There is not a book of American authorship in regular use in the elementary schools while in the high schools the only books of United States origin were two of general character which it was difficult to replace to the limited demand for books of this nature.

FARMERS BACK FROM EUROPE

Return After Having Investigated Conditions in Several Countries

SPLENDID ADVERTISEMENT Impetus Given to Immigration by Visit of Canadians to Britain and Denmark

HALIFAX, Feb. 28.—Members of the Canadian Farmers' marketing tour of Great Britain and Denmark, initiated by the Canadian National Railways, returning to Halifax this morning aboard the White Star liner Albertic, declare that their visit to Great Britain and Denmark has been the greatest single advertisement for immigration to Canada, and for Canadian products that has ever been put through in the history of Canada's relations with Great Britain. "We have returned to preach the gospel of better products, intensive cultivation and better marketing," said they all. "It has been an unqualified success. In our opinion Canada has received the most valuable advertising that has ever been given the Dominion." While this opinion was expressed by one man, namely F. R. Holtby, of St. Thomas, Ontario, it was re-echoed by everyone.

"What is your opinion of the definite results of this tour?" was asked E. D. Haliburton, of Nova Scotia, and he replied, "as an advertisement for settlers I believe nothing hitherto done can compare with it," and he cited the instance that when the party was in Denmark there were two hundred young men applied for permission to migrate to Canada in one day, a number never (continued on page six)

BOTH FINE MEN

Yesterday we published side by side pictures of the leaders of the two political parties in British Columbia. Both are fine men, good enough for any man to support. Which is the better depends not so much on the relative merits of the men themselves as on the political opinions of those giving the opinion.

A similar situation exists at the head of federal affairs. In Mackenzie King and R. B. Bennett the country has two good men, either of which is capable of leading a government.

It is a great thing to think that at the head of affairs in Canada we are developing good leaders. They are men of ability and integrity. Sometimes we may disagree with things they do or say, but it may be our own conception of what is proper that may be at fault.

It is quite possible that in the near future the McLean government may appeal to the people of the province for re-election. Then, it is to be supposed, Dr. Toimie will leave his Ottawa job and come to take up the fight in British Columbia. He cannot hold both positions. He will probably be asked to contest the Saanich constituency where he will probably be elected.

There also seems every probability that Dr. MacLean will be returned to carry on the work which he has just started. In any event the country is fairly safe with two such men, one as premier and the other as leader of the opposition.

REGISTER NOW AND BE SAFE

It is pretty safe to say that people who register now will be in time to vote at the next provincial election. It is not likely that the election will be called earlier than May 21, which is the date of the next court of revision. To get on that list it is necessary to register before April 10. After that it will be impossible to get on the list or to vote, in case there is an election during the coming summer.

People who are British subjects and who have been in British Columbia six months and in this district one month can register here.

We suggest that any who are not registered should do so at once. They can call at the government offices in the Court House at any time during business hours and be put on the list.

LIFE INSURANCE

The life insurance companies have an association through which they have been for a long time advertising their own business. They have drawn to the attention of the people of the country the advisability of heads of families safeguarding their wives and families in case of their deaths.

It is a brutal thing for a man to leave his wife and family helpless. If it is the result of thoughtlessness, his soul would scarcely rest happy in the world to come with such a neglect on his mind.

As a rule people wait for an agent to come and talk them into buying life insurance, but that is a mistake. If people really understood what this means and were sufficiently kind and just, there would be an end of insurance agents. Every man would seek that protection which can be given in no other way.

CHICAGO WAKING UP

Chicago must be waking up. Five of the seven bandits who held up the Canadian National train Saturday have been arrested and confessed. That was pretty quick work. Possibly the police of Chicago are on their mettle with a British train. Big Bill Thompson must have feared the lash of the British lion's tail if he let them get away with it this time.

