Dismissals From Civil Service Returns Asked in B.C. Legislature

Pattullo to Speak On Subject When the Debate Is Resumed Following Resolution of Col. Fred Lister in Legislature

VICTORIA, Feb. 2.—At Friday's session of the legislature Col. Fred Lister, Conservative of Creston, introduced a resolution calling for the return of all dismissals from the civil service.

T. D. Pattullo wished to have added to the list all dismissals outside of the civil service. He adjourned the debate on the resolution.

Speaking in the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne, F. M. McPherson, Liberal of Cranbrook, attacked the government for its failure to include the member from Kootenay in the cabinet. Although five Conservative members were elected in Kootenay, the district had been ignored when the cabinet was formed, he said, while the coast had been favored with no fewer than eight ministers distributed between the Vancouver and Victoria areas. A second reading of the bill to amend the Game Act was moved by Mr. Pooley.

Mrs. Dunsmuir's father-in-law was James Dunsmuir Sr., lieutenant-governor of British Columbia from 1916 to 1919.

Lord Byng, head of Scotland Yard, as a friend of the family, is taking a personal interest in the case.

CANCER CURE IS THOUGHT BE MIRACLE

Man Refused Operation but Undertook to Pray at Shrine of St. Joseph

QUEBEC, Feb. 31.—Quebec is much stirred over an alleged miracle in the case of Albert Cloutier of this city. The man was said by three doctors to be suffering from cancer and was told by them that only an operation could save him. He decided not to undergo the operation, but, instead, undertook a novena or nine days of prayer at the shrine of St. Joseph. This was repeated 13 times and today the doctors declare that the cancer is perfectly cured.

Sport Chat

During the past week Smithers curlers carried on the inter-rink competition in which twelve rinks are engaged despite the extreme cold prevailing for most of the games. It is expected the series will be concluded by tonight to permit of a rearrangement of rinks for another similar schedule. There was no change in the standing as a result of the week's play. Frank Johnson's rink remains undefeated. Chas. Reid and Jas. P. Downey rinks have had only one loss.

Despite below-zero weather there was a large local and district patronage at the second annual ski tournament at Burns Lake at the first of this week. Interest was stimulated by the fact that the big event had patronage and participation of Nels Nelson of Revelstoke, holder of the world's record ski jump. The big crowd swayed with excitement as the ski competitors raced through the air, and the cross-country racing and other events held the interest of the spectators throughout. Main interest centered on the ski jumping competition for the Hanson trophy.

Owing to severely cold weather, the Junior Athletic Association of Prince George had a deficit of some $85 in their venture at the end of last week in bringing the Jasper hockey team to Prince George for a series of games with the Hansard and Prince George teams. In the opening game of the series Hansard beat Jasper by a score of 4 to 3. In the second game, Jasper, despite its previous defeat, came out on the long end of an 8 to 5 score over a picked team from Hansard and Prince George players. The third and final game of the series resulted in a win for Prince George over Jasper by a score of 6 to 4. A splendid brand of hockey was played in all games.

Max Schmeling Established His Position as Master of Fistic Art and Serious Contender for Heavyweight Title

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—With a terrific display of punching power, Max Schmeling, the German heavyweight, ascended another step on his route toward the championship by scoring a technical knockout over Johnny Risko of Cleveland. Risko was floored four times and when he came back in the ninth round he was in such bad shape that it was evident he could not go much longer. To save him from further punishment the referee stopped the bout after one minute and five seconds of the ninth round.

Schmeling used his right hand with great effect, knocking his opponent down with a terrific punch early in the game. Risko came back in the fifth and nearly floored the German, but by the end of the eighth Risko was all in and the crowd of spectators was in an uproar.

The German came into prominence here early last month in a fight which he won against Joe Sekyra. He is known as Dempsey's German double and since last night's mill it is freely predicted that he will be a serious contender for the championship soon.

Mrs. J. D. Thurber returned to the city on the Princess Royal yesterday afternoon following a trip to Calgary to attend a Baptist Church convention. Miss Agnes Dawson, who attended the same convention, is remaining for a month or so in the east on vacation.

At the meeting of the Board of Trade last night it was reported by a committee that the cost of the trip to Calgary, Edmonton and the Peace River country with the Canadian Chamber of Commerce in September would be about $155 exclusive of meals and hotels and incidental expenses.

At a meeting last night of the executive of the Prince Rupert Pioneers' Association, with Mrs. P. W. Anderson presiding, further arrangements were made for the annual banquet which will be held on March 8. The event will take place in the Boston Hall where it is expected about 250 people will be seated. There will be a program of musical numbers and speeches by prominent pioneers.

Capt. Albert Ripoon has returned to duty as skipper of the C.P.R. steamer Princess Royal on the local run after having spent a few weeks ashore in Vancouver during which time Capt. S. K. Gray relieved him.

Freighter Famous, Capt. R. B. Bennett, under charter to the Frank Waterhouse Co., arrived in port at 4:30 yesterday afternoon from the north and is loading a cargo of grain screenings at the elevator for delivery to Seattle.

No further games were played last night in the first division billiard fixture between the Canadian Legion and Grotto. Don Brown and W. J. Nelson are to play today in the outstanding Grotto-Grand Terminal game from last week.

FASHION FANCIES

PRINTED TAFFETA FASHIONS An Interesting Skirt Treatment
A SUPERB EVENING FROCK For Your Chiffon Frock

Designers are presenting this season youthful fabrics in sophisticated modes—a delightful paradox. One of the most popular mediums for this type of experimentation is printed taffeta.

