British Will Not Accept Latest Proposals German Reparations Settlement

LONDON, May 9.—Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, chancellor of the exchequer, told the house of commons today that the kind of proposals foreshadowed for the German reparations settlement in the London press yesterday would be unacceptable to the Baldwin cabinet. Under no circumstances would the government entertain such proposals, he said.

The proposals were made by Owen D. Young, head of the American delegation, under which it is said Great Britain would get the worst of the settlement.

It is understood the new proposals would be acceptable to Germany. The creditor delegates are meeting with the German delegates in Paris today.

VALUE OF TOURISTS

Seattle claims that the tourist business was worth $32,000,000 to that city last year. This is probably the world's greatest industry and practically every city on the continent shares in it.

Prince Rupert is able to entertain those people who come here by boat and train, but they are not the ones who spend money. What is needed to make this a tourist centre is the road to connect the city with the outside.

If ten thousand cars visited Prince Rupert during the summer, the city would be one of the most prosperous in the country.

It is hard to believe that Premier Tolmie and the other cabinet ministers are aware of the fact that only six miles of provincial road has been built in this neighborhood during the past twenty years.

Three Great Political Leaders in Neck and Neck Race

With the announcement of the dates of dissolution, nomination and election day, the three major parties in Great Britain are off to a running start with government leadership as the prize. All three leaders shown above have known the sweets of office and served as Prime Minister, which is regarded as one of the most onerous positions in the world. The three portraits above have just been received from London and are splendid character studies of the leaders: Rt. Hon. D. Lloyd George (left), Liberal Chief; Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, Prime Minister and leader of the Conservative party; and Rt. Hon. Ramsay MacDonald, head of the Socialist Party (right).

Blanket objection to the entire findings on fact and the conclusions on law is set forth in a document filed on behalf of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

POWER COMPANY OFFICIALS SEE PROGRESS AHEAD

Charles Johnstone and George R. Atchison, prominent officials of the Power Corporation of Canada, who went north to Stewart yesterday, expressed to The Daily News appreciation of the condition they found in Prince Rupert. They said the foundation had been well laid and the city was due for a forward move pretty soon.

Mr. Johnstone said he had been very agreeably surprised at what he had found here. None of the statements he had heard in the south concerning the city were true. He expected great things for the place in the near future.

PIONEER AVIATOR OF PRINCE RUPERT STILL IN FLYING BUSINESS

C. O. Prest, who in 1921 flew the first airplane which ever soared over the city of Prince Rupert, and, in fact, the only straight land machine that has ever been used here, is now located in Arlington, Cal., where he conducts a business known as the Prest Airplane and Motors. He is still identified with the flying game, although, possibly, in not quite so active a way as when he pioneered the air routes of northern British Columbia, Yukon and Alaska. In more recent years, his home town of Las Vegas, Nev., has honored him by naming its airport Prest Field.

L. M. Bach, who was Prest's partner in Prince Rupert's first aerial exploit, is at Santa Monica, where he is engaged in manufacturing airplanes.

Right of Communists to Hold Meetings Contended in the Ottawa House of Commons Yesterday

OTTAWA, May 9.—Recent action against the editor of the Finnish newspaper in Sudbury and the attitude of the Toronto police commission with respect to Communist meetings in that city brought a debate in the house of commons which took up most of Wednesday afternoon's sitting. The right of free speech, free press and free assembly was the principle at stake, a number of members contended. While they were not in favor of Communism, they strenuously objected to any action that would suppress meetings in that cause.

The matter was brought up by J. S. Woodsworth, Labor member for Winnipeg North Centre. The discussion ended without definite action being taken by the house.

BRITISH MOTORIST BREAKS TWO WORLD SPEED RECORDS

Captain Campbell, the daredevil British driver, who went to the African desert in an attempt to break Segrave's world's record of 231 miles an hour, did not accomplish his objective, but before he packed up his Bluebird racer he captured the world's speed records over five-mile and five-kilometre distances. With heroic efforts over the rough course at the Pan, near Cape Town, South Africa, Campbell steered his machine, at an average speed of 212 miles an hour in the five-mile dash, and also eclipsed the world's five-kilometre record with a speed of 211 miles an hour. Above is a rear view of his peculiar machine, showing the stabilizing fin and rear axle streamlining, while inset is a picture of the daring motorist.

JUNIOR SOCCER PLAY RESUMED

High School Beat Booth by Score of 6 to Nil Last Evening

Before a large and enthusiastic crowd of spectators, the Junior Football last evening resumed the 1928-29 schedule when High School recorded another victory over Booth by 6 to nil.

