PRINCE RUPERT ROAD IS DISCUSSED

SANGUINARY BATTLE IN JUAREZ WHEN REBELS ATTACK

No Work on Highway This Year is Stated in Legislature When Pattullo Arraigns Government

Member for Prince Rupert Charges That His Constituency Is Penalized for Electing a Liberal to House

(Special to The Daily News)

VICTORIA, March 8.—T. D. Pattullo, opposition leader, elicited from Hon. N. S. Lougheed, minister of public works, in the legislature yesterday that out of the $9,500,000 highway loan bill he did not intend to do any further work on the Prince Rupert road or to build the Gallo-way Rapids bridge.

G. A. Walkem, Vancouver Conservative, defended this course on the ground that there was nothing but a few Japanese to be served by any extension and they had a railway and the river.

Mr. Lougheed said he did not intend to go ahead with the road until he could do it all at once, while Attorney-General Pooley said an airplane survey was all that was intended this year.

"My constituency is to be punished because it elected a Liberal," commented Mr. Pattullo. "This is the more remarkable because the only resolution pledging the Conservative party to any definite action passed by the Kam-loo convention was to build the road to Prince Rupert. That was obviously done to influence public opinion to vote Conservative. Since it did not succeed, the people of the north are to be punished."

Mr. Pattullo pointed to the progress made in recent years in the task of linking up roads in the north so that Prince Rupert might have an outlet. Victoria had a railway and the water, but its people were not expected to swim when they wanted to go somewhere, and why should Prince Rupert be treated in this way, he asked. He pointed out that all but one Liberal constituency had had its vote reduced, while Conservative ridings had had their votes increased by $250,000.

Conservative members pounded their desks.

"There is the thumping majority," declared Mr. Pattullo. "They evidently believe that to the victors belong the spoils. We shall see if the people endorse that policy."

H. F. Kerkin, member for Atlin, pointed to the $24,500 cut in the road vote for his 60,000 square mile riding with its tremendous mineral development. "If my riding is to be punished for electing a Liberal, I place the welfare of Atlin above my membership in this house and I am willing to resign rather than see Atlin lose $24,500," he said.

(By Canadian Press)

VICTORIA, March 8.—During this year the government will endeavor to find a route for a road from Prince Rupert to the interior, if necessary with the use of airplanes, it was announced in the legislature by the attorney-general.

T. D. Pattullo had attacked the government for not going ahead this year with roads. No satisfactory location had been found yet, Mr. Pooley replied. An energetic survey would be conducted this year.

C. N. WINS OUT BRANCH LINE BUILDING PLAN

OTTAWA, Mar. 8.—The battle for branch lines in northern Saskatchewan has been won by the Canadian National, the application of the C.P.R. for a charter having been refused by the railway committee of the House of Commons. Recently a charter was granted to the Canadian National to build from Melfort and this morning the committee refused a duplication of the line from Melfort to Sutherland on motion of Robert Gardiner, U.F.A. member for Acadia.