Here it is in a frock of undaunted loveliness and almost universal suitability. The distinguished note of this smart dress is the short peplum tied about the high waist with a bow whose streamers extend to the hem in front.

Here is a frock that boasts a novel arrangement of tucks, and that is therefore, deserving of your attention. The chiffon dance frock is an essential phase of the spring wardrobe, and it should be as lovely as possible.

This one is of palest orchid, and employs a wide girde to carry out the molded hipline so desirable now. With the circular skirt shorter in front, the tucks that are so interesting a feature of this frock seem to be placed diagonally.

A Novel Idea of an Old Idea

The attractive black velvet cape you see illustrated here has two claims to distinction—one is its uneven hemline, adequately to cover the same line on the dress beneath. The other is in the treatment of the fur.

You will notice that the elbow-length cape is even all around—but not so the white fox border. It is placed at the hem of the cape on one side and several inches above the hem at the other. This line is new and what is more, vastly attractive.

The All-Round Coat Makes Its Appearance

When it's too warm for a fur coat and too chilly for a silk wrap you will have need of just such a coat as is illustrated here. The in-between coat serves many purposes and should be included in the wardrobe of every practical young woman.

Of black kasha, simple in line yet ultra-smart, it is lined and faced with jersey. The facing is of beige and red, while the cuffs are fashioned of beige jersey, to match the lining.

PUBLICITY FOR CITY SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION

Board of Trade Doubtful of Value of Advertising Projects Including Local Booklet

The whole question of the value of publicity to the city of Prince Rupert was discussed more or less informally at a meeting of the Board of Trade last night. The discussion was precipitated by a proposal made by H. F. Pullen on behalf of the Publicity Committee to give a letter of endorsement to the representative of the British Columbia Advertisers, publishers of a fine publicity booklet with a stated circulation of 25,000 copies, who is canvassing the city for advertising. The committee refused to recommend a direct grant owing to the present condition of the Board's finances but saw a good deal of value in the publicity secured through the booklet. They reported that the secretary of the Board had received a good many inquiries in which last year's issue had been mentioned.

After some discussion Col. J. W. Nicholls drew attention to the fact that the motion was out of order and moved that it be referred to a special committee. This was seconded by Thomas McClymont and carried, the president stating that he was bound by the rules to declare the resolution favoring the endorsement out of order.

Then followed a suggestion from the President that they consider the question of getting out a booklet and this too met with opposition in the same quarter, the secretary being asked if he could point to any one instance in which the city had benefited from such a publication in the past.

Finally it was decided to appoint a special committee to investigate and make a recommendation.

UNITED CHURCH CHOIR SOCIAL

Presentation Made Last Night to Leader and Two Organists of United Church

An enjoyable social was held last night in the hall of First United Church by the choir of the church.

The proceeding were opened with community singing under the leadership of J. S. Wilson who also directed the contests which followed. Prize winners in these contests were: Miss B. Rogers, Mr. Wide, Mrs. Thomas Ross, Miss Bessie Derry, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Wilkinson, Miss E. M. Earl and Miss E. P. Grassie. There were also harmonica solos by Mr. Gair.

Refreshments were served and the outstanding feature of the proceedings were presentations by James H. Thompson, on behalf of the choir, session and congregation, to John S. Wilson, choir leader, and Miss M. A. Way and Mrs. Alfred Wilson, organists, in recognition of splendid services they have given the church. Mr. Wilson received a handsome armchair; a pair of beautiful electric mantle lamps were presented to Miss Way, while Mrs. Wilson was made the recipient of a pretty silver casserole dish.

Mrs. John Manson was convenor of the evening's entertainment and Mrs. P. C. Miller had charge of the serving of refreshments.

Roads and Bridges

ROADS and TRAILS
1916 26,220 MILES
1926-7 31,900 MILES
BRIDGES: The present valuation of 63 miles of Bridges is $8,848,000

UPON the arteries of communication depend the settlement and growth of the nation. First the trails . . . then the rough oxcart ruts . . . the wagon roads . . . the automobile highways.

The scattered population of British Columbia has made the construction of roads between centres a matter of vital importance, yet one of almost insurmountable difficulties.

Mountain sides have to be blasted away . . . clefts and chasms tresselled . . . rivers bridged!

With the opening of the Cariboo Highway through Fraser Canyon in 1926, the last link of British Columbia's great arterial highway . . . a highway unexcelled the world over as an engineering feat and one of unmatched scenic beauty . . . was forged.

Eastern British Columbia greeted its western brothers! Markets and railways were brought closer to the farmer, the miner, the industrialist. New fields for agricultural and trade development were opened up.

For the ten years just past, an aggressive highway programme has been carried out. Thousands of miles of good roads and dozens of sturdy bridges have been built.

Our roads system now totals 31,900 miles . . . an increase of over 5,000 miles during the last ten years. Of this mileage, 12,000 miles are earth roads; 4,000 gravel roads; and 1,000 macadam, bituminous, concrete and cement concrete. The 5,000 miles which were added to our roads system include: 884 miles of main trunk roads, 602 miles of lateral roads, 281 miles of industrial and mining roads, 1,133 miles of settlement and farm roads, and 2,000 miles of ordinary and mining trails.

