Thirteen Stranded Persons Rescued as Railway Line Opens

Public works department today had four bulldozers at work trying to get through the debris on highway to rescue a party of 13 persons, including women and children, who had been stranded near Kwinitsa, 45 miles east of here, since road was struck by slides and washouts at several points on Monday.

However, the group was picked up by a Canadian National train which took them to Skeena Valley.

Meanwhile, good progress is being made with clearing of debris line and highway in the Skeena Valley.

Trains will be running east from Skeena Valley by 10:05 a.m. today, said CNR Superintendent C. Berner this morning.

He faced with a somewhat serious situation Public Works Engineer L. E. Smith said there was no possibility of the highway being reopened until the end of the week.

Trains to the track having finished early this afternoon, Mr. Berner expected the first train to leave at 8 o'clock tonight.

OCUMCARI, New Mexico — A 750,000-gallon water tank collapsed before dawn, killed four persons and caused damage estimated in millions here today.

Giving way with a deep rumble, the tank loosed a flood through the business district.

The cause was not determined. Water, up to waist deep, spread devastation over an area three blocks wide and, in lessening degree as the distance grew, a quarter of a mile long.

PA Wins Vancouver

ANCOVER — Non-Partisan Association candidates again swept the field in yesterday's civic elections.

Anna Sprott headed the Civic list followed by Ald. Gordon Wilson and Ald. Girvan. ex-Mayor Jack Cornett, running as an independent, took fourth place. Everett Crawford fifth but, like Miss Laura Wilson, CCF, in sixth place, was not elected.

PA captured parks board and school board seats.

For the second straight year, Vancouver voters said they want tampering with their traditional quiet Sundays. The plebiscite on the issue was rejected by a margin of more than 6,000 votes. The plebiscite asked the voters if they are in favor of allowing commercial sports, cultural events and theatre performances between hours of 2 p.m. and midnight on the Sabbath. The vote was 24,813 in favor of relaxing the Sunday laws and 21,091 against.

Bylaws to provide for public parks and extend the franchise were approved.

Parliamentary Mill Grinding

OTTAWA — In a day possibly without precedent in Parliamentary records, the House of Commons Wednesday rejected three opposition motions of non-confidence in the government, and concluded a long drawn out debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne.

The climax came shortly after the Progressive Conservatives charged that the government had been put technically out of office by accepting an amendment to the address in reply to the throne speech. The government and supporters laughed off the charge and made no reply.

Three-Way Fish Pact Hits Snag

Indians May Enter Beer Parlors This Saturday

VICTORIA — British Columbia Indians will be permitted to drink in beer parlors, effective December 15.

The provincial secretary, Hon. W. T. Straith, made this announcement Wednesday. He said Ottawa had informed him that British Columbia's request for such action had been approved. Beer, however, cannot be bought at licensed premises to take out. This, presumably, is designed to stop the Indians from taking beer to the reservations.

Surveying Telephone Plant Here

To carry out a complete physical survey of the city telephone plant preliminary to a long term deal which would provide for temporary extension and eventual installation of a new modern system, Floyd H. Genin, consulting engineer for International Automatic Electric Co. of Chicago, arrived in Prince Rupert today. He was accompanied by George Knowles of Automatic Electric (Canada) Ltd. from Vancouver.

Mr. Genin, newly back from a telephone project in the Philippines, stated that he would be making a complete check of the facilities of the entire outside plant of the city and the condition thereof. The job may take a few weeks.

Mr. Knowles is returning to Vancouver tonight.

Signing Between U.S., Canada, Japan, Deferred

TOKYO (CP)—Canada, the United States and Japan today again postponed signing of their proposed tri-partite fisheries agreement.

The signing had been originally scheduled for Wednesday but a last-minute snag developed on terms outlining fishing in Aleutian waters. There is now no immediate indication as to when the treaty will be signed.

Many Voters Turning Out

Indications were this morning that a big vote would be piled up in today's civic election where a mayor is being chosen from among four candidates as well as two one-year aldermen from three nominees. It seemed apparent that interest being taken in the power referendum was stimulating an early turn-out. Fine weather might also have been a factor.

