Ys Creek Mooted

Plans in Hays Creek gully at Ys were suggested by Ald. Frizzell at last night's meeting, was unanimously passed as a "good idea." A program might be completed within five years. Ald. Frizzell contended and it would be the expense of a new bridge. This support of the suggestion. Ald. George Casey said he thought the idea was "feasible as practical" and that state surveys should be made for such a project. Frizzell suggested that the concrete pillars on Canada National Railway property, demolished shortly, would be "excellent fill." After earth from excavations would be dumped in from time to time.

New Consulting Hydro Engineer

New water line and a fire line will be installed at the United States Army administration building which is under reconstruction as an apartment block. Approval of an estimate of $2000 for this work was granted last night at council meeting. George Casey, board of works chairman, also received approval of his recommendation. P. C. Stewart of Vancouver obtained as a consulting engineer when the city begins work for its new $500,000 water line.

The consultant would $50 a day and expenses. Superintendent of Works D. C. Stewart is to draw up plans and specifications for the system. It will then be inspected by consulting engineer subject to alteration and advice. Following this the plans have to be approved by the provincial works department. Support of his motion, Ald. Frizzell said: "I think we should get plans set up before embarking on such a major project." Understood, he said, that the estimate expenses involved obtaining services of Engineering Stewart would be about $10,000.

BAKER'S WITNESS—Donald Gordon, president of the C.N.R., enters a Calgary court-room as witness for the bakeries during hearings of the alleged bread combine. Mr. Gordon testified that as chairman of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board he had assured the bakers that persons acting in accordance with the board's policy "could regard themselves as not being liable for prosecution under any other act." Hearing was adjourned until May 28. At right in this photo is defence lawyer S. B. Smith of Edmonton, at rear are defence counsel C. W. Brazier, Vancouver, and H. G. Nolan of Calgary. (CP PHOTO)

Charles Biggart Passes in South

Charles Robert Biggart, for many years engaged in the bakery business in Prince Rupert, passed away in Vancouver last week. The funeral took place in Shelton, Washington, with interment beside deceased's wife. Mr. Biggart, who left Prince Rupert some years ago, was 74 years of age. He has one sister in California and another sister and a brother in Toronto. E. Robertson, J. Locke and W. Baker, all of B. C. Packers, left for Vancouver today on the Camosun.

Reds Are Reversed

ROME (CP)—The anti-Communist coalition has broken the extreme left wing hold on Italy's Red North. Incomplete returns today indicate that Premier Alcide de Gasperi's Atlantic Pact front has given the Reds their worst beating in five years in the provincial elections. The Communists were kicked out of five provincial capital administrations they had held since 1943. The elections involved about one-third of Italy and such important industrial cities as Milan, Genoa and Venice.

Miners Are Entombed

SEVENTY-NINE MEN TRAPPED
Deep Down in British Colliery
EASINGTON, England (CP)—A violent explosion entombed 79 miners early today deep in an Easington coal pit. Hours later rescuers recovered eight bodies and brought one injured man to the surface. Teams of rescuers toiled in non-stop shifts to move tons of rock and debris shaken loose by a blast 900 feet underground in hopes of rescuing alive 70 men who were still trapped. By early afternoon rescue parties had driven through more than 300 yards of debris. Mining officials said that the coal face, where it is believed the majority of the men are trapped, is still another 700 yards away. Fresh air is being forced down through neighboring seams in the hopes that it would filter through to the men. A violent blast blew two men clear of tumbling debris. One said he was lifted and tossed 60 yards down a tunnel. Another said he was thrown 20 to 30 yards. "A great cloud of black gas" poured down the shaft, said George Williams, twin-brother of 19-year-old Matthew Williams, who was first brought out alive. The explosion caught the miners just as the day shift was relieving night workers about a mile and a quarter from the bottom of the pit. Cause of the disaster was not known.

Coalition Staying

VANCOUVER (CP)—Possibility of an early break-up of British Columbia's coalition government was ruled out by Premier Byron Johnson in an address Monday night. "This government has two more years to serve and, as your Premier and leader of the Liberal party, it is my intention to carry out the mandate which the electors gave us two years ago. Our program at the time was expansion in the industrial life of this province and maintaining a reasonably high degree of social service which has been associated with your government over a long period of years." Starting with the Aluminum Co. of Canada development, the Premier reviewed a number of industrial projects recently commenced or completed in the province. Projects cited included the Columbia Cellulose Co. pulp plant at Prince Rupert.

