AMATEUR AND PROFESSIONAL HOCKEY CHAMPIONSHIPS

New York Rangers and Boston to Battle for Supremacy after Canada Had Been Eliminated from Stuggle

TORONTO, March 27.—The Stanley cup, emblematic of the professional hockey championship of the world, goes to either the New York Rangers or the Boston Bruins, each of which has eliminated all contenders in the semi-finals. The final games will be divided between New York and Boston.

The Rangers won the right to contend in the finals by eliminating Toronto Maple Leafs last night by means of an overtime goal made by Frank Boucher, the Rangers' centre, thus breaking a one to one deadlock. The two points were made by Blair and Bun Cook, respectively, one for each side. It was a lean harvest of scores, but the closeness of play made up for it, providing intense excitement right to the end, when Canada was banished from the hockey picture by the loss of the game by the Leafs.

St. Francois Xavier-Port Arthur Game Ends in Tie After Two Periods Overtime at Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, March 27.—The Allan cup, emblematic of the amateur hockey championship of Canada, is as much in doubt today as it was before the puck was faced off last night in the first of the big championship games between St. Francois Xavier, eastern titleholder, and Port Arthur, champion hockey team of the west. They played a one to one tie last night. The goals were secured in the first overtime period, but a second period failed to make any change.

In order to win the cup one of the teams must win two games, so at least two more games will have to be played in order to decide the championship of Canada.

Both teams were in excellent form last night and the battle was keenly contested and caused great excitement among the crowd of spectators watching it.

Around the World With Sport Fans

(By the Tramp)

While sports writers who attended the Jack Sharkey-Young Stribling bout at Miami Beach, Fla., agreed that it was a listless sort of an affair, it appears that they were easy on the participants in withholding the criticism as much as they did. Miami Life strongly condemns the out-of-town writers for the pre-bout ballyhoo and their failure to report the match as that paper saw it. Harry Emmett of Toronto, a spectator at the bout, has been in Miami Beach during the winter months and is in close touch with affairs there. He writes: "There is not a man I have met here, and I have talked to hundreds who were at the bout, who has a good word to say for either Sharkey or Stribling. They simply stalled, and Larry Gains, I feel, could 'take' either one in short order." At any event it is apparent that Sharkey and Stribling gave an exhibition that caused their stock in the heavyweight market to take a sharp drop. Stribling has lost much of his "solid of local teachers are planning to sail tomorrow night on the Prince George for Vancouver, where they will attend the annual provincial teachers' convention. Among those intending to go are Mrs. B. Walker, Miss Phyllis Lamb, Miss E. A. Mercer, Miss Jessie Tothwell, Mr. Sharples, Miss M. Hartin, J. S. Wilson, Miss M. Asthore, Miss Caroline Mitchell, Miss B. Rogers, Miss Alva Garrett, Miss Ruth Stewart and Eric Gee.

V. Crockett, principal at Smithers, and D. J. Hartley, principal at Anyox, are also expected to go south for the convention.

BERT KERGIN ON WAY NORTH FROM THE LEGISLATURE

Brings Word That T. D. Pattullo Will Visit His Constituents in Near Future

H. F. Kergin, M.L.A. for Atlin, is a passenger aboard the Prince George today, returning to his home at Alice Arm after having attended the recent session of the legislature at Victoria. Mr. Kergin brings word that T. D. Pattullo, member for Prince Rupert and leader of the opposition, is coming north as soon as possible to visit his constituents here.

HOCKEY GAME ON TONIGHT

Seattle Will Play Portland Again Tonight After Beating Them Monday

SEATTLE, March 27.—Seattle Eskimos will play the return game against Portland Buckaroos for the right to meet Vancouver and play for the championship of the Pacific coast, Monday night. Seattle won two goals to one, but for the two-game series the number of goals scored will decide the issue. Monday's game was hard fought, but the Eskimos had the better of their opponents in the second and third periods. The Buckaroos scored their only goal in the first period. Seattle tied them in the second and secured the winning point in the third.

Sport Chat

These are the dull days between conclusion of winter indoor sports and summer outdoor activity. About all the fans have to do now is talk of prospects. There is not even a box fight in sight, Dido Garvich stating that he has abandoned the ring temporarily to devote his whole attention to his new 32 taxi business. The tail end of the badminton season is all that is going to be doing for a little while just now with a little activity in billiards and carpet bowling. Soon football and baseball organizations should be getting under way. It is not known as yet whether or not the first soccer game of the season will, as usual, be played on Victoria Day.

All the ballyhoo of Bankville can't build Max Schmeling and Pauline Urcudun into the million-dollar gate classification, opines Andy Lytle of the Vancouver Sun. Possibly that glory, if any, departed with the retirement of Gentleman Gene and the desertion of Jousting Jack from the squared circles. There is no Bradstreet rating available of the champions who have amassed their million, but you can write "Jansney and Dempsey off in history as the only pair in Flistiana o amass that sum from direct ring earnings. John L. may have gathered half a million in his time, but he spent it much faster than it came to him. Jim Corbett, much thriftier, lived too soon to get into the important money, and the same is true of the greatest of them all, Bob Fitzsimmons. Jack Johnson was never allowed to make much money and Jess Willard's entire cut wouldn't pass the half million. Jim Jeffries got $101,000 for his flitful showing against Johnson and that ilk, pummel each other at forty dollar tops.

- October 30—Cambridgeshire Stakes, one mile and one furlong, Newmarket.
- October 31—Jockey Club Cup, two and one-quarter miles, Newmarket.
- November 8—Liverpool Autumn Cup, one mile and three furlongs, Liverpool.
- November 15—Derby Gold Cup, one and three-quarter miles, Derby.
- November 23—Manchester November Handicap, one and one-half miles, Manchester.

