Gruesome Story of Murder Farm In California in Which People From Canada Seem Mixed Up

LOS ANGELES, September 15.—The story of a "murder farm" near Riverside, California, on which four boys met their deaths told by a fifteen year old prisoner is declared by the police to have been verified, at least partly, by inspection of the graves on a three acre lot.

Although none of the bodies, declared by Clark, the fifteen year old lad, to have been buried in and near the chicken house on the ranch property have been found by the detectives, it is said the graves have been located and there are indications that bodies or other objects have either been removed recently or been treated with quicklime. The head of a decapitated body of a boy found near Puente a month ago was found in one of the graves.

The police, after questioning Cyrus Northcott, 57 years of age, owner of the ranch, are on a coastwise hunt for his son and mother. The police say young Northcott is believed to have fled to Canada following Clark's arrest by immigration officers, who held him for the Canadian immigration authorities.

Two months ago Clark's sister came from the Clark home in Saskatoon, Canada, for a visit, returning home two weeks later.

NO TENDERS IN BORROWING B.C.

BONDS TO BE SOLD THROUGH BANK AND FINANCIAL HOUSES DIRECT IT IS SUGGESTED

VICTORIA, Sept. 15.—For the first time in recent years British Columbia will go into the financial market without calling for tenders, when loans totalling six million dollars are sought to refund four million dollars maturing treasury certificates due November 1 and two million short term P. O. E. and B. C. University building bonds now maturing.

It is planned to allow the Canadian Bank of Commerce, The Dominion Securities, Wood Gundy, A. E. Ames & Co. and probably a strong New York firm to handle the new loan outright to be sold at the rate obtainable. It is thought this loan will be followed because of the high rates for money now prevailing in New York.

THE JUDGES' REPORT

We, the undersigned members of the advisory board of judges appointed to have supervision of The Prince Rupert Daily News' free gift distribution concluded this day and date—September 14, 1928—and who have been selected to act as counting judges and auditors, certify and state that we have made a careful check and count of all ballots cast in this campaign and find the results to be as follows:

We further find that the candidates whose names appear above, received the number of votes shown opposite their names and are declared the winners in their respective positions and as set out.

London Morning Post Urges More Spirited Policy Toward United States Regard to Fordney Bill

Criticises Attitude of Premier Mackenzie King and Tries Goading Canada to Reprisals

LONDON, September 12.—A Morning Post editorial referring to Canadian complaints against the Fordney Tariff imposed by the United States says: "Evidently Americans intend Canada to remain a hewer of wood and drawer of water to the U.S. Canada has tried the policy of meekness. She has turned the other cheek. Indeed we might say of Mackenzie King that he offered himself in a still more humiliating position to Uncle Sam but it was of no avail. If Canada with her strong trading position were to adopt a more spirited policy we believe she would find it more profitable and then nobody could complain."

Grand Capital Prizes Won by Mrs. G. Dover and Miss L. Frizzell

Miss Cherrie Campbell of Stewart Gets $500 and Mrs. Bussey and P. Birnie Two Prizes Each of $100

The Prince Rupert Daily News' great gift-sharing subscription campaign came to a close Friday night. Those candidates who earned automobiles have or are taking possession today and the checks for cash prizes and cash commissions have already been sent out to all active candidates who participated in the campaign to its close.

The ballot box was placed in the lobby of The Royal Bank of Canada, at noon last Saturday. At that time Campaign Judges Col. S. P. McMordie, Mayor; L. G. Calder, acting manager of the Royal Bank of Canada; C. H. Orme, druggist; and J. W. Scott, hardware merchant, took an active part in the sealing and locking of the ballot box. Mayor McMordie carried the key to the ballot box from the time the box was locked and sealed until the campaign was ended. The above judges together with H. B. Rochester, proprietor of the Prince Rupert Hotel (whose business prevented him from taking part in the sealing and locking of the box), made the final count getting the results shown herewith today.

The ballot box rested in the lobby of the Royal Bank of Canada as a depository for all candidates and their friends, and was available to them until 9 o'clock Friday night, when members of the advisory board took it to The Daily News office, broke the seals. (continued on page 2)

STOCKS DROPPED N.Y. EXCHANGE

WARNER BROS. AND RADIO BEATEN DOWN AND TURNOVER FOUR MILLIONS

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The bears made a sudden raid on the market yesterday in final dealings just as the bulls were about to claim the day. After nearly two score issues had been pushed up from one to fifteen dollars to new high prices for the year, the bears brought about a general down swing as they concentrated their attack on Warner Bros. issues, bringing down the common stock seventeen dollars and Class A. nineteen dollars from the day's high. Radio dropped ten dollars, the volume of trading being over four million dollars.

