Arab-Israel Differences Not Settled

PARIS — The United Nations Palestine conciliation committee announced today its failure to settle Arab-Israeli differences. The commission said that neither party showed willingness to make concessions. Principal stumbling block continues to be the question of repatriating thousands of Arab refugees who fled from Palestine during the 1948 fighting.

Ted Applewhaite Visits Korea Front—Under Fire

H. T. Applewhaite, MP for Skeena, veteran of World War I, has been back on the fighting front again. With Hon. R. W. Mayhew, minister of fisheries, he visited the western sector of the Korean front a few days ago and came under enemy shellfire several times. One cluster landed 25 yards away.

Oil Dispute May Go to World Bank

LONDON — Great Britain is studying a new plan to solve its dispute with Iran by placing the oil industry under trusteeship of the World Bank, it was learned Tuesday from usually reliable sources.

Communist Negotiators Offer New Truce Plan

MUNSAN (CP)—Truce hopes brightened today when Communist negotiators submitted a cease-fire plan of their own that could open the way for a Korean armistice by Christmas.

US Plane Still Lost

BELGRADE — Hungary and Romania complained officially today that a United States Army cargo plane was still missing after being fired or by satellite border guards Monday while crossing over their territories illegally. The plane disappeared Monday with four crew members and diplomatic cargo aboard shortly before the pilot had radioed his base at Munich that he had been fired upon by border patrols after becoming lost.

Red Views Infrequent

OTTAWA — The radio committee of the House of Commons was told Tuesday that the Communist viewpoint was seldom heard on Canadian Broadcasting Corporation networks. A. D. Dunton, chairman of CBC, said the corporation tries to see that all main viewpoints are expressed through its facilities. It does not consider Communism as one of the main viewpoints in Canada. Mr. Dunton made the statement as members of the committee expressed their views on what opinions the publicly owned CBC should allow to be heard. The controversy centered around a recent series of broadcasts by well known psychiatrists and philosophers. Leonard T. Stick, Liberal, Trinity-Conception, Newfoundland, described such broadcasts as "tripe." In the course of discussion, John Diefenbaker, Progressive-Conservative, Lake Centre, Saskatchewan, protested at the use of profanity in CBC plays. Mr. Dunton agreed that there had been profanity and promised to take steps to have it eliminated.

Casualties In Korea

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The 105,000th American has been killed or wounded, or is missing in Korea, said a casualty report issued today. It covers sixteen months of fighting up to November 9. The United States Army estimates total enemy casualties in Korea through October 31 at 1,422,844.

The World Bank is an international authority set up in 1944 to help in reconstruction and development. Sponsor of the plan is one of the bank's member countries which also approached Britain on the subject. It is not yet known here whether the proposed solution of the nine-month dispute set off by Iran's decision to nationalize British-owned oil fields has been officially put before the Iranian government.

Census Count Lively Issue

From the number of telephone calls received at city hall, the last few days by City Clerk R. W. Long, it appears a lively city council session will discuss Prince Rupert's census problem. The questions will likely be something like this: "Has Prince Rupert only 8,435 people (official census figure) or is it nearer to 11,000 as has been estimated by the city? And if so, what will we suffer by having a lower population?"

Killed in New Car

ROSSLAND Man Victim of Accident on Highway. VANCOUVER — A few hours after he had purchased a new car, William A. Murder Campaign Worst in Civilized World's History

South Korea today accused the Communists of a campaign of murder never before exemplified in the history of the civilized world. The government charged that the Reds had slaughtered more than 250,000 Korean civilians and 7000 captured soldiers. It blamed the North Koreans and Chinese Reds for the slaughter.

"Surgeon" Mystery Plot Thickens

HAIFAX — The Navy's mystery "surgeon," Ferdinand Waldo Demara, Jr., alias Dr. Joseph Cyr, is registered for practice in Nova Scotia. Dr. H. L. Scammell, secretary of the provincial medical board, said Tuesday night. "He secured his registration on the credentials of another man," said Dr. Scammell. The other man was Dr. Joseph Cyr of Edmundston, New Brunswick, now understood to be practising at Grand Falls, New Brunswick. "The matter will be discussed and a course of action decided on when the board meets in the near future," said Dr. Scammell. Meantime, Demara has been at Esquimalt under detention. A naval officer there said yesterday that he had not offered to explain why he had got into the navy under an assumed name or further particulars of his entry. TO BE DISCHARGED: Demara, who joined the Navy as Dr. Joseph Cyr and performed surgical operations aboard the destroyer Cayuga, will be discharged from the Navy at Esquimalt today, naval headquarters at Ottawa announced. He will be dishonorably discharged from the service and his fare paid home to New Brunswick.