The game was well contested all the way through with Booth players showing the better football but finding High School defence very sure and too strong and heavy for them. The game was always interesting. Smurthwaite, Scott and Anderson led many dangerous raids with Smurthwaite the most dangerous forward on the field. Wicks did not get so many chances. Scott's long drives were always a source of danger and Bacon tried hard. The High half back line was uniformly good and played neat football. Pyle turned in one of his best games, tackling and kicking well. Stiles was too good for the opposition and Smith was rarely tested in goal though he was very lucky towards the end.

Christen in Booth goal made a creditable showing for his first game and stopped many dangerous shots. Nelson was very erratic at the start and miskicked out, in the second half, did better. Cross was good and kicked well with either foot. Colussi was the best halfback on the field and was a rare spoiler and worker. Bartlett and Greer were good. Booth forwards combined neatly with Walters and Wingham the pick but though they deserved goals they were unlucky. Cameron was plucky and Murray and Larsen improved as the game went on.

Scorers for High were: Smurthwaite 2, Scott 2, Bacon 1, and Nelson turned one shot past his own goalie to make the total 6 for High.

The quality of play augurs well for the season.

Borden and Booth meet on Saturday afternoon, at 2:30. Borden has two new players and is hoping to record its first win of the series.

Jack Campbell refereed and T. Bussanich and W. Johnson were linesmen.

The standing of the teams so far is as follows:

	W.	L.	D.	P.
High	4	2	1	9
Booth	2	3	0	4
Borden	0	3	1	1

CHARLES ALBERT COMISKEY Who Rose From Baseball Player to Owner

Charles Albert Comiskey, who was born in Chicago on August 15, 1858, of Irish parentage and started out as a plumber's apprentice, is the only baseball player who rose from the ranks to sole ownership of a Major League club. After having built up the Chicago White Sox from the beginning of the American League into an organization known the world over, Comiskey caused a sensation when in 1920 he wrecked his machine by discharging most of his star players on finding that the 1919 world series had been thrown to the Cincinnati Reds.

After playing all his spare time as a lad on the vacant lots, Comiskey in 1876 joined the Milwaukee club as a third baseman. From there he went to Elgin, Illinois, as a pitcher, remaining one year and winning every game. In 1878 he joined Dubuque in the Northwestern League and remained there for four years before going in 1881 to the St. Louis Browns of the American Association. In 1883 he was made manager and won four pennants and one world series.

In 1890 Comiskey took charge of the Players' Club in Chicago and in 1892 went to Cincinnati where he managed the Reds until 1895. Comiskey and Byron Bancroft Johnson, then engaged in newspaper work, saw the financial possibilities of another major league besides the National and became the chief factors in the expansion of the old Western League into the American League. Comiskey then invaded Chicago, his birthplace, with the White Sox.

In 1900 and 1901, the White Sox won the American League pennants and in 1906 the world's series from New York Giants in 1917 and lost to Cincinnati in 1919. Soon after his connection with the White Sox, Comiskey became president and sole owner of the club and his popularity gave in a large following. In 1910 he built a mammoth stadium for the White Sox.

In his declining years, the "Old Roman" has been accustomed to make pilgrimages to a tract of land which he acquired years ago at Eagle River, Wisconsin. His home is still in Chicago.

Former Toronto Player Pitches No-Hit Victory Giants vs. Pittsburg

NEW YORK, May 9. — Carl Hubbell, the slender Missouri southpaw, practically a freshman in the major leagues, although he is a regular and star, caused a furore in major league circles yesterday by pitching the Giants to a no-hit victory over Pittsburg. It was the first no-hit performance in the majors since Ted Lyons of the White Sox shut out Boston in August, 1926.

Hubbell was formerly a pitcher for Toronto in the International League.

Chicago rose to the head of the National League as a result of beating Brooklyn, while the Cardinals disposed of Boston.

Waite Hoyt won his fourth straight, Lou Gehrig hit his seventh homer and the Yankees picked up their sixth successive victory as the Browns were sunk in St. Louis.

It seems almost a miracle—the way "Fruit-a-tives" benefits women suffering at the change of life. "I was obliged to go to bed because of the terrible dizziness, pain and weakness," writes Mrs. GODIN of Paquetville, N.B. "During this trying time 'Fruit-a-tives' proved a godsend to me, and now I am in perfect health. Every woman should follow my example and take 'Fruit-a-tives,' and they would surely get the wonderful relief that I did." Try it. Your dealer has this wonderful 'fruit medicine'—25c. and 50c. a box.

