LIVING COST CONTROL BEING DEMANDED

For Congresses To Debate Wages, Living

By JOHN LEBLANC
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, (CP)—Wages and the soaring cost of living will be the dominating theme of Canadian two big annual gatherings this month.

The Trades and Labor Congress of Canada and the Canadian Congress of Labor, holding their annual congresses in Halifax and Vancouver respectively, are expected to lay down their demands for new wage controls. Each convention will have between 700 and 1000 delegates.

Committee to Name Choice

A three-man nominating committee was appointed this morning by the Associated Boards of Trade convention here to nominate members for election of a new executive.

Committee members are three past presidents of the association, George Ogston, Vanderhoof, chairman; J. T. Harvey, Prince Rupert, and F. M. Dockrill, Telkwa.

Election will be held at end of convention tomorrow.

FEATURED SPEAKER—Ralph D. Baker, president of Vancouver Board of Trade, is a visitor to the city for the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia convention and featured speaker at today's luncheon. Mr. Baker is president of the Standard Oil Co. of British Columbia and has long been one of Vancouver's prominent business and industrial leaders.

Momentous Convention Gets Underway Here

Associated Boards Meeting Hailed as Pointing Up New Era—Seventy Delegates

With President W. J. Scott in the chair over a gathering of upwards of seventy delegates from various parts of northern and central British Columbia and Alaska as well as government representatives and observers from public service bodies in other parts of the province, the annual convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia got under way this morning at Civic Centre.

It was hailed as a gathering which could be of vital significance in connection with the guidance of the destinies of this area in the new era of industrial development which has come to the port of Prince Rupert and all of central and northern British Columbia.

President Scott was joined in the inaugural proceedings by Acting Mayor Harold Whalen and Vice-President T. Norton Youngs of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce.

Both Mr. Whalen and Mr. Youngs welcomed the delegates and extended best wishes to the convention for success in its deliberations.

Said Mr. Youngs: "We are at the crossroads of industrial development in this area. Much may depend upon this convention and the resolutions that are passed. It should be an historic convention from which it is to be hoped all will benefit."

Telegrams and messages were received from many persons who found it impossible to attend in person including Premier B. I. Johnson, Hon. E. C. Carson, Hon. H. R. Bowman, Hon. W. T. Straith, R. C. Steele, MLA; Hon. R. W. Mayhew, Frank Calder, MLA; Senator Gray Turgeon, R. G. Winspear, president of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, D. M. Morrell, manager, and others.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT
President Scott offered his report reviewing accomplishments or otherwise which had been achieved on representations of previous conventions.

The great impetus which had come to industrial development in this area brought with it new and greater problems, Mr. Scott's report observed, and he hoped the Associated Boards might be instrumental in helping to meet those problems.

Mr. Scott paid especial tribute to the assistance of the secretary of the Associated Boards, Duncan Kerr.

The report was adopted with an appreciative vote of thanks on motion of F. M. Dockrill who commended the able manner in which the affairs of the Associated Boards had been carried on during the past year and described the report as a document of interest and enlightenment which might well be a model for future such reports.

Extension of rail service from Prince George to Alaska was urged by a Prince George Board of Trade resolution today at the annual convention of Central B. C. Associated Boards of Trade in session here.

Of first seven resolutions adopted by the convention, the mooted rail extension to Alaska was most thoroughly discussed. Main reason for the resolution were given as an important step in defence of the Pacific coast, and opening of a vast territory of northern British Columbia for industrial and agricultural development.

H. G. Perry, chairman of the resolutions committee, explained that already two resolutions calling for such a rail extension had been passed by US Congress. The Prince George resolution urges the Provincial government to work out a policy with US government and US private interests on the rail extension.

M.L.A. Proposes Force on Douks

KAMLOOPS—In an address Wednesday, Sidney Smith, M.L.A. spoke strongly against the plan to establish the Sons of Freedom at Adams Lake near here. The Doukhobors, he declared, had become a curse to the Kootenays and if it was actually the intent to locate the radicals at this new location, then such action should be opposed by force.

George Hills Alderman by Acclamation

George Edwin Hills, only candidate for 15-month term of alderman in September 13 by-elections, today was declared elected by acclamation, by Returning Officer R. W. Long. Nominations closed at noon today.

Two candidates have filed nomination papers to run for the three-month term aldermanic vacancy. They are Michael Kreuger, chemist manager of Prince Rupert fishermen's Co-operative Association liver plant, and Eric Faure, manager of the Kaiser Consumers' Co-op store.

Majority candidates are T. Norton Youngs, Douglas Frizzell and H. F. (Berf) Glassey.

Proposers and seconders of candidates were as follows: Michael Kreuger—H. S. Whalen, John McLeod. T. N. Youngs—H. S. Whalen, J. N. Forman. C. D. Frizzell—P. H. Linzey, Peter Gamula. H. F. Glassey—J. Alaska-Prince George Rail Link Mooted Here

SEVEN RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

Extension of rail service from Prince George to Alaska was urged by a Prince George Board of Trade resolution today at the annual convention of Central B. C. Associated Boards of Trade in session here.

Of first seven resolutions adopted by the convention, the mooted rail extension to Alaska was most thoroughly discussed. Main reason for the resolution were given as an important step in defence of the Pacific coast, and opening of a vast territory of northern British Columbia for industrial and agricultural development.

H. G. Perry, chairman of the resolutions committee, explained that already two resolutions calling for such a rail extension had been passed by US Congress. The Prince George resolution urges the Provincial government to work out a policy with US government and US private interests on the rail extension.

George Murray, MP for Cariboo, suggested that the resolution "could very well leave out" reference to Alaska. "We are interested first in Canada, and in this part of Canada," he said. Extension of a railway north of the northern Canadian National Railway line should first connect with the Peace River district, "where 30,000,000 bushels of grain this year will be shipped east."

Opposition Members Will Press Question At Coming Session

OTTAWA, (CP)—Government action to hold down the cost of living will be demanded by opposition parties in the House of Commons when Parliament meets next month. This was emphasized Wednesday in statements by George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader; M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader, and Solon Low, Social Credit leader.

Young Girl Is Tennis Champ

FOREST HILLS—Maureen Connolly, 16-year-old scrapper from away back, thrilled a crowd of 2500 on Wednesday when she fought her way through a broiling third set to defeat Shirley Fly of Akron, Ohio, 6-3, 1-6, 6-4, and became the youngest owner of the women's crown in the United States tennis championships.

Indians in Lead Again

NEW YORK—Cleveland Indians jumped back into first place in the tight American League race Wednesday night by defeating Detroit Tigers 5 to 2 behind Early Wynn's four-hit pitching.