SETTLEMENT OF THE LAND

Tolmie Makes Statement in the Legislature Today

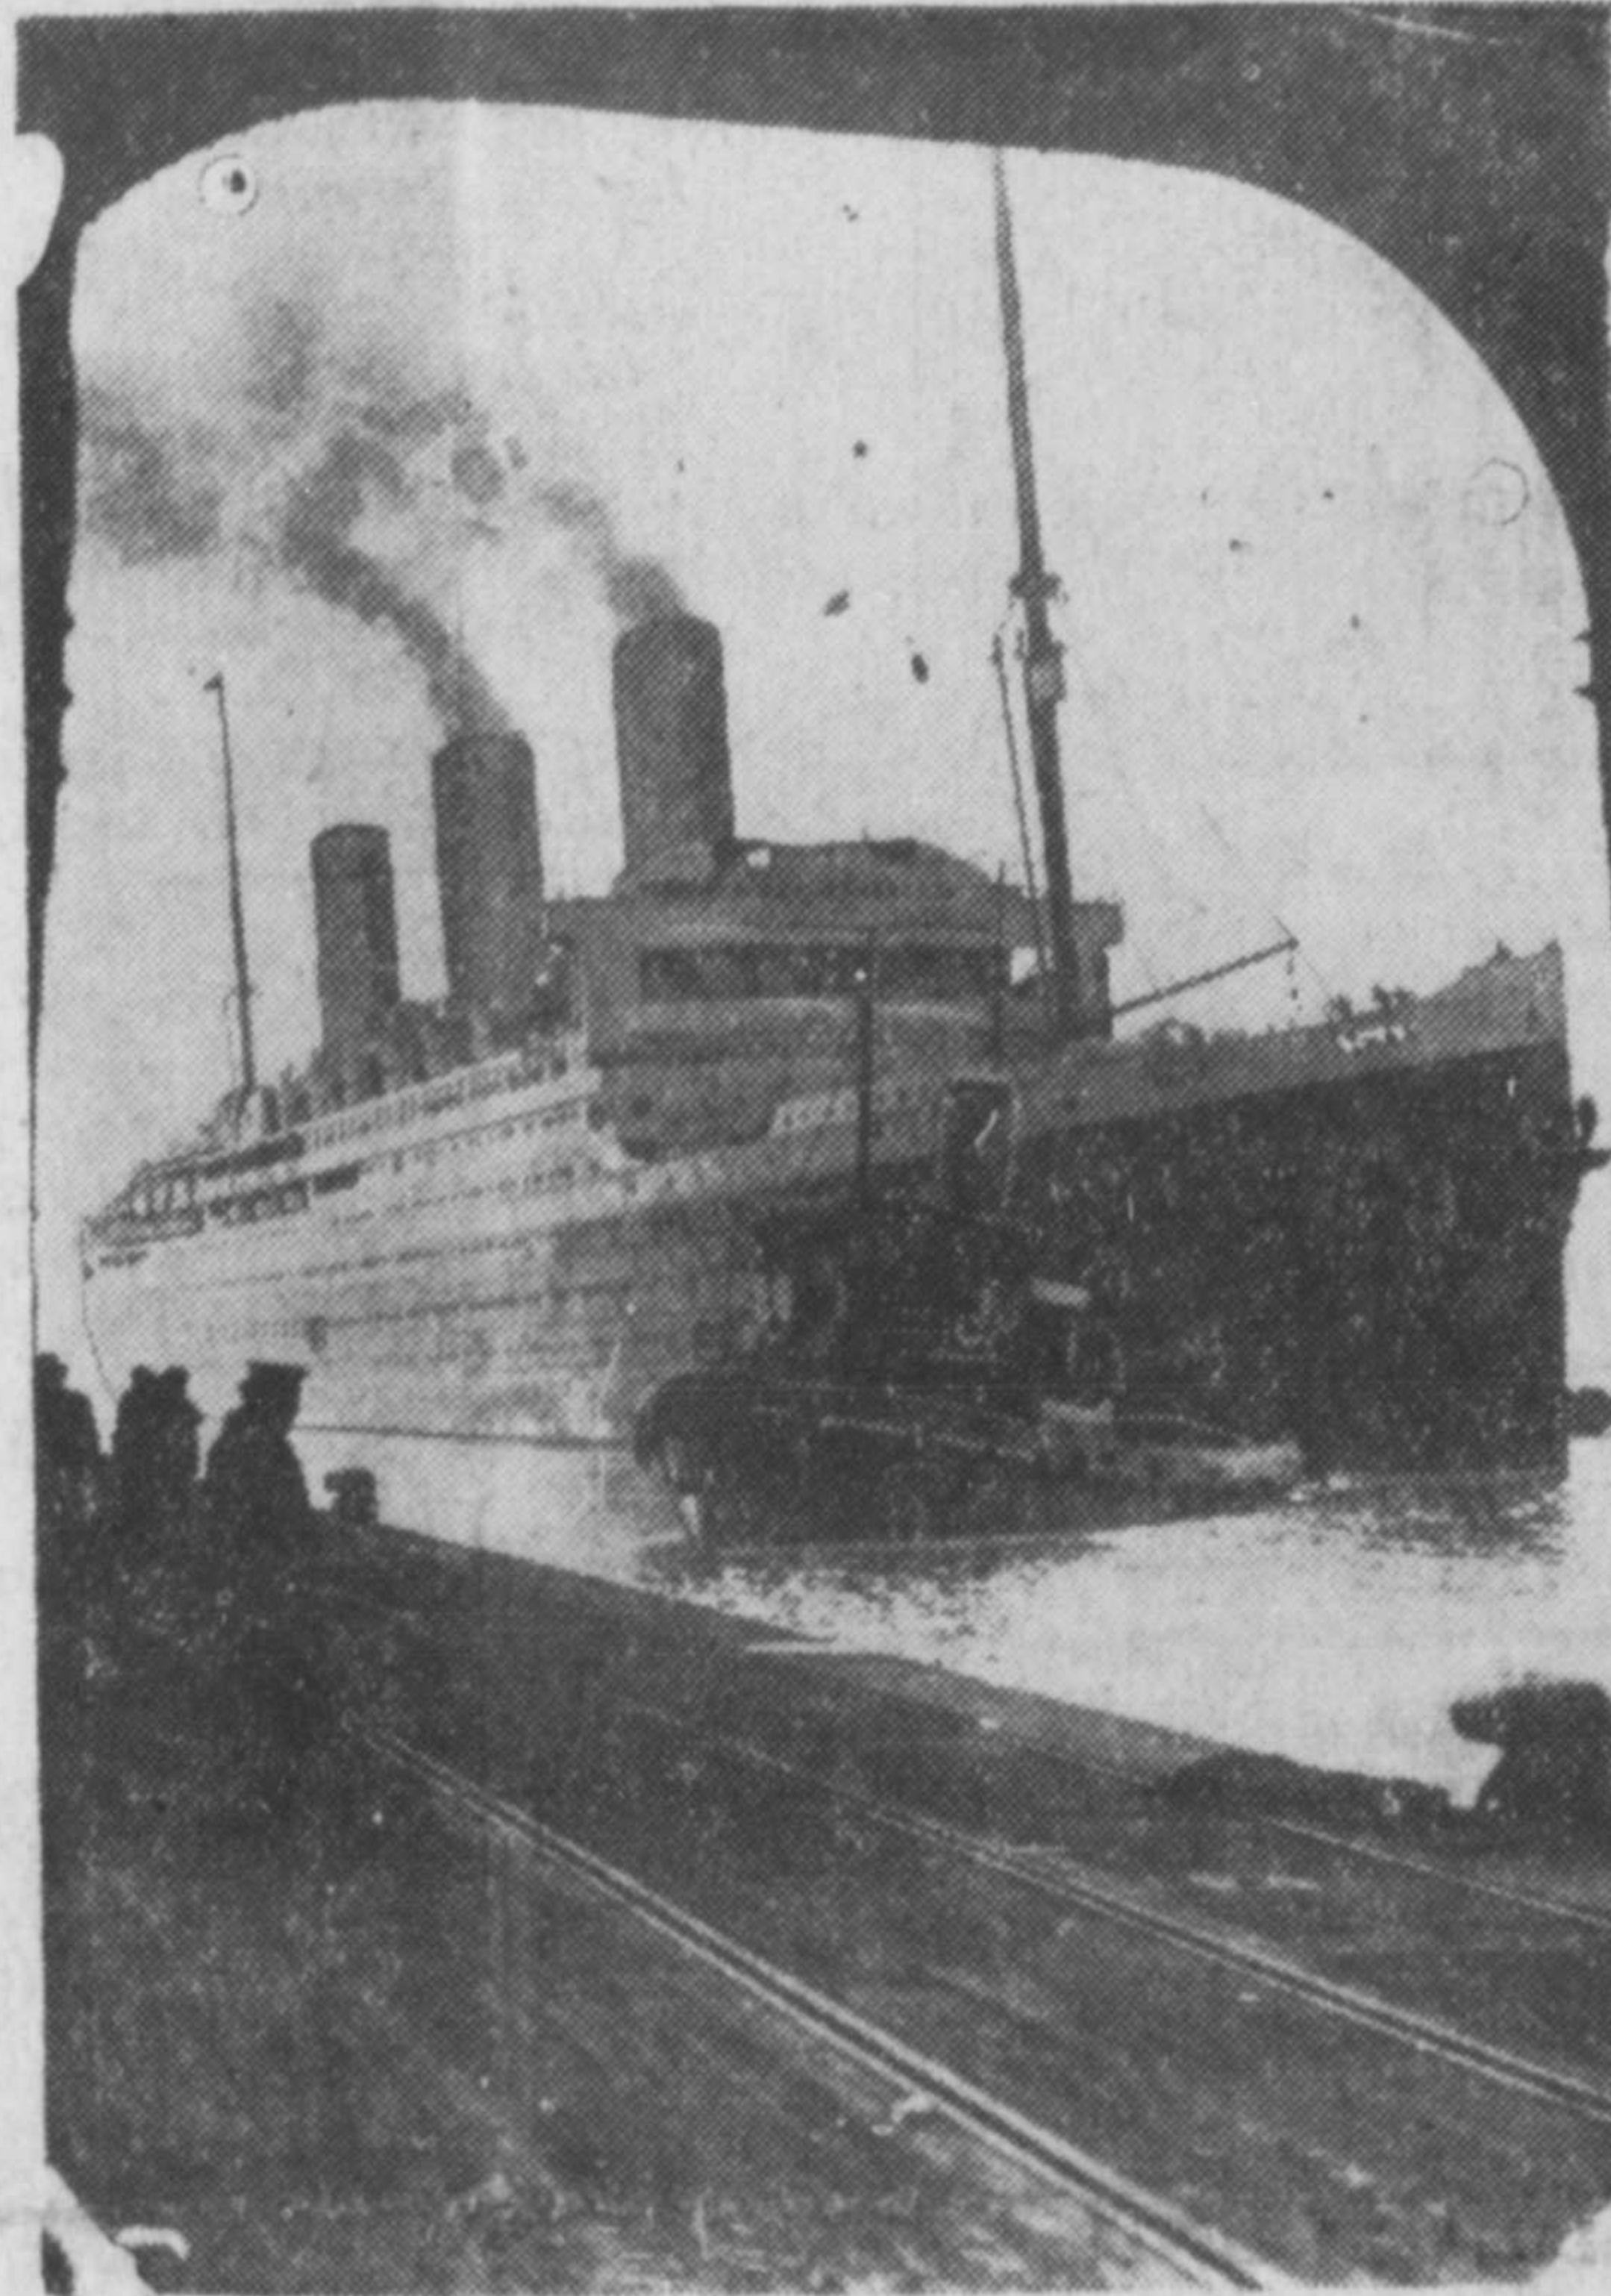

VICTORIA, Mar. 8.—"We have been gathering information for a presentation to the British Government in respect to the land settlement," Premier Tolmie told the legislature today and "we are presenting no definite plan but getting information in shape upon which to begin negotiations." In answer to T. D. Pattullo the Premier said, "negotiations are also being carried on the Canadian Railroads in respect to the same object."

Discussion rose, when Mr. Pattullo questioned the vote of $15,000 for colonization purposes and the appointment of Mr. Geddes as commissioner of the new department. The Premier denied vigorously that the appointment was political.

Britain Will Spend About $250,000,000 On Navy During Year

New Cruisers and Other Craft to Be Built but Reduction Made in Total Expenditures Over Last Year

LONDON, March 8.—Naval estimates for 1929 show a decrease of 1,485,000 pounds over last year, but there will be no diminution of the strength of the fleet and naval air service. On the contrary, modern developments have shown necessity for additions. The net total for the year's estimate is 55,865,000 pounds.

