Peace River Outlet and Other Matters Are Laid Before Premier King Today by Local Committee

First Minister Is Met by Board of Trade Representatives Before His Arrival In the City This Afternoon

Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King is arriving this afternoon and is being met by a large number of people. Banners have been prepared showing Prince Rupert's interest in the Peace River outlet and at the big theatre meeting tonight there will also be badges worn and a big steamer again drawing attention to the Peace River Outlet here.

This morning Ald. Theo Collart and H. F. Pullen went up the line to meet the premier representing the Board of Trade entrusted with the duty of interviewing him on the Peace River project, the Hecate Strait navigation and the C.N.R. Hon. Andrew Haydon

In the absence of J. H. Pillsbury, the two remaining members of the which was nicely inscribed by Morte Craig as follows:

Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King Premier of Canada Dear Sir:-

The honor that has been conferred upon Prince Rupert by your visit has been too important to be allowed to pass without advantage being taken of the onportunity to approach you in regard to three matters very vital

Peace River Railway Outlet Prince Rupert is on the direct route from Peace River to the Orient and if connected by rail way at some point at or Hazelton, the distance would be only about 500 miles from the western boundary of the B.C.

It is in the interest of Canada that Peace River traffic should that line pay. Also that the Peace shipping through Prince Rupert

Monday is Armistice Day and all Prince Rupert people are invited to be present at the unveiling of the Cenotaph at the Court House grounds. The ceremonies commence sharp at 10:45, rain or shine, so that the two minutes silence may be observed at 11.

It is to be hoped that as many as possible will be present to show that Prince Rupert has not forgotten the sacrifices which were made by those who dropped everything and went overseas to fight for what they believed to be right.

While it is cleven years since the armistice was signed there are still vacant places in many homes. The least we can all do, especially the younger people who are growing up, is to show our appreciation of the noble acts of those who have passed on or who still remain with us, some with the scars of battle still on them.

Says Government May Be Depended On to Deal With Peace River Railway Outlet Wisely and Expeditiously

PRINCE GEORGE, Nov. .—Premier Mackenzie King stopped off here for four hours last night en route to Prince Rupert and held the first meeting of his trip in British Columbia. H. G. Perry was chairman and Mayor A. M. Patterson extended a civic welcome.

After outlining what had been done by the Government in the way of tax reductions, the Premier said the present Government found a demoralized railway system when it came into power. It had consolidated the various railway lines owned by the public into one great system

PRINCE RUPERT YELL TO BE USED BOTH THIS AFTERNOON AT TRAIN AND TONIGHT AT PUBLIC MEETING

Even the schools of this city have caught the spirit of the Prince Rupert-Peace River outlet campaign and the following yell has been devised by J. S. Wilson, vice-principal of Booth Memorial School:

> "Rah! Rah! Rah! "Prince Rupert Will Fight

"For the Peace River Outlet "Which Is Our Right! "Prince Rupert! Hurrah!"

The yell, which will be used by a large group of school children to greet Premier King on his arrival in the city this afternoon, was introduced with enthusiasm at a social gathering of the Prince Rupert Parent-Teachers' Association last evening. The suggestion is being made that the yell again be given at the public meeting to be held tonight.

TONIGHT'S MEETING

Tonight Canada's Prime Minister will address a public meeting in the Capitol Theatre. It is several years since he was here before and it is likely he will have a number of interesting things to say. He will undoubtedly mention prominently the policy of the Government in regard to the western outlet to the Peace River and other matters in which Prince Rupert is vitally concerned.

We urged Prince Rupert people to hear Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, and they were not disap- Brass and Master Ned McLeod. pointed. . Now we urge that they hear Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King and suggest at the same time that they wear the Peace River outlet badges which will be secured either at the railway station in the afternoon or at the door of the theatre.

GREAT MANY NEEDS

There are a great many needs. We should like to ask the federal government for a grant to the highway, for a post office and for many outstanding things but what Canadian Girls first and most important of all these is the western outlet for the Peace River at Prince Rupert. We think we shall get the post office anyway.

GLAD TO MEET PREMIER

Prince Rupert people are always glad to meet Premier Mackenzie King. He is an outstanding man in the British Empire and as such Prince Rupert people greet him today. Any man who can hold the confidence of the majority of the people of Canada for as many years as has the present Liberal leader has in him qualities which must be away above the ordinary.

We think Premier King will find some changes in Prince Rupert since he was here last and we hope the next few years will bring even greater changes.

LOCAL PEOPLE BUSY

It is surprising how much money local people have for investment. When the stocks take a drop, Prince Rupert people are there ready to take advantage of the position and some of them make money. Others there are who lose their cash through not handling it wisely.

The interesting feature is that people in Prince Rupert Urchestra Has have the money with which to play and most of them have made it here.

Weeping Widows

that strange interlude when one's partner dies. The remaining partner, if she be a widow is grief stricken. But beyond the grief there very often arises fear - haunting fear - for the future, the spectre of want.

Sometimes the very means to provide for immediate subsistence are lacking. Friends come to the rescue for a time but only for a time. Then the widow is doubly lonely. She has not only lost her husband: she has become a burden to friends.

This is not a pleasant possibility for your wife, is it? Well then, why not strive to prevent it-as far as it lies in your power, by means of a Confederation Life Insurance Policy?

Write for our pamphlet entitled "A Cheque in the Mail". You will be astonished to learn how much insurance you can buy for a modest premium.

Other organization preparatory to the race to Prince Rupert has also been completed. Ten boats are already enrolled in membership in the International Cruising Club, most of them being from Seattle.

Up to the end of last week, it was figured that fully half of the fleet of Prince Rupert halibut boats was still out on the banks. With the fishing season closing on Friday of next week, all these boats are expected to be in within the next two weeks as well as many American vessels with their final catches of the season. Rough weather and the fact that a number of the smaller boats have been tied up has accounted to a large extent for the lightness of landings during the bast two or three weeks. Many and heavier fares, however, are looked for during the next two weeks and there is no reason to believe why the satisfactory prices, which have prevailed for several weeks now, the season, halibut landings at should not continue. By November 22, a week from next Friday, the last fares of the season should be landed and all boats accounted for.

Engine Overhaul

Capt. Leon Sandver is having the ngine of his halibut boat P. Dorreen gone over by the Star Welding. The vessel is now tied up for the winter but the gadgits would be made shipshape before it is put away until next spring.
