Only Captain and Telegrapher Saved When Vessel Was Struck by Larger Sub Near Fisguard, Off Coast of Pembrokeshire, Wales

LONDON, July 9.—British submarine H-47 with 21 members of her crew are believed to be dead, trapped within her when she sank today in 270 feet of water in St. George's Channel, off the Pembroke coast to the west of Fisguard.

The vessel was struck by submarine L-12, a larger vessel, and sank so quickly that only two of her crew were saved, Lieutenant R. J. Gardner, commanding officer, and Sidney Cloburne of Devonport, telegraph operator, who were presumably in the conning tower.

The L-12 lost one man, Charles Edward Bull, chief signaller, who is missing, whi'e Arthur Sampson, a seaman, is in a critical condition from injuries received at the time of the impact.

Both vessels were built under the emergency war program of 1916.

Some people do not need to save money. They do not come to the Scouts by our brother Scouts of however, can use every dollar to gave the boys a great time. save by dealing where they get the most for the money, which is at Mussalem's new cash and carry

Besides saving money, a good deal of time is saved by shopping at Mussalem's Economy Store The goods are displayed in such a manner that everyone can see the cost. Buyers know exactly how much they are spending and what they are getting for their money. Those people who drive cars of their own just stop in front, quickly make their purchases and have the goods at home when they want them instead of hours afterwards. Those who want delivery can get it free on five-dollar purchases or at a charge of 15c on smaller lots.

The cash and carry habit pays (Advt.)

WESTMINSTER ABBEY

Members of the Westminster Glee Singers party were at the home of Ald, and Mrs. Frank Dibb Saturday night to hear the continental radio hook-up on the King's thanksgiving service from Westminster Abbey, London. Recalling to mind and almost to vision scenes of their home and work in the old land, the reception was of particular interest to Donald Reid, male alto, who for 14 years was a member of the Westminster Ave. East. You are cordially in-Abbey choir and was at the coron- vited to sample the same. ations of both King Edward VII. Vitone, 5-lb tin$2.85 and King George V., as well as to other members of the party.

Butter

You can save butter in cooking by using St. Charles Milk. It is twice as rich as the bottled kind. It improves the flavor, too.
