British Schooner Sunk by U. S. Coastguard Patrol off Coast of Louisiana and Crew Captured

Smuggler Followed by Americans Until 200 Miles Off Coast and Then Scuttled; Captain Defies the Invaders

NEW ORLEANS, March 25.—The crew of the British schooner Imalone, sunk by the coast guard patrol boat's gun fire in the Gulf of Mexico 200 miles off the Louisiana shore, landed here last night.

The men were manacled and under a heavy guard when brought ashore. They were permitted to talk only to United States officials and the British vice-consul. The coast guard officers reported the Imalone at anchor 10 or 11 miles off the Louisiana coast when first sighted and as the coast guard came up to the captain, John Randall of Liverpool, Nova Scotia, stood on the deck of the Imalone brandishing a pistol and shouting that any man that attempted to board his ship would be killed.

LAUNCHING OF HALIBUT BOAT

Capt. Dan Larsen's New Vessel Capella Took Smoothly to Water at Dry Dock This Afternoon

Capt. Dan Larsen's new 52-foot halibut boat Capella, a handsome addition to the local fishing fleet, took gracefully to the water at 1:30 this afternoon when the launching took place at the high tide. There were no special ceremonies in connection with the event. The craft, which is equipped with a 45 h.p. Bolinder diesel engine, will be ready for sea in about two weeks' time.

The dry dock is now engaged in construction of three other fishing boats. These are the packer for the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. and two packers for the Island Packing Co.

McKenney of Terrace arrived in the city from the interior on yesterday afternoon's train, returning to the interior this morning. The trio will be taken on south later in the week. They are Daniel Joseph, who has been sent down for 18 months; Alfred Pierce, who drew 15 months, and Sam Brown, who got 12 months. Sit Sing was the name of the victim of the attack.

PATTULLO TO TOUR PROVINCE

WASHINGTON, March 25.—An official statement from coast guard headquarters said that the pursuit and sinking of the British auxiliary schooner Imalone, suspected rum runner, was in accord with the well known doctrine of international law which authorizes pursuit of a vessel that violated the law within waters over which the United States had control.

FOREIGN OFFICE SILENT LONDON, March 25.—The British foreign office will make no statement or unofficial comment concerning the sinking of the British schooner Imalone by the United States coast guard vessel until they receive a full report from Sir Esme Howard. However, the affair appears to the British officials as a most serious rum-running incident if unofficial reports should prove correct.

CANADIAN WAR HERO HALIFAX, March 25.—Captain Randall of the schooner Imalone is known in British admiralty circles as Lt. Commander J. T. Randall D.S.C., Croix de Guerre with two palms. He has had wide experience in the Arctic and last summer he was commander of the auxiliary schooner Morso on an expedition to Hudson Bay. He is a resident of Liverpool, Nova Scotia, and was born at Newfoundland. The Imalone was registered at Lunenburg, Nova Scotia.

The selling received its stimulus from an advance in call money from 9 to 12 per cent.

Later-Despatch
Call money went to 14 per cent, the highest since 1920. Some stocks lost as much as $13.

Manson is Being Boosted for Vacant Supreme Court Judgeship as a Rival to Dugald Donaghy

John Hickey, correspondent of the Vancouver Star at Victoria, writing to his paper says that A. M. Manson, member for Omineca, is being boosted for the vacant supreme court judgeship. He says:

With entry of Mr. Manson into the field, it was considered that competition for the vacancy might narrow down eventually to two veteran Liberal parliamentarians, for the only other person widely mentioned for the post heretofore has been Dugald Donaghy, K.C., of Vancouver.

While it was believed generally in political circles that Mr. Donaghy, on the score of his long legal experience and personal popularity among all parties, could probably get the place if he wanted it, at the same time it was recognized that Mr. Manson had a rich claim to consideration after his many years of service as chief law officer of the crown in this province.

Whether Mr. Manson's party would permit him to withdraw from politics was another factor regarded as a possible obstacle. At present he is the member for Omineca and if appointed to the bench would have to resign his seat, thereby bringing on a by-election. As Omineca has been a safe Liberal constituency since 1915, however, it was pointed out that the party might not view this contingency with any great alarm.

