South Korea Clear of Reds

TOKYO (CP)—General MacArthur said today the Allies "have now substantially cleared South Korea of organized Communist forces."

He said he was ready to meet Red China's high command in the field any time with a view to finding a means of realizing the United Nations' objective in Korea "without further bloodshed."

In Washington a state department press officer said there would be no comment on MacArthur's statements.

The United Nations commander's new appraisal of the Korean war came shortly before he took off from Tokyo on another visit to the battlefield where American paratroopers jumped behind Red lines Friday.

MacArthur said the Communists had been crippled by heavy destruction to their supply lines caused by a round-the-clock aerial and sea bombardment.

He added the Chinese troops "are showing less stamina" than the Allied forces "under rigors of climate, terrain and battle."

It was MacArthur's fourteenth trip to the Korean front. He visited the US Marines at Hongchon only six days ago.

American paratroopers who jumped spectacularly behind Communist positions north of Seoul Friday, met only light opposition today. But the Belgian tank supported spearhead, thrusting northward toward the airdrop zone, was in tough battle—the Belgian's first real scrap of the war. However, they succeeded in joining up with the paratroopers.

General MacArthur also told the Eighth Army to cross the 38th parallel in Korea "if and when its security makes it tactically advisable."

Tories Would Support Grit

LONDON (CP)—Conservatives offered full support today to Lady Vollet Bonham-Carter, leading Liberal, if she runs against the Labor member of Parliament for Colne valley district of Yorkshire in the next general election.

The local Conservative Association made its proposal in a letter to Lady Vollet, daughter of the first Earl of Oxford and president of the Liberal party in 1944. She deferred her decision until next week.

Gelvil Hall, chairman of the Parliamentary Labor Party, won a three-candidate race in the district in 1950 with 24,910 votes. Conservatives polled 15,826 votes and Liberals 9,554, for a total of 25,480 against him.

The Labor party profited in various other districts last year through a similar split in the opposition ballots.

Liberal members of Parliament frequently have joined Conservatives in attacking policies of Prime Minister Attlee's government.

Labor has a working majority of four in the House of Commons.

Atomic Scoop In Argentina

BUENOS AIRES (CP)—President Peron announced today that Argentina has produced atomic energy by a new method unknown to other countries. He said Argentine scientists obtained "controlled release of atomic energy."

O'Dwyer is Under Fire

WASHINGTON (CP)—Senator Charles Tobey (Rep.-N.H.) proposed today that the Senate foreign relations committee inquire whether William O'Dwyer should remain as United States ambassador to Mexico in view of testimony in Senate's crime investigation.

Two congressional committees already have asked federal prosecutors and tax collectors to study sharply the conflicting testimony concerning O'Dwyer for any evidence of perjury or tax evasion. The leader of New York Firemen's Union said he gave the former New York mayor $10,000 in cash. O'Dwyer denied it.

Tobey predicted at a press conference that O'Dwyer's status as ambassador "might be brought up" before the foreign relations committee, which only a few months ago approved his appointment.

AWAITS FATE—Mrs. Arthur Pitrie, charged with murder in the Sault au Cochon time-bomb case, is shown walking to a police van after the court hearing the case went to a private house to hear evidence. The woman has admitted she carried the time-bomb to a plane which crashed minutes later, killing 23 persons aboard. The plot was arranged to kill Rita Guay, wife of J. Albert Guay, who died on the gallows Jan. 12 for the crime. Mrs. Pitrie is a sister of Genereux Ruest, convicted maker of the bomb. (Since this photo has been taken Mrs. Pitrie has been sentenced to death.) (CP PHOTO)

Penticton Is Winner

PENTICTON (CP)—Charlie Raitt, playing inspired ball, led his Penticton Omegas to a 51-45 victory over Vancouver's Arctic Club last night in the first game of a two-game, total-point B.C. Senior "B" basketball semi-final.

The second game will be played tonight at Penticton. (Prince Rupert Jets play the winners here.)

Negotiations With Cellulose

VANCOUVER (CP)—Contract negotiations between International Woodworkers of America and Columbia Cellulose Company of Prince Rupert have run into a jurisdictional snag, union officials said today.

