GENERALISSIMO OF ARMIES IS BEATEN

EXCITEMENT IN INDIA OVER ARREST COMMUNIST LEADERS

Grim Reaper Wins Great Battle Against Generalissimo Who Led Allied Armies to Victory in War

Story of His Military Life Is Thrilling One, Especially That Dealing With His Final Thrust Against German Forces in 1918

PARIS, March 20. — Marshal Ferdinand Foch, the generalissimo who led the allied armies to victory in the world war and who is generally acclaimed one of the world's greatest soldiers, died at his home at 5:50 p.m. today after a lengthy illness. He was 77 years of age.

Although it had been apparent that the great general was fighting his "last campaign," his warrior heart would not give in and day after day he fought off the inevitable end with grim courage. But the coalition of heart trouble and kidney disease and lung infection were too great at his age. It was the sudden collapse of the heart after several days of improvement that brought death.

PROGRESS MADE LEGISLATION

Public Utilities Changes and Succession Duties Amendment

VICTORIA, March 20.—Consideration of amendments, of the Water Act, under which provision was made for the creation of a public utilities commission by granting powers to the existing water board of the department of lands, kept the legislature busy yesterday afternoon.

Under the general section which was amended in some particulars, effort was made by T. D. Pattullo to have it enacted that no water rights, where a capacity of over 40,000 horse power was involved, should be allowed to be granted without a resolution of the legislature. This proposal was taken by the government to constitute a vote of want of confidence. The amendment was defeated.

Twenty seven members of the government and Mr. Uphill, labor member, voted down the amendment of Mr. Pattullo to the bill to amend the Succession Duties Act to the effect that instead of all insurance being exempted from the inheritance tax, exemption be given only to the extent of $50,000.

KERGIN VOTED WITH GOVERNMENT ON RAILWAY ISSUE

VICTORIA, March 20.—In the legislature when the Stewart railway was under discussion, R. F. Kergin deserted temporarily his party allegiance and voted with the Government on the question of granting the charter. He was joined by two other members of the opposition, L. A. Hanna and Wells Gray. He also spoke in favor of the measure.

Pattullo and Manson opposed it because there was nothing to indicate that the people behind it were capable of carrying it through. They feared that the Government would again have to come to the rescue as in the case of the P.G.E.

It is probable the verdict of history will be that two great military leaders emerged from the world war, Ludendorff, who after crushing Russia on the East Front saved the German army from defeat in 1917 and in the spring of 1918 came within an ace of final victory; and Foch, created generalissimo of the allied armies in April, 1918, who finally broke the enemy's military machine in the great series of victories which opened at Amiens on August 8 and terminated only with the armistice on November 11. Other commanders, including Haig, great in his steadfastness of soul, will rank high in history, but none of them attained to the military genius of these two men that sets them on a plane with the great commanders of all time.

NO CENSUS IN VANCOUVER

VICTORIA, March 20.—The first bill to meet its death this session in the legislature was the one to provide for a taking of a census in Vancouver. Its defeat was followed by a statement issued by J. B. Williams, city solicitor of Vancouver, in which he charged the government with breach of faith. He said that the government had approved the bill and had promised to pass it. He had been so advised by the Hon. R. L. Maitland, minister without portfolio.

BABINE VICTORIA GROUP OF MINING PROPERTIES ARE FINANCED AND WORK OF DEVELOPMENT TO COMMENCE AT ONCE

B. F. Messner, managing-director of the newly-organized Lorrain Copper-Silver Mines Ltd. (N.P.L.), returned on Saturday night from Vancouver after completing arrangements for Vancouver and Seattle capital to finance development of the Babine Victoria Group.

Present plans call for a big program of development this year, including 5000 feet of tunnel work on the main showings. For this purpose $125,000 is being provided and an aggressive campaign is being carried on in the city of Seattle, where most of the shares are being sold. Machinery is being ordered, a road is to be constructed from the Cronin Road to the main camp on the property, trucks purchased and building materials and supplies are being taken in at once.

Mr. Messner states that 50,000 feet of lumber will be taken in at once to build bunkhouses, compressor buildings, powder magazine, blacksmith shop, assay office and other buildings. Supplies are also being taken in and three crews will be kept at work in the main tunnel now being driven. A new camp will also be built on

ARRESTS OF COMMUNISTS INDIA TODAY

NEW DELHI, March 20.—Sensation was caused in Bombay, Calcutta and Poona today by sudden and extensive police raids on alleged communists. Offices of the Youth League were the main objectives and a great many arrests were made. The outstanding arrest was that of Dhundiraj Thegadi at Poona, a socialist leader, who was charged with waging war against the King. Three other labor leaders were arrested in Bombay on a similar charge.