Bar Holds Power

While the appointment will be made by the Dominion government, the wishes of the provincial administration will carry a certain amount of weight, according to opinion expressed here. The Ottawa cabinet would not be dictated to by the province, it was explained, but at the same time it was unlikely to name any one to whom the British Columbia government would object.

In the last analysis, it was considered that the choice would be guided ultimately more by the representations of the Bar Association than those from any other sources.

Canadiens Ousted from Hockey Finals by Boston Bruins When Beaten at Montreal Saturday

MONTREAL, March 25.—The Boston Bruins proved too good for the Canadiens here on Saturday night and scored a 3 to 2 victory over the Frenchmen, thus bringing to an end the Canucks' hopes for a world's championship. The Canadiens jumped into a two-goal lead in the first period on scores by Leduc and Joliat. In the second period Boston rushed in three goals against the fast tiring Canadiens and held the lead in the third by a tight defence. Eddie Shore, Boston defense man, scored the winning goal and assisted Doc Carson with the first. Norman scored the second in the first period. Brilliant work by Tiny Thompson, Boston goalie, who has been the star of the series, saved the Bruins from defeat. There were 26 penalties, all minors.

TO THE VICTOR BLONG THE SPOILS

The first to greet Major H. O. D. Segrave, after speeding along Daytona Beach at 231.3 miles per hour, was Mrs. Segrave. Judging by the expression on her face, it would appear that she was more than delighted to be able to find him intact after travelling faster than any man ever did in an auto. Below is shown a glimpse of the British racer speeding down the course when he set the record.

Sport Chat

"I expect a great deal from the A's this year. I'm not predicting the pennant, however, because anything can happen in baseball. This talk of my club lacking gameness is all foolishness. Ours is a good team, improving all the time, and we'll play first class ball." Connie Mack, 66 year old skipper of the Philadelphia Athletics, made this statement at Miami as he watched his flashy team go through their paces. They looked fine, did this club that was beaten out of the pennant last year by a game and a half.

Also peering at the prancing Athletics, were Mack's two ablest assistants, Eddie Collins and Kid Gleason, both former managers of the Chicago White Sox. Ultimately, it is reported, Collins will run the team when Mack steps aside, though Connie shows no indication of doing so. "The team that beats the New York Yankees will, of course, win the pennant this year," said Mack.

Although the Detroit team looks awfully good to me. The Yankees are not a young team and if they are beaten they may drop below second place. I would not be surprised to see this happen."

COALITION FOR ALBERTA SAID TO BE PLANNED

Conservative and Farmer Parties May Join Forces Before Next General Election

EDMONTON, March 25.—Coalition between the Conservatives and Farmer parties in Alberta is a strong probability which may be consummated within the next three months, so the Journal of this city is informed on what is believed to be high authority. This is now being talked of in political circles and it is believed that the time is approaching when both these parties will have a working arrangement.

The resignation of A. A. McGillivray, K.C., as provincial Conservative leader, retirement of Premier Brownlee as premier and his being placed taken by Hon. O. L. McPherson, minister of public works, with a provincial general election next year, are all on the cards, so the Journal is informed. On the eve of the legislature being prorogued, these reports were current and they carry with them a wealth of confirmation which shows there are important moves under way.

The future of the Conservative party in this province is at stake, as viewed from the standpoint of participation in provincial affairs. There is a firm belief, reported in Calgary as well as in this city, that Mr. McGillivray intends to resign as Conservative leader to devote his time to his law practice which suffered considerably when he took the post of head of the party.

NOTABLE GATHERING TO HONOR CRICKETERS

Winners of the "Ashes" Will Be Tendered Banquet at Mansion House, London, This Summer

LONDON, March 25.—Lord Mayor of London, Sir Kynaston Studd, is to give a dinner to the English Cricket Test Team during the summer at the Mansion House. It was fixed this late because A. P. F. Chapman, the English captain, who is visiting relatives in New Zealand, will not be home until the middle of July.

It is probable that the occasion will bring together an almost unprecedented assembly of great cricketers. All the most prominent English players, including Lord Eiris and Lord Hawke, are likely to be invited to meet the team. Other probable guests are Arthur Gilligan and "Pip" Warner, both former English Test captains. A picturesque figure at the banquet may also be James Lillywhite, who "shippered" England in the first Test match in Australia, in 1877.