The victory gave the tribesmen a full game lead over the New York Yankees who were defeated 4 to 2 in New York by the third-place Boston Red Sox.

Wynn turned in a beautiful pitching performance for Cleveland in winning his 17th victory against 12 losses. Ted Williams slammed his 28th home run, singled and drew two bases on balls in four times at bat as the Red Sox downed the Yankees.

I. W. A. Refuses 20-cent Offer

VANCOUVER—Officials of the International Woodworkers of America (CIO) have rejected a wage boost offer of 20 cents an hour for 4000 workers in the northern interior of British Columbia.

Stewart Alsbury, district president, said today the union will apply for a conciliation board.

He said the 20-cent offer was made without "any extras," such as compulsory check-off and better holidays with pay.

"This is an absolute breach of faith on the part of the northern operators," he said. "It is a complete double-cross."

Earlier, operators had offered a 19-cent hourly wage boost, plus extras asked by the union.

Sedgman Is Title Winner

FOREST HILLS, New York—Frank Sedgman, long overdue from Australia, finally took his place among tennis champions Tuesday when he brought his big game to its absolute peak and slaughtered Vic Seixas of Philadelphia 6-4, 6-1, and 6-1 in the final of the US national championships.

It took the big, fleet Aussie only 48 minutes to become the first foreigner left with the cup since Fred Perry, of England, took it home in 1936, and the first Australian ever to win it.

BULLETINS

ALLIES ESCAPE

UNITED STATES EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN KOREA—An Allied unit tonight fought its way through encircling Chinese Communists and reached safety after an 18-hour battle on the western Korean front. It is estimated that 3000 Chinese, reinforced by tanks and artillery, had attacked a United Nations unit in two spots. Allied eye-witnesses said the final escape of the United Nations force was a "mad dash" by armored vehicles and foot troops.

BRITISH GOVT ON SPOT

BLACKPOOL—Britain's Trades Union Congress today called on the Labor government to nationalize buying, marketing and distributing of certain consumer goods. State control, 8,000,000 workers said, would help cut the cost of living. It is understood the resolution had milk, meat, fish vegetables and fruit in mind.

QUEBEC FIRE TRAGEDY

SEPT ILES, Quebec—Seven members of a family were burned to death in a fire which roared through their two-storey frame home today. The dead are Mr. and Mrs. Leger Lapierre and five children. When first noticed, the flames were shooting out of the windows of the house.

GROMYKO SEES AGGRESSION

SAN FRANCISCO—Thwarted in his first attempt to stall the Japanese peace conference, Russia's Andrei Gromyko came back to the speaker's stand late Wednesday and vigorously attacked the treaty which United States, Great Britain have invited fifty other countries to sign. "Certain great powers," Gromyko said, "are helping to prepare for a new war with the Far East." The dour-faced Russian called Japan the spearhead of the aggression.

Convention Committees

President W. J. Scott appointed Harry King of Terrace and A. G. Ford of Smithers to the credentials committee at the annual convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia today.

Walter T. Burns of Smithers and A. P. Crawley of Prince Rupert comprise the audit committee.

Increased Train Service

ANNOUNCEMENT that a six-days a week passenger train service is to be instituted on the Prince Rupert-Jasper line of the Canadian National Railways with gratification in Prince Rupert.

It is something which the Daily News has been advocating in season and out for many years.

The answer of the railway company, an indication of policy, was consistently that the service would be given as soon as the traffic warranted it.

It is particularly gratifying, therefore, to know now that the company admits that the traffic does warrant it and that the demands are to be met at this time.

That the service is no seasonal innovation is apparent by the fact that it is being commenced at this time of year as tourist season nears its end and the period of usual intensive express fish shipments draws to a close.

Six days a week train service may be expected to be permanent on this line henceforth.

It is another indication of the great stepping up which is taking place generally in industrial and business activity generally in this now rapidly developing part of Canada which is in the world's lime-light.

Security

ONE HEARS a great deal about security at all levels and in many phases of our social life. There is national security, there is old-age security, there is security of employment. All of these are considered as being desirable objective and carry the implication that, once each has been achieved, it will be the solution to many problems.

There is no such thing as a permanent state of security. Moreover, there is a more insidious angle to it. Indeed, if we are lulled into an attitude that believes in the possibility of attaining such a condition, it will be the first step towards undoing the very security that we want.

The old statement that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty" can be easily and truthfully changed to "eternal vigilance is the price of security." But if we believe that security can be had and that it will become a static affair we shall be on the first step to losing it. It will always have to be fought for and lived for. Once we let our guard down the very things that matter will be lost.

Bill Boss Warns West

BILL BOSS is a fine newspaperman, who has represented the Canadian Press in Korea for the past nine months.

Now back home in Canada on leave he has spoken some words of wisdom in his own home town (Trenton, Ontario) which are well worth studying in every home in Canada.

For what Bill tells his own folks is that we—the western democracies—are on the wrong track in Korea.

"Both sides in the Kaesong cease-fire talks seem more concerned with making propaganda points than in reaching agreement," says Mr. Boss, according to a C.P. despatch dated Trenton, August 30. This is a waste of time, says Bill, for we will never be able to beat the Communists at this game.

The United States-led forces have succeeded in denying Korea to the Communists as a base. But, "the only thing the UN had accomplished was the destruction of Korea on a massive scale... The south certainly is anti-Communist for the moment, but it is equally anti-US, a tragedy worked by the conduct and attitude of the western troops."

MR. BOSS does not agree that failure of the cease-fire talks will "ring up the curtain on a Third World War, in the sense of open hostilities on a global scale. The real battle, for men's souls is already on. In a sense we have already lost it to the Communists in Korea—by default—despite our victories on the field."

I disagree with one of Mr. Boss's deductions. I believe that outright failure of the cease-fire talks in Korea would lead to a steady, and profitable, spread of fighting and in less than two years, outright world war.

But guesses about the future are not so important as analysis of the causes of our failures of the past.

The terrible truth is that in the battle for men's minds and souls the western leadership is losing out everywhere in Asia and Africa simply because it, so far, has nothing solid and well reasoned to offer anybody but the white man.

EVERYWHERE I went this year, throughout the Middle East, Pakistan and India I found a diametrically different interpretation of the war in Korea from the one officially held in North America. If the great mass of the ignorant, impoverished people have any ideas on it at all, they are along the line that it is just another "white man's war. The politically educated minority interpret the war in Korea as a struggle between two imperialisms—one led by the US and the other master-minded from the rear by Russia.

THE TWO KEY words in the statement by Mr. Bill Boss seem to me to be "by default."

The western ideology is winning out in the non-white part of the world, so far, only on one count. That is that the machine is a good thing.