Intense excitement prevails in Bombay with the police and military guards being stationed at strategic points.

COLLISION ON C. N. R. ONTARIO

Passengers Were Asleep at Time of Accident—Several Lose Lives

BAGGAGE CAR TELESCOPED

Graphic Stories Told of Efforts to Avoid Cermation in Burning Wreck

TORONTO, March 20.—Seventeen are dead, including 13 passengers, and five seriously injured as a result of a head-on collision between two Canadian National trains early today at Drocourt, near Parry Sound, Ont.

The trains were number three westbound and number four eastbound between Toronto and Winnipeg. The known dead are the conductor Barstead, Brakeman Ferguson, Brakeman White and News Agent Miller. The known injured are Engineer Gauvrea, Fireman Smith, Brakeman Savage and Baggage man Roberts.

Practically all the passengers were asleep at the time of the accident. The impact telescoped the baggage cars of both trains and both engines were a twisted mess of steel. Passengers on the sleeping cars of number three bound west returned to Parry Sound this afternoon. It appears that the colonist car, next the baggage car of this train caught fire and several passengers were unable to escape.

Surviving passengers told graphic stories of heroic efforts to escape cremation in the burning wreck. One woman was reported to have died calling for help for her child in the wreck. The line was reported clear at noon.

STEVENS APPALLED BY POPULATION LOSS SPEAKING ON BUDGET

OTTAWA, March 20.—Canada is faced with a shrinkage in population which is appalling, according to H. H. Stevens of Vancouver Centre, in the debate on the budget on Tuesday. From 1921 to 1928 we have lost in numbers all the immigrants who came to Canada, in addition to 240,000 of our native born, asserted Mr. Stevens.

One Hundred Women Expected be Candidates in British Election

Contest Is First Since Women of 21 Obtained Franchise and All Parties Are Making Efforts to Enroll Voters in Campaign

LONDON, March 20.—While the date of the British general elections has not been set, it is expected that they will be held in May and women will play a very prominent part in the choosing of the next House of Commons.

With the franchise extended to women of 21 years of age, the number of women candidates is also going to break all records. The first woman to be returned to parliament was the late Countess Markievic, Sinn Fein supporter, in 1918, but she did not take her seat. Already 54 women candidates have been chosen for the coming contest and it is expected about 100 women will be in the field. And politicians estimate probably a third of these will be elected, which will mean that women members of the House of Commons will be trebled in number.

The three political parties are spending a great amount of money, time and energy in efforts to capture the great new vote. Thousands of women recruiting agents are being employed and election literature aimed especially at the women voters, is flooding the country. So far the Labor party has selected 27 women candidates, the Liberal party 19 and the Conservatives eight. There are at

VICE-PRESIDENT CURTIS

This excellent telephone picture was taken of Vice-President Charles Curtis at his desk in Washington on the first day of his official duties in his new office.

present nine women members of the House of Commons—Lady Astor, the Duchess of Atholl, Mrs. Hilton Philipson and Lady Iveagh, Conservative; Miss Ellen Wilkinson, Miss Susan Lawrence, Miss Margaret Bondfield and Mrs. Hugh Dalton, Labor, and Mrs. Walter Runciman, Liberal. Of these however only four were elected in the last general elections Lady Astor, the Duchess of Atholl, Mrs. Hilton Philipson, and Miss Ellen Wilkinson, the other five entering through by-elections.

The Conservatives, besides intensive continuous work in canvassing the women voters devoted a week especially to them, holding 5,000 meetings in every corner of the country to further the political education of women. Women speakers are being trained at Conservative headquarters by the hundreds, and thousands of women will wear their recruiting badges. The slogan of the party will be "Vote for the Conservative party, which gave you the vote."

The Labor party leaders say they are paying special attention to the women because they think women will "instinctively vote Labor." The party is increasing the number of women propagandists and has the largest number of women candidates. They contend they have always recognized the claims of women. The party intends flooding the constituencies with handbills and pamphlets telling the women how their menfolk have suffered during the Conservative government by unemployment and under-employment.

And the Liberal party is campaigning vigorously to educate the women electorate to Liberal ideals. A big demonstration for women was held in London on March 14, when speakers included Lady Allendale, Miss Megan Lloyd George and Miss Nancy Stewart Parnell. The Liberals are attempting to show by price lists how safeguarding the Conservative policy, is increasing the cost of living and Liberal remedies for unemployment are being stressed.

