ALASKA BOUNDARY QUESTION IS UP

HON. WILLIAM SLOAN URGES GO SLOW MINE SPECULATION

Kergin Moves to Secure Revision of Boundary in the Panhandle of Alaska

Legislature Asked to Declare That it Would be in Interests of United States and Canada to Have Change Made

VICTORIA, January 25.—Dissatisfaction that has been rest- less but voiceless in northern British Columbia for many years in respect to the Alaskan boundary line crystallized into a definite movement for readjustment of the border last night when H. F. Kergin, Liberal member for Atlin, filed a notice of motion asking the Canadian government to open negotiations with the United States with the object of acquiring the Alaska panhandle which is a barrier detrimental to the northern half of the province of B.C. The motion asks the Legislature to place itself on record as of

SLOAN URGES INVESTIGATE WHEN BUYING

Shares Dangerous in Stock Trading Without Knowledge of Properties Involved

IMPULSE IS NOT SAFE Money is Forthcoming to Develop Many Non-Producing Mines This Year

VICTORIA, Jan. 25.—In a statement made today Hon. William Sloan said he hoped the trading in mining stocks would not be carried too far. He urges investors to investigate the mineral properties rather than investing in impulse. "We must avoid a reaction that would hurt the continued progress of the industry," he said.

Mr. Sloan then added: "It is clear that outside attention is being directed as never before to the economic possibilities of the mineral wealth of British Columbia and other sections of the Northwest. This follows two years of record metal production and is not as surprising as it might seem to those who have had no direct concern in the industry. At least it would appear that the mining prospects are to have the funds needed to prove or disprove their merits.

"Last year saw more mining development, both lead and placer, than in any year for a decade. This year will see an outstrip 1927 and besides a number of new producers will be found on the shipping list."

HICKMAN GOES TRIAL TODAY

Possibility of His Being Declared Insane by Jury—Otherwise Will be Convicted

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25.—William E. Hickman went on trial today for the murder of Marian Parker. The jury will decide whether he is sane and if sane he will be sentenced to execution or life imprisonment. If insane, he will be confined to an institution with possibility of release if later it is shown that he is again sane, according to the interpretation given to new California law by some lawyers.

HEAVY SELLING DOWNS PRICES

Last Hour on New York Exchange Saw Downward Movement With Raising Call Money

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—There was heavy selling during the last hour of the exchange was open today after a brisk rally in public utilities and a few specialties had superceded a weak opening. Following the raising of the call money rate to four per cent, such stocks as United States Steel, General Motors and Montgomery Ward were in the forefront in the downward movement.

the opinion that the government should open negotiations with Washington, having in view a readjustment of the boundary. Such a readjustment would be in the interests of both Canada and the United States, the motion declares.

GREAT RUSH FOR THEATRE

Telegram Asks Quick Action on Lane Concession but Not Possible

Having received a second message from M'sak Avazoff, who with Paul Avazoff, contemplates the construction of a new theatre on Third Avenue near Fulton street, stating that an immediate reply was desired with regard to the application for twenty-five feet of lane space instead of ten feet as originally proposed as the architects could not proceed with the plans until the matter had been definitely settled, Mayor S. P. McMordeie has despatched a reply as follows to Mr. Avazoff: "Your telegram received. Regret immediate answer impossible as your request for extra fifteen feet will involve alterations not necessitated by former proposition and council must consider these from every angle."

Provincial Public Accounts Show Slight Deficit but Capital Paid Out of Revenue and Expense Large

Loss of Oil Tax and Payment of Large Sum for Fire Protection Was Drain on Finances: Sinking Fund Intact

VICTORIA, January 25.—The public accounts tabled yesterday in the Legislature by Premier MacLean state that the revenues for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1927, were $472,000 more than was anticipated but unexpected expenditures resulted in a deficit of $260,000. The reasons given for the deficit were the disbursement of $275,000 for forest protection in excess of the average requirements for the previous years as a result of heavy losses in 1926; a large unexpected increase per capita grants to additional hospitals, and payment of $3,000,000 capital expenditure out of revenue.

The report also refers to loss to the provincial revenues of $345,000 owing to the Privy Council pronouncing the fuel oil tax ultra vires and the reduction of taxation by $525,000. The sum of $2,185,000 was set aside toward a sinking fund for redeeming debts at maturity. The sinking fund now stands at $16,400,000.