Last year at 11 a.m. a total of 160 ballots had been cast. Today at a similar hour there had been 257.

First to cast a ballot was Murdo MacArthur of Mac's Shoe Hospital who was on the scene promptly at 8 o'clock. "If I had not come now, I wouldn't have been able to get out of the shop later," said the busy local shoemaker.

Close on Mr. MacArthur's heels was William Davidson, 1129 Eleventh Avenue East, on his way home from work as an ice-puller for the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative Association.

Aldermanic Candidate Hugo Kraupner was the first of the aspirants for office, being on hand before the poll opened to place his two scrutineers. A few minutes later Mayor H. F. Glassey appeared on the scene.

There was a steady flow of voters during the morning.

Polls close at 8 p.m. and within a couple of hours the results should be known.

City Clerk R. W. Long is returning officer with Miss Audrey Wrathall as deputy returning officer and poll clerks Mrs. Basil S. Prockter, Mrs. Andrew Thompson, Mrs. L. G. Crompt and Mrs. S. Medley.

Biggest Jet Victory Yet

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE, Korea — American sabre jet pilots shot down fifteen Red MIG's today, probably shot down two others and damaged one. It was the greatest jet victory in history.

Major George A. Davis, Jr. of Lubbock, Texas, world's foremost jet ace, shot down four MIG's. That ran his total kill over the MIG alley in northwest Korea to twelve planes, including nine MIG's.

Not a single sabre was lost in the battle although one was forced down by mechanical trouble.

South Africa Walks Out of United Nations

CAPETOWN — Withdrawal of the Union of South Africa's delegation from the General Assembly was announced last night by Premier David Milner in protest at the manner in which trusteeship committee of the United Nations hand handled Southwest Africa, recommending that it be taken away from South Africa and put direct under the United Nations.

Milner claims that this is an internal matter and does not concern the United Nations. As a matter of fact, South Africa has boycotted the trusteeship committee for three weeks, claiming that the question is not under UN jurisdiction.

Southwest Africa was taken from Germany after World War One and placed under South Africa control but which has been consistently opposed by tribesmen.

Southeast Africa today ordered its head United Nations delegate home for consultations over the question of Southwest African trusteeship.

While Interior Minister T. E. Dinges, who plans to leave Paris for Capetown within a few days is away, his delegation will not attend General Assembly sessions. However, South Africa will continue to be represented on committees except the trusteeship committee. It was emphasized by a South African spokesman that the move did not mean walking out of the United Nations General Assembly.

Slides Hold up "Witnesses"

More than 35 Perow residents who attended the assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Prince Rupert have been unable to return home to the Bulkley Valley on account of the slides that are holding up railway transportation.

Witnesses in Prince Rupert have opened up their homes to provide adequate accommodation for the visitors until such time as they are able to depart for home. CNR Superintendent C. A. Berner granted representatives of the group the privilege of wiring the folks at home to assure them that all was well and that they would be home as soon as the road is passable.

S. Mills and F. Franske boarded a plane out today in order to be on hand for the assembly at Prince George which begins on Friday.

The Witnesses report that they had an instructive and enjoyable assembly, with 250 attenders at the Capitol Theatre to hear Mr. Franske's discussion of "Security in a Troubled World." There were representatives from Perow, Smithers, Terrace and Prince Rupert.

House Approves Seaway

OTTAWA — In an historic step, the House of Commons on Wednesday gave birth and final reading to the bill authorizing the Canadian government to go ahead with the construction of the St. Lawrence seaway without co-operation of the United Nations or United States.

The bill, which now goes to the Senate, provides for the establishment of a crown company to undertake construction of the seaway.

Farm Aid For North

OTTAWA — All Crown lands thrown open for settlement and farming in the northern segments of the prairies and British Columbia may soon become eligible for federal aid under the Prairie Farm Assistance Act. The Minister of Agriculture, Hon. J. G. Gardiner, gave notice today of a proposed resolution to broaden the terms of the Act during the current session of Parliament.