ASTON VILLA WINS

LONDON, March 25.—Aston Villa defeated Sunderland 2 to 1 today in English first division football.

CAPITAL STOCK ISSUE SUN LIFE FOR COURTS

OTTAWA, March 25.—Confirmation of the capital stock of the Sun Life Assurance Company at $4,000,000 will be left to the Exchequer Court. By mutual agreement between officers of the company and G. D. Finlayson, superintendent of insurance, that course was decided upon, and the decision was confirmed this morning by the House committee on banking and commerce. Other clauses in the company's bill passed the committee without a dissenting voice.

In announcing the agreement, Mr. Finlayson said he desired to pay tribute to the great strength of the company, to the fidelity of its officers and staff, and to their scrupulous observance of the law governing the conduct of insurance companies of the Dominion. Transference of the question of capitalization right to the courts removes from Parliament an issue which has occupied a great deal of time and attention through three years.

RANGERS WON OPENING GAME FROM TORONTO

NEW YORK, March 25.—The New York Rangers last night won the first game of the National Hockey League semi-final series from Toronto 1 to 0.

The same pair of youngsters who scored the only goal against the Americans turned the trick for the Rangers against Toronto. Paul Thompson passed to Dutch Keiling, who made a perfect shot in the first period. The Rangers then fell back on a stone wall defence.

The teams will meet in Toronto tomorrow night and if a third game is necessary in New York Thursday night.

DAILY EDITION Monday, March 25, 1929.

CAUSES OF POOR BUSINESS
 From time to time the businessmen of the city complain of slowness of sales and difficulty of collections of accounts due. This has been more noticeable this last month, due possibly in part to the absence of income from the halibut fishing during the close season just over and the poor salmon fishing for the last two summers. That may be admitted. The volume of mail order business done with Vancouver and the east is another cause for local stringency. Short-sighted parents who expect employment for their growing families in Prince Rupert deliberately prevent employment in this city and create employment in centres large enough already. Their dress on the streets betrays them. The third cause may be found in the seventh annual report issued by the attorney-general recently of the doings of the liquor board of British Columbia. It makes illuminating reading. This report shows that the sales of the government vendor in Prince Rupert for the year ended March 31, 1928, amounted to $436,286.70, which, together with fines inflicted upon only those found to contravene the Liquor Act, $29,017.39, makes a total of $465,304.09. This amount may be said to be that which the people of Prince Rupert had to spare during this last year, and works out at $34,520 a month.

Now, that is a lot of money. If it were spread around into more productive channels—kept at home instead of being sent to Victoria—Prince Rupert would be a better place in every way.

MONEY FOR NOTHING
 In Prince Rupert, as elsewhere, there are many people who do not pay their bills when they should. That is, when they're due. The butcher, the baker, the candlestick maker have to wait, for the payment of many monthly accounts sometimes for many months. And they do, too. They are very generous with undeserved credit. They are a long suffering class of people. That they suffer, of course, is their own fault. And it is a fault, too. They admit it. But the liquor vendor, like the mail order house, gets the cash. That's business. And so long as the local merchant is unbusinesslike in his dealings with his customer, he'll "get it in the neck." And he's asking for it. But while the mail order house gives a certain limited value for cash, what does the liquor vendor? Does he give value? Can any sane man admit that the value of a bottle of whisky is worth $5. As a Scotsman would say, that's a whole pound.

Now, when a man gets hard up through ill-fortune or sickness and any of the many things which constitute hard luck, the local merchant often has to help out and he does as a matter of course. Many a family has been carried on the books for months and months, yea, for years. Sometimes he is paid up in full. More often no. Yet it must be galling to that same merchant who is helping out the family misfortune to know that the one he helps is paying large amounts to the liquor vendor. And paying cash, too. Yet, being a long suffering individual, he carries on the charitable work. For that's what it amounts to. Charity! And the queer part of it is that other people who don't pay their bills on time would be indignant were they accused of being in receipt of charity. But what else is it?