The talk of protecting the "free world" actually works.

But western leaders have not yet even begun to apply the titanic and terrible lesson taught by the collapse of the Chiang Kai-Shek regime in China.

The civil war in China had been going on for about thirty years—yet Communism won its final, complete victory in a matter of a few months.

Why? Simply because the great mass of the people of China had no further faith in, or hope from, the Chiang regime—even backed as it was by the immense support of the United States. The great mass of the people did NOT fight for the Communists—they simply quit fighting for the old regime.

The same thing COULD happen throughout the whole of Asia and Africa. It will happen, in my opinion, unless the west abandons its concentration on empty words and gets right down to such things as full bellies.

Insult and injury: An Indiana burglar broke into a newspaper office and left—a poem.

When Jim Hampton, who died years ago, called this city his home, he often felt the urge to shoot. He was long, lean and wiry and the chase had his fascination. He never had to go far or climb high. A few hours among the mountains around Lake Shawatians rewarded him with all he cared to pack out. Jim was a generous soul. Neighbors who had neither good aim nor rifle had him to thank for the gift of many a meaty venison feast.

ONCE BULLETS WHINED

Once, deer and mountain goat roamed handy to Prince Rupert but long range industry is beginning to attend to that. To bring home a buck from almost any of the adjacent islands was a simple and comparatively easy matter. But today, major enterprises, logging and lumbering and expansion and activities in other directions is nothing more than the repeating of history. There was once a time when the townsite of Prince Rupert was a favorite hunting ground.

NO PORKY

Out at Shawatians, when the GTP was building, a young fellow new to the north and who possibly thought he had mastered the ways of the wilds, saw something moving among the branches of a tall tree. Evening was coming on. Assuming the creature in the tree was a porcupine, he fired and down came a dead man. There are times when fright, amazement and sorrow can occur at the same moment.

There will, of course, be plenty of hunting parties out this fall and some may have fair luck. But it's safe to predict it can't compare with early days. Then, for a time at least, quarry was on sale. There were accidents then as there are today and will be in the future. Warnings would go unheeded. Sudden impulse to fire at moving shrubbery or trees was not uncommon.

TODAY'S COSTS

The difference between today and yesterday in rod and gun sport, so far as the territory adjacent to this neck of the woods is concerned, is clearly seen. For one thing there was more game. And verily there is a contrast in costs. How many dollars for weapons and cartridges, footwear and dress? And that's barely the start.

Rail Hero Is Honored

LONDON, Ont.—Donald Gordon, chairman and president of the Canadian National Railways, commenced a trip of inspection of CNR facilities and car shops here Wednesday morning by meeting engineer Frank Joseph Bok of London, who is credited with saving the village to Mount Brydges, 16 miles west of here, from destruction by fire in the early morning hours of July 28 by blowing the "animal on the tracks" whistle signal.

When President Gordon complimented Engineer Bok on his quickness in arousing the sleeping village it was the first time the identity of the CNR engineer was made known although the story of the unidentified engineer's act was carried by the press throughout Canada.

Mr. Gordon read the story with deep interest and made plans to meet Engineer Bok on his London inspection trip.

The president noted that Engineer Bok's alarm of "cow on the tracks," as the warning is commonly called, was quite apt because farmers' ears are peculiarly attuned to such an alarm and he emphasized the frequently overlooked fact that railway rules and regulations are designed for the protection of the public as well as safe operation of trains.

Signal 14R makes it obligatory for engineers to sound a series of short sharp blasts on the whistle when danger by fire or other causes is noticed to farm buildings or animals.

Mr. Murray went to work early at the convention sessions, sitting in with the resolutions committee.

Miss Elizabeth (Susie) Winn, Juncea newspaperwoman and associate vice-president of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon on the Princess Louise from the north to attend the annual convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia.

Swim Pool Stays Open

While the Gyro Club's supervised swimming pool at McClymont Park would have normally closed after Labor Day, now that summer school vacation is over, it will remain open afternoons after school, as long as the present fine weather continues, it is announced by Gyro President E. D. Forward.

The pool continues, as it has been throughout the fine summer, a popular resort for children of all ages, many of whom have received valuable swimming instruction.

twenty years ago In Prince Rupert

September 6, 1931
An active campaign for removal of present new and onerous load line regulations on the port of Prince Rupert will commence immediately. Chamber of Commerce decided last night. The new regulations "will seriously handicap" winter shipping here.

Rotary Club-sponsored Miss Anne Boddie was judged last night as Miss Prince Rupert in the Beautiquest with three other candidates. She sails this afternoon on the Princess Louise to enter the International Beautiquest at Los Angeles. Judges were: Mrs. H. G. Wilcox, Vancouver; Mrs. M. Cooper, Mt. and Mrs. Wood, RKO, New York; B. Gordon, Cinehatti; R. E. Benson, Prince Rupert; G. L. Otterson, San Francisco; Mrs. J. K. Adams, Hazelton, and B. Prigman, Vancouver, chairman.

Skipper Bob Frizzell left this week for Big Falls power plant with the old Laura F. He has two weeks' work to do with the boat for the Power Corporation of Canada.

Some workings of the coal mines at Glace Bay, N.S., extend 12,000 feet down and four miles out under the Atlantic.

After 32 years residence in Prince Rupert, S. C. Thomson, having reached what he considers the mature age of 72 but still looking hale and hearty, is leaving the city Saturday to make his future home at Slough, near Windsor, England. He came to Canada 49 years ago from there and, before coming to Prince Rupert July 27, 1919, resided in Vancouver and Victoria.

A veteran of two wars—the South African campaign in which he served with the Imperial Yeomanry and World War I with the Canadian Army Service Corps—Mr. Thomson, on first coming here, was bookkeeper for the Prince Rupert Table Supply Co. and then with S. E. Parker. In 1922 he started in the wholesale produce business for himself. Now he and his partner, Len Brewerton, have sold out to the B.C. Fruit and Produce Co. Ltd. of Vancouver, and Brewerton to stay on as manager.

Mr. Thomson will fly from here to Montreal and embark September 19 on the Samaria from Quebec.

C.C.C. Rep. Here For Convention

Larry Bekroyd, British Columbia regional representative of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce with headquarters in Vancouver, arrived in the city by car yesterday. He is here to attend the annual convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia.

Mr. Bekroyd, who has been a frequent visitor to Prince Rupert in the past, expressed his pleasure at being back again and satisfaction at the great development of the area since he was last here a couple of years ago.

HOUSEKEEPING ...