"I am just going like hundreds of others to lay claim to an estate to which I think I am entitled in part. But there are more than fifty other people doing the same thing," said Mrs. Jennings. The estate has been in chancery many years. Her great grand parents, grand parents of her own father and mother have all laid claim, but Mrs. Jennings thinks the present time more favorable than before. She refused to give the name of the estate.

SINCLAIR IS BEING HELD

NO DEVELOPMENTS YET IN CASE OF MAN WHOM UNITED STATES OFFICIALS WANT DEPORTED

No official notice has yet been received from Ottawa as to the disposition of Charles Sinclair whom United States officials in Alaska are seeking to have deported so that he may be re-arrested on American soil and charged with breaking jail at Juneau some months ago. Sinclair has been held in the city jail here for over a month now. It is said that the Canadian government is loath to comply with the request for deportation as the status of Sinclair's citizenship does not seem to be clearly established. He was born in Canada, it is said, and took out his first papers in Alaska.

However, the American officials, it is learned, "have another card up their sleeve." United States Marshal White has sworn out a complaint charging Sinclair with the malicious destruction of United States government property, which comes under the classification of felony and is extraditable. Therefore, if he is not deported, efforts will be made to extradite him. His "malicious destruction" consists of having sawed the bars of the inner tank of the federal jail in Juneau and the bars of the window through which it is alleged he escaped.

Sinclair was serving a jail sentence under conviction of a liquor charge. He claims to have made the trip from Juneau to Prince Rupert in a small boat, but officials claim he was assisted by two different gasboats, and further developments are promised in that line.

HOMELESS AS RESULT OF STORM

EFFORTS TO BE MADE TO AVERT FAMINE AND DISEASE FOLLOWING HURRICANE

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Sept. 15.—With tens of thousands of homeless people here, efforts are under way today to avert famine and disease which it is feared may follow in the wake of Thursday's hurricane. While no deaths are reported the authorities think that as soon as communication is established with other parts of the island fatalities will become known.

The cost of relief and reconstruction will probably reach millions. Practically all frame structures here have been destroyed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Ten people are dead in Ponce, Porto Rico and 700 are homeless as a result of the hurricane Thursday and Friday, according to cable advices received here.

FISHING BOATS SANK RESULT OF TYPHOON

SIR HENRY THORNTON IN BERLIN TELLS PEOPLE THERE THEY CAN HAVE LAND

BERLIN, Sept. 15.—Sir Henry Thornton of the C.N.R., who is spending a few days here, in an interview yesterday discussed the European emigration to Canada. He said German settlers would be especially welcomed in the Dominions. The German had been found to be industrious, thrifty, intelligent and law-abiding. Every German settler, he said, could obtain land under favorable conditions and be helped in other ways.

FAIR FINANCES WILL BREAK EVEN EXPECTS
 HEAD OF EXHIBITION

Under the circumstances the Fair Building was well patronized during the Exhibition and it is expected that Northern B.C. Agricultural and Industrial Association's finances will this year about break even or perhaps do a little better, stated M. P. McCaffery, president of the Fair Board, this morning. Had the weather been auspicious for the Stampedes, there would probably have been a nice surplus to carry over to next year.

DAILY EDITION  Saturday, Sept. 15, 1928

COVERING THE FIELD

For the first time in its existence The Daily News may be said to properly cover the district in such a manner as to give advertisers the best possible returns for the money expended. During the campaign over eight hundred new subscribers have been added to the list and a number of the communities have been covered practically one hundred per cent. The campaign has cost The Daily News a good deal of money and the advertisers will get the benefit of this in increased publicity.

This is a time for local firms to reach out for business and they can do this through the medium of our advertising department.

LOCAL MERCHANTS AND FARMERS

Some of the local merchants are inclined to take issue with D. D. Munro in regard to their efforts to do business with the farmers of the interior. They state that it is true that most of the fruit and vegetables used in the city come from the south but they allege that the fault is entirely with the farmers who have no idea of marketing their produce properly and often they ask prices higher than those paid for goods coming from the state of Washington which have to be shipped to the coast, reshipped to this side of the line, duty paid, and then shipped again to Prince Rupert. Some Central B.C. growers ship their produce in sacks and many who use boxes have no sense of honesty in the packing, concealing inferior quality fruit or vegetables underneath the top layer. So say the merchants.

