Rupert Girl Has Harrowing Experience in Bank Robbery

Nina Youngman One of Cashiers Held up in Vancouver Wednesday

Nina Youngman, formerly of the local Bank of Montreal staff, was one of the tellers in the Fourth and Alma branch of the Bank of Montreal which was held up by armed bandits at noon yesterday who escaped with $6500 in cash.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Youngman, her parents, long-distanced their daughter last night. She was still agitated as a result of her experience, her father told the Daily News this morning.

Not only did the bandits either line up the staff against the wall or force them to lie face down on the floor but they also masked them. Miss Youngman was one of those forced to lie on the floor after being driven out of her cage at gun's point.

Two of the bandits stood guard over the bank staff while a third scooped up the cash. The fourth bandit remained outside in a starling car, ready to drive off with his marauding companions and their loot.

According to Canadian Press report the four gunmen grabbed $6,500 from the bank and then used two stolen cars in their escape.

Fleeing in the first car, the bandits changed clothes, ditched the car and disappeared in the second one. It was later found abandoned.

Hike Denied

Board of Commissioners today requested of the railways express rates on into effect immediately.

While Prince Rupert was first British Columbia city to "go over the top" in its Red Cross drive, there still remains "quite a bit of clean-up work" to be done, said Stan Saville, Red Cross president, today.

Subscriptions from outside points have to come in before an accurate figure can be given, he said, but estimates are collections will be closer to $6,000 than the district's $5,000 quota.

Outside districts, whose collections have already been received are Sandspit, Port Essington, Osland and Port Edward, the latter turning in more than $200.

Still to come are collections from Queen Charlotte Islands, Alice Arm, Stewart and Butedale.

"The one night collection from city homes is the best way to plan a drive," Mr. Saville said. "It was the easiest campaign we ever had."

Last Seen at Bella Bella

A Fisheries and Wild Life Service vessel—Sable Fish—from Seattle is three days overdue at Juneau.

It was last reported at Bella Bella, south of Prince Rupert. (Marine Department here had word today that she might have passed Butedale).

A Royal Canadian Air Force plane is standing by at Vancouver ready to start a search. The Royal Canadian Mounted Police have been advised.

BOTH DOING WELL — Mrs. John Pfeiffer, 24, paralyzed from the waist down, gave birth in Winnipeg to a healthy five-pound, eight-ounce son. Medical authorities claim that cases of normal children in such cases are rare, and were practically impossible up to a few years ago. Mrs. Pfeiffer was injured in a farm accident five years ago. Pats Rolling Up New Gains

TOKYO (CP) — Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry and Australians forced rushing streams and scrambled over hills soggy with three days of rain to roll up sizeable gains on the muddy central Korean front today.

Commonwealth forces racked up their gains in rugged country north of Kapyong, 12 miles south of the thirty-eighth parallel. Distance of the advances could not be disclosed.

CONTRACTS FOR RUPERT—

Prince Rupert Dry Dock to Build Naval Vessels Again?

Big shipbuilding in Prince Rupert may start again. Unofficial but reliable sources said here today there were strong indications this city's drydock and shipyard would soon be activated with several orders of "smaller type navy vessels."

No other information was immediately available.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis
A minor storm centre which developed during the night off the coast of southern Vancouver Island will move into northern Washington today and across the southern interior of the province during the day.

Rain is general over most of the southern coast ahead of the storm centre and will spread to the southern interior during the day.

Fresh northwest winds are expected to develop along most of the coast this afternoon after the storm moves into the interior and considerable clearing is expected in most localities Friday.

North coast region — Cloudy with occasional showers today. A few clouds overnight and Friday clouding over the northern section Friday night. Mild. Winds —light, increasing this afternoon to northwest (25) and decreasing to light Friday morning. Lows tonight and highs Friday — at Port Hardy 37 and 46, Sandspit and Prince Rupert 32 and 45.

Shortage of Labor Here

Skilled Workers And Technicians Sought
A "drastic shortage of labor" is expected here this summer, local National Employment Service office said today.

"There is a lot of contemplated construction in the area," said the spokesman and, with the fishing industry absorbing most of the labor, "there will be a call for many outsiders."

For the city, tradesmen wanted are electricians, pipefitters, cement workers and there is a big demand for stenographers and office workers.

The drydock and shipyard built several large freighters and naval vessels during the Second World War, but since has been comparatively idle and according to reports, operating at a deficit.

Would Fight Says France

WASHINGTON (CP)—President Vincent Auriol of France today pledged his nation and its people to "do all within our power, not only to resist aggression, should it occur, but to deter it and save the peace."

He asserted any charge that the French will not fight to repel aggression is "an insult as cruel as it is unjust."

The French chief of state spoke for his country in an address prepared for the National Press Club luncheon.

Coalition Government Under Heavy Fire In Many Quarters

MacArthur's Proposal For Peace is Rejected

TOKYO (CP) — Communist China yesterday spurned Gen. MacArthur's offer to talk peace in Korea.

Her troops backed up the rejection with stiff defensive stands in low hills and passes just south of the North Korean border along the Western and Central fronts.

French Strikes Are Spreading

PARIS (CP)—France's wave of strikes threatened to spread today, with growing discontent among unions at the government's refusal to sanction higher wages.