COLORFUL FRUIT, VEGETABLES WILL SOON BE OVER FOR YEAR

With the market and vegetable stalls so colorful these days, it seems too bad that soon this wonderful array of color will be over for another year. If the production period could be extended a few months longer, wouldn't it make meal time simpler? When such vegetables as green peppers and acorn squashes are available, Mrs. Housewife should serve them often. Home economists say that squash is a vegetable of many uses. It might be combined with other foods in tasty casserole dishes or it may be served as a vegetable in a variety of ways. Its color and shape will add eye appeal to any dinner plate. When selecting squash, keep in mind that different varieties are useful for different purposes. Some are excellent for baking while others are better steamed. Squash which is heavy in size usually has firm and solid flesh. The rind should be firm and unbroken and no decayed or bruised spots should be evident. Uncooked squash should be kept in a cool, dark place in a temperature of about 50 to 60 degrees. Cooked squash should be kept refrigerated. There are several types of fall squash and three of the most common ones are Acorn Squash, Butternut Squash and Hubbard Squash. Acorn squash, as its name suggests, is shaped they are probably red hot peppers.

Green peppers with which we are all familiar turn red when they ripen, but retain the same mild flavor. Green peppers are rich in vitamin C so when they are plentiful and inexpensive, they make an important contribution to the day's meals. The home economists, Canada Department of Agriculture suggest that peppers are mighty good stuffed and served either hot or cold. Some of the foods which they suggest as stuffings are ground left-over cooked meat, cooked hamburger, sausage meat or a combination of cheese, eggs and corn. Another novel stuffing they suggest is to fill pepper cases with cheese soufflé and bake in a moderate oven until the soufflé is cooked and has popped up over the edge of the cases, that is about 40 minutes in a moderate oven. Thinly sliced green peppers and thinly sliced onions when fried in a small amount of fat are a wonderful accompaniment to hamburgers or sausages.

of a unified front for all Canadian labor, now split into several camps. However, the prospects are there will be no move beyond the current stage of co-operation, which is the furthest labor has gone towards common action in this country. The set-up now is that there is a co-ordinating committee for the two biggest congresses, the 90,000-member Canadian and Catholic Confederation of Labor and the Independent Railway Brotherhoods. The committee drafts action on common objectives, such as the drive for controls.

Another topic that will be before both congresses will be that of furthering the aims of the new International Confederation of Free Trade Unions, formed by labor groups in about 30 countries to replace the Communist-dominated World Federation of Trade Unions. Both the TLC and the CCL are leading members of the ICFTU.

The CCL likely will give more attention to specific wage problems than the other congress. While the TLC lets its member unions take the initiative on wages, the CCL has a national wage co-ordinating committee, which recently decided to sponsor a concerted drive for a new round of wage increases to meet living costs. The Congress may discuss plans for the drive.

Also up before the CCL will be its political hook-up with the CCF party. While the TLC steers clear of politics, the CCL for some years has designated the CCF as the "political arm" of labor and has a political action committee to work with the CCF. Customarily, the CCF link comes before the convention annually for renewal.

mine operator, asked Mr. Murray not to link the two rail extensions.

"The Peace River link is purely a provincial matter. The Alaska link is international and is an entirely different matter. It would open up some of the greatest territory of B.C. and seems vital for defence purposes. B.C. already is committed to extend the PGE north of Prince George.

"I think we should do everything possible to urge connection by rail to Alaska."

Another resolution concerning Alaska calls for a highway from Juneau to Atlin, B.C. This was presented by the Juneau Chamber of Commerce. The convention passed the motion which urges US-Canada joint construction of the road.

Other resolutions passed included elimination of present load line limit restrictions on ports between parallel 52 and 56, which includes Prince Rupert, Kitimat and part of Alaskan panhandle.

GRAIN ELEVATOR

A composite resolution by Smithers, Terrace and Prince Rupert Boards of Trade, demanded the Federal government put Prince Rupert's 1,250,000-bushel grain elevator to use, requesting Terrace and Industry Minister C. D. Howe to visit Prince Rupert in that connection.