Officials disclosed that the proposed amendment is aimed principally to benefit new settlers opening up the Peace River area in Northern Alberta and overflowing into British Columbia.

Under the Act federal aid is granted to western grain farms that may be hit by drought, disease or bad growing and harvesting conditions which may drastically reduce or wipe out their grain crops.

There are iron ore deposits on Vancouver Island and Texada Island in the Gulf of Georgia, 50 miles northwest of here.

C. D. Hobbs, manager director of the Vancouver Steel Co., said the plans call for a 100-ton a day electrical unit for the heating of magnetic ore.

It will not be built immediately, however, but will await development of the expanding B.C. and Alberta markets.

London Likes Fur Fabrics

By MURIEL NARRAWAY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON (CP)—Five new materials with definite party appeal are popular festive choice with London's Christmas shoppers.

They are ermine, minkaleen, ocelot, pershelle and beaverle—new fur-fabric materials that look so good they are walking advertisements for the skins from which they take their name.

It would be impossible except at close quarters, to tell whether a toque beret, cravat and muff of white ermine, worn with a slim black suit, was not the real thing. Yet this threesome costs only £20 14s. can be bought separately, and has an undeniable party appeal.

No garment made from these fabrics costs more than £25, and the appearance is striking and glamorous. A lovely contrast to black cocktail and evening gowns, the tuxedo jacket of white ermine with wide, tightlyuffed bell sleeves and swagging tails, its close resemblance to ermine is heightened by a fringe of black-tipped tails to the neckline.

A tall-fringed minkaleen stole adds glamour to that silky, cocktail dress with bare shoulders, at the moderate cost of £11. And a white ermineleer would go well with a black cocktail suit.

A pretty off-set for some of the new royal purples and honey blues is an elegant black, sling-necked cape of pershelle—looking for all the world like black Persian lamb and costing only 18s.

Useful for afternoon and evening wear are the waisted, sling-necked ocelots of silverblue mink.

Men Common in Lingerie Shops

TORONTO (CP)—Sales girls in lingerie shops no longer look startled when a man enters the store.

They're used to them now because so many men have taken to buying frilly slips, nightgowns, peignoirs and panties for their wives or sweethearts for Christmas.

The men are often more popular with the sales girls than are pernickety women buyers, says Mrs. R. G. Lowe, a buyer for one ladies' wear chain. The men will take almost anything suggested and hardly know the difference, she says.

Men are exceptionally keen on housecoats as gifts. "We sell the greatest number of them in the week just before Christmas," said Mrs. Lowe, "because that's when men do their shopping."

Some men don't even go near the store to order. They just phone in, tell the clerk what they think would be nice, the size and how much they want to spend, and then all they have to do is pick it up.

Nylon tricot is one of the favorite materials for slips and nightgowns. White leads the popularity parade in slip colors.

One of the luxury items this year is a Peignoir of sheer silk or nylon tricot in white, red or black with drop shoulders and balloon sleeves. To wear under it, one dealer is featuring bridal sets of white satin trimmed with tiny rhinestones.

Green, equally effective with wool suits and dresses and sequined, cinched evening gowns.

For those who like the piquant French look, an aleeen waistcoat, muff and beret can be combined with tight-skirted suit having lapel and pocket braiding. Although fur imitations have been tried many times, the worst offenders being ocelot and leopard fabrics, the latest weaves are the best of their kind yet to hit the market. Finest example is the black pershelle, and white ermaelen runs an easy second.

The materials are especially useful for linings of travel coats and rainproofs. They mean warmth without excessive price.

Fred Farrington, charged with retaining stolen property following disappearance of a large quantity of cigarettes recently from the Kelly-Douglas warehouse here, has been adjourned to a further eight days. T. W. Brown, KC, is prosecuting and Douglas Hogarth is defending.