It seems to be the local opinion that a campaign of education is needed among the growers to teach them how to pack and market their goods.

Doubtless there are cases where out of town shippers have been used badly by merchants but all these things can be righted. What we suggest is that the farmers study well the matter of packing and shipping their produce and that a close watch be kept upon merchants who do not treat shippers well and that farmers blacklist them and report the case to the local board of trade.

It is possible that there might be a committee of the Prince Rupert Board of Trade whose duty it should be to foster better relations between the farmers and merchants and this might possibly also be a committee of investigation to whom could be reported any cases of alleged unfair dealing on the part of local merchants. There must be some way of making it possible for interior growers to ship to the Prince Rupert merchants. People in the city want the produce of the Skeena and Bulkley valleys and the people in the country want the nearest and best market. The market is here so it is hoped an effort will be made to cultivate each other and to develop the output of the farms and gardens of the interior.

unlocked it and made the final count, which required work well into the night.

During the week dozens of envelopes were placed in the ballot box. Many of the workers continued canvassing until the last moment and just before the campaign was formally declared closed all envelopes from the post office were placed in the sealed ballot box.

Start Vote Counting

The judges began their work at nine o'clock and finished only after hours of strenuous work. They found hundreds of subscriptions and thousands of coupons collected by friends of the candidates. Every receipt, check, money order, bill or coin was carefully checked and the results were totalled. It was a smiling, cheerful and hard-fought battle this campaign of The Prince Rupert Daily News.

All honors to the hustling candidates who worked so hard to obtain the prizes.

The utmost accuracy was observed by the judges in tallying each candidate's vouchers and votes, and to say that it was a difficult and most tedious task is putting it mildly. Very fortunately, the men who served as judges were all accustomed to the handling of figures and to accounting with the greatest exactness and this made it possible to complete the count with promptitude.

Thank Judges

To these very competent judges, who worked so carefully last night in the task of counting the ballots cast, The Daily News wishes to express its sincerest thanks. The management is grateful indeed to them for their work.

The Daily News also wishes to take this means of expressing its thanks and gratitude to every candidate in the list for their part in making the big campaign the rousing success it has been. Starting out very slowly, indeed, for a while it looked like a dismal failure, the big campaign became faster and more interesting until it became the most talked-of subject in the entire district.

It is doubtful if there was a home in the entire limits of the territory served by The Daily News that was not keenly interested in the success of some of the candidates toward the home stretch.

Every individual candidate, regardless of his or her standing in the list, should feel mighty proud today of the hundreds and hundreds of friends who valiantly supported them throughout the campaign. The support that was given the different workers proved beyond question that each neighborhood and each community was represented in the campaign by one of its most popular persons.

It would be impossible, according to the judgment of the management of the campaign, to go through the country adjacent to Prince Rupert and throughout the city itself and select a like number of men and women who possess more friends, or are more popular in their communities, and neighborhoods than the men and women who competed in The Prince Rupert Daily News campaign.

Again the management wants to thank these enterprising hustling candidates for their earnest work. And let it be said right here, that if in future The Daily News can express their appreciation in a more substantial manner, or if The Daily News can be of any service to any of these splendid people, all that is necessary is for the wish to be made known to the management. The Daily News wants the candidates in this campaign to appreciate how they have widened the influence of this paper and how greatly they have assisted in its growth for the past few weeks, and, regardless, of the big prizes that have been awarded The Daily News is at the command of every candidate at any time it can be of service in any way.

Candidates represented two districts, of which one was Prince Rupert City proper. In this way it was possible for persons living in various communities to solicit among their neighbors and friends. This accounts for the fact that it was possible for a candidate living, let's say, in any particular district, to secure more votes than some other candidates in another territory and yet not receive an equal prize.

All candidates who remained active during the campaign and failed to receive a big prize, have had checks sent them to cover a commission of 10 per cent. of the money they turned in during the entire campaign.

More than anything else the management of the campaign appreciates the expression of the various candidates in the office, winners and losers, about the fairness and squareness of the entire campaign.

It has been the constant aim of the management to conduct the entire campaign on an absolutely unquestionable plan, to make it fair and square in every detail to everyone. And it is gratifying to the management to know that these efforts have been appreciated from the complimentary remarks and the expressions of everyone who has visited The Daily News office and campaign headquarters.

The Women's Auxiliary to the Can-

Widows and Orphans, Limited

It is upon them that the schemer preys! The lure of easy money is almost irresistible and the savings of a lifetime are often gambled away, unknowingly, in unfortunate speculations.

