To Make Canada Major Supplier

NEW YORK (CP)—Harold Blanche, president of the Celanese Corporation of America, said today that the plant now under construction by its subsidiary, the Canadian Chemical Co., on a 430-acre site in Edmonton is expected to cost in excess of $50,000,000 and will be in operation within one-and-a-half years.

The new plant will consume 75,000 gallons of petroleum gases daily from Alberta oil fields. In addition to producing industrial organic chemicals by a process based on oxidation of liquefied petroleum gases, the plant will produce acetate, staple fibre and filament yarn.

Mr. Blanche said "plans for the Edmonton plant envisage development of Canada as a major supplier of cellulose acetate." (Some time ago Mr. Blanche indicated that the capacity of the Prince Rupert pulp mill would eventually be stepped up and a further announcement along these lines is expected before long.)

A communiqué near the close of the five-day conference said that Big Three ministers "found solid ground for confidence in the growing strength and unity of the free world."

They announced sympathy for Italy's proposal to revise its peace treaty setting a maximum of 300,000 men on Italian armed forces and said this question will be considered further.

Dean Acheson, Herbert Morrison and Robert Schuman also discussed the threat of inflation upon the modern world—a threat which Canada's Lester Pearson said yesterday was as great a menace as that of enemy bombs.

The Big Three foreign ministers reached final agreement last night on terms of a "peace contract" proposal to bring Western Germany into the free world defence line-up.

American, British and French high commissioners will be instructed to negotiate with the West German government for a post-war settlement which provides:

1. Virtual complete independence for West German regime in foreign policy and domestic matters.
2. Abolition of the present Allied three-power high commission and the substituting of ambassadors.
3. Changing status of occupation troops to defence forces.

Officials described the "peace contract" as liberal but said the Allies intended to preserve some powers.

ROME (CP)—Italy has moved close to an outright diplomatic break with Czechoslovakia. Italy has called her consul-general home from Bratislava and order Czechs to close their consulate in Milan tomorrow.

Charging "a long series of offensive actions" by Czechoslovakia, Italy says it is "practically impossible to operate" the Bratislava consulate.

PARIS (CP)—France has suspended all air traffic with Czechoslovakia, a foreign ministry spokesman said today. No time limit has been placed on the suspension, effective yesterday.

PARIS (CP)—An Air France liner, with 35 passengers aboard, is still missing on a flight from Perpignan to Oran, North Africa, Agence France Presse Agency reported Wednesday night from Oran.

Terrace Board on Job—Booster Station Equipment Arrives

TERRACE.—Reports of the convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central B.C., which was held last week in Prince Rupert, were given by three of the Terrace delegates at Wednesday night's meeting of the Terrace and District Board of Trade.

Harry King gave a very interesting and comprehensive report of the deliberations of the convention and answered several questions asked of him by some of the local members.

Mrs. L. Newhouse, in reporting on the social highlights of the meeting, stated that Prince Rupert had gone "all out" to make their guests' stay in the city a very pleasant one and that nothing that could be done for them was left undone.

John Kill had found particular interest in H. G. Perry's speech at the close of the convention with its intimation that "we in the north are getting only the crumbs from the south."

The delegates were thanked for their reports by the meeting which then passed on to routine business which concerned, chiefly, the disposal of correspondence.

C. A. Berner, CNR superintendent, in reply to a request for a warning bell at the Kalum Street crossing, advised the board that the traffic volume at that point would be investigated and the board would hear further about it.

Following the circulation of a petition to keep the Prince Rupert Highway open during the winter months, the board was advised that the department had sent a rotary plough to the Skeena district. The district engineer at Prince Rupert had also been asked for a list of snow removal equipment he had at his disposal as well as what suggestions he may have for keeping the highway open.

In the committee reports Mr. King gave a word of warning to householders to have their buildings cleared all around so that cats can get at rats which, now that the fall is near, will seek to get indoors.

C. J. Norrington, reporting for the radio committee, stated that the transmitter and all equipment is in Terrace for the booster station which will be installed on the arrival of the CBC engineers. He was given authority by the board to advise the residents, through the medium of the press, that when the booster station is installed and in operation, the radio licences are immediately due.

J. L. Palethorpe of Penticton and F. W. Hawes of Victoria were the board's nominees for directors on Canadian Chamber of Commerce.

An invitation will be extended to Hon. E. C. Carson to meet with members of the executive council when he comes into the district.