During the years just before 1917, a large number of bridges had been constructed in the Province, nearly all of which were temporary timber structures. Since 1917, the problem of maintenance and renewal of these structures has been a serious one, involving a large expenditure, particularly between the years 1920 and 1927.

The policy has been to improve design of and workmanship on temporary bridges and to renew all the large bridges on main highways over the principal rivers with concrete and steel.

Today, the valuation of our 63 miles of bridges is nine million dollars.

This construction activity has distributed wages and salaries over our whole Province and has been a material aid in bringing about the current period of British Columbia's prosperity.

Read these announcements and understand your province's progress . . . clip them out and send them to friends. If you desire extra copies of these announcements a note to this newspaper will bring them. Advertise your Province!

Cold Weather Holds Up Halibut Fishing Preparations and Herring Seining; New Engines Being Installed

Cold weather during the past week has been to some extent delaying work preparatory to the opening of the halibut season, as the fishermen are no more inclined to labor under such uncomfortable meteorological conditions than are the rest of folks. While it has been rather too cold for hull work, renovation of engines has been going ahead in full swing and rigging of gear has been an employment in which all might engage themselves. With the opening of the 1929 season now less than a fortnight distant, a week from today should see the first of the boats getting away via Alaska ports and the week following that will see all who are ready getting off for the high spots.

There is general gratification that a supply of fresh herring bait will be available at the opening of this halibut season. There is still an abundant run of herring at Port Simpson, but it has been too cold during the past week to engage in seining for fear of freezing the nets. With a moderation toward the end of this week the harvest of herring is now being recommenced. Capt. Ole Skog, with the Azurite, has already taken two scowloads for the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. The Zenardi, Capt. R. Gammon, which will fish for the Rupert Marine Products reduction plant, had not commenced seining up to Thursday. There is no word as to five herring pounds being operated this winter as had been done in the past.

There is a very active demand on the part of the canneries this year for charter boats to pack salmon when the season opens. Large diesel boats seem to be particularly wanted and no vessels of this type should be idle. Pilehead reduction plants on the west coast of Vancouver Island will also draw a number of boats from Prince Rupert for packing this season.

The well known power cruiser "28," formerly the forestry boat Leila R., which was taken to Vancouver last fall by the Prince Rupert Salvage & Towing Co., was sold soon after her arrival in the south.

Making Good

Bert Hanson and Charlie Wallace, who have established a shellfish exporting business here with headquarters on the Edward Lipsett Prince Rupert, Ltd., floats, report that success is attending the undertaking and rapid expansion is anticipated. Crabs, shrimps, clams and soles are now being shipped as far east as Winnipeg and to such intermediate points as Edmonton, Prince George, Smithers, Terrace, etc., and there is an active demand for the product. While most of the product is cooked before shipment, a certain number of crabs are being sent alive to Vancouver and it is an interesting sight to see anywhere from a hundred dozen crabs swimming and clambering around in the tanks on the local waterfront. The concern now has three boats fishing crabs and one shrimps with another for claims. The crab boats are also netting soles.

The Seattle Fishing Vessel Owners' Association has elected the following officers for the year: President, Fred J. Sorenson; vice-president, Jacob Engdahl; secretary, H. S. Johnson; trustees, John Hanson, Ingvald Hansen, C. Serwold, Jacob Engdahl and A. Eliassen. L. A. Sandstrom retired as president after three years' faithful service.

Doc Clapperton of the Government Wharf was glad to be home this week, even if it was back to work and frozen water pipes. Doc is a very hardy individual and it takes a lot to shock him but the cold weather at Prince George, where he spent two weeks' holiday, was just a little too much for his tough hide. When Doc leaves before a game is ended there must be some very good reason for it. Nobody ever heard of him doing anything like that at home but, nevertheless, he quit a hockey game at Prince George. Yes, it was forty below zero and the air was cold. Before the cold drove him in, however, he had decided which side was going to win. Prince Rupert this week was quite frigid enough for Doc, thank you. Prince George may be a nice place in summer but even the warm hospitality of its people can hardly make up for its chilly winters.

Courage Recognized

Capt. Peter Wold, who is well known here, and his halibut schooner Attu are pictured in the current number of the Pacific Fisherman and a full page spread recognizes his courage and seamanship in his recent action in going to the rescue of the tug Roosevelt off Wessels Reef, near Middleton Island, Alaska, on Christmas Day. This was not the first time that Capt. Wold had made a rescue at sea under hazardous circumstances. Years ago, before he entered the halibut fishery, a big oil tanker, which had broken down in a heavy storm in the Gulf of Mexico, was brought to safety through his efforts after the crew had decided to abandon the vessel.

Getting New Engine

The Prince Rupert Salvage & Towing Co. is about to install a new 120 h.p. Continental Van Blerk engine with 3-1 reduction gear in its harbor boat Naas River in place of the present 200 h.p. motor of the same make with direct drive. The installation work will be started shortly at the dry dock where the Naas River has been tied up for the winter. The new engine will make the Naas River a quiet and, at the same time, speedy vessel for the Salt Lake run in which she specializes during the summer time.

Morris Blott, popular manager of Edward Lipsett (Prince Rupert) Ltd., was in the throes of house moving on Thursday from the Brookbank Apartment to the Edward Lipsett residence on Graft Hill which he has purchased. Morris had our sincere sympathy for we know what it is to move.

The Star Welding has completed a general overhaul of the engine on Capt. John Orvik's halibut boat Balsac and is now about to install a dry exhaust and generally renovate the motor on Capt. Charlie Edwards' W. T.