Tax collectors, post office men, civil servants, hospital workers, morticians, garbage collectors and other municipal employees are among the latest reported to be threatening action.

Results of a strike ballot among workers on the national airline, Air France, were awaited. Workers in nationalized factories planned demands for a 15 per cent increase.

Paris subway and bus employees have been out 14 days. More than 2,000 strikers, dispersed by steel-helmeted security guards after a two-hour demonstration outside the transport ministry yesterday, shouted: "We'll come back tomorrow."

Arsenal workers in Brest, Brittany and at Toulon in the south, downed their tools and other minor strikes continued to flare up.

Widespread Resignation Demand—Attorney General Speaks Today

VANCOUVER (CP) — The British Columbia coalition government was under a barrage of demands last night that it resign.

The government's hospital insurance scheme, which has had loss of millions of dollars in its two years of operation, was the main target of attack but the Labor Act also came in for criticism.

Brigade Leaving—

Is Moving To Korea

FORT LEWIS (CP)—Movement of Canada's Twenty-Fifth Brigade to Korea has started.

It was announced yesterday that a small advance party has sailed from a west coast United States port bound for the peninsula where one Canadian battalion, the Princess Patricia's, has just gone back into the line.

In Ottawa Department of National Defence headquarters said the bulk of the brigade, about 5,000 men, is expected to sail in April. There have been difficulties in arranging for shipping.

The advance party will make arrangements for arrival of combat elements of the brigade.

Sulphur Extraction Plant is Seen as Possibility in City

Consolidated Officials Discusses Current Metal Situation Before Gyro Club

The demand for sulphur from pulp mills along the west coast, amounting to from 500 to 1000 tons daily, might justify the establishment of a plant at Prince Rupert for the extraction of sulphur from the iron pyrites of the Ecstall River, particularly if a market for the iron residue was available by the establishment of a steel mill.

G. Neely Moore, exploration superintendent for the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co., suggested in speaking before the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at its weekly luncheon yesterday.

Mr. Moore was discussing the current sulphur shortage in the course of an enlightening address on the present situation in regard to certain products in the mineral and allied industries. The speaker came armed with latest information following recent attendance at a Prospectors' and Developers' convention as well as the annual convention of the Geological Association of Canada in Toronto.

Mr. Moore referred to the enormous and continually expanding world requirements of sulphur in industry for the making of sulphuric acid. The chief source of sulphur was the salt dome or brimstone deposits in Texas and Louisiana but these deposits were now approaching depletion and considerable thought must be given to other sources. Readily available sources included the sulphur contained in smelter smoke at Sudbury.

To take care of the Easter rush, Canadian Pacific Airlines have been running extra flights between Prince Rupert and Sandspit to connect with Vancouver flight. A special plane brought many return passengers to the city yesterday.

BLACK SHIRTS AND NO SHIRTS

MADRAS, India—With my new-found friend, the young Brahmin Venatramani, I went hunting for "The Diwan." I won't try to add his full name, for it's too long. But I never met a more brilliant conversationalist than this old statesman who was once the Prime Minister of a princely state.

The Diwan was out of town. But even on the sizzling hot day a lovely breeze blew through a suburban villa built to catch every breeze from every direction.

"Ramani" took me to see the fine headquarters of the Theosophical Society—he just knew without being told that I would be interested. It seems that the Theosophists here had a bit of a set-back after the late Annie Besant opposed Gandhi—but time is healing that rift now.

Outside their beautiful library they have an honor roll—with Canada on the list as having started in 1919. I suddenly thought of all the fine Theosophists I knew and know; like the late Albert Smythe of the old Toronto World and Hamilton Herald.

I ASKED "RAMANI" about the progress of the RSS—Rashtriya Swayam Sewak Sangh—or National Service Union.

To me it looks just like another Fascist party—but "Ramani" says that's an over-simplification. But when he was sent to report an RSS meeting (the day before Gandhi was slain) the RSS boys tossed him out bodily.

There is no sure proof that they are making much progress. But they have enlisted large numbers of boys of high school age, and they go in for group drills, called physical training. Looks bad to me.

HERE IN MADRAS there is a much more formidable mass movement called the Black Shirts. The leader is 71 years of age (Thank the Lord for that, says D. I won't clutter this up with his long name. But the people call him "Mr. Big" or "The Big Shot.")

Mr. Big draws crowds of anything up to 50,000. He says he is not in politics, but he stands for separation of Madras from India. His main target is religion—apparently all religion. He ridicules in most violent and often vulgar terms all that the Hindus hold most holy.

PROHIBITION IS IN effect in Madras, as it is throughout much of Southern India. There is a fierce opposition to it, from the more sophisticated folk, and the well-to-do. There are also scads of stories about bootlegging, secret stills etc., etc., etc.

But most responsible people to whom I talked said it had been a very good thing, especially for the poor. As the poor people are the overwhelming majority, the answer is obvious.

Here is how one man put it: "Before prohibition, a villager might make one rupee two annas a day and spend eight or nine annas of that on drink."

The women have been the chief beneficiaries of prohibition here in Madras—and they have the vote.