The 1929 program includes provision for commencing the construction of three cruisers, one flotilla leader, eight destroyers, six submarines and smaller auxiliary vessels.

Two cruisers of the 1928 program not yet laid down are being ordered.

Streets of Juarez Reddened with Blood Rebels Attack Feds.

Bodies of Insurgents and Loyal Troops Lie Side by Side in Street and U. S. Soldiers Watch Fray

JAUREZ, Mexico, March 8.—Streets of Juarez were reddened with blood today as Mexican rebels entered the town and fiercely attacked the defending federal troops. The bodies of both federal and rebel soldiers lay sprawled on the streets and there were many wounded.

On the second attack the rebel cavalry charged down the streets, targets of the federal machine guns. The rebels were in almost complete control.

A stray shot wounded a boy in El Paso, Texas, on the United States side of the border.

The fighting was in plain view of the United States troops across the Rio Grande ready to protect American lives and property with machine guns and field artillery trained on the Mexican side.

A truce in the battle was declared this afternoon.

Would Stop Importation Agricultural Products

Hugh Guthrie Urges That If United States Takes Action Against Canada This Country Reciprocate in Kind

OTTAWA, March 8.—Speaking in the budget debate, Hugh Guthrie, acting Conservative leader, suggested to parliament how Canada can meet the increased United States tariffs against Canadian farm products. In the first instance, he suggested, stop importation of farm products into Canada; secondly, to supply from Canadian farms those agricultural products which are now imported into the Dominion.

Mr. Guthrie, in making the suggestion to the government, stated that the Dominion is now importing agricultural products from the world to the annual value of approximately $60,000,000.

To the United States, Mr. Guthrie said, Canada sells annually farm products valued slightly over this sum. If the United States closes its door on Canadian agricultural products, Canada could close hers on similar products from the rest of the world. The Dominion is in a position to supply her needs.