The Star Welding has been awarded the contract to carry out all iron work on the new halibut boat which is being built at the McLean Yard for Capt. Merrill Sollows and will also renovate and install on the vessel the 30 h.p. Atlas-Imperial engine from Capt. Nels Petersen's Ternan.

George Ladicos, well known old time troller, has purchased an 8 h.p. rebuilt Imperial engine from the Star Welding for installation in his trolling boat Penelope.

It is estimated that it will be about a month before Y. Suehiro, Cow Bay boatbuilder, has completed the new 50-foot halibut boat for Capt. Jud Thurber. It is likely that the 30 h.p. Frisco-Standard engine from the boat Caygeon, which was burned at Butedale last year, will be installed in this new boat instead of the 20 h.p. Atlas engine which Capt. Thurber had originally planned taking from the Muirneag. The latter vessel is being offered for sale as she stands—or rather floats.

Hunting Closes

Capt. Jack Lindsay and party aboard the Irene L. wound up the bird hunting season in great style by visiting Big Bay and bringing home with them half a dozen geese and a large number of ducks. They had missed hardly a week-end since the season opened so were not going to be found napping on the last one. Dave Stuart, Doc Cade and Ernie Anderson, visiting Delusion Bay with the Tasekwa, did not do so well for they were unable to scare up a single feather. But half of the pleasure of this hunting business is in the outfitting, they say, and, far be it from us to suggest "sour grapes."

Dr. T. W. Kergin and party of friends embarked on Thursday afternoon aboard the big power tug Fall Moon for a trip to Zayas Island with supplies for the sheep ranch. They are due to return to port on Sunday.

The halibut boat Caygeon, which was burned and sank at Butedale last summer and was subsequently salvaged by the Prince Rupert Salvage & Towing Co., has been placed on a cradle at Digby Island, pending sale of the hull. The derelict had been tied up for some time at the salvage company's floats.

Prince Rupert Salvage & Towing Co. reports the sale to H. J. O'Connell of the Cannery of a new 14 h.p. Easthope engine for installation in a new combination halibut boat and seiner, the building of which Tairo has just about completed.

For the most of the past week, during which skating was the vogue, local lovers of the ice missed the finest sheet that was offered in the neighborhood for their fun—namely the Salt Lake. Having found how good the ice was, the Prince Rupert Salvage & Towing Co. put on a service

Thursday night with the Salvage Princess across the harbor. Quite a few took advantage of this and spent a good evening on the ice.

Winter storms have taken out the dolphin at the float across the harbor leading to the Salt Lake. The float, itself, however, was intact and cables were installed to keep it in place pending the putting in of a new dolphin. G. K. Gwyer, new district engineer for the provincial department of public works, paid a visit to the scene on Thursday to see what could be done.

Lights Required

It is understood that the installation of two lights in the passage would bring about elimination of extra insurance charges with which cargo vessels using Hecate Straits for entrance to or egress from this port are at present penalized. One of these lights, it is authoritatively stated, should be located at Triangle Island to the north of Vancouver Island, where a few years ago there was a light and the other on Bonilla Island, outside of Banks Island. These aids to navigation would make the use of the passage a very simple matter. This being the case, every effort should be bent locally to having the authorities put them in. The Bonilla Island light would also be of great assistance to smaller vessels, including the fishing boats, which use the port.

The local halibut boat Cape Beale, Capt. Edgar Arnott, which spent the winter in Vancouver, has been in Ketchikan for the past two weeks undergoing engine overhaul preparatory to the opening of the fishing season. The Cape Beale had some special work to be done which could not be handled in Vancouver.

Forced Landing

The big halibut schooner Dorothy, under charter to the International Fisheries Commission for research work on the fishing grounds, had to put into Juneau from the Gulf of Alaska a few days ago to place ashore for hospital treatment the skipper, Capt. Ole Tyatum, who had been taken ill with an attack of influenza and did not respond to treatment on board the vessel. Latest reports from the north are that Capt. Tyatum is making satisfactory progress toward recovery although it may be a time yet before he is able to rejoin the vessel. Norman Freeman, Prince Rupert representative of the International Fisheries Commission, is one of the members of the scientific staff at present aboard the Dorothy.

LAST OF OLD WINDJAMMERS

British Barque Garthpool May Tie Up in Thames River As Museum

LONDON, Feb. 2.—The last of Britannia's famous old windjammers, the four-masted bark Garthpool, will anchor in the Thames and pass the rest of her days in quiet, peaceful waters if efforts are successful to save the old sailing vessel from ship-breakers.

Sole survivor of the nineteenth century square rigs on British registry, the Garthpool is a gallant example of the sturdy ships which carried the seaborne trade of the British Empire as a time when Britain and the United States competed under sail as they now do with steamships.

Anchored near Blackfriars Bridge, in the heart of London, the Garthpool would be either a museum or a training ship for mercantile marine cadets. In preserving the vessel Britain would be following the example of public-spirited citizens of America who enshrined the famous old whaleship Charles W. Morgan, near New Bedford, Mass., as a memorial to the industry which made New England famous. The honorable Company of Master Mariners in London wants to acquire the Garthpool for training purposes, but lacks funds.

Meanwhile, the old windjammer, still sound but a little slow in these speedy days of ocean craft, bravely plows outward bound in ballast for Australia. She was originally designed for the Calcutta-Dundee jute trade, but now hails from Montreal.

