British Government Defeated Yesterday's Election, Labor Leads, Liberals Controlling

LONDON, May 31.—The Baldwin Government went down to defeat yesterday in the general elections, the combined opposition having secured the election of more than one-half of the members of the House of Commons.

Labor, while making many gains, did not secure a majority of the members, so this leaves Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George, leader of the Liberal minority, in control of the situation. The Liberals, with something like fifty members will be able to keep either Conservative or Labor parties in power and will thus be able to dictate the policies to a large extent.

There are a number of seats yet to hear from, but the present situation cannot be much changed. The Scottish seats will probably increase the strength of Lloyd George and a number of English seats will go Conservative.

The three leaders, Premier Baldwin, Ramsay Macdonald and Lloyd George, were re-elected in their respective constituencies by large majorities.

Cabinet ministers re-elected include Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, Oliver Baldwin, Labor; Sir John Simon, Liberal; Rt. Hon. Philip Snowden and Rt. Hon. R. H. Thomas, Labor.

Two cabinet ministers were defeated and four ministers not in the cabinet. The cabinet ministers were Sir Arthur Steel Maitland, minister of labor, and Sir Thomas Inskip, attorney-general. Defeated ministers not in the cabinet were Sir Frank Murrison, solicitor-general; Sir Vivian Henderson, under-secretary for home affairs; Herbert G. Williams, under-secretary of overseas trade; and A. Duff Cooper, financial under-secretary for the war department.

Ten women were elected up to three this afternoon. Conservatives included the Duchess of Athol, Lady Astor, Countess Iveagh; Liberal, Miss Megan Lloyd George; Labor, Ellen Wilkinson, Margaret Bondfield, Susan Lawrence, Lady Cynthia Moseley, Mrs. Mary Hamilton and Miss E. Picton Tuberville.

LATER DESPACHES

LONDON, May 31.—The Government was defeated, with the Conservatives and Laborites not far from balanced and the Little Welsh Wizard holding all the trumps. It is the situation of the eighties and nineties when Irishmen held the balance between Liberals and Unionists.

On every side is heard gossip of a coalition against the Socialists, but this is easier said than done. Failing that, there is a possibility of another election in the autumn. On the other hand, it is common knowledge that Labor leaders believe if they are called upon to form a government, a number of the more advanced Liberals will swing to their side, thus definitely breaking up the historic Liberal party.

Among the candidates elected were Sir Austen Chamberlain by a majority of only 43 over O. C. Willey, Labor, in West Birmingham; Rt. Hon. John R. Clynes, Labor; Sir Herbert Samuel, Liberal; Rt. Hon. Neville Chamberlain; Major Glynn Lloyd George, Liberal, son of the Liberal leader.

S. Saklatvala, sole Communist in the last house, was defeated.

NEW ZEALAND BUSINESS GOOD

Trade With Canada Has Increased Enormously of Recent Years

JASPER, May 31.—New Zealand is anxious to increase its trade with Canada, and within the past few years the trade between the two Dominions has grown enormously. One of the principal means by which this increase has been made possible is the direct and regular service provided by the Canadian National Steamships. This statement was made in an interview at Jasper Park Lodge by F. G. Wood, general agent of the Canadian National Steamships and New Zealand manager of the Canadian National Steamships, who is on his way to Toronto, on furlough, after five years in the Antipodes.

Half a million pound boxes of New Zealand butter would be shipped to Canada this year, Mr. Wood stated, and much more to the United States. The wool season has been particularly good and New Zealand was in every way in a most healthy condition.

RECORD MADE MINE OUTPUT

Value Also Closely Approaches Record Year of 1926

VICTORIA, May 31.—The aggregate output of metals and minerals in British Columbia in 1928 was the greatest on record, according to the annual report of the department of mines, now ready for issuance.

While owing to lower level of prices, the aggregate value of the output of $65,352,583 was $1,816,239 less than for the record year, 1926, it was five millions more than for 1927.

BYLAW VOTE LIGHT TODAY

Up to noon little interest was apparently being taken in the voting on three money bylaws at the City Hall. Only 58 votes had been cast up to 11:30, or some twenty less than on March 1 at a similar date when a vote was being taken on the sale of the hydro-electric system. The poll will be open until 8 o'clock tonight and afternoon voting is expected to be much heavier than it was this morning. The result of the poll will be known half an hour later, it is expected.

W. D. Vance is in charge of the poll for which E. F. Jones, city solicitor, is returning officer. W. J. Sloan is the only poll clerk. Scrutineers on behalf of the Prince Rupert Ratepayers' Association are F. W. Hart and T. D. Johnston.

There is a general feeling that the bylaws will be rejected.

Slide From Mountain Top of Lockeport Was Result of Earthquake

Rumblings Were Heard and Resident Thinks Volcanic Action Near Surface May Have Been Responsible

Local volcanic action near the surface may have been responsible for many earthquake shocks which were felt on the Queen Charlotte Island last Sunday and Monday, it is believed by J. C. Edwards of Lockeport, who is in Prince Rupert. Immediately after the first and most severe tremor, about 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the water of the bay at Lockeport virtually boiled up, and the same action of the sea was reported at other points in the neighborhood. It is by reason of this fact that Mr. Edwards believes there may have been volcanic action.

For ten hours after the first tremor, Mr. Edwards reports that rumblings like slides were heard from the mountain about twelve miles from Lockeport. For twenty-four hours later at less frequent intervals such rumblings were audible. Mr. Edwards believes that these were slides from the mountaintop, although he is somewhat at a loss to account for why there should have been so many. From the T. A. Kelley Logging Co.'s camp at Selwyn Inlet, it was observed that there had been a slide from the top of the mountain in question. There were masses of fresh rock and earth on the snow fields below. The mountain is not believed by Mr. Edwards to be volcanic. On a smaller mountain, nearer Lockeport, a huge boulder weighing several tons fell down a precipice for a distance of two hundred feet after the first severe quake. On Sunday afternoon there were no less than a dozen quakes felt at Lockeport at intervals of possibly half an hour. On Monday evening there were two more tremors. Mr. Edwards, however, is not alarmed himself. "I have no doubt that the Queen Charlotte Islands are as safe to live on as ever they were," he opines.

