Lloyd George Issues Message To Nation Regarding Strike

Not Fighting Trades Unionism but to Prevent Extremists of any Industrial Body Attacking Life of Community and Bringing Untold Misery to Innocent People; No Settlement in Sight.

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
London, October 3.—Although it is premature to abandon hope of a settlement of the railway strike, the situation is disappointing. There was expectation of some arrangement resulting from the numerous conferences yesterday and today between labor representatives and the Government, but the position is again grave.
According to reports issued by the National Union of Railwaymen, the attempt to reopen negotiations collapsed owing to the refusal of the Government to go beyond the previous offer. The report stated that other unions than that of the railwaymen were continuing their efforts at mediation. While the strike continued, the men said, they would do nothing to hinder mediation.
Every motion picture screen is exhibiting a message from Prime Minister Lloyd George which states that the Government is not fighting trades unions, which are a recognized feature of industrial life. The Government is fighting to prevent extremists of any industrial body from gaining their ends by attacking the life of the community and so bring untold misery upon thousands of innocent people.
Sir Eric Geddes met a very hostile reception when he proceeded from the office of the Ministry of Transport to the conference in Downing Street. Great crowds of strikers hissed him the whole length of Whitehall.
The Government has closed Regent Park to the public and is using it as a clearing centre for market produce, frozen meat and fish, in the same way that Hyde Park is being used for the distribution of milk.
London, October 3.—(Noon). The Union of Vehicle Workers, which operates the buses and other vehicle traffic of London, is rallying today on the question of striking in sympathy with the railway men.

Mr. Manson in the course of his address presented each of the returning members with an honorary certificate of membership to the society in the form of a beautifully engraved scroll.
To honor two of the members who have returned from the Old Country with brides, presentations of silverware, consisting of a dessert set, baking dish and half a dozen silver spoons were made to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Little and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Kelly. Mr. Little and Mr. Kelly made suitable replies to the presentations, expressing their appreciation of the tokens of esteem.
A full program was given followed by a dance. Songs were rendered by W. Murray, James Kelly, Mrs. W. Millar, Mrs. W. R. Martin, Mrs. W. A. Paterson, J. B. Steen, W. Ross, J. N. Sinclair, and R. Dowther. The audience was favored with a duet by Harry Harvey and Miss Stephens, and W. Robb gave a recitation.
The jolly and large crowd then took the floor and dancing was indulged in to the strains of excellent music provided by the following members of the society: Mr. and Mrs. James Lee, Mrs. D. S. Cameron and Robert Arthur.

CHICAGO WINS THIRD GAME IN WORLD SERIES

Comes Back at Cincinnati With Score of 3 to 0.

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
Chicago, October 3.—Chicago turned the tables on Cincinnati in the third game of the world series this afternoon by shutting the visitors out by a score of 3 to 0. Chicago made two runs in the second innings and one in the fourth. The batteries were Fisher and Rariden for Cincinnati and Faber and Schalk for Chicago.
Chicago, Oct. 3.—Hard digging started today for the Reds. From the soft home grounds where they have been making the dirt fly, the steam shovel of Pat Moran rooted into the gravel at Comisky Park.
Early this morning the Moran delegation invaded the stronghold of the White Sox for the three games that they hoped would end the series and bring the first world's championship banner to Ohio. Just a little behind them the White Sox team staged their homecoming, but it was far different from the triumphant entry planned by the fans of the Windy City. Today's battling order was:
Chicago—J. Collin, r.f., E. Collins, 2nd, Weaver 3rd, Jackson 4.f., Felsch c.f., Gandil 1st, Risberg s.s., Schald c., Cicotte c., Faber p.
Cincinnati—Rath 2nd, Daubert 1st, Groh 3rd, Roush c.f., Duncan 1.f., Kopf s.s., Neale r.f., Rariden c., Fisher and Eller p.

GOVERNMENT REFUSES INVESTIGATION INTO MCKENZIE CHARGES

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
Ottawa, October 3.—The House of Commons, on a division, voted 79 to 56, giving a majority of 23 in rejecting D. D. McKenzie's motion demanding the appointment of a parliamentary committee to inquire into the manner of taking the soldiers' vote at the last general election, as well as into sending a code telegram under the signature of Hon. Arthur Meighen to Sir Robert Borden to the apportioning of one thousand soldier votes in Manitoba.
The division was preceded by much excitement when Mr. McKenzie produced the original telegram and Mr. Meighen, after looking it over, declared it was not his handwriting and that he had not written or seen it.
The minister declared the telegram as produced to be a forgery.
After the division, Hon. C. I. Doherty claimed the telegram produced by Mr. McKenzie had become the property of the House. He maintained that the document, so far as it could be examined, was not what McKenzie claimed it to be insofar as the signature of Mr. Meighen or the address of Sir Robert Borden was concerned.
McKenzie replied that the document was a photograph of the original and that he had not tabled it.
After some discussion the speaker upheld Mr. McKenzie's contention.