Princess Prepares For Australia Trip

LONDON (Reuters)—A few weeks home from her tour in Canada, Princess Elizabeth is already in the thick of preparations for another royal junket—this time to Australia and New Zealand.

She and Prince Philip leave London in early January.

So once again, the problem of wardrobe is occupying much of her time.

Simplicity will be the keynote because, with six months of travelling, her clothes must be easy to pack, press, and keep in order.

She has also taken in consideration the continually changing climate during the tour, ranging from the cool Australian fall to the sticky dampness of early monsoon on the return trip.

Children Like Young Parents

BRIGHTON, England (CP)—Children have pretty definite ideas on what "mum" and "dad" should look like in films, says Mary Field, Britain's expert on children's movies.

Film fathers should be "six feet tall, handsome, under 30 and good at everything," while mum is young and pretty—"but not glamorous or sappy-looking."

Miss Field, addressing an audience of teachers, said that what children most dislike is middle age. Their ideal screen grown-ups must be young, virile and competent—or genuinely elderly and endearing.

Another definite ideal if their screen policeman. He must never be comic or ridiculous. They prefer young, daring types.

Timely Recipe

SHRIMP JAMBALAYA

- 2 tablespoons fat
- 1/2 cup grated cheese
- 2 tablespoons parsley
- 1 cup chopped onions
- 1 clove garlic, minced fine
- 1 cup canned tomatoes
- 3/4 cup water
- 1 green pepper, chopped fine
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon red pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon thyme
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire Sauce
- 3 cups cooked rice
- 2 cups cooked shrimp, cut in pieces

Preparing Fluffy White Rice
To make 3 liberal cups of fluffy rice: pft 1 cup of uncooked rice, 2 cups of cold water and 1 teaspoon of salt in a two-quart saucepan and cover with a tight fitting lid. Bring to a vigorous boil and then turn the heat as low as possible—leave over this low heat for 14 minutes. Turn off the heat. This cooking time results in firm grains of cooked rice. (For extra tender grains, allow the rice to steam (with heat off) for an additional 5 minutes before removing the lid.)

Never remove the lid nor stir rice while it is cooking. After rice is cooked, remove lid. Lift rice gently with fork to allow rice to steam dry to the desired consistency. It is then ready.

METHOD: Melt fat in skillet, add in flour and blend thoroughly. Add the onions and cook until the onions are tender. Add garlic, tomatoes, water, green pepper, salt, red pepper, thyme, Worcestershire sauce. Cook until upper is tender. Stir occasionally. Add rice, shrimp and tomato juice. Pour into a greased baking dish. Sprinkle the cheese and par lay over the top. Place in a 350° F. oven for 15 minutes. This recipe makes six servings.

Ketchikan Takes 1951 International High School Hoop Series

BY ROALD FENESE

Bo-Me-Hi Has Bad Night, Losing Third Straight Game, 53 to 50

Ketchikan High School made it three straight victories last night to cinch the international basketball series. The Polar Bears defeated Booth Memorial High School Rainmakers in the first game of the series on the local court. Final score was 53 to 50. The series continues with the fourth game tonight, KayHi leading by 28 points on the three-game aggregate.

Starting out with a strong lead, the Polar Bears grabbed the margin until it reached Bo-Me-Hi, overwhelmed in meantime, suffered some injuries to players. Tom Householder, on the bench, and Marvin Bue and Simpson, in shooting, provided much for the Rainmakers. The ender was high with 14 points.

It was a sad story the most of the way for Bo-Me-Hi which, organized itself, was unable to penetrate the KayHi zone defense. Near the end of the third quarter, however, the locals started to click. Polar Bears lost Dick Loe and Phil Tucker via the route, while Darrel Young Bo-Me-Hi was also banded.

Clarence, Watson and Bill Morrison helped Bo-Me-Hi to

All America Teams Named Local Hoop Reps Named

NEW YORK—Five players from the East have been named to the 1951 All America football team picked by Grantland Rice and the Football Writers Association of America.

For the second time a two-plateau team has been chosen. Rice states that "to select only 11 men would have been illogical, impractical, anachronistic."

