Both Premier Mackenzie King and Leader of Opposition Are in Accord Supporting Peace Pact

Briand-Kellogg Pact Is One of Many Paths Leading In Direction of Peace, Declares Premier Mackenzie King in Commons

OTTAWA, Feb. 20.—There is no royal road to peace, but there are many paths which lead in that direction, and the Briand-Kellogg pact is one of the paths. In this sentence Premier Mackenzie King defined for the benefit of the house of commons yesterday the treaty for the renunciation of war signed at Paris last summer. Yesterday he moved that the commons register its approval of the treaty.

The treaty, the premier said, did not pretend to establish machinery for the prevention of war, but it called for each nation of the world's sole solemn renunciation of war as an instrument of national policy.

Support of the treaty, coupled with a note of warning that there must be disarmament if peace was to be more than a dream, was the burden of the speech with which Hon. R. B. Bennett followed Premier Mackenzie King.

The debate is continuing.

COUPLE SEPARATED

Constable Was Passing in Street Car When He Witnessed Pursuit

WINNIPEG, Feb. 20.—When he attempted to shoot and kill his wife and her companion on a downtown street yesterday Harold A. Reid was shot down by a city detective and died enroute to the hospital.

William Arlington Ross, taxi driver, Mrs. Reid's companion, was injured when Reid opened fire on him but his condition in the hospital is not serious. Mrs. Reid is in a state of collapse.

Detective James Thompson was passing the scene in a street car when he saw Reid pursuing his wife and Ross down the street, gun in hand and witnessed Ross drop to the sidewalk with two bullets in his side. As Reid also fired two shots at his wife Thompson jumped from the street car and shot Reid.

The couple had been separated and Reid had recently returned from Chicago. Mrs. Reid and the taxi driver had been released from the moral court a short time before the shooting. They had been arrested in a downtown house on Sunday night on a liquor act charge.

New Silver Cup Mill Near Hazelton Began Operating Yesterday

Mine Promises to Be Steady Producer From This Time On, With Ore Going $30 a Ton; Well Known Men Interested

Less than two years from a prospect to a producer and a steady one at that is the story of the Silver Cup mine, near New Hazelton, with the turning over of the flotation concentrating mill on the property yesterday.

In the spring of 1927 a company was formed to take over the bond on the Silver Cup mine on Nine Mile mountain. Work was immediately started to develop the property by the extension of the four short tunnels which

Good Prices Paid at Opening of Season for Halibut Sold Today on Exchange to Export Dealers

The fish exchange at Prince Rupert had its first session of bidding this season for fresh halibut this morning, five days after the legal commencement of fishing operations, when a total of 31,000 pounds was sold and brought good prices from the buyers, who were, as usual, anxious to get the first fresh fish of the season on the eastern markets.

Capt. Harry Selig, who was the first American fisherman of the 1928 season to land a catch at Prince Rupert, was again the first this year.

He brought in 6000 pounds aboard his boat Onah and received a price of 19c and 8c.

The Melville, Capt. John Iverson; the Covenant, Capt. Hans Underdahl (Iverson's son-in-law); and the Helen II., whose owner, Capt. Chris Hovmuller, is visiting in Denmark, and which is now in command of Capt. John Hanson, late owner of the Morris H., were the first Prince Rupert boats this

Sport Chat

"Little Bill" Johnston is undertaking to annoy the United States Lawn Tennis Association by pleading for an open tennis tournament along the lines permitted in golf where the hoiy amateur mingles with the shuru and coin-collecting professional, writes Andy Lytle in the Vancouver Sun. Mr. Johnston will give to hurry for, if you pass over Vincent Richards and Mary W. Browne, what outstanding professionals are there in the great United States? Mr. Tilden was under the ban, it is true, until the Davis Cup matches impending, when he was quickly purified. Johnston has been, however, a very consistent amateur. Perhaps he never did have a yen for literature like Heien Wills and the noted Tilden. Never were the U.S.L.T.A. solons compelled to force Little Bill to take both hands off his portable typewriter. He was a nicely behaved amateur all the time he was ranked away up and the solons should give ear to his pleadings on that count alone.

One hardly knows how the amateur and the professional in tennis would shape up against each other. A first rate amateur, in golf, is just about as good as his professional shot-maker. In all other spheres the professional ranks above the amateur. Professional baseball, hockey, boxing and other professional sports rank so far above the amateur there is really no comparison possible. If Little Bill succeeds in causing the tennis solons to become broad-minded, it may come to pass that the professional in tennis will be equally skillful. That might develop if it were shown that a professional in tennis could make as much money directly as he did, indirectly, as an alleged amateur.

