The makers, Silk Dyeing and Finishing Co. claim the all-nylon flags, hand screen printed in one color and specially treated for smooth airflow, will outlast any other flag on the market today...

Highway Re-location No Formidable Job

Minister of Public Works Explains it Would Be Small Section Proposition TERRACE (Special to the Daily News)—The re-location of Highway 16 in the lower Skeena Valley where it skirts the Canadian National Railways along the right-of-way should not be such a formidable undertaking as might have been inferred from a statement he made at Prince Rupert this week, said Hon. E. C. Carson, minister of public works, here last night.

Industries Expanding

In addition to the Cellulose and Aluminum enterprises at the tributary to Prince Rupert, there are other undertakings which mean further development and employment on extensive scales for British Columbia. These include a huge rebuilding by the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co., expansion of the Telesquah and Big Bull mines in northern B.C., large power expansion on the Pend O'Reille River, heavy tungsten operations at Salmo, expansion program at Powell River and Nanaimo and scheduled for completion next June is the pulp mill at Duncan Bay being built by the Canadian Western Lumber and Crown Zellerbach companies.

62-Day Fast

GENOA (CP)—Mrs. Nadio Goya, 43, of Fiume, today walked out of a glass case in which she had been sealed for 62 days to establish what she claims is a new world record for fasting. She drank salted water and smoked 12 cigarettes every day of her fast, but took no food. She lost about 24 pounds. Mrs. Goya's exhibition of long distance fasting was staged in front of all places, a restaurant.

Italy Must Be Admitted

WASHINGTON, D.C. (CP)—President Truman said today that, if Russia continues to block Italian membership in the United Nations, "other ways must be found" to enable Italy to play a "full and equal part" in the upholding of United Nations principles. The President also reaffirmed United States intentions to try to restore Italy's rights as a free nation by seeking to ease terms of the Italian peace treaty.

TERRACE IN FAVOR

Mr. Carson said that he found people he had seen in Terrace thoroughly in agreement with the re-location idea, after experiences of past winters with the snow problem. They are anxious to facilitate the keeping of the road open the year round as soon as possible to expedite the movement of logs to the Columbia Cellulose mill at Prince Rupert.

FLASHES

BRITISH PROTEST TEHRAN (CP)—Britain protested strongly today against the Iranian order of kicking out all British oil men left at the Bio Abadan refinery. A spokesman said the protest, "framed in strongest terms," is being delivered by the British ambassador.

NINETEEN KILLED

VIENNA (CP)—The Austrian press agency reported 19 persons died and several others were injured today when a crowded Vienna-to-Rome express missed a stop signal and crashed into a freight train near Graz. Heavy fog obscured the signal outside the station.

RESTLESS NIGHT

GREEN ELECTED

SAN FRANCISCO (CP)—William Green, 78-year-old president of the American Federation of Labor, was re-elected unanimously today to his twenty-eighth term at closing of the annual convention.

Attlee Asks Truman Aid

LONDON (CP)—Prime Minister Attlee is asking President Truman personally for help in Britain's crucial oil dispute with Iran, informed sources said today. In a personal message to Truman, informed sources said, Attlee likely will make it clear Britain is determined to stay on in Abadan. Attlee conferred last night with top advisors and military chiefs after Iran ordered British oil men expelled.

Looking for Industries

Okanagan towns, particularly Kelowna, are looking for new year-round industries to supplement the seasonal activities of fruit packing and shipping, it is reported by W. H. Derry, city pioneer, who has been revisiting here from Kelowna where he now resides. There are six packing and cold storage plants at Kelowna, for instance, but in the winter they employ very few people, the consequence being unemployment during that time. Consequently, people are leaving Kelowna for the centres where permanent employment is to be found.

US Army Wants Atomic Weapons

WASHINGTON (CP)—The Army has put in its bid for large quantities of atomic weapons for use in future battlefields. Secretary Pace lodged an Army claim for "a very substantial" share of the growing nuclear pile, in secret testimony before a joint Congressional committee on atomic energy. Committee Chairman McMahon disclosed the Army's position in a brief statement. "The Army attaches a high significance to its work, looking towards atomic energy exploitation on the battlefield in case of war," according to a statement by Secretary Pace. McMahon added that it was "made plain that future Army tactical requirements for atomic materials will be very substantial in quantity. Pace was also disclosed to have urged that "all fissionable material should be produced as soon as practicable."