Even the husband and father, anxious to leave his family well provided for, often becomes the victim of some get-rich-quick scheme. Almost without exception, the results are failure and disappointment.

When the head of the home is taken away, a hundred enticing baits are set for the estate he leaves behind. With the vision of winning financial independence for her children and herself, the widow falls prey to ignorant or unscrupulous advisers.

There is one safe, sure method of protecting your loved ones after you are gone . . . the creating of an adequate estate through Life Insurance. And, by arranging for its payment in the form of a regular income for your widow, you can guard her for as long as she may live.

Let a Life Insurance representative explain to you how easily and safely you may provide for the future of your family.

FINE EXHIBIT FROM INTERIOR

BULKLEY AND SKEENA DISPLAY WAS FEATURE THIS YEAR'S FAIR

One of the most outstanding features of the Northern British Columbia Agricultural and Industrial Fair, 1928, just closed was the very excellent display of agricultural products from the Bulkley and Skeena Valleys. This is a non-competitive exhibit put on by D. D. Munro of the Provincial Government. The attractively arranged exhibit was backed up with outstanding quality of the individual products.

The sheafs, grasses and legumes, both wild and cultivated, centered by a mixed farming scene in the Bulkley Valley was shown to good advantage on the back wall of the exhibit.

Threshed grains, grasses, clovers and vegetable seeds in great variety, and field roots of good size and quality, fill the whole of the space in the left foreground. These grains and grasses were mainly from the Bulkley Valley.

Burned clay bricks made by Axel Anderson, of Smithers, were also shown in the exhibit, a promising industry of that town.

The dairy and beef cattle possibilities were well depicted on the north wing of the exhibit, where an enlargement showing a beef herd in the Valley is hung and surrounded by many of the native pasture grasses, peavine and vetches.

Two cans, one of fresh milk and another of sweet cream addressed to Rupert from interior points, denotes the connection between the City of Prince Rupert and points east along the line of the Canadian National Railways.

On the opposite end of the exhibit was shown some of the luscious fruits from the Terrace section, centered by an enlargement showing a strawberry field in this locality.

From Terrace and Hazelton also came many of the vegetables, pumpkins, yellow and green; and cabbages of great size, tomatoes, cauliflower, corn, etc. Smooth shallow eyed potatoes of fine quality from interior points were also featured in the exhibit.

Honey, direct from the producers in both Bulkley and Terrace sections were very temptingly displayed as another feature.

In a word the exhibit was an excellent one and not only shows the agricultural possibilities of the Interior Valleys along the Canadian National Railway, but the necessity for the closest co-operation and support from the city of Prince Rupert as a market for much of the products produced.

DOUBLE NATIVE MARRIAGE HERE

MRS. SELINA BOLTON WEDDED TO ABEL WILSON AND MISS MABEL CLIFTON TO HERBERT RIDLEY

A pretty double native wedding took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the First United Church, Rev. A. Wilson officiating, when Mrs. Selina Bolton, of Kitkatla, was united in marriage to Abel Wilson, of Hartley, and Miss Mabel Clifton, of Hartley, became the bride of Herbert Ridley, of Kitkatla. The witnesses of the Wilson-Bolton nuptials were Mrs. Isabella Lewis and John Eaton, while Mrs. Violet Robinson and Robert B. Clifton attended the Ridley-Clifton couple.

Riding around the streets in taxis with cow bells and tin cans attached, the double wedding party attracted much attention after the ceremony. A dinner in one of the downtown restaurants followed.

Not one of the least attractive features of this year's Exhibition program was the playing of the Prince Rupert Boys' Band which was heard on several evenings at Agricultural Hall and also at the stampede on Thursday afternoon. Many persons commented favorably upon the excellent progress that is being made by the organization under the direction of Thomas Wilson, the bandmaster. Many of the boys are becoming finished musicians and the organization is one of which the city may become increasingly proud.

