National Airplane Lumber Company Will Cut Own Logs From Falls River Up the Ecstall River at 40,000 Capacity Plant

The National Airplane Lumber Co., Inc., whose principals live at Kewanee, Ill., have started breaking of ground on a site adjoining the Billmor Spruce Mills, Ltd., to the east between the railway track of the Canadian Railways and Ridley Island, which has been chosen for the construction of a new sawmill which will specialize in the higher grades of lumber, particularly the production of airplane spruce for shipment to the United States.

A complete sawmilling plant with daily capacity of about 40,000 feet, the equipment including planer and resaw, will be erected and the mill is expected to be in operation this season. Lumber will be shipped both by rail and water and a wharf will be installed as well as a 1200-foot spur which will connect with the main line of the railway.

J. Randolph Black, vice-president of the National Airplane Co., and R. Armstrong, secretary-treasurer, who have been here for some time, will remain in Prince Rupert to superintend the construction of the mill. R. H. Demmler of Colorado Springs, also a principal of the company, is here as well. The company has extensive timber holdings on Big Falls Creek, a tributary of the Ecstall River, as well as on the Queen Charlotte Islands.

Prince Rupert Board of Trade Organized Twenty Years Ago Is Still Doing Good Work for City

First President Was John Houston, but Number of Present Members Held Office and Took Part In Its Deliberations

The end of 1928 marked the completion of 20 years of useful and effective work which has been carried on by the Prince Rupert Board of Trade for the advancement and progress of this port and city. The Board of Trade has ever had the advantage of having the successful and prominent business men of the city interested and taking an active part in connection with its work. This work, therefore, has been of a particularly effective nature in many ways and there has hardly been a development of any importance in the city that the board has not been instrumental in encouraging and supporting. The board has now established itself so firmly in the affairs of the community that it is almost a complement of the city and of almost as much importance, except for matters of municipal administration, as the city council itself.

This therefore, being an epoch mark in the history of the Board of Trade, it is interesting to look back and recall how the board had its inception and those who have taken an active part in connection with its operations during these past 20 years. The late John Houston, its first president, may

GEORGE MURRAY, OF NOVA SCOTIA, DIED YESTERDAY

Bluenose Statesman Made a Record for Length of His Administration

MONTREAL, Jan. 7.—Hon. George H. Murray, K.C., LL.D., former premier of Nova Scotia, died at his home here last night following three days' illness from pneumonia.

Mr. Murray is best known as having been a provincial premier for a longer time than any other man in the British Empire, he having held the position in his native province from 1896 to 1923, when he voluntarily retired.

The former Nova Scotia premier was born in Grand Narrows, N.S., in 1851, and was educated at Boston University and was granted honorary degrees by St. Francis Xavier College and Dalhousie University. Law was his chosen profession, but he soon turned to politics. He was unsuccessful in his first venture, having been beaten as candidate for the federal house for Cape Breton in 1887 and 1891 and again in the by-election of 1896. He was appointed to the legislative council of Nova Scotia in 1891 and upon the resignation of Mr. Fielding in 1896 he formed an administration and took the position of provincial secretary as well as premier.

Not content with being an appointed member of the council, Mr. Murray became a candidate in Victoria County in 1897, where he was re-elected on four consecutive occasions.

AUSTRALIA DECIDES TO SCRAP CRUISER

CANBERRA, Australia, Jan. 7.—The government has decided to scrap the light cruiser Sydney, laid down in 1912, which sank the German raider Emden during the war.

SAVED CREW GERMAN SHIP

Only Two Lost When Freighter Sank 500 Miles Off Newfoundland

BREMEN, Germany, Jan. 7.—The captain of the American steamer Saguache today notified the owners of the 5600-ton German freighter Roodelpeim that he had saved the entire crew of the vessel except the third engineer and the ship's carpenter when the ship sank about 500 miles off Newfoundland while en route from Emden for New York.

EDMONTON, Jan. 7.—Howard Douglas, chief motion picture censor of Alberta for 13 years and former superintendent of Banff National Park, is dead aged 78.

GETS A POSITION AS FARM LOAN COMMISSIONER

Dr. MacLean Has Wide Knowledge Which Will Be Useful at Ottawa

OTTAWA, Jan. 7.—In making the announcement of the appointment of J. D. MacLean, former premier of British Columbia, as federal loan commissioner, Minister of Finance Robb said: "The appointment is one, where the office sought the man, and not the man the position. It is desirable that the commissioner have a broad knowledge of Canadian conditions and also understand provincial finances. The latter is important, as the act provides for contribution by both Dominion and provincial governments. In Dr. MacLean these qualities were found in a large degree and the office was tendered him."

UP FOR TRIAL ON SEDITION CHARGE

EDMONTON, Jan. 7.—William Espin, member of the liquor enforcement squad, was committed for trial following a preliminary hearing on a charge of sedition, held before Magistrate Primrose. Bail was set at $2400, himself in $1200 and one surety for a similar amount.

Rispin, it was alleged, spoke disrespectfully of His Majesty King George and, in vulgar and obscene language, is said to have expressed the wish that he might die.

COLD WAVE AND STORM

Coquitlam Municipal Clerk Supposed to Have Been Killed Body Found on Boom of Logs

NEW WESTMINSTER, Jan. 7.—William Russell, municipal clerk of Coquitlam municipality, is believed to have been murdered. His body with a bullet through the head was found lying on a boom of logs on the waterfront here this morning.

The police believe that Russell was murdered elsewhere and that the body was taken in an automobile or other vehicle and dragged to the river's edge. It is believed it was intended that the body should enter the water, but it landed on a boom of logs.

Russell was formerly teller of the Bank of Montreal here.

TWO ARE LOST VANCOUVER ID.

Quatsino Man and Girl Set Out in Launch and Have Not Arrived Home

VANCOUVER, Jan. 7.—Fears that Leonard Davis of Quatsino, Vancouver Island, and his 18-year-old companion, a niece of R. O. Clark of Port Sound, who left a week ago, have been drowned has been increased by the discovery of their launch stranded on the rocky shore a mile and a half north of Blunden Harbor.

The discovery was made by Flight Lieutenant A. H. Hull, who flew north to assist in the search. The two who are missing left Blunden Harbor Monday last for Port Hardy. It was thought probable that they took to the rowboat when the launch was disabled.