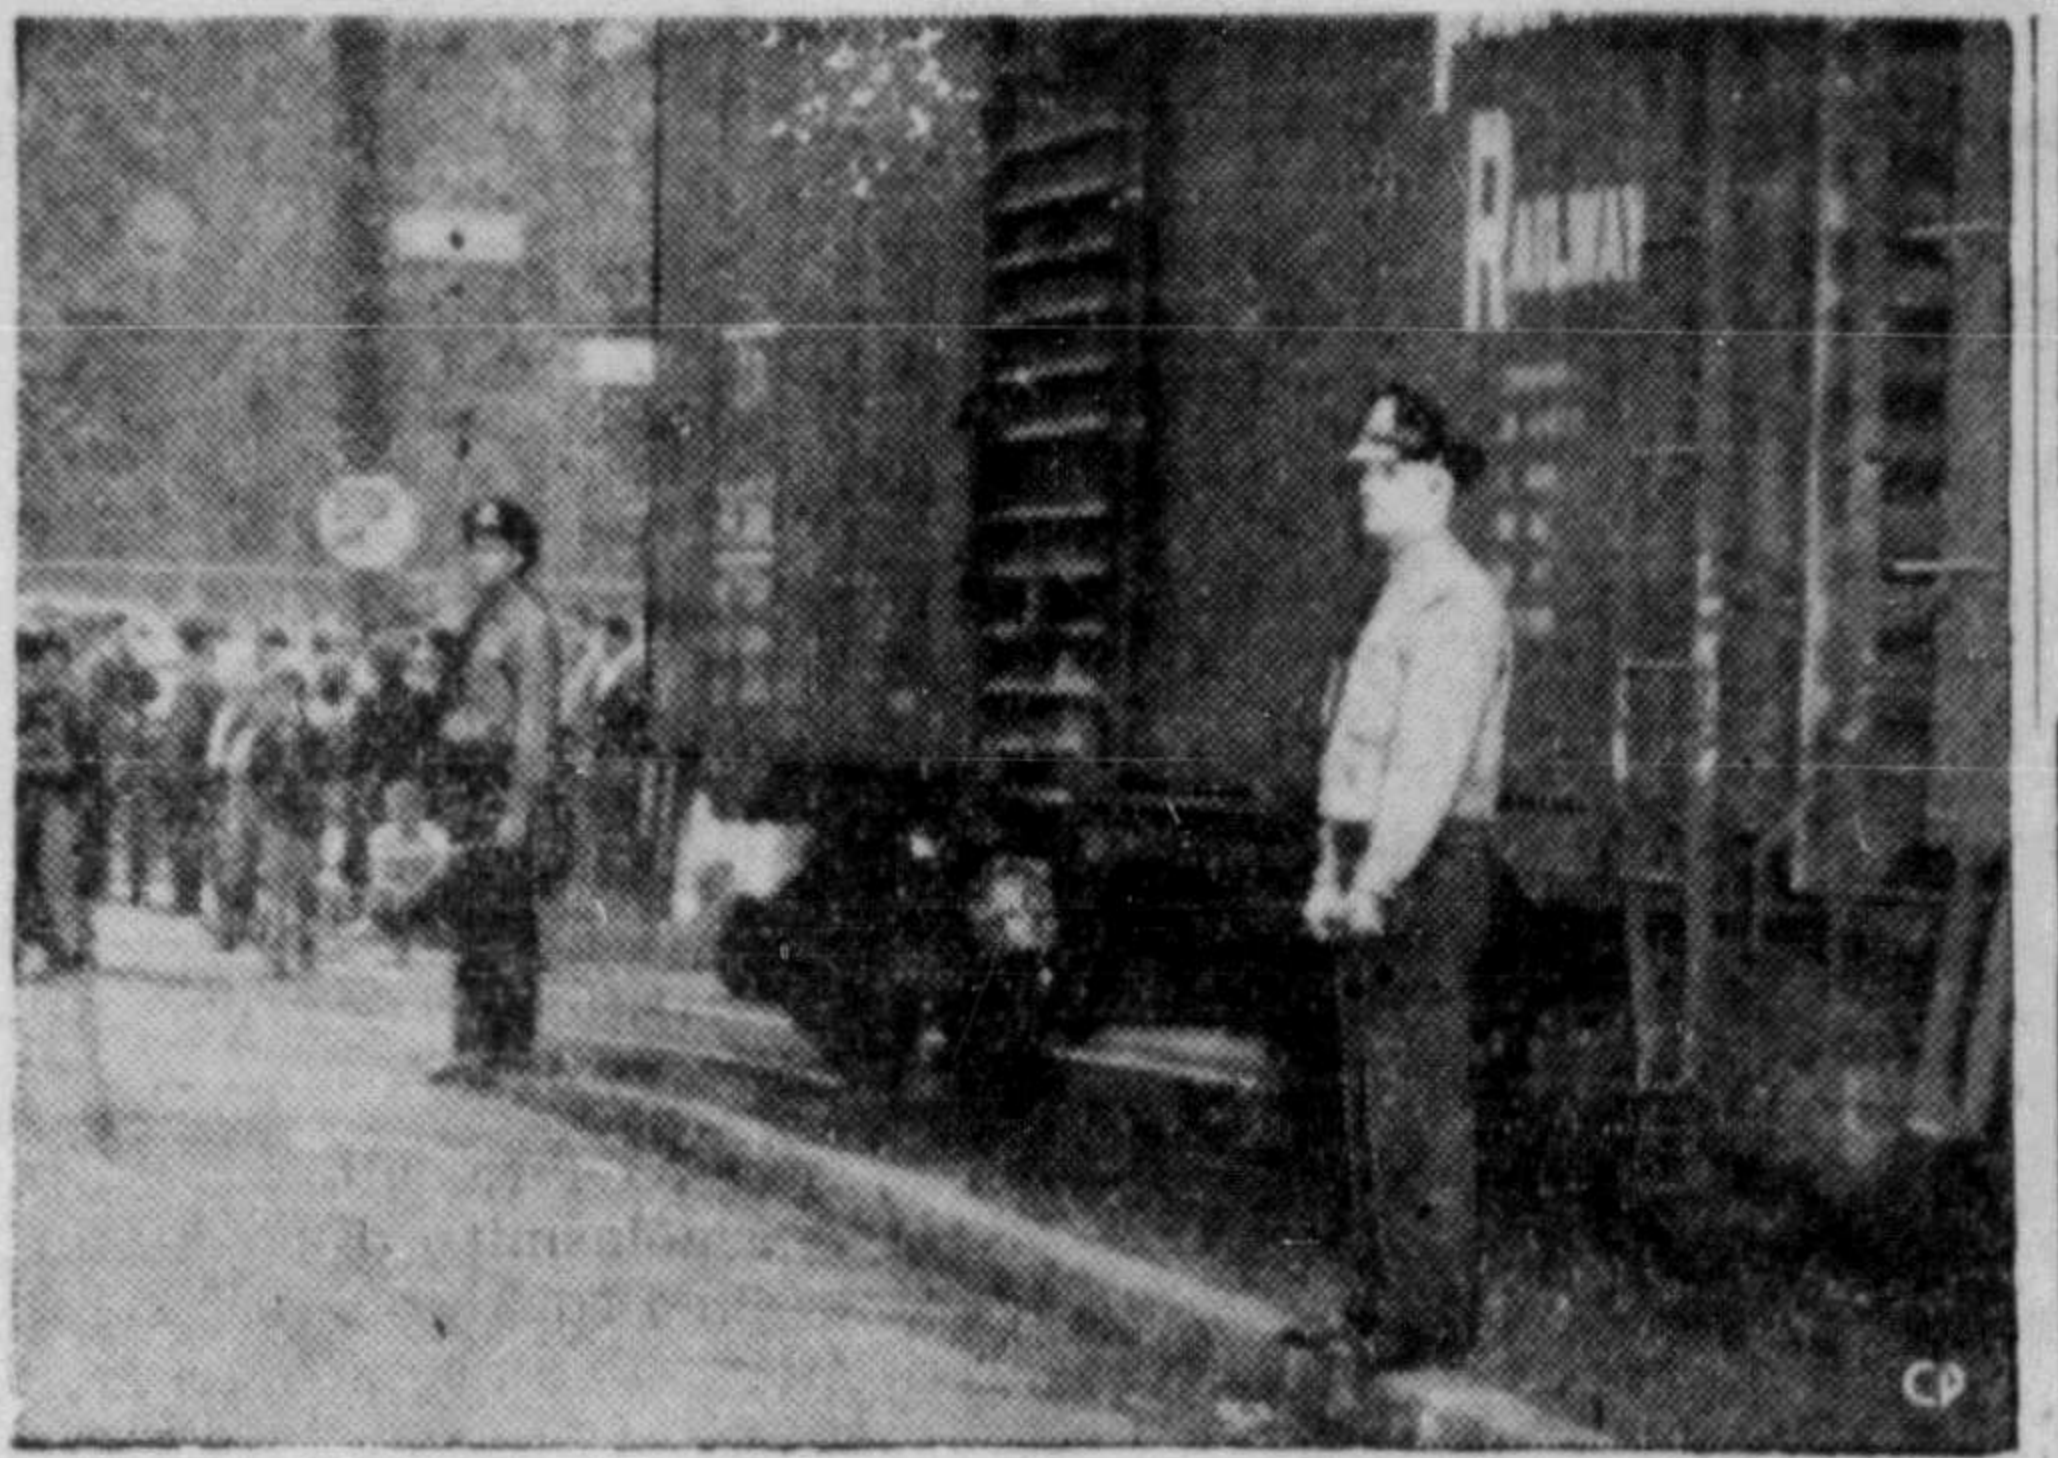

The resolution, which said the elevator had not been in use for 11 years, was amended to read "many" years. The elevator was filled in 1940 and cleared again in 1945, last grain shipment bound for Vladivostok, said T. Norton Young.