GIVES GERMAN POLITICIANS GOOD ADVICE

Dr. Stresemann Against Dictatorship, but Sees Evil of Present System

BERLIN, March 25.—Dr. Stresemann, German leader, with an audacity and directness which his great personal prestige renders possible, used the occasion of a party meeting to address himself to the politicians of all parties and to those who stand outside politics because in their present phase they can see nothing in them but a "dirty game." Dr. Stresemann did not shrink from conceding that there is a good deal of excuse for the prevalent disgust with politics. He declared that the picture presented by the Reichstag parties at the present moment was a caricature of the parliamentary system, and that parliament was obsessed with a wholly false view of its relations to the nation. He said that the parliamentary system in Germany was not only in a critical phase, but was in full crisis. And he held out as Germany's hope for the future the rise of men ready to shoulder responsibility and to make decisions.

From this speech Germany can derive further affirmation of the fact that Dr. Stresemann himself is such a man. The bold reaffirmations of Liberal ideals, the contemptuous dismissal of the quick remedy of dictatorship coming from the mouth of a man who is occupied in denouncing the abuses of parliamentarism as practiced at the present moment in Germany, are in themselves a guarantee that the way out of the present unhealthy situation will not be found in Fascist experiment.

No Resignation
 Dr. Stresemann attacked the prevalent doctrine that each party has a constitutional right to be represented in the government proportionately to its members in parliament. He recalled that it is the president of the republic who nominates the ministers. Parliament can throw out a government which fails to earn its confidence, but that is the limit of its power. The president, acting with the chancellor, can make what changes he thinks fit in the government, and can fight out the issue with parliament if necessary. "I am convinced," said Dr. Stresemann, "that many of our crises would come to a speedy end if the president were to utter a word of authority"—words which have the sound almost of an ultimatum to the party leaders who have for weeks been haggling in the lottery of the Reichstag over a "fair share of the sweets of office."

The government, Dr. Stresemann assured his hearers, could not resign. The moment was far too serious for anyone to think of laying down his responsibilities. Rumors were running through the country of illegal plots to set aside the constitution and to rule by dictatorial methods. Dr. Stresemann put them aside with the declaration that it was madness to suppose that a man like General Hindenburg would give his consent to a violation of the constitution. The agitation for a dictatorship was carried on by persons each of whom wanted his own particular dictator.

Economic Situation
 "What is needed," said Dr. Stresemann, "is reform of the parliamentary system. Either parliament must realize that it has got to discover a majority within its ranks, or responsible persons must find the courage to take the leadership into their hands."

CANTATA AT UNITED CHURCH

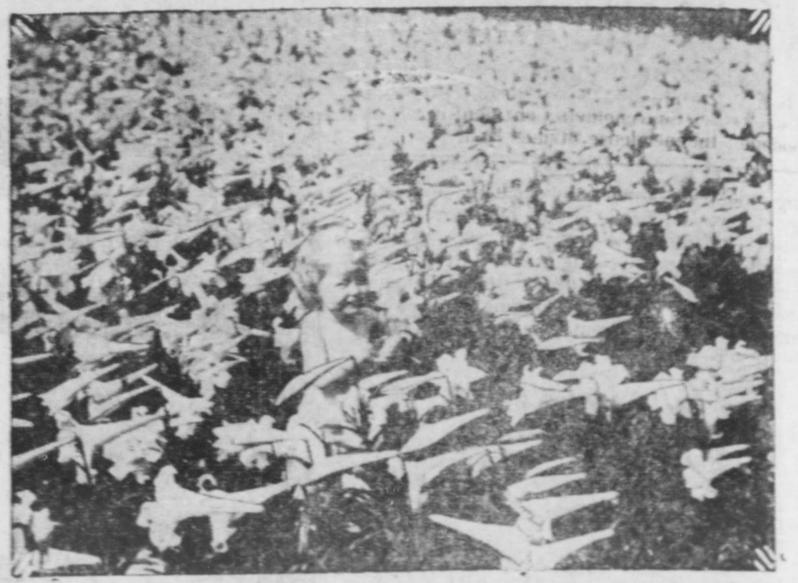

Sacred Work Rendered By Choir In Place of Regular Service

The congregation of the First United Church last night heard the rendering of a sacred cantata in place of the regular church service. The work was "The Thorn Crowned King" by F. B. Holtorn and the choir gave a very fine interpretation of it under the baton of S. J. Wilson, choir leader and conductor, with Mrs. A. Wilson, organist.

