Millions Take Part in Great Victory Celebration at Paris the Grand Triumphant March

Half Century's Bitterness Swept Away by Greatest Doings Since Crushing Defeat by Germans 1870; Marshal Joffre Marched with Foch in the Procession Through Streets of Paris.

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Paris, July 15.—Yesterday France swept aside all traces of half a century's bitterness and woe with the greatest celebration in her history, the Victory parade. Hundreds of thousands of people from all parts of the country crowded into Paris and cheered wildly in their five-mile triumphant march through the heart of the city. It was the day France had awaited since her crushing defeat by the Prussians in 1870 and she made the most of it.

The city was a riot of color when the 25,000 veterans began the march. Flags were flown from every building and the streets tried to out do each other in gala attire. It was just nine o'clock when Marshal Foch and Marshal Joffre with their staffs rode past the arch of triumph.

According to an estimate of the prefect of police 2,000,000 visitors from the suburbs and provinces joined with the 4,000,000 persons living in Paris in the victory celebration which was declared unique in many respects. Many quaint provincial costumes of country folk were seen in the parade and on the streets.

NEW SCHOOL BYLAW TO BE SUBMITTED

Sum of $150,000 to be Raised for New Building on Acropolis Hill.

On the recommendation of the Finance Committee the City Council last night decided to submit a bylaw as soon as possible for a new permanent school building on Acropolis Hill.

Alderman Kirkpatrick, who is also a school trustee, explained that there were at present 585 pupils. Owing to the overcrowded condition of the schools a room had been opened on Second Ave. and another room was rented from the Methodist Church for manual training. At the high school one more room would be needed after the holidays which would crowd out one of the present classes at Borden St. and at the other schools several new rooms would be required to accommodate the increasing population. There was no doubt as to the need of a new building. The only questions that arose were where the building should be placed and should it be of a permanent character.

The trustees had decided that it would be best to erect a permanent building on Acropolis Hill. For a permanent building they could issue forty-year bonds which would require annual payments from the city of $9,340 in order to raise $150,000. To raise $100,000 for a wooden building they would have to issue ten-year bonds, the payments on which would amount to $14,524 a year. In view of this they had decided that it would be better for the taxpayers to have a good permanent building which would be a credit to the city.

In connection with the choice of site, Alderman Kirkpatrick explained that there was no other site available. The medical health officer advised against the Ninth Avenue site as most unsuitable and as not providing any playgrounds for the children. With the school at Acropolis Hill they could utilize the athletic grounds for playgrounds which would be a great boon to the young people.

MANY OPPOSE ONE BIG UNION IN VANCOUVER

Seven Labor Organizations Ask for Cancellation of Trades and Labor Council Charter.

(Special by G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Vancouver, July 15.—Twelve unions are reported to have taken a definite stand against the One Big Union and partial returns indicate that seven organizations have signed petitions collected by the Vancouver Theatrical Federation asking the American Federation of Labor and the Dominion Trades Congress to cancel the charter of the Trades and Labor Council.

A local evening paper says editorially that in the ranks it is accepted generally that the charter of the Council will be revoked and that a new council body composed of craft unions will be authorized.

The mail drivers union is the latest one to take a stand against the One Big Union and to vote in favor of the cancellation of the Trades and Labor Council charter.

Vierick, J. Hilditch, A. H. Allison, J. H. Meagher, Imlah, D. McCorkindale, J. Gillis, A. W. McLean and others.

Help Ourselves by Helping Others.

Sir Donald Mann says that the development of the mines of northern British Columbia means a good deal to Prince Rupert because this port is the base of supplies and the route by which most of the visitors reach them.

Will B. C. Get Benefit From Mines?

The Americans are making a determined effort to try to capture the trade of the district around Stewart and Alice Arm. Prince Rupert people have also been doing something and Vancouver has been strong on the job.

The Senate Not in Line With Progress.

The Senate of Canada is out of touch with the people. It is an irresponsible body and has no sense of obligation to act in unison with popular opinion.

