LIBERAL-FARMER COALITION SOON

OVERTURES MADE, RESOLUTION ACCEPTANCE DISCUSSED

Liberals and Farmers Manitoba May Form Permanent Coalition

WINNIPEG, March 19.—Co-operation with the Bracken government on condition that two places in the cabinet be given to Liberals was proposed in a resolution submitted today to the Liberal convention, now in session here. The resolution followed an announcement that Premier Bracken had proposed a coalition of some sort between the government and Liberal parties.

The resolution will be further discussed this afternoon. The combination of the two parties seems to have been advanced as a result of recent difficulties into which the Bracken government members got by reason of speculating in shares which their inside cabinet information indicated might rise. These members have resigned, leaving the Bracken Farmer government short of cabinet material.

RACE QUESTION IS DISCUSSED

T. D. Pattullo Says He Will Stump for Hanson at Next Election

A special despatch from Victoria to the Vancouver Sun says: Ministers without portfolio, having nothing but the collective sins of the government to answer for to the legislature, have been escaping the attention of the opposition.

Thursday night in committee of supply, however, T. D. Pattullo found an opening to take a fall from horse R. W. Bruhn, president of the council. The estimates propose $2400 traveling and other expenses for Mr. Bruhn and Hon. R. L. Maitland, K.C.

So Mr. Pattullo accused Mr. Bruhn of political tactics in the last election unworthy of his Scandinavian race, for which Mr. Pattullo said he had the highest respect, and of his Canadian citizenship.

Mr. Bruhn had been advertised to speak to the Scandinavians of Prince Rupert, but instead had sent along a letter saying that it was the Conservative party, not the Liberal party, that was the true friend of the foreigner in British Columbia.

This raising a racial cry, keeping up the idea of foreigners among our very best settlers whose aim was to be good Canadians, Mr. Pattullo described as very regrettable and unworthy.

Hon. R. L. Maitland accused Mr. Pattullo of raising the racial cry, but Mr. Pattullo came back with the assertion that he expected to stump the north country with another Scandinavian gentleman who has been nominated as the Liberal candidate for the house of commons.

JACK DONNELLY IS TO BE BURIED HERE

Funeral Service for Late Winchman at Booth Fisheries Held Yesterday Afternoon

The funeral service for the late Jack Donnelly was held yesterday afternoon at the chapel of Hayner Bros. Undertakers, with Rev. J. E. Gibson, rector of St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral, officiating. Burial will take place in Fairview cemetery tomorrow. There was a large crowd of friends at the chapel to pay their last respects. Charles P. Balagno presided at the organ for the hymns.

The plant of the Booth Fisheries Canadian Co., where the deceased was winchman, was closed during the afternoon out of respect to his memory. There were a number of floral offerings.

DISCUSSION IN LEGISLATURE

Manson Declares Deficit of Late Government Only $624,210 But Shelly Says More

VICTORIA, March 19:—Hon. Joshua Hinchliffe, minister of education, vigorously defended the interim report of the special auditors in the Legislature on Monday. He declared that the Opposition should not object to criticisms offered by the auditors for the same practice had probably been pursued by the former special auditors, Price, Waterhouse and Company.

Discussion ensued on what the actual deficit of the late government might be. A. Manson contended that the deficit of the late government had been $624,210 while the minister of finance, Mr. Shelly, submitted a deficit that was more than $13,000,000 and read a letter from the controller general to back up his statement.

Provincial Secretary Howe objected to the statements of the leader of the opposition that the present administration was attempting to cut appropriations to the hospitals. "A wrong impression was being given out in the country," he said. The statement had been made by the opposition that there would be under the estimates as passes, some $200,000 less, available for hospitals. Mr. Howe said that this was incorrect. There would be some $1,615,000 available for hospitals. There was now on hand from liquor profits $100,000. There would be another $200,000 from profits representing the last half of the present year and this in addition to the vote would bring the amount up to what he represented.