Pearson Puts Canada Behind 3-Power Disarmament Plan

PARIS (CP)—Canada's minister of external affairs, Hon. Lester B. Pearson, said today that a way must be found to break the vicious circle of fear that is holding back east and west disarmament. Pearson told the United Nations 60-member political committee that the only way to cut through the circle is by establishment of United Nations agencies for international arms inspection. His statement put Canada behind the disarmament proposal presented by Britain, the United States and France.

Who Will Supply Power?

Following is the second of a series of articles designed to help the Daily News reader's better understanding of what is being voted for when they face the city-wide plebiscite next month: Are you in favor of asking B.C. Power Commission to supply electric energy to this area? These articles will set out the views of Northern B.C. Power Company Ltd., of Prince Rupert, and facts about the Commission. With the 25-year franchise of Northern B.C. Power Co. Ltd. coming to an end March, 1954, city council of Prince Rupert jumped the gun last week by passing on a referendum to be placed to citizens at a public election—"Are you in favor of the B.C. Power Commission to supply electrical energy...?" Although this question was put by a narrow margin of vote, several aldermen were not enough in their contention of the past performance of the power company to the "right." Ald. George Hills, however, the work of the power company by saying: "They have delivered the goods!" H. M. Daggett, chairman of the utilities committee, and the committee, countered the proposal by other aldermen with the proposal that the power company should have the opportunity to whom they wished to supply electrical energy here. You know that the power company has asked for a rate raise. Even after a rate has been set by the Public Utilities Commission there is nothing to stop the power company from asking for a new rate within a

Air Might Challenged

WASHINGTON, D.C.—General Hoyt Vandenburg says that complete air supremacy of the United Nations in Korea is being very seriously challenged by the force of Communist MIG's. Although the situation is now in hand, Vandenburg warns that China has become overnight a major air power. He added that China was obviously the beneficiary of another power with resources that the Communists do not possess.

Canada To Spend Hundred Millions in Building of Jet Airdromes in Europe

ROTTERDAM (CP) — Hon. Brooke Claxton, Canada's minister of national defence made the announcement today simultaneously with the arrival of a 1200 man contingent of the 27th infantry brigade, that Canada will foot the bill for four or five new airdromes in western Europe to field an eleven-squadron jet division capable of providing tactical support for a 50,000-man army. The airdromes will cost in the vicinity of $100,000,000 and the air division will be equipped entirely with F-86 Sabre jets. The new jet-capped troops, earmarked for General Dwight D. Eisenhower's North Atlantic Pact Army, were welcomed by General Eisenhower as a symbol of "Canada is with us in the area of danger."

Second "Prime of Life"

IN THE business and professional worlds the emphasis is increasingly upon youth. A man over 50, suddenly out of work, finds virtually no job opportunities capable of utilizing the ability and experience he may well possess. Life expectancy is today greater than ever in history, yet the age of 65 has become for thousands of men a signpost for retirement.

Challenging this idea of life-on-the-shelf after 65, Dr. Martin Gumpert cites in the current Reader's Digest several instances of great human accomplishment at much more advanced years. On a recent trip to Europe he interviewed several lively 70-, 80- and 90-year oldsters and reports their activities in an article condensed from the New York Times Magazine.

Vittorio Emanuele Orlando, former Italian Prime Minister who helped conclude the Treaty of Versailles, is now 91, an active member of the Italian Senate, head of a law firm and professor at the University of Rome. Dr. Raffaele Bastianelli, internationally known surgeon at 87, operates three times weekly, has daily office hours, drives his own car and, until five years ago, flew his own plane.

Edouard Herriot of France, mere stripling of 79, presides at the National Assembly three days a week, drives every Saturday to Lyons, where he is mayor.

Active in British letters are Bertrand Russell, 79, and Viscount Samuel, 80. Doubtless you have heard of another "old" Briton named Winston Churchill.