King of Jugo-Slavia Is Dictator in Forming Country's Cabinet

Non-Party Group to Advise Alexander Instead of Parliamentary Regime Which Was Hopelessly Split

BELGRADE, Jugo-Slavia, Jan. 7.—King Alexander was virtually dictator of Jugo-Slavia today, having suspended the constitution and named a non-party cabinet. The ruler fell back on non-parliamentary government of a military stamp after a futile attempt to reconcile the strong party and racial antagonism with which the parliamentary regime has been split since June.

The drastic action of the king caused a sensation throughout the country, but no disturbances occurred. The Croats seemed to welcome the king's move heartily.

TAYLOR URGES CO-OPERATION

Part of Prince Rupert Mentioned by Vancouver's Mayor in Valedictory

"Co-operation with municipalities of the lower mainland and the island has brought about a better feeling than has existed before," said Louis D. Taylor in his valedictory address on retiring as mayor of Vancouver last week. "Any feeling of jealousy that may have been noted has passed; all are working for the common good, realizing that, as one grows and expands, the other benefits indirectly. As Victoria, Prince Rupert and New Westminster progress as ports, so does our own port. There is business for all."

PRESENTATION TO BANDMASTER

A presentation was made at the last practice by the Boys' Band of a fine ebony dresser set in an alligator case to Bandmaster Willson as a mark of appreciation of his work with them. Percy McIntosh was spokesman for the group, making a neat little speech in doing so, and Mr. Wilson feelingly replied.

The band is starting the New Year with the aim of making another tour this year, but whether to Edmonton again or south has not yet been determined.

SMITHERS WON SECOND MATCH

Weight of Interior Seniors Told On Local Intermediates; 20 to 15 Score

The heavier Smithers seniors put everything they had into their effort to win from Prince Rupert High School intermediates in the second game of the series at the interior railway centre on Saturday night and the result was a 20 to 15 score in their favor. Nevertheless, the Prince Rupert boys can claim honors on the series of two games by a margin of one point, having won the first game Friday night 27 to 21.

Ralph Smith and his proteges returned home on yesterday afternoon's train from the interior. They won their game at Terrace last Wednesday night, so took two of the three games on the trip, which was an enjoyable one. At Smithers on Friday night the Athletic Club staged a dance in the town hall in their honor.

The local boys who made the trip to the interior were: Douglas and Joe Scott, Bob Irvine, Bob Stalker, Harold Macdonald, Allan Cross and Danny Morrison.

BASKETBALLERS HOME ON TAKLA

Tell of Experiences When Engine Broke Down While Returning From Anyox

Having been towed from Arrandale by the Prince Rupert Salvage & Towing Co.'s tug Salvage Princess, the halibut boat Takla, having on board a party of some eighteen Prince Rupert senior and intermediate men basketball players as well as accompanying officials and fans, returned safely home about 9 o'clock Saturday evening after a trip to Anyox which started last Wednesday morning and which, due to an engine breakdown while homeward bound, lasted one day longer than was expected.

It was 1 o'clock Friday morning when the Takla left Anyox. About 4 a.m. the breakdown occurred just north of Ramsden Point, across Portland Inlet from the mouth of the Naas River. The boat was soon anchored and two lifeboats were manned and set out across for Arrandale to obtain aid. The mouth of the Naas was in its not uncommon tempestuous condition at this time of the year and the crossing of the inlet proved a rather arduous piece of business. It took almost eight hours to make the three-mile row and those on board the lifeboats were about ready to drop with fatigue on reaching Arrandale. Meantime, the Coastwise Steamship & Barge Co.'s freighter Amur had appeared on the scene and towed the Takla to Arrandale, reaching there about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, not long after those in the lifeboats had arrived.

The night was spent at Arrandale and the next morning, the Salvage Princess put in an appearance and brought the outfit home after a ten-hour trip. Everybody was in good shape and spirits though the members of the expedition were visibly glad to be home.

Capt. John Olsen was skipper of the Takla and those making the trip were Dido Gurvich, Spiro Gurvich, Eddie Smith, Ernie Ratchford, Bill Murray, F. W. Allen, Joe Downey, Cecil Downey, Bronson Hunt, Ham Antonelli, Tom Kelsey, Bill Lambie, Poli Howard, Bill Mitchell, Oke Jackson, Pat McCulloch and Billy Bacon.

SIX-MONTH SENTENCE FOR ASSAULT AT USK

Fred Morris Sent to Okalla by Judge Young in County Court

Fred Morris, for assaulting Thomas Shackleton, Usk hotel keeper, was sentenced to six months imprisonment at Okalla by Judge F. McB. Young in County Court this morning. W. E. Fisher acted as prosecutor in the case and W. O. Fulton appeared in the defence.

Owing to the illness of the president, Rev. W. F. Price, the regular monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert Ministerial Association, which was to have been held this morning, was postponed until next week.

Famous Sports Promoter Tex Rickard Died Yesterday from Effect of Appendix Operation

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 7.—Tex Rickard, the world's greatest sports organizer, died here yesterday as the result of an operation. The New York promoter lapsed into unconsciousness at 6:30 a.m. and succumbed at 8:37 to complications following the removal of his appendix on New Year's night.

Rickard, accompanied by his wife and child, came here recently as head of the Madison Square Garden Corporation to superintend the opening of a greyhound race track and to arrange for the heavyweight match between Young Stribling and Jack Sharkey.

Tex Rickard contributed largely to bringing the pugilistic game into the big financial status that features it today. He developed the "million dollar gate" and, a born gambler, made fortunes on some fights and lost fortunes on others. He made millionaires out of some of the great pugilists today. Indeed, during the past several years, there has been hardly a battle of great importance that he had not been instrumental in promoting. He engineered the fight of Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier a few years ago. This and the Dempsey-Firpo battle were notable among his financial successes. He made big on the first bout between Gene Tunney and Dempsey when the former won the heavyweight crown, but lost heavily last year in the return fight between the two.

Rickard specialized in the heavyweight game, but also interested himself in other classes. Just before he died, he announced arrangements complete for a fight on February 27 between Jack Sharkey and Young Stribling. It was believed that he intended to match the former champion, Jack Dempsey, with the winner. He was also one of the organizers of the National Hockey League.

