FOR AGED BURNS—Forty persons died in a three-alarm fire which swept Hospice Ste. Cune, a home for the aged and orphanage, on Atwater Avenue in Montreal Friday afternoon. Fire broke out shortly after noon in the five-storey stone and wood building. This shows firemen pouring water into the blazing structure from aerial towers. (CP PHOTO)

Fire Toll Now Forty

MONTREAL — The exact number of dead in Friday's disastrous fire that swept St. Cune's Hospice is still indefinite. An official of the Grey Nuns' order, operators of the home for the aged and orphanage, placed the toll today at forty.

The list includes thirty-seven women, one elderly man and two men. Of these thirty-seven are known dead and five are missing. No hope is held for the missing.

Sockeye Season Opens

High Boat Gets 150 Fish

Sockeye fishing in the Naas and Skeena Rivers opened Sunday evening at 6 o'clock and returns "look very promising," one fishing company spokesman said.

Although averages are "very incomplete so far," the run of gillnetters unloading to packers early this morning counted about 50 each for the Skeena boats and about 60 to 70 fish each for the Naas River boats.

Highest catch reported was 150, the spokesman said.

Port Edward Townsite Will Not Hurt Rupert

It is a good thing for Prince Rupert that plans have been laid for a town at Port Edward. That is the opinion of Mayor G. W. Rudderham. "New Westminster never hurt Vancouver," the mayor told a Daily News reporter this morning, "and another town a few miles from Prince Rupert won't hurt us."

Last Flight For Aiyansh

Queen Charlotte Air Lines flew their last trip for the season in Aiyansh village, farthest north organized Indian territory on the Naas River. The mail plane, piloted by Norman Jermyn, operates the only air mail service to Indian villages in Canada.

Most of Aiyansh is out fishing now. Pilot Jermyn said, and the service will not be resumed until some time in the fall.

During the winter months, Aiyansh natives kept a strip of water on the Naas River free of ice by cutting and chopping the frozen waters. Aircraft used by QCA for this service is a Norseman.

Soldiers Honored

Annual Decoration Day Services of I.O.D.E. Held Yesterday

Memory of 160 soldiers of Commonwealth forces in two world wars, one American soldier who died here during World War II and of an Imperial Order, Daughter of the Empire leader, who for many years made Decoration Day an especial care was honored at the annual Decoration Day services of Queen Mary Chapter yesterday.

Proceedings commenced with a parade to the Cenotaph led by the City Band, and including members of Queen Mary Chapter, Canadian Legion and the Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion.

At the cenotaph, a wreath was placed by Municipal Regent Mrs. G. G. Withers. From there, the parade moved in cars to Fairview Cemetery, where the services were conducted by Queen Mary Regent, Mrs. J. R. Carr.

Flags and poppies were placed on each grave of World War I and World War II soldiers. One United States flag was laid on the grave of an American soldier.

Mrs. W. J. Lineham raised a flag in honor of the late Mrs. D. C. Stuart, always active in the Decoration Day services. A floral wreath was laid on her grave by Mrs. Russell Scherk. The graves of the late Mrs. Mary McRae and Mrs. Jessie Adcock also were honored.

The Civic Band played during the ceremonies.

Rev. Dr. E. A. Wright, Presbyterian minister, delivered an appropriate address at the cemetery services.

The Decoration Day ceremonies were in charge of Mrs. J. A. McRae.

Jet Battle Coincides With Renewal of Red Offensive

TOKYO — Outnumbered American sabre jets destroyed six Russian type jets and damaged eight others in two big air battles over Korea yesterday and today. A total of 108 planes were involved in a sudden revival of jet warfare. All American planes returned safely.

Reappearance of Red jets in force coincided with indications that the Chinese may be preparing for a new ground offensive. Red troops suddenly appeared in territory they had previously deserted. Replacements steadily filtered down from the north.

Fierce Red defences checked Allied moves in the centre of the line but Allied patrols today drove more than three miles into Red territory in the west and gained slightly over a mile in the east.