Smart and Dependable

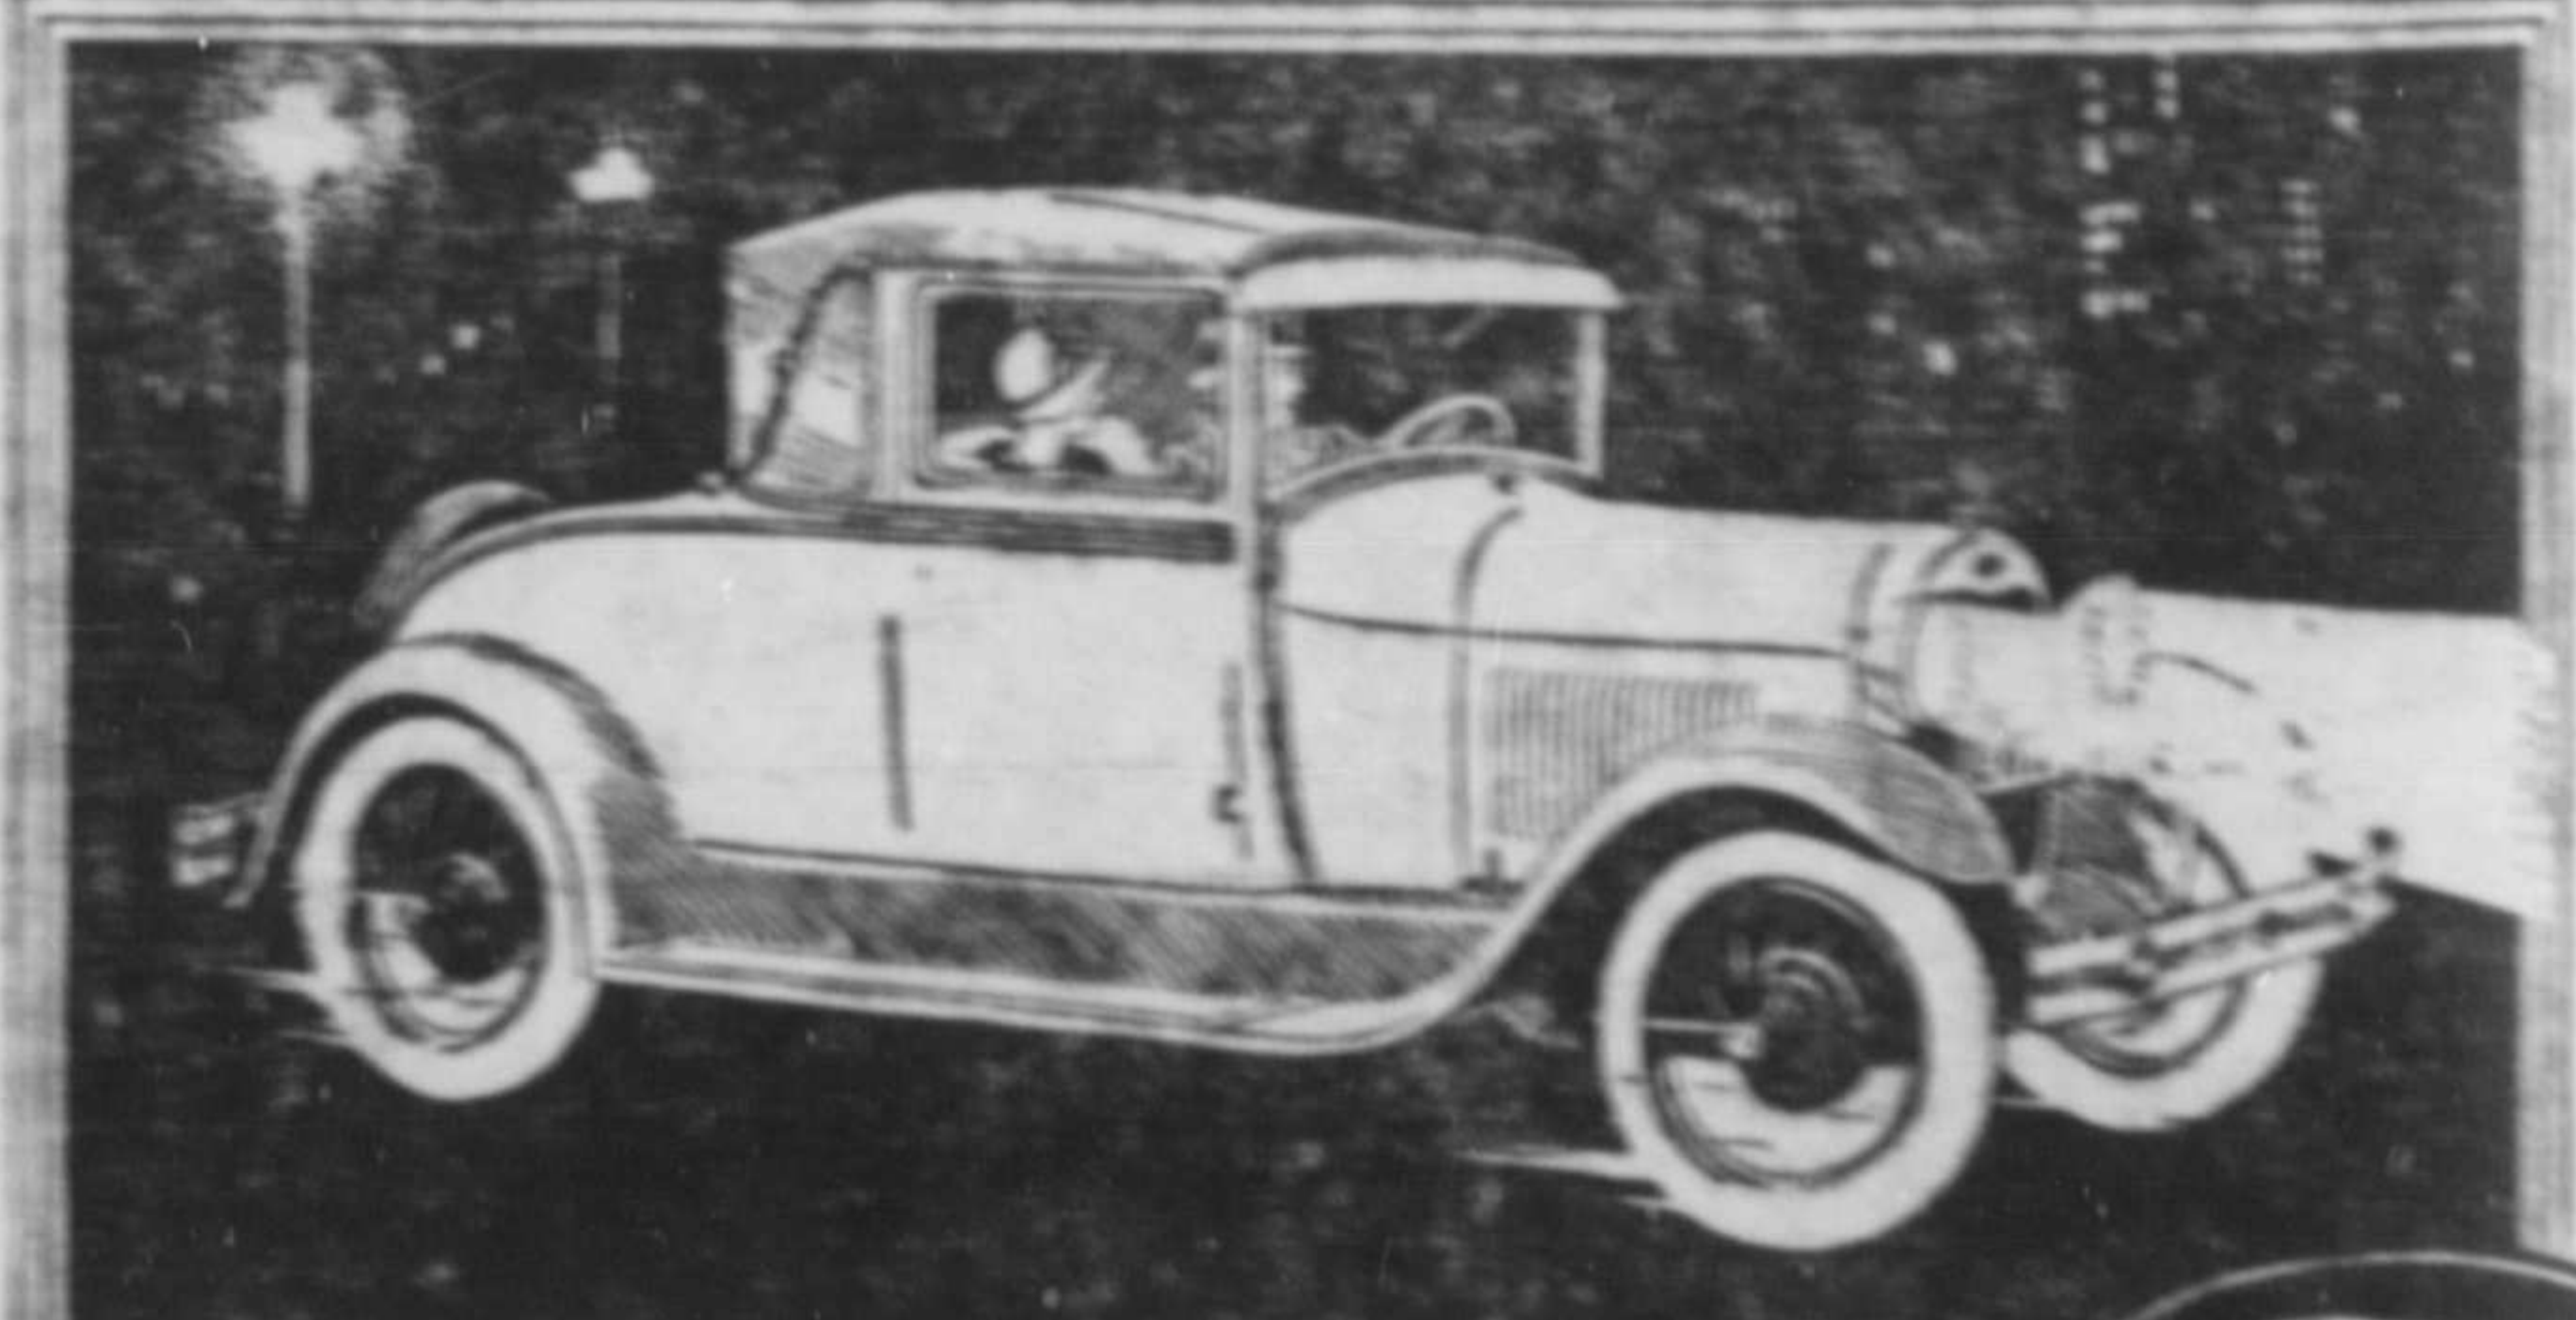

PEOPLE who buy only fine things select the Ford car because it is correct in every graceful line and because it is absolutely dependable. They recognize Ford quality, not only as the highest degree of excellence at a fixed and moderate price, but also as an expression of the ideal of its builders.

The Ford car is a tribute to superb craftsmanship which has brought to its highest point the modern method of standardized manufacture. This means that every Ford car is made by precision machinery more accurately than it could be fashioned by the hand of man. And those who are in a position to judge true worth are among the first to take advantage of this economic situation, that places the finest light motor car in their possession at a very low price.