Iran Is On Alert Today for Communist Demonstrations

TEHRAN (CP)—Tanks and troop-laden trucks rumbled through this tense capital today as Iran's government braced itself for Communist-called "anti-imperialist" demonstrations through the land. Hundreds of troops poured into the city to reinforce regular police which had already been put on the alert for demonstrations. Occasion for the Red agitation is the 18th anniversary of the signing of the rich oil concession to the British-controlled Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. which Parliament voted to end less than a month ago. Meanwhile the British-Iranian oil dispute remains deadlocked.

Tensions is Undiminished

OSLO (CP)—Charles Blair started today on a 3,300-mile non-stop solo flight over the North Pole in a converted P-51 Mustang fighter in which he set a non-stop New York to London record last January 31. Fairbanks, Alaska, is his destination. Carrying the first Polar air mail—3,000 letters Blair took off from Oslo's Garderoen air base. Cold moist air covered all of the western half of Canada this morning. Temperatures at several points in the B.C. interior fell to freezing overnight while snow was still being reported in the foothills of Alberta. Cloud cover is very extensive over the province but is expected to clear during the day over the coast and the northern interior. The southern interior will remain cloudy, however, until tomorrow, at which time the clearing condition should spread into these sections. Temperatures again tonight will fall to or below 40 in most regions while afternoon temperatures tomorrow will only range into the 60s, somewhat below normal values for the end of May.

Prerogative Is Removed

OTTAWA (CP)—The House of Commons last night approved a government move to abolish the century-old royal prerogative based on belief that the King can do no wrong. The House gave second reading to a bill which will free individuals from necessity of obtaining the crown's permission before they can take action against it in the courts.

Motors Win In Football

Last night's football game at Roosevelt Park was close all the way as General Motors battled through full time to end the game with a score 1-0 over Canadian Legion. Pat Forman was referee.

Canadians in Fight But Have Easy Time

Scenes of Horror as Task Forces Crunch Over Corpses at Inje
TOKYO (CP)—South Korean troops stabbed forward a dozen miles today against little or no opposition to seize the east coast port of Kansong, 26 miles inside North Korea. Other United Nations forces on the central front gained control of an important ridge overlooking the escape route for thousands of Korean and Chinese Reds at the eastern end of Kwachon reservoir. The Canadians were in action on the western sector Monday. But it was a quiet day for them. Lord Strathcona's Horse, with Sherman tanks, probed seven miles north of the 38th parallel and captured three prisoners but failed to find any trace of a larger Chinese force. Eastern Ontario and French-speaking infantrymen patrolled forward afoot. Communist troops, fighting stubbornly from their own hills, slowed down the United Nations advance into North Korea. Two Chinese divisions were wiped out in a four-day battle on the central front, south of the 38th parallel. The United States Eighth Army said that the Chinese lost 18,000 men—killed, wounded or captured—in a single battle. Smaller but equally stubborn fights raged across Korea north of the 38th parallel. Allied troops were held to limited gains. Stiffest action was in the centre of the peninsula where UN troops tried to seal off all of the Hwachon reservoir. South Korean troops were strung along the south bank of the reservoir about four miles east of the dam site. A delayed and heavily censored dispatch from Associated Press Correspondent Tom Bradshaw said that a powerful United Nations task force was bogged down northeast of Inje. HORROR "Allied casualties in Inje itself were heavy," Bradshaw reported. "The Reds poured sporadic fire from the surrounding hills into the town and 'levelled' the area of mud huts interspersed with dead Chinese and horses." "An ungodly smell of dead flesh hung over Inje. "Along the streets lay bodies of Chinese Communists so battered by passing vehicles that they could hardly be recognized as human beings." Bradshaw reported that the task force had rumbled across the bodies during the night "with a dull crunching of human bones."