The Ensemble Has Invaded the Boudoir

For instance, the charming breakfast ensemble consisting of nightgown and lounge coat. The outstanding feature of this costume is the knee-length nightgown, which is gaining in favor. The canary yellow crepe finishes the costume and it is trimmed in ecru lace.

This attractive gown, of dusty crepe, with a scarf neckline, has many virtues. The girdle is of selfstitched fabric and the ruffles, piquant and fetching, are picot-edged. Note the sweep of the full scarf as it falls over the shoulder.

Two Interesting Hats for the Spring Wardrobe

The feather skullcap you see here resembles a careful hair-dressing rather than a hat. And if you have small, regular features, it is just the model for you. Developed in black and white, in piedbald effect, it is a charming complement to the afternoon ensemble.

Another indication that hats will continue to expose the forehead is this new cloche. Its crown is cut high enough to reveal the entire brow. Very smart in black French felt completely unadorned.

GLOVES FOR SPRING BOAST MANY DISTINCTIONS

Articulated belted cuff treatments add distinction to the new glove models. Short pellions with fitted wrists are most prom-

Here is a sports ensemble that achieves true distinction through the clever use of two fabrics of the same type. The skirt is fashioned of beige and brown diagonally striped tweed—the coat of beige and brown tweed in the same colors.

Beige angora is the medium for the attractive tuck-in blouse, while the small scarf is of printed jersey in varied shades of beige and brown. The coat is lined with beige flat crepe.

A Youthful Dinner Dress of Undoubted Chic

Not all frocks bend to the uneven hemline edict. There are still a great many smart models that boast no floating draperies or dignified panels. And for the most part they are the simple dinner dresses for the young girl.

A Plaid Silk Knockabout Suit for the Collegian

Plaids are vying with prints for fashion favor, and the rivalry is a close one. However, unless you can afford to look heavier than you are, you will do well to avoid splashy prints or loud plaids.

For the slender figure the plaid costume is ideal. The dress apparently a two-piece model, made in one, with a tailored button-belt. The jacket, in grey flannel, is short, and has large pockets.

Plan For Your Midseason Coat Now

No wardrobe is complete without two or three garments for inter-season wear. In every month there are one or two days when the coat you have been wearing is either too heavy or too light—and now is the time to plan for the necessary midseason costumes. Here is a coat that adopts the new low flare, so flattering to every type. It is done in beige cloth with a novel cap collar of black galyak.

"YOU MUST HAVE SEVERAL CHOKERS," SAYS PARIS

Smarter now than ever before, the tight choker is presented in so many varieties of stones that the discerning shopper is fairly bewildered. Here are several lovely ones:

On the lady: A rhinestone necklace and earrings to match, the necklace composed of squares linked with sterling silver.

Below: A charming modernistic necklace in silver and a choker of coral in irregular, pebbly-surfaced beads.

The bracelet to the right is of silver while the other is a novelty band of feathers.

The Summer Ensemble Takes to Embroidery

Proof positive that embroidery is once more making a strong bid for fashion favor is offered by this charming afternoon ensemble.

Over a plain dress of maize georgette, sleeveless and embroidered coat in allover pattern. The coat is in blue, green and maize and is slightly longer than the average ensemble coat. Notice the becoming neckline of the dress, with scarf extending over the shoulders.

Three Smart Blouses For Your Best Suit

Now is the time for you to plan accessories for that spring suit. In a spirit of helpfulness we offer three chic blouses.

In the centre is one of white crepe with bows, which look so provocative waving their way out of suit fronts. Lower left is a canary yellow crepe blouse with a small, hemstitched jabot set under a band, to be worn with sports jackets. Lower right is an eggshell satin adaptation of the Vionnet blouse. A flattering yoke is faggotted on.

Vary your dinners with fish and eggs

by Mary Blake

Women often tell me that their greatest difficulty in meal planning is to get variety into the main dish. It is easy enough to build a dinner, once you have selected the meat, but it takes thought to get away from the obvious round of steaks and chops and roasts.

Why not now and then substitute fish or eggs? By combining either one with milk, you have a dish rich in food values—proteins, minerals and vitamins. There are any number of delectable ways in which these combinations may be made—omelets of all sorts, creamed eggs, souffles, creamed tuna, shrimp or lobster, scalloped oysters, salmon souffle.

You must have a dependable milk supply
 In any cooking that calls for milk, I never take chances. I use nothing but Carnation Milk. I know that it is the purest of high grade milk from selected herds. I know that it is rich in cream—doubly so—for it is evaporated to double thickness. I know that I will always find it sweet and good, no matter how large the quantity I have on hand, for it is sterilized for safe-keeping.