"To accomplish that," Mr. Guthrie said, "all we need is a government with some courage. All we need is a government with some resolution and a government that has the real interests of the people, of the farmers, at heart."

OTTAWA, March 8.—"Representatives of the Standard Mining Exchange of Toronto presented their arguments, concisely, but still not convincingly," said Hon. James Robb at the conclusion of an interview yesterday.

The representatives asked the government to change the proposed tax on the sale of shares of stock provided in the budget. The deputation contended that the new rate would be ruinous to the so-called penny stocks. The minister declined to intimate whether he would agree to any change.

GREETINGS OF ROTARY CLUB

T. H. Johnson Will Carry Them to the Hull Rotary Club With Donation

The Prince Rupert Rotary Club is sending a small good-will donation by one of its members, T. H. Johnson, manager of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Company, to help the Hull Rotary Club in paying off a debt of something like a quarter of a million dollars which it has undertaken on the local infirmary. Mr. Johnson, accompanied by Mrs. Johnson, is leaving tomorrow for an extended trip to Europe and while in his old home town of Hull, England, will visit the Rotary Club of that place and probably address them and carry greetings from Prince Rupert.

Mr. Johnson's brother, J. W. Johnson, who is a member of that club, has visited the local club more than once and addressed it on each occasion. He wrote to T. H. and suggested the donation and a number of the members contributed.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will visit France and probably also extend their tour into Germany and Italy before returning. On the way east they will stop off at a number of points and will sail from Boston.

REDUCE DEBT OF THE CITY BY $375,000

Consulted by Acting Mayor Theo Collart, a majority of the city council decided yesterday afternoon that, in compliance with a suggestion of Robert Baird, inspector of municipalities, the whole proceeds of $375,000 from the sale of the local hydro-electric system and franchise to the Power Corporation of Canada should be deposited in a sinking fund against the city's bonded indebtedness. Mr. Baird was so advised by wire.

This decision was the outcome of the action of the private bills committee of the legislature in shelving the validating bill until further information was obtained in the matter of outstanding debentures. On this undertaking of the city, it is not expected that there will be further delay in the passing of the validating act which is being awaited before the Power Corporation formally takes over the system.

The city's bonded indebtedness totals close to $2,000,000 and debentures amounting to $281,000 are still outstanding on the power plant.

A Friend in Need

"I saw a man in a smoker unfold his paper—put his feet up on the opposite seat, take out his glasses, clean them, dive into his pocket and bring out a broken cigar. He tore a piece off his newspaper and tried to wrap it around the cigar—but I could see that his soul was troubled. I took out my pocket pack of 'protected cigars' and gave him a foil-wrapped Marguerite as fresh, firm and fragrant as when it left the factory. Naturally we got to be good friends. I'm going fishing with him in the Spring."

RADIO RECEPTION HAS BEEN POOR IN ALL PARTS OF NORTH

W. J. Pitman of Prince George writes to D. C. McRae, president of the Prince Rupert Radio Association, stating that reception at Prince George, like here, has been very poor during the past two weeks. In the matter of the campaign to have a radio inspector stationed in northern British Columbia, Mr. Pitman suggests that McBride and other towns east of Prince George also be circularized. Ocean Falls also reports that radio reception has been poor during the past fortnight, indicating that this condition has been general all over the north.

PRINCE RUPERT PENALIZED

It looks as if Prince Rupert was being penalized for electing an opposition member to the legislature. At any rate, she is suffering as a result of the change of government. While it was often thought that the Liberal government was slow in regard to its road work and this paper again and again urged greater speed, progress was being made, but now everything is to be allowed to remain in abeyance. Not even the bridge is to be built.

We have a memory of local individuals vociferously demanding speed in the building of the highway and chiding us because we did not attack the late government for not making better progress. We hope we shall hear from them now and that they will be equally keen in their demands since the government has changed.

OFFICE HUNTERS BUSY

President Hoover is said to be pestered with office hunters at Washington and it is also said that Premier Tolmie has been pestered by men who supported him in the late campaign and who have been looking for their reward. That accounts to some extent for the large number of dismissals from the public service since the election. The hungry must be fed.

This whole system of patronage is bad. We are not concerned with which party does it. We can quite understand that there are certain positions where it is very desirable that the official should be in the confidence of the government. To harbor an enemy in the inner councils would not be conducive to good government. On the whole, however, there should be no change because of a change in political affiliations. It is the American system and one that is not in the public interest to follow.