LUMBER TRADE AND AUSTRALIA

Steamship Agent Says B. C. Has Not Used Steamer Space Allotted to Them

OTTAWA, Jan. 7.—Information which may affect the Government's attitude toward the subsidization of further steamship service from Vancouver to the Antipodes was received by the department of trade and commerce today in a letter from J. C. Irons, representing the Canadian-Australian line at present subsidized by Canada, New Zealand and Fiji Islands to the extent of $220,000 in all. The letter states that cargo space on the liner out of Vancouver and Victoria to Australia and New Zealand, which had been offered for lumber in the past, has not been filled by the mills of British Columbia. The lumber interests of B.C. have not made any appeal for assistance to extending the lines of communication and the letter says they have not sought aid for the marketing of their products. The mills have been unable to supply the lumber space offering for reasons which the letter does not mention.

The long standing County Court case from Bella Coola of B. Brynildsen & Sons vs. A. Egan et al, involving fur transactions, was disposed of in County Court this morning when Judge Young gave judgment in favor of the plaintiff and dismissed the counter claim. W. O. Fulton acted for the plaintiffs and there was no appearance for the defence.

As soon as he has completed his annual report upon which he is now busy, Dr. H. T. James, who has resigned as resident provincial engineer here for the provincial government to take a responsible position with the Granby Co., will leave the city for Anyox to take over his new duties. This will probably be some time in March or April. There is no word yet as to who may succeed Dr. James.

SPORT CHAT

Local fight fans were gratified to receive on Saturday announcement of January 24 as the date of the ten-round winner-take-all bout between Battling Dido Gurvich and Alf Harding. Keen interest is going to be taken in this affair of the fists and it should be a successful affair from the financial standpoints which is the main thing for the promoters and at least one of the participants. Fans, too, should get their money's worth out of the evening's program for it is assured that the headliners, at least, are going in there to win. They should for they will probably be getting a whack at one of the largest fight gates in town for some time. With the fight taking place in the Capitol Theatre and a program of vaudeville, moving pictures and good preliminaries thrown in for good measure, it gives promise of being one of the most attractive sporting bills that has been offered here for some time.

The year 1928 was not such a very active or sensational one among the box fighters and the twelve-month was a tough one in fisticuffing for lucre. Gene Tunney, heavyweight king, couldn't find enough action in the ring, so he left it flat and got married. The purse was hung up by the bride and is said to total a mere twenty million. Tommy Loughran still holds the light heavy crown, but may drop it like Jack Delaney did, at any time. There is no competition in his division since Mike McTigue's teeth fell out. Mickey Walker is middleweight boss, but doesn't think so much of it. He may be a light heavy any time Jack Kearns exposes him to a pair of honest scales. Joe Dundee is the welterweight wizard, but, he, too, isn't feeling so perky. Sam Mandell hasn't fought since last McLarnin, and so he retains his crown with ridiculous ease. Andre Routis' outboxed Tony Canzoneri and upset all the featherweight carts. Bushy Graham and Izey Schwartz top the bantams and the flies respectively, but it doesn't matter much, and is merely mentioned to complete the statistics.

Royal Bank has Largest Assets in Banking History

The Royal Bank of Canada goes steadily ahead making new high records for Canadian banking. The annual statement for the fiscal year to November 30th just published will be received by shareholders as one of the most satisfactory in the history of the bank. Not only are assets at a new high level in the history of Canadian banking, but, what will doubtless appeal equally as much to the many shareholders, the profits for the year also constituted a new record among Canadian banking institutions.

From the standpoint of general interest to the public at large, the most satisfactory part of the statement is probably that dealing with the commercial loans in Canada. It has been known that there has been a very large increase in the trade and industry of the country, and the Royal Bank, with its very large resources, has been able to take on $65,000,000 of new business throughout Canada and at the same time has amply maintained its usual strong cash position.

Strong Position Maintained. Every part of the statement bears evidence of the great co-operation the bank is in a position to lend all sections of the country, through its very complete chain of branches.

Of total assets of $909,305,884, liquid assets are $398,862,065, being equal to over 50 per cent. of liabilities to the public. Included among them are cash on hand and in banks totalling $180,321,670, being 22.62 per cent. of liabilities to the public.

The very prominent part which the bank has played in financing the larger business of the country is reflected by total commercial loans in Canada of $292,315,472, up from $225,536,860, an increase for the year of over $66,000,000. At the same time current loans elsewhere than in Canada are down to $145,422,394, from $153,411,835.

Of equal importance is the manner in which savings deposits continue to expand, deposits bearing interest having now gained to $523,651,908, up from $514,562,219 a year ago.

Record Earnings. A new high record for earnings has been set. Profits for the year amounted to $5,881,253, as compared with $5,370,145 in the previous year. The profits, added to the amount carried forward from the previous year, brought the total amount available for distribution up to $7,691,085. This was applied as follows: dividends and bonus $4,200,000; transferred to officers' pension fund $200,000; appropriation for bank premises $400,000; reserve for Dominion Government taxes $530,000; leaving a balance to be carried forward of $2,361,085, as against $1,809,831 at the end of the previous year.

DAILY MAIL SERVICE

After two months delay the Board of Trade has passed a resolution urging on the post office department the establishment of a daily mail service to points east of Prince Rupert. This is a very important matter and means much to the merchants and others who live here, as well as to the residents of the interior. It is one that should be followed up on every possible occasion and pushed until action is taken on it. The excuses of the post office department that the cost is too great should not be taken as final. The post office department is one that has to be prodded and prodded hard to get action.

WHY THE HOLDBACK?

The only part of the draft agreement between the city and the Power Corporation of Canada to which exception can be taken, it would seem, is that providing for the placing of part of the money in a trust account until the present plant is freed from liability, and title can be given. This seems unnecessary. If the credit of the city is good, there is no need of it, and if the credit of the city is not going to be good, the company will not want the plant. It will be better for it to stay away.

There are today some outstanding bonds against the plant which have been sold and will not mature for something like twenty years. They are in the nature of a mortgage against the property, but will be paid in due course if the city is still here. It seems to us that if the company has faith in the future of the city, which its action in making the purchase would indicate, it should have faith enough to be willing to buy without the holdback.

We all have city bonds outstanding against our property and expect to have for many a year to come.