Fred Fieber, secretary of the local, said the union wants the coast contract to apply to all loggers working for the company within a 300-mile radius of Prince Rupert. He said the company wants to split the district into two parts, the coast section receiving coast pay scale, and the loggers near Terrace getting the lower interior rate.

Fieber said negotiations likely will not be completed until jurisdiction on the matter has been ironed out.

Road Passable But Dangerous

The Skeena River Highway between Prince Rupert and Terrace is now passable but it is not officially open. In fact, it is in poor condition and the public works department is warning against its use at this time. To say the least of it, "it is hard on traffic."

Plows, working from either end, cleared the road of snow since Thursday and met between Salvo and Kwinitla. However, the road surface is slippery and full of holes caused by thawing of the ice. Plows will now engage in scraping the ice and widening and, until such time as that is done, it will remain closed to traffic, District Engineer Smith stated at noon today.

"However, we hope to lift the ban soon," Mr. Smith said.

Attending Public Health Sessions

Public health workers of Prince Rupert will attend the annual Public Health Institute which opens at the Empress Hotel in Victoria on Easter Monday. They have been leaving during recent days for the south.

The Institute, sponsored by the Health Branch of the Department of Health and Welfare, serves as a refresher course and also affords the doctors, nurses and sanitary inspectors an excellent opportunity to keep abreast of the latest developments in public health and related fields. Among the topics included on the agenda are civilian defence, the welfare program, a panel on mental hygiene, safe driving, and the tuberculosis program.

The conference will be opened by Dr. G. F. Amyot, Deputy Minister of Health and an address of welcome will be given by the Hon. A. D. Turnbull, Minister of Health and Welfare. Featured speaker will be Dr. Harry S. Mustard, international authority on public health administration from New York.

Attending from here are Dr. Duncan Black, director of the local public health unit, who left by plane today; Miss Freda Hillton, Miss Shirley Main, Miss Margaret Steeves and Miss Helena Boehme, public health nurses, and Armine Boas and Hugh Hart, sanitarians from Prince Rupert and Terrace respectively.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Higgins leave for Vancouver on the Chilcotin Sunday night.

Stanley Simmons and Cecil Carter will leave for Victoria on the Chilcotin tomorrow night.

Seventy percent of the 130,000 square miles of Finland is in forest lands.

Letter is Disturbing

Housing to Again Have Attention at Meetings Tuesday Night

Communication which has been received at the City Hall from Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation in reply to an inquiry as to what progress was being made in regard to providing low rental housing here as well as assisting new home building here under a federal-provincial plan has disturbed the joint committee of city council, Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce and other organizations which have been interested themselves in the matter.

Suggestion in the letter is that the project of a local syndicate to convert the former United States administration building into a 55-suite apartment block may prove sufficient alleviation for the housing crisis in Prince Rupert.

The letter will be dealt with at the regular meeting of the city council next Tuesday and by the joint committee on housing.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis

Unsettled weather will continue over most of the province for the week-end. A storm approaching the coast is expending most of its energy on the north coast. However there will be light rain on the lower mainland by this evening.

There will be a little shower activity behind this disturbance tomorrow but skies will remain cloudy in most regions. It will be mild today and Sunday.

GALE WARNING

North coast region — Gale warning continued. Rain today and Sunday. Continuing mild. Winds southeast (30) except (45) in exposed areas, decreasing to southwest (25) during the afternoon. Winds southeast (25) tomorrow. Lows tonight and highs tomorrow—At Port Hardy 40 and 48. Sandspit and Prince Rupert 40 and 46.

Oxford Sinks—Race Deferred

LONDON (CP)—The historic Oxford-Cambridge boat race ended in the first mile today when Oxford sank in rough water and the umpire called off the contest. Conditions were so bad it was difficult to tell whether Cambridge could have completed the course.

The race is to be re-rowed Monday if the port of London permits.

Polio Fund Raised $410

Kinsmen to Make Improvements to Lakelse Lake Camp

Kinsmen's Club, at its regular dinner meeting Wednesday night, heard from the polio fund campaign committee that, as a result of a letter campaign, the gratifying sum of $410 had been realized. Mention was also made by William Long, chairman of the committee, of the excellent support which had been received from students of Borden Street School who had raised $26 as a result of a collection among themselves.

