SIX MINERS LOSE LIVES AT ANYOX

TO BUILD ALASKA HIGHWAY WITHOUT GOVERNMENT AID

Bonanza Mine Workers Buried By Big Landslide Which Totally Destroyed Bunkhouse Monday

C. P. Johnson, Father of Girls Attending School Here, Reported to Be One of Victims of Tragedy At First of Week

Five men were killed instantly and one man died from injuries sustained when a rock and dirt slide struck a bunkhouse at the Bonanza mine at Anyox last Monday and completely demolished it. Belated word of the tragedy was received by the provincial police here late yesterday afternoon from Constable Sam Service of Anyox. Details of the accident are meagre. T. J. Shenton, inspector of mines, at present in Stewart, will investigate the circumstances. The bunkhouse was owned by the Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting & Power Co. which operates the Bonanza mine. The dead men were workers in that mine.

GYRO CLUB APPROVES

Change of Plan in Connection With Gymnasium Project Meets With Favor of Club

The Gyro Club, at its business luncheon yesterday, endorsed the decision of the central gymnasium committee to proceed independently with the local gymnasium project instead of becoming associated with the Y. M. C. A. or any other organization. The club did not give its ratification until after there had been considerable discussion on the matter.

Chairmen of the various committees in connection with the hoedown dance which will be held tomorrow night in aid of the gymnasium fund presented their reports. Arrangements are well under way and, with many novelties and innovations planned, the affair should prove very successful.

As another effort toward raising funds for the gymnasium, the Gyro Club has made tentative plans for the staging of "H. M. S. Pinafore" before long under the direction of H. N. Brocklesby.

An invitation for members of the club to inspect the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station on the evening of November 27 was accepted.

C. A. Kirkendall, president, was in the chair at yesterday's luncheon. Harold McEwen was winner of the luncheon raffle.

Mr. Orme states that it is not at present his intention to take an active part in the new firm of prescription chemists.

SEARCH IS FRUITLESS

Neither Ketchikan or Prince Rupert Parties Able to Find Trace of Renahan Yesterday

Pilot Ansel Eckmann, with his base at Ketchikan, spent six hours in the air yesterday scouring Prince of Wales Island, Cape Muzon and other territory near the tip of the Alaska panhandle. Flight Lieutenant Phinney and Flying Officer Dunlap, based here, were about the same time in the air and thoroughly examined Portland Canal and Observatory Inlet as far as Stewart and Anyox as well as scanning Dundas and other islands in Chatham Sound. Neither search group was able to find any trace of Pilot Renahan and his two companions who have now been missing since two weeks ago last Tuesday while on a flight from Vancouver to Atlin to join the search for Capt. E. J. A. Burke.

Flying Officer Phinney, in charge of the Royal Canadian Air Force search planes here, announced yesterday that it was his intention today to search along the coast and islands immediately to the south of here on the chance that Renahan might not actually have passed further north than here or that he may have become lost and turned back south after passing. Grenville Channel will probably be subjected to a more minute inspection. So far, it has not been thoroughly covered, the search having moved north on the assumption that Renahan must be north of Lucy Island.

Yesterday the visibility was excellent and the sea smooth. Flight Lieutenant Phinney stated that it was so calm that the planes could have landed anywhere in Chatham Sound had it been necessary to do so. Equally good weather conditions favored Pilot Eckmann's search from Ketchikan.

The planes from Prince Rupert and Ketchikan were all on the search again this morning. While hope for Renahan being found alive is gradually diminishing, no effort is to be spared to ascertain the nature of the fate of the party if it is possible at all to learn it.

Since yesterday, there have been many rumors of developments in the search and it has been persistently said that the wreck had been found on Wales Island. The radio broadcast from Seattle even went so far as to announce that a body had been found of one of the missing party. All these reports are without truth or foundation.

Phinney and Dunlap took off for down the coast about 10 o'clock this morning and will return to port this afternoon.

KILLED IN VICTORIA

Relief Measures Decided Upon By City Council In Lengthy Meeting and Bylaws Go to the People

Sum of $13,000 to Be Raised For Eleventh Avenue Grading and $6,000 For Trunk Sewer

After two hours of discussion, the city council last night passed three bylaws designed for the purpose of alleviating unemployment. The first was a general bylaw for the rough grading of Eleventh Avenue from McClymont Park to Alfred Street; another for the extension of the trunk sewer from its present terminus in the lane off Ninth Avenue in a northerly direction to the corner of Seventh Avenue and Fulton Street. The third was a local improvement bylaw for the reconstruction and completion of Eleventh Avenue from McClymont Park to Conrad Street at a total cost of $25,000 which works out at about $76 per lot.