BRADY ASKING LOCAL ADVICE

Letter from Skeena Member Read at City Council Meeting Last Night

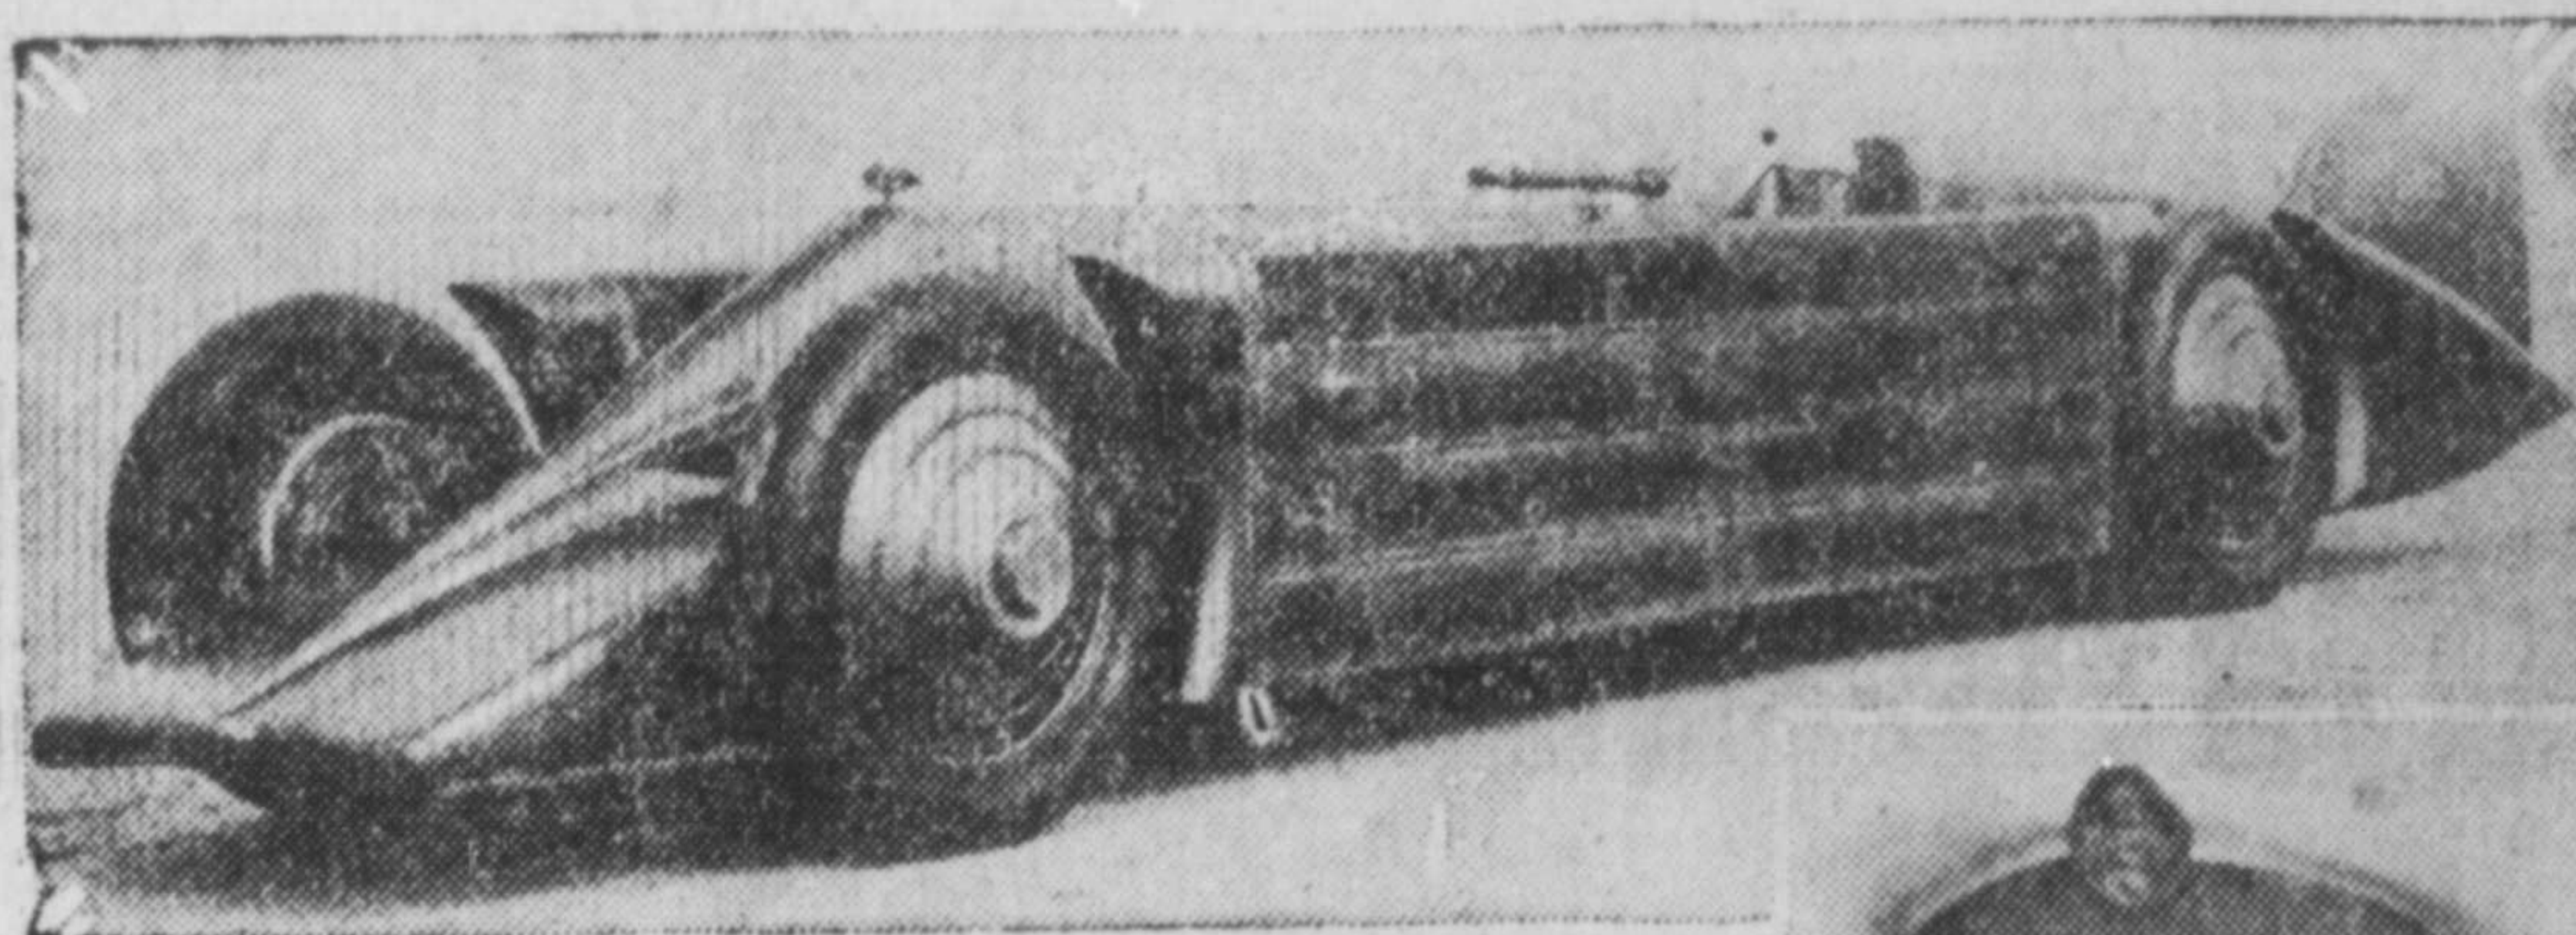

The city council at its regular meeting last night, Mayor McCormick presiding, received a letter from J. C. Brady, M.P., in connection with the situation under which American fishing boats use Prince Rupert harbor freely for shipment of their product, yet oppose the removal of the two cents duty against Canadian fish. Mr. Brady said before taking any decided stand in regard to the matter he wished to consult with Prince Rupert people. He, accordingly, had written the city council, the Board of Trade, the Canadian Halibut Fishing Vessels Association and the Northern British Columbia Salmon Trollers Association, suggesting that they meet together for consultation or call a public meeting of all interested and decide definitely what action they consider shall be taken so that he might be guided by their opinions.

The letter was referred to the fisheries committee.

EMPLOYMENT PEAK

Plea For Better Postal Service To Settlers in British Columbia

OTTAWA, March 19:—During the last six months of 1928 employment in Canada was at the highest point which had ever been reached since government statistics had been kept. This was one of the statements of the minister of defense, Col. Ralston, in the House of Commons yesterday, in speaking on the continued debate on the budget. His speech was in answer to criticisms of the government voiced by the Hon. Hugh Guthrie, chief opposition financial critic.

J. A. Fraser, Conservative of the Caribou, spoke of the isolation of settlers in the Northern B.C. and declared that if the government could spend thousands of dollars on air service in Eastern Canada then it could provide some money for the inauguration of postal services among the scattered settlements in the Pacific Coast provinces. "It was high time," Mr. Fraser declared, "that the government took action for the outlet to the Pacific Coast for the Peace River district." He complained also that the fruit farms in his district were not progressing as they should.

RESTRICTON SALMON SALE NOT PROPOSED

Department at Ottawa Does Not Plan to Confine Sales to District Where Caught

That the fisheries department did not contemplate restricting the selling of fish to the district in which they are caught was the reply received by the city council from W. A. Found, deputy minister of fisheries at Ottawa, in reply to a protest sent by the city and read at the meeting last night. At the same time, the deputy minister stated it as in the interest of all concerned that salmon should not be allowed to be transferred unduly long distances unless proper precautions were taken to assure that the quality of the fish should not deteriorate.

Among the prime movers in this movement are the Duke of Penaranda, famous Spanish polo player (left) and the Marquis of Londonderry (right). The new club will be opened early in the summer, when it will be splendidly equipped with an ice skating rink, squash courts, a gymnasium and about two hundred apartments.