Trying to End Coast Dispute

VANCOUVER — Union and company representatives are putting their heads together again today in an attempt to figure out a solution to the threatened seamen's strike on the British Columbia coast.

Dick Deeley, port agent for the Seafarers' International Union, said Saturday he would confer with company officials and a strike date would be set if union demands were turned down.

The strike by 900 seamen would tie up 22 coastal passenger vessels of Canadian National, Canadian Pacific and Union Steamship Co. lines.

The Seamen's International Union is asking for $30 a month more.

The best offer of the companies so far has been $13.87 which the seamen turned down in a referendum.

French Election

IT LOOKS like as unsettled a political situation as ever in France as a result of yesterday's general election. Rightist forces of General Charles De Gaulle's Rally of the French People party have scored a marked triumph and will, after the post-war years of striving become one of the largest, if not the largest, groups in Parliament. The Communists, although gaining in popular vote, lose seats in Parliament under the new system of vote counting. The parties of the coalition, which have governed France tenuously, appear to have lost strength although, combined, they have more seats than the two extremist groups.

With the one clear gain appearing to have been De Gaulle's, a coalition of some sort with a possible turning to the right will probably be the outcome. But, with a Communist party frustrated in obtaining greater parliamentary representation although it obtained more popular votes, it could be that even more troublous days between right and left lie ahead.

Supplying The Enemy

THE government of Canada finds itself in an embarrassing situation because of Canadian-flagged ships carrying supplies to Communist China while Canadian soldiers are fighting and dying in the war in Korea against the same Chinese Communists.

To say the least of it, the suggestion that the Canadian ships are plying in this trade because there is an investment of a few million dollars to project is a rather grim one.

The government, we believe, should act speedily on the demand that these ships should be seized or sunk without delay if they continue in this trade. The government should not have waited for the matter to be aired in Parliament by the Opposition. It was mighty poor politics apart from the obvious moral considerations in the matter.

Gold Policy?

OF CONCERN to all Canadians just now is the plight of gold mining. Here is an industry which formed the sheet anchor of the country's credit during a world depression and provided a billion U. S. dollars for essential purchases in World War II. The industry takes on new significance today with Canada showing some disturbing signs of an unfavorable trade balance.

Gold mining is facing acute problems: wages and other costs have moved up sharply while the price of its own product is firmly fixed and has been for years. That Ottawa is considering additional cost-aid to the industry is a situation with which few will quarrel. A large part of our north country economy has its roots in gold; many frontier communities must fold up completely were gold mining to falter.

Ottawa's monetary experts question Canada's right, if not ability, to sell gold at a free market price above $35 an ounce because of obligations to the International Monetary Fund. Mining men on the other hand stress that IMF membership should not blind us to the fact that Canada, turning out $168 millions of gold a year, is the world's second-largest known producer of gold and that we have special and fundamental interests as a great producer of a key commodity.—Financial Post.

Reflects and Reminisces

Mexico has, doubtless, a choice variety of delicacies. We will not attempt to enumerate them but we think a dozen fresh salmon, packed in ice and flown direct from the cool waters of British Columbia to the land a few thousand miles south, should be able to offer a little competition.

Penny Wise, Vancouver newspaper woman, has been in Korea for the past month or so and is covering the job in first-rate style. Incidentally, she has not forgotten to make it clear that Korea at the present time is a first-rate place for a woman to stay away from. Penny is experiencing plenty of risks on what is undoubtedly a memorable assignment.

There is a distinction between "hotel" and "lodging house." This explains why some local people have not yet been interviewed by the census taker. They surely will, however. They merely neglected to remember that from the standpoint of the government, a lodging house is not a hotel.

"Unspoiled" is a word that still applies to Canada. By no stretch of imagination can Canada be called over-populated. No part of Canada, no matter how newly settled, or how old, but can come within its meaning.

This part of the world has the best there is for what the Celulose Corporation needs, says Emory Cleaves. "Only in B.C. are there hemlock and spruce forests, with adjuncts for shipping facilities and good labor and governmental conditions. Perhaps in Siberia there may be another supply of this kind of wood but who wants to speak with Mr. Stalin when we can do business with Mr. Kenney?"

