it would appear that of the money now being expended on the development of the mineral resources of British Columbia the largest proportion is of local origin or, in other words, it might be stated that the mining industry of British Columbia is now well past the half way point on the road to becoming self-supporting. The saving of British capital which has been the province a few years ago has been to some extent curtailed but by no means altogether withdrawn. The British, more than any other investors, have always been reluctant to invest in any but well proven mines and some of their failures to become profitably established in the industry may be attributed largely to this conservative tendency. Opportunities are, however, plentiful and new opportunities are continually arising but the competition is keen with the advantage preponderantly on the side of those investors who are willing to take advantage of whatever opportunity may arise and who have representatives on the ground who are thoroughly familiar with all the local conditions and have authority to act quickly and independently.

The Cantu group, adjoining the Alaska boundary near the foot of Salmon River glacier, which was discovered three years ago by T. W. McDonald and E. M. Cronholm, has been taken over by M. J. Lee of Portland, Oregon, and associates and will be put into operation this year. Mr. Lee is now at Stewart and will take supplies into the property as soon as climatic conditions permit. The Cantu was under bond to Premier two years ago but was thrown up by that company. However, the owners obtained ore which gave good returns from a well defined and persistent galena vein and it is expected the property can be put into production as soon as work starts. There are said to be thousands of tons of high grade ore to be taken out with the expenditure of a little drilling and powder.

Joe Jackson, manager of the Portland Canal Mining Co., left Stewart last week with a crew of four men and camp equipment for the Lucky Strike group, a few miles north of the mouth of the Georgia River. Development work will be carried out.

The Tahtsa Mining Co., with capitalization of $200,000, is preparing for an active season of development work on properties in the Sibola district discovered and owned by George Seal of Wistaria. The claims on Swing Peak Mountain, within a few miles of the Sweeney Mountain and Sibola discoveries, have high values in silver and lead with grey copper, the width of the main vein being nine-and-a-half feet. Samples have been taken from the property by Capt. John Irving, Barney Mulvaney and William Dawson, and assays are reported to have run as high as 2,000 ounces of silver. Continuous work, it is provided, shall be done on the claims which are known as the Swannell group. Capt. John Irving, well known British Columbia pioneer, is the sole promoter of the enterprise. It is proposed to take in supplies and ultimately bring out ore by navigation of the Tahtsa River.

After hardships and difficulties, the mining outfit which left Vanderhoof two winters ago has finally been delivered nearly two hundred miles to the Manson Creek placer area. What was at first estimated to be a two months' job turned out to be two years' work and the plant landed at the creek stood an expense of around $56,000. The greatest obstacle overcome was the stretch over the top of Baldy Mountain, the greater part of which had to be shoveled by hand, the snow being approximately nine feet deep and making it difficult for caterpillars and teams

The following are among districts mines which made shipments to Trail smelter during the past month: Silver Cup, New Hazelton, Mohawk, New Hazelton, Duthie, Smithers.

A new provincial mining journal has put in its appearance in the shape of the British Columbia Miner, brought out by Gordon Black Publications Ltd., publishers of the British Columbia Lumberman and the B.C. Municipal News. The first number, just to hand, is well printed and illustrated and altogether most readable. The main portion of the journal appears to be necessary technical but one section is devoted to market news and another to the subject of mining equipment. Special correspondents have been appointed to cover the different sections of activity in the province. W. R. Hull represents Stewart and L. S. McGill, Smithers.

The Pat Daly Mining Development Co., which is being organized in Montreal, is the latest mining promotion affecting the Portland Canal district. This is as a result of the well known Pat Daly's success in proving the value of the Mountain Boy mining property on American Creek and his ability to interest the capital necessary in its development. The Mountain Boy was located soon after 1893 by "Pap" Stewart and Brightwell, among the earliest locators in the Man in the Moon

Possibly there will be an election in June. That will be a jolly thing to happen just when we ought to be taking holidays.

McLean will be like the June brides. He will pass the rubicon during the very best part of the whole year.

O what is so fine as election in June Then if ever the voters are happy Then will the politicians come round Shake hands, be cheerful and call me "old chaps."