The Kinsmen will be making extensive improvements this season to the Kiddies' Kamp which has been operated for the past few years at Lakelse Lake near Terrace. Frame sleeping quarters are to be erected and improvements made to mess hall and other buildings under the direction of the committee consisting of George Dobb, chairman, Harry Sheardown, Stan Saville and Armine Boas. At one time the Kinsmen operated this camp itself but now the policy is to make it available to responsible groups which desire to conduct young people's camps. Already it has been allocated for two three-week periods this summer to Baptist Church groups.

The meeting Wednesday night heard from Mickey Fudger of a new money-making scheme, (Keno bingo) which will shortly be put into operation.

President Ed Garner was in the chair.

Milk Drivers Strike Ended

TORONTO (CP)—Toronto milk drivers voted yesterday to end their milk delivery strike that had cut off supplies to some 1,000,000 customers in greater Toronto area.

Deliveries will be resumed tomorrow after being stopped for two days.

Balcony Gives, Girls Killed

KARACHI, Pakistan (CP)—Twelve school girls fell 80 feet to their deaths today when railings of a balcony gave way. They had gathered on the balcony to watch a funeral.

Mrs. Dockrill, Telkwa, Passes

TELKWA — Friends in large numbers from all parts of central British Columbia crowded the little Anglican Church here yesterday afternoon for the funeral of the late Mrs. Bessie Dockrill, wife of Frank Dockrill, prominent district coal mine operator and long prominent in public affairs. Mrs. Dockrill passed away on Tuesday morning in the Bulkley Valley District Hospital after an extended illness.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. C. A. Hinchliffe of Smithers.

Mrs. Dockrill was born seventy years ago at New Westminster. As a young woman she lived for a while at Greenwood in the Boundary country with her mother and brother, Arthur M. Whiteside KC, who later became a prominent Vancouver barrister.

For thirty-five years she had lived in Telkwa, becoming widely known and highly esteemed through the central interior from Prince Rupert to the Alberta border.

She was a prominent worker for the Anglican Women's Auxiliary and Women's Institute. Besides her husband, Mrs. Dockrill is survived by two sons — Arthur of Telkwa and Frank (Bill) of Ladysmith, Vancouver Island. Another son, Joseph, was killed while serving with the Royal Canadian Air Force in World War II.

Died Trying to Save Own Lives

PORT ARTHUR (CP)—Two railway crewmen are dead today, victims of an accident that didn't take place.

Crewmen — Engineer T. Lyng Cosgrove, 39, and Fireman Nelson West, 28—were riding in the engine of a Canadian Pacific Railway train at Ripple Siding, 150 miles from here. They saw a freight train on the same track and, apparently thinking an accident inevitable, applied the brakes on their train and jumped. They struck icy snow banks and slid helplessly into the path of their own train. It rolled to a stop two car-lengths from the freight train.

Transport is Down in Ocean

SHANNON AIRPORT (CP)—Forty planes criss-crossed the cold Atlantic waters today in a hunt for a giant United States Air Force transport with 53 aboard, missing since Thursday night southwest of Ireland.

They were spurred by a report that "quite a few" life rafts had been sighted in the search area. It was reported survivors were already being picked up.

Atomic Plant For Colorado

DENVER, Colorado (CP)—A $45,000,000 atomic plant for major but secret type production will be built northwest of Denver. Construction will start late next month and is to be completed next year. The plant, small in size compared to the giants at Hanford, Tennessee, and at Oak Ridge, Tennessee, will be nestled on barren land against the foothills of the Rockies.

Announcement of the plan caught state and city officials by surprise. They have been boosting the state as a haven from atomic warfare.

Many See New Homes

Despite rain, wind and generally discouraging weather yesterday about 200 people thronged to see two new homes on display in the 600 block, Fourth Avenue East.

Allan Armstrong, agent for the homes, said most people were impressed with the view of the harbor from the living room windows. One feature strongly preferred by most was the fireplace, he said. Another was the full basement and hot-air heating system.