New York has beaten Detroit in the battle for the return bout between Ray Miller and Jimmy McLarnin, and the pair will trade punches at Madison Square Garden on March 22. It is a battle that will be awaited with interest, in view of McLarnin's technical knockout at the hands of Miller in Detroit last November. It is claimed by McLarnin's supporters that he was far below form when he lost to Miller, and the New York bout should settle the matter. It will be a battle in which a boxer with a knock-out punch in his left hand opposes a man with a "dynamite" right. Miller has one of the most powerful left hooks of any present-day boxer, while McLarnin puts many opponents to sleep with his right. The match is made at 140 pounds, which is in McLarnin's favor. The Canadian should decisively reverse matters on this occasion.

"Babe" Ruth, now at the New York Yankees' St. Petersburg, Fla., training camp, selects the Yanks and Cubs to meet in this year's world series. His official diagnosis of the major league races is surprisingly rough on the Athletics and the Cardinals and gives the Detroit Tigers and Pittsburgh Pirates more prominence than most baseball thinkers have so far granted them. Here's how the "Babe" "dopes" the two races: American—New York, St. Louis, Detroit, Philadelphia, Washington, Chicago, Cleveland, Boston, National—Chicago, Pittsburgh, New York, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Brooklyn, Boston, Philadelphia.

One of the most momentous meetings of the International Olympic Committee will be held at Alexandria, Egypt, at the end of March. At this meeting the allocation of the third winter sports will be made. At the time Los Angeles was allotted the Olympic Games for 1932 the meeting was held at Lausanne, and winter sports at that time were placed in the category of demonstrational sports, and were not a part of the Olympic program. When they did become a part of the games proper the suggestion was made that the sports be held alternatively in Norway, Sweden, France and Canada, each country holding the games every sixteen years. Canada through its representative, accepted this proposal, and offered to hold the first games in Canada. The suggestion was not accepted, and the first games were held at Chamonix. At the last Olympics the winter sports were contested at St. Moritz, and, owing to the latter place being a highly fashionable winter resort, the cost of maintaining a team for the duration of the games was much higher than it would have been had some other place been chosen. At the meeting in Alexandria Sir George MacLaren Brown, Canada's representative on the International Olympic Committee, will present to the committee the advantage of holding the winter sports in this country. Canada is the "logical location," and it should not be surprising that the eloquence of Canada's plenipotentiary in support of Canada's brief in connection with the application for the games will receive more than passing consideration by the Olympic Games governing body.

A certain Aberdeen draper insisted on Scripture warrant for every action of his staff. He once overheard a salesman charging a lady double the shop price for an article he sold her. REPORT MADE ON FISHERIES

Over Two Thousand Japanese Still Engage in Fishing On Coast

VANCOUVER, March 19.—While new records were established in the packs of certain varieties of salmon caught in the British Columbia coastal waters last year a continuation of stringent conservation measures is an urgent necessity, according to Major Motherwell in his annual report.

Although spawning conditions are generally improved numerous natural and artificial obstructions in the passage of salmon to the spawning grounds are being investigated.

The 1928 salmon pack of 2,035,637 cases was exceeded by the record pack of 1926 by only 29,561 cases. Pinks totalled 792,362 cases, 19,369 cases more than the 1926 record. Another record was created in Chums with 862,230 cases, 255,532 in excess of 1928. The production of dry salt herring was a record, totalling 1,147,180 cwt. Major Motherwell points out that the market for this product which is chiefly in China, had been seriously affected.

Fishing licenses were distributed to 885 whites, 3347 Indians, and 2261 Japanese.

DAILY EDITION Tuesday, March 19, 1929

CLOSING THE PORT

On Saturday The Daily News published a summary of the budget made by Prince Rupert's member, J. C. Brady, in the house of commons, the only report to be published here. This report came on the regular Canadian Press news service and was given the premier position in the paper as being the most important news of the day.

The part of the speech which proved of greatest interest in this office was that in which he mentioned the facilities granted the American fishing boats in shipping their fish in bond to the United States. A public meeting a few years ago in Prince Rupert asked that this privilege be rescinded and from the trend of the remarks of the member it was gathered that he took the side of the halibut fishermen in the house. It seems that this was not correct, for a telegram has been received in the city stating that Mr. Brady is not in favor of shutting out American fishermen from the use of the port and did not advocate it in his speech. The Canadian Press report received by The Daily News and published on Saturday in The Daily News only in which he arraigned the government was in part as follows:

"The present government was giving a bonus to the United States against the very spirit of the words of the minister of finance. The United States government worked indefatigably and justly for the good of the nation it governed, Mr. Brady said. Its desire to give an account to all the branches of its industry and assist them in their competition was instanced in the Pacific coast fishing situation. Entry of the United States halibut vessels into Prince Rupert was allowed and fishermen land 14,000,000 pounds of halibut of a 23,000,000-pound halibut catch and ship it free of duty to the United States. Canadian fish paid duty on entering United States ports. Yet the government members had balked at the suggestion of retaliation against the United States tariff. It was not a case of retaliation, but of self-preservation, Mr. Brady said, to assist by legislation home industries."

