LONDON, June 1.—The latest standing of the parties following the general election of Thursday with only 13 seats unreported shows: Labor, 287; Conservatives, 253; Liberals, 54; and others, 8. Labor is still 21 short of a clear majority.

Labor Still 21 Short of Clear Majority Over All in New

Parliament With 13 Places to Hear From

Ramsay Macdonald, Labor leader, was beseiged by a tremendous crowd when he arrived in London last night from Durham. He was cheered for half an hour.

It looks as though the House of Commons wll have a very interesting program in democratic government to face, he said. "The ladies did it," somebody shouted.

"Never a truer word was spoken," replied Mr. Macdonald. "In every good work the ladies lead." Tabulation of the election returns received up to last night showed that Conservatives suffered a net loss of 137 seats. Of these, Labor gained 122, Liberals 14, and Independents 1. Ramsay Macdonald declared today that he would do everything possible to prevent the necessity of another election within the next two years. Also, it was announced officially that there would be a meeting of the Labor party chiefs shortly to consider their position. Liberal successful candidates will also hold a meeting to discuss the situation as it concerns them.

Meanwhile, Premier Baldwin has retired to Chequers' fourt for the week-end and will confer there with some of his party colleagues. He will hold a meeting early in the week.

COMMENT ON SITUATION

LONDON, June 1 .- The immediate future of the British Government is in doubt today. The Liberal party led Government by Lloyd George apparently holds the key to the political situation, owing to Labor being the leading group but not situation, owing to Labor being the leading group but not holding a majority over all. Third, the political stale-mate which has resulted might cause an early downfall of any government which OF GREAT BRITAIN may be formed and necessitate a new election, probably in the autumn.

The entire situation seems to hinge on what Lloyd George and his followers might do. If Premier Baldwin Ethel does decide to try to maintain his Government, he would have to count on Liberal support, and even with that he would find himself with a bare majority on any cleancut party vote.

LONDON, June 1. — Commenting that Liberals apparently held the balance in the next parliament, Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George said on his arrival here last night: "That is a very responsible position and we fully realize it. You can depend on it, we shall make no unfair use of it. A strict King's Government must be carried on and in the present state of the country it is essential that it should be steady. We shall certainly bear that in mind in any course we shall decide upon."

Entire Island Threatened as Result of New Volcano Which Is Covering Country With Ash

CORDOVA, Alaska, June 1.—The eruption of an unnamed mountain on the south end of Akutan Island, a thousand miles southeast of here was reported Friday by residents far to the westward, who said it appeared likely that lava would overspread the entire island. The top of the mountain appeared to have been blown off and lava is flowing two-thirds of the way down the mountain-

Nothing is known of the fate of those who may have been living on the island. Akutan, a village on the northern shore of the island, has a whaling station and cattle ranch, with probably twelve inhabitants at this time of Heavy ash from the volcano clouded the sky over adjacent islands in the upper Aleutian chain and traces of ash have been seen here.

There is a theory that the S. S. Aleutian, which sank in Uvak Bay, Kodiak Island, Sunday, may have struck a ninnacle which had recently been raised by the submarine disturbance. Kodiak is about midway between Akutan and Cordova.

OWNING HOMES

The person who does not own the house in which he lives can hardly be said to have a real home. If he owns it he takes pride in it and takes pride in the city and its improvement.

The bad name that Prince Rupert has had in the past has been largely due to the great many sojourners here. They have been interested only in getting away. The man who owns his home tries to make the best of everything first known showing at the time instead off continually knocking the city. Home owners are the best citizens.

A Great Car for

THE FORD car is a great car I for women to drive not only because it is so smart and good looking, but also because of its comfort, ease of control, and reliability. Especially its reliability.

You know the Ford will take you there and bring you back. You know you can depend on it. You know it has been built to give you thousands of miles of faithful, uninterrupted service. This freedom from trouble-this mental comfort-means a great deal to every woman who drives a car.

Another feature of the Ford that appeals to women is the safety afforded by the fully enclosed efficient six-brake system, steel body, and shatterproof glass windshield.

You can see the value of this when you consider that 65 per cent of automobile injuries are caused by flying glass. The windshield of the Ford will not shatter under the hardest impact. A demonstration drive is convincing.