NEW PROVINCE WAS FAVORED

Interesting Debate Held by Moose Lodge on Live Issue

An interesting debate on the subject of the formation of northern British Columbia into a new province was held at the Moose Lodge last night, the decision being in favor of a new province.

Arguing for the new province were D. C. Schubert and W. B. McCallum, who stressed the belief that this district would have better chances for development if the revenue it produced in the way of taxation and other imposts were administered and expended by a more local government. An interesting suggestion was that Yukon Territory might be included in the new province.

Louis Astori and Richard Long, speaking in the negative, held that cost of administration would be more than the district could bear.

The judges were W. S. Fawcett of Victoria, B. M. Simpson and J. M. Morrison.

After the debate, refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

FOLLY OF DELAY

The questions of reparations is still worrying both the German people and the nations that fought against Germany during the war. This matter, it would seem, ought to have been settled long ago. It is still a cause of irritation and should be settled as soon as possible. It is a folly to continue to keep open a sore which would heal if left alone.

DIVIDEND PAYERS

People who have money to invest always look for dividend payers. They are so much better than prospects. Just now Home Oil has declared a dividend of 20 per cent. That is a pretty good start for the company. There are also mines that pay dividends in British Columbia and these can always hold their own. Take Premier as an example. For a long time it paid 40 per cent and of late it has been handing out 8 per cent each quarter, or 32 per cent annually. Doubtless other mining properties will be doing similarly pretty soon.

TAXING LOW PRICED STOCKS

The government had proposed charging a tax of one cent a share on all stock transfers. On a share worth only two cents that would have meant taking half the property. Now this has been changed and the tax will be only a tenth of a cent for shares selling for less than fifty cents. The finance minister was well advised in making the change, which would have made the transfer of very low priced stocks impossible.

THE WORLD COURT

(Winnipeg Free Press)

The situation in which the British nations find themselves in relation to the optional clause of the world court has been quite clearly revealed by the recent discussions in the Canadian parliament and the debate this week in the house of lords. As long ago as 1925 Canada, giving reasons for the rejection of the Geneva protocol, indicated a readiness to sign the optional clause; and this is still the attitude of the government and also of the opposition, if Sir George Foster is competent to speak on its behalf. Canada, however, has not yet signed the clause, for the very good reason that she does not desire to get out in front of other British nations, notably Great Britain, which, for reasons which seem sufficient to them, do not want to submit themselves to the compulsory jurisdiction of the world court. This, it is evident, is a condition which cannot continue indefinitely.

Mr. King made this pretty clear in the following statement which he made to the Canadian house of commons during the discussion about the Kellogg pact:

"My hon. friend will recall that during the last Imperial conference a desire was expressed on the part of the governments assembled there that no one part of the British Empire should formally accept the optional clause without giving to the other parts of the Empire an opportunity of discussing that particular subject. We have advised the other parts of the Empire that in our opinion Canada should sign the optional clause, and we are at present receiving communications from other parts of the Empire in reference thereto. We are carrying out our undertaking at the conference not to sign formally until there has been an opportunity for discussion, but we have made known that it is our desire to sign the optional clause."

Canada has definitely agreed by her signature to the Kellogg Pact always to seek a pacific solution of her differences with other nations. That means that she will invariably submit them to arbitration or to an international court. This being so, what objection can there be to agreeing to submit all disputes involving questions of international law to the world court formed for the purpose of dealing with these very matters.

VETERAN JURIST RETIRES

Lord Shaw, at the age of 78, has resigned as one of the Lords of Appeal, although he will remain technically a member of the judicial committee of the Privy Council. His last case dealt with an application by the Canadian Attorney-General to fix the date for hearing of the appeals for eligibility of women to the Canadian Senate.

great mineral resources that lie along the route, both in Canada and Alaska.

"Mr. Sutherland says the proposed highway is now regarded not only as practicable, but declares there is a demand from residents of Alaska, Yukon Territory and the state of Washington for early construction of sections of road that will link the Alaskan and British Columbia roads into one continuous highway."

"Of course, the project is favored by all the people of the north on both sides of the international boundary. Such a road would almost immediately become one of the most popular thoroughfares in the world for hunters, fishermen and lovers of scenic grandeur and out-door life. And it would contribute immensely to development."