A TIMELY WARNING

Chief Justice Meredith of Ontario raises the question whether a "hit and run" driver should not be charged with murder when his victim dies. He says: "It makes no difference whether death occurred immediately or not. If the driver went on, knowing that the person might be saved by stopping and giving him all possible aid, then the only question in my mind is whether the man is not guilty of murder rather than manslaughter."

It is to be hoped that this declaration may be given wide publicity and very serious attention. It reflects a realization on the part of the courts that this particular kind of offender will have to be dealt with more severely than in the past. And behind that there is developing in the country an aggressive public opinion which will, if necessary, force the hands of both judges and law-makers to the end of compelling such changes in the law and its application as will check a growing menace to public safety.

VISIT MADE TO INDIAN TRIBES OF FAR NORTH

WINNIPEG, March 8.—Eight hundred miles by snowshoes, through the wilderness of northern Ontario and Manitoba, through vast tracts of territory wholly unknown to white man, was the epic journey made by Arthur W. North of the Explorers Club, New York, and his 14-year-old son, Robert, who arrived in Winnipeg today over the Canadian National Railways from The Pas. Epic is a word by no means far fetched. Hudson's Bay Company factors and old-timer trappers of the north declare that they have no knowledge of such a trip ever having been made by long trekking Indians, to say nothing of white men.

The Norths left the Canadian National line at Hudson, Ont., on Christmas Day and struck out for York Factory by way of Lac Seul, Woman Lake and half a dozen other lakes until they reached Big Trout, from whence they tramped 350 miles north-easterly by the Nelson River to York Factory on the Hudson Bay.

The purpose of the trip was to study the Indians of the remote districts, many of the tribes of which had never been before visited by white men, and they found, particularly in the region of Gods' River, natives living in the most primitive fashion. "Primitive yes," said Mr. North speaking of the tribes. "But morally and physically they were far superior to the Indians who knew more about civilization. I am afraid that the influence of the white man has not always been for good." The explorers had, themselves, opportunity to live the open air life.

Shortly after leaving Hudson their tent burned down and they were forced, even on nights when the temperature was 52 degrees below zero, to live in the fashion of the nomad Indians.

After exploring the headwaters of the Attawapikut, Severn, Atkiga and Chaumattan Rivers and making a short stay at York Factory they turned toward civilization again, striking the steel of Hudson Bay Railway at Amary, where they sought a work train to The Pas.

"A glorious trip," said Mr. North. "Never felt friskier in my life, even if I am 54 years of age. I put on eight pounds and Robert added fifteen. I should like to take the opportunity, while I am about it, of paying a debt of gratitude to the Hudson's Bay men we dealt with along the way and to Mr. Poole of the Canadian National fish and game department, Montreal, who did so much for us before we started."

The explorers left Winnipeg this morning on the Continental Ltd. for Montreal and New York, stopping at Hudson to pick up some of the belongings they left behind. On their return home, Robert, who is a student of Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., will begin work on a book describing the trek. This will be the third book of exploration the boy has published and it will be illustrated by photographs taken on the trip by his father.

The most popular model at a recent dress exhibit was the satin evening gown reproduced here. This is definite proof that the exaggerated princess silhouette will be the outstanding type for spring.

A BOW THAT BECOMES A GRACEFUL TRAIN

Here is something new, smart and jaunty! It is a huge taffeta bustle bow, attached to the waist, that sweeps the ground with all the dignity of a natural train.

Notice the saucy tiers on this smart evening frock. They have a way of asserting themselves that you wouldn't expect of such a modest fabric as printed chiffon. Printed, by the way, with cerise splashes on a cream background, the cerise touches emphasized by the taffeta bow of this shade.

THE AFTERNOON JACKET DRESS IS A SPRING STAPLE

Jackets, jackets, and again jackets! For sports wear, formal afternoon occasions and evening festivities the little coat is indispensable.

Here it is in a charming print, to match the skirt of the frock. The blouse is of sulphur green crepe and affects three little Chanel bows, one at the neck and two at the hip. Green and yellow form the print-motif on a black background.