Fourth Avenue East, long a popular residential street, will see more new houses soon. J. T. Harvey, Capt. William Koughan and Duncan McRae are building at present.

The houses continue open for public inspection this afternoon and Sunday.

The Situation Improves

THINGS LOOK better in Korea today than they have in many weeks. United Nations forces have all but driven the Communists out of South Korea, their invasion of which last June started the conflict which has had the effect of putting the whole democratic world on guard against further Red aggression. Now General MacArthur has called upon the Communist military leaders to meet him with a view to working out a settlement which will bring the war to an end by means of which further bloodshed may be averted.

The Korean war might at times have seemed a desperate and hopeless adventure in which we should not have become involved. The reaction may be somewhat different today. It may well be that it has been the incident that has demonstrated the futility of the Communist attempt to dominate the world, particularly since it has aroused the western world to realize the seriousness of the situation and get itself organized to meet it.

Our men have suffered hardships, injury and death in Korea but it may, after all, have been worth it.

An Effort Rebounds

THERE IS a long way to go before the emergency of Prince Rupert's housing lack will be adequately met. Indeed, with the industrial expansion here which has now become accentuated by the opening of the Columbia Cellulose Co. mill and the desperate time the company is having in finding housing accommodation for its permanent employees, there promises to be a continuing serious problem.

As a result of highly commendable local enterprise, the former United States administration building here has been acquired by a local syndicate and is to be converted into a substantial apartment block.

Now it appears that the governmental housing authorities are using that accomplishment as an argument that the housing emergency here is being to large extent met.

This is a very discouraging development—not only since the housing emergency is by no means met as a result of the project but since it would appear the effort had the effect of holding up another move towards relieving the housing shortage by obtaining the assistance of the joint federal-provincial scheme.

If this is what is to happen when local enterprise makes a real effort to meet a situation, it will not tend to encourage further undertakings to help ourselves and the community.

Streamlining Trend

AT LEAST 25,000 women in the United Kingdom have just enrolled in a fat-reducing campaign. Many Canadian women are also "reducing." This fact is only one more sign of a streamlining trend which is doing a lot of good.

The streamlining urge is not limited to the obese. As a nation we are, or will be soon, undergoing "reducing treatment" in most departments of life, not from cheese-paring motives, but partly to cope with the new needs of the defence programme. And the interesting conclusion, from experience, is that this slimming process generally makes for enhanced happiness and efficiency.

Saturday Sermon

Easter

By Rev. Leonard A. Thorpe,
Pastor of the Regular Baptist Church.

"Does Easter Spell JOY to You?"

It seems strange to me that, generally speaking, people associate joy with Christmas but not with Easter. The former is indeed a happy celebration of the day when God's only Son arrived on earth to redeem us but let us not miss the greater joy that Easter can mean to us.

WHY CHRIST CAME?

Before we can hope to find joy in the strange events of the first Easter season, we have to understand the purpose of the Lord's visit to earth. We find this purpose revealed in two verses of Scripture—"For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God—" and "The wages of sin is death." On this subject, God's word is very clear. Because all men have sinned, without Jesus Christ, both physical and spiritual death is staring them in the face. The Son of God came then, to conquer death and ransom men from the consequences of sin.

ARE HELD BY REDS

Chinese Communist authorities in Canton have arrested a number of Canadian nuns, most of them from Quebec, on charges of being responsible for the deaths of 2,000 children in an orphanage operated by the Sisters of the Immaculate Conception in Canton. This photo shows Sister Alphonse du Redempteur, superior of the orphanage and one of those arrested, caring for a new-born Chinese child. Ottawa officials say the charges are propaganda, but attempts to free the group have been unsuccessful.

Many Attend Final Rites

General sorrow was expressed at Thursday afternoon's funeral in tribute to Percy Welter, 21, who died in the March 17 drowning accident at Seal Cove. The congregation was so large that the Grenville Court Chapel could not accommodate all who sought entrance.

Officiating was Canon Basil S. Prockter of St. Andrew's Cathedral who spoke feelingly.

"Oh God Our Help," and "My God, My Father, While I Stray," were the hymns sung to the organ accompaniment of Mrs. J. C. Gilker.