HUDSON BAY CO. PARTY IN NORTH

DISTINGUISHED GROUP PIPED INTO PRINCE RUPERT AS THEY ARRIVED HERE THIS MORNING

Piped in by the pibroch in the traditional manner just as Sir George Simpson, the centenary of whose arrival at Fort St. James they will assist in celebrating next Monday, came, members of "The Company of Merchant Adventurers Trading in the Hudson Bay" arrived in the city from Vancouver on the steamer Prince George enroute to the interior. Some of the noted members of the party were Chas. V. Sale of London, England, Governor of the Hudson's Bay Co.; Hon. R. Randolph Bruce, Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia; Miss Helen Mackenzie, the Lieutenant Governor's niece; Judge P. W. Howay, of New Westminster, authority on things historical in British Columbia; George W. Allen and A. F. Graham, Eastern directors of the Hudson's Bay Co.; Sir Charles Piers, bart. of Vancouver, and others. The piper, who stood on the forward main deck of the steamer as she landed and sounded the well-known strains of "The Cock of the North," was Pipe Sergeant Wishart of the Sixteenth Canadian Scottish Regiment, Vancouver. Even here the party was observing the historical pageant which will mark the celebration at Fort St. James. They proceeded from here to the interior by a special car attached to the regular morning train.

Among those who met the Lieutenant Governor upon his arrival here was Inspector James M. Tupper, commanding officer of the local Royal Canadian Mounted Police, from whom Mr. Bruce took the salute. It was the first visit here of the Lieutenant Governor in his capacity as such.

Deer Hunting Season Opens Today—Snagboat Bobolink Tied up for Winter—Helge H. and Dickie Boy Collide

The opening of the deer season today will be marked with the departure of a number of boats in quest of early season game. Parties have been organized to go forth in a number of Yacht Club boats, and, by the time this appears, some of them, no doubt, will be gone. Many of the surrounding hills will be scoured within the next twenty-four hours, no matter what the weather conditions may be. The season for deer hunting is open today to November 30. The season for ducks and geese opens on October 15 and will continue until December 31. The advent of the bird season will see local nimrods cannonading in full swing.

As usual, Exhibition Week was a quiet one along the waterfront, things coming practically to a standstill on Thursday afternoon when most of the boys were, or supposed to be, on the Exhibition grounds watching the rough riders and wild horses do their stuff.

Judging from the numbers of native boats which congested the Cow Bay floats during the week, there seemed to have been as many Indians as ever in for the festivities, contrary reports notwithstanding. Today sees the departure of the most of the visiting natives on their return to their various homes along the coast.

D. B. Finn, director of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station, and H. N. Brooklesby, vitamin expert, returned to the city this morning after attending the recent conference in Vancouver of Pacific coast workers of the Biological Board of Canada. Louis Smith, the glue wizard, is remaining in the south for a couple of weeks longer on vacation.

REDECKED WHARF

Albert & McCaffery have completed the work of redecking the east end of their coal wharf. The work was carried out by the Pacific Stevedoring & Contracting Co.

Capt. Peter Leighton of Metlakatla had his seineboat Dickie Boy on the Ward Ways this week for overhaul preparatory to departing for Lagoon Bay, out of which cannery the vessel will engage in the fall fishing.

Other boats on the same ways during the week have included the halibut vessel Rose Spt, troller C. W., and pleasure boats Vacuero and Poinsettia, all for painting and caulking.

After a week's trip down the coast as far as Butedale, ostensibly for the purpose of engaging in a search for a man and boat supposed to have been involved in connection with the recent murder of Ernest Maynard, Adenrooke Island lighthouse keeper, the provincial police cruiser P.M.L. 2, with Constables Raybon and Camm on board, returned to port on Thursday afternoon. Evidently, the vessel met with no success in its mission. Tommy Camm was nursing a badly bruised cheek, the result of having become too affectionate with the starting bar which came back and kayped him completely for a few seconds at least.

According to reports reaching the city from the south, an intensive investigation is being made with a view to solving the nature and perpetrator of Maynard's killing. So far, as far as can be learned, the killer is still at large.

Snagboat Bobolink, Capt. J. D. Watson, after an active season's work on the Naas and Skeena Rivers, arrived in port Thursday morning from the Skeena and proceeded the next day to Digby Island where she will be taken on the ways for the winter. About a month's work is now to be carried out on the vessel in installing seven new water tanks in place of old ones. Early in spring, the Bobolink will go on dry dock for annual overhaul.

HELGE H. DAMAGED

Halibut boat Helge H., Capt. Maurelius Halkestad, has been on the McLean Ways at Seal Cove this week having repairs made to her stern following a collision last Sunday at the Lipsett wharf with the seineboat Dickie Boy. The latter vessel hit the Helge H. head on and sustained little damage itself.

Bill Shelton returned to port on Monday with his trolling boat Diver after having spent the summer at North Island and has since been relieving at the Prince Rupert Rowing & Yacht Club's floats for Shef Thompson who has been enjoying a well earned though strenuous holiday. Trolling operations at North Island this season, Bill reports, met with only fair success. Continuous north winds were partly responsible but there were also too many boats there—over one hundred gas vessels in addition to the hand trollers. Fishing at Hippo Island having been a failure, practically all the boats from there moved up to North Island.