I'll vote for the man, who can promise me most. Who can tell the best story and drink the most beer. Election in June is the thing I adore. Like the bride, for the future I've nothing to fear.

A lot of young men think themselves clever because they know how to injure themselves. That's no cleverness. It's lunacy.

Why is it that the young man the parents like is the one the daughter gives the air to.

Few people are really as bad as they pretend to be.

Sign painters should make a charge to the fans who stand by and watch the game. They would become even richer than they are today. The modern girl is one who refuses to look upon the wedding ring as an insignia of slavery in the kitchen.

When a girl says she has something on, or course you know it is a date she is referring to.

We regulate our conduct by the magazine ads, but object to the preaching we find in the editorial columns.

Notices will be sent out to the property owners concerned and another bylaw providing for the actual construction will be brought in later.

COUNTY COURT IN MAY LIGHT

ONLY TWO CASES SET DOWN FOR HEARING THIS MONTH—JUDGMENT IN ONE GIVEN YESTERDAY

Only one new case for May was presented at the monthly session of County Court before Judge F. McE. Young yesterday afternoon. This is an action in which Thomas Pickering and several men are claiming under the Woodmen's Lien Act wages from the defunct Dumont-Emerson logging concern. W. E. Fisher and Williams, Manson & Gonzales are making the claims with Patmore & Fulton acting for the defendants. The actions were set for hearing this afternoon.

In the case of Dudoard vs. Clarence Flewin, the claim of the plaintiff for $50 was allowed with the reservation that the case may be reopened within two months by the defendant who is out of the district. The case had been hanging fire since last August, evidently through inability to get the appearance of the defendant. W. O. Fulton appeared for the plaintiff and W. E. Fisher for the defendant.

At the request of John V. Clyne, counsel for the plaintiff, it was decided to proceed with the case of Rawlings H. Carter vs. H. A. McLean this Thursday. It is a commission case and the sum of $2000 is involved. Patmore & Fulton have the case for the defendant. The case of Brynildsen and sons vs.

Gus Egan et al was set over until June.

NO RELATION BETWEEN CHRISTIAN SCIENCE HEALING AND WITCH-CRAFT HEALING

Editor, Daily News:
An interesting letter appeared in your paper on April 25, by W. H. Pierce entitled "Stories of Witchcraft in Early Days of B.C."

In his letter, Mr. Pierce said "Anyone who compares these heathen practices with those of Christian Scientists, Dr. Price's healing, and Fortune Tellers, does not know what he is talking about."

I would like to explain why the practice of witchcraft, which was described so clearly by Mr. Pierce, has no relation to the practice of Christian Science. Before doing so, however, permit me to also state that neither Dr. Price's healing or Fortune Tellers have anything in common with the teachings of Christian Science.

The weapon used in the practice of witchcraft was fear, as evidenced by these words "Threats of all kinds were used, and through fright, many yielded to their influence, and once more became under the control of conjurers." On page 98 of "Miscellaneous Writings" by Mary Baker Eddy, are the words: "Fear is the weapon in the hands of tyrants."

If the Indians had understood God as being good, rather than being both good and evil, they would have resisted the fear which overwhelmed them. "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you."—James 4:7.

Christian Science teaches that fear is due to a lack of trust in and understanding of God, for, we read in 1 John 4: 18. "There is no fear in love, but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love."

In contrast to the methods used by the conjurers of witchcraft, I herewith quote from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, page 410, under the heading "Mental Treatment Illustrated," as follows, "Christian scientific practice begins with Christ's keynote of harmony, 'Be not afraid!' Said Job: 'The thing which I greatly feared is come upon me,' and again from page 411 of the same book, we find these words, 'The procuring cause and foundation of all sickness is fear, ignorance, or sin.'"

Even the local press is not immune from peddling some of the prosperity dope, although all that the editor has to do is to go and see the squalid

If the building inspector found that any public building was not safe, the city could demand that the owners put it in shape. The duty of the city ceased, however, after the factor of safety had been determined. It was not necessary for the building inspector to report to the owners but to the council.