HIGHWAY TO ALASKA PLAN

While Prince Rupert Unable to Secure 90 Miles Larger Scheme Formulated

While Prince Rupert is unable to secure the connecting up of the 90 miles between this city and Terrace, an even more ambitious road scheme is being proposed. It is planned to connect United States with Alaska through Canada. The Juneau Empire says of this:

"The proposal to connect Alaska with the United States by automobile highway is attracting attention throughout the entire country. An interesting contribution on the subject from the pen of Delegate Sutherland of Alaska recently appeared in the United States Daily as a copyrighted article. Mr. Sutherland is strongly in favor of the construction of such a highway not only because of the effect it would have on tourist travel to the north, but as an aid to development of the

HALIBUT BOAT ONAH REFLOATS

Vessel Which Stranded on Metlakatla Bar Tuesday Night, Proceeds to Ketchikan

The American halibut boat Onah, Capt. Harry Selig, which went ashore on a reef just this side of Metlakatla Bar about midnight Tuesday night, was refloated about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon by the Pacific Salvage Co.'s salvage tug Pachena and, after a few minor repairs had been made, proceeded about 2:15 to Ketchikan. The vessel was practically undamaged except for the splintering of her gumwood shoe. The exhaust pipe was broken but was patched up before she set out for Ketchikan.

AMUSEMENT TAX IS LIFTED IN ALBERTA

War Measure Retained Only on High Priced Fees and on Dance Halls

EDMONTON, May 8: — Off goes the amusement tax—to some extent. An order in council has been passed by the Alberta government cancelling the existing tax on low priced tickets and affecting all such places of amusement as moving picture houses, chautauquas, etc. Admission prices not exceeding 25 cents will hereafter be exempt, the only exception being places for public dancing. The order is to be effective June 1.

Taxation on amusements has been in force since war times and has now come to be taken more or less for granted. Numerous protests, however, have been made from time to time, and the tax cannot be said to have ever been popular with the show going public. The government has now found it possible to lift it so far as the low priced forms of entertainment are concerned. In the case of tickets charged at more than 25 cents, the tax will stand.

For leaving the engine of a motor vehicle running while unattended, Sam Haudenschild was fined $5 by Magistrate McClymont in city police court this morning. James McKay, King Tai, Dr. L. W. Kergin, Dominic Rossi, Joseph Garon, George Tite and Hubert Ward were each charged under the city parking bylaw and remanded for eight days.

News of the Mines

AROUND PRINCE RUPERT
Aerial Prospecting Campaign in Cassiar; Big Crew of Men on Mountain Boy; Ore Strike at Tiger