HIGHWAY

A second composite resolution by Prince George, Smithers, Terrace and Prince Rupert Boards of Trade, demanded the Federal government put Prince Rupert's 1,250,000-bushel grain elevator to use, requesting Terrace and Industry Minister C. D. Howe to visit Prince Rupert in that connection.

But because of sudden industrial development, earlier action is deemed necessary," said Will Robinson, Terrace, and suggested support be sought from Morrison-Knudsen Company of Canada Ltd., prime contractors of the Alcan project.

The convention also passed a resolution of appreciation to face and Prince Rupert—calling for immediate attention to Highway 16 with hard-surfacing to begin at Prince Rupert and simultaneously at other centres along the route.

"Greatly increased activity" in the central B.C. due to Alcan's project and operations of Columbia Cellulose Co. Ltd. "is producing a pounding on the road which the gravel can't stand."

Hard-surfacing of the 480-mile Prince Rupert - Prince George highway was to be completed by 1953, according to election campaign speeches by Premier B. I. Johnson, said the resolution.

Further business sessions were resumed today after press time. A full report will appear in Friday's edition of The Daily News.

Canadian National Railways for installation of a six-day a week passenger service between Prince Rupert and Jasper, as announced Wednesday in the Daily News.

A resolution requesting this service had been on the agenda, Mr. Perry said. (Daily service begins September 30.)

Convention chairman is W. J. Scott, president of the association.

Salesmen Turns Hod Carrier as Greek Gets School

(By W. Brinton Whittall)

It was a cold December day when I arrived to join the Danish team at Agnadero. A tearing wind was sweeping off the not-so-distant snowy Pindos mountains and across the Thesaly plain.

"On a clear day you can see Mount Olympus," Arne Joergensen told me as we sloshed across the muddy platia or village square.

Opposite the age-old church with its squat square tower, a half-completed building caught my eye. Great piles of stone and sand and timber, lime-pits and wheelbarrows, surrounded the structure. Here was the object of my pilgrimage to Agnadero—this schoolhouse for which school children in Denmark saved their pennies so that they could buy bricks. For ten ore (about a cent and a half in U.S. currency) a Danish child could buy a "brick" so that a child he had never seen could go to school again in an obscure village in Greece. On the initiative of a Danish society for reconstruction in war-ravaged countries in co-operation with the Danish National Commission for the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (Unesco), some $18,000 was raised, which the Danish government matched kroner for kroner, as a gift to Greece.

The first evening I met the Danish work team, all ten of them. Arne, the leader, had been Secretary of the Danish Association for the United Nations. Kund came as a professional—but volunteer—architect. His wife, Dagny, brought her nursing career along and taught many a villager a few simple rules of hygiene.

Stern was a bricklayer by trade; so was Karl. Young Jeppe had completed his apprenticeship as a carpenter. But Henry—our champion hod-carrier—came straight from a desk job as a

Exclusive Stories of Korea

As a newspaper reporter, Jock Carroll is accurate, interesting.

As a foreign correspondent, he has received world-wide reputation.

And as author of a series of articles which will be presented to readers of The Daily News soon, he will be found witty, discerning and he will give the stories "behind the scenes" on the Korean war front so far unpublished.

Watch for the first of this series of seven human-interest-packed articles illustrated by Jock Carroll's own pictures, the first to be published in Canada.

For instance, Carroll writes: "In Korea I was one of several correspondents interviewed by a Korean reporter named Kim. (Nearly everybody in Korea, I learned later, is named Kim.) This particular Mr. Kim, reporting for a Korean weekly newspaper, wanted to know what I knew about Korea before I came there.

"Well," I began, "let's see, now, Korea . . ."

"There was an embarrassing silence.

"Mr. Kim drew a long, hissing breath between his teeth. The hiss seemed to indicate this ignorance was just what he'd expected. . . ."

In his frank stories about Koreans, United Nations forces, the Chinese and the Japanese, Jock Carroll tells what he found out about Korea.

Further reviews will be published in the Daily News until the first Carroll article appears, in a few days.

Use it undiluted in coffee, on fruits and cereals, in cream recipes. Dilute Carnation with an equal amount of water, to give whole milk for drinking or cooking.

50 YEARS OF EXPERIENCE lie behind the production of Carnation Milk. No wonder Carnation is better evaporated milk.

Blackwood on Bridge
By Easley Blackwood

"You experts," complained Mr. Muzzy, "are always telling me that I should have finessed when I didn't, and vice versa. What I want to know is, how can you tell when to finesse—and when to forget about finessing and just lay down your high cards."

"Well, it's an art, Muzzy," said Mr. Champion airily. "You're either born with it or..."
"Oh, come off it," replied Mr. Muzzy angrily. "Probably the one time you're sure of the right play is when you're blitzing and can see all the hands."
"Is that so?" snarled Mr. Champion. "Well, you could see all four hands and you still wouldn't know what to do."
"Just a minute, gentlemen," put in Mr. Masters, who usually assumes the role of peacemaker. "Muzzy asked a fair question. Let's outline for him the situations where the odds favor refusing the finesse."
Today's hand illustrates Mr. Masters' first point. The following series of hands will illustrate other situations where the finesse should be refused.

Mr. Champion opened the queen of hearts and Mr. Muzzy won with the ace. He immediately entered dummy with the king of clubs and led the jack of spades, letting it ride.
Here the fireworks started. Mr. Champion won with the king of spades. He led the jack of hearts and Miss Brash ruffed. She returned the queen of clubs, Mr. Muzzy played the ace and Mr. Champion ruffed. The ace of diamonds provided the setting trick.

Would you have made this hand? You should have. And I'm not saying that because I know Mr. Champion had the king of spades. I'm just saying it because it's true.
Your main job here is not to locate the king of spades. It is to TAKE TEN TRICKS. This you can do by laying down the ace of spades at trick two and following with another spade. Now the opponents will win one spade trick instead of three. When you have reason to fear a cross-ruff by the enemy, get as many of their trumps out as fast as you can.

North Not Hit Badly

Prince Rupert based fishermen won't suffer the same hardships experienced this year by fishermen of the southern B.C. fishing areas.

Although many of the main fishing areas in the south have been closed on account of dry weather, only one area in northern waters remains unfished at the beginning of the chum season.

