Dominion Government will Set Prices of all Foods; Discussion in Parliament

The firm Handling of Profiteers is Demanded; Connor says That Investigation will be made in all Lines And Profits will be Fixed.

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Ottawa, Sept. 6.—The Dominion Government has decided to fix the prices at which commodities can be sold. That is the latest announcement in regard to the regulation of prices.

"It means that we will fix the profits on everything, just as on sugar," said W. F. Connor, vice-chairman of the Board of commerce when asked the exact portend of the announcement that the Board would make a series of inquiries and afterwards fix the scale of profits, to exceed which will be an offense under heavy penalty. "All who disobey the order are liable to a fine of $1,000 a day or to imprisonment."

In the House of Commons yesterday the question of living costs was discussed. Demands for the firm handling of profiteers was a feature of the debate on the address. From opposition members came the criticism of the Government in regard to cost of living with a further plea for amnesty in favor of defaulters under the military-service act.

The debate on the Peace Treaty has the right of way between Monday and Thursday and it is unlikely that it will be resumed before Friday.

BRITISH NAVY EXPENDITURES ARE ALREADY CUT DOWN CONSIDERABLY - JELlicoe ON FISHER'S STATEMENT

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

London, Sept. 6.—The daily expenditure for the British navy is now half what it was at the time of the signing of the armistice, according to an announcement made by Thomas J. McNamara, financial secretary of the Admiralty.

The personnel of the navy has been reduced from 400,000 to 170,000 and of more than 1,000 naval craft under construction work on 584 has ceased. The saving already made amounts to 45,000,000 pounds sterling or approximately a quarter of a billion dollars. Ninety-eight of the older ships have already been sold and 1,500 trawlers have been restored to their original owners.

Jellicoe's Interpretation.

Sydney, N. S. W., Sept. 6.—Lord Jellicoe, after reading the cabled report of the letter written by Lord Fisher demanding the scrapping of virtually half of the ships of the British navy because of their being obsolescent, expressed the opinion that underlying Lord Fisher's demand for the scrapping of the older vessels, was the idea that a bigger and more modern navy be built.

MUCH FRUIT ON THE MARKET

Peaches Being Sold for Preserving
—New Potatoes Sell at $2.75 a Sack.

Last week has been peaches week in the local stores and many crates of first class fruit have been sold. The rush will very likely continue for the next week. The season for Bartlett pears is going to be brief this year as there is a marked scarcity. Apricots are now off the local market with only a few red currants and gooseberries arriving. Black currants and white currants are past for this year and those who have not done their preserving along these lines will have to do without. Pumpkin, citron, squash and marrow are beginning to arrive in quantities, but are being rapidly used up as their time is short.

The vegetables continue about the same with a slight drop in onions and new potatoes are now at $2.75 per sack. The up river shipments of ground produce has not been of the very best and there has been a marked scarcity of such side dishes as cauliflower.

Local butchers are of the opinion that a slight fall in price is expected in meat during the next week. The flood season in the fresh meat market is on at present and the government investigations are also forcing the hands of the controlling interests. They will not remain low for long however, as the winter scarcity will soon set in. The following are the current prices:

LATE MRS. SANDERSON WAS LAID TO REST AT PORT SIMPSON

Party Go From Prince Rupert to Pay Last Respects to Wife of Local Captain.

Yesterday afternoon in the southwest corner of the Anglican churchyard at Port Simpson, which is beautifully situated on the hillside overlooking the fair harbor, a small group of Prince Rupert visitors gathered around a newly dug grave, to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of Mrs. Sanderson, wife of Captain E. Sanderson of the trawler Geo. E. Foster. A simple service was conducted by Dr. Spencer of Port Simpson, assisted by the Rev. J. B. Rowell of the First Baptist Church of Prince Rupert.

After five years of the most painful illness, Mrs. Sanderson, who had been in the Port Simpson Hospital since May of this year, passed away early on Wednesday morning. The party of mourners, consisting of the most intimate friends of Captain and Mrs. Sanderson, left Prince Rupert yesterday morning on the "F. H. Phippen" which the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. had kindly placed at the disposal of Captain Sanderson for the sad occasion. Shortly after their arrival at Port Simpson the funeral service was held in the hospital. The casket, which was covered with flowers, was carried all the way from the hospital to the churchyard by the pallbearers, where the deceased was laid to rest.