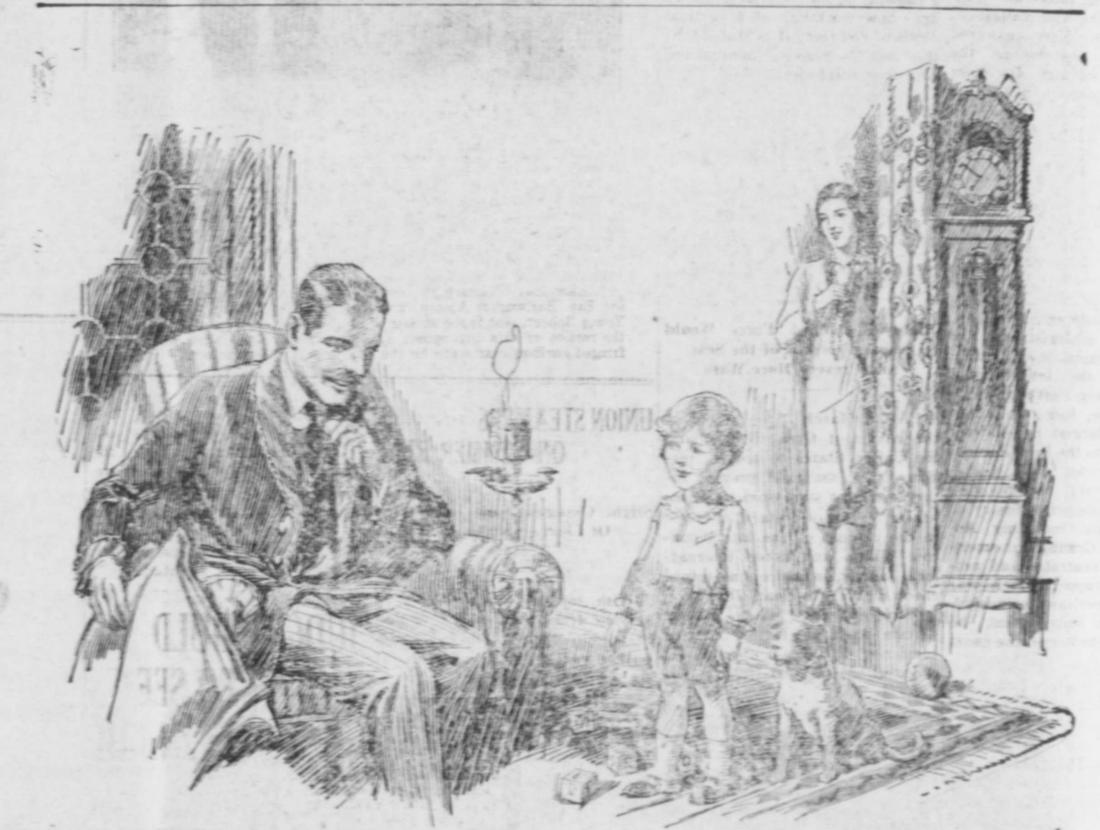

Those taking part in solo, duet and quartette parts were:
 Sopranos: Mrs. D. Ross, Miss Jessie Derry and Miss Edna Vickers.
 Contralto: Mrs. P. C. Miller.
 Tenor: J. S. Wilson
 Basses: F. Derry and Rev. A. Wilson.

There was a large congregation present and many appreciate remarks were heard in regard to the rendering, the theme combining both the crucifixion and resurrection.

The Greatest Man in the World

TO those dear to you, you are the greatest man in the world . . . the wisest and the most far-sighted. They trust you to protect them from hardship and privation. And to the best of your ability you would do so.

Yet there may come a day when you will no longer be here to shield them . . . to provide for their needs. Will their faith in you then be justified?

You realize that their confidence challenges you to greater vigilance in their behalf. Have you made the provision for them that you know to be necessary? Is your Life Insurance sufficient to meet their needs? Do you realize that $5,000 invested at 6% yields an income of less than $6 per week?