Fisheries Department said today that actually only the Bella Ling for chum salmon would begin Bella area, where normally fish-September 1, has been closed due to low water in streams which has prevented pink salmon reaching spawning grounds.

Consequently, pinks, ready for spawning, are still "milling around" in waters of Fitzgough Sound and Burke Channel, and closure there for conservation is in effect.

Meanwhile, seine fishing areas at Pearce and Portland Canals are closing tonight until further notice.

Areas open to seine fishing are Wh., Channel, Upper Matheson Channel, Seaforth Channel, River Inlet, Fisher Channel, Smith Inlet and all of Queen Charlotte Islands areas.

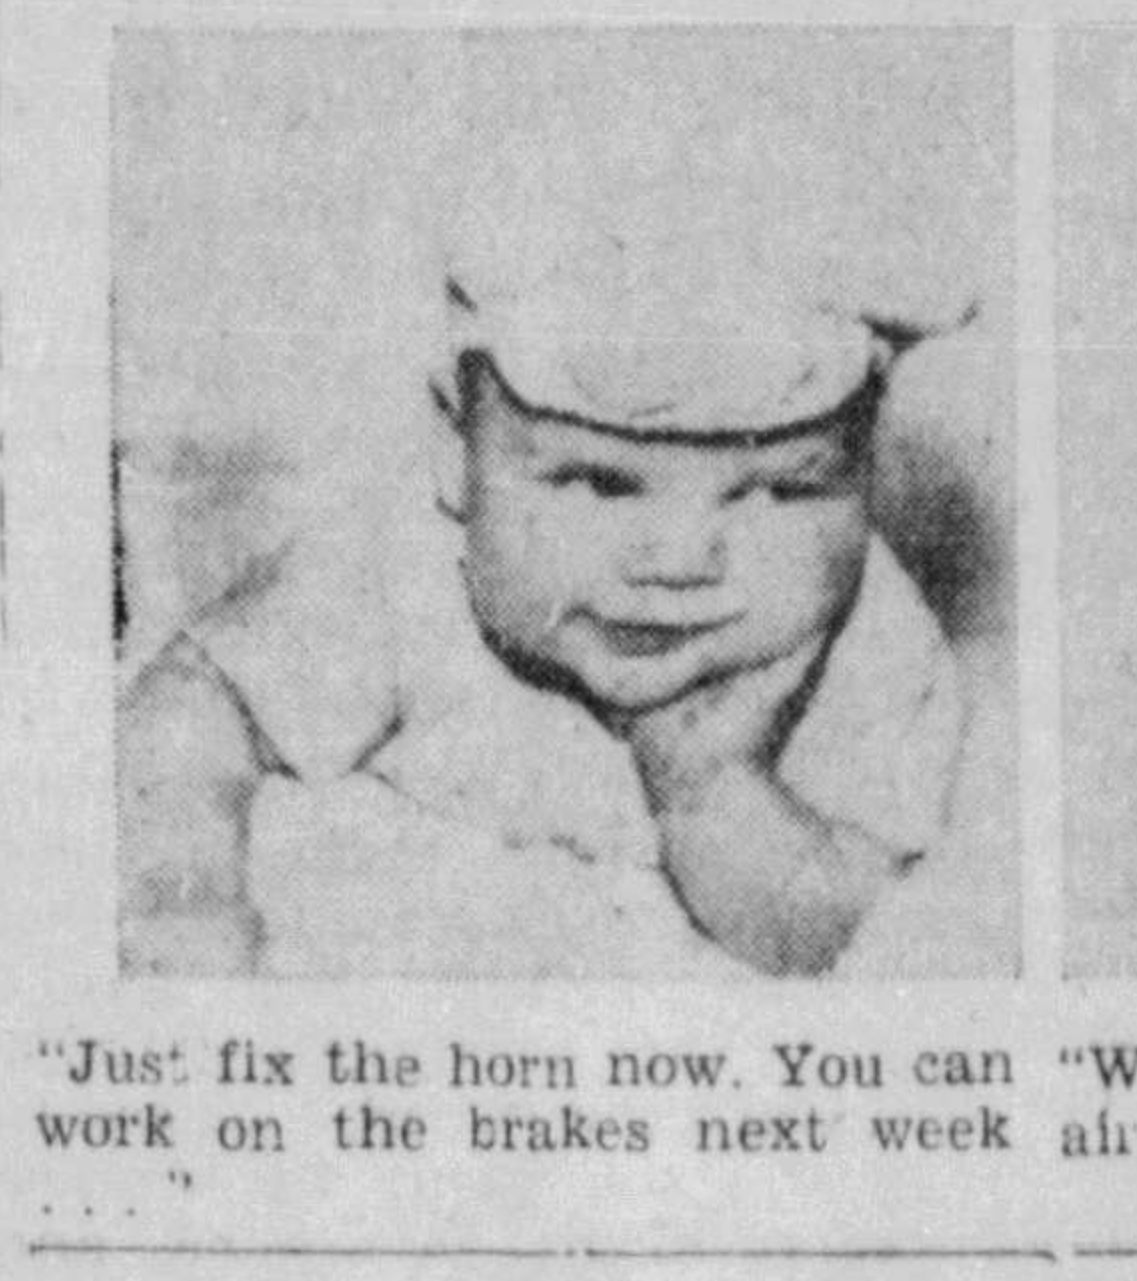

FARE CHEATERS

MONTREAL (CP)—A useful maxim for tramway employees, given here by Ivan Sheehan, director of investigation for the Montreal Transportation Commission, is "be polite to everybody but trust nobody." He said 171 persons were brought to court last year for failing to pay their fares, and all were convicted except two.

BATTER UP

By LARRY STANWOOD

Tonight's baseball game—fourth in the five-game best-of-three series—may tell a big story.

If Gordon & Anderson win the seven-inning affair, it's all over "but the shouting," and the hardware men will likely do a lot of it since they tickled the bottom of the league during the whole season.

They've won two out of three games in the finals so far. If Abel & Odowes take tonight's game, however, the two clubs will stand neck-and-neck and it will be a race to the finish which indicates a build-up for a terrific climax.

Already the finals have attracted the largest crowds so far this season. Last Sunday, stands were packed about as heavy as they were during the Ketchikan-Prince Rupert All-star series. Tonight should pack a larger crowd still, and, if there is a game next Sunday, we visualize a full house.

What are the odds, say, for tonight? It looks very much as though it's going to be a pitchers' game, more than any other, and if C & A can put a man on the mound who can hold his own, they stand a good chance to take the championship tonight.

Manager Stan Cornwell says it's likely he will start Carroll, the "talk-it-up" man on Roosevelt Park who's thrown some good ball lately.