EMPIRE SHOPPING WEEK

The last week in April has been selected this year as Empire Shopping Week, during which Canadians will be asked to emphasize their loyalty to the Empire by buying only goods produced within it. The women of Canada in particular are being asked to co-operate in this movement, which it is said will tend to enhance the solidarity and unity of the Empire.

A big Empire advertising campaign will be initiated which will include shop window advertising, newspapers and billboards. The scheme is being backed by the National Council of Women, the I.O.D.E., the Retail Merchants Association of Canada, the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, the Trades & Labor Congress of Canada, the British Agents Association, the Association of Canadian Advertisers, the Canadian Association of British Manufacturers, and the Canadian Manufacturers Association.

BRADY'S SPEECH EXPERIMENTAL FARM FOR B.C.

Text of What Appeared in the Hansard Report of Local Member

In the Hansard report of the speech of J. C. Brady on the need of an experimental farm in central B.C. delivered recently in the House of Commons at Ottawa follows: I deeply appreciate the explanation which the minister has given, and I realize what expenditure is involved in developing agriculture throughout Canada. At the same time, I should be derelict in my duty if I did not oppose the views of the minister, knowing as I do the importance and the greatness of the lands which today are neglected in the matter of experimental work. I desire to give to the committee a clear view of a part of the country which today is practically in a pioneer state, wherein farmers alone, unaided, are building up an agricultural industry that has brought them into prominence even against the keenest competition of the most centralized and most highly developed parts of Canada. There are two points in relation to the district to which I refer which I wish to submit for the consideration of the minister. In the last year or so the farmers in the district in question, in competition with other parts of Canada, as well as of the United States, were able by their unaided efforts to secure first prize in Chicago for their timothy seed. Within recent days the president of the Alberta wheat pool examined at the elevator in Prince Rupert cars of wheat coming from the prairies and four cars that came from the Bulkley valley, and he, unprejudiced, publicly made the assertion that the wheat that came from the Bulkley district exceeded that of best grade wheat that came from the prairies. I am giving you the words of Mr. Woods, the president of the Alberta wheat pool.

ENLARGE SCOPE

I wish to say a few words now to show that it is the duty of the government to enlarge the scope of the splendid work which the experimental farms are doing, and to urge that the particular district I am speaking for should have an experimental farm.

Briefly, the constituency of Skeena comprises four provincial electoral ridings, Ailin, Omineca, Skeena, Prince Rupert and part of Mckenzie county. In that constituency there are the famous valleys of the Kispiox, Nechako, Endako, Bulkley, Skeena and the Naas, comprising millions of acres of land that is most suitable for agriculture and dairying. But what do we find? We find that the climatic conditions that prevail in this great empire of national wealth are not known to Canada at all. It would be impossible for any Canadian who has not travelled the great west to realize the potentialities of wealth that lie within those borders. When you come to consider it, the splendid experimental farm at Agassiz fills only the needs of a small portion of British Columbia. Agassiz experimental farm is situated in the most southern part of British Columbia, within a few miles of Vancouver. It has done splendid work. Everyone knows of the wonderful development that has taken place there in the dairying industry and of the prizes obtained by the prize herds on this farm. In poultry, too, as well as dairying, it has done a splendid work in developing the southern part of British Columbia. But what about the great section of country to which I refer. We have there millions of acres of land suitable for agriculture, but progress has been retarded, and there has not been that development that has taken place in the most southerly part. The minister is aware of the reasons that we advanced on behalf of this section last year. We mentioned first of all the necessity, and showed the advantage an experimental farm would be to the established farmers as well as to new settlers. I should like to put some facts before the committee, Mr. Chairman, and if I am wrong I should like the minister to correct me. I shall be willing to accept his decision if he can deny the accuracy of my statements in this connection.