FOR CENTURIES the Brahmins dominated life in Hindu India. Now, curiously enough, discrimination is working in reverse. The political power has passed to others than Brahmins. Hence in many jobs—even if a Brahmin has secured 40 to 50 percent higher marks than his nearest non-Brahmin competitor, the latter will get the appointment.

IN MADRAS STATE about 30 percent of children now attend primary school. Education is the largest single item in the provincial budget, introduced today. It amounts to about 15 percent of the total expenditure.

LITTLE BOYS RUN about in Madras stark naked. (Too bad for the psychiatrists and the psycho-analysts. The little beggars will develop few complexes.)

Women laborers work with men. They wear sarees, but leave off the little blouse business—hence have bare shoulder backs.

ALL THE WAITERS go bare-foot, even in the swank hotels. In Madras they dress to suit the climate. The cows walk every where, unafraid and contrary to

Sympathy For Labor

By ALAN HARVEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON (CP)—A Conservative plan to hound the Labor government until its members are "absolutely hysterical" appears to have antagonized moderate opinion.

The effect of the new Tory tactics has been to win a certain sympathy for the socialists. At the same time, Liberals and Independents show an increasing tendency to criticize the Conservatives on these grounds:

1. The campaign has resulted in a series of all-night sittings which embitter party feelings and tend to bring parliament into disrepute. One Liberal spokesman said it is "almost criminal" that such conduct should take place against the threatening background of international events.

2. Parliamentary overtime menaces health.

3. If the Conservatives succeed in toppling the government, are they so sure they are ready to take over themselves? The Liberal Manchester Guardian said editorially it's about time the opposition gave a little thought to what it is going to do when and if it takes over.

The Independent Times said that if parliament is kept in an uproar it would be a mockery of the national duty about which it said Conservative Leader Winston Churchill had spoken so eloquently in a party political broadcast.

There is said to be some uneasiness even among Conservatives. Anthony Eden, deputy party leader, is thought to have opposed the plan for wearing down by filibusters and delays. Christopher Hollis, an influential Conservative member, has expressed doubt in a speech whether "harassing for harassing's sake" will bring the government down.

Perhaps the mainspring behind the Tory technique is a group of youthful and highly-regarded back-benchers, who believe that Labor is making mistakes in business and other fields which a Conservative administration would forestall. The strategy is simple: keep the House sitting as long as possible by tabling a series of "prayers" on any convenient subject. Prayers are exempt from the standing order which normally marks the end of parliamentary business at 10 p.m.

Council Rejects Sidewalk Protest

A 12-man petition from residents on Hays Cove Circle protesting location of the proposed sidewalk was rejected Tuesday night by city council.

The petition asked that the sidewalk be built on the east side of the street, rather than on the west, as is proposed. Residents claimed that as they all lived on the east side, crossing the street to and from their homes would present hazards and dangers from oncoming traffic.

Ald. H. S. Whalen said the sidewalk was "primarily for school children" and, if it were on the east side, it would mean more street-crossing for them.

Ald. George Casey said it "should stand where it is," for the "best use of the greatest number of people."

THE LETTERBOX

HOUSING AND HEALTH

Editor, Daily News:

Health of a community should be one of the most important factors facing a governing body of any town or city of any size. Here are some of the more prominent and concerning conditions in the city at present:

Families crowded in much too small a place without the proper amount of cubic air space for proper breathing. (It is quite sure one-third of the population of Prince Rupert breathe the same air over three times in the course of their sleeping hours.)

Even among the average salaried households the very high rents takes away that extra quart of milk or those dozen oranges, apples of other health-giving foods which tend to make for healthy teeth, bones and blood. It takes away even that family allowance, that little extra mother has to buy the vitamins with.

When the rent is so very high and also the cost of living, proper clothes for children and adults as well becomes almost a luxury.

How do outdoor toilets and smelly old chicken houses stand up in the light of polio, rats, flies and general stenosis? If this is allowed it's strange one of the main street dairies doesn't bring in about fifty or sixty milch cows and tie or tether them to the bowling alley.

HERE TONIGHT — Virginia Davis, noted American soprano, will be here tonight to delight local lovers of good music in the final of the season's series of the Alaska Music Trail. In her "Portraits of Song" program, Miss Davis will be assisted by Miss Gwendolyn Williams, her pianist. After playing eleven concerts in Alaska, Miss Davis and Miss Williams are arriving tonight on the Prince Rupert from Ketchikan and will proceed south on the same vessel.

M. W. MAXWELL, chief of development, Canadian National Railways, who we know has long had the situation in Prince Rupert at his finger tips, has made another speech in the East stressing the importance of the Skeena area in the industrial and defence picture of the great northwest of British Columbia.

This time Mr. Maxwell expressed the opinion that the Kitimat fjord and the Skeena estuary constitute an important key to the northwestern defence of the continent.

It is satisfactory to have a man in an important key position like that of Mr. Maxwell recognizing this area in this way—and not only recognizing it but publicizing it in his speeches before important bodies.

Incidentally, while we have interviewed Mr. Maxwell in the railway head offices in Montreal, we do not remember that he has been out our way of late. It might be an appropriate gesture if he could be invited to come out here to Prince Rupert to let us see and hear him—for he seems to be a real good friend of ours with an appreciation of our position in the overall scheme of things. At least, he has been making some admissions about us which is more than some of the other railway people have done.