THINKING IMPERIALLY

There is a general movement today toward consolidation of the British Empire. Britain and the Dominions were recently faced with a tendency to disintegrate. South Africa was openly hostile, there was a movement toward the United States in Canada, and in other Dominions there was dissatisfaction. Today that seems to be passing. The trouble in South Africa has been to a large extent overcome, the Canadian tendency has been checked and all the Dominions today seem to be realizing that their lot lies in being part of a powerful British Commonwealth, known generally as the British Empire.

The most important phase in this development has been the realization of the true condition by Great Britain. The "Little Englander" no longer exists. The men who at one time talked of the "colonies" as "belonging to us" have disappeared and today everywhere the people are coming to realize the immense possibilities of a world power in which all the important sections have equal status and all fly the same flag.

The conception of a commonwealth in which each part is independent and yet in which all unite in time of stress for the benefit of the whole is a new one. The world has not seen the like before. Whether this will be followed by some more tangible ties, such as free trade within the Empire and freedom of citizens to move to and fro at will without restriction, is something to be worked out in future. At present we have a condition which is unique.

Britain led the way in the development of parliamentary constitutional government. The rest of the world followed. Today again she is leading the way and it is possible that in time the whole English speaking world may become part of a great commonwealth in which each part is independent, but in which each allows privileges to the other which make for greater world freedom.

be called the "father" of the Prince Rupert Board of Trade. Fred Stork and J. A. Kirkpatrick, as well as others, played a prominent part in establishing the body.

The board had its inception on November 17, 1908, six months before the townsite was sold, when a meeting of citizens was held in the Christiansen-Brandt Hall on old Centre Street "to discuss the advisability of organizing a Board of Trade." Fred Stork took the chair at this meeting on motion of J. A. Kirkpatrick and M. M. Stephens, and M. M. Stephens was invited to act as secretary on motion of F. G. Dawson and F. W. Hart. "It was moved," the minute book says, "by John Houston and seconded by J. F. Maguire that the meeting proceed with the organization of the Prince Rupert Board of Trade." And thus the board was launched.

Another preliminary meeting took place on December 9, 1908, in the old Fire Hall to proceed with the organization of the board, Fred Stork being again in the chair and M. M. Stephens still acting as secretary.

First Annual Meeting

The board came formally into being when its first annual meeting was held in the court house on Centre Street on December 14, 1908. John Houston, proposed by J. A. Kirkpatrick and J. G. Scott, was elected president, being given a close run for the honor by A. J. Morris, who was proposed by D. G. Stewart and F. G. Dawson. The vote was 19 to 17 in Mr. Houston's favor.

Thomas Dunn was unanimously elected vice-president, while M. M. Stephens was chosen secretary over G. W. A. Abbott by a vote of 29 to 9. The council was chosen as follows:

Incorporation

At this first general meeting of the Board, a motion was passed that steps be taken immediately to bring about incorporation of the city. In this connection, a committee consisting of H. A. McClure, A. W. Edge, F. W. Hart, W. G. Dennis, A. J. Morris, Henry Smith, C. D. New-

POWER Builds Industries!

POWER DEVELOPMENT
1916	460,000 HP
1926-7	460,000 HP
Capital Invested in Manufacturing:
1916	$340,000,000
1926-7	$340,000,000

BRITISH Columbia's Power resources are the envy of the world. With Power, the riches of the world can be won; with Power, ores can be mined . . . smelted; transportation problems solved; manufacturing industries developed, and with them population . . . pay-rolls. Power is British Columbia's strongest bid for more industries . . . more people.

Of the millions of horsepower available in our province, but half a million are now harnessed to turn the wheels of industry. The great hydro-electric development at Bridge River will ultimately generate more than 600,000 horsepower, while the output at Bonington Falls and other points is being steadily increased. The Campbell and Chiko Rivers, on the mainland, and the Nimpkish on Vancouver Island, are capable of tremendous power development for the conversion of our forest and mineral resources into fabulous wealth.

Two of British Columbia's Electric Power systems are among the greatest in Canada, each generating more than 400,000,000 kilowatt hours in 1927. This represents an increase in the last ten years of 98% . . . truly a remarkable achievement!

Foreign authorities speak of this record as a measure of the great vitality of British Columbia.

Today we rank third in power and industrial development among Canadian provinces. We have made greater progress per capita than any!

It is the policy of British Columbia to foster the development of the hydro-electric powers for the benefit of the public. They are allotted to private enterprises on condition that they will be developed within a certain time, so that no exploitation of public assets may take place.

Millions of dollars are now earmarked for Power development in our province. Dams are being built, turbines installed . . . transmission lines erected to care for the imminent industrial development.

Thousands of dollars are being expended weekly on materials and wages; thousands are feeling the immediate benefits of this enterprise.

Side by side with our power development, Industrial Expansion has kept pace. Today 17% of Canada's external trade is handled by British Columbia. During the past decade, our basic industries have increased 101.3%. Our total payroll, including all classes, is estimated at 210 million dollars. Today, our Lumbering, Mining and Fishing industries employ 72,517 people, paying them 175 million dollars in wages . . . distributing an average wage ranking among the highest in Canada.

These 175 millions in wages are a great contribution to our annual internal trade in the province. They have given our industrial workers a buying power ranking second in the Dominion and have largely been responsible for our ever increasing prosperity, as evidenced by the fact that the number of automobiles registered in the province last year was 76,187 as compared with 8,596 in 1916.