Bill states that he will immediately raise his old sealing vessel Kelpie which recently went over on her side and filled when a staving at the old McLean Ways in Cow Bay, where she was out of the water, collapsed. The two-cycle gas engines, which the Kelpie is equipped, will be removed but it has not yet been decided what disposition will be made of the hull.

HALIBUT LANDINGS

In spite of the fact that the past week was about the roughest from the weather standpoint so far this season, halibut landings at Prince Rupert kept up well totalling 654,900 pounds—463,300 pounds American and 191,600 pounds Canadian—and bringing the total for the season up to yesterday to 19,982,500 pounds, consisting of 13,670,500 pounds American and 6,312,000 pounds Canadian, as compared with 19,691,950 pounds, made up of 14,024,850 pounds American and 5,677,100 pounds Canadian, at a similar date last year.

Prices during the week remained at a satisfactory level. The high price of the week for American fish was 16c and 7c which the Leviathan was paid for 11,000 pounds while the best bid for Canadian fish was 14.1c and 7c given the Atli for 10,000 pounds. Low prices of the week were 13.3c and 6c for American fish and 12.3c and 7c for Canadian.

September 21 will see the closing for the season of the final two operating canneries on the Skeena River—Inverness and Claxton. The Arrandale cannery on the Naas River as well as Lowe Inlet, Butedale, Kiemtu and Walker Lake in the Central Division and Namu and Tallheo in the Bella Coola region will remain open until the end of September to pack fall varieties.

Fishing at Massett, Skidegate, and Cumshewa Inlets on the Queen Charlotte Islands is still closed but seining for dog salmon will again be permitted as soon as the pinks have all got up the streams, probably in about two week's time.

The launching took place recently at Birkenhead, England, of the Lady Hawkins, second of five passenger liners which are being built for the Canadian National Steamships Ltd. for the West Indies service. The naming ceremony was performed by Mrs. J. G. Gardner, wife of a director of the Canadian National Railways. R. S. Johnson, managing director of Cammell-Lairds, the builders, proposed the toast of success to the Lady Hawkins and Mr. Gardner replied. The Lady Hawkins is of 437' net in length overall and 59 feet beam. She will have a speed of fifteen knots and accommodation for 235 passengers.

The Atlantic coast gill-netters are beginning to bring in the large steak cod which they take in numbers through the mid-summer months. The landing of several 50 and 60 pound fish at the A.J. Flaherty & Company fish house on Vortland Pier, started the fish surgeons reminiscing as to the monsters of the past they had operated upon. Office records kept for many years showed that in 1896 a monster cod, weighing 211 pounds and measuring more than six feet in length was captured on a trawl off the Massachusetts coast.

In 1838 an 180-pounder was taken off Georges Banks and in 1884 several others ranging from 100 to 160 pounds were taken by Maine and Massachusetts fishermen in the Gulf of Maine. Portsmouth, N.H., fishermen tell of a 113-pound fish after dressing, caught by Samuel Haley, of Smutty Nose, Isles of Shoals. In 1878 Captain George H. Martin, of Gloucester, took off Cape Cod a cod that weighed 111 pounds dressed, and the next year captured one in Ipswich Bay which measured 5 feet 2 inches and weighed 127 pounds as taken from the water. In 1879 two codfish were received at Portsmouth each of which weighed 108 pounds. In the spring of 1907 at New Ledge, sixty miles southeast of Portland, a 107-pounder was taken. In 1881 the schooner Morrill Boy, Captain Russell Gill, took on one trip 319 codfish weighing 9,570 pounds or an average of 30 pounds each. Commenting on these records, Michael J. Flaherty, proprietor of the local fish house, said, "Big fish like those are not so plentiful as they used to be. The average cod we handle here probably runs from 15 to 25 pounds. What we call 'large' cod caught near shore will run as high as 35 pounds, and those on Georges Bank will be nearer 25 pounds. Today we do get quite a lot of steak cod that will weigh from 40 to 60 pounds. But those real monsters are pretty scarce. A 75-pounder is enough to set the boys' tongues wagging, and once or twice a year even now, after all the years of more and more intensive fishing, an occasional 80 and even 100-pound codfish is imported. Evidently there still come pretty near being as good fish in the sea as were ever caught. Do you know that personally, I disagree with those who claim the annual invasion of dogfish is a terrible menace to our New England food fisheries? I know that's pretty radical, but did you ever stop to think that the dogfish may be nature's instrument in imposing a natural close time on the cod, haddock, hake, cusk and other standard fishes? All through the fall, winter and spring months we have our fill of these fishes fresh from the cold water and in fine condition. Now suppose we had the regular cold-weather supply right through the hot summer. We simply couldn't take care of them. They would become soft and unfit for human consumption if the quantities were not diminished. The dogfish drive the fishermen into temporarily abandoning these fisheries and the cod, haddock and other staple varieties get a chance to multiply and grow. The fishermen turn their attention to mackerel, herring, butter fish and swordfish while the dogfish are schooling, and so the public, too, gets a chance. Most people who like fish welcome the opportunity to replace cod and haddock for a few months with fine fresh mackerel, outter fish and other varieties that abound during the summer."