DAILY NEWS REPORTS

The Daily News makes an effort to give its readers as complete reports as possible of important events and a budget speech of the local member was not anything to be omitted. It mattered not to us whether it favored our own views or opposed them. As mentioned before, this was the only paper to give the report of Mr. Brady's speech. Later it may filter through into others. We shall endeavor to continue to give as much news as possible and as impartially as possible. We are told that Mr. Brady will be in the city soon and will hold a public meeting. On that occasion we shall give as full a report as possible, consistent with allowing space for other news of the day. It is important that the people of Skeena district know as nearly as possible what their member is doing and saying.

RETIREES

Lieut.-Col. T. G. Loggie, MSc., I.S.O., who retired from the position of Deputy Minister of Lands and Mines in 1925 after 54 years in the New Brunswick Government service, had his long public service recognized in the 68th annual report of the Department of Lands and Mines, which was tabled in the Legislature last week.

The Greatest Man in the World

TO those dear to you, you are the greatest man in the world . . . the wisest and the most far-sighted. They trust you to protect them from hardship and privation. And to the best of your ability you would do so.

Yet there may come a day when you will no longer be here to shield them . . . to provide for their needs. Will their faith in you then be justified?

You realize that their confidence challenges you to greater vigilance in their behalf. Have you made the provision for them that you know to be necessary? Is your Life Insurance sufficient to meet their needs? Do you realize that $5,000 invested at 6% yields an income of less than $6 per week?

For the sake of those who love and respect and trust you . . . those to whom you are the "greatest man in the world" . . . take pencil and paper, and figure how much you have done toward the building up of an estate. Then call in the representative of any Life Insurance Company and learn how little is the cost of adequate protection.

RADIO

At the Waldorf we dine,
 Where the musics like wine;
 Then toddle around to some show,
 Where there's statuesque peaches
 On tropical beaches,
 And the seats are six dollars a throw!

And from there we fling out,
 With a laugh and a shout,
 En route to a gay cabaret;
 Where we sing and we dance,
 Like two fools in a trance.
 'Til almost the breaking of day
 'Tis a wild sort of life,
 For myself and my wife,
 But we'll follow the pace
 To the end of the race,
 If our radio'll only hold out!

For the total expense
 Of this pleasure intense,
 Is the loss of a few hours' sleep;
 Plus a slight wear and tear
 On the old rocking chair;
 You'll find 'tis exceedingly cheap.

All the joy in the world
 Is now freely unfurled,
 By artists of talent and fame:
 And life's worth the living—
 One endless Thanksgiving—
 Since we got in the radio game!

HEARD PLANE IN ANTARCTIC

Two Stations Were in Communication While Airplane Was In Flight

NEW YORK, March 19.—New York as one corner of the base of a world-sized triangle and San Francisco as the other, communicated by radio with an airplane in flight in the Antarctic. The feat is considered a record for two-way telegraph communication between plane and ground. The distance is approximately 9,000 miles.

The plane, the Stars and Stripes, of the Byrd Antarctic Expedition, was flying over the Bay of Whales, Antarctica, with Lieut. Malcolm P. Hansen, chief radio operator of the exploring party, at the key of the 50-watt transmitter. Signals pounded into both listening points with a bang. The machine was circling about 3,000 feet over the bay during the tests.

The listeners in the United States were men who live and breathe radio. The time was early in the morning, when reception and transmission are at their peak. In New York two operators, R. J. Iverson, and B. J. Murphy, as the sender, kept contact with the plane almost as long as it was in the air and were the first to hear it. They are members of the New York Times radio staff and were working under the direction of Fred E. Meinholz, chief operator.

In San Francisco the operator was Fred Roebuck, announcer of KUP, owned by the Examiner, who exchanged greetings with Hansen, maintaining contact 22 minutes. He was talking from a station 12 miles outside the city.

ROUNDABOUT WAY OF COMMUNICATING SOUTHERN REGIONS

A local short wave radio fan last week heard Commander Byrd, the explorer, in communication with Captain Wilkins, 900 miles distant. He could not get him direct but sent his message to Pittsburgh which relayed it to San Francisco and back to the neighborhood of the South Pole. San Francisco is in constant communication with Wilkins and Pittsburgh with Byrd.

SHORT WAVE SPREADS FAME OF WINNIPEG

WINNIPEG, March 19.—When CJRX was being built, doubters were predicting that short-waves would prove too erratic; that "fading out" would prove a hug-a-boo; that abbreviated ripples were the bunk, and so on.

Today, this station, pioneering regular shortwave broadcasting in Canada, is spreading the name of Winnipeg into every continent and carrying local concerts into Great Britain and South Africa with astonishing regularity. Those who believed in short-waves were right. Their faith has been justified.