Children's Colds

are doubly dangerous after Flu

Physicians advise that the chief danger in this epidemic is AFTER influenza. Then, more than ever, colds attacking a child's weakened system may lead to bronchitis, pneumonia, sinus trouble, abscess of the ear, mastoiditis, or even the dead meningitis.

Check them Promptly Without "Dosing"

A peculiarity of influenza is that its toxins leave the digestive system upset. Too much "dosing" further disturbs the digestion and lessens the appetite, just when the child needs nourishment more than ever. Internal medication should therefore be avoided, except on the advice of a physician.

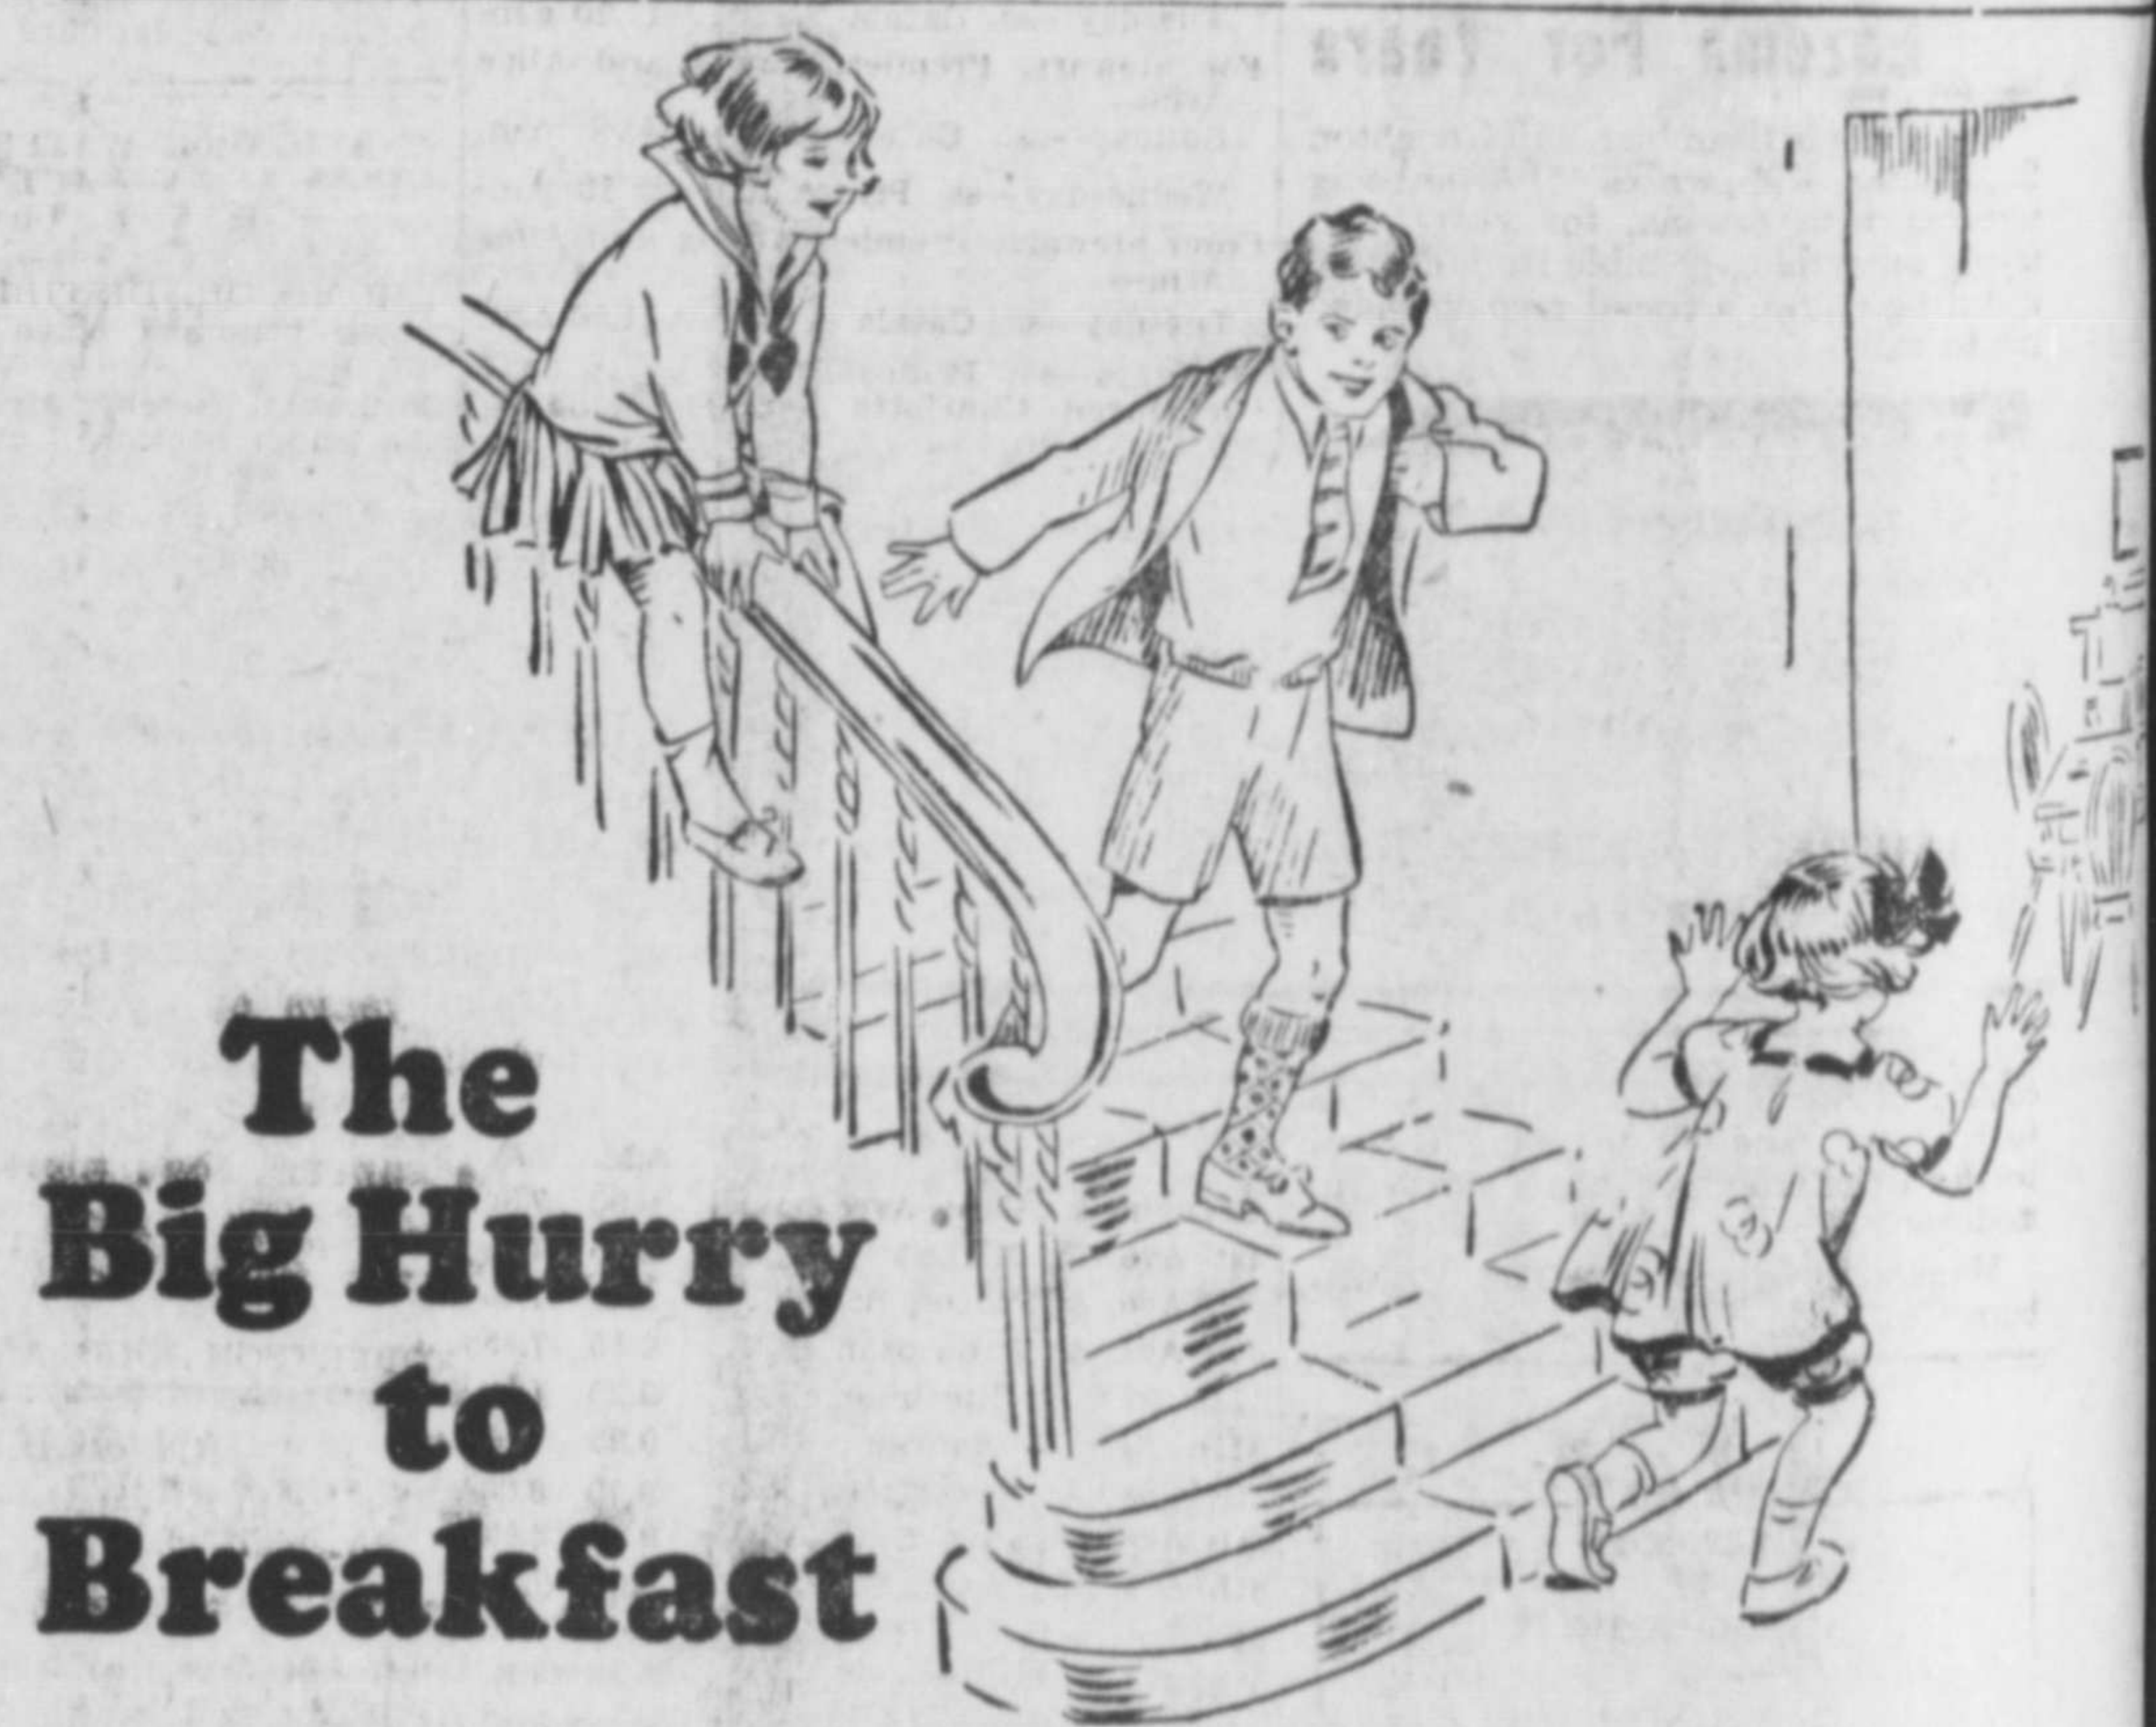

As Vicks VapoRub is applied externally, it can be used freely at the first sign of a cold with no fear of upsetting the most delicate stomach. Just rub it on the throat and chest at bedtime.

Vicks Acts 2 Ways at Once:

- (1) Its medicated vapors, released by the body warmth, are inhaled direct to the inflamed air-passages, loosening the phlegm and easing the difficult breathing.
- (2) At the same time, Vicks acts through the skin like a poultice "drawing out" tightness and soreness, and thus helping the vapor to break up the congestion.

Of course, Vicks 2-way action is just as effective for adults' cold-troubles as it is for those of children

NEWS OF NORTHERN B.C.

SMITHERS

Smithers curlers were unable to be represented at the big bonspiel which was held at Prince George at the end of last week.

Announcements have been received here of the marriage which will take place on Monday at Kamloops of George Roberts, who was formerly with the C. N. R. locomotive department here and at Prince Rupert. Mrs. Violet McLeod will be the bride.