Sees Shortage Of College Men

SYDNEY, Australia.—Businessmen might soon have to sponsor university students if they want their services as graduates. Prof. Sir Douglas Copland, Vice-Chancellor of the Australian National University, said recently.

He warned that by 1960 Australia might not have enough graduates to meet her needs in every field.

He said that by 1960 Australia would need 4,000 school teachers a year instead of the present 2,500; 1,000 medical students instead of 700 and 1,000 engineers instead of 500.

By 1956, he said, Australia might have a university population of 50,000—equal to British enrolments in 1939.

C. Poulton. At the Toronto establishment the Salvation Army cares for women on remand from the police and incorrigible too young for reformatory sentences. Mrs. Chambers sailed last evening on the Coquitlam for Vancouver enroute to Toronto. First she will spend a holiday at London, Ontario.

Mrs. W. C. Poulton, wife of Staff Captain Poulton, will assume the task of matron of the Lodge for Young Women.

Captain and Mrs. George Oystrik are appointed to take charge of the Prince Rupert Corps of the Salvation Army and thus release Staff Captain Poulton for his district work which involves such scattered places as Ocean Falls to Whitehorse.

Captain Oystrik is coming to Rupert from Dauphin, Manitoba.

Captain Grace Burkett, who has taught school and officered the Canyon City Corps on the Naas River, is taking additional teacher training at Vancouver next fall and will be replaced at Canyon City by Captain E. F. McLean. The captain will have as her assistant in Canyon City work Lieutenant Geraldine Fordyce, who comes to Northern B.C. from Melville, Saskatchewan.

Lieutenant Gordon, who has been assisting at Canyon City, is appointed to Strathroy, Ontario. Major Mrs. Chambers left on the Union steamship for Vancouver on Sunday evening, enroute to London, Ontario, on holidays prior to taking up her Toronto posting.

Report from Parliament

By E. T. APPLEWHITE, M.P.

Textiles in Central B.C.—The last issue of the Labour Gazette features the primary textile industry. It just started me wondering. Stranger things have happened than to see a textile industry in Central British Columbia. Our power resources, even with Alcan's activities, will not have been nearly exhausted. June 12 must have demonstrated to many people the fact that we now produce at least some of the raw materials I wouldn't be at all surprised if some day (perhaps not in my tenure) the Member for Skeena should be actively concerned with such problems as wages, hours and working conditions in the textile industry.

Paper for Milk—The Smithers area in particular, but other parts of Skeena as well, will be interested in, and concerned about the difficulties arising out of the shortage of paper products for such purposes as containers of dairy products. I have been following this up rather actively and I now have some reason to hope that supplementary supplies of the required type of paper-board may be available from the United States. If all other attempts to meet the situation fail, we may be faced with the necessity for government intervention. I hope not, as this is bound to mean controls and interference in other pulp and paper products as well, with far-reaching effects which are sure to be annoying in many ways.

Mayors and M.P.'s—Some little flurry of interest was caused by a suggestion brought up in the Dominion Elections Act Committee that Mayors should be placed in the same category under the Act as M.L.A.'s and be eligible as M.P.'s. It was just a suggestion casually discussed in the Committee and the Member who brought it up made it clear he would not suggest that it affect the present members until the next general election. But J. S. Sinnott, M.P., who is reeve of Springfield, Manitoba, brought it up in the House as "a matter of public importance and a question of personal privilege." He needn't have got so worried—our Committee had taken no action, and in any event he couldn't be unseated before another election.

Acoustics—A special committee has been set up to work with the Speaker to consider the question of a proposed amplification system for the House of Commons, where the acoustics are very poor. Angus MacInnis, O.C.F. Member for Vancouver East, will be the British Columbia Member on this Committee.

