Battle is Pending in Mexico Between Forces Government--Rebels

NEW YORK, March 11.—The opening of the second week of the Mexican revolution found the government and rebel forces converging rapidly, with the likelthood of a decisive clash in the region of Torreon, where General Escobar, rebel commander-in-chief, is concentrating neavy forces.

Ex-President Calles, leading a body of picked men estimated at 18,000, was proceeding toward Torreon confident of being able to rout the enemy. The result of the pending battie will be keenly awaited here and elsewhere throughout the continent.

C. H. Orme Acquires Third NAME AND ADDRESS OF Avenue Corner From P. Burns

> Two lots and a fraction of a third on the southwest corner of Third Avenue and Fulton Street adjoining the Capitol Theatre have been purchased from P. Burns Co., Ltd., by C. H. Orme, pioneer druggist of this city, the price not being announced. This is one of the most important deals in downtown realty that has been transacted for some time.

It is Mr. Orme's intention to hold the property in the meantime and he may later build. The lots are already occupied by a one-story business block containing the stores of the Federal News Co., W. H.