Accompanying the Prince Rupert party to the grave were Dr. Large, of the Port Simpson hospital, several of the hospital staff and Mr. John Flewin. The pallbearers were Jim Thomas, Geo. Wilson, J. Myhill Jones, W. Williamson, Chris Elkins and J. B. Rowell. Among the floral tributes sent, those from the Sons of England, the Adair Carss Chapter I. O. D. E., the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co., the crew of the "Geo. E. Foster," the school children of Port Simpson, and the hospital staff were noticeable for their beauty. The funeral arrangements were in the hands of the B. C. Undertakers. The "Phippen" brought Captain Sanderson and his party back to the city last evening.

Trite Talks on Girl Subjects
BY AUNT JIMMIE

"Is your whole object in life to attract men?"
"Of course it is. Its the sole object of nine women out of ten."
The above is a snatch of conversation taken from the new book "Mufti" by "Sapper," otherwise Cyril McNeile. It set me thinking. Not having an opinion of my own to offer and being an old maid and therefore one not supposed to have an opinion worth anything, I set out to find out how my younger friends viewed it.
Most of them had never thought of the matter, but they were pretty well agreed that it was true. They lived very largely to attract men.

They dressed for men, they walked for men, they talked for men and they even ate for men. They endured dinners that otherwise they would have discarded, just because they thought it would please their male companions to eat with them.

There was Kitty, for instance. She is one of those fair girls with the blue eyes and a freckle or two, just enough to lend charm. She remarked:

"Oh you silly! Were you never young? I live for men. They interest me all the time. Some of them I hate, some of them I just love, and some of them are nice to go out with, but to none of them am I indifferent. Even the old and the obese, the ugly and awkward are interesting. By the way, old thing, are there any really ugly men? I never knew of one. They all have their peculiar attractions. Men for mine, my old auntie. Give me plenty of men and I really live. What else is there worth anything in this life?"

Kitty was the most enthusiastic and outspoken, but from the conversations with the others I should say that all were much alike only some were less frank in their expression.

AUNT JIMMIE.

FIRE INSURANCE

Fire insurance is the cheapest commodity on the market today. The rate on your dwelling is from $1.30 to $2.00 for each $100.00 of insurance for 3 years, depending on its location. This means that if you carry insurance on your dwelling for 156 years without a fire you will have paid out only the amount for which you are insured. It is so cheap you can not afford to be without it. We write it.

PROTEST AGAINST THE AGENT GENERAL

Board of Trade Decides to Write Premier in Regard to What Seemed Like Sectionalism.

At the meeting of the Board of Trade last night, exception was taken by G. W. Nickerson to an article appearing in a Vancouver paper in which the Agent General referred to a good many industries as being all within one hundred miles of Vancouver, the impression being that he had the interests of that city in view.

It was decided to write Premier Oliver drawing attention to the article and suggesting that the Agent General should be informed that he represented the whole province and not Vancouver only.

Restoring The Eyes

Do you know what is the best restorer for tired eyes? We will tell you. It is sleep. Shakespeare says: "O Sleep! O gentle Sleep! Nature's soft nurse. And young, tired Nature's sweet restorer. Balmy Sleep!"

But, morning comes, then the day of work and worry. Tired eyes soon grow weary again, and perhaps some slight and almost unnoticed defect adds to the fatigue.

This can only be remedied by means of suitable lenses. Next to sleep, the greatest boon for tired eyes is a pair of Joudry's glasses, made to neutralize and correct all the deficiencies that cause discomfort.

Our business is to discover and remove the slight errors that cause tired eyes.

We've Written Many a CUT GLASS Ad.

But never in our lives have we felt that we did the subject justice. And we never expect to. Because we have in our command of words that will describe the beauties of our cut glass.

We can tell you that it radiates light of endless colors, of its weight, and that there is no higher grade of cut glass made, etc., and yet we feel that we haven't said much about it.

To make it easier will you just make a visit here?