George Graham, Frank Graham, J. Hemmons, G. Hemmons, G. Callow and D. Callow were the pallbearers.

Next-of-kin at the funeral were the parents of the deceased, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Welter, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham.

Interment followed in Fairview Cemetery.

Floral tributes were sent by Crew of the Zenardi, Mrs. T. L. Davies and Ronald, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. J. Collussi, Vic Menzies and staff, Claire and Bert, Lucille and Duncan McRae, Tommy and Alice McMeekin, John Moritz and family, Lief Sandhals, Mr. and Mrs. J. ## J.W. Moorehouse Is Laid at Rest

The funeral of John William Moorehouse, pioneer citizen, was held at Grenville Court Chapel Friday afternoon. Many old friends attended.

Surviving the deceased are his wife; three sons, Tom, Norman and William of this city; two daughters, Mrs. Ethel Graham, Vancouver, and Mrs. Ida Hogan, Prince Rupert; and eight grandchildren.

Canon Basil S. Prockter officiated. Hymns were "Abide With Me," and "The Day Thou Gavest," with organ accompaniment by Mrs. J. C. Gilker.

Pallbearers were Charles Anderson, Alec Gomez, W. J. Richards, Horace Tattersall, T. Dahl and George Currie.

Burial followed in Fairview Cemetery, with arrangements by the B.C. Undertakers.

"VILLAGE SMITHY." John Walker, today, like any other working day, spends his time over a hot forge, even though it's his 67th birthday. But he's used to it, and should be, he says, after swinging a blacksmith's hammer for 54 years.

Johnny Walker, 67 Today, Still Wields Trusty Hammer as Usual

Today Prince Rupert's blacksmith, J. M. "Johnny" Walker, is 67, and he's spending the day like he's done for the past 32 years here—with glowing hot steel, a hammer and anvil.

Just after the First World War Johnny came to the city and, as the only blacksmith, has fashioned out of iron and steel many sundry—and some unique—implements of industry and for other practical uses.

With a 1200-pound, automatic-striking hammer, which he made from scrap iron and steel, he has added a touch of the modern to his otherwise regular old-fashioned "smithy." He has pounded out four-inch blocks of iron into half-inch plates, when other material wasn't available. Every conceivable kind of tool or "gadget" he's been asked to make.

"Oh, Johnny can do it," is a by-word among fishermen and tradesmen alike.

"Once a doctor called me in the middle of the night," the slightly stooped, but still powerful blacksmith recalled. "He asked me to rush to the hospital to take measurements of a patient. I had to make a brace which would keep the whole body from moving."

"It fitted like a glove," he added, illustrating with a piece of chalk just how he'd made it. And that's the way the slow-talking, bushy-eyebrowed smithy works. He draws free-hand—with lines as "straight as a rule"—the design of his project, takes measurements and goes to work on it. All about his shop you can see white chalk marks of his artistry.

Johnny thinks everything

over before he speaks, and then he talks slow and with precision. There's not many grey hairs on his well-thatched head and his short frame—about five-foot-six—shows no signs of weakening.

"Course I'm not as strong as I used to be, but it takes quite a bit of power to be a blacksmith," he claimed.

Born in Northop, Flintshire, in Wales, he began his trade at the age of 13, as apprentice in his grandfather's shop. He was given a hammer the first day and "it was so heavy I couldn't handle it at first." But soon he learned how.

At that time, and for many years later, the big job of a blacksmith was making horse-shoes. In 1903, at Bristol, Walker won a diploma and a guinea as prize for the best horseshoe made in all Wales and London. He still has the diploma, and another, which he won for the best horse-shoeing job in the Canadian Army in France, when a member of the Fifth Mounted Rifles, in 1916.