For the sake of those who love and respect and trust you . . . those to whom you are the "greatest man in the world" . . . take pencil and paper, and figure how much you have come toward the building up of an estate. The Love That Never Dies

News of the Mines

AROUND PRINCE RUPERT Northern B. C. to Fore at Recent Winnipeg Convention; Old Country Shareholders Confident in Woodbine; Independence Strikes Vein

The mining industries, mineral production and economic geology of northern British Columbia were to the fore at the recent annual meeting of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy in Winnipeg. In the course of reviewing the mineral production of Canada for the past years, S. J. Cook of the Dominion bureau of statistics pointed out that the Premier mine on Portland Canal was the largest producer of gold in British Columbia and that granby ore contained considerable gold as a by-product. The Premier, producing gold and silver, was worked actively throughout the year. Hidden Creek had played an important part in making British Columbia's copper production about one-half of Canada's total output. A paper by Dr. F. Kerr of the Dominion geological survey on "Development and Mineral Resources of Northern British Columbia" proved of exceptional interest. The address was illustrated by slides giving an idea of the rugged character of much of the country accessible for future trails, highways and railways through the wide valleys of the rivers. Dr. Kerr answered many enquiries concerning the features of the country. Dr. Kerr has spent four seasons in the Cassiar and is the first geologist to make a thorough exploration of a section of the province which is attracting much attention at the present time. The country is considered so important from a mining point of view that Geological Survey is publishing a special memoir covering the work and reports of Dr. Kerr on the area. E. A. Haggen, M.E., told the meeting that Dr. Buddington, an eminent American geologist, who had spent several seasons investigating geology along the international boundary between Portland Canal and the Stikine, had stated that this was the largest mineralized area tributary to the Pacific coast of North America. J. D. Galloway, provincial mineralogist, said with the copper industry of British Columbia, including Anyox, where the Granby Co. smelted its own concentrates and produced blister copper which was shipped to American refineries. Mr. Galloway stated that he hoped to see a smelter on the coast before long.

POOL NAVIES OF BRITAIN AND STATES

Mighty Combined Force Would Secure Freedom of the Seas And Prevent More Wars

PARIS, March 25.—Pooling of the navies of Great Britain and the United States to secure freedom of the seas and prevent future war was suggested by Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state in the cabinet of the late Woodrow Wilson and noted international lawyer, in addressing a luncheon at the American Club here. "Suppose," he said, "Great Britain and the United States combined in such a formula of cooperation. We would not permit, by virtue of our combined power, a recurrence of such a world catastrophe as that from which we have just issued." Mr. Colby said he was merely throwing out the idea but he felt it did not deserve a brusque dismissal. "There must," he continued, be an understanding between the two great naval powers, sprung from the same origins, speaking the same language, fundamentally unified. We must achieve not only a formula of accord, but a formula of effective, mutual protection and unified service."

The former head of the state department said the two nations might well take a tip from the example of Lloyds, famous marine insurance company, and set up their combined navies as a mutual assurance for the preservation of freedom of the seas and the avoidance of wars.

MAKE EPIC TREK

Arthur W. North, of the Explorers' Club, New York, and his four-year-old son, Robert, photographed outside the Canadian National Railway's station at Winnipeg, on their return to civilization after a snowshoe tramp of eight hundred miles from Hudson, Ontario, through the winter wilderness of Northern Ontario and Manitoba. Studying the primitive Indian tribes in a country that has seldom been visited by white man, the explorers spent more than two months in the open and accomplished a feat that has never been equalled. From the Canadian National line at Hudson they struck out by way of Lac Seul, Woman Lake and half a dozen other lakes and the Nelson River to York Factory on Hudson Bay. Turning homeward, they reached the steel of the Hudson Bay Railway at Amery and went into The Pas by a work train. Young Robert, who is the author of two books on exploring, will publish the results of this trip within a few months. He is seen wearing a fringed caribou coat made by the Eskimos at York Factory.

UNION STEAMERS ON SUMMER RUNS

Slight Changes Made in Service Of Liners Cardena and Catala

With some minor changes in service from last year, Union Steamship Co.'s northern boats will go on summer schedule at the end of this week. The steamer Catala, which has been laid up at Vancouver for the past three weeks for annual overhaul, will be back on the run next Sunday. There are no changes of hour for arrival or departure of this steamer at Prince Rupert but, north from here this summer, she will take care of the Naas River calls, as well as Anyox, Stewart and other ports, dropping her former scheduled stops at Port Simpson and Wales Island. The steamer Cardena will serve the Skeena River as usual but will not do the Naas River this year. Her only calls north of here will be Port Simpson and Wales Island. She is scheduled to arrive from the south early Friday mornings and sail south at midnight the same day. The steamer Camosun, which has been relieving the Catala for the past six weeks, will return to her regular Ocean Falls-Bella Coola route at the end of this week.