Old age, Dr. Gumpert insists, develops a creative urge and power of its own. Instead of a "second childhood," there is often a "second prime of life" which we should discover, explore and cherish.

Scripture Passage for Today

"Godliness with contentment is great gain."—I. Tim. 6:6

Were You Missed in 1951 Enumeration?

So far Prince Rupert's city council has not shown much interest in the great gulf which lies between official census figures for this city of 8,435 and the popular estimate of 11,000.

However, returns are coming in from all parts of the city from people who have filled in The Daily News census check form saying they were not contacted by a census-taker.

An official understatement of the 1951 centennial census robe the city of $10 a name in government grants. Are you interested enough in the future of your city to fill in the form below? Remember, the present census, if officially declared and not disproved, will remain the official population for 10 years.

DAILY NEWS CENSUS CHECK

Ann's Peace Tree

WHEN I got home from India there was a great stack of mail waiting for me, which my family had not sent on. There were many letters from Mrs. Ann Richardson, of Wainwright, Alberta, who sees visions of war and peace. Over the years I have published some of the most vivid of these in this column.

Now, back from the British election trip, there is another letter waiting which Ann calls "Last Panel."

"The tree, which is a poplar, went to seed last spring just after the first leaves appeared on it, and will no doubt be cut down for firewood, as a blackened skeleton next spring. All summer she showed signs of life."

Ann's tree's days are numbered, but the pictures she saw in it this year were of peace, not world war. The main change that Ann saw in her tree pictures was that the rather over-fat and over-belligerent figure of Uncle Sam was replaced by "a head that looks like Franklin Roosevelt's."

"I see numbers of wistful faces looking out from Uncle Sam's place in the tree, which gives me the impression there is a great wave of national introspection."

Early in the year Ann saw the Guardian Angel of Peace with a deep gash in her forehead, and a bandage over her eye. But that healed as the year went on. Ann sees the shepherd King of Kings himself coming more and more into the world picture.

"Next spring" says Ann "much of the earth may be a blackened waste." But there will be no third world war for "the Lord of Lords himself is close at hand, watching, caring, loving all, even the earth herself. All is well."

MISS MARY PACK who started C.A.R.S.—the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society which now operates from coast to coast in Canada asks me to pass on this call for help.

It concerns Vancouver, but readers in other places may forgive this, for once.

Among the many other activities carried on by the society, volunteers take home-bound patients for drives. Too many of the patients live in Burnaby and South Vancouver to be accommodated by driver volunteers in those localities.

More volunteers are needed, especially from those districts. Also needed, as gifts, are wheelchairs, hospital cots, bed pans and all the other such paraphernalia.

C.A.R.S. has been borrowing these from the Red Cross, to date—but its work has grown to such proportions it now must organize its own.

Many people who have had illnesses in the family, but who no longer need these aids can help by phoning Cedar 5114 or writing Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society, 997 West Broadway, Vancouver.

I SEE Mr. Churchill has already upset some of the "top brass" at Washington by telling the world that the U.S. airforce based in Britain has atom bombs in storage there. Mr. Churchill's statement was to impress on everybody concerned how interdependent the two countries have become. Above all, I think, he was trying to remind Uncle Sam that Uncle Sam needs the help of John Bull quite as much as John Bull needs the partnership of Uncle Sam.

One reason for the remarkable success of the Labour party revolt led by Nye Bevan, was the widespread feeling in Britain that all the main world decisions have recently been made by U.S.A. and that Britain has too submissively "gone along" with world policies she did not at heart approve.

I don't think Mr. Churchill will "go along" unless he approves the going.

Reflects and Reminisces

Publicity is all right but ereh comes a time when one's judgment may be questioned as to choice of advertising. A booming oil town in southern Texas has countless mosquitos. This also has space.

GETTING THE FACTS

Dr. Joseph Cyr, or Ferdinand Demara, or whatever his name is, must be resourceful and clever, even if he is being detained and questioned. The trouble seems to be he must have made a wrong start in life. In the Canadian Navy he posed as a surgeon and got away with it. His skill was widely praised. The case is a queer one but Demara surely has ability.

Way down in Kittyhawk, North Carolina, 48 years ago, Wilbur and Orville Wright sent a wire to Dad saying that at last the darned thing would fly—just a little. Still, this heavier than air rig would fly. The world is on wings. It's been that way for quite a while. But it would have seemed odd no so long ago to breakfast in Prince Rupert and lunch in Vancouver.

Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh had still another banquet waiting. This time the place was back home. Chicken and champagne were surely noble fare. Plates were of gold.

Tomorrow will be Thanksgiving Day anniversary in the United States. But there may be a

Editor,

Daily News:
In your issue of November 8 you give considerable space to Mr. and Mrs. Granzel Fitz who came all the way from New York looking for record-breaking heads in the west coast area. They are reported as having stated that their country is so widely hunted that deer are few and far between and that the British Columbia coast is therefore the likely place from which he deer will come. What does his mean?

The one thing that saddened Mr. and Mrs. Fitz most was the way the deer are hunted on the Queen Charlotte Islands. We are "old that some people practically live on deer all winter and summer and one one can get away with shooting just as many of them as they like.

Well, these people are here just a week and would like to start bossing us around. So what?

To keep the record straight, residents are permitted to kill deer on Graham Island the year round. The reason is that we have had too many deer. Also all the deer are used for food. Further, beef prices come high and we have no government inspected horsemeat. Why not vat the deer we Canadians are entitled to have?

This fall I took a trip up into the interior and got off at Cache Creek, the gateway to the big game country of the Cariboo. There I saw hunters from every part of the United States going and coming with 1200 moose and deer heads, just leaving the car-

Vessel Owners Back Chamber

Prince Rupert Fishing Vessel Owners' Association has approved the move of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce to have fishing boat clearances granted by customs on a seasonal rather than on individual trip basis.

On the east coast there are seasonal clearances. Here there have to be clearances for each trip.

The Vessel Owners' Association, at a meeting Monday, decided that E. T. Appiewhite, M.P., should be seen when next he is in Prince Rupert to obtain his co-operating in the matter of obtaining radio beacons to aid in the navigation of the fishing fleet.

And to think that year after year, fine, frosty mornings have been coming to Prince Rupert, and not a soul mentioned curling. Carelessness like that, however, is about to be corrected. From now on, watch us!

cases in the woods. They come with four-wheel drive jeeps, cables and drums on the front end and some even with a crane over the body. They bring all their supplies. Their jeeps can climb any hills that pack horses can climb. They can go further and faster.

The supercilious attitude, the bragging when the game wardens are checking their game and guns I did not like any more than I liked their style of hunting moose heads and deer heads and hanging them up in conspicuous places for everyone to see. I had to tell two over-stuffed Yankees who might have come from Wall Street that they were hunting in the wrong country—the head hunters were in other countries. They might offer some sport with the chance of losing their own heads.

There is too much catering to Americans about our wild life.

Found Island Folk Friendly

Friendly spirit of the people of the Queen Charlotte Islands impressed Charles Guy of the traffic department of Union Steamships Ltd. during a week's visit to the Islands. Mr. Guy has been making a survey of business conditions on the Queen Charlottes with particular reference to steamship service requirements. He returned to the city on the Chilcoot yesterday to spend a couple of days here before sailing tomorrow night on the Prince George for his headquarters in Vancouver.

OTTAWA ©—A total of 81 candidates, including six Americans, were successful in recent examinations held by the Medical Council of Canada.

Success in these examinations gives the candidates the right to apply for a practising certificate from provincial authorities.

Following is the list of successful candidates in the examinations held last month in Winnipeg:

Blind Musician Wins Award

TORONTO ©—Anne Gray, organist and pianist, has earned an associate certificate from the Royal Conservatory of Music. Other young persons received certificates too, but it was a special event in the life of Anne. She is blind.

To pass the test, which qualifies her as a teacher or solo instrumentalist, she played four difficult compositions.

Anne was born 23 years ago in Westport, near Brockville, Ont. She has had only a small percentage of vision since birth.

Ten years ago she began to study music. For seven of those 10 years she was a student of the pipe organ.

Anne transcribes the notes of printed music into a Braille text. The strenuous mental exercise involved impressed the teachers firmly upon her memory.

She not only had to play the organ, but know the mechanics of the instrument as well. She learned this by running her fingers over the instrument's mechanism.

Her immediate ambition is to become a church organist. A week's preparation is sufficient for her to offer several new compositions.