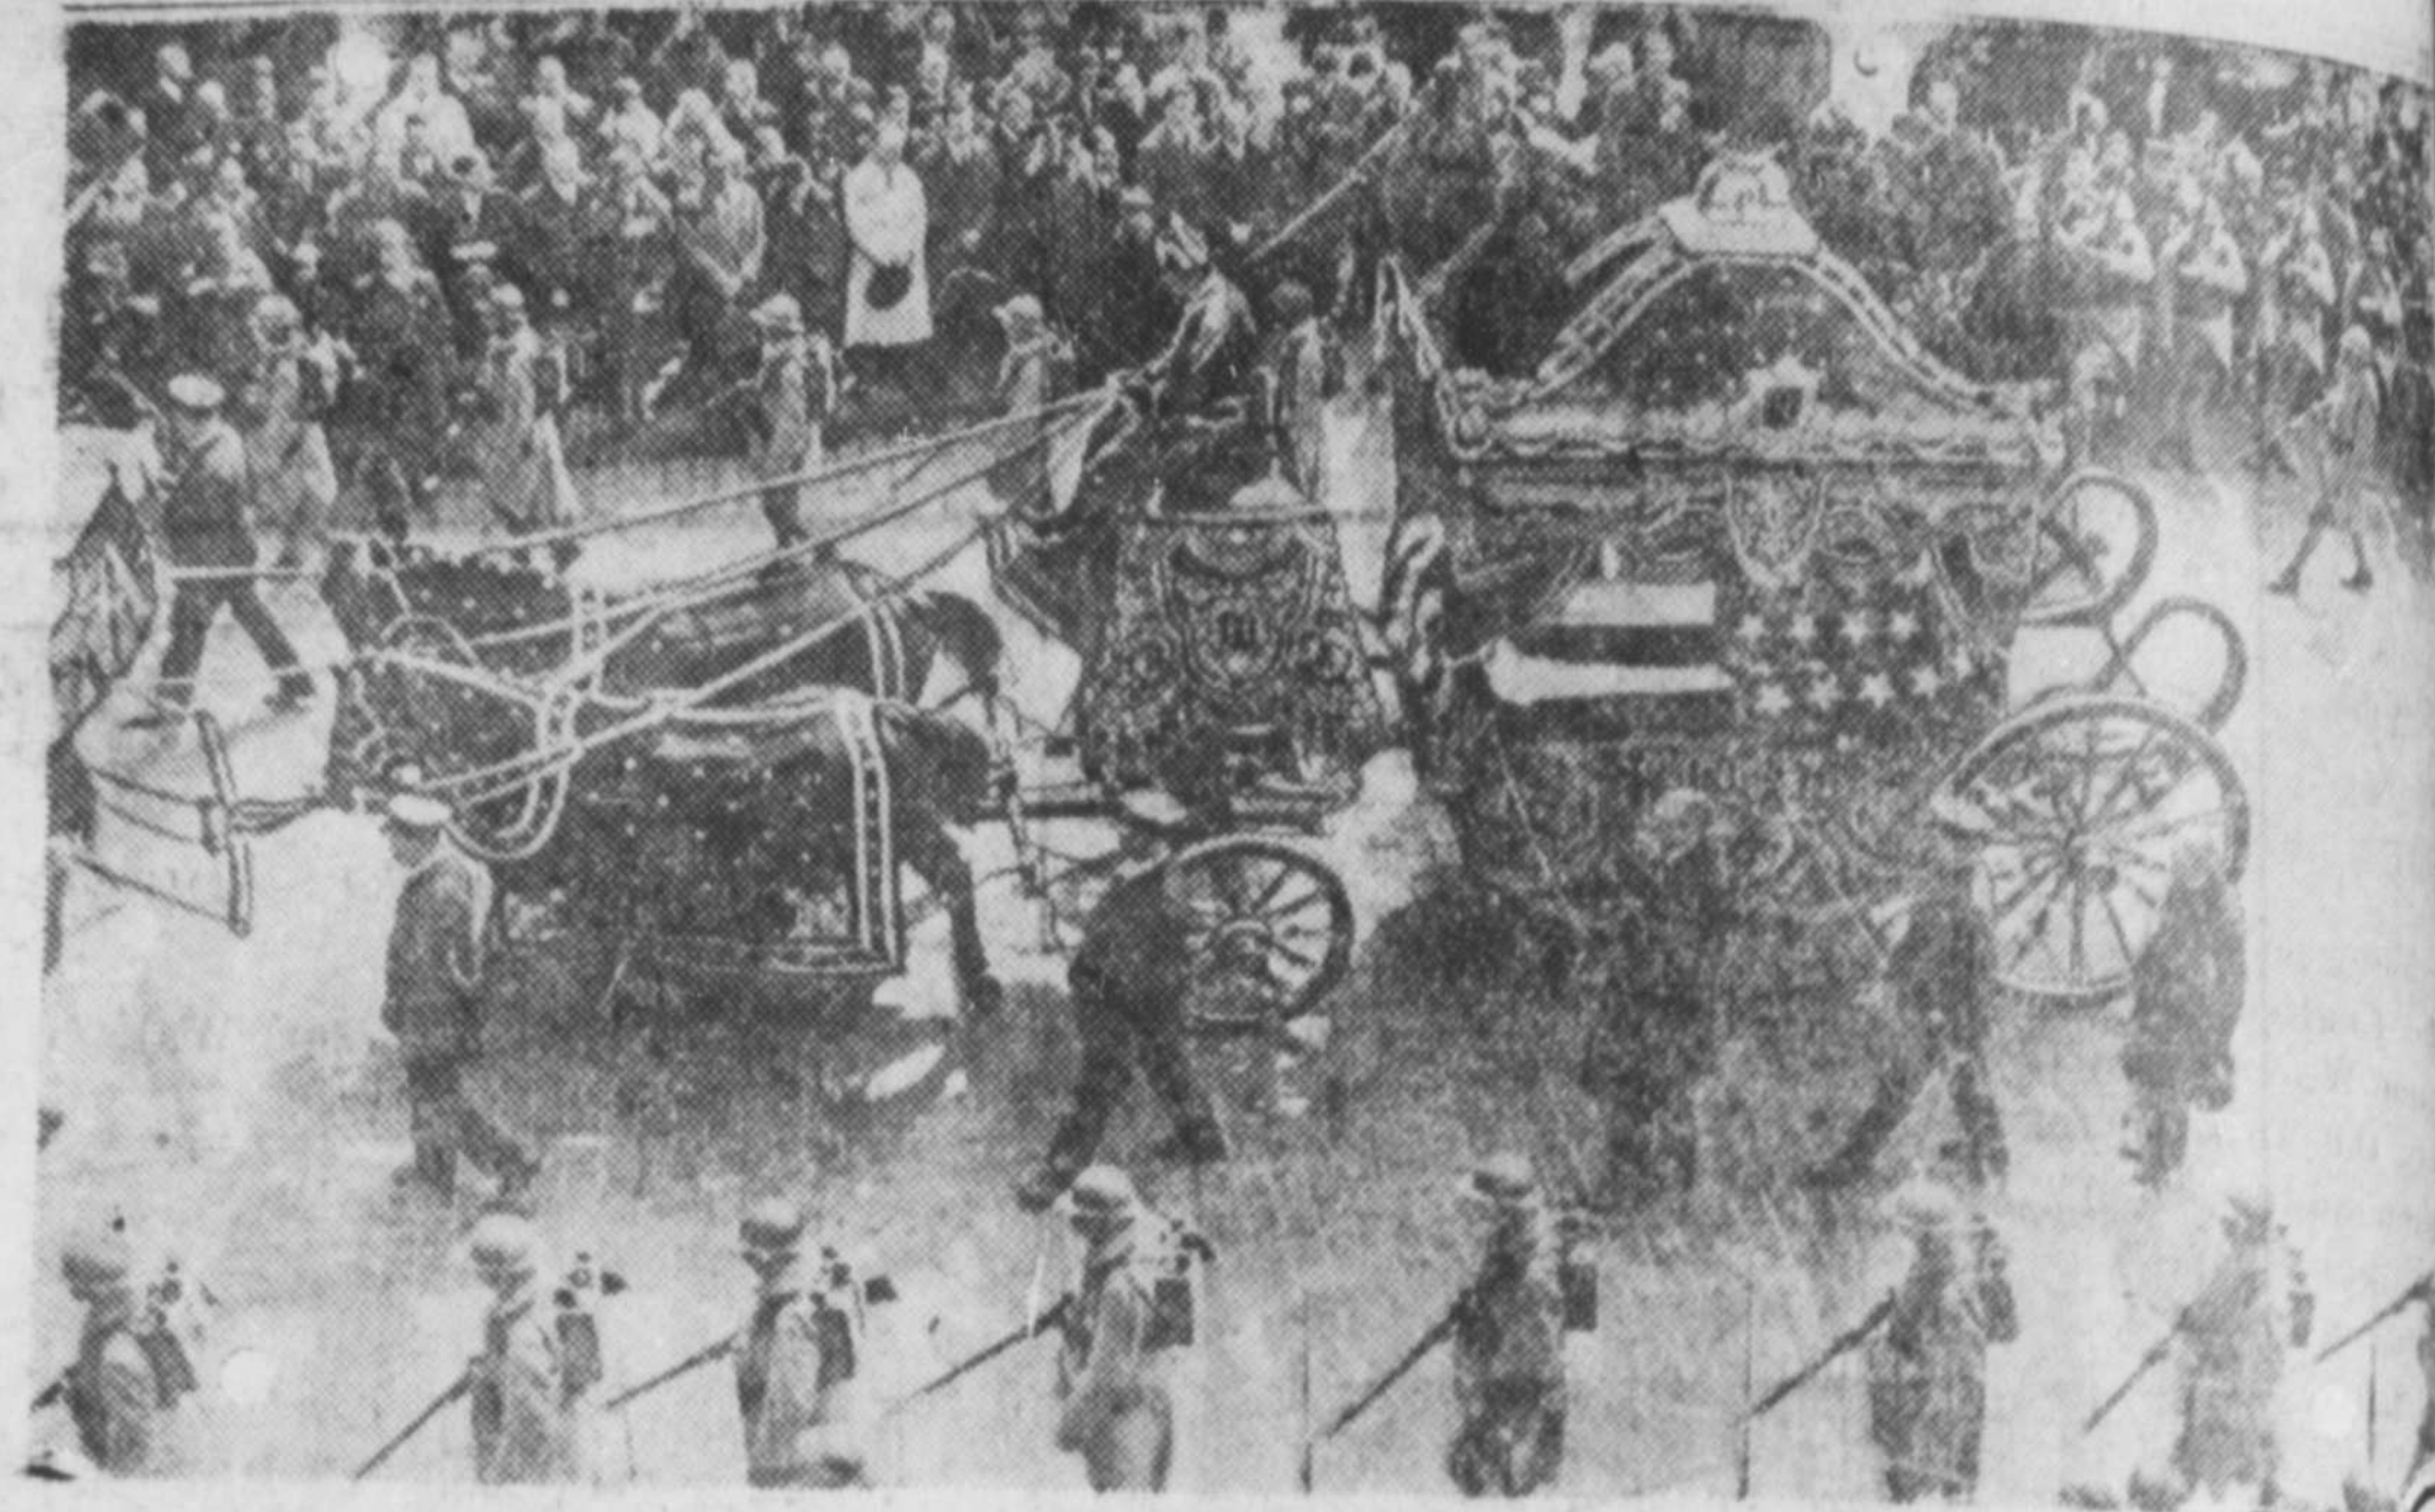

The great practically unexplored regions of the Cassiar mining district, if various plans that are now being made materialize, will be prospected during the coming summer as they were never prospected before. There has been a feeling about mining men that the pay country in this district has not all been located and now most of the unprospected country in the placer belt is being investigated. Success in eastern Canada of prospecting by airplane has fired several outfits to try this latest idea out in British Columbia and a number of planes are to be flown in on prospecting trips, taking men in to look over the ground. South Nehana, Liard, Rabbit, Touya and Nesultin Rivers, Sawyer Creek and over the Hyland River is all promising country that can be prospected by airplanes. There are plenty of lakes where a flying boat can land or take off. This, together with a good highway from Telegraph Creek to Dease Lake and a good gasboat service on Dease Lake and Dease River, should make it easy to get around the Cassiar. Reports from all sections of the district are very gratifying and all the outfits that have been worked in the vicinity of Dease Lake will again be in operation this year.

From 35 to 40 men will be employed on the Mountain Boy property at Stewart this summer, according to W. H. Tolin, who has recently returned after spending the winter in the east. Nell Matheson, who was superintendent last year, will be again in direct charge of the work under the advice of Harry Townsend, well known mining engineer. Mr. Townsend was unsuccessful in efforts last year to secure the property for the Anagonda Copper