JUDGE WOULD LIKE TO SEE JACK IN JAIL

Says Dempsey Has Done More to Corrupt the Boys and Men of Country Than Anyone

CHARLOTTE, N.C., March 25.—Prize fighters in general and Jack Dempsey in particular, wild west movies and men who own dogs are held public menaces in the opinion of Judge A. M. Stack. Judge Stack, presiding in Mecklenburg county superior court here, delivered his views in sentencing Benny Mack, boxer, to serve 20 to 25 years in prison for killing W. R. Moore, landscape architect, after a quarrel over a dog. Excerpts from his arraignment were: "A boxer like Benny Mack has his instincts developed for pugnacity. Men get in the ring and pummel each other. That destroys a man's idea of things. 'I'd like to see Jack Dempsey in jail. He has done more to corrupt the boys and men of the country than anyone I know of. 'There is not a boxing match that doesn't diminish respect for the law. The moving pictures are doing the same. Down in my home town the other day some small boys dressed up as cowboys and robbed a store. The movies suggested that to them."

COMMUNISTS WANT DOWRIES WITH BRIDES IN SOVIET RUSSIA

MOSCOW, March 25.—Old marriage customs die hard in Russia despite the loosening of the marriage bond and the introduction of communism under the Soviet regime. Young working girls and their families struggle hard to prepare a dowry for marriage and in some cases the girls deny themselves necessities of life in order to get together a trousseau and some house-keeping equipment. The peasants and even the Young Communists of the cities remain steadfast champions of the "marriage of convenience." A Russian writer of the town of Stalino says: "Our girls deny themselves necessary food, grow thin and pine away, but they re-

TERRACE, March 25.—At a public meeting in the blue room of the G.W.V.A. recently with A. W. Holmwood, chairman, a resolution was passed asking the minister of lands to investigate the cause of the fires of 1912, 1916 and 1922, the request for an investigation not having been granted by T. SCHOOLBOY HOWLERS

Two little girls writing at a school examination were required to describe certain Biblical characters, amongst which were Esau and Salome. One tackled Esau and pronounced him as "an hairy man who wrote fables and sold his copyright for a plate of porridge." The other was more ambitious and informed the world that "Salome was a very wicked woman. She took off all her clothes and danced in front of Harrods."

Here are some youthful ideas on words in our language: Stability is the art of taking care of a stable.

Memento is a child of black and white parents.

Toesin is something to do with getting drunk.

Expostulation is a medical term for small pox.

Monastery is a place where monsters are kept.

Cannibals were the names of two brothers who killed each other.

But the piece de resistance is this—Anatomy is the human body, which consists of three parts, the head, the chest and the stummick. The head contains the eyes and brains, if any; the chest contains the lungs and a piece of the liver; the stummick is devoted to the bowels, of which there are five, a, e, i, o, u, and sometimes w and y.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

March 25, 1919

Speaking at a luncheon of the Canadian Club in the Prince Rupert Hotel today, Newman Erb, president of the Prince Rupert Dry Dock & Engineering Co., referred to Prince Rupert's wonderful possibilities and expressed confidence that Oriental steamship lines would soon be established through the port.

A letter from Hon. T. M. Pattullo, read at last night's meeting of the city council, stated that the provincial government was prepared to pay one third of the cost of a bridge connecting Section Two with the city.

The formation of a housing company in Prince Rupert is planned.

Severe Colds Always Ended in Bronchitis

Mrs. John Wilson, 143 Mamelon St., London, Ont., writes: "I have always been troubled with severe colds which always ended in bronchitis, but since taking

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

I have no fear of this trouble, as it acted like magic, and the desire to cough was entirely gone. The soothing feeling it imparts to the bronchial tubes is simply wonderful.

"One day my husband came home with a heavy cold, but after a few doses he was entirely free of it."

THE STONE IN THE POOL

TABLE for YOU & ME

THERE'S A SPLASH... the placid waters of the crystal pool take life as the pebble disappears. First a circle, then two, then six, then twelve, as if by magic the ripples race over the surface of the pool to its furthest edges.

