Card of Thanks

It is my sincere wish that the 1930 Mayor and Aldermen may have a most successful year.

I also wish to thank my supporters and those who assisted me in the campaign. Although defeated, I shall have the interests of the city at heart just as much as had I been elected.

A. J. PRUDHOMME.

MAYOR-ELECT'S THANKS

To the Citizens of Prince Rupert:-

May I, through the medium of this paper, express to you my deep appreciation of the confidence imposed in me at the polls yesterday. You have placed in me a responsibility of which I am not unmindful. The majority for me exceeded my most hopeful expectations.

That the year, municipally, will be one of success, I am confident, because of the splendid calibre of the aldermen that you have chosen to assist me. It is my hope that, now the campaign is over, there will be unity and enthusiasm in carrying out all work for the betterment and advancement of Prince Rupert.

THE ELECTIONS

The municipal election yesterday was an interesting one year was employed in Vancouone, the majority for C. H. Orme being larger than even ver. At the age of 23 he came the most optimistic of his supporters anticipated. Labor, north to Prince Rupert on August Smithers Anglican too, received very strong support, not so much because 4, 1908, and established in a tent they were labor men as because they were well known for on old Centre Street his drug store their ability, energy and fairmindedness.

The new mayor comes to his work under very favor- the city, due no doubt, to the well able auspices and we believe he should do excellent work known geniality and wide popufor the city. He has all the qualities which should make larity of its proprietor. for an efficient executive.

The aldermen are all well known in the city and chosen doubtless because of that fact over men who were not so well known, except in one or two cases.

The people of the city are to be congratulated on the fact that they have a representative group of men handling their affairs this year at a time when careful handling of civic finances is necessary.

Success is simply the attainment of another rung on the ladder of life. There are other rungs above.

THE PAST REGIME

The people through their votes have decided that the past council which was so severely criticized was quite sat- gift of the Conservatives not only isfactory to them. Not only the new mayor, but the two of Prince Rupert but of Northern men who received the highest number of votes in each section of the aldermanic contest were members of the last council and one of them a member of the Board of Works.

In our MAYOR IS opinion, Mayor McMordie has never received anything like the amount of credit that is coming to him for that work.

Colonel McMordie served for two years. At the end Expressed Keen Gratification at of that time he was criticized, as all mayors have been at such a time. He was publicly arraigned from the platform, but the electors did not take the arraignment seriously and returned a council that will carry on his work, at the same time voting down his critics. What more can be said. He retires from office with the confidence of the people.

NOW FOR THE FUTURE

Now as to the future it is difficult to make prophecies but we believe the present year will be a prosperous one. There should not be anything in the nature of a boom, but derham and Ald. Hon. William Chisholm, Leader of Opposition, Draws Lesson From West in Appeal to Youthful Nova Scotians

HALIFAX, Jan. 17:-An appeal for participation of youth in public affairs was made in a New Year's message by Hon. He attributed the political and economic success of Western Canada to the predominance of young men in public life, and stressed that politics was "not a sordid nor undignified occupation, but is among the most honorable of all avocations."

The message was as follows: "There is one wish I have for Nova Scotia as the New Year approaches. It has to do with public affairs, or, as we sometimes say, public life. I hope that this year will see the youth of Nova Scotia becoming more and more interested in public affairs and political questions. Too long has the burden of politics been left to the older men of this province. The time has arrived when we need in Nova Scotia to a far greater extent than has been the case in the past, a more youthful vision. We want and need the young brains of Nova Scotia to tackle the problems facing our public life. I look at Western Canada and I find that the vital thing is their success politically and economically has been the predominance of young men in the public life of those provinces. What I desire most of all is to see our young near and women give a more latest intensive study to provincial and national problems. TERRACE, Jan. 17.—The following was the report of the secretary, H. Halliwell, at the annual meeting this week of the Terrace Board of Trade:

and Tulsequah mining sections that Mr. Monroe dealt. There was every evidence, he said, that two large mines would be developed there, and he strongly urged Prince Rupert to get after the business. He thought the present freight rates, which were exactly the same from Prince Rupert as from Vancouver, worked a hardship on this port. This might well be taken up through the Board of Trade. Last year Van couver profited to the extent of about $75,000 by the business and it would be much greater this year. Already a post office was being established and the Mounted Police had a centre there. In the Prince Rupert office 300 free miners' licenses had been issued for the district.

The Tulsequah River was on the eastern contact belt and there might well be a number of mines developed from the many claims that now blanketed the country.