Vandalism, Delinquency

Vandalism to public property has to stop. That is the edict of city council which last night authorized a reward of $50 for information "leading to detection of any person damaging public property." Aid. George Casey cited recent acts of vandalism which he called a "downright disgrace." The cairn at Roosevelt Park had been willfully damaged. The water gauge at the reservoir had been broken and a "great deal" of rubbish thrown in the water. A fence, recently erected around Conrad Street School, was half torn down. "These things can't go on," the alderman declared sternly. He advocated that properly printed cards giving notice of the $50 reward be placed in public places and in schools. Meanwhile, the subject of juvenile delinquency was discussed from another angle. "There are a good number of kids hanging around a city cafe until all hours of the night," Aid. Casey continued, "to the ruin of the youth in Prince Rupert." He asked Ald. Douglas Frizzell, chairman of the police committee, whether some measure could be taken to "keep these young people off the streets and at home at night."

The International Scene

GUESSING about wars is as risky as guessing about politics but it could be that the war in Korea will peter out inside of the next few weeks without official cessation but with a sort of armed quiet. Conceivably, the Communists may withdraw strategically to a point in North Korea beyond which it would be impolitic for the United Nations forces to pursue them further, particularly since there is no longer any General MacArthur to contend with. By June 25, the anniversary of the war's starting, the fighting may be over in Korea, resolving into a restless, unsatisfactory situation capable of continuing that way for years and with nothing actually settled. It would still be a potential battleground with military forces being held there against the possibility of another explosion.

Meanwhile, as an abatement of the storm in Korea appears looming, there are other danger spots and the most imminent of these today seems to be Iran. The government of that troubled state insists on the full nationalization of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Co. in violation of a 60-year agreement with Great Britain. One need not be a very discerning observer of the world scene to realize that there is a squeeze on that distressed government which is causing it to insist obstinately on its nationalization scheme. Whence the squeeze comes is apparent. It is pretty safe to speculate that Russia is about to move in there preferably in a passive but, if necessary, a forcible aggression. Poor Iran is actually on the horns of a dilemma and finds it difficult to know which way to turn. One of two possible developments are likely to arise out of Iran: either the Russians will get in control there or there will be war. Unfortunately, in view of all that we hear about the unreadiness of the western world to go to war, it may be that it will turn out to be the Russians for it in Iran.

Meanwhile, Iran bids fair to be the centre of international attention during the next year as Korea was during the last year. Thus the restless old world goes on from one crisis to another—ever on the precipice of a nervous peace at the brink of cataclysmic war.

Such are the days in which we live.

Tourists and Stores

THE TOURIST season is beginning again for the B.C. Coast and once more the question comes up of Prince Rupert business people being able to serve the visitors with their goods and, incidentally, make a little welcome profit in the deal.

Merchants complain about the failure of the steamship companies to always time the visits of their vessels to the hours of Prince Rupert stores. No doubt, the steamship companies realize that shopping is one of the things—just like sightseeing—that tourists like to do at every place they visit and endeavour to arrange their schedules so as to provide them with that pleasure to the fullest possible extent.

As for the merchants, they must also be prepared to time themselves to provide service and to win the benefit of additional business even if it does involve some change or relaxation in the present hours of business.

We have said it often before and repeat it now that Prince Rupert could be doing much more than it is to exploit the tourist industry which is one of the largest and most lucrative business potentials of this province of British Columbia and is becoming more important year by year even here in Prince Rupert.

SECOND NAZI PARTY?

HANOVER, Germany — We hastened to Hanover because we wanted a look-see at the most significant election which has taken place in all Germany since the fall of Hitler.

Germany's political big guns are sounding off here these days. True, it is only a provincial election in Lower Saxony. But all the national party leaders have been here, or are about to arrive—Schumacher, Adenauer, and so on down the line. They, like the Allied control officers, are all waiting for the answer to the $64 question here.

THIS IS: IS GERMANY TO have a would-be Hitler Number Two?

Can the new SRP, or Sozialistische Reichspartei, win more than 10 percent on the votes in the Lower Saxony election?

If it does win ten percent, every intelligent observer will know that there is grave danger of a serious and powerful-backed Nazi number two attempt.

If it wins 20 percent of the votes, the danger will be considered anything but faraway and merely theoretical.

THE STRONGEST PARTY IN Lower Saxony today is the SPD—that is, the Social Democratic Party. Its national head is the rugged Kurt Schumacher, who is one of the strongest political characters in the whole world today.

The SPD is about the same type of party as the Labor Party in Britain but with this significant difference: It has come through the fierce fire of the Hitler regime. The steel has been forged in the awful heat of tragic experience. Schumacher himself came out of the concentration camps, like a flaming spirit, burning through a broken body.