The meeting was held in the Credit Union Hall and was presided over by Alex Gillanders who welcomed the guests, Mr. Specht and Mr. Ross.

Miss Elliott Head was accepted as a new board member.

To promote attendance of the members at the monthly meetings of the board it was decided that in future the meetings will take the form of dinner meetings to be held in the Motel. The next meeting will be the regular quarterly meeting.

Indians and Yanks Miss

Both Lose in Crucial Games Thursday

NEW YORK (CP)—Cleveland Indians missed an opportunity to stretch their American League lead to two games as they bowed 1 to 0 to Bob Porterfield and the Washington Senators.

Porterfield spun a brilliant three-hitter to keep the Indians one game ahead of the runner-up New York Yankees who dropped a 3 to 2 decision to Detroit.

The Senators scored the only run of the game in the third inning with the help of a two-base error by the Indian's second-sacker, Bob Avila.

The loss also endangered the Yankees' lead over the third place Boston Red Sox. The Sox nipped the St. Louis Browns 5 to 4 in 10 innings to pull to within 2½ games of the Yanks.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Meanwhile the St. Louis Cardinals seriously impeded the New York Giants' bid to overhaul the Brooklyn Dodgers in the National League by beating the Giants 6 to 4. The defeat dropped the Giants to six games behind the idle Dodgers.

The St. Louis Cardinals dropped a 2 to 0 night game to Boston Braves in the second half of an unusual doubleheader which called upon them to meet two different teams the same day.

Will Reds Try Drive?

EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS (CP)—Allied troops won another commanding mountain peak in their roller-coaster drive to force Communists off high points in rugged East Central Korea.

An Allied officer said that Red strength in the sector has definitely decreased. However, reports indicate that at least 250,000 tank-supported Communist troops are in position on the western and west central fronts for possible thrust at Seoul.

No sign of a drive is imminent but there is speculation that the Communists may try to drive this week-end when the Korean moon is full.

Jet Aircraft To be Built

OTTAWA (CP)—The Canadian government has announced a plan for building 500 low-power American-type jet aircraft to be used in the RCAF's expanding air-training program. Production, to take possibly three years at a cost of about $100,000,000, will be undertaken by Canadair Ltd. of Montreal, manufacturers in Canada of the speedy F36 Sabre, adopted by the RCAF as a front-line jet fighter.

Glassey New Mayor Krueger Alderman

Douglas Frizzell Runner-up in Close Contest for Chief Magistracy

Herbert Francis Glassey, manufacturers' agent, stipendiary magistrate and sordough of the north country, was elected mayor of Prince Rupert on Thursday, to succeed the late George W. Rudderham who died recently.

Glassey received 418 votes for a close majority of 27 in a three-cornered contest which saw a total of 1084 accepted ballots. Douglas Frizzell obtained 391 votes for second place and T. Norton Youngs was third with 275.

Michael Kreuger was elected to a three month aldermanic vacancy with 588 votes. Eric Faure was defeated with 421.

Polling took place all day yesterday at Civic Centre, but it was not until the last ballots were counted that it was certain who the new mayor would be.

Mayor's seat was vacated following recent death of George Rudderham. Another election will be held in December, when the mayor's seat again will be contested for the regular two-year term as well as several seats for alderman.

"It was a good, clean fight," said Mr. Glassey last night and he was beaming. He expressed appreciation for support and confidence.

Mr. Youngs and Mr. Frizzell took defeat gracefully and hastened to congratulate the new mayor. Mr. Frizzell had indicated previously that he would run again in the December elections.

Mr. Kreuger said he was grateful for this first chance to serve the city in civic affairs.

SWORN IN—Declared elected by City Clerk William Long immediately following the counting of the ballots last night, Mr. Glassey was sworn in as mayor this morning by Magistrate W. D. Vane.

The two new aldermen—George Hills, for an uncompleted term of 15 months, and Michael Kreuger, for three months—were also sworn in.

Standing technically adjourned for lack of a quorum since Monday night of this week, the council will meet next Monday evening for the conducting of regular business.

Czechs Hops Being Banned

FRANKFURT, Germany (CP)—The Allied High Commission has barred all Czech air line flights across West Germany, Commission officials announced yesterday.

An American official said the United States, Britain and France had concurred in joint action effective as from Tuesday midnight.