Walker first came to Canada in 1910, and operated a shop in the Kootenays. When war broke out he left for England, and joined the Canadian Army there. An ardent sports fisherman, he's fly-fished-nearly every accessible stream and lake in northern district, he says. A few years ago, he had an original idea. Most of the lakes which he discovered in his travels, abounding in trout, were too difficult to fish without a boat. But at the same time, a boat was an awkward thing to carry, even by several strong men, so he built the "half-boat"—two halves running lengthways—with each half weighing less than 70 pounds, which can

Jets Taking On Kitkatla

Prince Rupert Jets are determined to get some competition preceding their British Columbia play-off next week. With efforts to have the Prince George team here this week-end having failed because of road conditions, arrangements were hurriedly made for an exhibition contest with the winners of the Native Tournament — Kitkatla. The game will be held tonight and if last year's experience with the winner of the native contest can be taken as a guide, the fans should be in for some good basketball.

Last year's winners, Kitimat, gave Rupert Jets plenty of opposition in the first game of a two-game series when they lost by a scant margin. The Jets are playing for a win tonight as they realize that they would have little chance in the B.C. Play-offs next week if they were not able to take this contest with Kitkatla.

In the preliminary game Annunciation School will meet Booth III in the first game of the juvenile finals. It is not often that the fans have an opportunity to see these youngsters, as their games are usually held in the afternoon. It is worth arriving early to see the brand

"There's a lot to learn about steel," the elder Walker said. Tempering to different degrees of hardness, making spring steel or just forging iron, all depended on one's knowledge of the metal's nature and structure. Recognizing heat of the metal by its color plays an important part in tempering steel.

Most high-grade steel is still hand-tempered today, said the blacksmith, extracting from the white hot forge a glowing piece of metal, carefully surveyed by his expert eye before dipping it in the oil.

OF THE CORPS OF ROYAL CANADIAN ENGINEERS

The Sapper is one of the most highly skilled fighting men in the Canadian Army. His intensive training, plus his mastery of small arms equip him for his traditional fighting role: leading the assault against enemy defences.

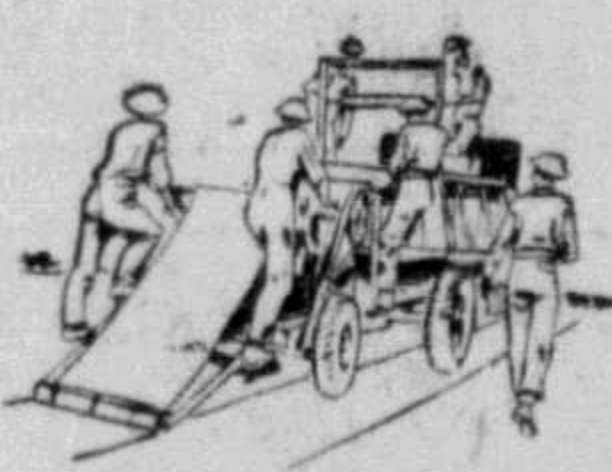

Sappers are skilled military engineers who build roads, airfields, bridges; they are expert in demolition, mining, bomb disposal. They build and maintain Army accommodations; operate and repair all kinds of vehicles and equipment.

Keen, young men—qualified tradesmen and untrained men, too—are needed now in the Royal Canadian Engineers. You can take your place with the Royal Canadian Engineers—start training now to be a Sapper—by reporting for active duty with the Canadian Army.

Rupert is Friendly

N.Z. High Commissioner and His Party Are Impressed

Prince Rupert can lay official claim to being one of the friendliest cities in the world. When T. C. A. Hislop, New Zealand's
high commissioner to Canada, left Thursday night he had this to say about his two-day visit here:

"I think you have a beautiful setting here, and I think your opportunities are great. But what we will remember always is your friendliness which we found here more than anywhere."

Mrs. Hislop concurred.
"Your prices are a bit high,
you know," she thought, "but I have never felt so at home as at the IODE tea this afternoon." She said usually she was nervous
when asked to speak to a group of strangers.

"But these ladies weren't strangers at all. I spoke for an hour and it was like having a friendly chat."

Daughter Susan, 14, got her biggest thrill on the harbor tour,
on PML 15, part of the civic entertainment for the visitors. She took the helm, steering the boat
through Metlakatla Passage.

"Oh, these mountains are so high," she exclaimed.