Anne's laugh is as gay as a summer day. She was almost proud of her white gown and corsage as of the parchment that crowned 10 years of hard work.

New Scout Troop Keen

Six boys of the newest Boy Scout troop in Prince Rupert are busy learning their first few lessons to pass the "tenderfoot" stage and they are "very enthusiastic," says Archie Mitchell, leader of the United Church troop.

This fifth troop was formed nearly a month ago, sponsored by First United Church, and has eight members, two of whom—Roy Sieber and Peter Bartlett—were former Scouts and now are patrol leaders.

Meetings are held Friday night and there is room for a lot more Scouts, says Mr. Mitchell, who arrived here recently from Oliver.

Last Saturday's activity of the troop included a hike to the foothills, the "tenderfeet" also cutting their staves. Uniforms, already ordered, are expected soon.

Other members of the troop are Jimmie Skinner, Billy Wainmough, Brian Roberts, Allen Ritchie, Stephen Bartlett and Ritchie Forward.

Orangemen And Oddfellows Meet

Members of the Loyal Orange Lodge entertained a team of Oddfellows at cribbage on Monday night after which refreshments were served. The score margin was only 12 points in favor of the Orangemen, W. Denton winning first prize and William Thompson, second. J. Davidson was master of ceremonies.

OTTAWA ROUGH RIDERS

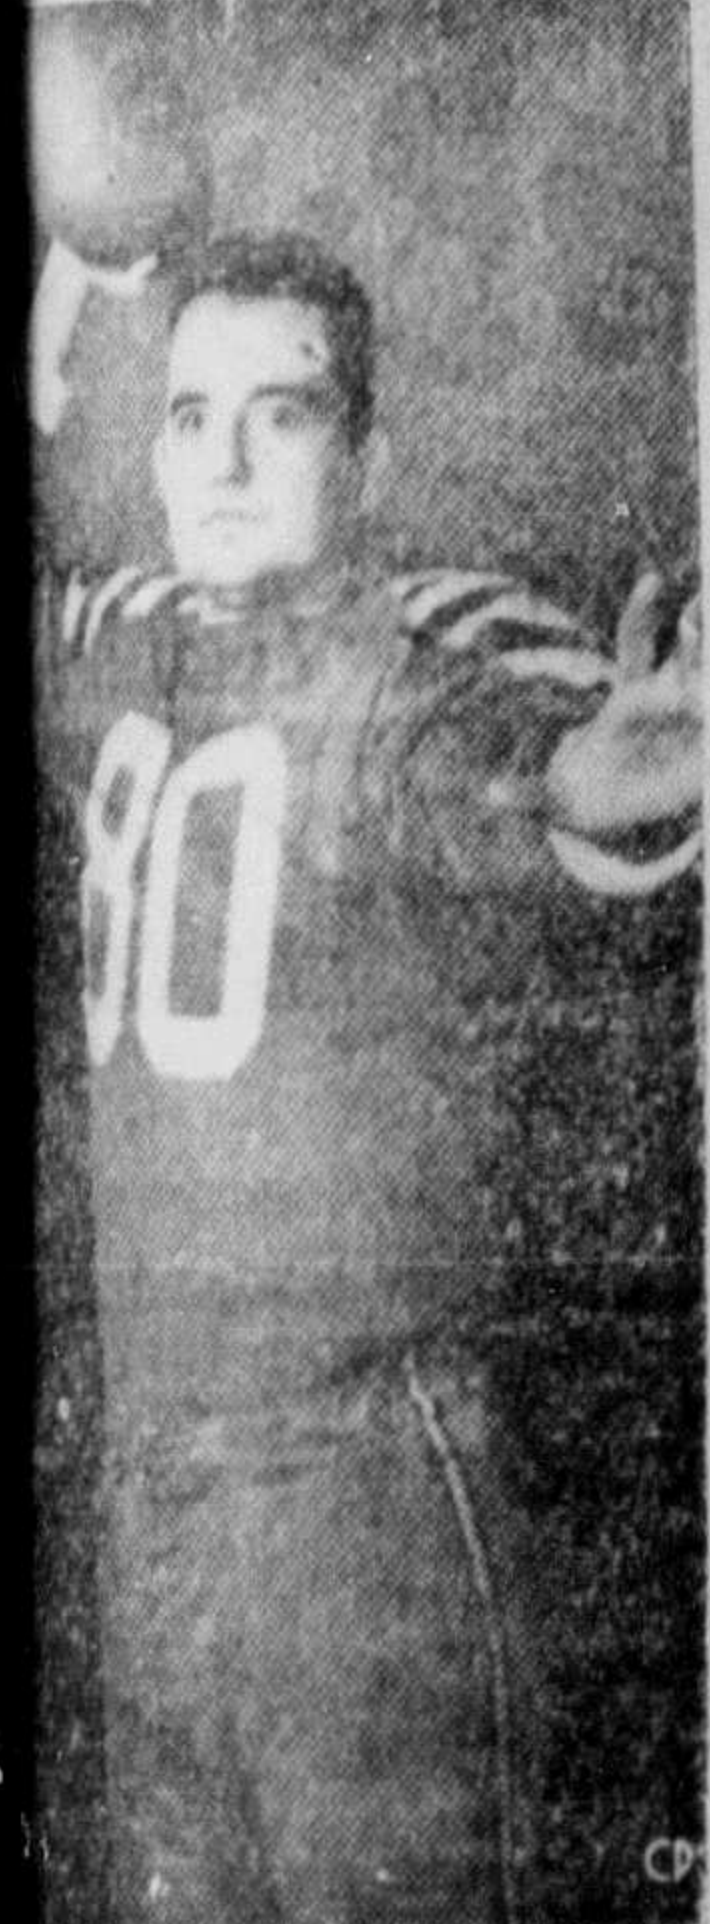

They play Regina Rough Riders for Grey Cup this Saturday

Clem Crowe, one of the Rough Riders' famed 'Seven' on the Notre Dame team of the 20's, is coaching this season of Canadian football with the Ottawa Rough Riders. He coached the team from 1946 to 1949 and last season was mentor of the Regina Rough Riders. (CP PHOTO)

SHING ACE—Tom O'Malley, Ottawa Rough Rider quarterback, has passed his way to his first season at the Canadian game. O'Malley, 35, stands six feet seven, weighs 200 pounds and previously played for Erie, Pa. (CP PHOTO)

Mansons and G.&A. Squeeze Out Wins

(By ROALD FENESS)