Why not go further and sanction open track and field meets? There are certain amateur stars that are sure fire box office attractions. Why should they not be entitled to possess a fair percentage of what they can draw? Is anyone silly enough to believe for a moment that the customers go to these amateur track meets, indoor or outdoor, to catch a glimpse of any of the ruling members of the A.A.U. officials? What right then have these big wigs of a hypocritical cult, to take all the gravy and give the chaps who bring in the money little but suspicion. However, if you believe that the amateur stars in various sports who tour the country get nothing but their bare expenses you are even more credulous than the very men self-inflicted on a long-suffering country, to see that the foolish laws of amateurism are even partially obeyed.

They know better, but you'd never get one of them to admit it. I am convinced that most of these traveling showmen are paid directly or indirectly and that the officials running these meets know plenty if they would talk. One of these days it will all come out and our holy amateur bosses will express great horror and indignation. As a matter of fact, much of the vigilance of amateur officials today is not to see that their impossible laws are obeyed, but to see that nothing of these matters get into the public prints. For then, you must know, their jobs would be done and the dearly beloved lights of publicity forever turned from them. Death, in almost any form, is preferable to that, if you know your amateur old boy as we know him.

It will not be hindered in the northern branch along the Bell-Irving River to the northern boundary of the province in the vicinity of Teslin Lake, it is understood. This branch, according to the terms of the bill, must be completed within eight years. The main line must reach its objective within five years.

VICTORIA, Feb. 20.—Bobby Rowe's Portland Buckaroos meted out a four to nil drubbing to the Victoria Cubs in a coast hockey league game here last night, in one of the roughest games played here this season. On several occasions the referee appeared to forget what he was on the ice for.

On two occasions he had to halt the play while the ice was cleared of orange peel, programs and paper that the fans showered him with.

Only in the first part did the Cubs hold their own. The Buckaroos scored one in each of the first and second periods and two in the last.

HUNDREDS OF LOCAL PEOPLE TO SEE FILM

Hundreds of local theatre goers have announced their intention of seeing Anne Nichol's "Abie's Irish Rose" which has been booked by the management of the Capitol for presentation at the theatre tonight and Thursday. Many have wondered why "Abie's Irish Rose" is such a tremendous success. Anne Nichol who wrote and supervised the production of "Abie," says it succeeded because it is honest, sincere and vitally human, that human things appeal to human beings. In short she states that "humanity" is the secret of her play-writing.

RETALIATORY TARIFF

It's a good thing to make it clear to the United States that if they continue to embarrass this country in regard to trade, other markets will be sought and a retaliatory tariff will be placed on U.S. goods coming to this country. No considerations of party or ancient traditions of policy should stand in the way of such a move. We cannot sit back and allow our neighbors to throttle us without at least a struggle for the right to exist.

We are opposed to tariff restrictions, but the only method of dealing with a powerful country like the United States is to pay them in their own coin. We must treat them as they treat us. While it is to be hoped that such action will not be necessary, we should be prepared to act and should let the government know that we expect them to protect us.

DOCKING SHIPS HERE

Only recently we raised a protest at the action of the Canadian National Railway in docking ships in the south instead of in Prince Rupert. Now the Liberal Association has passed a resolution dealing with the matter and it will be forwarded to the proper quarters. It is to be hoped that there will be some beneficial results from their protest.

PROBITY OF MINISTERS OF CROWN

Two ministers of the crown in Manitoba have resigned from office because they took advantage of their positions as ministers to make money on the stock exchange. While the resignations had not, up to the time of writing this, been accepted, the very fact of the resignations indicates that Manitoba, like every other province, expects the strictest probity from its ministers. There must be no appearance of wrong doing, even.