Conventionally, the two-plateau squad has five from the East, five from the Midwest, four from the South, four from the Southwest and four from the Far West. Here's how the two plateaus line up:

- Offensive Platoon
End—Stan Williams, Baylor.
Tackle—Don Coleman, Michigan State.
Guard—Nick Liotta, Villanova.
Center—Doug Moseley, Kentucky.
Guard—Ray Beck, Georgia Tech.
Tackle—Jack Little, Texas A&M.
End—Bill McColl, Stanford.
Back—Larry Isbell, Baylor.
Back—Hank Lauricella, Tennessee.
Back—Dick Kazmaier, Princeton.
- Defensive Platoon
End—Frank McPhee, Princeton.
Tackle—Bill Pearman, Tennessee.
Guard—Chet Millett, Holy Cross.
Guard—Bob Ward, Maryland.
Tackle—Jim Weatherall, Oklahoma.
End—Pat O'Donahue, Wisconsin.
Backer-Up—Pat Cannamella, USC.
Backer-Up—Les Richter, California.
Halfback—Ollie Matson, San Francisco.
Halfback—Bobby Dillon, Texas.
Safety—Al Brosky, Illinois.

Henrich Released

NEW YORK—Tommy Henrich, who starred for 11 years in the American League without fanfare, has been released as coach by the New York Yankees, ironically enough without ceremony.

The 37-year-old Henrich retired as an active player in 1950 and served as an outfield coach the past season, reportedly receiving $35,000 this year.

Explaining Henrich's release, the Yankees said the former left-handed hitting outfielder was "unavailable for assignment outside the Metropolitan area."

Henrich is associated with Cleveland infielder Snuffy Stirrweiss in a distributing business in the east, offered a managerial job in the Yankee farm chain, but he turned it down.

With Henrich's release, the Yankees also announced signing of scouts Lester (Pat) Patterson and Frank O'Rourke, both formerly with the Cincinnati Reds.

New Yorkers Love Ahead

Coach Bill Cook has Rangers Out of Cellar

NEW YORK—Paced by Gaye with two third-period goals, New York Rangers Wednesday night defeated Boston 3 to 2 and jumped out of National Hockey League cellar to a fourth place tie Montreal.

It was the second victory in three games for New York under coach, Bill Cook.

Don Smith shoved idle Chicago in the league basement, one behind New York and Montreal.

New York led 3 to 0 at midway second period on goals by Hergesheimer, Ed Slow and Ron Raleigh before Boston got into the game.

Donny Carson started the scoring at 14:45 in the third period when he teamed with John McIntyre who had the right wing at the time. Only 28 seconds later, Veithen notched Boston's tally.

PT Backing Brotherhood Week Here

Brotherhood Week, to help promote unity among the different nationalities in the Canadian family, will be observed by the Conrad Street School Parent-Teacher Association in February. It was decided by members of the association at their monthly meeting held in Conrad School Tuesday evening. The program for a special "brotherhood" evening was left in the hands of Mrs. W. Murdoch and Miss M. Hamilton.

The setting-up of a display of books and pamphlets pertaining to Parent-Teacher work, education and child welfare will be considered by the P-TA executive. The display will be on view at each meeting and all of the books will be accessible to members.

Christmas treats at the annual class Christmas parties held a day or two before school lets out for Christmas holidays will be provided again for Conrad School children by the P-TA. The treats will probably include candy canes and Japanese oranges for each child.

P-TA project for the year was chosen at Tuesday's meeting. Members hope to be able to purchase a new radio for Conrad Street School so that B.C. school broadcasts and other pertinent programs will be available to classes. A radio is now on hand, but it is not powerful enough.

It is planned, therefore, that the present set will be installed at Seal Cove School when a new one is purchased.

Because the November card party was a great success, plans are under way to again hold these parties one a month. The next one is scheduled for Friday, January 18.

The pennant for largest attendance of parents was awarded this month to the Grade 3 and 4 class of Mrs. C. Weise.