Mr. Atkinson heard the needs and wants of the settlers of the central interior. With a little assistance such as the government may give, he felt that the farmers there would be successful. Their chief trouble this year was from drought, rain being badly needed. While here, Mr. Atkinson was moved over the Kaien Island highway by C. H. Orme, who explained to him the desirability of having the road pushed on up the Skeena River. The minister also visited Oliver Lake, which is being sought by local organizations as picnic grounds. His whole trip through the north was very enjoyable, Mr. Atkinson said. He gave assurance of his co-operation in assisting these districts in their requirements.

Minister of Agriculture Been Looking Over Needs of Interior

After having made his first trip through the agricultural districts of the central interior with which he stated he was favorably impressed, Hon. William Atkinson, provincial minister of agriculture, arrived in the city on yesterday afternoon's train and sailed last night on the Prince George for Victoria.

Mr. Atkinson heard the needs and wants of the settlers of the central interior. With a little assistance such as the government may give, he felt that the farmers there would be successful. Their chief trouble this year was from drought, rain being badly needed. While here, Mr. Atkinson was moved over the Kaien Island highway by C. H. ACCEPTABLE CONTRACTS

The securing of the contracts by the local shipyards for two new steel vessels for the Canadian National Railway is the best news received here for some time. It means that the drydock staff will be kept at work regularly during the remainder of the year and well into the spring. Prince Rupert will benefit very largely from these contracts and the Canadian National management is to be congratulated on seeing that their own shops here are kept busy. With the mills, the drydock and the railway shops busy, in addition to the fisheries activities, Prince Rupert should soon feel the benefit of the payroll. Add to this the promised activities of the Power Corporation and 1929 should yet be an excellent season.

FRASER RIVER TREATY

Only incidentally are we interested in the sockeye fisheries treaty recently signed by United States and Canada. The signing of this treaty seems to have been given the men who are always opposed to the U. S. the opportunity to attack her through the pact.

For years Canada has been asking for such a treaty. They saw the practical extinction of the salmon in the Fraser and at last the opportunity arose to have the river re-stocked and the catch regulated so that Canada might get her rightful share of the catch.

The opposition then began.

TENNIS DANCE
PORT CLEMENTS

PORT CLEMENTS, May 31.—The tennis club held a very enjoyable dance last Saturday evening in Hastie's Hall for the purpose of raising funds for the new floor laid on the tennis court, which was badly needed. A shoulder of lamb was donated by R. T. Ward and a doll, were auctioned during the evening, the former won by Mrs. Hammond and the latter by Mrs. Williams. The proceeds for the evening were $37.00, which amount helps considerably toward the payment of the lumber bill.

COLOMBO WINS
ANOTHER GAME

Took Prince Rupert Football Players into Camp Last Night By 2 to 1 Score
H.M.S. Colombo football players scored another victory over Prince Rupert representatives last night but by the reduced margin of 2 to 1. The sailors again demonstrated their superiority over the locals who, however, put up a good game. Next to the forwards, Goalkeepers Roper (Colombo) and Carl Brand (Prince Rupert) were the hardest worked players on the field for both goals were being in turn assailed in fast moving play during which some good combination was displayed, particularly on the part of the warship men. Prince Rupert shooting could have been better. Brand made one fine save when he virtually went prone in the goal mouth and prevented a goal with his hands. With Colombo playing downhill, all scoring was done in the first half. Matley turned in two field goals for the warship while Beattie scored Prince Rupert's single counter on a penalty shot. The players were: H.M.S. Colombo—Roper, Dunbar and Buss; Clare, Field and Payne; O'Leary, Marley, Triggs, Newton and Robinson. Prince Rupert—Brand; Hag and Eskibe; Howe, Currie and Woods; J. R. Murray, Russell, Baptie, Jack and Norrington. On the whole, it was a splendid game and a bumper crowd of fans went up Acropolis Hill to see it.

THE WATT CASE

Skidegate, B.C., May 25, Editor, Daily News.—

The dismissal of Norman A. Watt, Government Agent at Prince Rupert, by the bread man from Vancouver, has caused very bitter feeling over here, both amongst Liberals and Conservatives.

This makes one think of all that was going on throughout B. C. last July in promises regarding Civil Service.

Surely those who made these promises, have fallen very low, regarding the standards of a gentleman.

This action of Shelly's has soured the death knell of the Conservative party in the north, both provincial and Dominion, as far as votes are concerned for many years to come. "Whatever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

In leaving the Government office, Mr. Watt takes with him a splendid and clean record, and the heartiest and best wishes of everyone in the north.

PRUDHOMME'S ANSWER TO MAYOR McMORRIS

Editor, Daily News.—

The mayor says in his letter that I voted for a more expensive pipe than recommended by the engineer. I want to emphasize that the pipe selected was that recommended by the engineer after discussing the different pipes with the board of works. I wish also to remind the mayor that I had nothing to do with the work started the autumn of 1927 and any work alluded to in his letter, done on the trunk sewer was under way and almost completed, when I was elected in January 1928. I have consistently criticized the board of works for the manner and for the excessive cost of the work being done and have no apology to make for so doing. I do not think we are getting satisfactory returns for the money spent. As for having any personal feelings against the engineer or any of the board of works staff, I think that the people of Prince Rupert will believe me when I say that that is not so and that the mayor is endeavoring to create sympathy for the engineer and evade the question of the efficiency and the economical conducting of our work.

A. J. PRUDHOMME.

ANSWERS THE MAYOR

Editor, Daily News.—

While looking through your paper this evening I was very much surprised indeed to see a letter from the mayor regarding the money bylaws to be voted on tomorrow, and the stand that he takes in this connection. To begin with, I presume that this letter is a paid advertisement, which the poor ratepayer will have to pay for, as I understand a similar letter appeared in yesterday's issue. When the people read a communication over the mayor's signature they should be furnished with something wholesome in the way of advice, but this threat of his is not only unwholesome, but untrue, when he says that we will have to pay this $19,000.00 in next year's levy if the bylaw fails to pass, instead of having it spread over a period of twenty years, should the bylaw carry. No person has any desire to embarrass the council, but we do want conditions in the public works department of the city properly adjusted, and an extravagant waste of the people's money curtailed, and apparently the only way to secure this would be to defeat the bylaws and bring the matter to a showdown. In conversation with the mayor a day or two before last election, the writer discussed with him the rotten condition of affairs in the works department, which he admitted, but promised that he was going to go into this immediately the election was over. What has he done to right matters?