Read, for instance, the following extracts from letters received from West Africa:

"Uncle Peter, CJRX, Winnipeg—I suppose you will be surprised to get a letter from this part of the world. We have no European children in West Africa and as I am probably the most childish person in the country, it is most fitting that I should write. I use a six-valve super-het and have no difficulty in putting CJRX on the loud-speaker. Last night, for instance, I tuned it in after 5SW had closed down. I heard a talk on geography (about the Barren Lands) and on astronomy, followed by acknowledgements of letters and valentines, birthday announcements and the adventures of Danny Meadowmouse. Next came a song and then Shubert's fur market service and a talk on fox trans. . . . All this was at full loud-speaker strength, perfectly clear and with no sign of fading. I heard distinctly the names and addresses of your youthful correspondents, and, like you, I am interested in the pronunciation of Osage* (see note below). I should sound it like "sausage" without the first letter. . . . We don't get much news in West Africa and it is our standing grouch that 5SW will not give it. I have heard English football results from CJRX and also from Nuremberg. Cherio 'sd bear!—R. J. Craig, Police Headquarters, Freetown, Sierra Leone, West Africa.

This afternoon's train, due from the east at 3:30, was reported this morning to be on time.

INSPECTOR OF RADIO IS BUSY

Now at Anyox Looking Into Local Reception at That Place

A. L. Gray, radio inspector, made a trip to interior points, returning in time to take the boat to Anyox, to which point he had been ordered to investigate reception conditions. On his return here later in the week he is expected to undertake some investigations in Prince Rupert with a view to stopping some of the noise that is heard.

Complaints are made of key tapping and also of furnaces and other noises difficult to place. Last week the local noises were worse than usual.

The inspector will meet the executive of the Radio Association and it is hoped by them to have conditions much improved.

LOCAL RECEPTION

Saturday night radio fans had a very enjoyable time for reception was good and noises were few compared with the condition earlier in the week. Sunday was an off night, only little music coming through by the air route.

AMERICAN LANDINGS ARE ECONOMIC LOSS

Letter From Canadian Halibut Fishing Vessel Owners' Association Makes Protest

The following letter recently appeared in the Vancouver Star from an official of the Canadian Halibut Fishing Vessel Owners' Association:

Re your editorial in Tuesday's issue. From our standpoint the value derived from permitting American fishing vessels landing their catch here is an economic loss to Canada as conditions now stand.

Our government permits these men to come and use our ports as a basis of operations and at the same time their government charges two cents per pound duty on our halibut entering their country.

Does it not seem strange, in view of the evidence submitted by the American fishermen to the effect that they would be ruined if barred from this port, that our government does not use this as a leverage to obtain free entry for our halibut to the United States?

Mr. Mellin has already established his new headquarters at Georgia River. He will at once put the beach camp in shape for receiving equipment and supplies which will be coming soon in large quantities. Telephonic communication is also to be established with the town of Stewart. At the mine a new plant is to be installed consisting of two letter engines and compressors. This plant will soon be shipped north from Vancouver. Recently ore carrying high gold values was struck in the main tunnel at a depth of over 100 feet from the surface. Assay samples range from $51.39 to $94.50 per ton. Drifting on the vein is being undertaken at once to determine the size and extent of the ore body.

There lies before northern British Columbia an era of mining development that promises more than the conservative person would care to speculate on in print says Financial News. Two great contract zones favorable for mineralization have been defined. The Premier mine is a fair instance of what we may expect to find between that point and the Yukon boundary. To develop this great mineral district, the Financial News declares that it is imperative that a railroad be built up from Stewart.

Five hundred sacks of concentrates from the Toric mine were recently shipped south by the new management, having been milled previous to its acquisition of the property. Operations at the Toric will now be at a standstill until the Russo-Asiatic Consolidated has closed its option on the property.

Rocher de Boule mine, near Hazelton, which was acquired recently by the Aurimont Mines Ltd. of Vancouver and is being developed under the management of W. S. (Duke) Harris, is shipping about 10 tons of ore a day. A three-ton tractor is used in transporting the ore from the mine to the railway at Keena Crossing. The ordinary run of ore is around $35 per ton, although two carloads have gone $65. Principals of the Aurimont Mines are Nicol Thompson, Frank Begg, G. W. Ledingham, Thomas Flecker and G. L. Salter, all of Vancouver. Rocher de Boule produced about $1,500,000 worth of copper-silver ore several years ago. The property was bonded from the Oppenheimer estate of Butte, Montana, by Harris brothers, who, in turn, transferred the deal to the Aurimont.

MINE STUDENTS TO VISIT WEST

Will Study Formation of Rocky Mountains Near Jasper

WINNIPEG, March 19. — A study of the new mining fields at Rouyn, Quebec, and on the formation of the Rocky Mountains at such spots as Jasper Park, Alberta, with special attention to the Precambrian deposits throughout the country from east to west, will engage the 25 students constituting this year's Princeton summer school on geology which, commencing its tour on June 22 in Canada's eastern maritime provinces, will proceed westward through Montreal, Winnipeg and the Rockies as far as Vancouver, returning to the east after six weeks by way of Toronto and Buffalo.