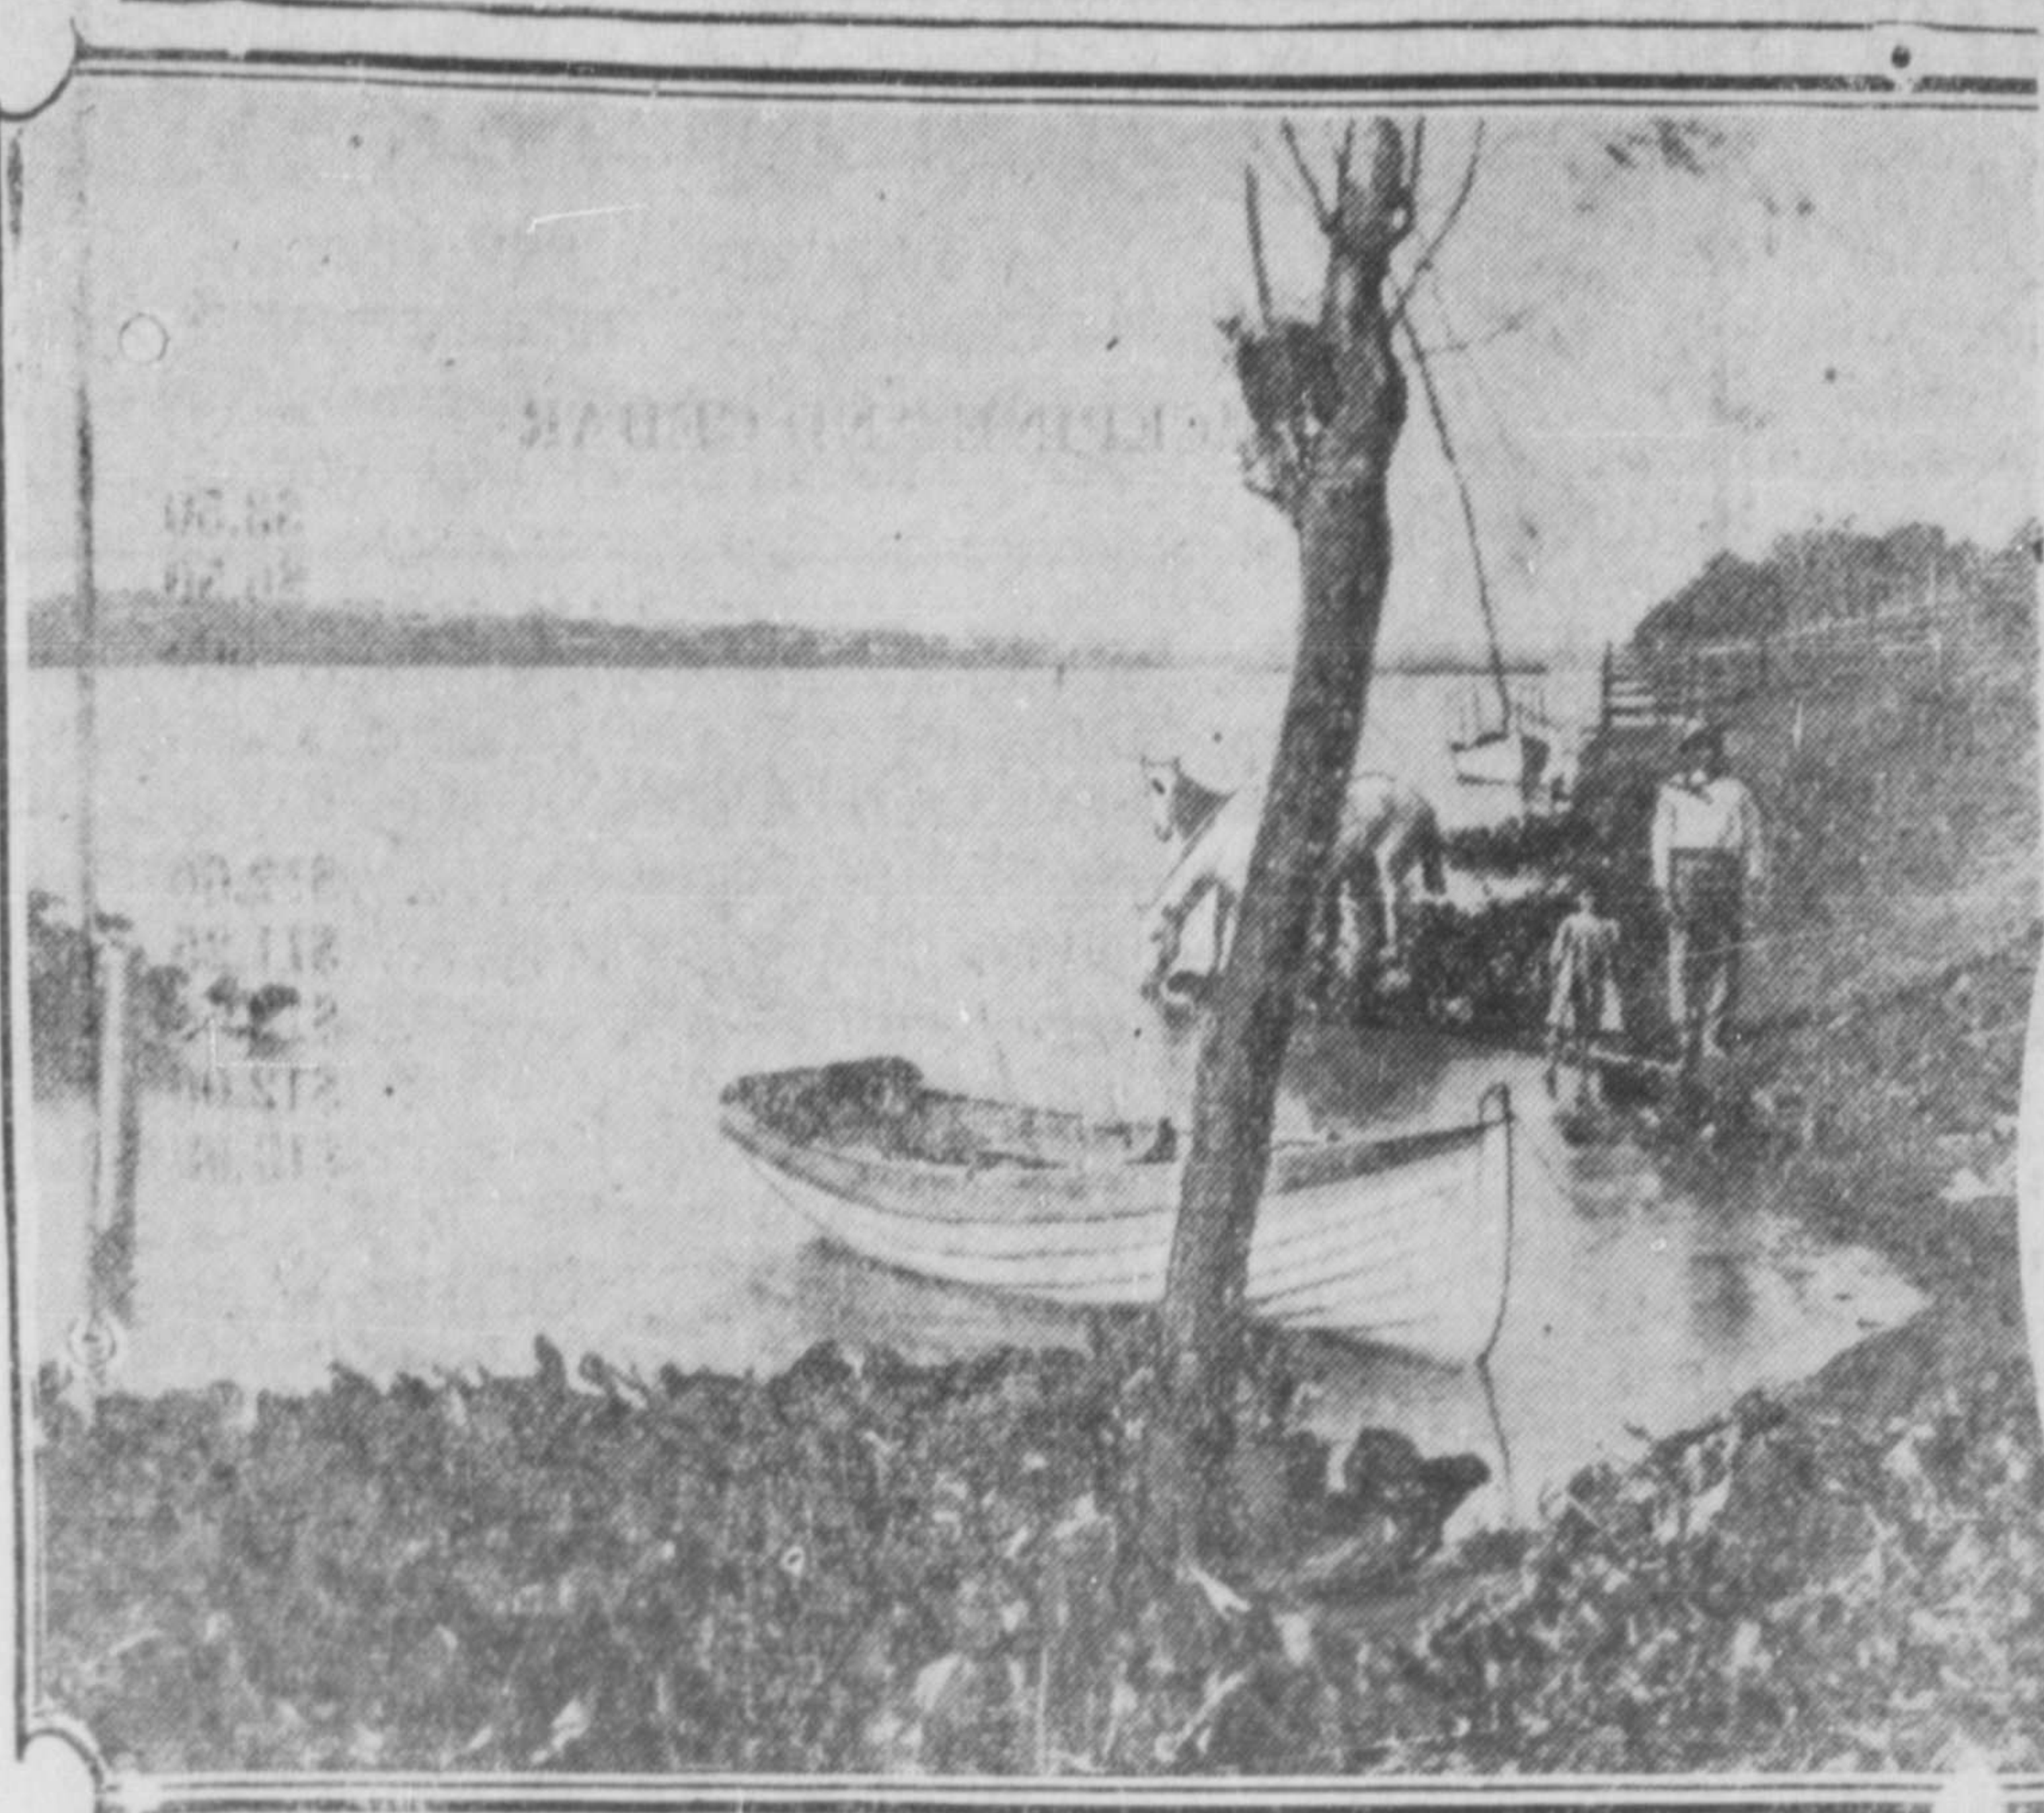

British Columbia's steady and varied industrial development has changed the conception in Eastern Canada and the United States of our province. No longer are we entirely dependent on the East for our manufactured products. British Columbia is increasingly furnishing her own needs. She now ranks third in the whole Dominion as a manufacturing province.

Our phenomenal Power and Industrial growth has focused the attention of the great industrialists and investors on our province. Today, British Columbia in the eyes of the world, stands for Power, Progress and Plenty. May our efforts of the next ten years stabilize and increase our Prosperity!

COUNT STUDIES THE CARIBOU

Tolstoy Says He Thinks Herds Are Increasing in Number

WINNIPEG, Man., Jan. 7. — Fires and the slow creeping in of civilization are responsible for the changes in the habits of the immense herds of caribou that roam the barren lands, according to Count Llia Tolstoy, grandson of the great philanthropist and writer, who left Winnipeg over the Canadian National Railway this morning for Timagani, where he will make a short stay before returning to New York after nearly five months in the wilderness of the Northwest Territories.

Count Tolstoy was in charge of the expedition sponsored by the American Museum of Natural History to study the migration of the caribou. He was accompanied by Horace Ashton and W. J. Casel, photographers. Mr. Ashton returned east a week ago, but Count Tolstoy and Mr. Casel did not reach Winnipeg from The Pas until yesterday.

With the party was George Yandle, Arctic trapper, who has not seen civilization for 15 years. His first re-action to it was a pair of fancy spats with zippers.