We are not after anybody's scalp, but we do want the council to live up to their obligations, and if they have incompetence in their employ who are not capable of giving a proper estimate for them to work on, get rid of them, and not waste our money in the manner they have been doing. All this talk about changed pipe and back-filling of ditches, is in my opinion petty larceny foolishness, when reduced to dollars and cents, and used for no other purpose than to draw attention away from the real cause of the trouble. They had no right to sanction an over-draft of $19,000.00 on a $35,000.00 estimate, without submitting a bylaw to the people, and they know it. Let them clean house, get competent people in office who can make correct estimates and carry on work economically and well, then come to the people with their bylaw and we will help them to get it passed. There is lots of time for this between now and December, and the mayor must know it, but this high-handed threat of crucifying us next year in the tax levy, is as foolish as it is unwarranted. Vote the bylaws down, and let us start properly—better late than never.

FIRST YACHT VISITS PORT

H. H. Manny of Seattle Opens Cruising Season to Northern B. C. and Alaska

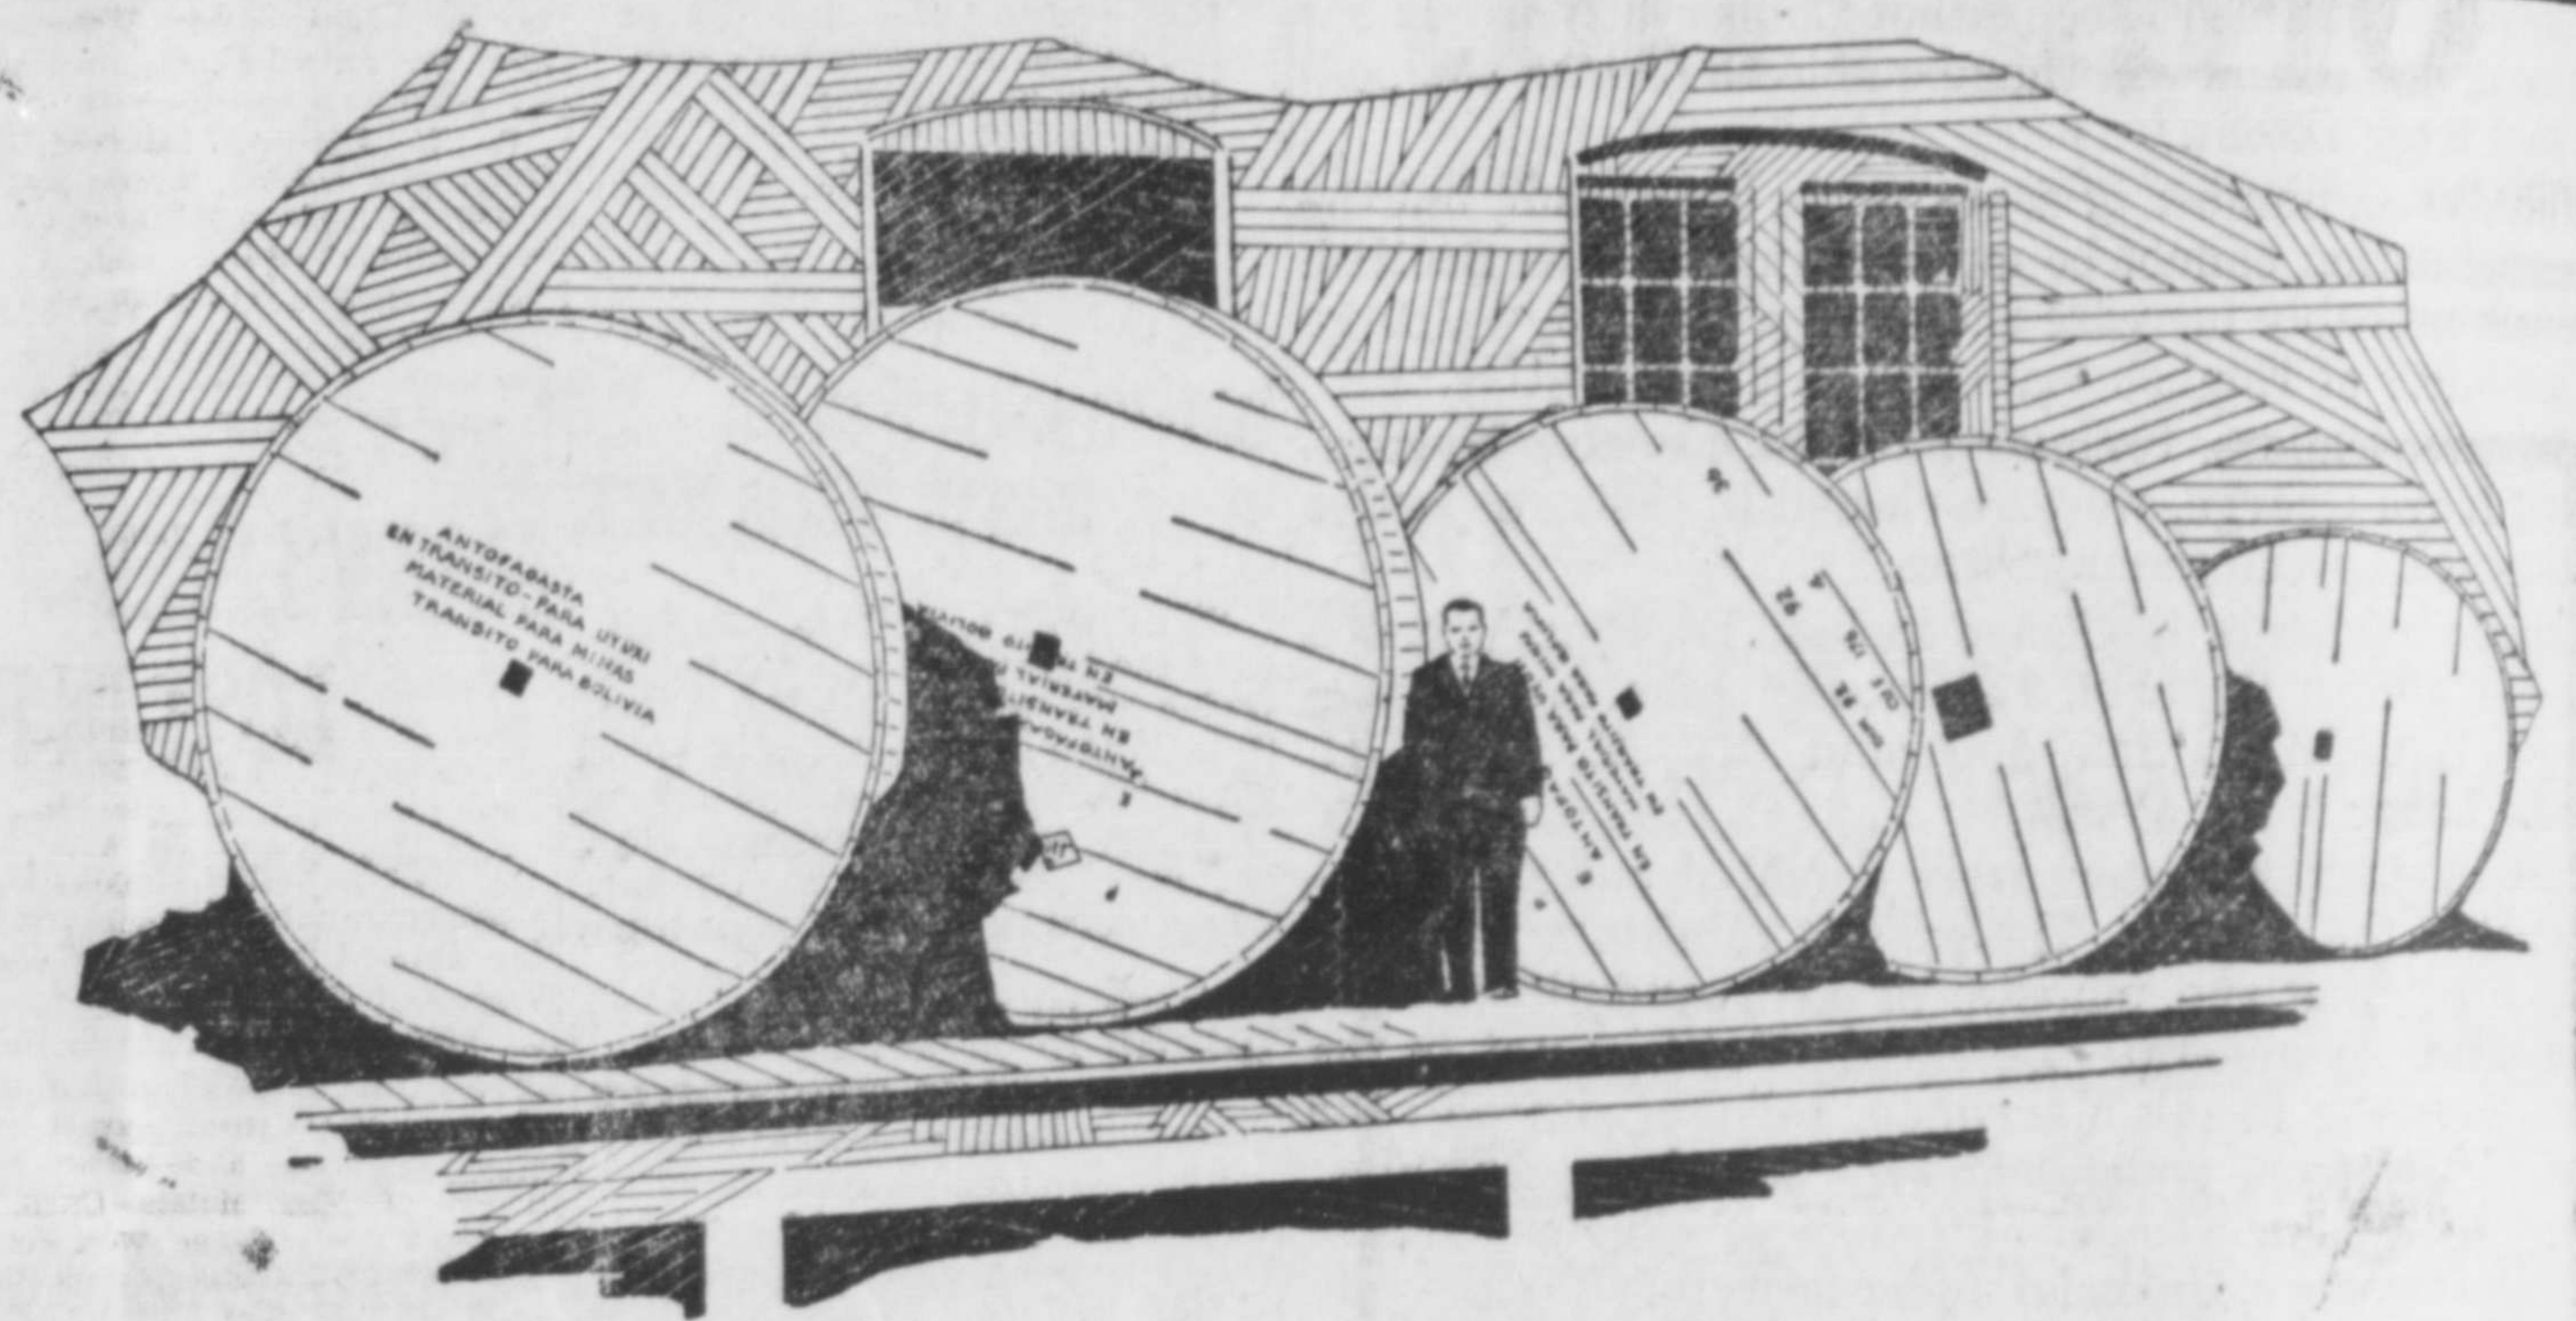

Henry H. Manny, Seattle broker, who was district governor of the Rotary Club last year, is the first cruising yachtsman of the season to visit Prince Rupert, having arrived in port last night aboard his handsome 45-foot power cruiser Katherine. Among the members of Mr. Manny's party is Victor Rabel, vice-president of the Star Machinery Co. of Seattle, who went to school in Seattle with Capt. W. P. Armour, manager of the Pacific Salvage Co., here. Mr. Manny thought the Rotary Club here met on Friday and that he would attend a luncheon and was, therefore, disappointed to learn that the club had met yesterday. The party will proceed tomorrow morning to Juneau and other Alaska points on a three weeks' cruise and will call here southbound.

Harold Luther Hanson, son of Rev. John Hanson, is graduating tonight from the Battle Lake High School, Minnesota, which he has been attending for the past four years. He is seventeen years of age and will go to Augsburg College, Minnesota, in the fall.

PREPARATIONS FOR SECOND BALL GAME OF PRESENT SEASON

The second league game of the City Baseball League will be pulled off tonight between the Sons of Canada and the Elks. This is expected to be a hair raising contest as the Elks are sure they can duplicate their success of last Tuesday, and the Sons are just as certain that they are going to do nothing of the kind.