HUGE TERRITORY

The constituency of Skeena, for which I am asking for an experimental farm, is ten times as large as the Free State of Ireland, whose president was in the precincts of this building a few days ago. We have almost the same climatic conditions in the constituency of Skeena as they have in the free state of Ireland, but greater possibilities if we would only make use of them. In the first eleven months of the three years from 1925 to 1927 the butter exportation from the Irish Free State rose from £3,500,000 to £4,500,000, an increase of practically $5,000,000. Their imports of butter during the same period decreased from £87,000 to £33,000, a decrease of about $1,700,000.

I am not here to ask the government for something that is not of vital import to Canada. I realize what it would mean in expenditure, but I know that in what I say I am striking a responsive chord in the hearts of the people who want to build up in this country a great agricultural and dairying industry, the very foundation of Canada's success. The minister may not be able to establish a farm there now, but I ask him and the government seriously to examine the needs of that country and to give to those people this opportunity to develop their great resources.

There is one other point that I think it is worth while for me to bring up. In western Canada there are thousands of young boys today who are fitting in with the social fabric of our country. I think scholarships should be offered to boys selected from each agricultural community and an opportunity given to them to acquire a knowledge of agriculture and dairying. That is one thing in which we are behind. There are many boys today who would willingly take up this great work if they had the opportunity. Our schools are crammed full of great material that is going to waste, and I appeal once more to the government, and ask for the kind co-operation of the Minister of Agriculture, to do something in this direction for western Canada, which today is absolutely left to its own resources in agricultural development.

FEAT OF HINKLER OUTSTANDING ONE

Cost Said to Have Been Only Two Cents a Mile on Flight to Australia (Edmonton Journal) Sir Robert Horne describes Hinkler's flight from England to Australia in fifteen days as "the greatest single achievement in the history of aviation." The claim is certain to be disputed, but there is a great deal to be said for it. Not only the speed with which the journey was made, but the smallness of the machine used and of the expenses incurred, which are put in at two cents a mile, must be taken into account in appraising the feat. Sir Robert adds that it has "relieved the whole British race of the feeling that it has been outclassed in recent times in air development." But there is no reason why this should have prevailed.

Cobham's flights and those of many others have shown that the old country was not at all lagging behind other nations. They have not received as much publicity as American fliers and this no doubt accounts for the impression that they have less to their credit. There is no disposition manifest outside his own country to depreciate what Lindbergh has done. It has won world-wide admiration that is fully deserved, but there has been too great a tendency to concentrate attention upon him. Hinkler's triumph will serve to correct this. It warrants quite as much enthusiasm as anything that has ever been accomplished by an aviator hitherto.

Don't dose a Child's Cold

CONTINUAL dosing upsets children's delicate stomachs. Vicks is applied externally and therefore cannot disturb the digestion. It acts in two ways:

(1) The body heat releases the ingredients in the form of vapors which are inhaled.

(2) At the same time Vicks "draws out" the soreness like a poultice.

CONAN DOYLE DROPS BOMB

Issues Reactionary Pamphlet Objecting to all Forms of Established Religion

LONDON, Feb. 28.—In the midst of religious turmoil in England, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle dropped a new bombshell in the form of a 19-page pamphlet, "A Word of Warning," which amounts to a recommendation that Christian churches should be scrapped for a new religion based on spiritualism.

The pamphlet scathingly assails the priesthood, the sacraments, baptism, the communion, confession, and the virgin birth. Church rituals are denounced as "organized materialism" and "systematized insanity."

RELIGION'S BASES The creator of Sherlock Holmes, one of the world's best known spiritualists, adds that religion depends upon two things—conduct and character.

"If you are the unselfish kind, then you belong to the elect," he said. "If you try hard to be better and narrower, no faith and no church can save you from the judgment to come."

Regarding Mary he says: "If we wish to have an ideal of womanhood, why not be frank and call Mary the wife of Joseph and the hard working partner of a carpenter with a large family. This is reasonable. But why, in the name of sanity, call her the 'virgin'?"

AS FOR THE SACRAMENT As for the sacrament whose origin is "reasonable and charming," Sir Arthur declared that human absurdity and perverseness made of the sacrament "no less than we eat, drink and presumably digest the actual flesh and blood of God. It is folly of this sort to which I know no parallel in any barbarous religion which calls for judgment on us."