Co., but he is still taking an active interest in it. Work will be started by Mr. Matheson just as soon as it is safe to travel to the property, which should be within the next few days. L. A. DeLome and L. Limbier, Montreal capitalists, who are financially interested in the Mountain Boy, are expected to visit the property about the time work commences.

The tunnel being driven to tap the ore body at depth on the Tiger mine in the Alice Arm district has reached an interesting stage, reports coming from the property being to the effect that for the past 35 feet the tunnel has been driven through a heavy mineralization. The ore carries considerable iron with which gold values are expected to be associated, in addition to silver. Assay returns are not yet available. This ore body does not show on the surface and is of a different character than any yet located on the upper workings. Following the cutting of this ore body, some high grade silver was broken into but was not persistent. The footwall of the ore ledge that has been cut in No. 1 tunnel was then encountered and is now being driven into. Driving of a cross-cut on the ore has been commenced. The face of the tunnel has a depth of 400 feet on the ore and the future looks very promising. Owing to water in the workings, operations in No. 3 tunnel have been suspended temporarily and the crew moved to No. 4 tunnel, which will encounter the ore, it is expected, at a depth of 800 feet.

The tunnel on the Rufus-Argenta mine at Stewart, which is being developed by the Duthie interests, was recently in 495 feet from the portal. Formation consists of greenstone heavily mixed with calcite and indications are that the big Erickson vein will be reached within a short time.