Loblick will again be on the mound for the big horned tribe, while in the absence of Bill Lambie, Cecil Downie is going to try and slip 'em past the Elks' heavy gunners for the Sons. If the Elks again come out on top in this game they will go a long way to prove that their performance against the Gyros was no mere flash in the pan.

The Sons have been strengthened by the arrival of Benny Wendie, and this popular lad will be holding down the shortstop berth when the teams clash at 6:45 tonight. The infield has been Capt. Billie Mitchell's big worry so far, but with Benny in there alongside of Vic Menzies, the left side of the diamond is sure to be well looked after.

All men off the Colombo will again be the guests of the two teams, and a heavy invitation is extended to them to come and see that baseball is not "just a glorified game of rounders."

Jacob Stief and A. J. Frederick, retired oil men of Carey, Ohio, arrived in the city from the east on yesterday afternoon's train and will sail tomorrow morning on the Princess Louise for a trip to the Yukon Territory. They are guests at the Hotel Central.

BENNY WENDLE WINS FIGHT

Won Decision From Bill Venables Here Last Night

NAVY MAN MISSED LOT

Several Good Bouts at Affair in Exhibition Hall Last Night

Benny Wendle of Prince Rupert put up a superior fight and won a good decision in a ten-round bout at the Exhibition Hall last night over Marine Bill Venables of H. M. S. Colombo. Wendle showed a great improvement in the fine points of the game as a result of his sojourn in the south, while Venables put up a disappointing showing, considering that he was heralded as the unbeaten champion of Army and Navy from Bermuda Station. In leading and in the open, Wendle did enough to hold his own but it was in the infighting where he shone and was always ahead. He worked a good left hand, Venables showed talent but missed a lot, and was inclined to hold on at close quarters. There was no question about the decision.

The six-round bout between the heavyweights, Stoker Ewart of H. M. S. Colombo and Ed. Gustafson of Prince Rupert, was a hard battle with both boys working all the way. There was more action than is often seen when heavyweights get together. Ewart proved the more scientific and was entitled to the decision. Gustafson, nevertheless, had a stout heart and forced the going much of the way.

The four-round bout between Marine Annette and Nina Gurvich was a lively affair in which Nina had a good margin. Annette was staggering and sitting down toward the close and Nina had things pretty well his own way. Both put all they had into it.

Able Seaman Barrett, a lithe boy in pink of condition, gave Brick Skinner such a hard fight that the latter, staggering and winded, was forced to quit after the third round. Skinner was carrying much excess weight. It was the first time he had fought in four years and he showed it.

Able Seaman George Bagshaw of the local unit of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve swung hard on the head of Stoker Joyce of the warship and the referee stopped the fight during the second round after Joyce had been floored several times.

Opening Bouts

The duce spot was between Boy Reid and Officer Steward Young, both of H. M. S. Colombo. Reid made it hard for the other boy and swung a good decision out of him.

The curtain raiser was between Pete Choroski and Earl Batt, local amateurs who made the crowd shout. Batt was the heavier but Choroski gamely took all that was coming.

Petty Officer Instructor Baker of H. M. S. Colombo refereed all bouts in a very efficient manner and Chief Petty Officer Instructor Young of the local unit of the R.C.N.V.R. was announcer. Lieut. Commander G. H. Warner D. S. O. and Jack Judge were judges in the main event. Max Hellbroner and Mr. Davis were timekeepers.

During the evening, there were fine selections by the ten-piece orchestra of H. M. S. Colombo under the leadership of Engine Room Artificer Massingham.

Before the bouts commenced, Mayor S. P. McMordie addressed from the ring a welcome to the officers and personnel of H. M. S. Colombo, expressing the hope that there would be an evening of good sport in which the best of spirit would prevail.

Before the main event, Lieut. Commander Warner in the absence of Capt. C. C. Dobson V.C., D.S.O., suitably acknowledged the welcome that had been extended by the mayor. The kind reception in Prince Rupert had been gratifying to all on board the ship, he said.

The tournament was staged before a large crowd of fans, under the management of the Eagles Lodge of which Thomas Clough is worthy president and Angelo Astori, secretary. At the close, there was a free dance by the Eagles' Lodge in the Elks' Home.

In the semi-final Gustafson led off in the first and they set a fast pace. They were swinging with both hands for each other's heads, Gustafson missing a bit toward the end. Stoker Ewart had the best of it in the second and landed more than Gustafson. The big Scandinavian forced it in the third and got blow for blow. Ewart was feeling a bit uncomfortable. The sailor led in the fourth, Gustafson was getting winded and wild. They were both tiring for they were going well. In the fifth, Gustafson led but Ewart had him on the fine points though Gustafson's weight and staying power forced the sailor against the ropes. In the final round, Ewart swung on the side of Gustafson's face and slowed him up. Gustafson was hanging on and Ewart was the most effective hitter.

The sailor won with a good margin of points.

Main Event

Wendle's weight was announced to be 140 1-2 pounds; Venables, 146 1-2. Wendle was the shorter and stockier. Venables was slim and wiry and could give Wendle a number of years.

First Round—They started slow and sized each other up. Benny placed a left on Venables' nose. Venables made cat-like jabs. Benny's left was working well. The fighting was open. Venables round by a shade.

Second—They tapped each other. Venables missed a short right swing. Benny placed left slaps on Venables in close. Wendle's round.

Third—They mixed more freely and swung cleanly at each other. Venables landed rights and Wendle missed. Venables' round.

Fourth—Benny would dodge Venables' right swings and put left jabs on the sailor's face. In close quarters, Wendle did much more effective body work. Wendle's round.

Fifth—Benny put down his head and covered up and was still getting the best of it in close while Venables held on. Venables would break out and put short right and left swings to Benny's head. Wendle held his own in the open. Even round.

Sixth—Venables was swinging and, though he missed as many as he made, he had the best of this on leading. Wendle making fair returns. Venables' round.

Seventh—Benny showed up better in the open and did most of the hitting with rights and lefts while Venables was inclined to hold on. Wendle's round by substantial margin.

Eighth—Benny uncoiled a real attack and was hitting Venables openly and cleanly. Venables was not returning so well and Benny, who forced things all the way had another good round.

Ninth—Venables swung on Benny and, in turn, forced the going. Then Benny came in and planted some rights, missing a sharp left hook. Whenever Benny landed, he got a big cheer from the crowd. He was very popular. Round fairly even.