During the session just concluded there were two laws that the Senate killed. One of these was an amendment to the criminal law of Canada and the other was the Liquor Act.

Grave Miscarriage Of Justice.

In the Smith liquor case under which a man was convicted of selling liquor contrary to the Prohibition Act there seems to have been a grave miscarriage of justice.

We know nothing about law and nothing about Smith, but such a fool reason for quashing a judgment of the local court could have occurred to no one but a lawyer.

New School Bylaw To Be Submitted.

A new school bylaw is to be submitted to the ratepayers in the near future. It is to be a permanent building and will be located on Acropolis Hill near the athletic grounds.

The welfare of the children should be the one factor in deciding to erect a new school building. Everyone admits that it is needed. Most people admit that Acropolis Hill is the best place for it.

J.S. COWPER'S ADDRESS AT ALICE ARM

Member Explains Arrangement Under Which Taylor Company Came Into Possession of Property.

GENTLEMAN'S AGREEMENT BROKEN BY HUBBARD

Alice Arm, July 15.—The statement that no provision whatsoever had been made by the Dolly Varden Mines Company and the Temiskaming Mining Company to pay any of the general creditors of the Dolly Varden railroad and mine in the recent sale which the Legislature decided to approve, was made by J. S. Cowper, M.L.A., of Vancouver, in the course of an address at Alice Arm.

Mr. Cowper who was secretary of the Legislative Committee which heard the Dolly Varden dispute, has been holidaying in the Alice Arm district, and spoke at the request of a number of citizens and creditors who wanted to know the facts about the situation from an unprejudiced point of view.

In his address which was listened to with great interest, Mr. Cowper said that his only desire in the case was that the true facts brought out in the evidence should be known so that the efforts of any parties seeking to give a wrong impression of the Legislature's action, should be made clear.

Gentleman's Agreement.
The evidence, said Mr. Cowper, showed that the Taylor Engineering Company was engaged to build the road to the mine in 1914 without any profiles or quantities being worked out and with a "gentleman's agreement" supplementing a written contract, whereby the president of the road, J. D. Hubbard, a well known American lawyer and mining man, agreed to see that the contracting company would be paid its costs together with a commission of ten per cent for superintendence. But in spite of the "gentleman's agreement," Mr. Hubbard pleaded inability to pay for the work done in the first season, and the contractor had to take a settlement which deprived him of $30,000, his entire profits for the season's work.

Pay From Proceeds.
In the second year, said Mr. Cowper, the evidence showed that Mr. Hubbard had induced the Taylor Company to go ahead again on a more expensive style of construction, using its own capital, representing that if the sale to the Granby Company was made the company would be paid in full out of the proceeds, and if not, then it would be paid in full out of any other sale or re-organization effected.

Mr. Cowper said that in mid-August of last year Mr. Hubbard's engineer, Mr. McGinnis, telegraphed his chief to the effect that the Taylor company was then so deeply involved that they could not stop without going broke. Mr. Taylor went to New York to try and get payment and to help the Granby deal through, but without success. Having with the aid of the "gentleman's agreement" got the contractors in financial jeopardy, Mr. Hubbard made the surprising demand that they give him a share of their profits if he helped to get their bills paid.

Injured Credit.
The Taylor Company, said Mr. Cowper, continued to finance the contract for an additional five weeks, and might have completed the road but for a code telegram sent by Mr. Hubbard instructing Mr. McGinnis to proceed with great secrecy and caution and have the laborers cash their cheques. Having thus started a run on the firm's bank, Mr. Hubbard attacked the contractor's credit at the head office of the bank, with the result that the bank stopped payment and seized the company's bank account, together with sums of money at Calgary and Nanaimo for workmen's wages on other contracts. "The evidence showed, said Mr. Cowper, "that the president of the Dolly Varden Company not only used the Taylor Company to put labor and material on the road but having got the labor and material there and, failing in his application for a rake-off of the profits, set in motion the machinery which stopped the work and drove the Taylor Company to make an assignment."