Asked whether the decision had anything to do with the case of William Oatis, Associated Press correspondent sentenced to jail by Czechoslovakia on spy charges, an answer of "no comment" was given.

The United States Congress has voted to recommend that commercial relations with Czechoslovakia be severed until Oatis is freed.

President Truman has also said that he will take whatever measures are necessary to secure the release of Oatis.

Critical Gov't

Talk Out Before Demand Controls

—The Trades and Congress in Canada, calling for direct price controls, yesterday attacked the federal government for "indifference" and "inactivity" towards consumers.

Resolution demanded: "The government is called upon to bring about a restoration of policy of subsidies on the basis of wartime conditions."

Mr. Gregg, addressing the convention, had said that the government had no intention of the present reimposition of controls.

Election Over

NOW that interference following the recent death of the mayor and the consequent by-election interlude is over, there should be no delay in getting back to normal and down to business in civic affairs.

Three important months lie ahead in which to wind up the present year's operations and prepare plans for the coming year which, from standpoint of both financial operation and new project construction, may be of an epochal character.

Congratulations go to the winners. It is up to us all now to get behind efforts to conduct the city's business and promote the interests of the community.

There is much more than the glory of winning an election and the honor of being entrusted by the citizens. There is work ahead that requires good judgment, sound reason and hard work.

The newly-elected will do well to proceed with such an appreciation of their situation.

Too Bad, Edmonton

POOR EDMONTON! She is worried because the opening of the Hart Highway, connecting the Peace River country with Prince George and more directly with the ports of the Pacific Coast at Prince Rupert and Vancouver, may endanger her position of supremacy as chief trading centre for the great north country.

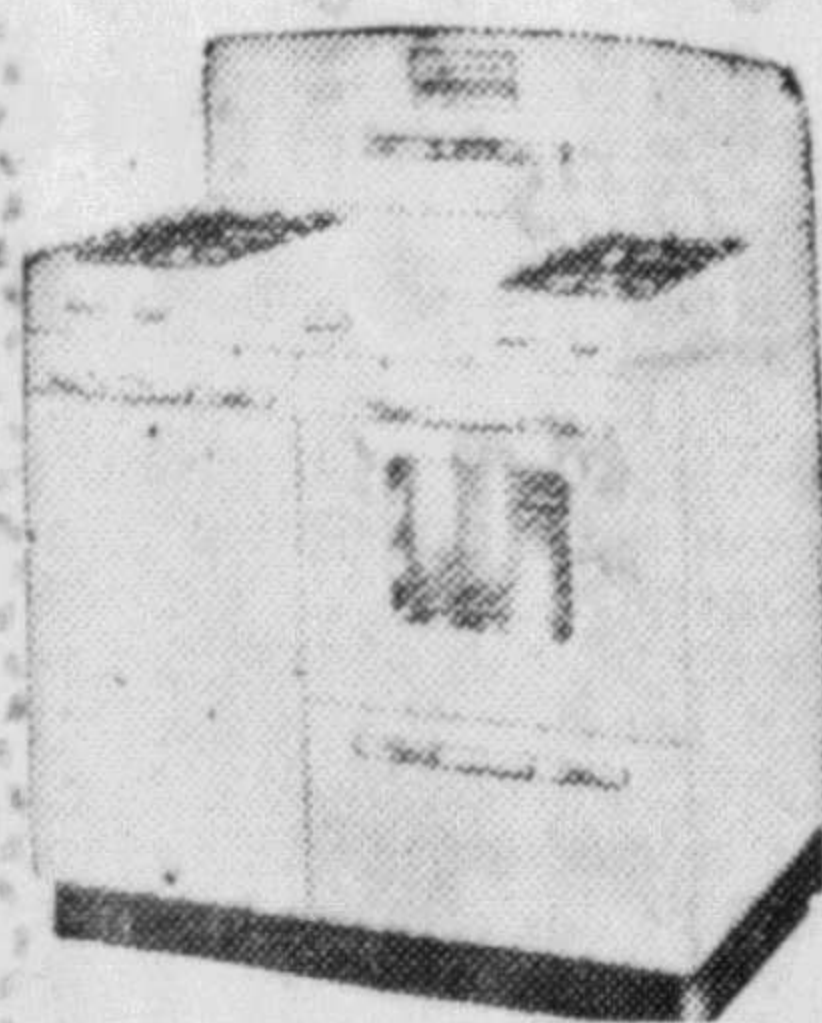

Of course, the Hart Highway will have the very definite tendency of making the Peace River Block and a goodly portion of the western Peace River country more tributary to the Pacific Coast than to Edmonton. In fact, that is quite natural. And, when the Pacific Great Eastern Railway is extended northward from Prince George it will be even more so. Too long already has that country been forced the unnatural way to Edmonton and eastward simply because there has been no westward access.