BLUE FOX TAKEN BY TRAPPER ON TUGWELL ISLAND John Leighton, Metlakatla native, trapping Sunday on the Indian Reserve of Tugwell Island, captured a blue fox. The animal was quite savage and attempted to bite its captor so it was necessary to kill it. The theory is that the fox probably made its way down the coast from Alaska and crossed Metlakatla Bar to Tugwell Island. The natural aversion of the fox for the water eliminates to some extent the possibility of the animal having swam from the nearby Kinaban Island fur farm.

EDMONTON, Jan. 25.—Joseph Laitch was found guilty by a jury in the criminal court of the attempted murder of Constable Adams of the city police force and Mr. Justice Tweedie sentenced him to the penitentiary for 20 years. Laitch shot and wounded Adams when the latter surprised him in an attempt to rob a store.

LIQUOR SALES SHOW INCREASE

Annual Report Submitted to Legislature Give Figures on Transactions

VICTORIA, Jan. 25.—The liquor board's annual report filed in the Legislature yesterday shows total liquor sales from Government stores for the year ending March 31 last totalling $13,805,009. In the following six months the sales increased proportionately to $7,156,869.

The figures include the amounts paid by the licensees for their beer but do not record the profits of beer parlors.

Record for Loading Grain Vessel Homer City Which Is to Sail This Evening

A quick job of loading the vessel having been made at the Alberta Wheat Pool's Prince Rupert elevator, the British freighter Homer City, twelfth grain ship of the season for this port, will sail this evening or tomorrow morning with a full cargo of grain for the United Kingdom or Continent. The vessel has been in port only three days so the elevator has thus made its best record to date in the loading of a ship.

About fifty carloads of grain have arrived here from the prairies during the past twenty-four hours and railway offices this morning reported 350 cars on the division west of Jasper Park bound here.

Up to late this morning, no word was available as to other charters for Prince Rupert although there will probably be at least one boat arrive within the next few days.

Hon. R. B. Bennett Attends First Political Banquet Since Being Chosen Leader of Conservatives

OTTAWA, January 25.—"Canada's great position is not attributable to any foresight or prescience or vision of those who govern," declared Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative chieftain, last night at the first political banquet he has attended since assuming the reins of leadership. The occasion was the banquet in his honor given by the Conservative Association here.

"The great position the country now occupies arises from foundations laid by and the vision of men long years before. Those foundations were laid in toil with faith and hope in the morrow." The development of the natural resources for the benefit of Canadians, protection of the water powers, an adequate immigration policy and development of trade were advocated by Mr. Bennett.

Topley Richfield Mine Financed Says Taylor Just Back From South

Development Will be Pushed Until Property is on a Producing Basis Declares Discoverer and Managing Director

Reporting complete success in efforts to provide further finances for the development and operation of the famous Topley-Richfield mine at Topley, of which he was the discoverer and is now the managing director, Frank H. Taylor of Smithers arrived in the city on the Prince Rupert this morning from Vancouver, accompanied by Mrs. Taylor, on his return to the interior. The Topley-Richfield has been working about twenty men all winter and, despite cold weather and other handicaps, operations have been carried steadily on. With plenty of funds available, development work on the immense ore body will now be pushed until the mine is placed on a producing basis which should not be long. That the Topley-Richfield is shaping up like a second Hillinger, is the statement of Mr. Taylor.

"We have done 800 feet of underground work exploring an area 100 feet deep, 100 feet wide and 250 feet long and we have yet to find the walls of the ore body," said Mr. Taylor. "We have been always in mineralized formation, some of it very low grade, of course, but all of it showing enough mineral to be classed as ore. "We have installed a compressor plant and have a pump that keeps our workings free of water. Our gold values are increasing as we drift on the 100 foot level.

TURNBULL REPORTS Prof. J. M. Turnbull of the University of B.C. has examined our property and advises the expenditure of a further $25,000 to $50,000 in preliminary exploration work. He finds an average of $13.21 in ore broken from three workings and that might be regarded as representative of what the ore, as at present located, would yield to a mill.