Ald. Prudhomme felt that, on behalf of the city, the building should be inspected. If it was dangerous, it should be condemned and its use prevented.

It was decided, on motion of Ald. Prudhomme, seconded by Ald. Collart, that the theatre be inspected and a report as to its condition made to the council.

RATS NOT SO THICK HERE

CITY COUNCIL RECEIVES REPORT ON SITUATION FROM MEDICAL HEALTH OFFICER

A report from Dr. J. P. Cade, medical health officer, to the city council last night expressed the belief that rats were not numerous over the city generally and that there was no such menace as there was several years ago. The report, which was presented in response to a request made by the council two weeks ago, stated that possibly there were a large number of rats at the city dump on Park Avenue and suggested that virus be laid out there. To burn the dump might cause the rats to spread over the city. John Carroll had been formerly looking after the rat situation in the city by laying out virus but it was possible Mr. Carroll might not be able to resume his former position.

The report also suggested that a systematic inspection of sanitary conditions in the city should be resumed, such as had been carried out several years ago. This was something which Mr. Carroll had also been looking after in a manner. The report was referred to the board of works for report.

SAFETY OF WESTHOLME THEATRE IS DISCUSSED

Building Inspector to Make Inspection on Behalf of City but not for Owners as Asked

Following receipt of a letter from H. G. Heigerson Ltd., agents for the owner of the building, the city council decided last night to have an inspection made by the building inspector to ascertain the safety of the Westholme Theatre. The building inspector will report to the city council but not to the agents as was requested.

The letter from H. G. Heigerson Ltd. stated that rumors had reached their ears that the building was in a dangerous condition. They had asked the building inspector to make an examination but had received no reply. They were now asking, on behalf of the owner, Cliff Ford of London, England, that the council instruct the building inspector to make the examination.

Ald. Collart thought that it was up to the owners to inspect the building themselves and assure that it was in a safe condition. It was not the building inspector's duty to make an examination of a building on behalf of the owners. He believed that they were trying to get an inspection for nothing when they should pay for it themselves.

If anybody were hurt in the building the city might be placed in an ambiguous position, stated the city solicitor.

POSSIBILITY NEW PARK FOR GAME GROUNDS

TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS TO BE EXPENDED ON ACROPOLIS HILL JUST NOW

A recommendation from the board of works that $200 be expended on the Acropolis Hill grounds to put them in shape for the season was adopted by the city council last night. Ald. Greer, chairman of the board of works, stated that a delegation had come from the Prince Rupert Football Association asking that the necessary work be carried out on the grounds and the committee had acquiesced by bringing in this report.

Ald. Linzey inquired if something could not be done in the way of installing a drain to prevent water flowing over the grounds in the winter and making a ravine that had to be repaired every spring.

Ald. Prudhomme took the stand that it would never be possible to make a real recreation park at Acropolis Hill. He was not in favor of spending any more money on this ground than was necessary until a permanent park site had been decided upon. Perhaps, next year something might be done in this direction. He referred to the fact that the Acropolis Hill ground was seven feet higher on one end than the other.

The report of the board of works was adopted.

TALKS ABOUT SUMMER SPORT

EDITOR OF GRANBY NEWS HAS INTERESTING THINGS TO SAY ABOUT THEM

Like most things, sport has its ups and downs says the Granby News. A certain game will be favorite for a year or more, and then another brand of sport will take its place and become popular all of a sudden. This is not so liable to happen in the big centers, but in the smaller communities the interest changes frequently enough. According to the way the players go, favoring this game or that the spectators, more or less, have no alternative but to fall in line, especially if they are interested in sport at all. And a great many people are.

As a general rule, in Canadian towns, baseball happens to be the sport having the greatest appeal during the summer months. Yet in some sections, at least, lacrosse occasionally supercedes it in popular interest. As in England, football in the south-western sections of British Columbia is winter sport; but here in Anyox a game of football between the end of October and the latter part of April is hardly possible on account of the climatic conditions.

Tennis, of course, will always be popular, and given the opportunity of indulging in his favorite pastime, the tennis enthusiast is more or less satisfied to play the game, and is not more than mildly interested in whether the general public is a looker-on or not.