Princess Elizabeth Delayed Two Weeks

OTTAWA (CP)—The Royal Tour will be postponed, a government official said today. There will be a minimum of two weeks' delay, he said, meaning that it will not start until mid-October. The exact length and character of the postponement has not been decided upon and it will depend on the condition of the King within the next few days. An official said it is possible the tour will go on in October but not before October 16. The schedule, it is expected, will simply be set ahead. According to reports from London, the King was continuing to make fair progress since his operation Sunday although the danger period is not yet over. One medical expert said that the phrase "less restful night" need not necessarily cause any concern. He explained the doctors probably have cut down the amount of opiates given the King to ease pain in the period immediate after the operation.

Rudderham, are leaving on this evening's train for Prince George to visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rush, for two or three weeks before returning to Kelowna.

A 30-YEAR-OLD boiler hangs on to serve a hospital, "but for how long?" asks an enthusiastic campaign committee for the Prince Rupert General Hospital Modernization Fund.

Who Will Be First? Asks Campaign Chairman

The other day, E. T. Applewhite, enthusiastic campaign manager for the Prince Rupert General Hospital Modernization Fund, pointed to two individual pictures in the brochure the campaign committee has published. "And to think that the boiler plant has lasted so long." He was surprised, and so are many of the people who are closely connected with the operation of the hospital. In a recent radio appeal, Father J. Rayner spoke of the hospital as being afflicted with gastric troubles—a sick heating plant. "Now anyone knows," he pointed out, "that a man can't do efficient work if there is something wrong with his physical condition." And just so, he compared the condition of the hospital. "But this condition, and the fact that empty wards are remaining idle while overcrowding is prevalent, is expected by Mr. Applewhite to be remedied soon. The drive for $75,000 as the community's share of $164,000 to be the first one?"

Fish Packer, Camp Scow

Ray Olsen, whose fisherman's boat was lost Sunday from his boat the day off Birnie Island, was reported in the Daily News as stated today. It has been contrary to regulations to be aboard camp scow, it is stated. Olsen was being fined today by the police for P.M. 15, but, so far, without success.

N.Y. Giants Nearing Top

NEW YORK (CP)—New York's relentless Giants stormed to within one game of the National League leading Brooklyn Dodgers last night, defeating Philadelphia 5 to 1 while Boston Braves handed the faltering Brooks two shocks in a sudden turn of events that left the Dodgers in a position where they must win four of five games to clinch the flag provided, the Giants win their three. In Boston the New York Yankees moved a stride nearer to clinching the American League pennant without lifting a finger while their scheduled game with Philadelphia Athletics was rained out. Cleveland and Boston Red Sox were both beaten to make it easier for New York. Washington blanked the Red Sox 2 to 0 and Chicago White Sox upset the Indians 4 to 2 to drop the Tribe three games behind the Yankees.

Labor Act Probe Sitting Here

On Friday it will continue to Prince George. The commission consists of Arthur Ash, MLA, chairman; B. M. McIntyre, MLA, MacKenzie; A. R. MacDonell, MLA, Vancouver Centre; Arthur Turner, Vancouver East, and J. D. McRae, MLA, Prince Rupert. Mrs. Dorothy Sager is secretary.

Reduce Living Standards to Stop Inflation

OTTAWA (CP)—Finance Minister Abbott last night rejected demands for price controls to fight inflation and said a temporary reduction in living standards is the "real price" Canadians must pay for freedom and security. In criticizing the CCF party, Abbott recalled the radio address of M. J. Coldwell last week and said the CCF leader wants controls over everything—"except things which directly affect those people whose support he hopes to gain."

Jets Battle In Korea

Greatest Fight in History UN HEADQUARTERS, Korea (CP)—Allied pilots today destroyed or damaged 14 Communist planes over northwest Korea in history's greatest day of all-jet battles. There were 256 jets in action. This number dwarfed all previous jet actions for a single day. Seventy-seven allied jets tangled with 120 Russian-type MIGs in a roaring duel this morning over northwest Korea's MIG alley. The U.S. Fifth Air Force said its pilots probably destroyed one Red jet and damaged four. It said no allied planes were lost.

Small Town or Big?

FARM BOYS are still deserting the fields and orchards for better-paying jobs in manufacturing plants, but now there's a new twist to this rural-to-urban process. Today, more and more heads of industry are looking in the other direction—out beyond the city limits—for a spot to establish their newest branch.