BEAUTY—The beauty of the Ford car is of the thoroughbred type—quiet, dignified—that grows upon you and never tires the eye. For there is not a hint of over-embellishment or suggestion of attention-seeking display in the entire car.

SERVICE—No matter where you live or where you go, every Ford dealer is your dealer—specially trained and equipped to provide prompt, intelligent, forward-looking service that will lengthen the life of your car and give you many more miles of pleasant, enjoyable motoring.

TIME PAYMENT—If you prefer to buy out of income, you will find the authorized time payment plan offered by all Ford dealers most attractive.

LLOYD GEORGE POLICIES

Canadian people have been much interested in the political situation in Great Britain and an effort has been made to keep local readers posted on the outstanding features. The most important of these was the recent announcement of Lloyd George of a new policy of development designed to do away with unemployment by diverting the dole money to productive work. It is the only constructive program yet put forward by a British statesman during the past few lean years during which production has been at a low ebb. The policy seems to have evoked considerable enthusiasm in different parts of the country and has brought out the criticism of Premier Baldwin and the statement from Ramsay Maedonald that Labor also will have a constructive policy. The policy was given to 400 Liberal candidates in a pre-campaign gathering and was received by them as a battle-cry for the elections which would help them in their struggle to sustain their position as one of the great parties of the kingdom. Mr. Runciman and Sir Herbert Samuel spoke in support of it. The statement exactly as made by the former war premier follows:

"I will tell you what I am prepared to do. I am prepared to give a definite pledge with regard to unemployment. This is very important. I have considered even the very words of it. That is why I will not give it to you except in the very words which my colleagues and I will stand by. After going into the matter very carefully with colleagues who, like myself, have spent years in working out these problems with experts, I am prepared to make this statement:

"If the nation entrusts the Liberal party at the next general election with the responsibilities of government, we are ready with schemes of work which we can put immediately into operation, work of a kind which is not merely useful in itself but essential to the well-being of the nation. The work put in hand will reduce the terrible figures of the workless in the course of a single year to normal proportions, and will, when completed, enrich the nation and equip it for successfully competing with all its rivals in the business of the world. These plans will not add one penny to the national or local taxation.

"It will not require a great and sustained effort to redeem this pledge, but some of us sitting at this table have succeeded in putting through even greater and more difficult tasks in the interests of the nation."

HIT AND RUN DRIVER

(Nelson News)

T. L. Church, one of Toronto's members in the federal house, has at times made proposals at Ottawa which were not notable for their soundness, but he is on the right track in demanding exemplary punishment for "hit and run" automobile drivers.

Some of his other proposals for punishment of offending drivers need examination, but there should be no mercy for the driver who injures any person and then runs away.

MINISTER WILL REMAIN LONGER

Rev. T. Ivon Jones to Be in Charge of Presbyterian Pulpit Until July 1

After most acceptably filling the pulpit of First Presbyterian Church in this city, for the months of February and March, Rev. T. Ivon Jones, M.A. (Oxon), has been approached by the session and board of managers regarding his willingness to accept a call as minister to the congregation. Though not at present meeting with sufficient encouragement from Mr. Jones to proceed further in this respect, it is gratifying to the session, board of managers and congregation, to be able to look forward to a few more months of his able, thoughtful preaching, and to the opportunity of more intimately becoming acquainted with one who has already won a large share of their esteem and affection.

REV. T. IVON JONES

Arrangements have been made whereby Mr. Jones has agreed to remain in Prince Rupert as stated supply until July 1. It is earnestly hoped that during these additional three months, the attachment between minister and people may become sufficiently strong, and the desire and need of the church sufficiently urgent to warrant the former accepting a call. Meantime, to Mr. Jones, as stated supply, is accorded all the rights and privileges, together with all the duties and responsibilities, of a regular settled minister of the city.

From papers recently made available to the congregation by the General Assembly's commission for the reception of ministers into the Presbyterian Church of Canada, it is learned that Rev. T. Ivon Jones has had an excellent training for the Christian ministry. He studied first at the University of Wales, graduating with honors in Greek. Subsequently he studied in Oxford at Jesus College and at Mansfield College, taking his M. A. with honors in Theology. Three years ago he published a short but exceptionally able handbook in Welsh, on the "Acts," a book which at once found favor as a text book in the Presbyterian Church of Wales.

He has held two pastorates in Wales, one Welsh, the other English, in both of which he met with complete success. From his latter congregation in Glamorgan-shire, an influential church of 250 communicants with ten elders, to which he had ministered for seven years, come testimonials bearing witness to a very deep affection between minister and people, and to the grief of the latter of his decision to emigrate to Canada. Special mention is made of his deeply earnest work among the young people, of his high standard of Christian living and of the power of the spoken word of his ministry.