The program for this year is under the direction of Professor Richard M. Field of Princeton University. It is the most extensive yet undertaken by the summer school, covering in all over 7000 miles, of which about 5300 will be over the lines of the Canadian National Railways.

Last year students from Manchester University, Oxford, Cambridge, Cornell, Pennsylvania, State College, Williams and Columbia, besides Princeton, made the trip. It is expected that a similar group will be gathered together this summer.

A special car, "Princeton," will be the home of the travelling scholars. It is equipped with sleeping quarters, kitchen, radio and apparatus for motion pictures.

GAVE LECTURE

Dr. Howard T. James, resident engineer for the northwestern mineral survey district, gave a public lecture last Friday night in Vancouver under the auspices of the British Columbia Chamber of Mines in the course of which he described the year's development in this district. He especially featured the possibilities for prospecting in the various parts of this extensive district.

SIDEWALKS TO BE LAID SOON

City Council Takes First Step Toward Completing Downtown District

At the meeting of the city council last night, it was decided to continue the work of paving the downtown section of the city, and the city solicitor was instructed to proceed with the preparation of bylaws. Alderman Prudhomme took exception to the cost of the sidewalks laid last year and suggested that tenders be called if only to keep check on the estimates of the city engineer. He asked that each alderman be furnished with an estimate of costs. He thought the city council should know what was to be the cost in all such work. The sidewalks to be laid, provided there is no opposition, are as follows:

- Second Avenue—6th St. to 7th St. (north side).
- Second Avenue—3rd St. to McBride (south side).

Third Avenue—7th St. to 8th St. (north side).

Third Avenue—7th St. to 8th St. (south side).

Third Avenue—Lot 38 to McBride (south side).

McBride—2nd Ave. to 3rd Ave. (west side).

Second Street—2nd Ave. to 3rd Ave. (west side).

Fifth Street—2nd Ave. to 3rd Ave. (east side).

Fifth Street—2nd Ave. to 3rd Ave. (west side).

Seventh Street—2nd Ave. to 3rd Ave. (east side).

Alderman Dibb explained that the way the board of works was tackling the job this year should result in greater efficiency.

Alderman Brown stated that the grades would be taken by an independent surveyor as suggested by Alderman Prudhomme. The city engineer would have little time for that work.

The city council at its meeting last night was asked to allow Charles E. Ewert to construct a retaining wall in front of his place, Graham Avenue, on city property. It was referred to the Board of Works.

NATIVES ASK WORK IN CITY

At the meeting of the city council last night met a delegation of Metlakatla natives living in the city who were asking for a stop of unemployment relief. Alderman Macdonald asked that they be given some consideration for work now and then as others were getting. Others who were permanent residents were getting this.

Mayor McMordie pointed out that there were married men, permanent residents, who were getting very little work and he did not think they should take the way from them and give it to outsiders. He thought the work was being imposed upon by the aldermen. They could not be asked to provide employment for one.

The opinion was expressed that the natives were the wards of the federal government and that they should be asked from the Indian department.

SOME FACTS ABOUT THE NEW FORD

Production and Demand for New Ford Exceeds All Previous Records

The manufacturing schedules of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, have been steadily built up until a new daily record for Canadian automobile production has been reached.

Despite this peak output, orders for the new Ford keep uniformly ahead of the rising tide of manufacture. It is therefore necessary to continue a high rate of production. To this end a steady flow of material from more than 385 Canadian sources streams into the Ford plants. And here, with more than 10,000 men on the payrolls (almost double the previous employment record) these materials are converted into New Ford cars.

Ford Quality of Manufacture Has Been Strictly Maintained

In the effort to build enough New Ford cars to meet requirements, no deviation from the high standard of Ford precision has been permitted. This standard, unbelievably strict, was set before the car was placed upon the market, and it has since been rigidly adhered to.

In the New Ford Car 40 different steel alloys are used. Each is chosen for the specific use for which it is best adapted. In the transmission gears alone there are seven different kinds of alloys. Likewise, the forged steel spring perches, hardly bigger round than a man's thumb, will withstand a strain of 15,000 pounds. This is 30 times greater than the strain put on them in ordinary use.

permits sustained driving at the higher speeds hour after hour, is little short of marvelous. The ease with which steep hills are climbed in high gear is equally as impressive. Shifting gears, steering and handling the car under the most trying road conditions are exceptionally simple. 25 to 30 miles per gallon of gasoline and remarkably low oil consumption give a worthwhile operating economy.

In city traffic and on country highways, the New Ford performs as well as and often better than considerably heavier and higher priced cars. In the light car field it is absolutely without equal.

By these marks of Ford performance other motor cars are being judged. It simply means that price is no longer the gauge of automobile quality.