The pamphlet continues on a discussion of the confessional of which Doyle says:

"So perverse and dangerous a practice that a young woman should tell her secret thoughts to a celibate of the opposite sex surely is stark lunacy."

"Of the distinction in the burial of the baptized and unbaptized babies, Sir Arthur asks, 'Has any heathen tribe anything more fantastic?'"

"If such things come from the priesthood, it is time for all priesthood to be swept away," the pamphlet concludes.

Grassie gave a piano solo from one of the Rubenstein's compositions and a discussion followed after which the usual recreational period was enjoyed.

Next week the Young People's Society of the United Church will join with the Fireside Club at the Baptist Church, one of the features of the program to be a debate between the two organizations.

MONTREAL IMPORTERS SELLING OUT WHOLE CONTENTS OF STORE

J. B. Miller Invites People to Call and See for Themselves Cut in Price

The Montreal Importers are selling out their huge stock of Men's and Boys' Clothing and in order to do this quickly, even their former Montreal prices have been forgotten, and prices cut away down. J. B. Miller, the proprietor, admits to getting older every day. He is not so spry as he used to be and cannot get around to displaying his goods as he would like. But he's got the goods just the same. And his prices are low enough to take the height out of the cost of clothing anyway.

Here are two hundred men's suits, all offered at 60c on the dollar. At this price, no one can afford not to be well dressed. And Men's Overcoats are offered at 50c on the dollar. Men's hats, too, the famous Buckley make—made in England—and suit cases by the hundred. With the recent advance in leather prices, suit cases have risen 35 per cent in sympathy and the Montreal Importers had these bought at the old price. Men's and Boys' Underwear, overalls, shirts, pyjamas, ties and everything that a man or a boy needs to wear are here offered at less than wholesale cost of the present day. Household furnishings, too, blankets, sheets, pillow cases, etc., are also going at ridiculously low prices.

But don't believe J. B. Miller—or what he says—unless you like. Just drop into the Montreal Importers' store and see for yourself. When you see the fine quality goods and see the prices asked, you don't need to believe him. You know! And all goods are as represented, too, and the Montreal Importers stand behind the quality of every article in the store.

The whole stock, and it is a big one, for goods bought last fall are now in stock, is offered at the same proportion of price. Everything in the store is being sold out and no reasonable offer will be refused. It will pay you now as never before to secure your share of the Montreal Importers' bargains.

COLLIER DAMAGE CASE PROCEEDING

County Court Engaged Yesterday Afternoon in Taking Evidence and Adjournment Made Until Today

County Court before Judge Young was engaged all yesterday afternoon in the taking of evidence in the case of J. W. Collier vs. the Corporation of the City of Prince Rupert in which plaintiff is seeking award of damages in the sum of $328.88 as a result of a collision some time ago near the dry dock gate of a city truck and a Ford car driven by plaintiff. The city vehicle was coming out of the dry dock yard with a load of ashes while Collier was proceeding along the dry dock road toward his home east of the dry dock on the waterfront. Plaintiff claims negligence on the part of the defendant's car in coming out of the yard while defendant claims that Plaintiff was driving his car at an excessive rate of speed and was also on the wrong side of the road.

Witnesses for the plaintiff were J. W. Collier, S. E. Parker and Joseph Lindsay while evidence for the defence was given by James Haddon, who was driving the city car, John Montezuma, who was also on it, Gordon Kerr and City Engineer H. A. McLean. L. W. Patmore is acting for plaintiff while W. E. Fisher appears for the liability insurance company involved in the action with City Solicitor E. F. Jones holding a watching brief for the city. At 5 o'clock last evening, adjournment in the case was taken until 10 o'clock this morning.

DISCUSSION ON OTTAWA BUDGET

Has Been Great Event in House Although Not Very Important Document

(By R. J. Deachman.)