But we do not think Edmonton should be worried too much. Already bursting at the seams with the development of oil and other natural resources in her immediate vicinity and with a huge industrial expansion, Edmonton should be worrying more about taking care of the traffic and business that is now offering instead of worrying about some other places getting their just due.

In this greatly expanding and opening up north-west country, there will be lots of business to keep a big Edmonton happy and prosperous as well as Prince Rupert, Prince George, Vancouver and the other strategic points in British Columbia.

Threat To B.C. Fish

THE MOST serious weakness of the peace treaty with Japan is that it gives no assurance of safeguarding B.C. fisheries.

Uncle Sam got what he most wanted from Japan at the time of the actual signing. First Uncle Sam got annexation of islands just off the coast of Japan, and the right to keep U.S. troops in Japan itself. Secondly, he got a military alliance with Japan actually signed in less than 24 hours after the main peace document.

But the other nations that signed were given the "right" to TRY to collect reparations. And Canada was given the right to TRY to get a fisheries agreement with Japan.

MAYBE I am unduly suspicious of the ruling elements in Japan. I sincerely hope so. But unless those ruling elements have changed their nature completely, Canada is not going to have an easy job getting Japan's name on the dotted line.

All down through the years of allied occupation of Japan we were told that never again would the fisheries question be left "wide open." We were told that the new arrangement would be similar to that between Canada and the U.S.A. on the Great Lakes—that is, that each nation's fishermen have the right to fish in their half of the entire lake, and the other nation must keep to its own side of the fence.

That is exactly the arrangement that is needed between Asia and North America. We need a treaty which says that only Asians may fish in the Asian half of the Pacific ocean, and only North Americans may fish in the American half of the Pacific.

I am using the term "half" rather loosely. To be specific—Asian fishermen should be confined to waters on the Asian side of the line running north and south through the Midway Islands. North American fishermen should be confined to the American side.

ANYONE FAMILIAR with the background of antagonism to Japan on this west coast of Canada knows that its pre-war causes were mostly economic. It was because of such things as the refusal of Japan to enter into any kind of sane fisheries regulations. We even saw Japanese "floating canneries" just off the west coast of B.C. More often, we saw the Japanese "mother ship" technique of fishing.

Canada was spending vast sums on fish conservation measures—such things as the fish ladders on the rivers. But there was no co-operation from pre-war Japan. It was literally "catch as catch can."

CANADA SHOULD stand firm for a CONTINENTAL treaty. We must never forget that we are dealing with an entirely new and more militant China, as well as a mighty and stirring Asia everywhere.

Whatever fishery rights Japan exercises off our coasts will sooner or later also be claimed and exercised by Red China.

If we can't get a treaty with Japan which keeps the Japanese fishermen in their half of the vast ocean we will soon again have the "floating canneries" off our coasts.

But those floating canneries will be manned by Chinese Reds—flying the Red flag of the new regime.

If we don't want that, we must work with every ounce of energy and with all speed possible to get Japan's name on the dotted line.

For without that signature we haven't a chance to forestall what will surely become a "rat race" for our B.C. fish.

Log Scale Keeping Up

August About Same as Last Year but 1951 to Date Is Away Ahead

Although August was held down to about the same level as 1950, log scaling in Prince Rupert district for the year is showing an increase of about 40 per cent over the volume for 1950. The forest closure situation tended to curtail August production.

The aggregate scale to date is 215,866 531 board feet compared with 155,844,555 board feet for the first eight months of 1950.

The logging operations of Columbia Cellulose are keeping this year's scale well ahead—in addition to generally expanded demands of district sawmills.

Poles and piling operations in the interior are also showing a large gain—almost 50 per cent over 1950.

Following are the scaling figures, per variety, for this August compared with last year:

	1951	1950
Bd. Ft.	Bd. Ft.	Bd. Ft.
Fir	2,727,943	2,444,530
Cedar	5,320,494	3,942,016
Spruce	14,164,215	16,705,064
Hemlock	10,261,836	10,296,634
Balsam	2,185,250	2,092,502
Jackpine	3,318,472	1,881,118
Misc.	832,588	9,433
Totals	38,720,812	37,371,297

FOREST PRODUCTS

The scale of poles and piling in the interior in August was 165,655 lineal feet—the preponderance being cedar—compared with 74,270 lineal feet in August 1950.