DEPENDS ON FANS

Baseball and football, on the other hand, can not thrive unless they are accorded support of a general nature.

SPORT CHAT

As was the case last season, Big League baseball interest is seemingly going to centre again in the National League where developments of the past few days have been the subject of much comment. Cincinnati "Reds" are now trying themselves out in the new role, during the past few years at least since the hectic days with the Chicago White Sox, as league leaders and are making a bigger bit for honors than at first was expected of them. But it is anybody's old ball game yet and Giants, Cardinals, Cubs, Pirates and Robins have yet good chances. From the early season looks of things, the New York Yankees again look good for the American League pennant although the early worm may yet turn.

The Least Excitement Made Her Heart Palpitate and Flutter

Mrs. Ambrose Orser, Elginburg, Ont., writes:—"I suffered for some time with a bad heart which seemed to be controlled by my nerves. The least little excitement would cause it to flutter and palpitate, and at times I would have real bad spells. I suffered in this way for some time when, one day, I saw advertised, so decided to try them. I had only taken a few boxes when I noticed that I felt better, so I continued taking them and in a short time my heart felt entirely different.

Around The World With Sport Fans

(By The Tramp)

When Jimmy McLarnin of Vancouver burst into the limelight recently in New York as a lightweight aspirant it did not seem that he would be taken as seriously as is the case today. He has a lot of backers for the championship at the big match that is to take place Thursday at the Polo Grounds, New York, when he meets the present champion, Sammy Mandell.

So far Flamingo is the favorite for the Derby to be run at Epsom, June 6. Fairway runs him close in the betting. This is looked upon as the greatest race of the year and is the one on which the Calcutta sweepstake is run. Huge sums change hands on the result of the race.

Fairway is receiving a lot of backing for the biggest race. One writer says of him:

"My own impression of Fairway, after seeing him last week, is entirely favorable. I can state without hesitation that his physical development since last year is all that could have been desired by his well-wishers. For a colt who was rather narrow and leggy as a two-year-old he has made more than the normal amount of improvement. Although he already measures more than 6 hands, he has great power behind the saddle, while it would be difficult to find a thoroughbred with better shoulders. Those who observed his gallop on the Limekilns were struck by his fine long-striding action. Whether his style of moving will be suitable to the gradients of the Epsom course remains to be seen, but a really good mover may be depended on to show to as much advantage on that course as on any other. Unless Buland should prove to be a three-year-old of altogether exceptional calibre I believe that Fairway will be the winner of The Thousand, and will then become a popular favorite for the Derby."

A notable example of how a smart jockey on a speedy beginner can triumph over a bad position in the draw was given in the Lingfield Handicap recently. Golden Chalice was stationed at No. 1, the worst possible position on this course, but Lord Dewar's colt began so quickly that Gordon Richards was able to take him right across to the other side before a furlong had been covered. Thus Golden Chalice ran his race practically throughout on the most favorable ground, and his jockey's manoeuvre at the start, albeit a little risky, undoubtedly secured this substantial prize for the Beckhampton colt.

Nelson girls have organized a soft ball league and six or seven teams are expected to enter. Two grounds have been marked out and the players are taking up the sport with enthusiasm.

Accounts for the two weeks ending May 10 and totalling $47,962.24 were passed for payment at last night's meeting of the city council.

PARKING BYLAW IS PUT THROUGH

MUCH DELAYED MEASURE FINALLY DEALT WITH BY CITY COUNCIL LAST NIGHT

With certain revisions, the amended Street Traffic Bylaw, which has been hanging fire since last fall, being held over from time to time for various reasons, was finally given its committee readings last night and at the next meeting will be finally reconsidered and adopted. To aid the council in its deliberations on the matter, Sergeant J. P. M. Hannah, chief of the city detachment of the provincial police, was present as well as representatives of the taxi interests in the persons of E. J. Large and Tom Dybhavn.

The clause that cars shall not be allowed to park between one half hour after sunset and one half hour before sunrise without a red light visible for a distance of at least fifty feet proved acceptable and was passed as it stood.