The mill at the Silver Cup mine, near Hazelton, is now running on a tonnage basis and producing high grade concentrates for shipment to Trail smelter. Operations are being continued at the mine which looks promising. Two and a half feet of excellent ore has been encountered in the face of No. 4 tunnel at a depth of over 500 feet and a length of over 600 feet. No. 3 tunnel is in rich ore with a width of between three and five feet. A gang is at work widening and ditching the Nine-Mile mountain road over which the concentrates will be transported by trucks from the mine to the railway. The power plant at the mine is also working in good shape.

The Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. is making preparations to carry out important operations in the central interior this season following the company's activity last year. For testing the ore bodies on H. J. McDonald's Copper Island property on Babine Lake, Consolidated has just moved considerable equipment in over the Tooley road and more will be sent in so that diamond drilling of the property may be instituted. The head driller is already on the ground and as soon as the ice moves off the lake, the machinery will be moved on a scow. Consolidated is also making arrangements to re-open exploratory work on several groups near Pacific, which it has optioned and on which considerable work was performed last fall before the advent of snow made it necessary to discontinue operations. These will include the property owned by Mack Orr and Russell Smith. A shipment of horses for this work has left Smithers and equipment and supplies will soon be assembled. It is understood that Consolidated will establish a central office at Smithers this year and that an engineer will be stationed there who will have supervision of work on all the properties in the district.

Man in the Moon

There are two kinds of cynics. There are bachelors who have been turned down hard and married men who are not happy.

When a man says his life is an open book, look out for the turned down leaves.