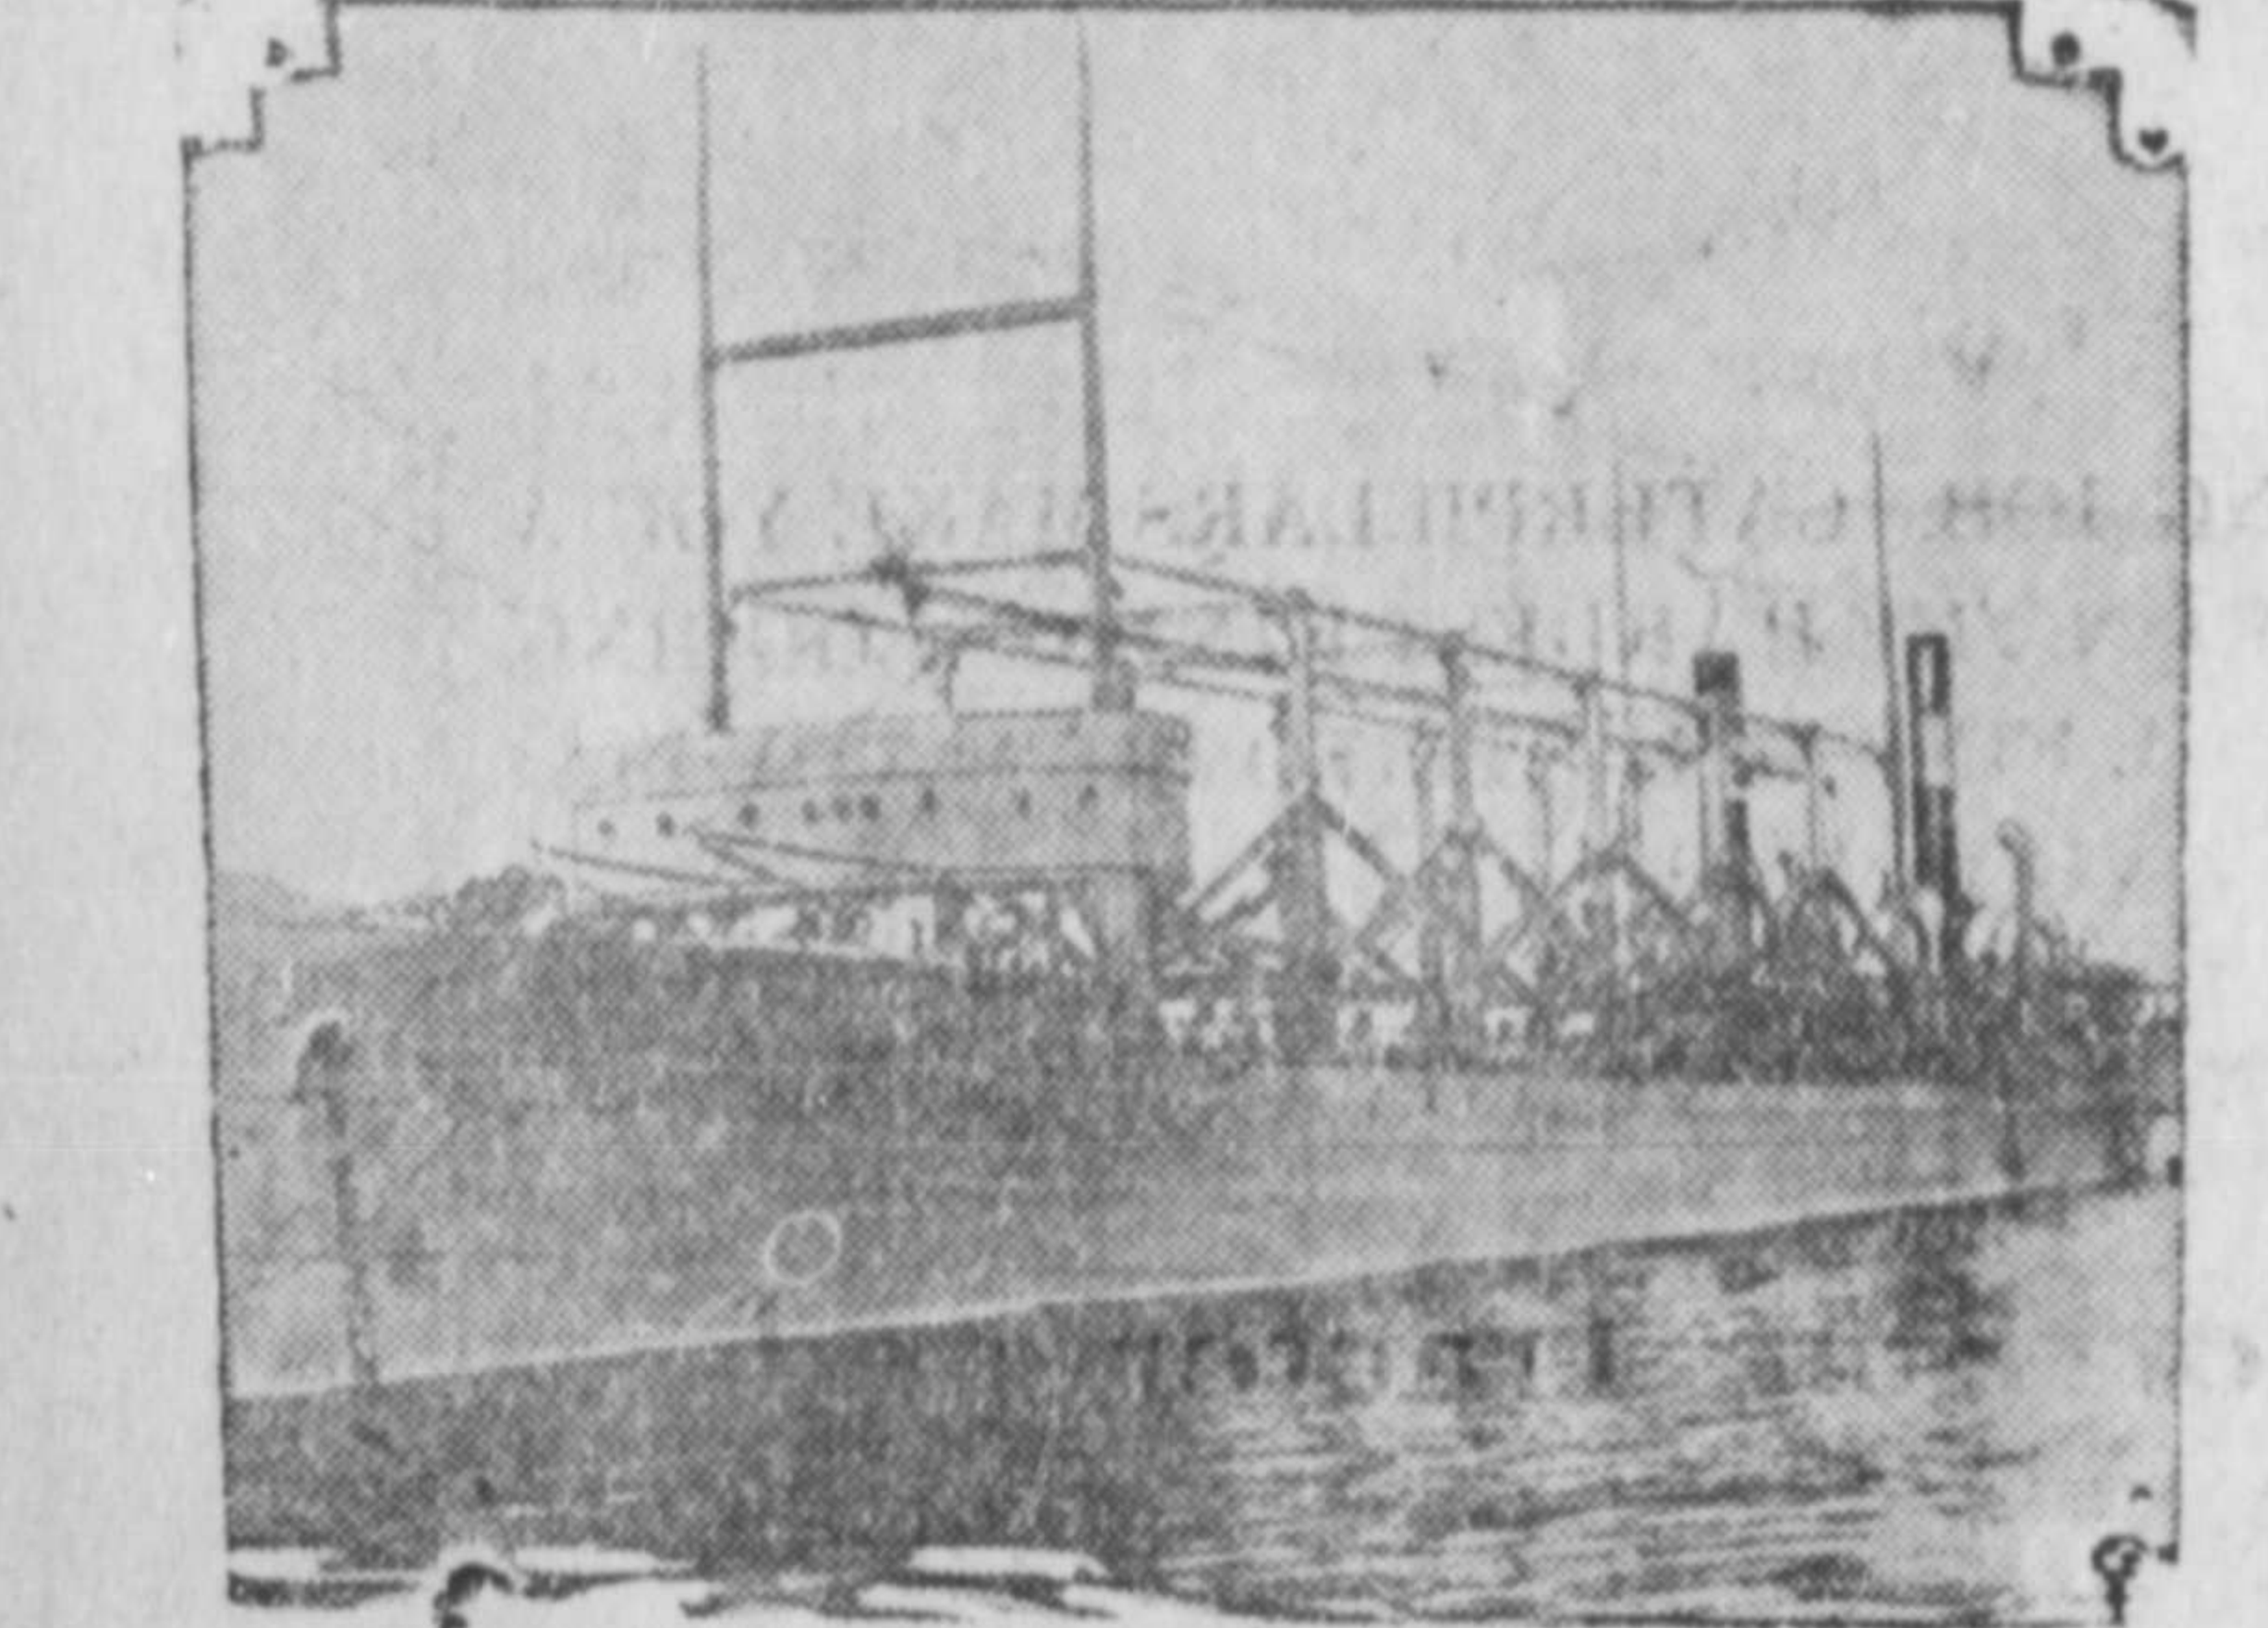

ALL NOT WELL IN IRELAND

The Irish Free State has been heard from very little since the acceptance of the new constitution. Of late there have been rather ominous rumblings which may indicate more troublesome times in the future. The people there are said to be suffering financially. They miss the money which formerly came from England, according to one writer. Yesterday some of the officers of the army, including the chief of staff, resigned. DeValera is in prison in Ulster for entering that country contrary to an official order. He must have something definite in view in bringing himself thus prominently to public notice. However, it is to be hoped that things will work out happily without any eruption which will tend to endanger the present happy state of the Empire.

RELIGION OF NATIVES

The natives of this coast certainly put to shame the white residents in the matter of devotion to their religion. Not many white people would turn out to meet a steamer before daylight in order to give a fitting reception to their bishop. Also, a class of seventy for confirmation at one time is somewhat of a record. That is what happened at Massett just recently and is an indication of what is taking place in native circles generally. Another large group of natives is attending a religious festival at Bella Bella and at other points on the coast.

WAR MYSTERY OF CYCLOPS CLEARED UP

Eleven years after the steamer Cyclops, a naval collier, vanished from the Atlantic Ocean with 306 passengers, a solution to its disappearance has been found in confidential naval records of war days. The news was forth coming from a maze of German documents, which state that the Cyclops capsized in a terrific storm south of the Virginia Capes and sank with all hands.

FISHING
 1926 $27,400,000
 Production Increase 1916-1926 $12,828,589 or 88.95%

FROM the cold, deep waters of the seven thousand miles of British Columbia's Pacific Coast, comes a harvest of fish that the palate of all mankind enjoys! For over twenty years our Province has been a leading factor in Canada's fishing industry. Progress continues unabated...the markets to the ends of the earth demanding ever increasing quantities.