With the season exactly two months to go, the American schooner Foremost belonging to Ness Boss and Petersen ahead of all other boats for volume of halibut landings at the port of Prince Rupert this year, having brought in 316,000 pounds in six trips. The Eldorado is second with 263,000 pounds in seven trips. Other heavy landers of American fish at Prince Rupert this season have been: Brunvol, nine trips, 239,500 pounds; Majestic, seven trips, 203,000 pounds; North, eight trips, 250,000 pounds; Portlock, seven trips, 221,000 pounds; Reliance I, seventeen trips, 223,000 pounds.

Next to the Reliance I in the American fleet for number of fares landed at Prince Rupert comes the Jack and Onah, Captain Harry Selig, with thirteen trips each, having landed a total of 60,000 pounds and 146,000 pounds respectively.

For the Canadian fleet, the Oslo, is leading for amount of halibut landed with 237,000 pounds in 13 trips. The Prosperity A, is second with 215,000 pounds in 12 trips and the Tarka, 3rd, with 197,000 pounds in six trips.

The Viking has made the most trips of the Canadian fleet, having returned to port seventeen times with a total of 162,500 pounds, while the Onome, Captain David Ritchie, has made the next most trips, sixteen for a total of 123,200 pounds. Canadian boats having made fifteen trips are: Mayflower, 88,500 pounds; Scrub, 163,500 pounds; Tern, 169,000 pounds.

The fixed white light on Ivory Island light station, Millbank Sound, it is announced, will be changed to a revolving white light on or about September 22.

GIANTS TRIM BOSTON TEAM

STILL ONE GAME BEHIND BECAUSE ST. LOUIS WON AGAINST PHILADELPHIA

NEW ORK, Sept. 15.—Although the New York Giants trimmed Boston eight games in four days and established a new major league record for consecutive victories in double headers, St. Louis managed to stay on top by defeating Philadelphia in a mediocre game, six St. Louis batters being walked in their fifth inning.
The Giants are still one full game behind the Cardinals.

In the only National League game played Monday at St. Louis, continued his batting spree with a homer and a triple score, all of his team's guns against Chicago that won out five to four. The Browns made five errors.

LACROSSE TEAM BEAT AIYANSH

LITTLE DISPUTE WITH STICKS MARKS SECOND MEETING OF NATIVES AND LOCAL BOYS

Prince Rupert lacrosse team won in splendid style yesterday over Aiyansh native team by a score of five goals to two, but unfortunately the game was marred by a mixup between Brick Skinner and two or three of the natives, as a result of which Morvan of the visiting team had to go to the hospital and Skinner and another of the natives were given time on the sidelines. The total penalties for Aiyansh amounted to 20 minutes and for Prince Rupert ten minutes.

The victory was due to a large extent to the splendid work of T. Hughes in goal, fortified by a strong defence. The sharpshooters also played a rattling good game.

Scorers were:
Rupert—Woods, 4; C. Tooley, 1.
Aiyansh—C. Morvan, 1; L. Smythe, 1.

SPORT CHAT

One evening recently the weather being ideal, the Anxox all-star team played to a 3 to 1 victory over the visiting Greenville team. Anxox managed, through the skillful playing of Jack Parker, to make the first goal. The visitors then tied the score. In the second half Woods scored two goals for Anxox, making the score of 3-1. The Anxox line-up was: Winkelman (goal), Stoltz, Archer, Donaldson, Taylor, McDougall, Peele, Buchanan, Dodd, Woods, Parker.