The log count this August was 14,922 pieces—all jackpine—compared with 11,224 in August 1950.

Fifty-three cords of wood were scaled this August compared with 109 last August.

Although there was a time when there was no such thing, the newspaper comic is a valuable feature of publishing. It has long since been discovered it pays to devote space to the business of providing bizarre entertainment as well as the distribution of news. The comic in its multiplicity of effort, is big business. In countless homes, the pictures do not receive the attention of juveniles exclusively.

STILL WONDERING

The federal member for Cariboo, George Murray, here for the Associated Boards of Trade convention, says Prince Rupert should not be backward in urging on the CNR establishment of a hotel here. The city has been doing exactly that ever since 1910. First time, there was a definite, specific promise from railway to city. But since then, not even that much.

Comes the fall and season of quiet contemplation. How true, we come into this world with nothing on. And how painfully true, we're not long in it before somebody has something on each and every one of us.

It is estimated the cost of redecorating Government House at Victoria for the royal visit will cost between ten and fifteen thousand dollars. Like everywhere else, Victoria is full of pensioners who will not be overjoyed to reflect that the bill will be taken care of out of taxation. Also, they will not forget that pensions say unchanged—even if government houses do not.

WHERE'S THAT ROOF?

Call it housing shortage or what ever strikes your fancy, but the fact remains that today more than ever before, anyone coming to Prince Rupert must figure on finding a roof over his head if he plans on staying a while—that is unless he is a property owner. It all comes down to that overshadowing and disturbing challenge. And unless there's labor and material, the situation will be worse as time lengthens.

If one must fight in Korea, there is at least some satisfaction in learning that allied troops stand twice as good a chance of survival as those who were wounded in the second great war. Credit goes to the development of life-saving drugs, blood and blood plasma, and swiftness of transport to hospital.

New Head PTA Named

W. D. Griffiths Succeeds Mrs. Denning as Conrad Street President

Election of officers for the coming season took place at the first meeting of the Conrad Street School Parent-Teacher Association for the 1951-52 term, held Tuesday evening in Conrad Street School. W. D. Griffiths was elected president of the organization to succeed Mrs. John Denning.

Other officers were elected as follows:

- Vice President—Percy Downing.
- Secretary—Frank Derry.
- Treasurer—Leonard Sykes.
- Social Convener—Mrs. J. Kurdzial.
- Program Convener—Mrs. W. Murdoch.
- Membership Convener—Mrs. A. Bussanich.
- Representative to the P.T. Council—Mrs. M. Hansen.
- Literary Convener—Mrs. S. Ballinger.
- Representative to the Film Council—V. Wells.
- Publicity Convener—Mrs. J. Denning.

The retiring president expressed her thanks to all members, especially the outgoing executive, who worked with her to make the past year a most successful one. She reviewed the work of the PTA during 1950-51, highlighting among other things, a most successful White Elephant Sale, and the purchasing for the school of an additional piano and a set of Encyclopaedia Britannica.

PLEDGES HIMSELF

The new president pledged himself to PTA work, which he described as "the development of future citizens of Canada," and hoped for the same support from members as had been given during the past year.

T. G. Bateman, principal, explained to members how the use of the old Seal Cove School was being in most successfully with the work of Conrad Street School.

Because the dangerous corner at the top of the hill on Seventh Avenue and Immanuel Street is used by many children attending Seal Cove School, members unanimously passed a motion to ask City Council to set up a school zone beginning at Herman Street on Sixth Avenue around the "S" turn to Jeffrey Street on Seventh Avenue.

Following adjournment of the meeting, refreshments were served.

Getting Room At Midnight

Just because the hour is late, in Prince Rupert, does not mean that travel slackens off. There are often times, after midnight, when people coming in from the highway, or getting off a delayed train or boat of some description, have to hunt for a room and not always find one. It's sometimes a problem to know just what to do.

Many are here for the first time, and looking around them, feel a bit strange.

Kathleen off To Vancouver

Canadian Pacific Steamship Princess Kathleen is headed her way back into the harbor here at noon yesterday after 10 days on the pontoons at the drydock. And Capt. Graham Hughes is satisfied that "she is fit to sail" back to Vancouver.