Mrs. J. Kuniman of Francois Lake was admitted to the local hospital this week, suffering from gunshot wounds in her feet, the result of the accidental discharge of a shotgun.

Robert Kelly, pioneer settler of the Owen Lake country where he was engaged in stock raising and formerly in the butcher business in Smithers, passed away last Sunday in the local hospital following a lengthy illness. He was 58 years of age.

Through negotiations carried on by W. H. R. Lowe of Quick, Bulkley Valley farmers have received a permit from the Wheat Pool to dispose of fall wheat in British Columbia, owing to the peculiar conditions now existing.

Town business and transportation generally in the district has been slowed up on account of extremely cold weather. The thermometer went down as low as 40 below zero and has been unable to climb above 10 below.

H. Willis' Holstein "Dinah" was the leading butter fat producer of the Bulkley Valley Cow Testing Association for the month of January. She yielded 59.9 pounds of butter fat from 1380 pounds of milk.

Fred Watson has completed moving his grocery business into his fine new building here.

The influenza epidemic is still on in Smithers and there is hardly a local home that is not affected.

NFW HAZELTON

Miss Bulwer left at the first of the week for Dorreen where she will spend a couple of weeks recuperating from a recent operation.

HELIGOLAND ISLAND BEING WASHED AWAY

HELIGOLAND, Jan. 31.—This little German island, English North Sea outpost until 1890, has lost 13,000 square metres swallowed up by mountainous waves when recent fierce gales caused havoc along the west European coasts as far as Norway.

The damage done here and to the neighboring East Frisian island chain has led the Prussian survey department to appoint a commission to make a scientific study of the whole coast-line to ascertain if there is any dangerous acceleration in the gradual subsidence of the German North Sea shores.

It is known that the whole coast is sinking, but only at the rate of about 10 inches in the last 100 years. Coming investigations are expected to show whether the sinking process calls for extra precautions.

BACKED THE WINNER

Higgins—Hullo, Matthews, old chap! I hear you backed Perfect Fool at the races the other day and made a small fortune.

Matthews—Yes, I didn't do badly.

Higgins—How did you spot the winner?

Matthews—Oh, they were the last words my wife said to me as I left the house.—Tit-Bits.

DAILY NEWS' SHOPPING SERVICE for Out-of-Town Subscribers

To serve its women readers, and particularly those who live at a distance from a retail centre, The Daily News has instituted a Shopping Service. The Daily News is read by hundreds of women living far from any urban facilities for shopping and it is for these that this shopping service is primarily intended. Of course, The Daily News Shopper will attend to the man also, although he can buy a pair of braces anywhere. But not everywhere can a woman get a bit of lace matched—or a piece of embroidery thread—or the thousand and one things that make up the difference between a woman's wants and a man's.