The caribou of the barrens have made more changes in their habits in the past three years than they have done for a century, Count Tolstoy said. Some scientists and old-timers were of the opinion that the herds were decreasing, but he believed that they were increasing, but were moving further away in their great sweeping circles. On this trip he saw herds numbering thousands of heads, but the big herd did not come within the ken of the explorers.

Count Tolstoy strongly advocates the use of aeroplanes for the study of caribou migration.

The party left Winnipeg for the north on August 14 and went from Sturgeon Landing, a thousand miles by water, as far as Reindeer Neultin and Windy Lakes. Ninety-seven portages were necessary. The return was made with dogs bought from the Eskimo. "Wonderful animals, these Eskimo dogs," said Tolstoy.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU BUSY

Local Branch Placed 645 Men During Past Year

The local branch of the Employment Service of Canada had a slightly busier year in 1928 than in 1927, according to annual figures which were issued this morning by the superintendent, James M. Campbell. The office was responsible during the year for placing 645 men in regular employment, as compared with 455 the year previous, and found casual employment for 276 men, as against 456.

During the year there were 1234 new applications for work and 5770 re-applications, as compared with respective figures in 1927 of 1251 and 5798. Both these figures indicate that there was slightly less unemployment in the city during 1928 than the year previous.

At the same time, employers in the district made use of the office by giving 945 orders for workers, as compared with 861 in 1927. Transfers in the zone numbered 57 during the year.

The office issued cheap transportation certificates between here and Prince George to 137 men, as against 111 last year. The harvest excursions took 385 men from the city and district during 1928, as compared with 334 the year previous.

Miners for Anyox, Stewart, the central interior; and other parts of the district, and loggers, tie makers and pole makers were chiefly given employment during the past year.

There are now about 50 men on the unemployed list here, including quite a few transients who have recently arrived in the city. Tie camps in the interior are, as usual, taking quite a few men just now. With a revival of industrial activity in the district forecast, prospects are that 1929 should be a good year from the standpoint of employment.

A Youthful Design That Achieves Rare Chic

brunettes is this delicate combination of white, pale chartreuse and gold in as lovely a formal ensemble as the season has seen. The dress is white chiffon with petals of chartreuse and gold, which colors are repeated in the bow falling from the attractive Louiseboulanger neckline. The wrap of ermine is lined in chartreuse velvet—and if this sounds too prohibitive for your purse, try the same wrap in white velvet.

A Sports Dress That Is Not a Sports Dress

Here's a paradox—a formal sports dress! But it is an interesting paradox, so we won't quarrel with the designer. The model creating so much excitement can safely be worn at luncheon or even informal afternoon functions. It is of banana-colored flat crepe, trimmed with a narrow bow of cocoa brown. The blouse is embroidered all over in gold metal thread, and the skirt is finely plaited and quite short.

F. L. Haggerty sailed from here last night on the Catala for Stewart.

The local dry dock is reported to be figuring on the construction of tanks for the Home Oil Co. which it has been rumored or some time, is coming to open up here. No confirmation of the report is available.

H. C. Fraser, inspector of schools, preached at both services yesterday in First Presbyterian Church which is temporarily without a pastor. At evening service, John E. Davey and W. E. Willmroft sang "The Lord is My Shepherd" as a vocal duet.

The choir of First United Church repeated the Christmas cantata "The King Cometh" at evening service yesterday to good advantage. Owing to the absence of the choirmaster, John S. Wilson, who was suffering with influenza, certain of the numbers had to be omitted. Mrs. A. Wilson presided at the pipe organ and played "Gloria" from Mozart's "Twelfth Mass" as a voluntary. Rev. A. Wilson occupied the pulpit.

INTELLECTUALS AND PARTIES

(Toronto Globe)

Is the Conservative party lacking in intellectuals? The Ottawa Journal apparently thinks so and the Evening Telegram disagrees.

To quote from the telegram: "The Ottawa Journal is downcast because the Conservative party does not send intellectual giants to parliament. It yearns for the day when some Tory philanthropist will go out among the schools and colleges and pick out bright young men who will grow up into a superior brand of Tory statesmen. And with these as shock troops the Tory party is expected to overthrow the hosts of Liberalism and make of Canada an ideal country."

"But again the old trouble looms up. How are you going to get the young intellectuals elected. A perverse electorate still likes to vote for somebody about its own size."

We will leave these two Conservative papers to fight out between them the question of whether or not Oxford medalists, with a profound knowledge of the classics and a good opinion in Greek, would win votes or the intellectual influence is less important than practical experience in promoting prosperity and growth in Canada.

Ability to split hairs on matters of status and constitutional theory fits a man for public office in Canada less than does the knowledge of how to get an extra bushel of wheat per acre or more eggs per hen, or how to reduce the cost of producing a ton of steel ingots by fifty cents.

For the month of December the amount scaled was 4,355,757 bd. ft. The scale for 1928 is not as large as last year, but owing to the increase of timber activities next year will likely show a decided rise.

AROUND PRINCE RUPERT
Erickson Confident of Rufus-Argenta; New Company for Stewart Formed; Howe Sound Co. at Alice Arm

B. O. Erickson, veteran miner and prospector of the Portland Canal district, after whom one of the main veins on the Rufus-Argenta mine is named, is confident that the property (Rufus-Argenta) will yet become one of the dividend payers on a large scale in the Bear River area. He is gratified with progress that has been made by the J. F. Duthie interests in the various workings, particularly on the Erickson vein, which is proving up in a rather spectacular fashion. A large quantity of very profitable ore has been located and more is certain to be found as development proceeds, states Mr. Erickson.

The Canada Consolidated Mines Ltd., with capitalization of $3,000,000, has been formed to take over and operate various mines in the province, including the Crest group, nine miles from Hyder, Alaska, on the Alaskan side of the boundary, one mile airline from the Premier. The president of the company is Brigadier-General J. Duff Stuart, while Colonel Frederick M. Ryder, former United States consul-general at Vancouver, is secretary-treasurer. Other directors include George L. MacInnes, William A. Spera and H. L. Gildemeester. W. S. Bacon, M.E., is the company's engineer. Other properties acquired by the company are the Bozum mine, New Denver; Ymir-Wileox mine, Ymir; Rio de Oro, Spanish Creek; and Thelma, Nicola.