OTTAWA, Feb. 28.—When the Budget comes down there is nothing else to talk about in Ottawa. It may not be a famous document, but it blankets all the doings in the House for a week. It is doubtful if its real importance merits the attention it receives. There are other things that are more important, but we centre our attentions on the things that seem big and rolling hundreds of millions from the end of the tongue is a sporting proposition for the average man.

Times have changed since the post-war budget. Then, the Minister of Finance had nothing to talk about, save deficits and taxes and more taxes. The bluest of Budgets delivered in the House of Commons, was the last one of Happy Harry Drayton, who landed on the job and had the helm just when things were at their worst. One or two following that in which Mr. Fielding was the main figure, were not noted for their cheerfulness, but Mr. Robb has been able to sing a sweet song to the members of the House and they listen so cheerfully to the story of prosperity that it almost sounds as if he would sing them to sleep.

A GOOD STORY
However, the story of the fiscal year is a good one. The surplus of revenue over expenditure will, he anticipated, total $54,815,000. This, of course, is an estimate. The year is not yet complete and Mr. Robb has a canny habit of not making things any better than they actually are. Loans to soldier settlers and seed grain relief have been written off as bad debts to the extent of $16,000,000. This makes the net surplus for the year, $38,815,000. This will be devoted to the very worthy idea of paying off the National debt.

In the proposals for reduction of taxes, there are some very pleasant features, especially for those who pay income tax. There is a further cut of 10 per cent in the income tax. The tax on Corporations will hereafter be 8 per cent. There is an allowance of an exemption to those who are supporting dependents, who through physical or mental infirmity are unable to support themselves.

In regard to the sales tax, there is a cut of 25 per cent. The rate in force will not be 3 per cent. Apparently it is the policy of the Government to reduce the sales tax gradually until in process of time, we may hope to see its complete elimination. This will be very cheerful news for business men, because, beyond question, sales tax has its influence in increasing the cost of living and adds as well to the expense of doing business.

TARIFF CHANGES

The changes in the tariff are most conspicuous for their number than for their importance. There is a rebate in the duties on paper used in the production of magazines. There is a measure of justice in this, although a rebate privilege must at best be only a secondary means of reducing a tariff. It selects a particular class for a special favor and we have class favorites enough in Canada without resorting to this. Minor changes are made in other items. Palm oil and Shea butter is now free. Nickel Chromium is also on the free list. It is probable that very few people know what these articles are, but it's a satisfaction at least to see that they are free. Printing presses receive a reduction of 5 per cent when imported from countries enjoying the intermediate tariff—our total imports of printing presses in 1926 amounted to $947,000—$12,000 worth of these came in from countries enjoying the intermediate tariff. It is safe, therefore to say, that no one will be shocked particularly in regard to the changes in this item.

COTTON SCHEDULES

In regard to the cotton schedules, there is a complete re-arrangement of the items. No one can pass a hasty judgment and say whether the change is upward or downward—certainly there are some items in which it is lower. Certain extreme tops have been taken off here and there. It may happen that six months hence, when the public has had occasion to examine the schedules and to test the results upon actual imports, we will be able to say that a reduction in the tariff has taken place. Reductions have been made in certain items of raw material for the Cotton Manufacturers. It is a reasonable guess that the reduction in these items of raw material should be more than sufficient to compensate the manufacturers for any downward revision that has taken place and that they should be sitting tight and pretty making bigger profits than ever throughout the coming year. That opinion however, must be subject to modification, because much will depend upon the way the new machine is operated. A close driver may even succeed in making it higher than it has been before.

WHERE ARE WOOLLENS?

In regard to woollens, the situation is even more doubtful. Take one item as an illustration: The duty on British goods was formerly 20 per cent British Preference, 30 per cent Intermediate and 35 per cent General. It remains the same under the new schedule on all items valued at more than 90c a pound. On all items selling for less than 90c a pound, the duty under the British Preference is cut 5 per cent. The net saving to the people of Canada from this reduction, will be so infinitesimally small that it is extremely difficult to measure. The same process of reasoning applies to a great many of the changes made.