Many people cannot understand the English. They spell a town's name Worcester and call it Wooster; the Talliaferros only answer when addressed as Tolliver; the Montmoreley family is spoken of as Chumley; and they name a college Magdalen and pronounce it Maudlin, and perhaps it is.

Most people who come to Prince Rupert the first time are very much disappointed. They are prepared for rain and then on arrival they find the sun shining and the birds singing. The only indication of rain is that the people are indoors playing bridge.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

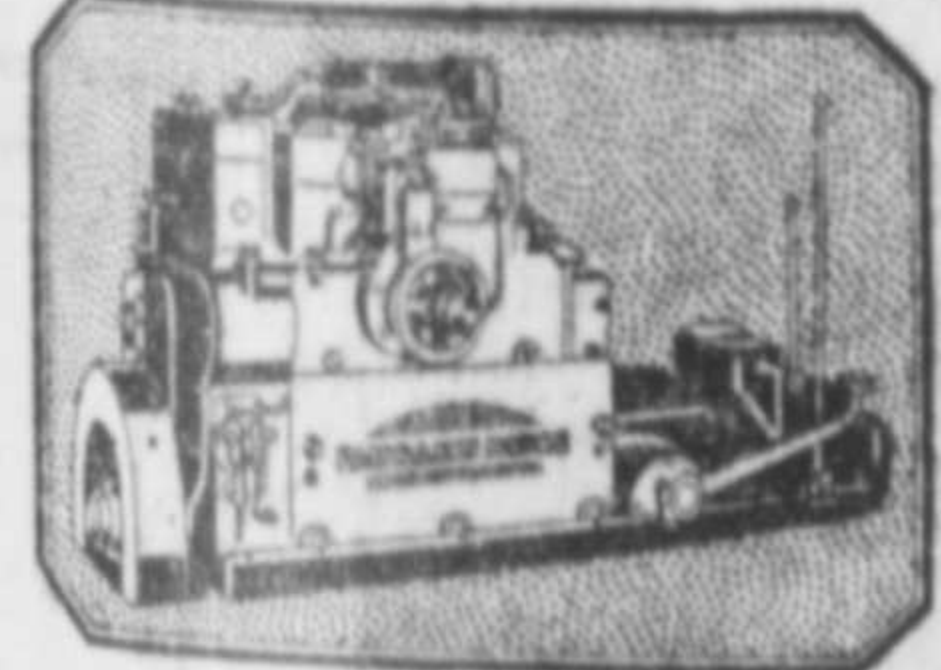

May 9, 1919. Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands, and F. H. Mobley, M. L. A. for Atlin, are back from a trip to Stewart and Alice Arm and speak optimistically of the possibilities for mineral development in both camps. A road is being built between Stewart and Byer, Alaska.

A Temple of Pythian Sisters was installed here last night by Mrs. M. Craig of Vancouver. Officers are: past chief Mrs. M. A. Knight; most excellent chief, Mrs. Martha Leek; excellent senior, Mrs. C. Harvey; excellent junior, Mrs. F. Linzey; manager, Miss Amy Shaw; mistress of records and seals, Mrs. C. Carmichael; mistress of finance, Mrs. A. Hart; protector of the temple, Mrs. H. Lindsay; guard of the temple, Mrs. A. Shaw; mistresses, Mrs. A. Hart, Mrs. E. Stewart and Mrs. S. Prizell; press correspondent, Mrs. N. Johnstone.

The wedding took place last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Killas, Graham Avenue, of Miss Annie N. Killas and Nicholas Christopher. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Nicholas Patsoulis, pastor of the Greek Orthodox Church in Seattle, who came north especially for the occasion.

EXCEPTIONAL PROGRAM AT THE CAPITOL

Two Vaudeville Acts Together With Denny's "Red Hot Speed" Combine to Make
Ideal Entertainment

Last night's show at the Capitol provided laughs aplenty for a big mid-week audience. Reginald Denny's "Red Hot Speed" is an hilarious comedy full of motor trouble, heart trouble and just plain trouble. The sub-titles alone are a riot and are probably the cleverest yet shown on the Capitol screen.

Ray Southard, "The Wandering Minstrel" wandered back to Army Days with his original patter and incidentally turned in a couple of good song numbers,
"Jda, Your just as sweet as
Apple Cider" and "Lam, Lam,
Lam."
"Charleston" Wright billed as
"The dark Cloud of Joy" went over big with his "Red Hot Speed" step-dancing and was brought back again and again.
"Charleston" has been booked for a whole week and promises to be a big favorite with Capitol patrons.
The same big show will be repeated tonight.