St. Laurent Agrees—Mr. St. Laurent has often showed his willingness to join with the opposition whenever the opposition had a proposal which seemed to him to have merit. For instance, when Mr. Drew, leader of the opposition, introduced his resolution to have a committee appointed to consider improvements in House of Commons procedure, with a view to obtaining greater efficiency, Mr. St. Laurent was quickly to his feet to agree that the government and most members, if not

Rupert Has Lucky Win

Saturday evening's challenge football game between Aiyansh eleven and a selected team from Prince Rupert football clubs resulted in a win for the city eleven by the only goal of the game. The Aiyansh team were unlucky in that the goal was scored by one of their own players in endeavoring to clear his own goal and their other bad luck was their failure to capitalize on a penalty kick.

Pavlikis and Pat Wilson showed nice combination but Eli cleared. Aiyansh staged a strong attack until Alex Gomez headed out a hard drive. Play went from end to end but the defenses were equal to the strain. Krause saved a good shot from J. Morvan. Halvorsen now came on to complete the Prince Rupert team. Davis tested Krause with a long hard drive that the goalie held at the second attempt and cleared. O Woods, from Adams' pass, forced a corner and J. Morvan also forced a corner but the cross was cleared.

Eli stopped Ford on resuming. Halvorsen placed a long free kick right on the target but Nisyok was there to clear. Then Pat Wilson turned an awkward pass against the cross bar and breasted the rebound into goal where O. Wood, in trying to clear, scored against his own team. A penalty for handball in the penalty area gave Aiyansh a chance to equalize but Davis shot wide. Mercer went close. A Gomez went close from Wilson's pass. Nisyok cleared well from A. Gomez and also saved a splendidly taken corner by Murray. The Aiyansh goalie turned Gomez' hard drive over the bar. Murray turned Gomez' kick into the goal but foolishly used his hand in doing so and spoiled a great chance. Full time came with the game speeding up but no further goals.

Teams:
Aiyansh—Nisyok; Rod Robinson, S. Eli; N. Woods, Raynold Davis, Richard Gunot, O. Woods, D. Gunot, Percy Adams, J. Morvan, E. Morvan, Oscar Mercer, Dick Nisyok, Clayton, Reg Pearson, Jacob David.

Prince Rupert—Krause; Baxter, Dunbar; Halvorsen, Petersen, D. Gomez (captain), A. Gomez, Pat Wilson, Pavlikis, Ford, Murray.
Referee—Pat Forman.

PLAY COMMENT
The game was not up to last year's standard but both teams will improve. Nisyok kept a great goal. Robinson was very safe and Eli did well. Reynold David was a forcing centre-half but missed the penalty badly. N. Gunot and R. Gunot were hard-playing wing halves. Percy Adams was always a threat at centre but their usual combination was lacking.

Krause was not severely tested. Dunbar played a great game at back and Baxter showed his versatility with neat tackling and timely kicking. Petersen played hard but much of his neat footwork was spoiled by his hanging on to the ball too long. Darro Gomez was a stumbling block and veteran Halvorsen filled in well enough. Wilson was the best forward, passing well and shooting on the target. Pavlikis had an off night. A Gomez played hard but neither Ford nor Murray played up to form.

Commercial Win Again

Score Second Win of Season In Senior Baseball

Coming up with the second win of the season to place top in Prince Rupert's baseball league, Commercial Sunday afternoon scored a 2-0 victory over Gordon & Anderson. Larry Warner, starting and winning pitcher, hurled the nine inning route and gave up only three hits.

From the first inning, when Bruce Simundson got home on a base on balls, yielded by Gordon & Anderson's new pitcher, former Catcher Cartelli, Commercial held the lead, and in the sixth inning scored another run on a first base error.

The G&A battery was new throughout with Darrell Young behind the plate.

There was no serious hitting throughout the entire game, with the exception of a two-base hit by Stan Cornwell, playing-manager of G&A. But an attempt to steal third didn't quite get over and he was put out by a fast play between Windle and Matthews, second and third basemen.

The G&A men played a good game but made several fielding errors which gave Commercial the edge. Losing pitcher Cartelli was a hard worker throughout the game, and gave up only five hits and four bases on balls. He struck out seven men at bat.