The bylaw was amended, with the chief of police and the two taxi men agreeing, to provide that on streets of less than twenty feet width parking shall be allowed on only one side of the street. The parking side on the streets shall be the east and on Avenues, the north, and the cars shall be facing in the proper direction for the side of the street. The bylaw originally read that cars could park on both sides of all streets. Numerous cases of where congestion might arise with such a system were pointed out and the amendment was finally made on motion of Ald. Prudhomme.

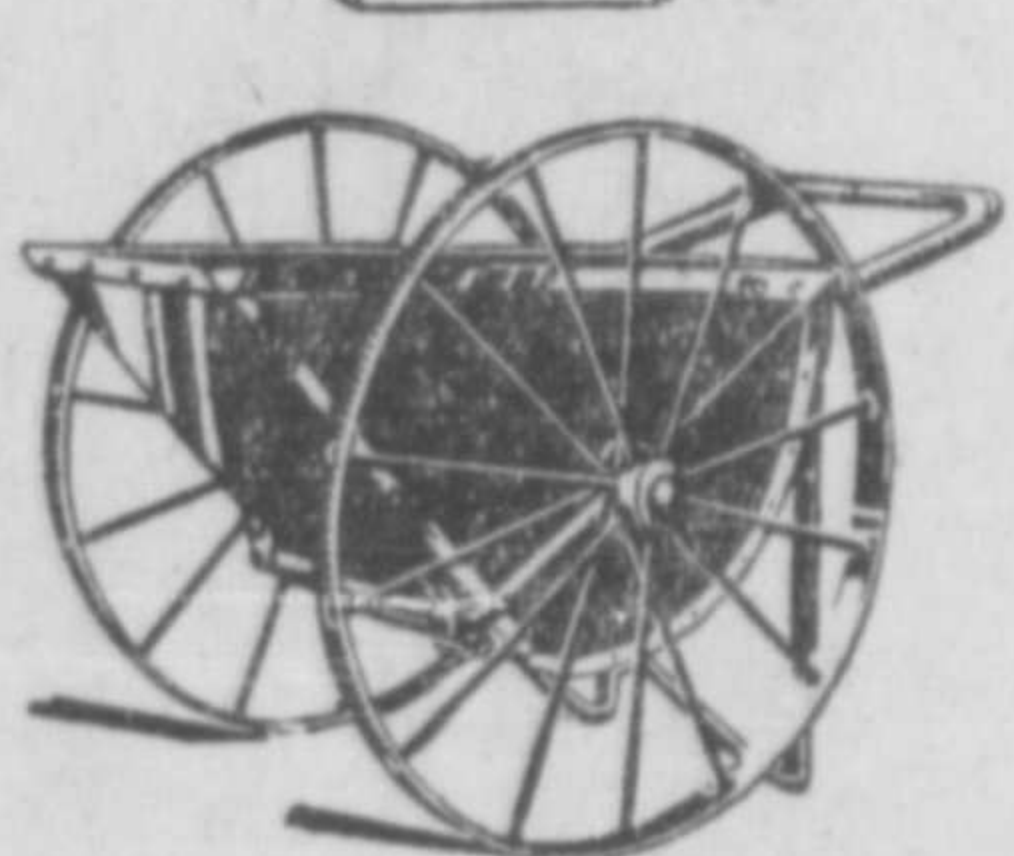

It was also decided that no parking should be allowed at intersections within twenty-five feet of the building line instead of ten feet as originally provided. The corner of Third Avenue and Sixth Street was cited as a point where there would be congestion and possible danger to pedestrians if cars were allowed to park ten feet from the building line.

Another amendment was that the restriction as to the distance that cars might be parked from a fire be reduced from 1500 to 600 feet.

The region on Third Avenue in which cars must be parked at least six feet apart in order to allow free access and egress was increased from Fifth Street to Seventh Street to McBride Street to Ninth Street after considerable bickering.

Ald. Rudderham inquired as to the legality of cars being parked on public turntables in the streets and was told that this was not permitted.

The question of cars parking at the turn in the Cow Bay road to the government wharf was brought up by Ald. Collart who felt that something should be done to relieve congestion there.