A high British officer here told me of how this then walking skeleton entered his office in early 1945 and asked for the necessary permission to commence reorganization of the shattered SPD. Few doctors then gave Schumacher a chance to survive. Some advocated the amputation of one bad leg. Others thought the operation would kill him.

Schumacher decided on the amputation—and almost from that moment of decision commenced to grow stronger. Today his health is not too bad—and his spirit as vital as ever.

HAD THE POWERFUL Western Allies had the horse sense to back the SPD with all their influence and power, the story is Western Germany might have been less uncertain.

Actually the Americans had the dominant voice in Western policies and they chose to give their main support to the Catholic Centre parties. These have stood faithfully for the democratic principle. But, unlike the Social Democrats, they tend to split internally on the most important questions facing Germany today.

ON THE QUESTION OF the East-versus-West power struggle, the Social Democrats are crystal-clear.

Schumacher declared here the other day in his keynote election speech:

"Point One — We stand with the West."

SECRET AMAZES FRIENDS!

"Out of the blue..."

"I certainly stole the show the other day when I told my friends the secret of my washing—the whitest in the neighbourhood. 'Just swish Reckitt's Blue through the rinse,' I said, 'and out of the blue comes the whitest wash.' Reckitt's Blue costs so little and makes such a big difference."

Report from Parliament

By E. T. APPLEWHAITE, M.P.

CREDIT REGULATIONS — Of particular interest to various dealers in Prince Rupert, and in fact all of Northern and Central B.C., will be the attitude of the government towards the application of the new credit regulations on automobiles and other goods purchased on the instalment plan. The difference in freight cost between East and West has been referred to several times and representations have been made to the government that such differences would justify the permitting of special credit terms in British Columbia.

The suggestion has been an extended credit period on a graduated basis according to the freight differential. Of course, this is in effect a suggestion that such regulations be based on price, and in the case of automobiles at least, it would result in regulations based on the make of car; because, for instance, British cars, shipped by water to Vancouver, can be sold cheaper in B.C. than in Central Canada. But such a modification of credit regulations would have to apply to all goods or none.

There has also been advanced the argument that to some purchasers certain instalment-bought goods are necessities. We should remember that the Consumer Credit Regulations do not differ in any way as between luxury goods and essentials.

Owen Jones, CCF, Yale, who was in full sympathy with the bill and supported it wholeheartedly, brought the subject up in the House and it was very ably and fully dealt with by Jimmy Sinclair, (himself a British Columbian), Parliamentary Assistant to the Minister of Finance.

Jimmy, of course, could not pass up the opportunity to express his particular pleasure in having the member for Yale speak so well of the consumer credit regulations generally, because he (Mr. Jones) has an extensive knowledge of their workings in his own retail business. After pointing out the almost insuperable difficulties in zoning for credit regulations, Jimmy pointed out that this time our regulations are even simpler than those in effect during the last war when we had a variety of rates for different commodities.

Another point raised by Mr. Jones is already covered by the regulations: farmers, fishermen, etc., whose annual income is de-

Reflects and Reminisces

SOMETHING DIFFERENT—Tourists, chiefly from the United States, are commencing the annual migration to Canada. And Canadians, no doubt, will start shaking out the "Stars and Stripes," imbued with the notion of making the Yankees feel at home. That's exactly the way they do not want to feel. What they wish is something different. That's why Quebec is growing rich on tourist traffic. Americans cannot find anywhere in their own land what is similar to that which is taken as a matter of course in Quebec.

SHORT, ANYWAY—On an average, women are six per cent shorter than men, according to a factograph, which leads the Toronto Star to ask if this is before or after pay-day!

LOVE THYSELF—"Never mind thy neighbor—love thyself." So says Bertrand Russell, aged 79, philosopher and writer. He feels this is the sure way to peace for the individual and those around him.

OF COURSE THEY GROWL—Canadian privates were paid $1.10 in the First Great War and the British Tommies received about two-bits, Yanks drew more. . . Troops will be training in Europe again and there are prospects of more headaches. This training will be under the North Atlantic Organization. Pay will range all the way from Canadian privates getting $2.65 down to the Frenchman at five cents a day. Canadian captains are to draw $236 a month. The scale in Norway is 15 cents and in Italy 8 cents. It looks like all kinds of unfairness somewhere.