It was a fast game, with most of the non-scoring innings going one, two, three—down.

In a dashing attempt to steal to third, Commercial's first batter, B. Simundson, slid the knee out of his uniform. A call for safety pins was made in view but when Bruce came up to bat the next time the trousers were neatly patched with white adhesive tape.

Letourneau was umpire-in-chief. Dave Abel was field umpire.

Several remarkable fielding accomplishments featured the game. Desonner, new first baseman for Commercial, caught a rising line drive off Stan Cornwell's bat.

Sunberg, G&A second baseman, made a flying tackle to stop a hot line drive by Bill Gunn, Commercial's left-fielder, who made a lot of running catches himself yesterday.

Ray Spring, left fielder for G&A, came in for a big hand from some 200 spectators as they saw him run fast and jump to make the catch of a high soaring fly by Desonner.

Civil Defence Planning

Committees Getting Into Action

Feature of a Civil Defence Committee meeting Friday night was a comprehensive report given by the Health and Welfare Planning Committee which had met under the chairmanship of Dr. Duncan Black with St. John Madeley, supervisor of the Social Welfare Branch in the district, as secretary.

The members of the committee include J. Ewart and R. E. Eysolfson of the St. John Ambulance Association; Dr. J. D. Galbraith, superintendent, Miller Bay Hospital; Stan Saville, Prince Rupert Red Cross Society; Orme Stuart, Prince Rupert, pharmacist; Dr. A. W. Large, medical profession; D. C. Stevenson, Prince Rupert General Hospital, and the Misses E. Clements, RN, and F. Hilton, PHN, nursing profession. The sanitarian will also be a member.

This was the first committee to present a report of a meeting. Other committees are also to report.

Mayor George Rudderham presided over Friday evening's meeting and, in the absence from the city of City Clerk W. R. Long, Miss Wrathall acted as secretary. Others present were Aldermen D. Pith, D. Gomez, T. B. Black and H. F. Glassey, Assistant Fire Chief Hill, Sgt. Potterton, RCMP, Stan Saville, St. John Madeley, Dr. D. Black, Howard Hill, R. E. Eysolfson, G. C. Sessions and J. S. Wilson.

Committees set up include public utilities, chairman, Alderman T. B. Black; fire control and prevention, Fire Chief E. Becker; health and welfare, Dr. Duncan McC. Black; police, Sgt. Potterton, RCMP. These chairmen will name their own committees and report to the next meeting of the Civil Defence Committee called for June 29. J. S. Wilson represents the Canadian Legion and it is expected that many of the Legion members will be taking an active part in the work of the various committees. By virtue of their training in the services they should be especially valuable.

THE REPORT

Health and Welfare Planning Committee's first progress report includes following recommendations:

First Aid—Registration of all qualified first aid persons in the city.

Consider the location of first aid posts and arrangements necessary to staff them in the event of emergency.

List possible sources of first aid supplies and arrangements necessary to collect and distribute available supplies to first aid posts when the time comes.

Consider what communications set-up is necessary for the efficient handling of first aid problems.

Propose a program to stimulate first aid training in all possible ways.

Consider what liaison would be required with the medical profession in the event of emergency.

Consider what can be done through volunteer staff in so far as first aid posts are concerned.

Red Cross—To work out set-up for information centre to start functioning in the event of emergency, with particular reference to staff requirements, necessary records, reports and liaisons, enquiry centre.

Liaison with Welfare Branch regarding plans for refugee evacuation to cushion area.

Organization of committee to roll bandages and prepare other supplies.

Organize emergency clothing dump.

Survey the city in order to prepare list of spare beds and their location.

Prepare lists of those who can help with mass feeding under the following headings: Supplies (wholesale and retail); utensils and stoves; capacities of present mass feeding facilities, e.g., hospitals, halls, restaurants, etc.; personnel required.

Welfare Branch—Work with Red Cross on mass feeding plans.