The stone that stirred the pool to life was one of your dollar bills, the pool is British Columbia... B.C. with its industries and natural resources, you, me, and everyone. The ripples are beneficial disturbances set up by your dollar... all the elements of B.C. industry responding to replace that commodity purchased by your dollar.

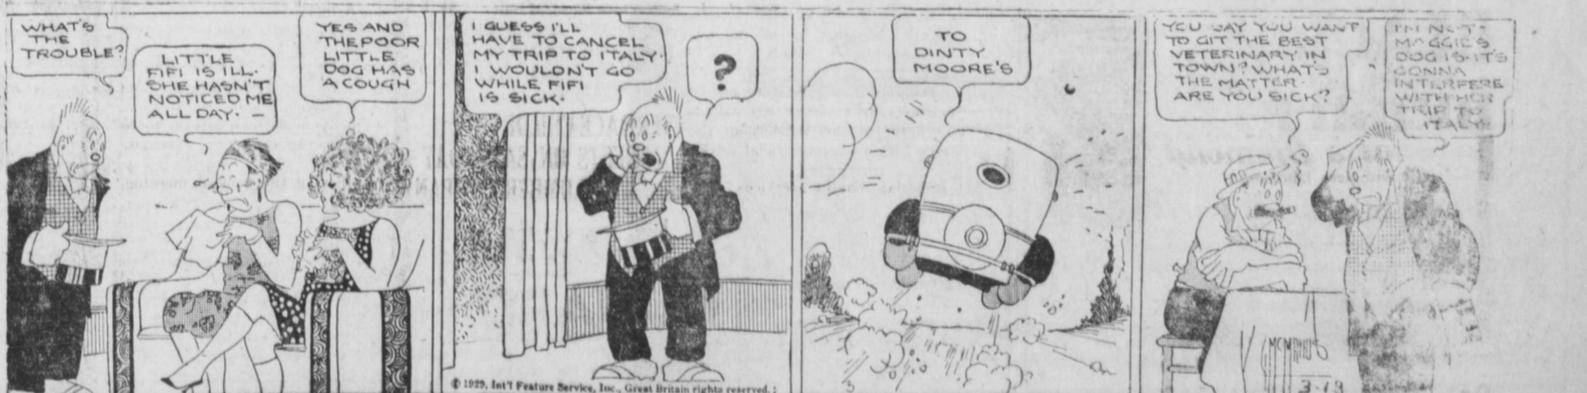

What is the moral of the stone in the pool? Every dollar you spend for B.C. products helps sustain B.C. labour and all its dependent sources of production and distribution. Your own prosperity is dependent on your purchasing interest in those articles manufactured for you by your fellow men and women. Every man employed earns wages, spends wages, and keeps others employed. Demand the B.C. product! It is an expression of faith in your local industries and pride in the products of your Homeland.

CANNERIES ARE SLOW IN START

Very Few Crews Have So Far Arrived For Season's Preparatory Work

Owing to the fact that little new work is to be done on any of the plants, operations preparatory to the 1929 packing season at the various salmon canneries in Prince Rupert district are fully a month later than usual in getting under way this year. By the first week in March, the most of the crews are usually on hand but this year North Pacific cannery in the Skeena Slough was the only one of the many plants that had its men on the job at that date although Claxton is working on its cold storage plant. The end of March will see most of the crews coming north to get the season's work started. Canning operations will not get fully under way until about June 20 when sockeye fishing commences. A few of the canneries may be working on spring salmon before that date.

C. N. R. SPRING SCHEDULE

Spring schedule of Canadian National Coast Steamships goes into effect this week. Steamers Prince George and Prince Rupert respectively will arrive from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls at 10:30 Wednesday and Saturday mornings sail the same afternoons at 4 o'clock for Anyox and Stewart, return here at 7:30 Thursday and Sunday evenings and sail south at 10 p.m. those days. This schedule will be in effect until the three-boat-a-week summer service starts in June. The daily train service will not start until about May 10.

I cannot be thankful enough for the benefits I received during the Change of Life. I do housework and my troubles made me unfit to work. A friend advised me to try the Vegetable Compound.