DANGEROUS ROAD

A dangerous drop at both sides of the road on Alfred Street, especially near the small gyro playground there, will be drawn to the attention of the city council. Since instances were cited where children had been hurt in falls there, council will be asked if some safety measures cannot be taken.

Attention of the city council will also be drawn to the impassable state of Immanuel Street between Seventh and Eighth avenues beside Seal Cove School, when there is ice on the roads in winter. The steep path gets so bad that anyone using it has to climb up on his hands and knees, one member reported.

After the business meeting, a highly interesting quiz was conducted by G. Olson to acquaint members more fully with P-TA objectives and work. The quiz was followed by a community sing of Christmas carols accompanied by L. Sykes.

The evening was concluded with the serving of refreshments.

Atom Fuel in Twenty Years

NEW YORK—Coal and water power won't have competition from atomic fuel for at least 20 years, says Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, Nobel Prize winner.

The University of California chemistry professor, who discovered plutonium, talked to newsmen before leaving by plane for Stockholm, where he will receive the Nobel award.

Dr. Seaborg said atomic energy already is being put to important practical uses as radioactive tracers for measuring movements and activity of various elements.

He said he believed this use "will be of greater importance than atomic power itself."

Dr. Seaborg was co-winner of this year's Nobel Prize for science. The other recipient is Dr. Edwin M. McMillan, a physicist at the same university.

Moving of Wheat Superhuman Job

OTTAWA—Sales of wheat to be sent from the Pacific coast this winter have been made to the United Kingdom, India, Belgium, Ireland, Italy, The Netherlands, Norway and Switzerland as well as to Latin America and the Caribbean countries. Delivery of this wheat, says Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of trade and commerce, will call for superhuman effort by railways from Alberta west to Vancouver and Prince Rupert.

Pay Night Keeps Army Police Busy

By DOUGLAS HOW
Canadian Press Staff Writer

HANNOVER, Germany (C)—It is pay night for the soldiers. They come into town in the hundreds, many of them seeing the big city of Hannover for the first time, many of them not being used to big cities at all.

Canadian and British military police, teaming up in patrols on foot and in jeeps, roam the streets and clubs of this city of roughly half a million people.

It's quite a job to keep an eye on the night life and conduct of the soldiers but the alliance is working out nicely. Every night the British MP's and the provost men of Maj. George Hodgkiss of London, Ont., are out together, roving through the strategic downtown area where the lights are bright and night clubs numerous.

The orders are that the 27th Brigade is going to behave in Germany or else, and the patrols are firm and active, but in no way ruthless or brutal. In the key Canadian patrol jeep travel Sgt. Maj. Reg Linton of Toronto and S/Sgt. Victor Casellani of Winnipeg and a reporter.

It's a six-hour job, 8 p.m. to 2 a.m., but one of the most intriguing character. The downtown of Hannover is alive with lighted windows, with smart cafes, restaurants, hotels, an opera house, with tram-cars and many German people—and with Canadian soldiers. Nearly all the soldiers have to be in by midnight. Many of the civilians are still around at 2 a.m.

Night clubs roll on until 5 a.m. with acts ranging from partial strip-tease to cracks about the Communists. The soldiers try them—some are out of bounds, some aren't—but usually find them pretty expensive.

The movies are in German so the soldiers skip them. They drift down the streets to an ornate former yacht club which is their NAAFI recreation centre. They can drink beer there and talk and perhaps dance with the NAAFI girls.

Soldiers roam the streets in twos and threes. They drink German beer which is stronger than the beer at home and some of them get too much and the provost men pick them up. They meet women in the streets and some of them fall in with them and many don't.

By 10:30 they are starting to drift back to the station where there are trucks for camp. The patrols step up their activity. Outside a restaurant, several dozen Germans watch intently as they pick up a soldier with too much to drink but 95 per cent of the soldiers have no trouble with the provost men this night.