A 30-foot hole in the Kathleen's bow had been patched and it's hard to notice where the vessel's was cut by the nose of Canadian National Steamship Prince Rupert in a collision August 23.

The repairs, though, were temporary complete overhaul and permanent work will be done at Victoria, company officials have stated. The cruise ship sailed south at 4 a.m., but carried no passengers. The crew remained aboard during the repair period.

New Mayor Is B.C. Son

Bert Glassey Born in Victoria Sixty-nine Years Ago

Mayor-elect H. F. Glassey is Victoria-born and educated. He is 69. He came north in 1904 to Hazelton to engage in prospecting. There he met and married his wife Sarah. They were also in the Fort George area for a time.

In 1916 the Glasseys came to Prince Rupert and since then, between operating private business, Mr. Glassey has held several government positions, including that of government agent at Atlin, ration administrator at Prince Rupert, and more recently as census commissioner for the Skeena area.

He was serving a two-year aldermanic term when he resigned to file nomination papers for mayor.

In politics, "Bert" Glassey has always been an enthusiastic Liberal. So were the two other candidates in yesterday's mayoralty contest.

Gyro Governor Here Proposed

Prince Rupert Gyro Club will endeavour to have a lieutenant governor named from its ranks at the next district convention in 1952 and he has appointed a committee consisting of Dr. R. G. Large, W. F. Stone and W. D. Lambie to get busy on the matter well in advance.

The Gyro Club resumed its regular weekly luncheons on Wednesday of this week with President Don Forward in the chair and discussed preliminary plans for coming activities. The ways and means committee is already busy on the problem of raising finances.

Orme Stuart and Duncan McRae were named a committee to look into the matter of Gyro signs at suitable points to announce Gyro dates to visitors.

Although rain caused the cancelling of the annual Gyro picnic last Sunday, it was decided that the outing should still be held notwithstanding the lateness of the season.

HERE and NOW

By LARRY STANWOOD

ARCHIE WAS one of the 170 yesterday morning who came to the Civic Centre to deposit a marked ballot in the big box. He stood several seconds in front of the box, folding the double sheet of paper meticulously before he dropped it in the slot.

The voter had such a studied expression on his face that I felt he could have a story. Did he think, perhaps, that he had voted wrong? Was he doubtful of the candidates he had chosen to elect? Or was he wondering if the vote he cast would be a winner?

Archie watched the slip of paper disappear into the box and with purposeful strides walked past me. But halfway out the door, he made another decision and turned into the restaurant instead. I followed to see him order a cup of coffee, and I did likewise.

... so it struck me suddenly—why should I vote at all? Archie sipped his coffee, frowning slightly. I urged him to tell me more.

"Actually, I don't think I know who I was voting for," Must have shown my surprise, for he hastened to continue—"that is, I don't know the candidates."

"Well, if you've been here long enough to have a vote, surely you must know something about these people. You read the papers?"

Their names had been in the papers. He had read a lot about some of the candidates. Knew how they were engaged but, he said "that isn't enough."

"I think we—the people who vote—should have a chance to hear the candidates talk to us, not only through the newspapers or on the radio, but face to face, in an open meeting," Archie stopped to finish his coffee, and rose.

"You know," he turned to me, "you can tell pretty well how

TAKE NOTICE that as Administrator, duly appointed by the court, of the estate of Gonzague Louis Gendron, who died at Queen Charlotte City, British Columbia, on the 14th day of March, 1951, I require all creditors and other persons having claims against the said estate to send the same to me, properly verified, at the address mentioned below on or before the 15th day of October, 1951, after which date I shall proceed to distribute the estate to those entitled by law, having regard only to such claims of which I shall then have been notified.

Dated at Prince Rupert, B. C., this 13th day of September, 1951.

HUMBLE BEAUTY

AN 82-YEAR-OLD lady with a sharp tongue and a keen sense of humor, makes no bones about the fact that she doesn't consider herself another Rembrandt or da Vinci. But Jeanne Faure has completed 28 paintings within the last six months and, if people think they're good, "well, I'm pleased that they should think so," she says.

The Dutch-born artist who has visited many of the art centres in Europe and for the last 20 years has painted the Canadian scene, says she has never "painted anything the way I wanted to. I am never satisfied with the job, although sometimes I come close to true art and it thrills me."