This decentralization of industry is reversing a trend of many years' standing. Before the Second World War, an expanding company almost invariably chose a city as the site of its new plant, for obvious economic reasons. But now that those reasons are no longer as compelling as they once were, the shift is back to the country.

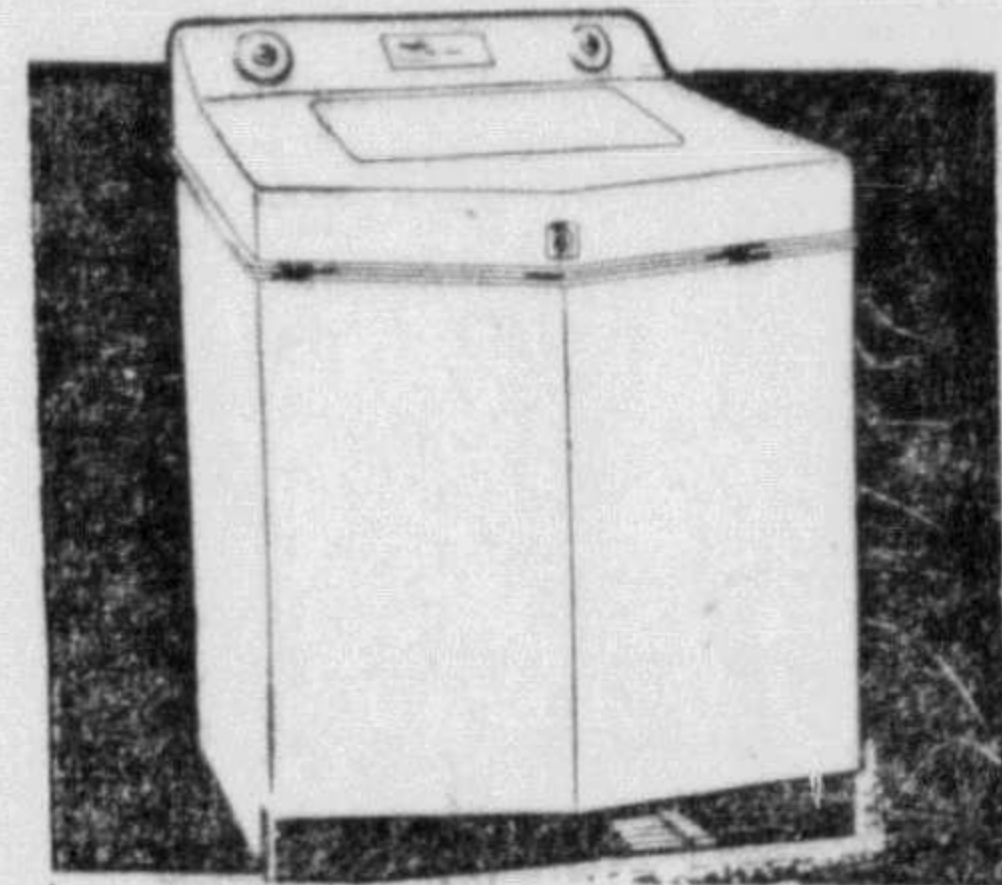

The small town of today is, for the company and its employees, no longer the small town of half a century ago. Good roads, modern automobiles, efficient sewage systems, radio and the host of other facilities now accepted as standard, make the small town just as convenient as the big city for businesses and people. And in many ways, much more attractive: The rents are lower, the air is fresher, the hustle and bustle of the metropolis is cut to a tolerable pace, the noise level is easier on the nerves, it's easier to get to and from work, and the well publicized dangers of the atom bomb are minimized.

Industry's back-to-the-country movement seems to be common to both the United States and Canada. South of the border, according to a recent survey of 148 major manufacturing firms, nearly two-thirds of the postwar building has been in small towns. In Ontario, Canada's largest industrial province, 77 new branch plants were established in 1950 and of these, 51 were located well outside the metropolitan area of Greater Toronto.

As the threat of atomic warfare intensifies, this trend toward decentralization could easily speed up. In any circumstances—regardless of A-bombs—the country will always be a pleasanter place to live in than those stone and concrete jungles where the outstretched hand is not a gesture of welcome but a sign that a tip is expected, and where the blare of a car horn has just one meaning: "Move, bud, you're in my way!"