Tenth—They both mixed and both missed. Benny already had a margin of points but he did not lay down and had something to give back to Venables every time. Fairly even round.

Garnet Watt, who has been spending the past couple of weeks in the city and district, will sail tomorrow morning on the Princess Louise for Skagway en route to the Yukon Territory on insurance business. Mrs. Watt sailed last night by the Prince George on her return to Vancouver.

TENNIS HONORS WERE DIVIDED

H.M.S. Colombo and Prince Rupert Players Met Yesterday on C.N.R. Courts

Tennis players from H.M.S. Colombo divided honors with local adepts of the game in a tournament yesterday afternoon on the C.N.R. courts. There were two men's doubles events and two sets of singles.

Brand and Howard, Prince Rupert, beat Williams and Inkpen, H. M. S. Colombo, 6-1, 6-4; while Dr. Heath and Pryce, H.M.S. Colombo, won over Mayor McMordie and Eddie Smith, Prince Rupert, 1-6, 8-6, 7-5.

The feature game was the fast singles, in which Williams, H. M. S. Colombo, beat Brand, Prince Rupert, 6-1, 6-3. In the second singles game, Howard, Prince Rupert, won 6-4, 6-0, over Inkpen, H. M. S. Colombo.

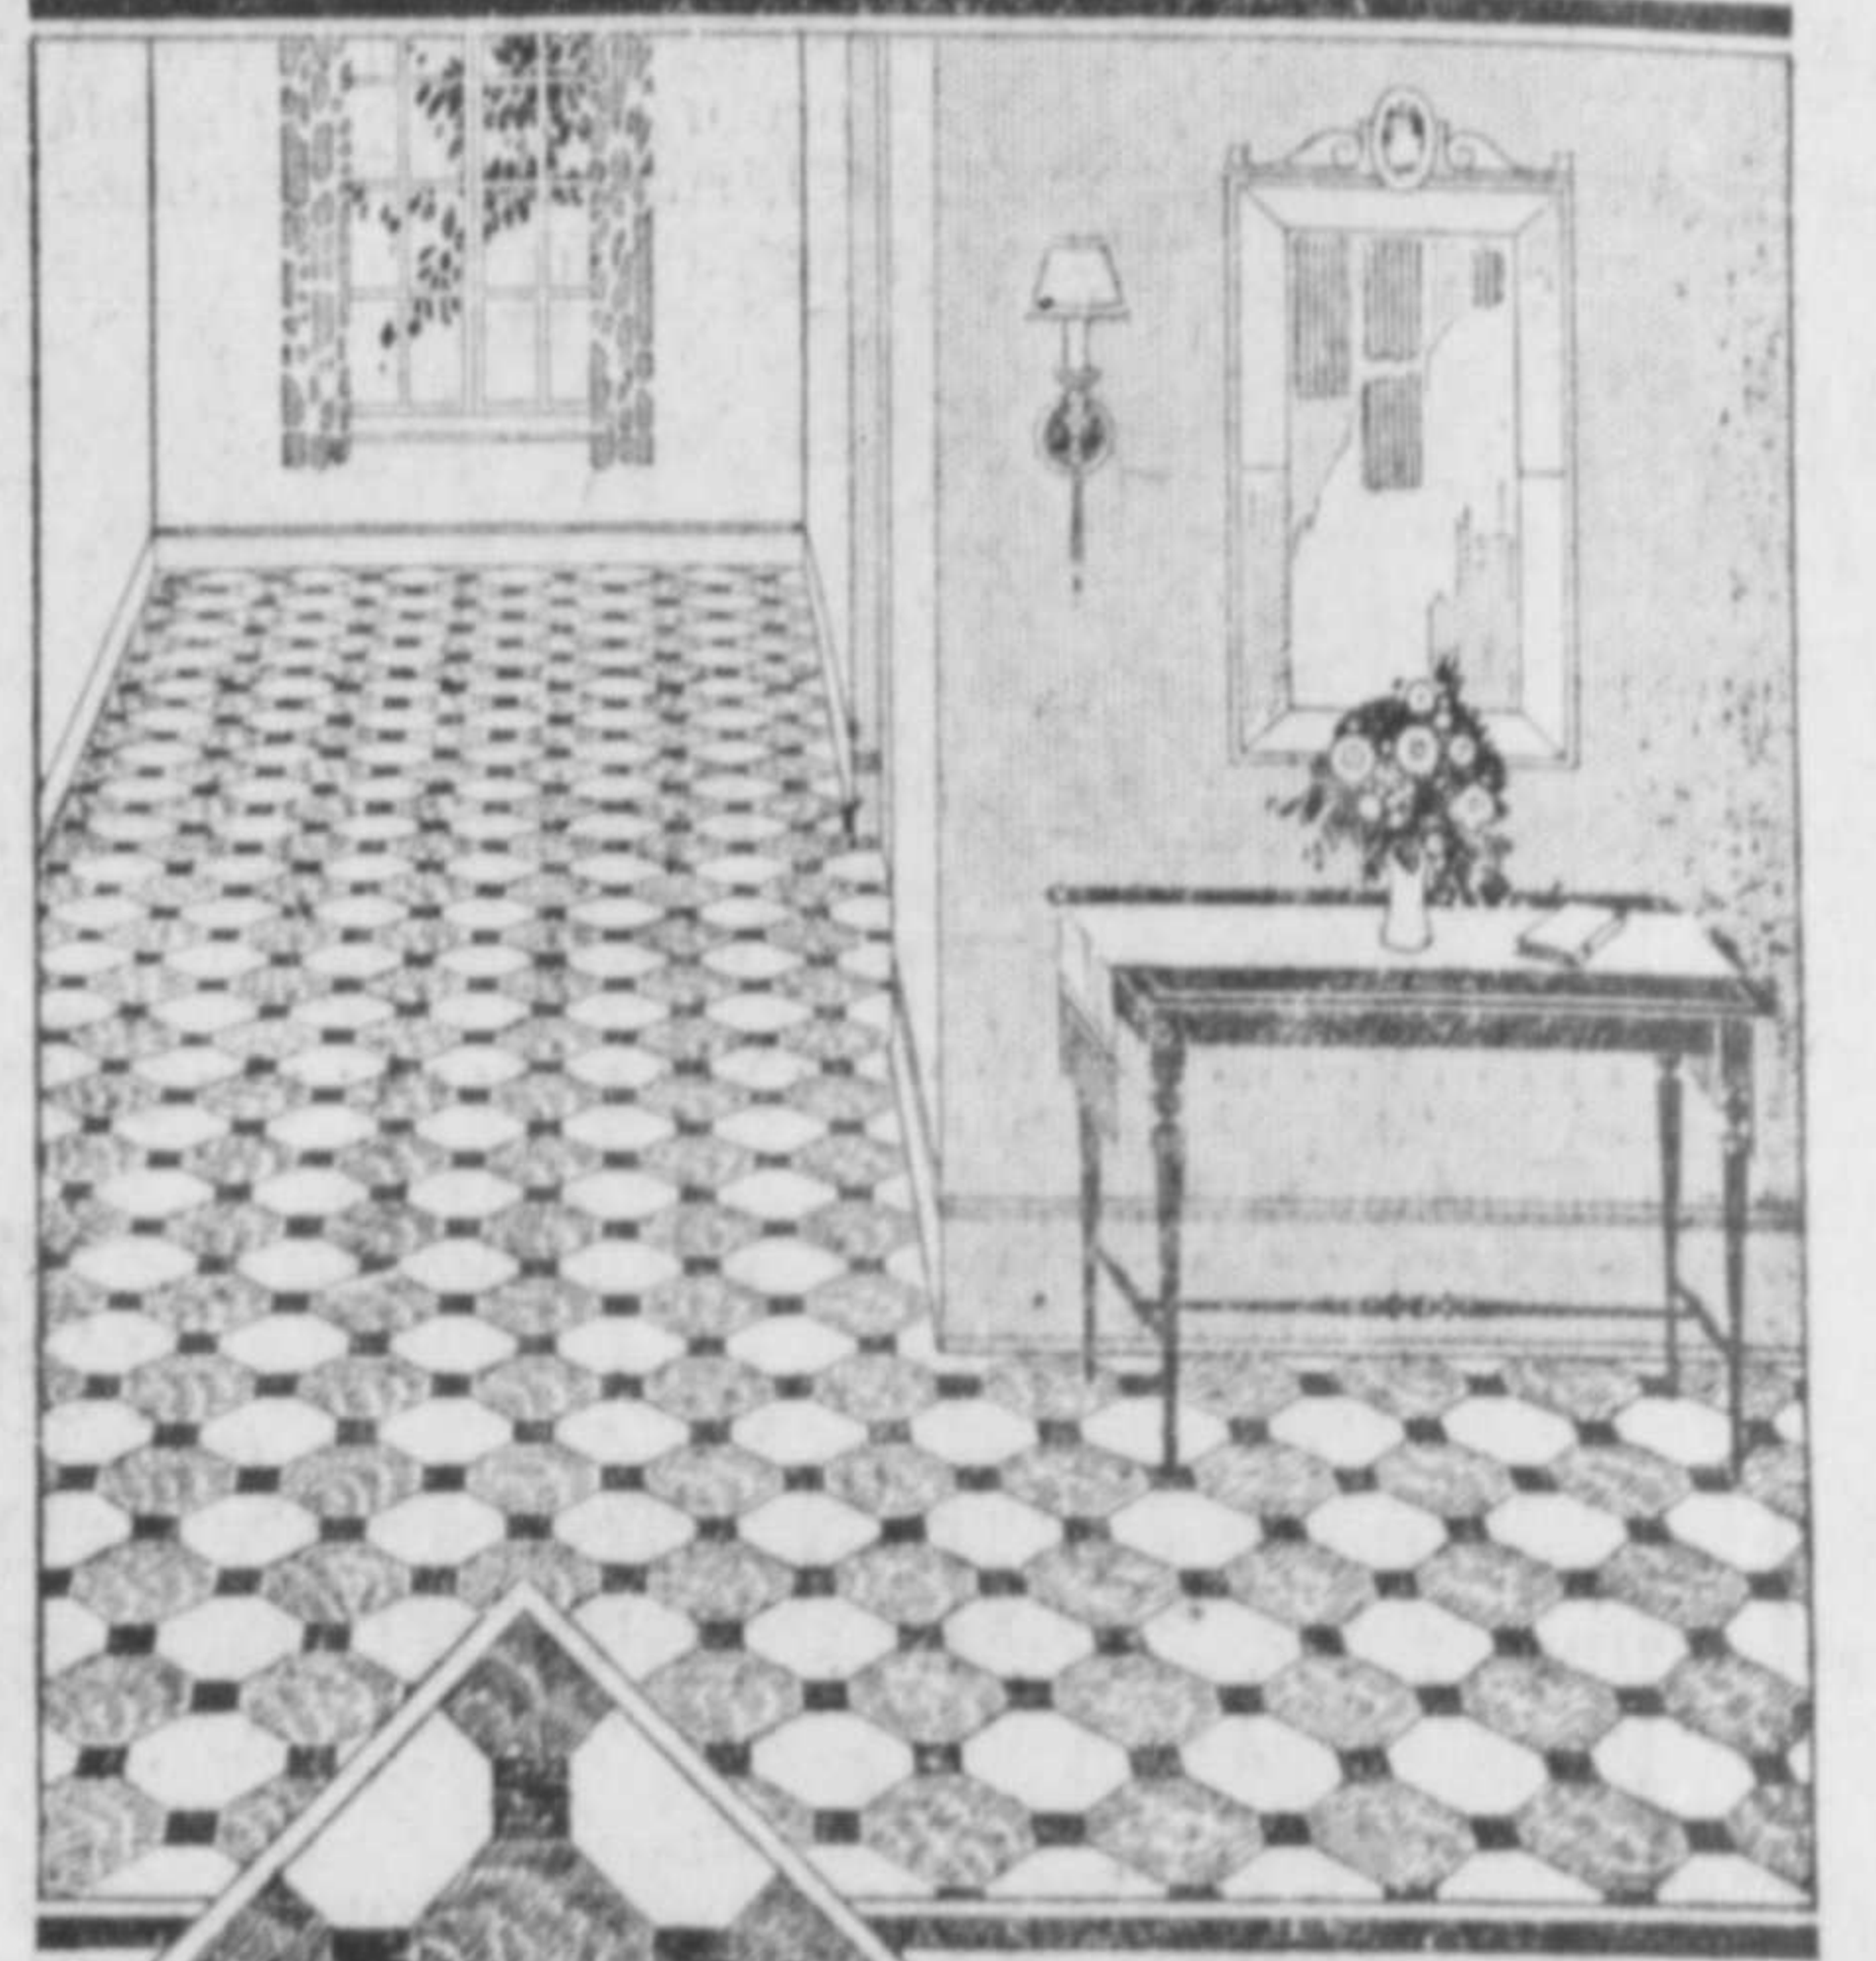

There will be another tournament between the warship and Prince Rupert on Sunday afternoon.