Work with Red Cross on information and enquiry centre.

Evacuation resources within the immediate cushion area (east to Endako)—Accommodation available in case of emergency; transportation facilities and requirements; work out records necessary to be kept in case of evacuation.

Professional services on welfare problems re: Separated families; financial assistance (under provisions presumably to be made by government); other welfare problems.

Liaison with other Welfare Branch officials in regard to co-operation required in the event of emergency elsewhere in the province. (This function laid down in departmental instructions to local senior officials of Welfare Branch.)

INFORMATION
It was recognized that there is a dearth of material on civil defence requirements, but that more information would probably be forthcoming shortly from senior governments.

It was also realized that, at present, no funds were available for the purchasing of any supplies, and that the main object of this committee was planning for any eventuality.

ODDFELLOWS' HEAD—Rev. R. J. Love, pastor of Wilson Heights' United Church, Vancouver, and Grand Master of the Oddfellows' Lodge for British Columbia, is in the city to pay an official visit to the local lodge tonight. He arrived by plane this afternoon from Vancouver and will proceed to Terrace by car tomorrow. Then he will go on to other interior points for further official visitations. Mr. Love some years ago was pastor at Port Simpson.

Church People Are Farewelled

A very pleasant evening was enjoyed last Wednesday by the members and friends of the choir of First Presbyterian Church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Smith, Summit Avenue, the occasion being to honor four highly valued and esteemed members who will shortly be leaving Prince Rupert—Mr. and Mrs. James L. Lee, who will be taking up residence at Ganges, B.C., and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Martin who, with their son and daughter, will be making their home on Vancouver Island.

The sense of a great loss to the church in general and to the choir in particular was sincerely expressed by Mrs. Smith, organist and choir leader. Mrs. Lee and Mr. Martin responded in an equally sincere tone. Presentations on behalf of the company were made by Mrs. J. A. Teng.

A word of esteem and appreciation was also addressed to Mr. Lee, who though not an active member, has always been a most helpful and sympathetic friend.

The happy event took the form of a buffet supper, beautifully arranged, followed by games into which all heartily entered.

Proceedings ended with community singing and "Auld Lang Syne."

Pickers Short and Berry Crop Risked

VANCOUVER—Unless a thousand pickers can be found within the next few days there will be danger of Fraser Valley strawberries rotting, according to latest word from the valley. The berry yield is very good but the trouble is there is a scarcity of labor.

TIMBER SALE 53118

Is Guilty Of Theft

Victor Walkow, 28, no fixed address, was found guilty of theft by Police Magistrate W. D. Vance in police court Saturday. Sentence was reserved.

Walkow was charged with stealing $145 early Wednesday from Kazumi Hamanishi, a Japanese fisherman, in a west-end rooming house.

Hamanishi had awaked just in time to see a "big man with a red and black sweater" walk out of his room. His money was missing and he contacted police. He gave a description of the accused and of the money which was in denominations of one $100 bill, three tens, and three fives.

Police picked up Walkow in a washroom hiding the money behind a basin.

Walkow had pleaded not guilty when first arraigned. He called two witnesses, both of whom said he had been in the rooming house shortly before the theft was alleged to have taken place.

Divorce Question Basis of Drama

The problem of divorce is illuminated in the presentation of "Payment on Demand" which stars Bette Davis and Barry Sullivan in the roles of a husband and wife who reach the end of the marital road after years of conflicting ambitions. The picture is showing Monday to Wednesday at the Capitol Theatre.

David Ramsey yearns to run a small town law practice, but Joyce Ramsey dreams of wealth and social position for herself and their two daughters, and schemes endlessly to advance her husband's fortunes. She does this so effectively that when David is 50 he is a prominent steel company executive, and desperately unhappy.

How the situation is resolved, and the highlights of their married life, are revealed in a novel type of screen story-calling Jane Cowl, Ken Taylor, Betty Lynn, John Sutton and Frances Dee perform in the supporting cast.