The Prince Rupert Merchants Carry between them Stocks running up to $2,000,000

None of the Prince Rupert merchants can possibly advertise everything they carry in stock, but if the thing wanted is to be got in this city, our out-of-town readers may be sure that The Daily News Shopper will get it when asked for.

If any of our women readers cannot get what they want in their nearest store, all there is to do is to write to The Daily News Shopper, stating what is required with whatever details there may be, enclosing the cost, and if it is in Prince Rupert, The Daily News Shopper makes your purchase.

The halibut fishing vessels of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. are being tied up as a result of a disagreement over the amount which the men are to receive as their share in the proceeds on the company lay. The old agreement expired yesterday. If the men do not fish at the prices set, the company threatens to tie up the boats altogether.

Owing to the large amount of fish being offered, the halibut price here has taken a decided drop, the highest bid today being 15.6c and 12c. Boats in are the Tom and Al, Kodiak, Lebanon, Saturn, Helena, Volunteer, Verna, Nellie and Thelma.

"FAZIL" AT WESTHOLME

Beautiful Picture Shown Last Night and Will Be Repeated Tonight

For magnificent acting, sheer beauty of settings and dazzling costumes "Fazil," which will be repeated at the Westholme tonight, ranks as one of the best of the big pictures of its year.

Once again Prince Rupert picture-goers have the opportunity of seeing a famous photo-play before it is shown at the large movie houses in the big cities down south. Charles Farrell and Greta Nissen, the stars, have never done anything so fine.

The Prince Rupert Fairy Two, Enid Morris and Ruby Krikevsky, danced nicely and were warmly applauded last night. Great credit is due to Annie Gilchrist, their trainer.

Good comedies round out a first-class bill.

ADDRESSES ENJOYED AT SOCIAL EVENING

One Hundred and Fifty Persons Attended Lief Erikson Affair Last Night

Addresses by Rev. John Hanson, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, on pioneer days in the west and by John Dybhavn, Norwegian consul, on some of the modern inventions were interesting features of an enjoyable social evening which was held last night in the Metropole Hall by the Lief Erikson Society. There were about 150 persons present and the president, Karl Dybhavn, who occupied the chair, also spoke briefly. There was singing by a choral group under the leadership of T. Penness.

After delicious refreshments had been served by the ladies, dancing followed to accordion music. This brought the evening's proceedings to a close.

Einar Stockland was at the door and the program also included a reading by Mr. Penness and community singing. The proceedings opened with the singing of "O Canada."

RESOLUTIONS ARE PASSED AT BOARD MEETING

Government Asked To Install Radiophone at Digby Island and to Establish Fisheries Patrol

Three important resolutions were passed by the Board of Trade at its meeting last night, President Gonzales in the chair. They all came as recommendations from committees. One of these asked for a fisheries patrol, another for a radiophone at Digby Island and the third delayed any recommendation in regard to the Kitimaat road until a definite announcement is made in regard to the building of the railway to that place. The resolutions as passed were as follows:

Resolved, that this board petition the department of marine & fisheries, that in view of the inadequacy of the patrol service and lack of life-saving equipment in northern B. C. waters, the department investigate the feasibility of building a vessel suitable for these purposes, to be operated out of Prince Rupert. This to be telegraphed and copies sent to J. C. Brady, M.P., and O. Hanson.

Resolved, that the Prince Rupert Board of Trade send the following message to the department of marine & fisheries:

"We understand that the cost of installation of radio receiving phone set at Digby Island would be very reasonable stop. We strongly urge that the cost be ascertained and if possible the installation made this spring stop. The service would be an aid to navigation and also of assistance to commerce."

Resolved, that in view of the fact that no official definite announcement has yet been made, stating through which port, the coal when developed in the Copper River and Telkwa coal fields will pass, that the recommendation for the building of a road from Lakelse Lake to Kitimaat Arm be held in abeyance until such time as a definite announcement is forthcoming.

NEGOTIATING FOR AIRPLANE SERVICE

At the meeting of the Board of Trade last night Paul Armour stated that his firm was still negotiating in regard to an airplane service from this city and he hoped to be in a position to report at the next meeting of the board.

COLD WEATHER IS STILL HERE

Thermometer Last Night Went a Little Lower Than Night Previous; Skating Popular Sport

The official thermometer of the Dominion meteorologist at Digby Island went down a little lower last night than the night before, the lowest reading being 12 above zero, which was registered at 5 o'clock this morning. At 8 a.m. it was clear and calm with a slight tendency to wind from the northwest. The barometer stood at 30.10, or 10 points higher than at the same hour yesterday. The thermometer registered 15 above at 8 a.m. and the prospect was that the cold spell of eight days' duration now would extend over Sunday at least.

Skating was again a popular diversion at the lake on the Kaien Island highway last night and a large crowd was out. The sheet of ice, which is becoming rather cut up as a result of its steady use during the week, was illuminated by means of the headlights of cars. The Prince Rupert Salvage & Towing Co. will run trips to the Salt Lake tomorrow for skaters. There is a beautiful, smooth sheet of ice there and it is clear that it almost looks like the water itself. If present cold weather conditions continue, the Salt Lake should be well patronized tomorrow.

NOTHING DEFINITE ON PRINCE GEORGE POWER NEGOTIATION

Regarding a story which appears in the current issue of the Prince George Citizen that the Power Corporation of Canada had submitted an offer for the purchase of the electric light plant in the interior town, H.