Substantial reductions in the tariff would have been a greater forward impulse to business than anything else that could have happened in the Dominion of Canada at the present time. We are approaching a great constructive era. We are producers of basic materials. Our wealth lies in forest, field, mine and the sea. We require new settlers to develop the country. These settlers will not be interested in reductions which have taken place in the income tax. Changes in the Sales Tax will not effect them to a very great extent. Substantial reductions in the tariff would have been a potent and powerful factor, in ameliorating the business situation, but the relief in that regard has not come from the present Budget. We must still look forward to the future.

PACKED HOUSE FASHION SHOW

Between Seven and Eight Hundred People Were Out Last Night to Westholme Theatre

MANY PRETTY DRESSES Mrs. Cullin Was in Charge With Local Girls as Models Giving Interesting Exhibit

Between seven and eight hundred people were out last night to the Westholme Theatre to see the fashion show put on by Richmond's Louvre where some splendid gowns coats and furs were exhibited on living models artistically displayed by local young ladies. Mrs. Cullin was in charge of the show and she kept the interest going by frequent changes, setting off to the best advantage clothes that would be a credit to an establishment in one of the large cities. There were various examples of sports wear and afternoon frocks designed by the best makers on Fifth Ave; coats of special design by continental tailors and neckwear. The ladies who acted as models were Miss Doris Heilbronner, Miss Beatie Thompson, Miss Irma Brooks, Miss Johnson, Miss Menzinger, Miss Zarelli, Miss M. Campbell and last but by no means least, except in stature, was tiny Sheila Richmond, daughter of the proprietor of the Louvre, who daintily but not showily dressed, was the cynosure of all eyes.

The announcements were made by S. A. McPherson who also sang two songs. Tea was served on the stage to the young ladies and the whole affair proved most attractive and was a credit to the establishment putting it on.

The picture "Swim Girl, Swim" is a comedy of college girl life which is scintillatingly funny and is well worth seeing.

The fashion show and picture will be repeated tonight with some additions which it is understood will make it even more attractive than last evening.

So pleased was Mr. Richmond with the success of the affair that he last night donated $25 to the hospital to show his appreciation to the public.

HOW THE SUN LIFE MADE THIRTY-EIGHT MILLIONS PROFIT IN THE YEAR 1927

Participating Policyholders Receive Ninety-Five Per Cent. of Profits—Dividends to Policyholders Again Increased—Company Seeks Legislation to Maintain Canadian Control.

MONTREAL, February 28.—The phenomenal record of the Sun Life Assurance Company is an inspiration to all Canadians. Its income of $102,000,000 is already equal to the total revenue of the Government of Canada in the year 1910, and $38,000,000 is certainly an amazing sum to have earned as profit in one year. Not many corporations anywhere can report such figures. The President's intimate, practical comments at the annual meeting explaining how these huge profits were made were illuminating.

Of even greater moment, however, were his statements regarding the danger that this great Canadian institution may pass from Canadian control. Some months ago, Mr. Macaulay referred to the activity of Wall Street, in the buying of Sun Life stock, and cautioned policyholders and shareholders of the menace it involved to an institution which was founded and developed by Canadians and which has obtained its phenomenal growth under Canadian management. Subsequent events have justified these misgivings, and at the meeting today the first public intimation was given that the Sun Life directors are seeking legislation at the present session of Parliament which is intended to effectively forestall this danger.

Precautions to Maintain the Company Canadian in Character.

In concluding his address to the shareholders and policyholders the President made the following reference to the matter:—"There is but one cloud on our horizon. Our very prosperity has created a remarkable demand for our capital stock. We desire to ensure that this great company shall always remain strictly Canadian in its control and in particular that its investments shall never come under Wall Street domination. A bill which we have introduced into Parliament will be submitted for your approval. If it be passed, it will give us the protection we so much need, and I know we can rely on the whole-hearted sympathy and support, not only of our stockholders and policyholders here present, but of our army of policyholders throughout the country."