The past ten years have seen this industry grow from 14 million to 27 million dollars... an increase of 89%. Our annual catch totals nearly half the entire Canadian production, and "King Salmon," our marine silver mine accounts for at least 15 million dollars a year.

The distribution from our Provincial hatcheries of millions of salmon eggs to renew the harvest that goes into the nets; the Treaty between Canada and the United States for the protection of the Pacific Halibut (March, 1923) providing a close season from November 16th to February 15th; modernized canneries, 83 in number, and sane Federal Fishing Laws, carefully administered, are the foundation of an industry that will continue to grow.

The fame of British Columbia's Whaling Fisheries is of long standing, and has materially increased the value of the products from this industry. The yearly catch, now about 400, is taken between one station on Vancouver Island and two stations on the Queen Charlotte Islands.

Much as has been done to develop and conserve our fishing industry, there still remains a great deal to be accomplished. The vastness of our waters and the extent and ruggedness of our coast make organized protection and administration extremely costly.

But the safeguarding of our fisheries is a matter which now commands the earnest attention of our government, who realize the importance of conserving this basic industry.

As the oldest industry of our Dominion, fishing has been one of the largest revenue producers, and it is significant that Canada's youngest Province, in less than twenty years, should secure a leading position in the world market. This aggressive search for foreign business has been an asset which undoubtedly has created one of the most amazing records of our basic industries. Well may we be proud of our Fisheries!

Read these announcements and understand your province's progress... clip them out and send them to friends. If you desire extra copies of these announcements a note to this newspaper will bring them. Advertise your Province!

already existed and, by the late spring of 1928, 10 to 15 carloads of sorted ore had been shipped exclusively from the drifts, sufficient ore having been blocked out by the extension of these drifts to warrant the erection of a mill to save transportation and treatment costs.

The physical difficulties of constructing and assembling the mill machinery were tremendous, owing to the 13-mile haul over a mountain grade road to a heavily timbered site which had to be cleared and blasted.

Today the result is that the company's efforts are rewarded by the completion of a modern 75-ton flotation concentration mill, all electrically driven by two large diesel engines and generator.

LIBERALS HEAR SOME SPEAKERS

Recent Visitors to Victoria Tell of Activities of Local Member There

The annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Liberal Association Monday night was quite large and enthusiastic. The opening was somewhat delayed in order to wait for a number of the officers who were attending the city council meeting or otherwise delayed. Alderman W. M. Brown presided until after the election of officers, when the new president, H. F. Glassey, took the chair.

President Brown spoke of the work of the past year, during which they had been successful in electing their member, T. D. Pattullo, and he felt sure when the next election came on they would be able to return a member for the federal house. He thanked the members and officers for their support.

During the counting of the ballots some speeches were made. Mayor McMordeie told of his recent visit to Victoria and the way in which most of their proposals had been turned down by the government. He had met T. D. Pattullo and A. M. Manson and both were enthusiastic and extremely active. One question that had come up there was the matter of the dismissal of civil servants. Out of 700 employed, 360 had been dismissed since the last election. This came from a party that had professed to be opposed to patronage.

Colonel McMordeie said he did not think the work done by Mr. Pattullo during the life of the late government had been sufficiently appreciated here. There did not seem much prospect now of getting work done on the Terrace highway. He also spoke of the value to the city if they could have secured the 40 acres of park land for a recreation ground. It was needed here.

L. W. Patmore also spoke of a visit made to Victoria when he saw Messrs. Pattullo and Manson and he assured the meeting that they were both on their toes at the capital. Mr. Pattullo in particular seemed to be pleased to be free from the responsibilities of office. The way in which they had gone after the government boded well for the future. They were making it hot for Mr. Foley. It was a good thing to have Mr. Pattullo there as leader of the opposition.

H. F. Glassey told of attending the Liberal executive meeting at Vancouver, where there was a more united party than ever before. Dr. King had come west on purpose to attend the gathering and the result was excellent.

Jim Bacon spoke of the fisheries situation and this matter will be taken up by the executive at an early meeting.

Jack Judge spoke of the failure of the Canadian National to utilize the dry dock here and moved a resolution which was passed unanimously condemning the company.