AROUND PRINCE RUPERT
Marmot Gold Breaks Into Big Vein, So Does Independence, Omineca District to Be One of Most Important

Miners on the Marmot Gold property at Stewart have broken into a six-foot vein, evidences of which had been shown in No. 1 tunnel for the last 10 or 15 feet. The ore is a heavy sulphide with quartz and looks as though it would carry gold values, though there has been no time yet to get assays. There is heavy mineralization and no oxidation. The tunnel will be continued until opposite wall has been reached, when drifts will be run each way on the vein. Twenty tons of supplies arrived at Stewart last week, including a quantity of oil, and this was immediately sent up to the property. Machine work will shortly be resumed on the mine, operations having been carried out by hand since early winter. The tunnel in which the strike was made give a depth on the vein of more than 300 feet and the vein was struck at 432 feet from the portal. Surrounding the vein is several feet of well mineralized porphyry. No. 3 tunnel will be started up again as soon as the machines are running. It has about 60 feet to go to reach its objective which is a vein parallel to that which has just been struck in the other tunnel.

The crew at the Independence mine has just broken into the big vein in a cross cut from the long tunnel upon which they have been working all winter. The vein, where encountered, has an inch or two of talc on the footwall and stands at an angle of 87 degrees. The cross cut will be continued until the hanging wall is reached and then a drift will be run to get under the shoot of native silver that was encountered in the tunnel. The men are now working at a vertical depth below the surface of 650 feet. Ore is heavily mineralized, principally with iron sulphides, but no assays as yet have been made of it.

Samples of Topley Richfield ore found at the 200-foot level, have been placed on exhibition at the B. C. Chamber of Mines in Vancouver, where they are attracting considerable interest. The assays give $18 in gold, $17 in silver, 2.8 per cent lead and 2.2 per cent zinc. Assay of the diamond drill core ran $18 in gold and 114-ounces silver.

E. A. Haggren, M.E., editor of the Mining and Industrial Record, had a lengthy review of Omineca mining division in the last Vancouver Sunday Province. He declares that this huge interior area, with its many varieties of ore, is heading for a foremost place in the mining industry of the province. Lack of roads are a big drawback, though waterways, both to the north and south of the artery provided by the Canadian National Railway, might be used to better advantage. Mr. Haggren describes the various portions of the vast district and gives a brief history of mining activity in the area since 1860. "The placer miner blazed the trail for the prospector in search of lode deposits, but it was not until 1904 that serious attention was given to the possibilities of the Omineca mining district in this respect. curiously enough, a Nelson syndicate later organized as the Telkwa Mines, Ltd., was among the first to undertake active development of a lode mine there. This mine is located at the headwaters of the Telkwa river, about 30 miles from its confluence with the Bulkley river. The courage of the men behind the venture is attested by the fact that when they started development they packed their supplies 300 miles from Quesnel or Hazelton on the Skeena river, a distance of 165 miles. The property in which the company is still interested is known as the Telkwa Mines and consists of eight claims carrying five mineral veins. The main vein is 20 feet wide and is traceable for over a mile and a quarter in length and for a vertical elevation of 2700 feet on the slope of the mountain. The ore carries values of 40¢ in gold, 4.2 ounces silver and 3.4 per cent copper. Great changes have taken place since the Nelson syndicate first entered the field. Railway transportation has been provided through the Bulkley Valley and mining development is active from New Hazelton along both sides of the railway as far as Mica Mountain." Mr. Haggren, in his article, speaks favorably of various properties in the U.S., Cedarvale and New Hazelton veins. As soon as sufficient ore reserves have been established, it is proposed to instal a 100-ton mill. The property has the earmarks of being one of the best and most profitable mines in the north. Conditions are favorable for ore transportation to the railway and the mine has the advantage of location in a rich agricultural district. "The outlook for the Omineca mining division has never been so bright as it is today and few districts are giving such encouraging results in proportion to the development carried on," concludes the article.

TELKWA-KITIMAAT ROAD

Council of Terrace Board of Trade Deals With Number of Local Matters

The council of the Terrace Board of Trade held its regular monthly meeting in the municipal hall on Tuesday evening, E. T. Kenney, presiding.

A letter from the Prince George Board of Trade with regard to the request for endorsement of the proposed Telkwa-Kitimaat road said they felt the matter was one which should be handled by the Associated Boards.

In reply to a letter to Dr. Wrinch, impressing upon him the urgent need for a larger than usual appropriation for public works for this district, he stated that he was doing his utmost to press for a liberal appropriation for the whole riding. Regarding the desired Lakelse Playground proposition he promised to take the matter up with the department before leaving Victoria, but asked for more definite information as to the amount of land required. This was left with the committee to obtain the desired particulars and report at the next meeting.

