HIKED OVER NAAS TRAIL

Bob Irvine Was Very Anxious to Get Home for Labor Day Sports

Bob Irvine, who spent the summer vacation in the Naas River district with a Power Corporation of Canada survey party, was so anxious to attend the Labor Day sports here yesterday that he hiked seventy miles by himself from Aiyansh to Terrace last week in order to do so. He had missed a boat down the Naas River from Aiyansh, so the only alternative to get here on time was to walk to Terrace, so that ne started to do.

Leaving Aiyansh last Thursday, the lad reached Terrace on Saturday. He had had permission to enter telegraph cabins and put up en route. He came in to the city from Terrace on Sunday afternoon's train in time for the sports. He will resume studies at the local high school.

Mrs. Bond and her two children had to run and Mr. Bond was unable to get very much out of the house before he was driven out, too, by the great heat. All the men folks from the other camps came with buckets and were able to confine the blaze to the one cottage. Jack Bond's cottage was only 20 feet away, but, by copious wettings, suffered no damage. Fortunately, the morning breeze did not spring up until an hour after, or, otherwise, both houses would have gone up in smoke.

The family's whole clothing, bedding and furniture has been lost, as well as a month's supply of proacross on Saturday.

Annual Labor Day Celebration Yesterday Was Great Success; Much Interest Taken In Races

Favored by weather which could not have been excelled upon, the Prince Rupert Trades & Labor Council made its annual Labor Day field day on Acropolis Hill grounds yesterday probably the most outstanding event of its kind ever held in Prince Rupert. The program was in progress throughout the day and there was keen competition and large entry lists in every event on the card, which included a fine program of children's and women's sports, as well as the senior field sports in the afternoon.

Among the outstatnding events was the pole vault, which Alex Walters won by a long margin with a height of eight feet two inches. The 100-yard dash was won by J. B. -

OUTLOOK FOR PRINCE RUPERT

The visit of Sir Henry Thornton has put new heart into the people of Prince Rupert. It has shown that there day. is hope yet that the port will develop and that probably with rapidity. Among the reasons for hope are:

The district is developing rapidly and there is possibility of a smelter in the neighborhood.

The Power Company is about to start on construction of the new plant. The big companies are becoming interested here, especially the B. C. Packers and the Consolidated Mining &

Smelting Co. The Railway Company is planning to keep the drydock busy. The Railway Company is preparing a small steamer for use out of this port to make headquarters here. The big ocean dock is to be utilized in the near future for salmon assembly and deep sea sailings.

Prince Rupert is to be the outlet for the Telkwa Col-