BEAUTIFUL CITY—Capetown beautiful old mother city of South Africa, is in the throes of violence. Sixty thousand rioted yesterday. There were numerous hospital cases. It all comes back to racial and political issues. Trouble, however, is nothing new here. There has been extensive experience in nearly three centuries.

Special Meet on Sewer Contract

A special city council meeting will be called this week by Mayor G. W. Rudderham to decide "once and for all" what the city will pay Mitchell & Currie, contractors, for the Cow Bay sewer outfall.

Ald. George Casey mentioned a figure which he thought was as far as the city could go but council was of the opinion this should not be made public before City Solicitor T. W. Brown, K.C. advised council of its legal position.

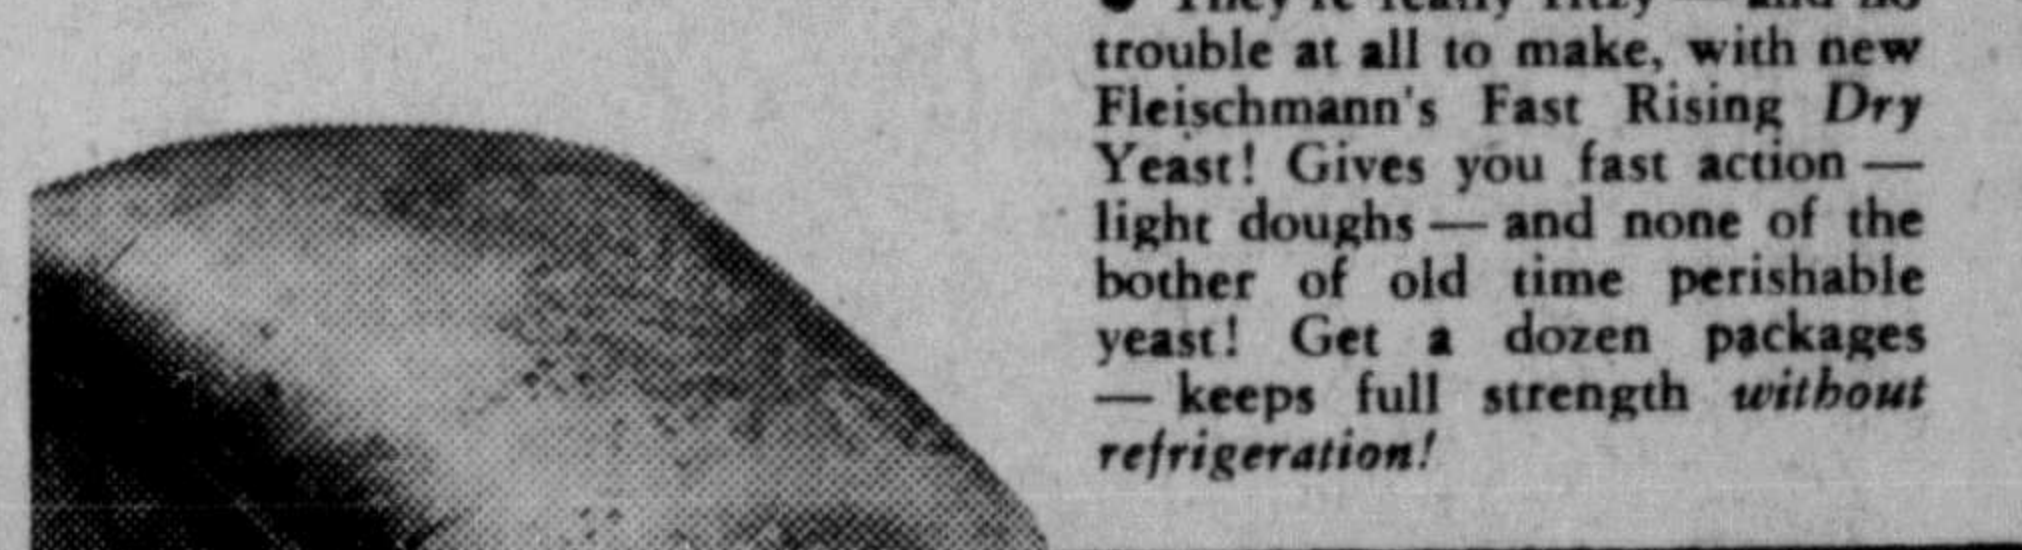

However, Ald. Casey said there was a difference of some $12,000 between the city figures and that of the contractors and he wished to bring the matter "to a head once and for all."