And I'm sure Jeanne Faure was referring to that water color painting of a small jar of forget-me-nots.

The forget-me-nots are the first she ever painted, she said. They are probably the humblest of all wild flowers, rambling low along the ground among the high grass, seldom noticed by anyone.

Miss Faure has done a great service to this humble member of our flora and has shown it in the light of its real beauty, but how much greater is her service to us that she had been able to point out this common beauty which so few of us know to exist.

There is beauty in the lowliest of low, if we but care to look for it.

Soroptimists Active Again

Reports on past activities were received and plans for future made when the Soroptimist Club of Prince Rupert held its first business meeting of the season.

Reports were received on the progress of the campaign in support of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind from Miss Margaret McLeod, and on the Red Cross canvass for Blood Donors from Mrs. Lillian Alexander, while Miss Elizabeth Clement R.N., reported on the proposed Arthritis and Rheumatism clinic.

The Soroptimist Club joined with the other service clubs in sponsoring a Welcome Home to the victorious Job's Daughters.

The treasurer's report on the past year's activities showed that $256.68 had been spent on varied local services.

Officers for the present year are:

President—Mrs. M. O. Kulander.

Vice-president—Miss Elizabeth Clement R.N.

Secretary—Mrs. Bea Grant.

Treasurer—Mrs. Ralph Smith.

Chairman of TB Seal Committee—Miss Doris Hall R.N.

Mrs. Basso Gets Garden Results

Report that Mrs. J. A. McRae, Eighth Avenue West, was having success in ripening tomatoes outside, has prompted Mrs. John Basso to call at the Daily News office and tell of her fine horticultural accomplishments this summer.

Mrs. Basso has been able to grow fine cucumbers six inches and longer, vegetable marrow 38 inches long and weighing seven pounds, cabbage thirteen inches in diameter and scarlet runner beans twelve inches long. And Mrs. Basso is also ripening tomatoes outside.

Sophisticated Styles

Fall Fashions Highlighted At Legion Tea

Sophistication was the keynote yesterday afternoon at the Canadian Legion Women's Auxiliary fashion display, sponsored by Annette's, under the direction of Mrs. Pebbles Dickens. The show featured the latest in coats, suits, dresses, evening gowns, hats and lounging pyjamas.

Intriguing was the display of garments, from the fabulous gold and black satin lounging pyjamas to the shadowy black lace evening frocks. Rhinestone buttons and accessories gleamed on taffeta and lace. Full skirts and wide bishop sleeves highlighted the exciting fall fashions. Coats featured the elegant highstanding collar and unique sleeve interest.

A naval wedding procession climaxed the display with the bride, Iona Hardy, in traditional white satin and lace. Bridal attendants were Mrs. V. Ciccone, in frothy pink lace, Mrs. W. Seymour in turquoise, Mrs. D. Pallant in yellow, and Mrs. M. Wostenholme in mauve nylon marquisette. Trainbearers were little Diane Petersen and Sandra Alexander. Verne Ciccone, as the groom, wore a naval officer's uniform. Guard of honor was made up of Keith DeWitt, Bob Taylor, Allister Ross, Ken Yeland and Gordon Dell.

Appearing as models were Maresa Windle, Mrs. Neil Sheppard, Mrs. Verne Ciccone, Mrs. B. Bolton, Miss Joan Vivian, Mrs. F. Petersen, Mrs. W. Seymour, Mrs. M. Wostenholme, Mrs. T. Fallant, Mrs. S. Alexander, Mrs. S. Veitch, Mrs. D. Lugin, Mrs. W. Lahti, Mrs. N. R. Hebb, Mrs. J. Ritchie, Miss Benita Windle, Mrs. W. Seymour and Mrs. A. Stegavig.

Guests were welcomed to the display and tea on behalf of the Legion Auxiliary by President Mrs. G. V. Hanley. Tea was served under the direction of general convener Mrs. R. Marshall with chief convener Mrs. D. Gomez as hostess. Serviteurs were Mrs. P. Bond, Mrs. J. Andrews, Mrs. W. Murdoch, Mrs. M. Gilchrist, Mrs. P. Downing, Mrs. H. Lewis, Mrs. J. Gillis and Mrs. G. Ciccone. Assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. J. Roxburgh, Mrs. F. Hill, Mrs. C. L. Hebb, Mrs. C. Barker, Mrs. J. Holbrook and Mrs. B. Montgomery.