In regard to the complaint about the protection on trout in Lakelse Lake and its tributaries, a letter was read from the Ottawa Department of Marine & Fisheries stating that this close season was only from Nov. 15 to May 23, but the matter would receive investigation and a further reply sent. It was contended that the young salmon were put in the creeks in April and for this reason the season should be shortened as there was little use in having a hatchery and at the same time protecting the trout. It was decided to await further communication from Ottawa before taking further action.

The membership committee reported having named Rev. A. Robinson as a member of the committee and a number of prospective members were named and passed on for membership.

A request from the Terrace H. Hallivell, that his salary raised was received with the providing ways and means to be found to raise the amount necessary. It was unanimously agreed that he was entitled to a raise and the same was left with the education and finance committees to report on and report at the next meeting.

The dangerous condition of Spring Creek Bridge and the poor condition of the roads which are worse this spring than ever before brought forth a heated discussion on the necessity of much public works being carried out and it was decided to again bring to the attention of the department the public works improvement recommended to be carried out during the coming year at the quarterly meeting held in October.

The secretary was instructed to write asking that at least more gravel cars and graders be assigned to this district and that two maintenance men be put on to keep the roads to the lakes cleared of brush, undergrowth and windfalls.

FRANK FOSTER IS ELECTED HEAD OF SMITHERS LIBERAL

The Smithers Liberal Association, at its annual meeting recently elected officers as follows: President—Frank V. Foster; Vice-president—J. P. Dorn; Secretary—S. J. Mayer. A strong directorate represents all sections of the district.

HALF THE WEIGHT AND TWICE THE WEAR

NEW IDEA in BOOTS for Workers and their Sons. WITH half rubber heels "Blutips" are made with either a light weight double sole or heavy single sole with solid leather middle sole right through to the heel. The glove-like uppers are of grain tanned in elk or grain.

"BLUTIP"—is a new work boot with a double tanned sole—for city, farm or field workers. "Blutip" boots are constructed of leathers made from plump Western Canadian hides and tanned by a chrome re-tan process that certifies long wear. All Western Canadian from hides to the last finishing touch—"Blutip" work boots give months' more wear, but they cost no more than ordinary boots.

"Blutips" are sold everywhere by reputable boot and shoe merchants—the sole tips are colored blue—the name "Blutip" is stamped on the sole—easy to identify from ordinary boots.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

March 8, 1919

On motion of J. D. McAuley, the Prince Rupert Board of Trade last night passed a resolution seeking the assistance of Lieut. Col. C. W. Peck, V.C., M.P. in having a lower freight rate given to lumber shipments destined from this district to Europe. A better rate, it is believed, would allow spruce mills of this district to participate in the overseas business.

The Board of Trade last night passed a resolution requesting the Dominion government to subsidize a small boat service out of this port. Reginald Beaumont was the mover of the resolution.

It is being urged here that Digby Island marine station be made, as was originally intended, a separate branch and not a sub-station to Victoria.

RIP-SNORTING FARCE-COMEDY AT WESTHOLME

Syd Chaplin in "Skirts" is Better Than Ever and London Life Shown

A picture in which Syd Chaplin appears is invariably delightful comedy and in "Skirts," which is at the Westholme tonight and tomorrow, he excels anything he has previously done. He is a riot. "Skirts" is an adaptation from the celebrated comedy "A Little Bit of Fluff," which had long runs both in London and New York.

The action takes place in London and an all-star English caste takes the parts. Pretty Balfour, who is known in America as the English Mary Pickford, plays the lead opposite to Chaplin and amongst other notable players in the picture is Miss Enid Stamp Tayvor. Miss Tayvor is regarded as one of the screen's prettiest girls and is the only screen star so far who has been rumored as engaged to the Prince of Wales.

The story is gloriously funny and depicts London night life as it really is. The scene in a night club is conceded to be one of the finest mounted shots ever filmed in a straight comedy.

Visitors to the Westholme will have the opportunity of seeing the famous Tiller troupe of high-kicking, acrobatic dancers in this picture. Tiller girls have a world-wide reputation as dancers and this particular troupe is internationally regarded as second to none.

"The Masked Menace" will be on the bill with a good "Fable" and a special program of synchronized music. Between shows Miss Cathie Eastman accompanied by Piper Alec Macdonald, will dance Scotch dances, Highland Fling, Etc., with Scottish National orchestral music. No better bill has ever been presented.