After the football game it was decided that the Elks' baseball would play the visiting Greenville team. Accordingly the boys turned out and brought the victory to Anxox with a score of 11-1. The main feature of the evening was when Bartmann of any-dox knocked a home run. The Anxox boys had no difficulty in keeping ahead of their opponents. The line-up for Anxox was Lazorek (p); Chenoski (c); Bertmann (1st b); Sheen (2nd base); McCall (s.s.); McDougall (3rd b); Matix (l.f.); Evans (c.f.); Wilson (r.f.).

With the summer outdoor sporting season in Prince Rupert, such as it may have been, now behind, the interest of sporting fans in this city will turn to arrangements for winter indoor athletics. Fair week has come to mark the end of summer sport and the turning of the winter forms. Basketball, it may be expected, will again occupy the centre of the stage and it is likely that the Association in charge will soon be starting arrangements. Even throughout the summer, boxing has been carried on in the city with considerable success. It should meet with even more popularity this winter. An extension in badminton, which has been gaining in popularity by leaps and bounds during the past two or three winters, is already promised with more organizations taking up the sport. Thrill active diversions of billiards, whist, cribbage etc. should also be carried on successfully once more. The suggestion has been made several times in the past that Prince Rupert might have another popular indoor sport in the form of indoor baseball. However, the idea has not been taken up and, in view of the outdoor baseball situation here during the past summer, it is hardly to be expected that they will be anything doing along this line during the coming winter.

Except for the local lacrosse team, which played a couple of games with the Indians from Aiyansh, all the athletic competitions at this year's fair were provided by natives from various villages in the district. The Indians even figured prominently in the boxing tournament last Tuesday evening and, in that connection, it was regrettable that one of the natives, through no fault of his own, should have been manhandled by a hot-headed local youth because he did his best and won a fight which, if not fairly matched, was, at least no fault of his own. While white inter-town football and baseball games at this year's Fair were badly missed and it is to be hoped they will not be lacking another year, the natives should always be made welcome here and they should be encouraged to come to Prince Rupert at all times, not only during Fair Week, to exhibit their prowess in contest with the local players of various sports. The natives are good sports and many of them are excellent players of football, baseball, lacrosse, etc.

FAMOUS JOCKEY IS DECLARED BANKRUPT LOSES ALL RACES

LONDON, Sept. 15.—Steve Donoghue, who rode six Derby winners during his long career as a jockey, has been declared bankrupt. This year's misfortune has ridden with him and Donoghue found himself riding 108 consecutive losers.

WHY HE KICKED

Caller—Look here. Want to see you about this paragraph announcing my resignation from the Chamber of Commerce.

Editor—But it's quite true, isn't it?
Caller—Quite. But I should like you to explain why you've printed it under "Public Improvement."

BASEBALL GAME NOT COMPLETED

NATIVES INDIGNANT THAT THEIR MATCH SHOULD HAVE BEEN STOPPED YESTERDAY

Port Simpson and Hazelton played only four innings in the final for the native baseball championship yesterday so it was called no game and the teams returned to their homes today without deciding the possession of the cup this year. It was agreed to play nine innings and the visiting natives were rather indignant that their game should have been stopped right in the middle of it in order that the stampee might be started. When the game was called, Port Simpson was leading 5 to 4.

William Wale, captain of the Hazelton team stated this morning that the trip cost his team $200 and they are rather dissatisfied that, after this expense, they were unable to play the final. The Hazelton team returned to the interior this morning and the Port Simpson team returned home by gasboat.

SMALL ATTENDANCE RODEO CALLED OFF

Money Returned to Few who Entered Gate for Second Performance Yesterday Afternoon

So small an attendance paid admission yesterday for the second day of the stampee in connection with the Exhibition that it was decided to call the performance off and refund the money of the few who had passed the gate.

It is evident now that the Fair Board next year will have to devise some other form of major attraction than a stampee. Neither the horses nor the steers were very lively and it is probable that it was this rather than the threatening weather that prevented a crowd turning out yesterday.
The rodeo gate this year amounted to only $660 whereas last year it ran over $3,000. The 1928 Fair Board will have a large loss on the stampee alone.

Around The World With Sport Fans (By The Tramp)

Manager Art Ross of the Boston Bruins has named Lionel Hitchman as captain of the Boston professional hockey team for the coming winter. "Hitch," who has been with the Bruins for four years, and who has starred on a defenceman ever since he joined the team from Ottawa, should make good on the job. Well liked by both players and fans, Hitchman will get the full backing of the management. He takes the place of Sprague Cleghorn, who will not be with the Bruins this winter. It won't be long now before the big hockey leaguers commence training.