Gothard and McKenzie, delegates from the Grand Army of Canada at Vancouver had left to join J. H. Flynn in the fight for a $2,000 gratuity and would not come before the committee. They left a message for the committee which was delivered after the chairman had called these witnesses several times. The message stated that they did not intend to go through the same grilling that Flynn had been subjected to and would join him in his course of public meetings.

NEARLY $100,000 TAKEN AT BALL GAME YESTERDAY

Chicago Hit Viciously, But Red Fielders Were There to Receive Them.

Cincinnati, Oct. 3.—It is announced that the attendance at the match yesterday numbered 29,690 and the total receipts were $97,136. The players' pool was $52,453.44 and the share of the baseball commission amounted to $9,743.60, the clubs getting $34,988.96.
Wednesday's game was safely stowed away in the fourth and when that inning arrived yesterday the fans emitted a roar in demand for an encore. The Cincinnati batsmen responded, but the person who really took the demand to himself was Claude Williams, the Sox left hander who was on the mound. He passed three batters and three scored.
An aviator flew close to the grandstand at this stage of the proceedings, but if he was looking for Williams he flew altogether too low. From where Williams floated, the 34-storey insurance building looked like a speck on the landscape. In the sixth he passed another runner and the latter scored, but the tally was not needed. The first three were enough. It was noted that all four of the Red runners were counted by players who passed to first. The Chicago's two runs in the seventh were the result of two hits and an error.
The visitors garnered ten hits scattered throughout the game. They hit the ball viciously at other times but the Red fielders were there to receive them.

With the present indications of rain there will probably be snow in the hills before long and the country will look quite wintry again. This, however, will please local hunters as they will not have to ascend so high into the hills on their quests for the wary deer. The reported presence of wolves will probably make the deer even more elusive.

SUNDAY GAMES IN ENGLAND

Writer in London Daily Mirror Says Very Soon They will be Everywhere Throughout the Country.

It is not at all a rash prophecy to say that very soon Sunday afternoon will be the great time for playing outdoor games in this country, says William Pollack in the London Daily Mirror.

Without fuss or advertisement the movement to this end has gone on, gathering strength and fresh adherents everywhere.

People who a few years ago refrained from playing lawn tennis on Sunday afternoons now go forth in hannels and with racquets.

A Bishop has publicly approved of Sunday games in a recent newspaper article; and the other day the Brentham (Ealing) Garden Suburb decided to permit organized play on its recreation ground on the Sabbath.

This last decision was come to as the result of a referendum taken on the subject, an example that other communities faced with the question of Sunday games should follow.

Local Vote In many places the matter has got beyond academic discussion and shall be settled by vote.

Local susceptibilities must not be permitted to override local desires. So-called old-school Sabatarians must not take themselves the complete right to rule the roost; they must be prepared to bow to the spirit of the times if needs be.

The very same remarks which Captain P. F. Warner made at the meeting just referred to are worth quoting here.

During the war games after church hours on Sunday were the rule throughout the Army, he said. The men who had played these games would expect to continue them in civil life.

At present Sunday in this country is rather a dull day. He was, he added, "dead against games during church hours, but after church hours he failed to see that healthy recreation was different from reading or smoking.

MAINTAINING THAT WHICH NOW EXISTS

Canada Must Strive to Live up to Reputation Obtained for Her in France.

A fine reputation is a wonderful thing to have, but it must be lived up to if it is to continue. It is easily lost, and so eternal vigilance must be practised by the owner.

Canada has obtained a splendid reputation during the war. Her army was unsurpassed. Her men were strong and steadfast. Her hand ever outstretched to help the needy and helpless. This reputation must be maintained.

Canada is in need of more money today to discharge her obligations. The men who fought for her on the fields of battle are returning, many of them scarred with the mark of Mars. These men must be put back in their place in the world. All this takes money.

Victory Loan 1919, appeals to the people of Canada to lend their money to uphold the high reputation that Canada's sons have gained for her through five years of awful bloodshed.