The meeting unanimously approved of the measure in question. How important and how vital to Canadians are the interests at stake is disclosed in the report submitted to the annual meeting of the Company.

In moving the adoption of the report, President Macaulay said:—"You gentlemen have become so accustomed to our presenting every year a statement surpassing all previous records that you come prepared to hear another report of that description. I am quite sure, however that not one of you, in his most optimistic mood, expected a report so favorable as that which you now have. Our record for 1927 is indeed a remarkable one. Let me touch on the main features:—

Remarkable Growth, Strength and Profits "The new assurance completed amounted to $28,000,000, an increase of over $62,500,000. The amount in force at the close of the year had risen to $3,487,000,000, and at the present moment is well over $1,560,000,000. "The income exceeded $102,000,000, an increase over the previous year of $23,900,000. To me, this is very impressive. Not only has this item passed the one hundred million mark, but the increase alone is equal to what was our total income but eight years ago, which had been accumulated by forty-nine years of strenuous effort. A life company with a total income no greater than our increase would be an important corporation.

"The assets have increased by $50,000,000, and now exceed $400,000,000. "But the most wonderful of all these wonderful figures is the amount earned as profit—$38,000,000. How great this figure is may be judged from the fact that the earnings of the previous year, in which we so rejoiced, were $20,500,000. It would be hardly reasonable to assume that our earnings of future years will continue on such a tremendous scale, and we have therefore set aside a large part of this sum to provide for future contingencies.

A Great Surplus and Contingency Fund "Our securities have been valued on a very conservative basis, but from even those moderate values we have set aside another $5,000,000 to provide for market fluctuations, making the total deduction under this heading $10,000,000.

"We have also set aside the following amounts:—"A further $1,500,000 for unforeseen contingencies, raising that fund to $12,500,000; $500,000 to provide for possible greater longevity of annuitants, raising that item to $2,000,000; and $1,300,000 to increase our reserves on tropical business; besides writing off another $1,000,000 on our Head Office and other buildings.

"We have distributed $11,100,000 in profits to our policyholders, and have also set aside $6,200,000 to cover profits accrued on policies. "After providing for all these amounts, we have added $11,000,000 to our undivided surplus, raising that sum from $34,000,000 to $45,000,000.

Scale of Profits Increased for Eighth Successive Year "The announcement, however, that will be received with the greatest enthusiasm is that for the eighth consecutive year we have increased the scale of profit payments to our policyholders. The basis of distribution for 1928 will call for nearly $900,000 more than would the basis of last year.

Profits to Policyholders Unexcelled in the World "We can already say that in profitability to our policyholders, we are not excelled by any life company in the world; but we are not satisfied and will not be satisfied until we can make an even stronger statement than that. Years ago, I told our field force that we hoped to be able to announce an increase in our profit scale for ten consecutive years. We have maintained that record for eight years, but the ninth and tenth years have yet to come, and their story has yet to be told. Our huge undivided surplus and our great contingency funds are the best guarantee our policyholders can have as to their future dividends.

Large Dividends the Result of a Wise Investment Policy "You ask how we are able to make these huge profits. The $38,000,000 earned may be divided as coming approximately $14,000,000 from the regular life assurance operations of the Company, $5,000,000 from profits actually realized by the redemption or sale of securities and $19,000,000 from increase in market values. And, of all the profits made in the participating branch, the policyholders get ninety-five per cent. "I would not have you suppose that we ever speculate. We do not. We, of course, do not hesitate to sell bonds or other fixed-interest securities when they rise to such premiums that the yield is no longer satisfactory, but when we buy a stock we buy for permanent investment, we buy to keep, and we never sell merely because the market value may have risen to a high figure. We have, however, had an epidemic of security redemptions, and as a result we have the $5,000,000 of realized profit.