In the senior twin hoop bill last night, Rainmakers surged ahead making six points on two baskets and two penalty shots in just 45 seconds without a reply from Manson's. But even with the magnificent playing of Young and Tait, Manson's came up from behind to edge out a 53-41 win at the final whistle.

Lead was in the hands of the high school band who kept it for half the game. But they lapsed for about two minutes. That was all the jewelers needed.

With Olson playing outstanding ball, Manson's plowed ahead. The game was fast with tempers flaring often and good refereeing helped to make it a thriller for the few fans attending.

Olsen was high for Manson's with 12; Young, for Rainmakers, potted 11 points.

PIERCE TERRIFIC

The second bill, was practically upset as Gordon & Anderson found still opposition in CCC 300, but edged out a nine-point victory, 55-46, with the terrific scoring of Pierce.

The Harware gang took the whole game time to get started and even then their winning was questioned. Pierce was their mainstay of the game, coming up with an amazing score of 28 points. He was everywhere, always making his shots count.

Ratchford and Dumas were stalwarts for the Pulp Mill cagers, with Marshall pulling his weight on defence.

Meanwhile, there is a rumor from the public that senior basketball here isn't up to its usual standard. A slight shake-up may result from a meeting of the Basketball Association tonight.

Scoring

Rainmakers—Young 11, Nickerson 2, Simonson 5, Watson 6, Morrison 3, Ciccone 2, Sather 2, Ford, Letourneau, Tait 5.

Manson's—Olsen 13, Spring 10, McChesney 4, Arney 7, Youngman, Webster 9, Bill 10, Walsh.

Gordon & Anderson—Hoikeslad 7, Flaten 6, Hebb 5, Thompson 6, Pierce 28, Boulter, Moore, Ciccone 2, Kristmanson 1.

CCC 300—Dumas 13, Marshall 6, Ratchford 15, Hill 2, Hatagan 0, Brew 2, Peterson 5, Little.

All Out For Telkwa Rink

TELKWA—The skating rink "Bee" was an all out occasion with the male population as well as their hired men turning out and helping. Hulton Morris supervised the extension to the warming shacks. Posts were erected on each end of the rink for the purpose of stretching wire.