Member of a prominent old Prince Edward Island family, respected resident of this city for well over a decade and father of several well known local men, Albert Henry Love of 650 Fourth Avenue East passed away suddenly in the Prince Rupert General Hospital this morning. Seventy-three years of age and born at Georgetown, P. E. I., the late Mr. Love had not been in very robust health for some time, having suffered from asthma. Having complained little, however, the seriousness of his condition was not realized. It was only early yesterday afternoon that he was taken to the hospital and died an hour before his death. He had said that he was feeling fairly well. A heart attack is believed to have been responsible for his sudden demise.

His wife (the late Mrs. Love) spent on the late Edward Island where he was identified with a railway of that province as a telegrapher and station agent. He came west 25 years ago and took up residence at Peonie, where he was for a time identified in his calling with the Canadian Pacific Railway. In 1916 he came to Prince Rupert and since that time had charge of the office of the Imperial Machine Works for his son, Harry. During his residence in Prince Rupert, he became very well and favorably known to many friends.

Besides his widow, deceased he survived by four sons—Harry, who conducts the Imperial Machine Works business; Bruce, who is a member of the staff of the municipal utilities department; Ernest, who owns the telephone system at Stewart and passed through the city only yesterday en route to Vancouver on a business trip; and Ray, who is engaged in the electrical business on the waterfront. The mourning family will have the general sympathy of the community in its bereavement. The late Mrs. Love is also survived by two brothers—Edward and Herbert Love—both resident at Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island. Deceased was a member of the Independent Order of Odd-fellows and the Independent Order of Foresters. Funeral arrangements are in the hands of the B. C. Undertakers.

LETTER FROM T. D. PATTULLO

Liberal Association Hears From Leader of Opposition Regarding Situation

A letter read at the meeting of the Prince Rupert Liberal Association Monday night by William Brown, retiring president, from T. D. Pattullo, leader of the opposition and member for the district, follows:

"Upon assuming the leadership of the opposition in our provincial legislature, may I ask you to convey to the officers and members of your association my appreciation of their untiring efforts in the past, and my earnest hope that these will be continued in the same efficient manner. While we were defeated in the last general election, we were by no means overwhelmed. Analysis of the vote shows that a little more than 41 per cent of the electors going to the polls voted a straight Liberal ticket. We must, above all, preserve our organizations and build up for the future. It will be my constant endeavor to co-operate with our associations in every way possible for the advancement of Liberalism in British Columbia. "While your representatives are in a decided minority in the legislature, we will fight for the principles of our party, and will keep constantly before the public the Liberal point of view.

Field Marshal Sir W. Birdwood, commander-in-chief of the British forces in India, who has ordered British troops at Bombay to be reinforced in an effort to quell Pathan-Hindu riots, now sweeping the native quarter of Bombay, India.

"It is my intention to visit all the principal centres of the province as soon as the opportunity occurs, and I hope then to have the pleasure of conference with the officers and members of your organization. In the meantime, I shall be very glad to co-operate in any way. During the session I may be reached at the parliament buildings, Victoria, and afterwards at your organization headquarters, with which I shall be in constant touch."

DAILY NEWS' SHOPPING SERVICE for Out-of-Town Subscribers

To serve its women readers, and particularly those who live at a distance from a retail centre, The Daily News has instituted a Shopping Service. The Daily News is read by hundreds of women living far from any urban facilities for shopping and it is for these that this shopping service is primarily intended. Of course, The Daily News Shopper will attend to the man also, although he can buy a pair of braces anywhere. But not everywhere can a woman get a bit of lace matched—or a piece of embroidery thread—or the thousand and one things that make up the difference between a woman's wants and a man's.

The Prince Rupert Merchants Carry between them Stocks running up to $2,000,000 and while it is not possible to purchase everything in this world in Prince Rupert, most things are available by return mail.

None of the Prince Rupert merchants can possibly advertise everything they carry in stock, but if the thing wanted is to be got in this city, our out-of-town readers may be sure that The Daily News Shopper will get it when asked for.

If any of our women readers cannot get what they want in their nearest store, all there is to do is to write to The Daily News Shopper, stating what is required with whatever details there may be, enclosing the cost, and if it is in Prince Rupert, The Daily News Shopper makes your purchase.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

YOU'D THOUGHT IT NO GREAT SIN TO TELL THE RICH YOUNG HEIRESS - A FIB - ABOUT YOU BEING A GREAT SWIMMER - WHEN SHE STEPS RIGHT OUT AND STARTS DROWNING HERSELF.