Printed Word Ready

DURING World War II the printed word was recognized as essential to the offensive program of fighting democracies. It was an indispensable bulwark of morale. It played an essential part in the implementing of the war effort.

If the worst should happen again, if a showdown should become necessary, the printed word will not be found wanting in value as a force for the preservation of freedom.

Indeed, it goes on today in anxious and critical times doing a vital job of defence — often taken too much for granted.

avor New ote Plan

Alternative System approved by Commerce Chamber

Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce was among ninety provincial Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce in B.C. which replied favorably to a questionnaire on the single vote plan for elections to the Provincial Legislature.

Forty-five community organizations participated in the survey. It was announced today by E. Gilker, President of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce. This survey was conducted under the auspices of the B.C. Council of Associated Boards of Trade in B.C.

The interesting feature of it, said Mr. Gilker, "is that in 10 particular size of community which is more favorably disposed than others. The majority of large cities, medium towns and villages, strongly favor this system. This Chamber is recorded as being favorable to the proposal."

Boards and Chambers in the province appointed a special committee to give it to their committees dealing with government affairs as a special study project. Explanatory material on various voting systems designed impartially, advantages and disadvantages of the system, was received from the B.C. Council of Associated Boards of Trade.

Oliver Murphy, the president of the B.C. Council has presented the results of the referendum to the Provincial Cabinet. In presenting them he stated that the B.C. Council was confident that the plan will be of significance as a policy, reasoned, and effective contribution to the thinking of the members of the Legislature and of the Cabinet when consideration is given to any proposal to change the present system of voting in this province.

It is understood that there is a distinct possibility of standby legislation on this subject being introduced in the dying hours of the session.

Children's PT Class Popular

Physical recreation classes held each Tuesday and Thursday in the Moose Temple for the children since early in January, have been proving to be very popular as well as beneficial to the participants.

The average attendance of 13 young boys and girls, ranging in ages from 4 to 14 years, find capable supervision from Charles Logan and Mrs. Berle Karasosky who are proud of the skill developed by their charges.

The hour of twice weekly sessions is taken up by games, marches, tumbling and physical exercise routines especially designed to develop individual initiative and teamwork.

Before the termination of classes for the season Mr. Logan plans to have a parents' night, probably the second week in April, when the parents of the children will be invited to see them go through their routines.

Why "Smoky" Re-enlisted

It's not a bad life,
says V.C. winner of Army

VANCOUVER (CP)—Ernest Alva Smith, known to his pals as "Smoky," has lost no time in getting back into uniform following his re-enlistment. The first Canadian private to win the Victoria Cross in the Second World War (he got it in Italy), he was formally sworn into the Canadian Army special service force Tuesday—eleven years to the month from the first time—and he was in uniform that night. But this time he's not a private. He was promoted to sergeant at the swearing-in ceremony.

"Smoky" had one explanation for his return to Army life. "I thought I'd like to get back in. It's not a bad life," he said. He had been thinking it over for a long time and had volunteered for service "wherever they can use me."

Smith was granted leave until Friday. Then he goes to Edmonton where he will be attached to Western Command recruiting office.

How Can I???

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I make a good toilet perfume?

A. A good toilet perfume can be made by mixing two ounces of alcohol with one-half ounce oforris root. Keep in a bottle, tightly corked, and shake well before using.

Q. How can I bleach a scorched spot?

A. Rub the spot immediately with a cloth dipped in diluted peroxide. Then run the iron over it and it will be as white as originally. Do not use this method on colored material.

Q. How can I test eggs for freshness?

A. Place the egg in a pan of water. If fresh, it will lie on its side. If a few days old, it will tilt upwards. If stale, it will stand on end. If very old, it will float.

Atlantic Pact Organizes

Is Making Better Showing
Than United Nations

By SIGRID ARNE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The North Atlantic Treaty organization will celebrate its second birthday April 4 with the sort of thumping life the United Nations hasn't enjoyed since it was created in 1945.

Both were set up to keep the peace. But they tackle the problem differently.

The U.N. was set up to meet aggression anywhere; the N.A.T.O. was organized to meet the specific threat of Russian aggression in western Europe.

The 60-member U.N. took in the Russians and ran into one Russian stalemate after another.

N.A.T.O.—naturally—left the Russians out. Its members are Belgium, Canada, Denmark, France, Iceland, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Britain and the United States.

Whether N.A.T.O. or the U.N. will prove the best investment for peace will be answered only by time.

N.A.T.O.'s hope is a simple one: that if west Europe has enough military strength it will not be attacked.

The pact was signed at Washington April 4, 1949, by the foreign ministers of the 12 member countries. By December, 1949, N.A.T.O.'s defence committee had agreed on a plan for defending Europe.

The program is still top secret, but its vague outlines are known:

Each country will contribute the sort of arms and the type of troops which it can best turn out for European army. This army will act on the agreed orders of all and be beholden to no single country.

By December, 1950, the top N.A.T.O. agency, the council, answered that all arrangements for the army had been completed.