At the special meeting will be present Mr. Brown and the contractors to settle the dispute with the council.

Crusty, Crunchy DINNER ROLLS

CRUSTY DINNER ROLLS

Measure into a large bowl 1/2 c. lukewarm water, 1 tsp. granulated sugar; stir until sugar is dissolved. Sprinkle with 1 envelope Fleischmann's Fast Rising Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 mins., THEN stir well.

Add 3/4 c. lukewarm water and 1 tsp. salt. Add, all at once, 3 1/2 c. once-sifted bread flour and work in with the hands; work in 3 lbs. soft shortening. Knead on lightly-floured board until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl. Cover with a damp cloth and set in warm place, free from draught. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down dough in bowl, fold over, cover and again let rise until doubled in bulk. Turn out on lightly-floured board and divide into 2 equal portions; shape each piece into a long roll about 1 1/2" in diameter. Cover with a damp cloth and let rest 15 mins. Using a floured sharp knife, cut dough into 2" lengths and place, well apart, on ungreased cookie sheets. Sprinkle rolls with cornmeal and let rise, uncovered, for 1/2 hour. Brush with cold water and let rise another 1/2 hour. Meanwhile, stand a broad shallow pan of hot water in the oven and preheat oven to hot, 425°. Remove pan of water from oven and bake the rolls in steam-filled oven for 1/2 hour, brushing them with cold water and sprinkling lightly with cornmeal after the first 15 mins., and again brushing them with cold water 2 minutes before removing baked buns from the oven. Yield—18 rolls.

Blackwood on Bridge

By Easley Blackwood

Count on Mr. Champion to put his partner on the spot. On the hand preceding this one he had bawled out Mr. Abel for not finding the right line of play. Mr. Abel could not defend his play and this fact left him unhappy and distraught.

Nevertheless, Mr. Champion pushed the bidding past game on this hand—and Mr. Abel was justified in going on to slam. Champion dealer. Champion-Abel vulnerable.

The bidding:

Mr. Masters led the queen of clubs. Mr. Abel saw six tricks in hearts, two in spades, one in diamonds and two in clubs—eleven in all. The twelfth trick would have to come from a spade finesse or from trumping a club in dummy. Mr. Abel chose the latter course.

He took the opening lead with dummy's king of clubs, came to his hand with the ace of clubs and led a third club, trumping with dummy's nine of hearts. Mrs. Keen overtrumped with the jack and promptly led back a trump.

Mr. Abel won with dummy's ace, entered his hand with the ace of spades and pulled the remaining trumps. He still had a losing club in his hand. It had to go somewhere. Desperately he tried the finesse of the jack of spades and it lost to Mrs. Keen's queen. Down one.

There was a much better play on the hand but Mr. Abel was not in a condition to see it. He should trump the third club with the ace of trumps. He should then return to his hand with the ace of spades, lead his last club and trump it with dummy's nine of hearts. Mrs. Keen would overtrump with the jack but would be her side's last trick.

Of course, Mr. Champion saw the right line of play. And he was quick to point it out. Poor Mr. Abel was so miserable by now that I don't think he ever did understand it. A lot of good Mr. Champion's lecture did. It helped nothing but his own ego.

ART EXHIBITION—I have been asked by the President of the Art Gallery of Toronto to draw to your attention the most important event in the history of art in Canada, the "Vienna (Hapsburg) Collection Exhibition," which will completely fill the Art Gallery of Toronto Buildings next August 5 to September 16. Any one who will be in the east at that time should certainly see this.

"OUR" OTTAWA—A few days ago Prime Minister St. Laurent, following up a work in which the late Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King took such a deep interest, laid on the table of the House, copies in English and in French of the general report of the plan for a national capital, and the letter of transmittal from the chairman of the federal district commission, together with the recommendations made to the federal district commission by the national capital planning committee. Mr. St. Laurent spoke with real feeling of the excellent plans which will make Ottawa an outstanding capital throughout the whole world. George Drew expressed gratification that the plan has finally been completed and presented. I hope my readers will all remember that "Ottawa belongs to YOU" it is today a capital city you can really be proud of. It will when completed be an example to the whole world.