Reflects and Reminisces

In the majority of western cities, after they attain a respectable enough size, a Hudson's Bay store starts business. Some day, unless all expectations fail, this will come to Prince Rupert. And that reminds one of the number of new comers who keep on asking questions. For example, how did this busy boom town up north get the name?

WINNIPEG WON

The Grand Trunk Pacific Railway staged a name competition and a Winnipeg girl won. This was away back in 1909. The choice appeared to suit public fancy. But first of all, who and what was Prince Rupert? Why ask? Every school boy knows the answer, according to the average parent. Well, he doesn't know the answer. Indeed, to this day, plenty of adults know precious little about the gallant prince.

NAMESAKE CITY

Here, in the namesake city are men and women curious and inquiring. Living here now, it is natural they should. They may know something about Rupert, but can stand more. He was first governor of the Hudson's Bay Company founded in 1670. He was a fighter, soldier, rover. He virtually started a trading concern three centuries ago—and the name is still going strong.

ALMOST GOVERNMENT

Some folks say HBC means "Here Before Christ" and there's no reason why it should not be true. King Charles II, in his granting of charter to the "company of adventurers," gave the sole right to empower and establish laws and impose penalties, to erect forts and maintain ships of war and to make peace and war with any prince and people not Christians. That's pretty sweeping. Charles had not overlooked or forgotten much.

WHEN RIVALRY CAME

Until the fall of Quebec, progress, while slow, was nevertheless steady. Then HBC grew rapidly from the Arctic to the Pacific. Their stations and forts dotted what is now Western Canada. They exploited an empire of furs and had the goodwill of the Indians. No mountain range was too remote, or wilderness too distant, not to feel the agency of the company. This was a monumental monopoly that eventually brought rivalry in the shape of the Northwest Company, and finally, after Confederation, Hudson's Bay sold territorial rights to the Ottawa government. This was in 1869.

It is not so long ago, a stockade could be seen in Port Simpson, a few miles from Prince Rupert. Fire destroyed it. This was a reminder of the more early days, and Hudson's Bay enterprise ranged so far and wide. If there is any community in the west where the original "adventurers" should be represented, it is here. Prince Rupert is situated far enough north to be in the very heart of Hudson's Bay Co. regions. And this city is keeping fresh, for all time, the name of its first chairman.

Rail History Turned Back

TORONTO—The teaching staff of the Richmond Hill public school were signatly puzzled yesterday when their students did not appear for classes after the noon hour lunch period.

Their anxiety would have been somewhat lessened had they known the children declared a holiday in order to watch the pages of history turn back for a complete century. In fact half the population of Richmond Hill turned out at the Canadian National Railway station to watch an old CNR wood-burning locomotive re-enact a scene which must have been familiar to residents of the town approximately 100 years ago.

The occasion celebrated the centenary of Canada's first postal service in what was then Upper and Lower Canada. The ancient wood-burner, pushed by a modern CNR diesel locomotive, carried mail from Richmond Hill to Toronto. Both the engineer and fireman, ex-railway pensioners and the mail courier were dressed in period costumes of a century ago.

The old wood-burner and the modern diesel engine both appear on a new four-cent Canadian stamp recently issued by the post office.

The mail courier aboard the old time engine upon arrival at the exhibition grounds was greeted by a costumed mail rider who delivered the latter pouches to waiting postal officials at the automotive building. Next Thursday an Indian runner and old stage coach will also cover the route southward to Ontario's capital. In addition, to give contrast to the ancient postal

Empress Sails No Royal Couple

LIVERPOOL—The Empress of France, on which Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip were to have travelled to Canada in a specially prepared suite, sailed yesterday for Quebec without the royal couple on board. There is still uncertainty, in view of the King's illness, whether the trip to Canada will be postponed or cancelled.

Dorreen Mine Now Milling

Milling is now in progress at the Dorreen mine, a gold-silver-lead-zinc property 125 miles from Prince Rupert. Directors say the milling rate will gradually be brought to a capacity of ninety to a hundred tons daily. Ore is expected to average about $79 a ton and convenient to a new aerial tram.

DANISH AREA

The Kingdom of Denmark, with an area of 16,580 square miles, has a population of 4,210,000.

Mayor Opens Broadcasts

Under the auspices of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Mayor H. F. Glassey was heard in an interesting broadcast early last evening. He told about early days in the city, going as far back as 1906, the mayor himself having visited here then. He outlined the beginning of things, the opposition of the harbor engineer, Mr. Bacon, to any settlement whatever, that early, the filing of a mineral claim by John Houston and the starting on it, of the first newspaper, The Empire, and many other incidents and examples of pioneer growth and gradual expansion.