These arrangements, too, are secret. But Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, head of the N.A.T.O. forces, has suggested Europe should have 40 combat divisions by late 1952. By late January of this year it was believed 12 divisions had been pledged.

Many voices have been raised to bring the armies of Spain, Yugoslavia, Greece and Turkey into the defence plans. Greece and Turkey have requested N.A.T.O. membership.

British and French labor represent the idea of an alliance with Spanish dictator Franco. And Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia is unwilling to ask for arms unless Yugoslavia is attacked.

In November of 1950 Moscow took official notice and proposed a meeting of the council of foreign ministers—of the U.S., Britain, France and the U.S.S.R.—to talk over Germany.

The West U.N. nations replied that they would prefer to talk over all threats to peace. A meeting may be set for this spring.

And there were hopes that the Russians, faced by new strength, now are ready to compromise.

Headlined as "Practical Russian," G. Keensky, who took a leading part in the Russian upheaval, after the overthrow of the Czar, is said to be living quietly on his estates, cultivating the land and devoting his abilities toward a stable and prosperous Russia.

Jack Barnsley was phoned from Port Simpson last night by Dr. William Sager, who heard music on his radio from a distance of 7,195 miles. Dr. Sager was listening to his wireless when he very plainly heard music coming from a Melbourne, Australia concert. Barnsley, prominent in radio in Prince Rupert, was the first to get in touch with the McMillan Arctic expedition, a few years ago, when the explorers were in Greenland.

Celebrating Robert Murray's birthday anniversary, friends held a surprise party at his home, with cards, music and dancing. Winners were Mrs. H. Grimwood, Miss Coote, Ald. J. McKechnie and H. Grimwood.

MONTREAL, March 29th—When you're thinking of ways to please that man of yours...remember how much he likes tempting, delicious Jell-O desserts! Then whip one up—in a matter of minutes...just as sparkling and beautiful as you please! Yes, JELL-O JELLY POWDERS are real time-savers. And don't think the family won't appreciate the gay and colourful salads that can be quickly and easily prepared, too! Those seven "locked-in" Flavours make Jell-O one of the most versatile on the market. Yet you can enjoy Jell-O for less than 2¢ a

The Kitchen when you're Spring Housecleaning. Though it's as-you-work every day, I know something that will make it look like new! It's that grand Lin-X Self Polishing Wax (59c). To make your kitchen look like a million...I know of nothing that's because its principal ingredient is the world's most valuable natural wax...the "secret" of Lin-X Paste Wax (59c), for your hardwood floors. Yes, every one of Lin-X HOME BRIGHTENERS are Spring Housecleaning Lin-X No Smudge Furniture Polish (43c) cleans, polishes and your furniture. Ask for Lin-X—at grocery, hardware or department stores everywhere!

Something I put at the top of my shopping list in a hurry when I see that I'm "running out" of... SLOAN'S LINIMENT. Yes, I always like to have a bottle of Sloan's Liniment in my house. When housecleaning my muscles stiffen sore—March weather gives me rheumatism...that's what Sloan's Liniment does for the most wonderful relief from pain caused by strains, sprains, stiffness. It eases the neuralgia and rheumatism, and it soothes it on and its gentle touch quickly sinks deep down and relieves the pain. Sloan's Liniment is very reasonable in price—just 50¢ for the small bottle—90¢ for the large. The whole family will benefit from your "buy"!

Don't worry if you drop a bit of it on your floor—just pick it up with a brush or sponge on your dress! It's so stained permanently...not when you have SLOAN'S LINIMENT. SLOAN'S LINIMENT. Energizing, makes your skin on even the most delicate of fabrics disappear like magic! And it's absolutely harmless for it contains no acids nor alkalis. Just follow directions and the spots disappear in a jiffy—without leaving tell-tale rings. You'll never be without Energine again. You've proved it to yourself and your wife, too! Ask for it at department stores for as little as 25¢!

Dinner For Dinner in just two minutes—then works hard in the kitchen for me, too! That's BLUE BONNET MARGARINE in the new, handy Yellow Quik bag! Yes, I love Blue Bonnet's country-fresh flavour in my cooking (baking, pan frying, seasoning vegetables)...and NOW that it comes in the Yellow Quik bag, I can colour it for table use, too! It's so easy. Just press the colour butter on the bag—knead the bag—and in just two minutes, Blue Bonnet is a luscious golden-yellow. No dirty mixing bowls to wash—no fuss—no mess and another thing I like about Blue Bonnet is that its margarine content is high every month of the year. Yes, you get so much for so little when you buy delicious, nutritious Blue Bonnet!

Never Say "Never" Again... Time was that I resolved budgeting was simply not for me. After my unimpressive attempt ended in a mass of scribbled-up bills on my desk and no money in the bank, I swore off budgeting for life. I said, "The BANK OF MONTREAL'S new Personal Planning. The fresh approach intrigued me—so in I went with my copy of the easy-to-read booklet...and here I am Personal Planning and loving it. There's nothing too difficult about this thing, and it's not dull either. It's different...tailored exclusively to your personal needs and wants. Why not try it yourself? Pick up your copy of "PERSONAL PLANNING" at your neighborhood BOM branch today.