Prof. Turnbull has reported that the existence of a large ore body is indicated. "Our work is rather puzzling. The surface is practically covered by glacial drift, making surface tracing of the veins difficult and in fact almost impossible. We have not yet managed to learn, from underground work, how the ore body trends. We shall continue drifting for a time and if we do not find the walls that way a diamond drill will be put to work.

TO SINK ON ORE "It is my intention to go down on the ore another 100 feet or more in the near future."

TRIBUTES TO JOHN OLIVER

Legislature Puts Aside all Other Business to Pay Respects to Late Premier

VICTORIA, Jan. 25.—Premier MacLean and R. H. Pooley paid eloquent tributes to the late Premier Oliver in their speeches in the Legislature yesterday afternoon. Throwing aside all other business after the opening of the Legislature the House paused to pay a final tribute to the memory of the late statesman. On motion of Premier MacLean seconded by R. H. Pooley, leader of the opposition, the House by a standing vote placed on record "its deep sorrow and sense of loss in the death of the late Prime Minister who had for many years devoted his great gifts to the service of the province and whose high personal character won the respect of all who knew him."

CANADIENS IN WINNING GAME

Smother Chicago Ten Goals to Nothing Last Night; Rough Play at Boston

TORONTO, Jan. 25.—Meeting Chicago at Montreal, the Canadiens piled up the largest score of the season, blanking the Hawks ten goals to nothing. The Frenchmen smothered Nugie Lahman, the veteran Chicago goalie, under an avalanche of shots. As far as Lahman was concerned it was just one puck after another.

In the American section Boston and Pittsburgh tangled for the third time this season in a scoreless draw featured by rough play, no less than sixteen penalties being handed out.

Spurring near the close of the game, Ottawa defeated the New York Americans, winning their first game in two weeks. Scores were: Chicago 0, Canadiens 10, Ottawa 2, New York Americans 0, Pittsburgh 0, Boston 0.

BOOTLEG KING NOT AVAILABLE

Lawyer Refuses to Produce Him to Give Evidence on Immigration

VANCOUVER, Jan. 25.—C. S. Arnold, counsel for Joe Parente of San Francisco, alleged bootleg king, refused to produce his client yesterday afternoon before the immigration board inquiry investigating entry into Canada. Arnold claimed that La Parente's arrest was illegal as an order from the department of immigration at Ottawa is required which was not forthcoming until ten days after the arrest. The board adjourned, the chairman refusing to make a statement. In the meantime Parente is at liberty on bail.

HURDLE RACERS NOT NUMEROUS

Only One Since the War Has Been Seen in Action That Was Really Great Really great hurdlers come only seldom says a writer in the London Times. There has, in general opinion, been only one great hurdler since the War—namely, Trespasser, a big, lion-hearted horse who was an amazingly fluent jumper. I always wish that someone had been able to measure some of the jumps that he did at Sandown, either on the far side of the course or over the last hurdles coming up the hill to the winning post. I feel convinced that the distances which he cleared would have been astounding. At the same time he never wasted a moment, for he landed in his stride and was at once away again at full speed. Wrack, the greatest horse before him, was much smaller and lacked his devastating stride, but he was even quicker over the hurdles. I do not think that any one ever saw him jump. He seemed to go up to the obstacles and before one could concentrate on his jumping he was over and starting again on the flat. Powell, the Cambridge hurdler, was much the same. He was up and over before one could really see him. Zeno, who won the Imperial Cup last spring, reminded me much of Wrack, but I doubt whether he was in the same class as Lord Rosebery's versatile little horse. The next two months may show whether we have a real successor to two such hurdlers as the next and compact Wrack and the impressive, long-striding Trespasser.

WARNING GIVEN HOUND RACERS

Deputation to the Government Asks For Change in Present Law in England LONDON, Jan. 25.—It is understood that the Home-Secretary, Sir William Joynson-Hicks, was speaking with the full approval of the cabinet when he uttered a word of warning to investors in greyhound enterprises in his reply to a deputation at the House of Commons. The deputation, which desired to impress upon him certain dangers arising out of the new sport, was introduced by J. H. Thomas, M.P., and it consisted of two members of each of the political parties, Mr. Cadogan and R. S. Hudson (Conservatives), Mr. Compton and the Rev. H. Dunning (Labour), and Sir Robert Hamilton and Mr. Fenby (Liberals). Mr. Thomas explained that the deputation did not represent people who were opposed to all kinds of sport. None of them was opposed to legitimate or clean and healthy sport. But they believed sincerely and honestly that nothing had happened in this country of recent years which was calculated to have such demoralizing results and so to ruin the homes and the country itself as the introduction of dog-racing. They intended to take the earliest Parliamentary opportunity which would be open to them in Feb-

BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE Acts like a flash—a single sip proves it. It was an abominable thing if thousands of children's Sunday dinners were dependent on the result of a dog race on Friday night. Whatever might be the consequences he intended to take his stand to remove temptation which was likely to have demoralizing results. Sir William Joynson-Hicks replied: The whole matter will have to be considered by his Majesty's Government in the moral and material interests of the community as a whole, and I think it would be well that those who are investing in this form of sport should realize that the development has been so sudden and so extensive that any Government must devote very serious attention to it, and I accordingly give it my duty to give at least this warning hint to those who may be investing their money in new undertakings. The whole matter will be considered most carefully both by my colleagues in the Cabinet and by myself, and I need hardly say that if and when you bring the matter before the House of Commons, as soon as ever you like in February, I shall be prepared to make a fuller statement with regard to the policy of the Government. Greyhound promoters have expressed their agreement with the views of the Home Secretary on the evils of juvenile betting, and asserted their willingness to co-operate with the authorities in dealing with it.

TERRIER RACING Betting on Pari-Mutuel System in Events with Electric Rat LONDON, Jan. 25.—Notices have been sent to members of the Stadium Club, High Holborn, by Fred Howard, managing director of the club, stating that terrier racing will open at the club on February 8. "The dogs," he states, "will race with an electrically controlled rat on a track which will be removable and will therefore not interfere in any way with the ordinary business of the club. There will be three days' racing each week and six races on each evening, with first and second prizes for the owners of the dogs placed in that order. A British electrical Pari-Mutuel will be used in conjunction with the races, this being the first machine of its kind to be seen in Europe.

OPPONENTS OF NEW PROVINCE WIN IN DEBATE AT SCHOOL

J. S. Wilson, vice-principal of Booth Memorial School, is conducting an interesting series of debates among his Seventh Grade scholars at that school. In the latest debate, the question of whether or not a new Peace River province should be established was discussed and the opponents of the idea, Jack McRae and Tommy McMeekin, carried off the honors, on a vote of scholars. Those arguing in favor of the new province were Oscar Pulton and Allan Cross. Both sides of the case were presented lucidly and logically, the boys showing considerable ability as public speakers.

Carnation Milk "From Contented Cows"

MacKenzie tells us, his fight for supreme power began. Mr. MacKenzie explains that Stalin set out to obtain control of the local "nests" of the Communist party. Reports of the disloyalty of local leaders were brought to him regularly and they were quickly replaced by his own nominees. Gradually some of the strongest elements revolted at this bureaucratic control. Trotsky led the rebellion and Stalin took up the gage. He is now almost a dictator and Trotsky is on his way to virtual exile. Mr. MacKenzie finds that Stalin, whom he describes as "strong, virile, still under fifty," is "molding the new Russia to his will."

CANADA AS A PACIFIC POWER

(Edmonton Journal)
Some of the eastern papers have commented upon Mr. Amery's reference in recent addresses to Canada as a "Pacific power," which has seemed to them a novel and arresting idea. It was natural, that, having come to Canada by the Pacific route, Mr. Amery should be impressed with it and with the fact that the development of dominion affairs is sure to be closely connected with the great western ocean. Whether he was thinking in terms of naval or mercantile power does not greatly matter: his judgment holds true in either case.

NOTHING CONTENTIOUS TO COME UP AT OTTAWA

That is Opinion of Labor Member for Winnipeg Expressed in Speech
WINNIPEG, Jan. 25.—J. S. Woodworth, M.P., was the speaker at the Independent Labor party forum in Columbia hall, dealing with some of the questions which would be brought up before the Federal house during the next session. Mr. Woodworth stated that the Labor party was in a somewhat different position to both the old parties, in that the representatives at Ottawa always made an effort to keep in touch with the people, and with this in mind such meetings as the present one were held, when the various questions were discussed, a report made by the representative as to his procedure during the past sessions and suggestions made for his guidance when he again went to Ottawa.