I can count on Carnation always for notably delicious results—extra creaminess, velvety smoothness of texture, fragile delicacy of flavor. The best informed domestic scientists agree that it is not only better in results than ordinary bottled milk, but that it is particularly economical.

The Best of Milk

Carnation Milk is simply pure, sweet whole milk, evaporated to double creaminess. Nothing is added; nothing removed but about half the water. Try this dependable, convenient, economical milk.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

SO MANY HUSBANDS DEPEND ON ME

SHE saw them in her kitchen—a host of elf-like men. A miller, a soap maker, a travelling salesman. A band of Lilliputians, each representing some one local industry in which her fellow men and women are employed.

A fable for British Columbia Housewives

Back of each local product she saw ambitious families just like her own. That is why she enjoyed a sense of pride and loyalty every time she purchased the products of her fellow men. In every room in her house she saw the vision of the elfine workmen, for the articles of her home from attic to basement were the products of her home land.

There's a moral to this story

Every time a housewife purchases a B.C. Product, B.C. husbands benefit. B.C. industries are kept active replacing the products purchased by local housewives. Every woman who knows the prosperity of British Columbia husbands depends on their wives asks first: "Is it made in B.C.?"

RIB-TICKLING COMEDY-DRAMA

"Love Over Night" Being Shown At the Westholme Tonight Only

Movie fans who saw Rod La Roque in "Hold 'Em Yale" will remember with pleasure the many laughs they got out of the antics of Rod and Tom Kennedy who, as a detective, pursued him throughout the play. The same pair are appearing tonight at the Westholme in "Love Over Night," a faster-moving comedy-drama which gives them, unrivalled opportunities to do their stuff and send their audience into laughing hysterics.

Rod as a smart young man about town is a scream and Tom, a bungling detective who mistakes him for a slick crook, is a riot. Nothing funnier has been done in the movies. The scene in which La Roque fools the boob detective with the aid of lady's silk stockings rolled up over his arms and lady's pumps on his hands is alone enough to make the spectator laugh for a month.

Jeanette Loff and Mary Carr head a strong supporting cast. There is also a snappy comedy and a "Sportlight" and gazette. Synchronized music with sound effects will accompany the show. Visitors are assured of a pleasant evening's amusement.

SPECIAL MUSIC AT CAPITOL

"Bob" Greenfield With Capitolians Tonight and Thursday

A big special musical program has been arranged by Jack de Jausserand, popular conductor of the Capitolians, and will be presented to Capitol patrons at the Wednesday and Thursday shows in connection with the big feature picture "The Shopworn Angel," starring Nancy Carroll and Gary Cooper.

"Bob" Greenfield, well known clever cornetist, has been engaged to appear with the Capitolians in their special musical program which includes a selection from H. Trovatore by Verdi and "Ecstasy" by Lewis Ganne for stringed trio, by special request.

POPULAR COUPLE VISTING CITY

Nancy Carroll and Gary Cooper At Capitol In "The Shopworn Angel"

Stepping along on her own two dainty little feet, is Nancy Carroll, the latest bit of piquant personality to grace the screen. Her latest picture, in which she is co-featured with Gary Cooper, "The Shopworn Angel," opening tonight at the Capitol Theatre, where it will play for two days, is a new triumph for Nancy Carroll, Paramount and the Capitol Theatre management. "The Shopworn Angel" is a tender love story of a boy, shy, bashful, honest, and a girl, gay, giddy, charming and true. It is a pathetic story played against the bright background of Broadway. It is a glittering piece of romanticism, a thrilling tangle of circumstances in which a clean-minded young man and a re-wakened girl are swirled helplessly.

"The Shopworn Angel" has many things to recommend it. It has Nancy Carroll, Gary Cooper, Paul Lukas, that captivating and mysterious person, and an unusual, moving love story in a brilliant setting. It is good entertainment throughout and it is good for thinking people. "The Shopworn Angel" is a picture to see and talk about.

NEW CANADIAN NATIONAL SHIPS

Victoria Has Report That Construction of Boats is to Start Soon

Orders for new coastwise tonnage will be placed soon by the Canadian National Steamships Ltd., according to authoritative information received here, says a Victoria despatch in the Vancouver Province. Company representatives recently instituted enquiries among Clyde shipbuilders with a view to obtaining data on construction costs and date of delivery.

It is understood that two modern passenger and freight boats with possibly a third, will be built to augment the Prince line service out of Vancouver to northern British Columbia ports and Alaska.

It is hoped by officials to have the new boats for entry in the tourist service next summer.

The steamers Prince Rupert and Prince George, now on the route, were built by Swan, Hunter, Whigham & Richardson at Newcastle-on-Tyne in 1910.