Avenger Drama Showing Here

The exciting story of a man who is sent to prison on false charges, and who on his release sets out to find who betrayed him, is developed in the Dick Powell-Rhonda Fleming starring vehicle, "Cry Danger," at Totem Theatre Monday to Wednesday.

This suspenseful film brings Powell back to the screen in the hard-bitten type of role that has featured his screen career of late. Rhonda Fleming portrays the wife of a man who was sent to prison with Powell and is still incarcerated. It is a strictly modern dramatic role for Miss Fleming.

The supporting cast features four players. Regis Toomey portrays a tough yet sympathetic detective not sure of Powell's innocence, but ready to play along with him until the truth is proven and justice served. Dick Erdman, rapidly coming to the front as a film actor, plays a one-legged ex-Marine whose testimony frees Powell from prison.

The sinister influence in the picture is acted by William Conrad. Jean Porter, pert faced and tiny, is a gold-digging blonde who somehow manages to get a certain amount of sympathy for herself before the screen story is completed.

LONDON @-A dozen brand new canoes were sent to East Ham juvenile court with a typed note from a "well-wisher" saying: "The enclosed old-fashioned remedy might be presented to parents for their erring children."

NAVAL RACERS-A trophy and a three-decker cake went to the division scoring the most points in the mammoth cross-country race at H.M.C.S. Cornwallis. Here Captain A. P. Musgrave, commanding officer of the Navy's new entry training establishment, presents the winners' trophy to Ord. Sea. Robert J. Russell, of Saskatoon, captain of Ottawa Division. The cake is on the table in the foreground. Ottawa division members pictured in the front row are, right to left: Ordinary Seaman Albert Simmons, Victoria, and Royal E. Thomas, Chatham, Ont.; AB Earl J. Eisan, Halifax, and Ordinary Seamen William Stohl, Saskatoon; Jean Claude Salman, Montreal; Douglas C. Hammond, London, Ont., and Llewellyn Kennedy, Cornerbrook, Newfoundland.

Blackwood on Bridge

By Easley Blackwood

In bridge it is not always best to do "what comes naturally." For example, in winning a trick you "naturally" win it as cheaply as possible. You don't play a king to win an opponent's 10-spot when you have the jack in your hand.

Similarly, in following suit to a trick which you can't win (as where an opponent has led an ace) you "naturally" play your lowest card.

Very good. These practices are correct-most of the time. You make such plays almost without thinking. Notice that word "almost." You should never make them without thinking at all.

Consider the matter of unblocking which means simply the playing of an unnecessarily high card in order to increase your chances of winning.

Unblocking plays don't come up very often. That is one of the reasons they are so often missed. All I can tell you-don't play automatically. Try to look ahead a few tricks. Think!

DALE'S PAUSE PAYS

In the two hands preceding the one shown today, old Mr. Dale made a couple of clever unblocking plays to bring home part score contracts totalling a game. He made another such play on this deal to score a slam.

Mr. Meek opened the queen of clubs and the old master paused to look the situation over. Good, eh? The pause, I mean. Yes, it pays not to play too quickly to that first trick.

The automatic or "habit" play would be low from the dummy, winning in the closed hand with the king. Very economical. And very wrong.

Mr. Dale saw that he had no loser to throw on the ace of clubs later. All he had to worry about was losing two trump tricks. If the hearts were divided 2-2 the contract was safe.

If Mr. Meek on his left, had the ace and any two of the other hearts, it was hopeless. But suppose Mr. Abel had the ace and any two of the other hearts. Then the hand was making.

Mr. Dale saw that he had no loser to throw on the ace of clubs later. All he had to worry about was losing two trump tricks. If the hearts were divided 2-2 the contract was safe.

SHIPS AND WATERFRONT
Sockeye salmon fishermen were early at work last evening, it being the commencement of the season. One man to a boat is the general rule as they operate along the coast, and in interior hundreds of miles. Most of the boats are owned by the canneries but the nets are paid for. It is of first importance for the fishermen to know the steamship routes and schedules and tide, for if a steamer comes entangled with a net, it's just too bad for the latter.