The Chamber of Commerce plans further similar broadcasts.

Grand Manan Is Beauty Spot

Local Alderman Revisits Native Village—Saw Civic Pride There

Back in the city with Mrs. Dagget after a visit to their native New Brunswick—Mr. Dagget's first in forty-one years—Aid. H. M. Dagget was impressed with the civic pride as exemplified in his old home village of Grand Manan.

It is a town of 3000 and every house seems to be maintained admirably, brightly painted and with beautiful lawns and well-ordered gardens.

Grand Manan is located on the island of the same name, near the entrance of the Bay of Fundy, about twelve miles from St. Andrew's. The island is only twelve miles long—it is very close to the state of Maine—but a million dollars has been spent on its highways which equal anything in British Columbia.

A well settled population consists of farmer-fishermen and, during the summer, tourist visitors are catered to.

The island is served by a ferry steamer plying from St. John and St. Andrew's.

Mr. and Mrs. Dagget also visited Fredericton and Saint John.

Mrs. J. Bolton and Mrs. Jack Simpson, Belrupert Apartments, were joint hostesses at a delightful kitchen shower in honor of Miss Lillian Franklin (now Mrs. Mahlon Howson) prior to her recent marriage. The rooms were decorated beautifully with flow-

An umbrella, filled with many lovely gifts, was presented to the guest of honor.

A dainty lunch was served by the hostess. The mother of the bride, Mrs. Leslie Franklin, poured.

Miss Franklin acknowledged the gifts appreciatively.

Something More People Want Has Been Added

Prince Rupert will be treated to a new type of service, long desired by many housewives. Wrapped sliced bread can now be obtained from Co-op Bakery, following installation of a new model Hayssen combination wrapper and slicer.

At a cost of more than $5000, Pat Forman, bakery manager, says the slicer has been installed "to give the people what they want." There will be no extra cost for the sliced bread he says. Two motors operate the machine, which is claimed to be the most modern "small bakery" unit on the market. Production speed is considered at 1,800 loaves an hour to be maximum. One man operation could handle 1,500 with ease, says Mr. Forman. Several innovations in the slicer, as set apart from earlier model machines, are pointed out by Mr. Forman. For example, the wrapper will not begin to operate unless a loaf of bread falls into correct position and (Continued on Page 5)

Olof Bjorke, Stewart, Dies

STEWART—Olof Bjorke, miner, aged 51, a native of Norway, dropped dead on Eighth Street on Tuesday of last week. Until the time of his death he had seemed to be in good health and his sudden demise came as a distinct shock to everyone who knew him.

Mr. Bjorke was proceeding along the street, accompanied by a friend, Jack Olsen, going to the latter's cabin to have breakfast when he collapsed and expired. Olsen called Mr. Tooth whose house was close and he summoned Dr. Donald MacKay, who pronounced life extinct.

Constable B. T. Blackwood notified Coroner W. Shields Orr who arrived at the scene shortly thereafter and after examination authorized the removal of the body to the mortuary. An inquiry was held in the afternoon, death being found due to cerebral hemorrhage.

The widow, Mrs. Margaret Bjorke, is visiting in Vancouver. Deceased had lately been employed by the Riverside Mine in Alaska and J. Langdon, on behalf of the company, took over arrangements for the interment in the Stewart cemetery.

Langdon conducted the funeral service in the Canadian Legion hall, and Robert Macleod the service at the graveside.

Pallbearers were E. Peterson, Lindstrum, P. Johnson, P. Svedberg, I. Soderlov and L. Hansen.

The funeral service was well attended, testifying to the esteem in which the deceased was held in the community. Amongst the mining fraternity he had a well deserved reputation as a miner of exceptional ability.

The H. A. Stewart Company, local undertakers, undertook the burial arrangements.

New Company Starts Work

STEWART — A. Robertson, mining engineer, arrived in company with Vernon Allen in connection with the opening up of the McFadden property on the Marmot River. The new company will be known as the Marmot Lead and Zinc Mines Limited. Work on the property commenced, with a small crew, during the week and will be pushed vigorously as soon as the necessary manpower can be obtained.