Man in the Moon

If you have nothing else to be proud of you always have ancestors. You can spin any wild yarn you like about them.

Love is what urges a girl to quit a job at $150 a month to marry a man who earns $125.

Cupid is the only person who thinks two can live as cheaply as one.

The best families are those with ancient mortgages.

Did you hear about the flapper Who stayed at home at night, And kept her face from powder free, Yet was a lovely sight?

Neither did I, my worthy friend But I may yet meet one Of those old fashioned kind of girls, It's wise for all to shun.

In looking back I feel sure everyone had a Merry Christmas except perhaps a few of the turkeys, and even in that case the ghosts of some of them must have chuckled at the hard time they gave the tone pickers.

The reason airplanes are so scarce in Prince Rupert is that no one has yet been offering them here, yet, for ten dollars down and ten a month.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

January 7, 1919

A committee consisting of Ald. G. B. Casey, Ald. Thomas McMeekin and Ald. W. G. Barrie recommended to the city council last night that a board of fuel commissioners be appointed here to regulate the price of coal and that permission be sought from the provincial government to operate municipal coal yards.

Bulkley and Nechako Valley lands will soon become available for settlers. The first areas in the Land Settlement districts will be allocated next month. A good deal of rich land will be among that offered.

More people attended the movies here last night than ever went before in one evening in the history of Prince Rupert. The Westholme Theatre was showing a fine picture with Charlie Chaplin in the stellar role and "The Flame of the Yukon" at the Empress was equally good.

"RAMONA," FILM CLASSIC, OPENS AT CAPITOL TONIGHT

Rated as "One of 1928's Ten Best Photoplays"

Dolores Del Rio, ingenue, vampire, comedienne and tragedienne, who plays at the Capitol tonight, Tuesday and Wednesday in the wonderful international success "Ramona," will be seen in her greatest role of all time. The picture abounds in charming romance, dynamic drama and heart-rending tragedy.

The story is most unusual:

Two men had eyes that followed Ramona—one, Alessandro, the Indian; the other, Felipe, whom she adored as a brother. But Alessandro it was who carried her off to the land of his fathers. There, life was Paradise. She loved with all the fervid emotion which had been inherited from an Indian mother and a Spanish sire. As for Alessandro, the white blossom was the hub around which his universe revolved. Morning, noon, night—always thoughts of Ramona.

NURSE CAVELL SEEN IN "DAWN"

Sybil Thorndike Takes Character of Famous Heroine of War in Big Picture at Westholme

"Dawn," the story of Nurse Cavell, is being shown at the Westholme Theatre tonight, Tuesday and Wednesday. It is said to be a wonderful film. Speaking of Nurse Cavell, the Vancouver Province says:

It is now 13 years since Nurse Cavell was executed. The incident has passed from the horrifying news item that shocked the civilized world on October 12, 1915, and has become history.

For many of us the horror has not yet passed away.

Endless criticisms have been made of the harshness with which the German Penal Code was at that time enforced, and only now is the German aspect of the case being brought into the light of day. Although nothing can detract from the sheer brutality of the execution, it must be remembered that the year 1915 was a most critical one in the history of Germany and the war. The motive factor behind the sentence can have been none other than expediency, and the pressure of affairs at that time forbade entertaining the idea of mercy. Germany is to be criticized for surrendering humanity to expediency, not for the baldly brutal fact of the execution.

At that time Nurse Cavell herself realized that she was simply the victim of a rigid penal code. In her last interview with the British chaplain in Brussels, she said:

"They have all been very kind to me here. But this I would say, standing as I do in the view of God and eternity: I realize that patriotism is not enough. I must have no hatred or bitterness toward anyone."

Nurse Cavell's actions, translated as "criminal" in the German Penal Code, were to her simple enough. Here were soldiers whose lives were in danger, and she could help them. As she said in her defence, "I helped them for fear they would be shot if I didn't."

The case presented itself to her as one of simple human kindness. She was aware that it was against the law, but she acted in accordance with her own moral code, which was so much higher and simpler than any law administered by military governments. Nurse Cavell was the victim of circumstance; that her death should so shock the world was merely accidental, as was the code which condemned her. The real fault lay in that which made it impossible for those who executed the law to modify its execution.

In the original version of the moving picture, "Dawn," wherein the main events of the execution are depicted, revolt against this dehumanizing law was shown in the refusal of one member of the firing party to fulfil his duty. This man was shot. In the film it was also recorded that half-way toward her post Nurse Cavell fell, one of the German officers immediately drew his revolver and mercifully performed the execution before she could regain consciousness. This account seems to be much more acceptable than the tale of ruder barbarity with which the Germans were credited 13 years ago.

Dated September 1st, 1928

Due September 1st, 1943

PRICE: 98.90 and INTEREST

Yielding 7.12 Per Cent

Trustee:—Montreal Trust Company

Denominations $500 and $1,000

Principal and interest are payable at any branch of the Royal Bank in British Columbia.

Bonds are callable at 105 on any interest date on sixty days' prior notice.

A Sinking Fund of $3,000 per year will be paid to the Trustee who may invest same in these bonds if procurable at 105 or less, but if not, then it shall be invested in Trustee Securities.

The Prince Rupert Amusement Company was organized for the purpose of operating a moving picture theatre in the City of Prince Rupert. Up to the present the Company has operated in a rented building but has now completed construction of a very fine building on the main street of the City at a cost of approximately (including value of land) $109,000. This building has been leased to B. C. Paramount Theatres Limited for 15 years on the following terms: Rental $8,000 per year, together with one-half the net profits remaining after payment of such rental and other operating expenses. The Lessor also gives to the Lessee an option for three years to purchase the said property for $150,000. If this option is not exercised then the Lessee will, during the balance of the term pay $12,000 per year rental in lieu of $8,000 and one-half the net profits.

According to official records, five-sixths of the issued capital of B. C. Paramount Theatres Limited is issued in the name of Famous Players Canadian Company Ltd.

Interest and Sinking Fund on these bonds will amount to $6,850 per year.

This amount is fully taken care of by the rental to be received from the Lessee without taking into consideration any revenue to be derived from profits.

In addition to the above, the Prince Rupert Amusement Company will have a rental of about $2,500 per year from three stores in the new building. This will be more than ample to take care of all real estate taxes and incidental expenses.