Do you take Yeast for your health?

If so, use ROYAL YEAST CAKES—the standard of quality for over 50 years. Soak a cake of Royal Yeast, with a little sugar, in tepid water over night. Stir well, strain and drink the liquid. Flavor is improved by adding the juice of an orange.

ROYAL YEAST CAKES

The taxi men agreed heartily with this suggestion. Sergeant Hannah stated that the bylaw would cover this point and City Solicitor Jones explained that, if necessary, the council had the power to assign taxi car stands.

Tom Dybhavn suggested that it might aid the police if "no parking" signs were obtained and placed in front of such buildings as theatres and dance halls.

In the matter of giving right of way to the fire department, police cars and ambulance, Mr. Large inquired as to how the police car was going to be recognized. The city solicitor stated that, if it had no distinguishing mark, it was not necessary to give it the right of way.

The bylaw was given its first and second readings and reported complete.

NO SECONDER SEWER MOTION

ALDERMAN PRUDHOMME'S SUGGESTION THAT WORK BE COMPLETED NOT SUPPORTED

CRITICISM OF WORK

CONTRACT SYSTEM IS NOT IN FAVOR WITH ALDERMAN WHO, HOWEVER, GIVES WAY

Ald. A. J. Prudhomme's resolution asking for calling of tenders for the completion of the trunk sewer system and the paving of Borden Street failed at last night's council meeting for want of a seconder. There was an ominous silence after the resolution had been read by the clerk. Ald. Prudhomme attempted to speak to the resolution but was informed that he could not do so until it had been seconded. After waiting a few minutes, the mayor called for the clerk to pass on to the next item of business.

The next item of business happened to be a bylaw providing for the construction of a fifteen foot pavement along Borden Street under the local improvement plan.

Immediately after the bylaw was announced but before it had been read, Ald. Prudhomme rose to his feet and announced that he would like to object to the bylaw being passed at the present time. He felt that it was a mistake to proceed with further public works until such time as conditions were brought about in the board of works where a dollar's value could be obtained for every dollar that was spent.

The mayor felt that Ald. Prudhomme's objection was not in accordance with the subject matter of the bylaw.

Ald. Greer, chairman of the board of works, explained that it was desirable to get the work under way during the fine weather of summer.

The city solicitor gave his opinion that, if Ald. Prudhomme objected, the council had no power to suspend the rules and go into committee to consider the bylaw. It could be taken no further than the first reading.

Ald. Prudhomme went on to state that he was not in favor of the contract system for he felt that the work could be done more cheaply by the city itself if there was efficiency and economy. The council had no right to spend the public money if there was not such efficiency and economy.

Ald. Prudhomme apparently waived further objections for the bylaw was taken on into the committee stage and finally reported complete. It will come up again at next council meeting for final adoption, Ald. Prudhomme being informed that he would then have another opportunity of voicing his objections.

SWIMMING CLUB IS ACTIVE NOW

TO FIX UP SALT LAKE AND FACILITIES AT ONCE—DRIVE FOR MEMBERS—TRIP TO PORT SIMPSON

Decision was made at a meeting last night in the city police court of the executive of the Prince Rupert Swimming Club, President E. C. Gibbons in the chair, to proceed at once with the preparation of the Salt Lake and its facilities for the coming season which opened on Sunday. The lake will be cleared of dirt and repairs will be made to the walks and bathhouses.

The club decided to stage a drive for new members with territories assigned as follows: Cold Storage, Jack Boddie; Big Bay sawmill, Ralph LePine; schools, W. Gilchrist; dry dock, Miss Evelyn Macdonald; Canadian National shops, Jack McAulay; city employees, D. H. McDonald; city, E. C. Gibbons. The boy or girl selling the most tickets will be given free transportation to the Salt Lake for the season.

The Prince Rupert Salvage & Towing Co. having offered the services of the Salvage Princess free for the occasion, an excursion to Port Simpson will be held by the club on May 24. Sixty persons will thus be given the opportunity of visiting the neighboring village to attend the celebration there that day. The boat will leave at 9 a.m. and return at 9 p.m. All proceeds will go to the funds of the club.