It is reported that several small properties have been optioned by the company, including the Hercules Group on the upper Salmon River area. The latter property adjoins the Big Missouri on the north.

Driving Past Big Missouri

STEWART—During the past week Jackie Bouzek's jeep was driven through to the Silver Tip mine over the new tractor road.

This is the first vehicle to go beyond the Big Missouri other than the Public Works bulldozer which was used in the construction of the road. Up to the present the truck road ended at the Big Missouri mine. The new extension of the Big Missouri road is reported to be in good shape and will be of material assistance when the Silver Tip mine ships ore.

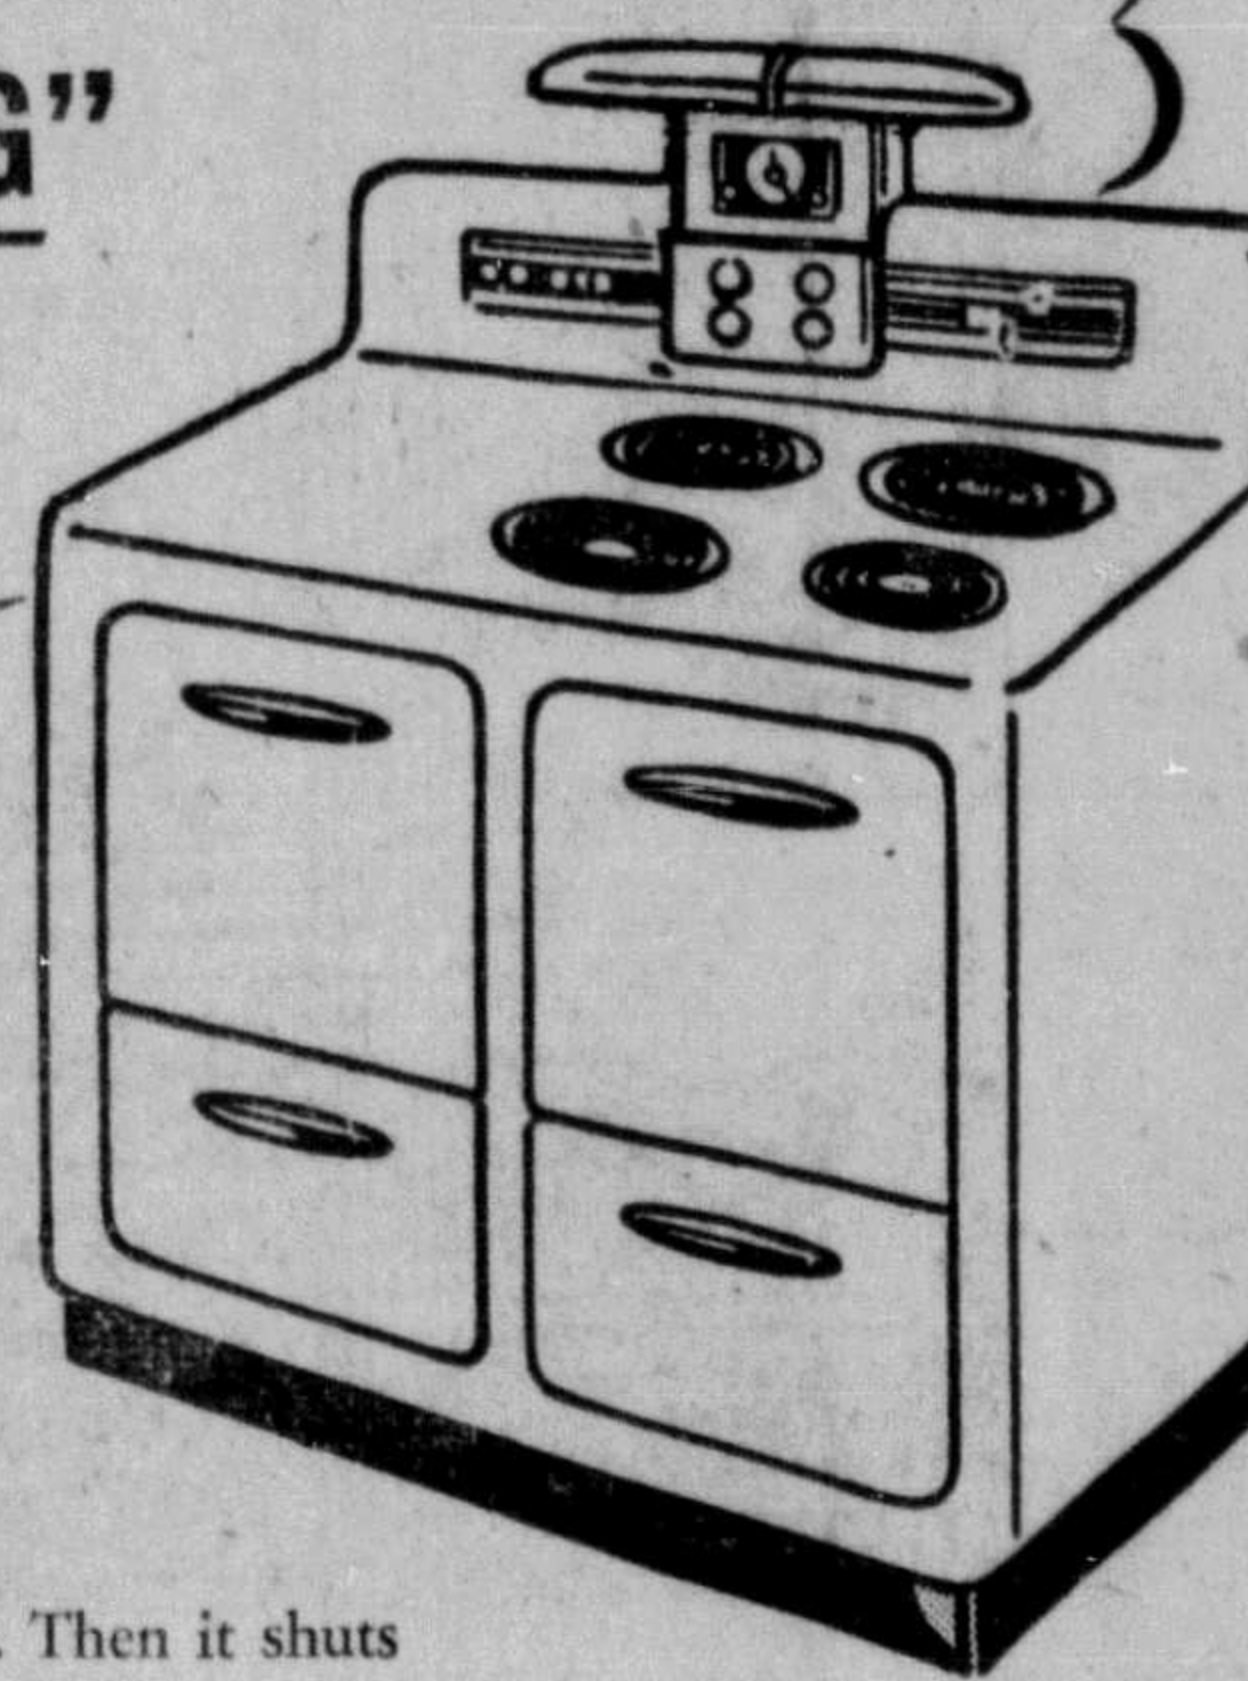

Another point—the separate motor for the slicer—allows bread to be wrapped without being sliced by the micro-sharp, rapidly agitating knives.

A pound loaf of bread is cut into 18 slices. Operation of the machine has been assigned to Gerry Ford.

Bread is thoroughly cooled for 12 hours before going into the machine.

Right-of-Way At Safe Zones

P-TA Thinks Matter
Should Be Clarified

Who has the right of way at city street safety zones marked with yellow lines—the pedestrian,
or the motorist?

This question was raised at the first regular monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert Parent-Teacher Council Monday evening.

Although traffic regulations give pedestrians the right of way at these yellow-lined corners, council members felt this fact was not widely enough known, especially among pedestrians.

Plans were finalized for the visit of Mrs. E. Evans, President of the B.C. Parent-Teacher Federation, who is expected to arrive in the city on October 3 from the interior where she will have visited several up-country P.T.A.'s.

Electricity From Wind

WASHINGTON (AP)—A proposal to turn an inexhaustible supply of wind into electricity stirred a gust of enthusiasm in Congress.

Fascinated members of the House of Representatives interior affairs committee watched an inventor show a scale model of a towering wind-driven power generator.

The proposed $2,750,000 government-built project would carry forward tests begun at Grandpa's Knob, Vt., 12 years ago by a private concern, Duraluminum rotar blades would whirl in a 200-foot circle from some westerly, mountain-top if Congress approves the plans of inventor Percy Thomas of Montclair, N.J.