High Interest Rate Earned, With No Arrears "Even the normal earnings of a life company depend very largely on the rate of interest it can obtain on its investments. The current rate of interest has been steadily dropping for years, and there is every indication that it will continue to drop—for how long we cannot tell. The outlook for investors in bonds and mortgages is not encouraging. That fact causes us no anxiety. We have enlisted many large groups of the brainiest, most experienced, most energetic and most successful men on the continent to work for us to maintain our interest earnings. We get their co-operation by becoming stockholders in the outstanding basic corporations of the country, so that we share in all the profits that they make. The dividends which we receive on our stock holdings are already two millions more than were payable on the same stocks when we bought them. Our interest account, of course, includes also our dividend receipts, and our record is illuminating. In 1921 the average rate earned by us was 6.07 per cent; in 1923 it was 6.20 per cent; in 1924, 6.38 per cent; in 1925, 6.41 per cent; in 1926, 6.69 per cent; and in 1927, if we were to use the same basis of calculation as in previous years, the rate would be 6.81 per cent. We, however, do not wish to show such a high rate, and as we always made a charge of 5 per cent against our interest earnings for investment expenses, you will note that we are quoting only the net rate, 6.47 per cent, after deducting that investment expense. The falling rate of interest has no terrors for us.

"The quality of our securities may be judged by the fact that not one dollar of interest or dividend on any bond, preferred or common stock listed in our assets is in arrear for even one day.

Business Doubled in Four Years "The position we have attained justifies enthusiasm, but we must always look on the present as a mere vantage ground from which to plan for the future. What is that future to be? Year after year we have been confidently predicting the glorious future yet to come, and that promised future is now unrolling itself before our eyes in all its greatness and strength. But what of today's future? I have just been reading my own remarks of two years ago, and already the figures of which we were then so proud look small and outgrown. We have doubled in size now every five and a half years since the Company began, but our last doubling has taken only four years, and we are today growing more rapidly than ever before in our history. I predict that the figures of two years hence will make even the figures of today look small and outgrown in their turn.

Sun Life Sets Its Own Pace "People sometimes say when life speaking of our progress:—"Yes, life assurance is growing wonderfully," so it is; but the Sun Life is not content to grow only at the rate of life assurance companies. Statistics now available indicate that in 1927 the aggregate new business of all the companies operating in the United States exceeded the total for 1926 by only one per cent and in Canada by seven per cent. But the new business of the Sun Life of Canada shows an increase of twenty-three per cent. We set our own pace. Our prosperity and popularity, and the enthusiastic support of our six hundred thousand policyholders, makes our growth both rapid and certain. The future still before us will, I am convinced, be more wonderful than anything we can now imagine. And it is indeed a happy thought that all that growth in size and all that growth in prosperity mean increased service to humanity, and service at steadily lowering cost to our policyholders.

The President closed his remarks by his reference to the need of safeguarding the future of the Company, as above quoted.

The Board of Directors of the Sun Life is composed of the following:—T. B. Macaulay, F.I.A., F.A.S., President and Managing Director; Arthur B. Wood, F.I.A., F.A.S., Vice-President and Actuary; Robert Adair, W. M. Birks, Hon. Raoul Danduraud, J. Redpath Dougall, Sir Herbert S. Holt, Abner Kingman, J. W. McConnell, C. E. should it be Ha Ha? No doubt it was Jack Kearns himself who kept all those scurrilous things away from Jack in the troubled years gone by. Yet that would hardly account for Dempsey's own admission that he hit the tank for Jim Flynn, the ferocious fireman would it? Some sob sister will now, no doubt, dash off the year's best seller, starting something like this: "For 15 years he thought it was all good, clean fun, and then—" It is just too bad, but, of course, having made this belated discovery, there is nothing left for Jack to do but return all that tainted money. Crooked, eh? That's the most unkindest, the "most rudest" out of all.