Highly Commended

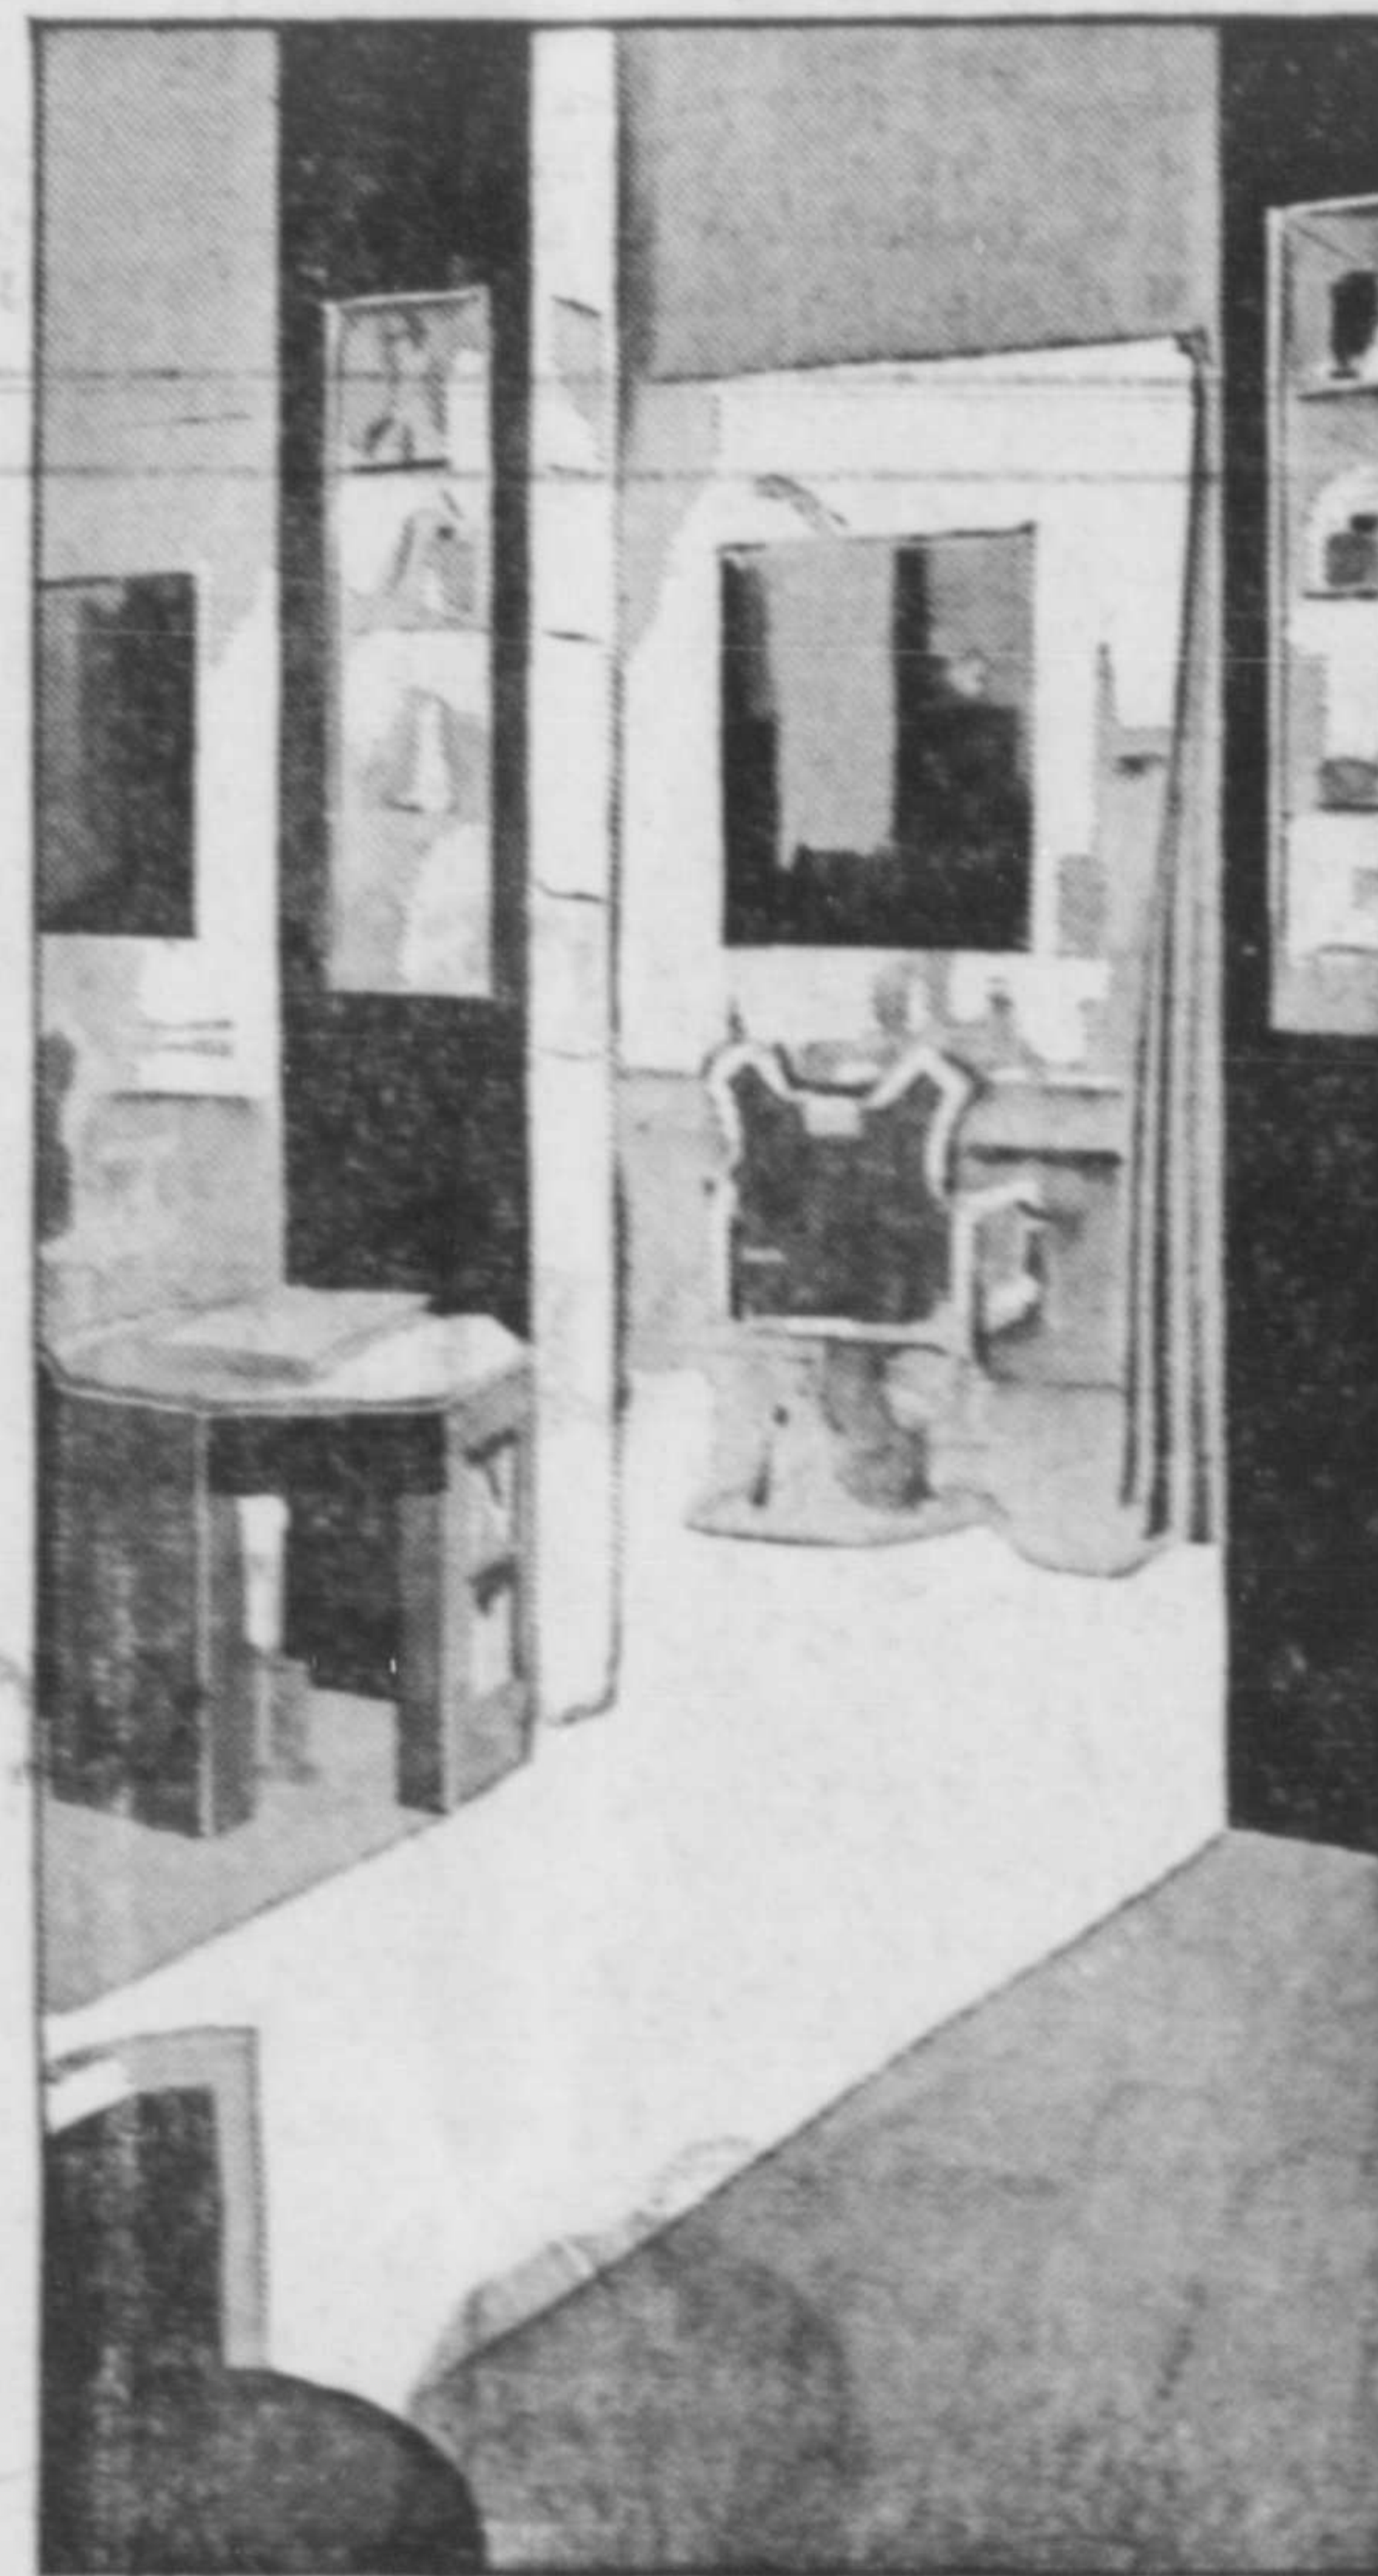

In commending him to the Presbyterian Church in Canada, Rev. E. O. Davies, Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Wales, says: "It is with great sorrow that we think of losing Mr. Jones from our ministry, but the loss of

In Paris, VINCENT

Internationally Known Beauty Authority

advocates this one basic skin treatment

Parisian specialist advises his patrons how to keep the skin beautiful by a simple treatment based on soap of palm and olive oils

Modern lighting fixture of genuine glass, simple, angular furniture of modern line, smart glass cases displaying elegant toiletries - these are high lights in the establishment Vincent de Paris. The relaxed tilt flooring, the brilliance of sparkling glass form a fascinating background for the smart paragon of this well-known Parisian beauty salon.

"Age, we find, has less to do with the deterioration of the complexion than have the improper methods of skin care frequently employed at home. Therefore, we urge all our clients to wash the face daily with one soap and only one . . . the soap made of oils of palm and olive."

Vincent, recognized authority on beauty, heads an exclusive establishment on the Rue Royale, that smart little avenue leading from the Madeleine to La Place Concorde in Paris.