Thomas, a retired engineer, envisions his wind-electric system as a supplementary source of electricity for steam and hydro plants. Because of the variable nature of wind, he explained, it cannot be relied upon alone as a steady power source, but can feed 20 per cent or more of the needed current into power grids
a good deal of the time.

William E. Warne, assistant secretary of the interior, told the committee that even such intermittent production of electricity would be of great benefit in the west since it would conserve some of the water used in hydro systems.

The only commercial U.S. experiment in harnessing the wind to make electricity was started in the mountainous Grandpa's Knob district in 1939 by the S.
Morgan Smith Co. A big two-wheeled fan actually fed electricity into utility lines for three weeks before a structural weakness developed in a blade and it went down the mountain side.

The committee took no action on the authorization bill.

All Coastal Fishing Ends

Commercial fishing in the northern coastal area will be all over at 6 o'clock tonight. The Fisheries Department announced the closure yesterday because of dry streams which have seriously hindered escapement of salmon to spawning grounds, and because of the light run of chum salmon.

Bella Bella, Bella Coola, Smith's and River's inlets areas will now be closed to all salmon fishing.
These are in addition to the present closed areas, such as the Naas and Skeena Rivers.

Announcement of closure of the Queen Charlotte Islands areas is expected soon, department officials say.

Cellist is Appreciated

But Prince Rupert will have to Support Good Music Better

If Prince Rupert is to continue to enjoy fine music by outstanding artists, music lovers of the city will have to accord them a better measure of patronage and interest than that which was received last night by Bogumil Sykora, celebrated Russian cellist, who appeared before a small audience at the Civic Centre.

Those who were there, however, were thrilled by this outstanding master and his young wife, Wynifred Juliette Sykora, who is his accompanist.

In an interesting program, which ranged from the highest in classics to a variety of ballad melody, Mr. Sykora charmed the audience with his technical skill and depth of interpretation with his Galiano cello.

The artist loves his music and soon transports his audience into his own fine spirit. He was generous in his encores and, at the end of the program, gave a series of extra numbers.

Outstanding item of the program to those appreciative of the artist's highest skill was the ambitious number consisting of variations on a Rocooco theme by Tchaikowsky, an alternation of allegros and andantes with many weird sound effects and sweeping intricate fingering and bowing.

A popular number of a series of old English airs in the second part of the program was the sweet "Golden Slumbers Kiss
Your Eyes" lullaby by Cedric Sharpe.

Also audience intriguing were a pair of items dedicated to Mr.
Sykora by South American composers, particularly the sparkling "Aubade" by John Urlich of Trinidad.

Another number, which gave the artist the fullest scope for his technical skill and tonal shading with wide spread of moods, was the vigorous "Intermezzo" by E. Granados with sharp staccatos and sweeping bow alternatives.

The encores were Mozart "German Dance" number, Tchaikow-sky's "Chanson Trieste," Schumann's "Traumeri" and
"Brahm's Lullaby."

At the close of the program, Miss Elaine Steffens went to the platform to present Mrs. Sykora with a beautiful bouquet of flowers in token of audience appreciation.

Usherettes, members of the High School Orchestra, were Misses Doreen Freeman, Elsa Insulaider, June Picket and Louise Freeman.

E. D. Forward spoke briefly to bespeak a better measure of support in anticipation of the "Alaska Trail" program of three concerts which will bring celebrated artists to Prince Rupert during the coming winter.

THE PROGRAM
Mr. Sykora's program was as follows:
PART I

"Sonatina"—Allegro Brillante, Menuetto, Adagio, Allegro (W. A.

Fall months are showing an-generally. There are seven extensive reconversion work.

Besides the seven vessels, there

Have Your
NEW SUIT
HAND-TAILORED

MEASURE

There's not another YOU in all the world — you're
YOU — just YOU.

Have your new Fall suit hand-tailored to your own individual measure and personality — little dashes of YOU here and there. Be yourself. Express yourself.
You'll feel so different.

The Fall and Winter Styled-Rite Quality samples are here — so wholly different and utterly new. No words, no newspaper illustration can describe colours, patterns and weaves. You'll have to SEE WITH YOUR OWN EYES and to persuade you to do so at once — to give you your pick — we are making this special Season's Opening Offer.