By midnight, most of the men are gone and patrols are looking for the others. The jeep prowls on, circling, stopping, prowling. All through the night it goes at regular intervals down into the Nordmann Strasse, the strange jumble of ruins and one-storey dwellings which is the red light district. The troops are not allowed in the Nordmann Strasse, but some of them stray that way and the provost men kindly ask them to read the out-of-bounds signs. The soldiers say pleasantly that they are merely looking for the way to the station.

Red Uranium Chief Flees

BERLIN.—The Russian boss of a mammoth uranium-mine project in Communist East Germany has fled to the western Allies, the West German newspaper Die Welt reports.

It says the project's top executive escaped to West Berlin November 29 and was flown out immediately to an unknown destination in West Germany. The newspaper did not say whether he is being held by United States, British, or French officials.

There was no immediate confirmation of the report. Western officials usually deny knowledge of such reports for a long time because of security reasons.

Die Welt identified the man as Col. Fedja Nikolajevitch Astapchov. It said he served as top official and chief geologist of the giant Wismuth Corporation.

The corporation exploits uranium mines at Aue, 150 miles southeast of Berlin, and ships the atomic materials to Russia.

Die Welt said 360,000 East Germans dig uranium under control of 5800 Soviet technicians and more than 11,000 Russian guards at the project. It is the main German source of uranium for the Russians.

Speeding up Civil Defence

Local Committee
Asking City Council
To Appoint Co-ordinator

Civil defence organization in Prince Rupert is to be speeded up and the next essential move of the local committee, which was in session Tuesday evening, will be to fill the position of local co-ordinator. The committee will ask the city council to invite applications.

The chairman, Mayor H. F. Glassey, explained why meetings had not been held earlier but felt certain that, with the return from Ottawa of Assistant Fire Chief Hill, who had attended a course of studies there under the Dominion of Canada Civil Defence organization, there was now a fund of information available that would ensure the success of the local body.

Sub-committees have been active and reports from these are on file. With the appointment of a co-ordinator it is felt that this information can be consolidated and a complete organization can be established on a sound foundation.

While there was not a great deal of definite information available, it was agreed the situation called for serious consideration of what steps should be taken by the committee and the citizens generally to be prepared for whatever kind of attack might be made on the port and railway terminus.

Those present in addition to the chairman, Mayor H. F. Glassey, and the secretary, City Clerk W. H. Long, were Aldermen T. B. Black, Don Fitch, D. Gomez and Fire Chief Earl Becker, E. Jones, E. Eydolfson, S. Saville, H. Hill, S. F. Madeley, T. Bradley, G. C. Sessions and J. S. Wilson.

It is proposed to hold the next meeting early in the new year by which time the new city council will be in office and the appointment of a co-ordinator may be possible.

Problems Of Natives

Edward Bolton and
William Beynon
Speak to Jaycees

Interest at the monthly Junior Chamber of Commerce dinner at the Civic Centre last night was heightened by a speech by Edward Bolton, member of the Indian Enquiry Commission under the auspices of the Department of Labor. William Beynon, another member of the Commission, was also a guest.

A native himself, Mr. Bolton outlined the progress of the Indians since Alexander MacKenzie arrived in British Columbia in 1798. Education was emphasized throughout the address and he stated particularly that the minority group must receive an equality in education in order to achieve an equality in everyday living.

Mr. Bolton described his work and that of his colleagues in research into living conditions of his people.

The $4000 voted to the John Howard Society by the B.C. government was cited as one result of the Commission's work. This money is to be used to transport natives housed in federal prisons back to their homes on expiration of prison terms.

Mr. Bolton's friendly manner and able delivery appealed to the Jaycee audience. Words of praise were used freely in speaking of missionaries, churches, Indian agents and such groups as the Junior Chamber for their help and encouragement. Referring to Metlakatla village he said that Father Duncan taught the natives how to be self-supporting.

WILLIAM BEYNON

William Beynon spoke briefly on the impending enfranchisement of Metlakatla village. He remarked that, in his travels since 1906 in this province, he was gradually detecting less discrimination towards the native population.