Vincent

20 RUE ROYALE PARIS

THE establishment of Vincent, in Paris, owes its present high repute not only to the charming and tastefully appointed interior but to the great skill and artistry of its presiding head - Vincent. Much of his time is given to consultations on the care of the skin.

"There is no real reason," says Vincent, "why a woman in middle life, or even of advanced years, should not retain the charm of a clear, blooming skin."

"We urge all our clients to wash with the special soap blending oils of palm and olives . . . after which we advocate the use of Vincent Night Skin Cream, which fortifies and completes the effect of this unique soap."

What these oils do for skin

Necessity for "the daily elimination of all pore-clogging dust, powder and rouge" is stressed by Vincent. To free the pores of impurities, to keep the texture firm, the color fresh - recognized authorities all over the world agree on one basic treatment.

In London, Madame Jacobson, beauty advisor to Royalty, in Berlin, Elise Bock, Middle Europe's distinguished expert, in Vienna, Pessi; in Paris, Cavalieri and all the other leading authorities . . . every one says: wash for beauty with Palmolive Soap.

The 2-minute treatment prescribed

The experts all agree on these steps to skin loveliness: with both hands, rub up a smooth lather of Palmolive Soap and warm water. Massage this into the skin, letting it work into the pores for about 2 minutes. Rinse, first with warm water, then with cold. As an astringent, an ice-water rinse is refreshing.

Perhaps the very simplicity of this treatment is one reason for its tremendous popularity. Palmolive is today one of the two leading soaps in France - and first of all in 48 countries beside Canada.

A practical formula combining the precious oils of palm and olive, famous since the days of Cleopatra for prolonging health and beauty.

MANSON NAMED FOR HIGH POST

Former Conservative M.L.A. and Mayor of City Boosted For Deputy Minister of Finance

Reports emanating from Victoria state that William Manson, former M. L. A. for this riding and second mayor of Prince Rupert, is to be made deputy minister of finance, succeeding E. D. Johnson, former city treasurer here, who is to be promoted to the position of financial adviser to the government.

Mr. Manson has had long experience in public life. For several years he was mayor of Nanaimo, Vancouver Island, and at one time sat for that riding in the legislature. He is also a former minister of agriculture. He came north more than twenty years ago and was government agent at Port Simpson and later at Prince Rupert when the office was moved to this city. Then he again entered politics and represented this riding in the legislature. He was defeated in 1916 by T. D. Pattullo in the big Liberal landslide and moved shortly thereafter to Vancouver where he has followed the accounting business, also being president of the Vancouver Conservative Association last year.

Of a quiet and genial disposition, Mr. Manson has many friends in the ranks of both political parties and his appointment as deputy minister of finance would, no doubt, receive general approbation.

Work of I.O.D.E. in Prince Rupert Has Been One of Achievement Since Formation 19 Years Ago

Just 19 years ago a few ladies in Prince Rupert made application for and were granted a charter from the provincial chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, authorizing the founding of a primary chapter in what was then thought to be the coming city of the last great west. The names of these charter members were Mesdames Du Vernet, McLennan, McLeod, W. Manson, A. McIntyre, O. H. Nelson and G. R. Naden and Misses and Des Barras, and the chapter was named "Queen Mary" Chapter after the present queen, whose coronation was shortly to take place. The first regent of this chapter was Mrs. C. A. Eggert, and many ladies soon became members. The objects of the order were always kept in view during those early years, and amongst other things done by them was the complete equipping of a ward in the Prince Rupert General Hospital, since known as "Queen Mary Ward."

In 1912 at the auction sale of city lots held by the Government in the Westholme Theatre, through the courtesy of the B. C. Government and the kind indulgence of the general public, the chapter acquired at the upset price of $5,000, two building lots on Fifth Avenue, borrowing the money to make their first payment of one quarter cash—$1250.

When war broke out in 1914, the borrowed money having been repaid, and the taxes paid on the property, the chapter now devoted all its time and energies to war work, and later on, after the formation of the Red Cross Society, worked in conjunction with that body. Other chapters now began to be formed—"Hill 60" Chapter, formed in 1915 and named after the famous battle where the Canadian troops displayed such prowess and heroism; "Adair Carss" Chapter, formed in 1917 and named in honor of a young promising Prince Rupert lad who made the supreme sacrifice for his country, and the "Girl Guides" a junior chapter formed about the same date. Every member of these four chapters did a little bit to help in the great struggle for freedom.

In 1918 the senior chapter, "Queen Mary" made application, that a charter be granted to form a municipal chapter, and this was acceded, the first Municipal Regent being Mrs. J. C. McLennan. To give the chapter a start financially, Mr. McLennan made them a present of the sum of $85.

During the war years the interest on the unpaid balance on the city lots acquired by Queen Mary Chapter, had accumulated, until at the time of forming the

BRITAIN ALONE REDUCES ARMY

Secretary of War Points Out U. S., Italy, Germany, France and Russia Increased

LONDON, March 26:—Great Britain is the only country in the world which can show a reduction in military expenditures during the past five years, according to comparative figures cited in the House of Commons recently by Rt. Hon. Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, secretary of state for war. In five years the annual cost of Great Britain's army has dropped 11 per cent. In the same period the expenditure of the United States has increased by $40,000,000; of Italy by $50,000,000; of Germany by $25,000,000; of France by $120,000,000, and in Soviet Russia the total budget for army, navy and air force had increased by $200,000,000.

"That is the answer," said the secretary for war, "to those who call upon this country to give a lead in the matter of disarmament. It has only been possible by the devoted efforts of all officers in the cause of economy." Drastic as had been the economies effected in the British Army, they had not precluded modernization, Sir Laming explained. Modernization of armies meant mechanization, a process which had begun in 1921 and now covered every branch of the service in varying degrees. In this respect, he remarked, his own special sphere, the Royal Tank Corps, had a just claim to pre-eminence in strategy and equipment.