We Had To Believe that anything so down-to-earth and delicious could be so good for you, too—but it is! It's the rich, creamy, flavour of 5 Minute CREAM OF WHEAT! No wonder it's a "family" favourite with so many Canadians! It's so good—and good for you! For it provides iron for good red blood, and Calcium and Phosphorus—both deficient in these days. Just try 5 Minute Cream of Wheat some morning. It takes just five minutes of boiling to cook to perfection. It's just one of the best breakfast cereals I know—but one of the best to prepare!

At Your Fingertips... that's what you'll have when you use the new, glamorous new PERFUMED DURA-GLOSS NAIL LACQUER! M-mmm! The bewitching fragrance of this new nail lacquer is delightfully rich when the lacquer is dry on your nails! And it's so good for you, too. It's the rich, creamy, flavour of 5 Minute CREAM OF WHEAT! No wonder it's a "family" favourite with so many Canadians! It's so good—and good for you! For it provides iron for good red blood, and Calcium and Phosphorus—both deficient in these days. 5. What word beginning with d.s means "cautious"?

Answers
1. Say, "was in good taste." "Arrangement" is the singular subject. 2. Pronounce lawn-der, not lawn-drid. 3. Contractor. 4. To issue from a source. "Nothing but good can emanate from right thinking." 5. Discreet.

There's A Package In My Pantry
I'd like to tell you about it. It's my much-used "cooking companion"—QUAKER CORN MEAL. Yes, Quaker Yellow Corn Meal is not only delicious in dozens of dishes—it's better than bread or cracker crumbs for breading fish, cutlets or oysters. And when you get your package of Quaker Corn Meal, you'll discover three of my favourite recipes right on the outside. If your family haven't yet had the flavour-treat of Hasty Pudding, Golden Corn Muffins or hot, crusty Corn Bread made with Quaker Corn Meal...then they've been missing a real treat! Yes, Quaker Corn Meal is a "must" when you're cooking. And, of course, with the famous Quaker name behind it, it's no wonder this corn meal is "tops" in taste and quality!

Soup Of The Evening—be-yootiful soup! ... around our house, that means any one of the delicious HEINZ CONDENSED SOUPS! There are many varieties to choose from—all of them just as delicious as the Heinz soup experts can make them. Don't wait another day to give your family the flavour-joyment of these Heinz Soups! Serve them as a first course—or in dressings—meat loaves—rarebits—casseroles. Yes, I've proved to myself time and time again that Heinz Condensed Soups are the perfect bases for so many tempting, time-saving dishes! You know they're good because they're Heinz!

I Love To Have Guests (even unexpected guests) now that I've discovered this "wink-quick", economical dinner dish... CANNED SALMON! Yes, I've made many a marvelous dish in minutes with Canned Salmon as the Star. Because Canned Salmon combines so wonderfully with so many basic dishes (casseroles—salads—potatoes 'n' rice), it can give exciting variety to your menus easily—and economically. Economically—because there's no waste. All cooked and ready to eat—Canned Salmon is all food—nutritious and appetizing! I'm putting Canned Salmon at the top of my shopping list now. How about you?

Wage Offer Is Refused

The Civic Employees' Union and Firemen's Union are not accepting the city's latest offer of a 10 percent increase in wages. Their demand is for 12 percent.

Mayor G. W. Rudderham, reporting for the wage committee to city council Tuesday, said the committee had met with Prince Rupert Fire Fighters' Association and R. Forgie, provincial government conciliation officer.

The city raised its offer from eight to 10 percent increase to meet half-way the demand of 12 percent, he said.

The firemen refused and have applied for a conciliation hearing. Their present salary scale is $235 a month and service pay, CEU, both outside and inside workers, have refused the offer. Their salary range, for inside workers, is $125 a month and up; for outside workers, $115 to $162 an hour.

Electrical workers, who also have been given the same increase offer, will reserve their decision until after their next meeting, April 3.

Alderman Pans Bus Service

A complaint that buses operated by Arrow Bus Lines are "dirty, overcrowded and a hazard" was lodged Tuesday by Ald. D. Gomez at city council meeting.

The buses are so crowded at times that there isn't even room to stand properly. This is away beyond their capacity.

"It is dangerous because the buses are in such bad shape. It looks like they might roll over any time."

"And they are in dirty condition," he concluded.

Ald. T. B. Black suggested the transport committee approach the bus owners and lodge the complaint.

"They have no franchise, and they are operating under extreme conditions," he said, but allowed the service "left much to be desired."

If the owners would not take measures to rectify the conditions, it was contention of the council that complaint would be made to the Public Utilities Commission.

Cayuga Due at Pearl Harbor

SAN FRANCISCO (CP)—The Canadian destroyer Cayuga, veteran of the Korean war, is due to arrive Thursday at Pearl Harbor on her way to home due to arrive today at Pearl Harbor last July 12 enroute to Korea. She was relieved of duty March 16 by the destroyer Huron and is on her way to Esquimalt. She is due in Esquimalt about April 9.