ONCE there were two men who kept shop. Both shopkeepers were in the same mode of business, but their methods differed widely. In fact it was only a matter of time, a short time, before one must close. Now the other shopkeeper was different, he was prosperous. His store looked neat and clean, spruce, tidy and colorful, with a front that bespoke quality and service. Now this shopkeeper was a great community booster. His bid for patronage was based on selling his customers the products of his local industries first. He claimed that the industries in his locality employed men who earned wages, who spent wages, and kept others employed. His pet theory was, the more of Pat's mouse traps he sold the more Pat must make, and the more Pat would earn to buy goods from him, the wise shopkeeper. And so he succeeded and became prosperous and popular, and his philosophy and wise counsel spread rapidly.

Now, there's a moral to this story: Every dollar paid for foreign made goods departs from your homeland never to return; but, each dollar exchanged for a B.C. product remains in British Columbia and quickly grows in value. It enriches industry, ensures employment and introduces prosperity into the homes of the workers.

SHOW FOLKS AT THE WESTHOLME

Picture That Tells Something of the Lives of Actors and Actresses

Every girl likes to know about the people of the stage, how they live, how they prepare for their work and how they succeed or fail.

"Show Folks" is one of the best pictures delineating the lives of player folk in vaudeville, ever presented, according to one who has seen the film which is at the Westholme tonight and tomorrow.

The featured players including Eddie Quillan, comedian, Lina Basquette, famous dancer, Bessie Barriscale, former screen favorite, Robert Armstrong, of "Is Zat So?" fame, and Carol Lombard, a clever actress, acquired themselves with the finest artistry in exacting roles.

The theme is decidedly theatrical and many of the scenes transpire behind the curtain of a vaudeville program in which talented players do their various turns, is finely presented. The love romance of Quillan and Miss Basquette, who are dancing partners in the story, has interest and charm. Bessie Barriscale, who returns to the screen after several years retirement, provided her old admirers with an excellent portrayal of an old burlesque queen. The work of Mr. Armstrong and Miss Lombard is in every respect admirable.

SCREEN VERSION OF WORLD FAMOUS STAGE PLAY HERE

Anne Nichols' "Abie's Irish Rose" Opens at Capitol Tonight

"Abie's Irish Rose," it might be a flower of some kind, but to the devotees of the theatre, and this means nearly every citizen in this world, that title means much. "Abie's Irish Rose" has been hailed as the world's most successful play. Five and a half years of continuous performance on Broadway, New York, and record engagements in every city, town, hamlet, state and nation in the world have made Abie the outstanding theatrical event in centuries.

"Abie" has been given an unusual production, according to all reports. While it is a comedy, no hint of slapstick is allowed to appear. Anne Nichols, the creator of "Abie's Irish Rose," personally supervised the production, and saw to it that her story became a poignant comedy-drama of love and tolerance, showing the wrong done by racial misunderstanding and bigotry.

The feature players include "Buddy" Rogers, Jean Hersholt and Nancy Carroll.

"Abie" will be shown at the Capitol two nights only—Wednesday and Thursday—with a big special matinee on Thursday at 3:30 p.m. in order to accommodate all who wish to see this wonderful production.

Come early! Phone 766 for loge reservations.

SONG SERVICE HELD MONDAY

Instructive and interesting Program Monday Night at Salvation Army Citadel

A helpful and instructive evening was spent in the Salvation Army Citadel, Monday night when a number of young people took part in a song service entitled "The Voice Divine." The theme of the service, illustrated the different ways God had of speaking to men and women today. Those taking part were Johnnie Pierce, representing the one who was spoken to sitting in a room at home, reading and studying as the different scenes required; Dolly Smith, representing the messenger of God, in Salvation Army uniform; Vera Cook, the voice of patience; Mildred Munizaba, Joy; Evelyn Pierce, Sorrow; Olga Selizko, Nature; Mary Pierce, a child, and Gladys Cook, as the Promises of God. Suitable songs were sung between each speaker by Ted Harmon, Frank Pierce, John Scully, Edith Leek, Annie Smith, Mrs. Adj. Kerr, Clara Pierce, Mary Pierce, Rosie Smith, Capt. Anderson. Edward Kane was the reader behind the scenes. A fair attendance was present, and all spent an enjoyable evening.

At the conclusion of the program, Adjutant Kerr distributed prizes to the different young people for good attendance at company meeting during 1928, many of them having had 100 per cent records.