The clothiers' lot isn't any cinch, either, although they've got the pitching strength. Lindsay is to start off, says Manager Alex Bill, who feels pretty safe with Jack's good control.

It's the hitting power—or, rather, lack of it—that's probably worrying Manager Bill a bit. Although Nick Pavlikis is holding down around 400, few of the others in the line-up come close to 300 now, while Cornwell's own 430 leads a fair list of 300-and-over hitters.

Meanwhile, the softball league playoffs are now in the finals but Firemen and Rupert Radio are having a hard time to make their games count. Only one of three games played have tallied. First one to go out was a protested game; second game was taken by the Firemen, and the third, played last night, ended in a sudden draw, 6-6.

Weather still looks good, though, and if it lasts, softball finals should have a good turnout. The games are played centrally, and now, with the best teams in all-out competition, attendance should be much improved.

And, mentioning weather, it would be too bad if baseball stops at the end of the series and the good days keep right on. Another Ketchikan all-star game would seem certain to bring a good crowd and a lot of excitement here.

It is pretty late in the season but not too late yet to remind the Baseball Association that a first aid kit is a "must" requirement at the scene of organized baseball. Several times in the past, both league teams and visitors have suffered minor injuries, and discomfort from them can be much lessened through simple first-aid treatment. Even a scratch can be dangerous if not treated right away.

There should be a first-aid kit available at every game.

If you want to sell it, advertise.

Softball Game Tie

Rupert Radio and Firemen Even in Second of Play-offs
The second game of the Softball finals last night ended in a 6-6 tie between the Rupert Radio and Firemen. Radio had to score three times in the last inning to tie up the ball game.

Until that disastrous seventh inning the game was all Firemen's as Art Olsen was pitching a tight game and also getting good support while starter Jerry Ford was not getting much help at all from a patched up Radio team.

The Radions were minus Don Scherk, Larry Matthews, and Don Hartwig last night and the loss of three to the starting infield hurt them.

The third game of the finals will be played on Friday night at Gyro Park. The Firemen are at present ahead with one win and a tie out of the two games played.

Aiyansh and Legion Draw

Saturday night's football encounter between Aiyansh and Prince Rupert was well contested with a draw a fair result. Aiyansh forwards were the better line but the Legion defence, with the help of two Battery players, Dunbar and Georgeson, was sound. Krause kept a spectacular goal. Dunbar and Eby were resourceful backs with Dunbar the better kicker. Georgeson turned in a heady game and his clever anticipation and placing were a feature of the game. Bowman played one of his very best games, intercepting and breaking up numerous dangerous plays. Cunliffe was very useful though from a foul against him came the Aiyansh goal. Forwards, the Legion line was weak. Smith rarely got away. Verhaar and Neuyen were the better wing. Murray finished poorly while Phillips kicks the ball in the air far too much. He was on the spot to score the goal, however.

Hudson Bay Rail Chief Is Retiring

WINNIPEG. — The man who completed the Hudson Bay Railway to Churchill and brought the railway up to modern operating standard retired this week in the person of Major J. G. MacLachlan, its manager, whose career on the northern line commenced in 1926.

At a reception here, officers of the Canadian National Railways honored him with a presentation from the hands of Major J. L. Charles, chief engineer, following an introduction by J. R. McMillan, vice-president.

It marked the close of 46 years of service for the railway manager. During that time he has worked on construction in one capacity or another on railway lines reaching from Northern Ontario to British Columbia.

Possibly his most difficult assignment was to rehabilitate the Hudson Bay Railway. As engineer in charge of the project, he extended the operation to the new port of Churchill. Until 1926, the proposed terminus was Port Nelson, now abandoned.

In World War II the Hudson Bay Railway carried a vast amount of freight during establishment of the Crimson Air Route to Europe via Churchill and polar islands. Major MacLachlan was the confidant of the military experts of three nations because of his ability to tackle engineering problems in the far north.

COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN—When W. F. Stone assumes responsibility for a thing, there is assurance that it will be well and enthusiastically done. That may be said of arrangements for the annual convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia now in session here. Mr. Stone is general chairman of the convention committee.

AIYANSH AND LEGION

and Robinson defended well and kept the Legion forwards well checked. Davis was very good at centre half and Mercer and C. Morven tackled well and were fast. The forward line was always dangerous with Percy Adams distributing the ball to his wings effectively. All the others did well and it was only the strong play of the Legion defence that kept them from scoring frequently.

The game was marred by the action of some spectators. Apparently some of them do not know what the goal area is for and what the penalty area is for. Consequently they shout for decisions when there is no infraction of the rules. And some do not know that in the throw-in the ball must be thrown over the head, not dropped. Their continuous shouting only upsets the game. The Aiyansh players practically never question the referee's decision, nor do the home players. But the spectators should learn the rules, and under no circumstances is a spectator or official of a club permitted to go on the field of play. In such a case the referee will probably call the game off and he is correct in doing so.

Nisyok was the first goalie called upon, clearing from Smith easily. Aiyansh attacked and Krause had to run out to kick clear. The Aiyansh forwards were combining well and it was a good job that Eby and Dunbar were playing so well. Davis shot high. Then Murray dropped a corner kick that ran along the crossbar, then dropped harmlessly behind. Legion forced three more fruitless corners. Georgeson had a lovely long drive that went just too high. Nisyok was lucky to clear his lines and then Krause stopped a hot drive off Jimmie Adams's foot and hurt his hand in doing so. He later caught a long drive from Davis and cleared. Dunbar was very good and then Smith sent Verhaar off with a long pass but the latter's parting shot was high. Half-time found the score sheet clean.

The Legion attacked on re-summing and, after Nisyok ran out to clear, a return shot was wide with the goal empty. Legion forced three corners. Then Aiyansh came back and staged a fierce attack. Away went the Legion and Verhaar's centre was well cleared. Aiyansh came back fast but shot wide. Krause came out and saved but before he could get back there was a shot for goal with Bowman blocking it. Krause brought off another grand stop and Tait hit the upright. Eli headed away a dangerous shot by Neuyen and then Krause saved at full length. Verhaar centred well and Smith's shot was blocked by Nisyok but, before he could clear, Phillips nipped in to put the Legion a goal up. Play was suspended when some spectators ran onto the field but later was resumed. From a free kick Aiyansh netted the ball but the goal was disallowed. Cunliffe had a long drive and then, from a free shot, Guno beat Krause with a fine drive to even the score. Play was fast and interesting right to the end but there were no more goals and a splendid exhibition of football found the teams tied with a goal each.

The Legion attacked on re-summing and, after Nisyok ran out to clear, a return shot was wide with the goal empty. Legion forced three corners. Then Aiy-