NIHILIST PROPAGANDA—Leslie Wismer, CCF member of the Ontario legislature, takes a close look at two busts in the Toronto Art Gallery he classed as "nihilist propaganda." The subject came up when the legislature was considering a $6,000 grant to the gallery. Mr. Wismer objected to the acquisition with public funds of "Woman's Head," by Picasso, left, and "Head of a Woman," by Matisse. The pair cost the gallery $1,936.73. "These things are hideous," said Mr. Wismer. "These people (the Art Gallery) are using art and the taxpayers' money to assist nihilism in destroying democracy and Christianity." (CP PHOTO)

HEADING FOR BIG TIME?

Dave Abel Called for Try-out With Professional Ball Team

Believed the first Prince Rupert hardball player in recent years at least to try out for the professional leagues is David Abel, 24, who leaves tomorrow by plane for the Penticton train camp of the Vancouver Capilanos.

Manager of the Vancouver Caps, contacted Abel yesterday, requesting him for spring training as baseball catcher.

"I haven't made it yet," said Dave cautiously, "I'm just going down for spring training."

Abel worked out with the coast team while in Vancouver on his holidays last August. He has played as catcher with city leagues here for past three years.

He was on the winning teams, Abel & Odowes last year, and the Merchants the year before, under the management of his business partner John Odowes.

Abel has had baseball experience in the East, playing with the Regina Red Sox.

SPORT SHOTS

An impressive and colorful ceremony at the National Stadium in New Delhi, marked the close of the Asian Games recently. After the day's events Prime Minister Nehru took the salute as athletes from 11 participating countries marched past in a colorful pageant led by massed bands in scarlet, blue and gold. Afterwards, the Asian Games flag with the sun in the middle and 11 interlinked circles under it, was lowered amid a boom of guns and the torch, which had burnt all through the progress of the games, was extinguished. The flag and the torch were handed over to the Chief Commissioner of Delhi for safe keeping. They are wanted by the Philippines, the host country for the Second Asian Games in 1955.

The Maharaja of Patiala, President of the Federation, then mounted the Tribune of Honor and declared the First Asian Games closed. In Olympic tradition he added: "I call upon the youth of every Asian country to assemble in four years at Manila, there to celebrate with us the Second Games of Asia. May they display cheerfulness and concord so that the sports torch may be carried on with even greater eagerness, courage and honour for the good of humanity through the ages."

It was a delicious day for Japan as the curtain was rung down in "Asiad." B athletes won the majority of events, standing first in nine of the fourteen events of the programme. In individual events Japan led with 162 points and India was second with 116 points. Japan's event

CIVIC CENTRE

By request the Civic Centre is showing this Friday night a film called "Family Outing," a 20-minute color film showing a family holiday in the public camping grounds of Banff National Park. The other picture is entitled "Who Will Teach Your Child?" a 30-minute film on the study of the teacher's vital role in the child's development. The film presents a challenge to prospective teacher, parent, the community as a whole—for the teaching profession to receive true recognition, and children satisfaction of their needs to know.

Square dancing will be held in the Civic Centre Auditorium on Friday night and any new comers to the art of old time dancing are being cordially invited. There will be three hours of fun and entertainment for all those attending.

was much too superior and none of the participating countries came anywhere near them. The order was reversed in the team events—India leading with 52 points and Japan coming second with 44 points. India won three events in all—football, water polo and diving. The basketball championship was won by the Philippines easily and they proved their superiority in every department of the game. They also shared honors with Singapore in swimming. Iran scored a runaway victory in weight-lifting.

B.C. Totem in Video Show

NEW YORK—A hand carved Thunderbird totem pole, made by Ellen Neel of Vancouver and which has been on display in various parts of the United States for the past two months, will be presented to Robert Q. Lewis, celebrated radio and television star, during a show tonight. The Canadian National Railways is putting on the show, acting in behalf of the Vancouver Tourist Association.

Lewis, who is one of the outstanding television stars in the United States, is an enthusiastic collector of totem poles and his collection now numbers more than two dozen small models. Put the totem pole fashioned by Mrs. Neel's hands in two weeks of work will be Robert Q.'s "most choice possession." When Lewis had a preview of the Vancouver Tourist Association's present he enthusiastically exclaimed "this is simply grand and out of this world and I will prize it most highly."

The presentation will be made as the opening sequence of Lewis' TV Show over the video network of the Columbia Broadcasting System.

Lewis, who is no repeat, no

Modern Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q. What is the correct way of introducing a man to a woman?

A. The man is invariably presented to the woman. The only exceptions are when a woman is introduced to the Governor General, to a cardinal, or to a reigning sovereign.

Q. Whom does the bridegroom name as the best man?

A. The brother of the groom, the brother of the bride, or the groom's best friend.

Q. How long should a hostess wait for a guest who is late for dinner?

A. Not more than fifteen minutes.

boisterous extrovert but a soft-spoken, studious young man who wears heavy shelled glasses and talks like a college professor who has made a clinical study of laughter, says that if he and Arthur Godfrey, another CBS TV star, can make a "deal" so Godfrey will sub for Lewis in exchange for Lewis subbing for Godfrey, "I'm going to Vancouver on my summer vacation and see what Mrs. Neel and the Vancouver Tourist Association can do in the way of adding to my totem pole collection."

Gardening....