NAVAL DAY AT ROTARY CLUB

Lieutenant-Commander Warner, D.S.O., Gives Address at Luncheon Yesterday

Speaking of the splendid harbor of Prince Rupert, the possibilities of developing the port and of the desirability of encouraging and helping the naval reserve, Lieut.-Commander G. H. Warner, D.S.O., of the light cruiser Colombo yesterday addressed the Rotary Club in place of Captain Dobson, who is taking a holiday at Lakelse Lake enjoying the fishing.

Lieut.-Commander Warner spoke of the pleasure it gave them all to make the trip to the west coast of Canada and how they all enjoyed it. They had been out from England only eighteen months. Last year they made the voyage around the South American coast and this year fortunately were chosen to make this cruise. It was their first trip to Canada and they were particularly surprised to come into the fine harbor here. As people who were interested in harbors, they were particularly struck with its utility. He spoke of the hopes of the people here of making a seaport and saw no reason why it should not be realized.

The lieutenant-commander also spoke of the value of having a useful floating drydock here.

Lieut.-Commander Warner then spoke of the ability with which the two Canadian destroyers, the Champlain on the east coast and the Vancouver here, carried out the exercises while training under them. He urged that support should be given to the naval volunteers. From what he had seen, they were doing excellent work. The way the men training in the volunteer reserve took to the work was a surprise. He thought they would get some excellent training. The cadets had been entertained aboard Wednesday night and seemed to be a fine lot of boys.

Lieutenant-Commander Warner apologized for the absence of the captain.

BEGIN CUTTING LUMBER SOON AT SMALL MILL

Thirty Men Now Employed Getting Out Logs at Falls Creek

The National Airplane Lumber Co., Inc., will start cutting lumber in about two weeks time with a small 15,000-foot steam sawmill which it has established at Porpoise Harbor, about seven miles along the C. N. Railway track from Prince Rupert. There are 30 men now engaged in logging on the company's timber limits along Big Falls Creek, which flows into the Ecstall River, a tributary of the Skeena. Cutting of lumber at the mill will follow the delivery of the first logs from these limits.

The National Airplane Lumber Co. plans ultimately to establish a much larger mill on Porpoise Harbor. Much of the lumber produced will be airplane spruce for export to the United States.

LOUVRE ANNUAL 2 FOR 1 SALE

Today is second day of interesting three-day shopping event which is being largely taken advantage of.

To purchase a new up-to-date coat, or a hat, or a dress, for a dollar is a thing that a lady cannot do every day. She could, yesterday, at the Louvre; and she can today, too, and tomorrow as well, for this is the Annual Two for the Price of One Sale at the Louvre. Those who took advantage of this interesting selling event last year will remember the values they got. They got values then. This year the values are better than ever.

Now, there are few women who could not be doing with a second coat, and still fewer who could not possess a second dress or ensemble to advantage, while the woman who does not need two hats is not born yet. So here at this annual event of the Louvre's is the opportunity to get a hat, a coat or a dress, for the nominal price of one dollar. There is no joker in this offer either. It is a plain straight-forward selling event. When you purchase a coat today or tomorrow at the Louvre at the regular price, you may purchase another one—your own choice—for $1.00. If you purchase a dress or ensemble at the regular price, you may purchase another one for $1.00. Or, if you buy a hat at the regular price, you can get another one for $1.00 too. The regular prices at the Louvre have consistently been the very lowest possible.

Wise women will take advantage of this occasion to acquire a second outfit for a dollar a garment. The opportunity is yours—but only for today and tomorrow. (Advt.)

SHOULD NOT ROB SKEENA

In his objection to the treaty between United States and Canada which provides for joint control of the salmon fisheries of the Fraser watershed and approach and for re-stocking the river, General McRae took occasion to protest the wisdom of removing spawn from the Skeena River to increase the salmon flow in the Fraser.

The Skeena flow goes entirely to Canadian fishermen, while up to the present 70 per cent of the Fraser flow has gone to the United States.

Under the new treaty Canada would get 50 per cent of the Fraser flow.

The general quoted records to show that from an annual average of 116,000 cases per year between 1921 and 1924, the Skeena catch has fallen off to 80,000 cases a year, which he considered to be evidence that the spawning grounds of that river could not be robbed for the Fraser without serious loss.

FISHING FOR BUSHBY PLANT

Trotting at Hippo Island Very Poor So Far This Season

SKIDEGATE, May 31.—Owing to the poor trotting so far this season a number of local people have expressed their intention of fishing dogfish for the bushby plant. A buying station has been opened here on a scow and the fishermen are being paid $7.00 a ton and furnish their own gear and bait.

The fishing at Hippo is reported very poor so far.

TRAIL OF '98 AT CAPITOL

Heart Throb Story of Yukon and the Trip is Told in Picture

"The Trail of '98," the great northern film epic now being shown at the Capitol Theatre, is proving to be to the north what "The Covered Wagon" was to the west, "The Birth of a Nation" to the south, and "Way Down East" to the eastern States and their inhabitants.

"The Trail of '98" was directed by Clarence Brown for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and is based on the celebrated Robert W. Service story of the Klondike gold rush in 1908.

Though set in spectacular surroundings, in a background of such grandeur and immensity that it dwarfs humanity, the plot is so dramatic and emotionally touching that it stands out supreme, yet it is but a simple love story of a boy and girl and their fight for happiness against lust and greed and temptation and the almost insurmountable obstacles of the north.

One of the picture's most dramatic scenes is the burning of Dawson City.

CELEBRATION AT SKIDEGATE

People of Mission Enjoy Sports and Fine Banquet in the Evening

SKIDEGATE, May 31.—There was a fine program of sports at Skidegate Junction on the holiday. The main event was a tug of war between married men and single men in which the married were the winners.

After the sports a banquet was held at the town hall where a great spread was much enjoyed. The tables were prettily decorated with local orchids, cut glass and silverware.

After supper Inspector Fraser was asked to speak. He replied that he hardly knew if it were safe to do so as he was a Nisgaah, having been adopted into the tribe at Klenketh several years ago and the Haidahs were traditional enemies of the Nisgaah, the