Ford Beauty Is More Than Skin Deep

On the surface the New Ford car is all that you want it to be. Beautiful low lines, harmonious color combinations, sparkling nickel, sturdy steel spoked wheels and balloon tires all play their part in making this a car of graceful proportion and handsome appearance.

But its real beauty is invisible. The quality of materials; careful workmanship; correctness of design; the things that really matter—these are the points in which the New Ford is exceptional.

Windshield of shatterproof glass and a six brake system, fully enclosed, safeguard occupants in any emergency. Four efficient shock absorbers in conjunction with the best proven light car spring system, give matchless riding comfort. All models are completely equipped to provide the ultimate in comfort, convenience and safety.

The excellence of materials used is matched by the careful precision of its manufacture. For example, the eight valve guides in every engine may deviate from perfection only by 1/30th of the thickness of the average human hair.

The simplicity and soundness of Ford design is unparalleled. Such manufacturing methods ensure a high degree of satisfactory performance over a long period of years.

Ford Performance is the New Standard for Judging Automobiles

The rapidity of get-away and acceleration of the New Ford is a by-word. Its endurance, which

If you have not ridden in the new Ford car, or experienced the thrill of driving it, there awaits you the knowledge that car values have actually changed; that a really fine car has come into the light car field; and that values offered by the new Ford cannot be duplicated anywhere. Your local Ford dealer will prove these statements by demonstration.

"OFFICER 666" IS FINE PLAY

Something Different on Local Stage Held Under Auspices of Annunciation Church

REPEATED TONIGHT

A really notable accomplishment on the local amateur stage was the presentation last night in the Westholme Theatre under the direction of M. J. Dougherty of the melodramatic three-act farce "Officer 666" by the Church of the Annunciation as the annual St. Patrick's Day entertainment. The pioneer opera house was practically filled for the occasion and the audience in no uncertain terms expressed its appreciation of a really entertaining performance. The affair, which will be repeated tonight and may honestly be recommended to the theatre going public of the city, was under the patronage of Right Reverend E. M. Bunoz O. M. L., D. D., Bishop of Prince Rupert and the Yukon.

Essentially a comedy "Officer 666," however, has also an interesting little human interest story and is something more than the ordinary farce. Nor is it devoid of thrills particularly in the second and third acts. Briefly, the story tells how the plans of an international picture crook, with the aid of a traitorous butler, against the young multimillionaire leading man are finally frustrated, after much misunderstanding and many surprising and humorous developments despite the bungling of the featured "Officer 666" to say nothing of the police captain and his heterogeneous squad of officers. Romance is also worked in.

The whole thing was smoothly carried off with histrionic skill and there was no hitch in connection with the staging of a number of denouements where quick action was required. Not only the director but the cast as a whole are to be congratulated on the excellence of the performance. It was something different and, in some respects, a little more ambitious than has been staged in the past and the effort is, therefore, the more praiseworthy.

Patrick McKenna, as Michael Phelan, "Officer 666," was well cast in the featured role. His antics and Irish brogue were the source of constant delight and his character was excellently sustained. Much of the comedy revolved about the lending of his uniform so that the thief might be caught, only to be later stolen by the thief himself so that he might make good his escape.

Members of Cast

George Arsenau, as Travers Gladwin, the victimized young millionaire, who had a thorough thirst for romance was also a newcomer to the local stage. He proved that he has real ability.

George Mitchell, as Whitney Barnes, Gladwin's friend and confidant, was the wag of the show. His constant ability for getting into some kind of a scrape was the cause for much merriment.

James Farquhar excelled himself as usual. His role was that of the international and impersonating picture crook. It called for considerable alertness which was not lacking.

Miss Jeane Grieve was a winsome little leading lady who showed her abilities as required. Miss Cathie Irvine was her demure companion who also figured in the romantic side of things.

Mrs. J. J. Muldoon carried off the role of the flustered and somewhat hysterical aunt of the young ladies in a manner which left nothing to be desired.

Others who took lesser parts with equal skill were Harry Astoria, as Watkins, the butler;

William Mitchell, a cigar chewing and gaudily garbed private detective; Dr. J. R. Fortune, W. Whiffen and H. Letourneau.

During the interval between Acts 1 and 2, Mrs. Jarvis H. McLeod sang in her usual fine voice "Killarney" and as an encore, "April in Killarney." The audience was very appreciative. Miss Blanche Curtin was Mrs. McLeod's accompanist.

The Westholme Orchestra, consisting of C. P. Balagno, Frank Williams and W. F. Browne, played appropriate Irish music at opening, closing and between acts.

The ladies in the play appeared in many bright costumes. Their furs were loaned by William Goldbloom. Miss Etta Robertson had charge of ladies' make-up.

J. J. Muldoon was business manager and Angelo Astoria acted as cashier. Ushers were Joe McDonald, Louis Astoria, Mike Comadina, Leo Contoli and Pat Voyer. Miss Willa Dyer's services as prompter were not often required.