SPADE YOUR OWN GARDEN THE MUSCLE-SAVING WAY

If you want your garden plot to be well prepared, spade it yourself. Weeks may slip by waiting for a man to do a job which, by the proper approach, can be reduced to enjoyable and beneficial exercise.

The secret is to take it easy. Spading is not hard work if done a little at a time. A space 30x50 feet can be spaded in a leisurely way in eight hours. One hour a day for eight days, and the job is done.

But first, be sure the soil is in condition to spade. Never work if it is too wet; and if the soil is heavy, don't wait until it has become too dry. There is a point between extremes when even heavy clay can easily be lifted, and will crumble under a blow from the spade. You can tell this point by using the "mad pie" test.

Mould a ball of earth in your hand, and pat it to make a mud pie. If the pie holds together, the soil is too wet to spade. If it crumbles, then you can go ahead. Systematic spading makes the job easier, and more complete. Here is one way to do it: Set a definite task for your first day's work, say a strip six feet wide, running the shortest dimension of the garden. At one end dig a ditch, say one foot wide and the depth of the spade, removing all soil from it. Pile this soil near the opposite end of the strip.

Now begin to spade with the blade not parallel to the trench, but at right angles to it. This enables you to lift the soil more easily, and deposit it in the trench. The spade should be driven down, not on a slant, but perpendicularly to its full depth. Take a small slice of the soil so your back is not strained. Lift it up, turn the spade over, so that the top soil falls underneath and bottom soil on top. In filling the first trench, you have opened a second.

If you wish to spade under manure, spread it evenly over the area, except for the top of your initial trench. When this first trench has been dug, clean the manure from the top of the next trench and throw it into the bottom of the first; then proceed with your spading, piling the soil on top of the manure.

When you have finished your day's quota, you will have an empty trench, which should be filled with the soil you removed from the initial trench.

MUSIC, DRAMA FESTIVAL—

Entries So Numerous Two Competitions Could Be Held

With more entries than it seems possible to handle in three days plans for this year's Prince Rupert and District Music and Drama Festival May 2, 3 and 4 were discussed at a meeting in the Civic Centre last night.

"We have enough entries for two festivals—one of music and one of drama," said R. G. Moore, program chairman, who reported a total of 171 entries over last year's 108. Entries closed officially March 15, after an extension of two weeks.

Mr. Moore said that adjudication would have to be held morning, afternoon and night, with entries probably being run off in the Civic Centre and Capitol Theatre simultaneously.

OFFICIAL OPENING
The executive decided that the official opening should be conducted by Inspector of Schools G. Graham on the first evening of the festival with introductions for each opening session.

Since a special meeting will be held April 2 to draft the final program, the executive hopes to have all names and information in from contestants by that time. All groups will be sent a program with a summary being printed for public advertisement, it was decided.

Appointed to assist Mrs. W. S. Kergin, reception chairman, was Mrs. L. P. Charbonneau, who acted as secretary in Miss Yvonne Larson's absence.

With refreshments donated, a reception will be held after the festival. A directors and executive meeting with the adjudicators will also be held.

Plans for billeting under committee chairman, Mrs. C. P. Balagno, will be made for the school entrants.

With the transfer from the city of Armine Boas, a business manager and assistant are to be appointed to the executive, Mrs. E. W. Becker, president, said.

Definite understanding about extra copies of selections for the adjudicators was requested by Sister Mary Lawrence.

To avoid the extra cost of duplicate copies and royalties, it was suggested by Mr. Moore that a subsidy be given applicants in the future by the Festival committee to defray this added expense to those entering but no decision was reached.

It was pointed out by Henry Plum that the Western Music Co. will be providing the adjudicator's copies for all test pieces. But copies of individual selections would have to be provided by the applicant.

"This is necessary so the adjudicator can have a basis for adjudication," Mrs. Becker pointed out.

Those attending the meeting were: Mrs. L. P. Charbonneau, Mrs. E. W. Becker, Mrs. G. A. Hill, Rev. Basil S. Prockter, Miss Elizabeth Holmes, Rudolph Olsen, R. G. Moore, Mrs. A. E. Anfield, Mrs. W. S. Kergin, Henry Plum, Sister Mary Lawrence, Mrs. C. P. Balagno and Sister Superior.

NUMEROUS ENTRIES

Entries consist of:
Pianoforte, solo, 56 groups.
Violin, 12 groups, with two from Ketchikan.

Elocution, 21 entries, from local schools.

Dancing, four local entries and Highland Fling dancing from New Hazelton.

Drama, 13 groups.

Two plays from Both Memorial High School Sr. Drama Club.

Two plays from King Edward School.

Two plays from Both Memorial High School Jr. Drama Club.

One play from the New Hazelton Drama Club.

Looks for Big Salmon Season

Norman Nelson of the Nelson Brothers Fisheries Ltd., is making a northern tour of canneries and is conferring today with Harry Robins, local manager at Port Edward.

"An ordinary season is expected this year, with the canneries being as busy as usual," said Mr. Nelson, who arrived in the city yesterday on the Prince Rupert. Sockeye salmon will be brought from the Namu sector to the local cannery. This is expected to start in the part of July, he said.

Good seining is reported by Sooke.

After his stay here, Mr. Nelson will visit the Islands.