Barney Ross and Jimmy McLarin thrilled 31,000 New York boxing fans with one of the bitterest ring battles in years, 16 years ago. Baseball Schedule

NEW YORK © — Chicago White Sox rode their twelfth victory into first place in the American League by defeating St. Louis Browns 4 to 2 under the floodlights Monday night.

Pitcher Saul Rogovin surrendered just two hits, both singles, to earn his second victory as the rampaging White Sox raced to their eighteenth triumph in the last twenty games.

The up-and-coming Boston Red Sox helped the White Sox by downing New York Yankees 3 to 2. That left the Red Sox three games off pace.

Chicago has won two games less than the Yankees but also has lost two less.

BATTER UP

(By LARRY STANWOOD)

The Prince Rupert Baseball Association has a brand new executive set-up following a meeting after Sunday night's opening game of the 1951 season. The association is headed by a commissioner, none other than Bill Gordon, vice-president of the recently resigned executive and well known in Prince Rupert baseball circles as a spot and a man "all for the game."

With Mr. Gordon will work a six-man committee composed of the three team managers, Stan Cornwell, Alex Bill and Miner Simundson, and their respective owners, Gunnar Anderson (Gordon & Anderson), Johnny Odowes (Abel & Odowes) and H. "Hal" Helgerson (Commercial Hotel).

Another reorganization which follows the shuffle in the top deck calls for only two games a week—Sunday afternoons and Thursday evenings. It was decided that because most of the players are working—many at night—and none of them are paid to play, one night's play during week days would give them another night to come out for practice and thus make for better ball games all around.

So Thursday night Gordon & Anderson play Abel & Odowes and next Sunday A & O's play Commercials. Tuesday nights, however, will be used for any postponed or exhibition games. Complete schedule for the season will be found elsewhere on this page.

At the same meeting, Andy Letourneau, who "umped" Sunday's game, was appointed umpire-in-chief for the season, with Johnny Comadina as night umpire.

League games will end August 16 when the playoffs will begin. The league winner gets a bye and also a pennant and a cup.

Second and third teams will play two out of three games, winner of which will play the league winner best three out of five games for the season's championship.

There will be a few exhibition games for the fans, too, this year, if the plans of Commissioner Gordon follow through. Smithers will be asked to face a Prince Rupert all-star team, preferably a few weeks before the home-team play: Ketchikan July 1.

After Sunday's game which broke up all tied at the end of the eighth, the commission has ruled all night games will end at seven innings.

That opening game did drag a bit for a baseball game, but for a first it was good amateur ball. During the first few innings when G&A, managed by Cornwell, ran over Miner Simundson's Commercial boys, most of the runners reached bases through errors.

But Simundson got things under control after he relieved two men with substitutes, Larry Warner, who hurled everything in the book at the G&A's, was still throwing them through the strike zone at the top of the eighth, the last inning played. With four recorded strike-outs, Warner gave up four hits and walked a man in the seventh. In the next inning he hit Andy Marshall, G&A left-fielder, in the ribs with a sharp side-arm break. Warner got clipped himself in the sixth by a fast ball chucked by Don Scherk.

Scherk, pitching the last two innings, struck out two with fast pitches. Manager Cornwell likes Scherk on the mound but can't sacrifice him for the gap he leaves at first base, Scherk's regular position.

Vern Ciccone, starter for the home team, threw good ball during his trip to the mound but had to lay off after the third inning on account of a sore knee. The Ciccone-Carali battery gave fans a big lift as the catcher moaned at called pitches by Umpire Letourneau or, in turn, hailed the decision jubilantly.

Well, Thursday is another game and there'll be some new batters up.

Alps Drama at Totem Theatre

"White Tower," coming this Wednesday and Thursday to the Totem Theatre, is a suspense laden romantic drama of mountain climbing in the Alps Mountains filmed in technicolor.

The plot turns on an attempt by six persons of different nationalities to ascend a hitherto unclimbed peak. Each of them has a different kind of urge to conquer the ice-clad pinnacle. The conflicts that develop between various members of the party and the romance between a young American girl and an Italian girl motivate the action of the story, which ends up in a thrilling surprise climax.

Glenn Ford and Valli have the romantic leads with Claude Rains as a French author, Homolka as a veteran Swiss guide, Sir Cedric Hardwicke as a British naturalist and Lloyd Bridges as a German officer.

Exteriors were photographed in and around the village of Chamonix and on the glaciers and snowfields of Mont Blanc.