Commissioner Hislop, his secretary, Bryan Lendrum, and Susan toured the harbor for more than an hour with Skipper
Reg Good, on the police launch.
Civic authorities accompanying the visitors were Mayor G. W.
Rudderham and Ald. Doug. Frizzell. Others were Staff Sergeant Lan Poterton, F. E. Anfield and Const. George Redhead.

The visitors were caught by the name, Metlakatla, and ashore kept repeating it over and over so they would remember it.

A civic dinner was given the party at Canadian Legion Club 27 before they embarked on the steamer Prince Rupert for Vancouver, where they arrived today.

WATERFRONT -- WHIFFS

A detailed census of the fisheries will be one of the undertakings of H. F. Glassey, census commissioner for Skeena, this year and he is hoping to have the full co-operation of the industry. The first stage will be conducted in conjunction with the ten-year population census in June. The second will be carried out about October, when fishing operations are at a minimum.

Previously, fishermen have been included, like everyone else in the population census, but their operations have not been specially surveyed as have those of farmers and others engaged in agriculture.

The main purpose of the census of the fisheries is to obtain information about the fishermen and their community. This information will provide an adequate guide in assessing factors affecting the development of the industry and the life of the fishermen. It will be of particular interest to the federal Department of Fisheries, specially in relation to its work with the Fisheries Prices Support Board.

The first part of the census in June will request information from fishermen concerning the number of days spent in fishing in the previous 12 months; whether fishing on their own account, as a partner or on shares or for wages, and within which of four income-size groups their income from fishing falls.

Fishermen are asked to have the necessary information available before the arrival of the census takers. If they expect to be away from their homes when the census takers arrive the fishermen are requested to leave the information with their wives or other responsible persons in the home.

No exact figure is being sought for either the number of days fishing or the amount of earnings from the fisheries. The "number of days fishing" will be classified into four general groups;
less than 30 days; 30 days to 59
days; 60 to 89 days; and 90 days or over. Similarly, for "income from fishing," the fisherman will only have to answer whether he made less than $100; from $100 to $999; from $1,000 to $1,999; or $2,000 or more.

In the second part of the census, a questionnaire will be distributed to fishermen, which will ask for details of vessels and equipment used, kinds of fish
taken, expenses of operation,
and other items that form part of the overall economic picture of the fisheries in relation to the fisherman.

Union steamer Chilcotin, Capt.
William McCombe, arrived in port at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Vancouver and way-points and sailed at 9 p.m. for south Queen Charlotte Island points whence she will return here tomorrow to sail south at 8 p.m. The Chilcotin brought in a fair-sized list of passengers and had a cargo of 135 tons of freight for this port.

The naval war film "In Which We Serve," starring Noel Coward, will be shown at the Naval Drill Hall Easter Monday afternoon. It tells the story of a British des-trover, and its crew and their war experiences.

Returning to Seattle from an Alaskan training cruise, the United States Army transport
F.S.210, Capt. Lawrence Moxx, was due here Good Friday morning but failed to arrive and is believed to have by-passed Prince Rupert. With crew of 60, the American Army transport, manned with reserve army personnel, including 30 Washington cadets,
the vessel has not been heard from by HMCS Chatham, which under staff officer Lt. Cmd. J. W.
Golby, prepared Good Friday entertainment. Inquiries up to this morning failed to elicit information as to whether the vessel might now be coming.

Colorful, Exciting

Excitement pervades the spectacular picture "Tripoli," which opened yesterday at the Capitol Theatre and concludes this weekend.

Filmed in technicolor, the picture records a blazing chapter of the early history of the United States Marines—the story of a handsome young lieutenant who organized and led an army across 600 miles of danger-fraught desert in 1805 to attack a stronghold of Barbary pirates.

John Payne has the role of the legendary Marine hero, Maureen O'Hara, with her provocative charms, has the feminine romantic lead while Howard de Silva has the third starring part as a Greek soldier of fortune.

Miss Anna Beketov, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Beketov, arrived in the city yesterday by plane from Vancouver. Miss Beketov, who is attending the Victoria Provincial Normal School, will spend the Easter holidays at her home in Prince Rupert.

Dr. Duncan Black left on today's plane for Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Morgan and family sailed Thursday night on the Prince Rupert for Vancouver.