A STRIKING TEXT

Building Fund

Its next problem was the erection of a building and for that purpose a building fund was started in 1920, which by the generous cooperation of the various chapters in staging carnivals, vaudeville shows, dances, bridges and other forms of entertainment, capital grew, till in 1923 it amounted to well over $3000. The building of a hall was now considered. Plans were discussed and approved, and finally, in the fall of 1925, the building was opened. Financial obligations, incurred during the erection of the building, exceeded the cash on hand, necessitating the raising of money on mortgage to pay these outstanding bills, and it was burning of this mortgage which was the culmination of ten years of very creditable effort on the part of the local order. During those ten years the chair of Municipal Chapter was held by the following ladies and in the order named: Mrs. J. C. McLennan, the late Mrs. F. G. Dawson, Mrs. S. P. McMordie, Mrs. A. F. Parkin, Mrs. R. Blance and Mrs. S. Darton.

In addition to all this should be mentioned the $800 spent by the Municipal Chapter in 1919 and 1920 on furnishing and equipping a nursery in the Prince Rupert General Hospital, a work which has been a great comfort to the doctors and nurses and has been appreciated by the mothers as well as the babies themselves.

The individual chapters also have done their part in patriotic, charitable and educational directions. The Adair Carss Chapter has also in the hospital a ward, which they have furnished and look after. More especially should be mentioned the soldiers' plot, looked after and maintained by the same chapter, a noble tribute to those men who gave their best. Hill 60 Chapter has devoted most of its efforts during the past few years to furnishing and maintaining a children's ward in the Prince Rupert General Hospital, another truly noble work.

Service and love of country are the watchwords of the order, and in Prince Rupert, the local chapters are worthily upholding this tradition, and are taking their little part in the building of a united Canada, and a United Empire.

W. D. VANCE IS FAIR MANAGER

Received Appointment at Meeting of Exhibition Board Last Night—Committees Named

The Fair Board, meeting last night, appointed W. D. Vance to be managing secretary of the Prince Rupert Exhibition for the year 1929. Mr. Vance was actively identified with the staging of last year's fair and for some time has been active in exhibition affairs.

The suggestion was strongly advanced at the meeting that native hand contests should be revived this year and substantial cash prizes be offered. The matter was referred to the sports and attractions committee for report.

The question of other attractions was taken up and there was a general discussion on this and a number of other matters. It is planned to lose no time in launching this year's exhibition arrangements. It is not likely that a stampedie will be held this year.

Committees Named

Committees were appointed as follows by President A. J. Prudhomme, the first named in each case to be chairman:

THIEVES ARE AT WORK ON WATERFRONT

The popular belief that the pirate and buccaneer no longer exist in these highly civilized days receives a lusty knock when a visit is paid to see the amazing motion picture "The River Pirate." This sensational film depicts the exploits of modern corsairs along New York's waterfront. Stealing ropes, chain and other things used at sea from one boat and selling them to others is a nefarious trade which has gone on for many years and is still going on despite all attempts to stop it.

"The River Pirate" shows faithfully the desperate battles between the forces of law and order and ruthless desperadoes engaged in this form of piracy with a little smuggling thrown in. A sweet romance runs throughout the story.

Played by an all-star cast, which includes Victor McLaglen, Nick Stuart and Lois Moran, the picture is both interesting and thrilling. A Jack Duffy comedy and a gazette round out a fine bill. Synchronized music with sound effects will accompany all through.

Between shows local vaudeville will appear, Emil Hudema in cornet solos and the Bussanich Brothers in instrumental duets.

A good time is assured for everyone.

Inspector William Spiller, provincial police, returned to the city on yesterday afternoon's train from a trip to Smithers on official duties.

FAMOUS SCREEN LOVERS IN THRILLING ROMANTIC DRAMA

Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky In "Two Lovers" At Capitol Tonight

"Two Lovers" with Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky as its leading players, comes to the Capitol Theatre tonight and Thursday, as Samuel Goldwyn's final and farewell presentation of the most famous quiet in screen history.

Laid against the ever-stirring background of war, "Two Lovers" tells the story of Mark Van Rycke, son of the patrician burgo-master of Ghent, and of his secret adventures as "Leatherface," mysterious and faithful aid to William, Prince of Orange, who seeks to lead the enslaved country of Flanders to freedom from the oppressing hands of the Spaniards. Wild night rides, hair-raising duels (of wit as well as of sword) reveal Ronald Colman, as "Leatherface," in a role more colorful and varied than any he has ever attempted.

Vilma Banky is Lenora, the Flower of Spain, niece of the Duke of Azar, oppressor of the Flemish and commandant of the Spanish. Her royal kinsman weds her to Mark in a gorgeous ceremony, rich in the medieval ceremony of Flanders, a bride of state. Loathing him as her enemy and forced mate, she comes to respect him—for he refuses his marriage privileges. Just when she begins to love him, Lenora makes a discovery about Mark that causes her to hate him. How she betrays and delivers him into the hands of the Spaniards, and then, discovering her mistake, joins the heroic efforts of Mark and his countrymen in their final battle through the swamps for freedom, ending in the assault on the impregnable Kasteel, are among the high spots of the picture.

The Vancouver Evening Sun carrier boys enjoyed a banquet given in their honor by Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Slettum last Friday evening at the Commodore Cafe. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McRae were also entertained there. Music and other amusements were also enjoyed.

Those present were: Dido Stintich, Donald Allstone, Floyd Eby, Clarence Dixon, Reider Jacobson and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McRae.

Mr. and Mrs. Slettum left on Saturday for points east, and will later take up residence in Vancouver.

R. E. Allen, district forester, who has been conducting examinations at interior points for assistant forest rangers, returned to the city on yesterday afternoon's train.