The young fry, anxious to have a sheet of ice as soon as possible, turned out also.

These added improvements will be an asset to the rink.

Pep Aplenty in Junior And Medium Cage Play

Fraser & Payne 32; Fashion 21
Manson's 35; Annunciation 13

(By ROSS INGRAM)

Fraser & Payne held Fashion to a scoreless first quarter in last night's intermediate hoop classic to build up an early lead the Shoemen couldn't touch, even though they turned on the heat to gain two points during the balance of the game. Scoring ended 32-31.

Taken completely unawares with score after score by F & P, Fashion woke up in the second quarter with Drake running the gamut, outscoring the winners 10-8 with the help of Dumas on the rebounds and McFarlane supplying the hustle.

In the third quarter, Fashion again outshot and outplayed the winners, 6-5, but could not whittle down the startling first-quarter lead. Heat of the battle was featured in the fourth quarter, both teams in there fast and furious, the shoemen never giving up hope until the final whistle.

Speed and good ball-playing gave Wesch for the winners high scoring honors with 12 points, followed by aggressive Bob Smith and Cristoff, each with eight points.

Possibly, inspiration for the Shoemen came from their brand new red and blue uniforms. Nevertheless, with a few more team encounters,

Prince George to Take Own Census

PRINCE GEORGE—Prince George city council is waiting to hear from George Murray M. P. and the Dominion Bureau of Statistics before proceeding with the taking of a municipal census as a check on the official 1951 census which has given the city a population of only 4600 instead of the popularly estimated 7000.

The council is prepared to pay 20c a head to enumerators or an estimated $1400 for the entire count.

But the council considers it would be worth while since, if the higher figure can be substantiated as being correct, the city would stand to gain approximately $24,000 a year in government grants of almost a quarter of a million dollars over the ten year period before the next census.

(In Prince Rupert, city authorities have so far expressed indifference on the matter of getting redress although expressing dissatisfaction at the 8,354 figure given this city).

nunciation 35-13 after piling up a fat 20-2 lead in the first quarter.

Jewellers, with height as their advantage, controlled most of the rebounds, making them count as a matter of course, Hodgkinson leading with a high score of nine, followed by Anderson's seven.

In the first-quarter slaughter, Fitzgerald was the only one to score for Annunciation and sparked his team in the second quarter to outscore the winners 6-3, with the aid of two points from teammate Presty.

In the third quarter, Barnes played outstanding ball for the Jewellers and put in two buckets while Webber played a nice rebound for a score of 22-10.

Game slowed down in the fourth quarter as Manson's, still eager for more points, found little opposition. Hodgkinson shot a field goal and scored two foul shots. Fitzgerald and Barry retalled with two points each.

Attendance was poor, even though a good show was put on by these stars of tomorrow.

"Earth Stood Still" Thriller

"The Day the Earth Stood Still," science fiction thriller, coming this Thursday, Friday and Saturday to Totem Theatre, is said to be the most frightening and totally compelling off-beat motion picture of the year.

A giant imaginary ship from another planet descends on the nation's capital. Miracles of scientific wizardry are wrought by an interplanetary ambassador. Impregnable strength of his terrifying robot threatens the earth with complete destruction unless it returns to peace.

Tension and pandemonium run rife when the robot runs the show.

Mr. Belvedere Here Again

Clifton Webb is back at the Capitol Theatre this Thursday, Friday and Saturday in another of his delightfully funny pictures—"Mr. Belvedere Rings the Bell." In his newest film escapade, Clifton Webb, as Mr. Belvedere, decides to prove to the inmates of an old folks' home that life can be full and beautiful without a dull moment. In the course of rejuvenating the old ways of the place, he trifles with the affections of Joanne Dru, a pretty young nurse, and ends up by stirring the slumbering romantic urges of her fiancé, Hugh Marlowe, who plays the role of an inhibited minister.

Webb outquotes a bishop on the Bible, expounds on everything from embroidery patterns to stamp collections, proves himself adept at speaking Chinese and tops it off by producing a youth potion which he claims to have received from a 112-year-old Oriental.

After numerous complications, everything comes to a satisfying climax.

Zero Mostel heads the supporting cast for Webb, Marlowe and Miss Dru.