All Will Benefit.
The Legislature, said Mr. Cowper, had been anxious to ensure that the road was not tied up and the prosperity of the district held back while any "freeze out" took place, and so had provided that if the Dolly Varden Company did not pay the wage claims within a month, that the Taylor Company could do so and operate the property. But the beneficial ownership of the property does not pass to the Taylor company until they have paid everybody who has a claim on it, including the Dolly Varden shareholders who will receive $613,000 out of the proceeds of operation, or about $200,000 more than they would have netted under the $900,000 sale to the Temiskaming.

Prosperous Camp.
Mr. Cowper spoke very highly of the character and ability of Mr. Taylor and of the military and professional attainments of Major D. D. Young, the general manager; Capt. J. W. Smith, his assistant, and Major Angus W. Davis, M.E., the mine superintendent. Having visited many of the properties up the Kitsault River he prophesied that with the railroad operating as a common carrier and opening up the camp to smelter and tide-water facilities, the Alice Arm camp is destined to become one of the most prosperous and productive mineral camps in British Columbia.

FARM LOANS for SOLDIERS

How Everyone Can Help

THE Government has developed a liberal and broad plan to help soldiers settle on farms. It is securing land. It is granting substantial loans. It is obtaining advantageous prices on equipment, implements, building materials and live stock. It is providing agricultural training and farming supervision.

That is as much as the Government itself can do.

But the plan needs more. It needs a community spirit of co-operation.

Already Provincial Governments, Universities, Farmers' Associations, and Veterans' Associations are giving valuable assistance. Many manufacturers and sellers of farm supplies have agreed to allow the soldier settlers special prices. Many successful farmers have willingly worked on Qualification Committees which have to pass on the applicants. Men who have had experience in lending money on farm property are serving on Advisory Loan Committees, judging land values.

But even such practical assistance is not enough. In each community farmers can be of real service to the soldier settler. They can give him advice about local conditions. They can lend him an extra horse or plough, give him a day's help at seeding or harvest time, and extend to him that friendly, neighborly, respectful spirit which he deserves.

In this way Canada is performing a double duty. It is discharging, as far as possible, the debt we owe to our soldiers; and it is adding to the country's chief industry a body of competent, willing producers.

Full information about lands and loans for soldiers will be sent on request to the Provincial Superintendent, Soldier Settlement Board, Rogers Building, Vancouver, B. C.

"The distribution of soldier settlers in settled rural communities will be of material assistance to the less experienced settlers in that they can get advice and assistance from their neighbors."

WILL SELL THE CITY PROPERTY

Soldiers to Have First Pick and Auction Sale to Follow in August.

At the City Council meeting last night it was decided to offer the city lots by tender to returned soldiers who are about to build on them under the Dominion Housing Scheme. Tenders for these must be in the hands of the treasurer by Monday next.

These lots not sold by tender will be sold by public auction on Wednesday, August 6 at 7 p. m. That time of day will give everyone interested an opportunity to be present.

There are 118 lots in Section 2 all told so that the sale should not last long, especially if the soldiers take a number of the lots on Monday.

GROCCERS EXEMPT FROM NEW BYLAW

Increased Fee Applies Only to Those Who Sell Refreshments to be Drunk On Premises.

The Trade License bylaw which was passed last night was, on motion of Alderman McRae, made to exclude from its scope those businesses which retailed liquid refreshments to be drunk off the premises. The change was vigorously opposed by Alderman Rochester who thought that if anyone wanted to sell beer he should pay the full license fee. Near beer, he said, was an intoxicant and should not be sold to children and children never entered a bar, as they were not allowed to do so.

Alderman McRae suggested that children could get it anyway and that families wishing a little near beer would be able to get it sent to their homes.

The bylaw as passed provides for a license fee of $20 every half year for those selling liquid refreshments to be consumed on the premises. Grocers selling soft drinks or near beer will continue to pay the two dollar fee as at present.

WILL ENDEAVOR TO GET SCHOOL GRANT

Hon. T. D. Pattullo Promises to Use Influence With Provincial Government With View to Aid.