In regular business of the meeting the placing of Christmas trees next Sunday took precedence. One tree is to be placed at the Court House. Another at the Post Office. Stewart Furk is in charge of a committee of twelve who volunteered to do this work.

President Hill and others commended Bert Jefferies on his "get-out-the-vote" efforts.

MAIN CROP

The Dominion of Pakistan has about 21,000,000 acres devoted to rice-growing, double the acreage allotted to wheat.

NATIVE EDUCATION

New Zealand has about 150 village schools for Maori, or native children.

City Should Take Census

Asked by the city council to participate by supplying volunteer help in a census recount here, the Prince Rupert Gyro Club yesterday expressed itself in favor of the city undertaking such a recensus at its own expense, providing it is established that it is necessary and would be of some official effect if taken.

It was the monthly business luncheon of the Gyro Club yesterday.

Ben Parker, chairman of the recent Apple Day committee, reported a net profit of $827.38 as a result of that effort.

The club will have a Christmas party for Gyro children next week and the week following the club will have its own gift exchange Christmas luncheon.

If you want to sell it, advertise it. News classified.

Xmas Mail Developing

Glut of Delayed
Air and Train Mail
Not Helping Things

This week's tie-up of mail through delay of aircraft because of bad flying weather and of trains because of Skeena River flood conditions comes just as the rush of Christmas mail is commencing and Postmaster R. S. Scherk is hoping that it will not complicate matters.

Already eleven extra help are working at the Post Office to handle the developing dispatch of extra seasonal mails. They will continue until December 27. This is the same number of extra help as there were last year.

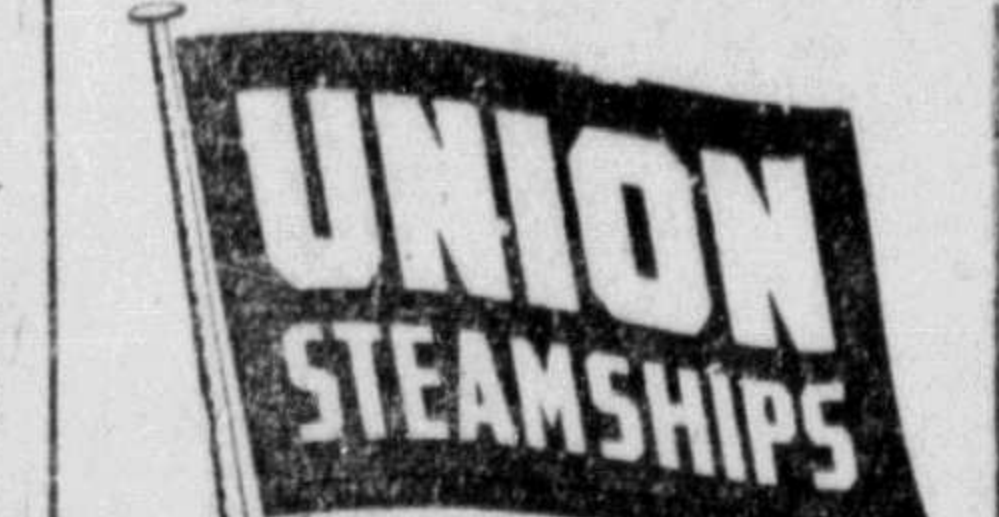

The first air mail to arrive from Vancouver since last Saturday reached here late yesterday afternoon. It consisted of 450 pounds on which sorters went to work during the evening.

Meanwhile, mail from the interior and general second class mail is accumulating on rail with the first train in five days not expected to reach here before tonight.

Postmaster Scherk announces a deadline for acceptance of Christmas cards this Saturday if distance of 500 miles or more is involved. Incidentally, Christmas cards are by surface transportation only and do not go all way. After Saturday, if cards are to reach destination before Christmas, should be prepaid first class.

SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

The coast's largest and most powerful towboat, the Sudbury, which tows logs from Queen Charlotte Islands to mainland pulp mills, arrived in port from sea at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. The vessel, which had left a tow at Captain's Cove, was here to take on fuel.
