PRINCE RUPERT EXHIBITION

Aug. 27, 28, 29 and 30, 1929

The directors are devoting their time and energy towards making this one of the best exhibitions in the history of the association, and the thousands of visitors will be assured of four full days of real pleasure.

The directors have been fortunate enough to secure the THREE NATHS, acrobats and gymnasts, featuring one of the youngest acrobats in the world. This act is costing a considerable sum, but the members of the board feel that they are giving you something worth while.

Captain George Ash will entertain you with his marvelous feats of marksmanship and rope work. He packs shooting irons of all descriptions.

Miss Campbell with her dancing girls, and clever kiddies, will entertain you each evening, with a number of novelty acts.

Arrangements are under way for outdoor entertainment, and it is possible that we will have with us the famous Asahis baseball team of the senior City League, Vancouver, or some other equally good. There will also be baseball and football for the Indian teams.

To bring to a fitting close these four days of fun and frolic, there will be the Grand Ball on Friday evening, at which plenty of whoopee will be made.

"Redskin's" Tender Romance Is New Revelation of Beauty of Color in Films

A new chapter has been written in the history of the motion picture. A new wonder has been revealed. "Redskin," the new Richard Dix epic of the West, which opens tonight at the Capitol Theatre, marks an amazingly wonderful step forward.

Beautiful scenic backgrounds are revealed in all their true color and beauty. The hills and valleys of the Indian country are reproduced for the screen just as the eye sees them in nature. And the powerfully gripping story, true to Indian traditions and customs, unfolds in this native setting.

A master cast enacts this drama. Richard Dix, who made such a tremendous success of his picturization of "The Vanishing American," turns his thoughts to the serious drama again and records a new masterpiece worthy of place with his previous enduring epic.

The ladies of the United Church Aid and friends were glad of an opportunity of contributing something towards Miss Lancaster's future home, Mr. Lancaster having been organist at the church for many years and Miss Lancaster having contributed in any and every way possible. When Miss Lancaster ceases to be Miss Lancaster she will reside on Fifth Avenue in the home at present occupied by Miss Way.