Mrs. P. Anderson, Mrs. H. Carpenter and Mrs. Alec McDonald. Cashier was Mrs. J. Taylor of the Seal Cove Sewing Circle, which sponsored a raffle drawn after the display. Winner of the white crocheted tablecloth was Mrs. George Pierce of Piggott Ave. with ticket number 139. Proceeds of the raffle amounted to $36.40.

In token of appreciation, Mrs. G. V. Hanley of the Legion Auxiliary presented Mrs. Dickens with a large bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums, with gifts for Mel Thompson and Andy McNaughton.

Funeral of Jacob Hanson

Funeral of Jakob Hansen, who died Sunday, was held yesterday afternoon from Grenville Chapel, Rev. H. O. Olson officiating.

Hymns were "Abide With Me," and "I Need Thee," played on the organ by Mrs. W. G. Smith. Pallbearers were Con Stordale, Roy Paulsen, Evan Shier, Sev Dominato, Peter Wikdahl and John Kasper.

Burial was in the Sons of Norway plot, Fairview Cemetery.

New Banker Likes City

Ernest Paulding, new manager of the Bank of Montreal, is well pleased with Prince Rupert although it is the first time that he has been in this part of the province.

"It's a lot different than Osoyoos from where I came," says Mr. Paulding, "but I like it very much."

The new banker finds the city much larger than he had anticipated and he likes the appearance of the stores.

"And I guess I'll even get used to the rain which they tell me you have here," he adds wryly.

As early as the 15th century Portugal placed trading factories along the African west coast, later extending them to India.

Odesa, principal port on the Black Sea, is open to navigation the year round, freezing only in very severe winters.

Talking Mule Is Here Again

The talking mule, which made many friends in his first picture, "Francis," is coming back to the Capitol Theatre this Friday and Saturday in "Francis Goes to the Races."

Donald O'Connor, again the mule's pal, and Francis, in this picture, become attached to an expensive racing stable quartered at the famous Santa Anita race track. The amazing mule, by talking to the turf equines, is able to furnish his master with all the winners.

Donald falls in love with red-headed Piper Laurie, daughter of the owner of the stables, but the romance is threatened when O'Connor is accidentally involved with a gang of racing racketeers who threaten to foreclose on the stable.

Francis, however, comes to the rescue and, in the comedy's highlight scene, cures a filly of an inferiority complex and thereby wins a rich handicap race which saves the day for everyone.

Moving Job Is Still on

The past week in Booth School has been generally a period of disorder. That is among the students. Otherwise the wheels have been running smoothly.

Due to the non-arrival of furniture the new school classes have been somewhat mixed up in as much as most of them have to be held in the old building.

There is only one room in the new building which has desks.

The typing desks have not arrived yet and consequently, these classes have to be held in the old typing room. The machines are still being set up in the Industrial Arts rooms. In the gymnasium the baskets have not yet arrived. Consequently, the gym classes have little to do but improve their own games.

ORGANIZING
At the beginning of each year the students council and other school bodies are elected. In accordance nominations are now being accepted for persons to take the posts of president, vice-president, secretary, girls sports representative, boys sports representative, and publications representative.

These persons will govern activities of the students almost entirely when they are outside of class.

Presidents for the junior and senior councils are also elected. The members for each of the latter councils are representatives from each class. Juniors to the junior and seniors to the senior council.

Each nomination must be signed by ten members of the school and by the nominee. It seems that due to this fact nominations are slow in arriving. Elections are supposed to take place this week. The deadline for nominations is Thursday.

Richard P. Kilborn

Jack Stevens has arrived in the city from Vancouver to attend the funeral tomorrow of his brother, Bruce Stevens, who died suddenly earlier this week.

"Frogman" Gripping

The little known story of the underwater demolition teams of the navy in World War II is depicted in "Frogmen," which opened at the Totem Theatre last night and continues tonight and Saturday. It makes a strange and exciting film with action from start to finish.

The picture takes one into the water, under the water and on the sea in telling the hazardous and gruelling tale of what these UDT men went through in spearheading every Allied invasion from Sicily to Okinawa. The climax is a spectacular blasting and bombarding incident.

Richard Widmark portrays a fearless commanding officer who personally leads his men on four suicide missions. Dana Andrews and Gary Merrill share starring honors.

The screen play is based on authentic wartime incidents of the frogmen whose exploits were among the best kept secrets of the last war.