At the City Council meeting last night Mayor McClymont reported that L. W. Patmore had written to Hon. T. D. Pattullo asking for a provincial grant towards the erection of the new school building here. Mr. Pattullo had replied to the effect that he would bring the matter before the executive and he thought it likely they might secure a grant at the next session of the house.

The mayor explained that if this grant was secured it would lighten the school burden very materially.

LET THERE BE LIGHT, SAYS UTILITIES COM.

Proposal Made to Install More complete and efficient Lighting System.

At the meeting of the City Council last night the utilities committee reported in favor of spending eight or nine thousand dollars installing fifty new ornamental lights on 2nd and 3rd Ave. between McBride and Eighth Streets.

In moving that the report lie on the table for a week Alderman McRae said he did not wish to rush the proposal. He thought, however, the time had come when they should have more light in the business section of the city. The mayor explained that the work would have to be done under the local improvement plan.

MUCH BUILDING IN THE CITY

First Dwelling Under the Returned Soldiers Housing Scheme Has Been Started.

The first house to be built under the returned soldiers' housing scheme is now under way on Sixth Avenue near the Canadian Steam Laundry. The building is being put up by J. H. Kelly and will cost about $2,500. It is a two-storey building with a flat roof. Full particulars have not yet been given to the city hall and further approval must be made by the board in Victoria.

There are numerous other buildings going up about the city and more will soon be started. The basement work on Harry Atkins' house has just been begun on Fourth Avenue. A few concrete piers are being put in place to carry the rear of the building. The front of the house rests on the solid rock.

One especially large building will be started in a few days on Third Avenue and Seventh Street for Wm. Beveridge. There will be a large store on the ground floor and residential flats on the second storey. Everything will be finished in truly modern style and the block will prove a decided improvement to that part of the city. The cost is in the neighborhood of $4,500.

Small Cottages.

Building is not taking place in the down town sections alone, for many are building residences in the outside parts of the city. Across the creek especially in the neighborhood of the drydock and the cold storage there are many small cottages and bungalows going up. Mr. Ed. Davidson of the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Company, Ltd., is going to build a house on Eighth Avenue near the Seal Cove school. The plan shows the building to be one and a half storeys and will cost $1,500.

Section Two also seems to be coming in for its own in the building line. J. C. Brady, the principal of the high school, is going to build a house on a lot which he has recently acquired here. It is just across the Section Two bridge and only a short distance from the town. The structure is valued at $2,500.

ALICE ARM

Rev. Leversedge and wife brought the Busy Bee girls from Anyox for a week's camping out, trip in the vicinity of Alice Arm.

Work is progressing on the erection of loading chutes at the Dolly Varden dock for handling the ore from cars to boats.

The railroad has been cleared of slides and power is now able to reach the end of steel where work is rapidly progressing laying the last two miles of track.

The Taco arrived Friday with steel rails. As soon as discharged will make a trip to Stewart.

There is great need of a public wharf at Alice Arm, all the business for this place now being handled over the Dolly Varden wharf with its limited facilities for handling and storage. This was discussed at a meeting of the Commercial Club on Thursday evening and it was decided to put the matter before the proper government officials with the view to having a dock erected as early as practicable to afford the necessary relief.

TRAGEDY AND COMEDY AT THE WESTHOLME

Private Peat Shows First Fighting of America's Troops in Great War.

At the Westholme Theatre tonight Private Peat will be shown again for the benefit of the Prince Rupert movie-goers. The story is an adaptation of the Canadian soldier to the American army and gives many of the details of the early fighting and the grim duties of the soldier. On the field of battle the setting is particularly fine and the search light playing over the ground as the Allies advance gives a wonderful effect. The climax is reached in excitement and thrill when a German bombing plane, regardless of the flag waving from the pole on the roof of the building, swoops down and completely obliterates the base hospital. Throughout the play there is the usual heart interest which finally culminates in the girl going "over there" and bringing her soldier back to America.