The discussion was long and tedious, every proposal that was made having some weak point. The final decision it was unanimously agreed would be in the best interests of the city and the mayor thanked the aldermen for their patience in dealing with so difficult a problem.

Under the scheme for Eleventh Avenue, it is proposed to raise $25,250 of which the provincial and federal governments, jointly will pay $12,250 and the city $13,000. This $13,000 is to be raised on a general bylaw to be voted on by the ratepayers on Friday, November 28. The loan will be for 20 years and the annual cost to the city will be small.

For the sewer the sum of $10,000 is required of which the governments will pay $4,000 and the city will vote on a bylaw for $6,000. This is a work that is much needed and will enable the people in the neighborhood to build their laterals under the local improvement plan.

The chief debate last night had to do with whether a proposed plan should be adopted to complete Eleventh Avenue, using only hand labor for all the work or whether modern methods with the present city equipment should be used and thus money be saved to the city enabling other work to be done. The latter plan was adopted and the result is that the sewer extension is included without exceeding the original amount proposed to be expended.

The total amount to be contributed by the governments is $16,250.

NO FISH SALES

Only 43,000 pounds being in, there was no auction of halibut on the local fish exchange today. There were four boats in: Americans, Don Q. and Spray—and the Canadian, Joe Baker.

Attractive Proposal Made In Connection With Northern Road

Certain Concessions Would Be Sought and, When the $20,000,000 Cost Was Recovered, Whole Thing Would Be Turned Over to Province

VICTORIA, Nov. 13.—Construction of the British Columbia-Yukon-Alaska highway, together with a chain of ultra-modern tourist resorts and service stations along the route, at a cost of in the neighborhood of $20,000,000 without expense to the government is the proposal tentatively advanced through Samuel Hill, pioneer road builder of the Pacific Northwest, Premier Tolmie states. The identity of the United States financiers who would back the project is not disclosed.

Requested concessions, it is independently learned, would include exclusive franchises for the operation of chain hotels and tourist resorts and service stations and a percentage of gas tax from the actual traffic on the road would also be sought. When the cost of the construction of the road had been recovered by the builders, the highway would be turned over free of debt to the Province of British Columbia without expense.

At present, the government is awaiting a report from engineers who are making a survey of the feasibility of the route.

WAS BURIED AFTER MASS

Solemn requiem mass was celebrated yesterday morning at the Church of the Annunciation by Father Charles Webb, O.M.I. for the late Samuel Mikkeli, whose death occurred in the city last week. Charles P. Balagno presided at the organ and there was a vocal solo by Harry Astori. The congregation in attendance was large.

After the service, the remains were committed to burial at Fairview Cemetery where Father Webb again officiated. Pallbearers were S. Karadich, S. Bjeletich, J. Gurvich, D. Buskovich, L. Jelich, N. Benderach.

Among those who sent flowers were: J. C. B. Society, S. N. P. Society, Mr. and Mrs. Zito (Vancouver), Mr. and Mrs. Budinich, From Friends in Anyox, Mr. and Mrs. Comadina and family, From his Brothers and his family; Mr. and Mrs. Pustak, Mr. and Mrs. S. Bill, Mr. and Mrs. N. Gurvich, Mr. and Mrs. Vuchovich, Petre Family.

VANCOUVER WHEAT

VANCOUVER, Nov. 13.—Wheat was quoted on the local Exchange today at 67 3/8c.

Dominions Will Appoint Their Own Governors-General; Wheat Quota Decision Is Held Over

LONDON, Nov. 13.—There will be no decision for or against a wheat quota at the present Imperial Conference in London, according to a semi-official announcement today following another four-hour discussion between Empire Premiers. Adjournment of the conference until next July in Ottawa was understood to be under discussion. On the constitutional side of the conference two further decisions were reached.

Proceedings of the conference, when published, will contain a declaration that the appointment of governors-general in the Dominions is a matter between the King himself and the government of the Dominion concerned, that the King in this matter will act on the advice of his Dominion ministers and that formal advice will be tendered to His Majesty after an informal consultation.

There will also be a change in the form of appointment of governors-general. At present, a governor-general is formally appointed by the British government after consultation with the Dominion government concerned. Under the conference declaration, it will be recognized that the form of document which appoints a governor-general and in which he receives his instructions will be a matter for the King and the Dominion government concerned.

High Commissioners in London

At present, the government is awaiting a report from engineers who are making a survey of the feasibility of the route.

EXAMINATION BY DOCTORS

New Plan For Inspection of School Children Explained to Board

A basis has finally been reached whereby the medical examination of children on school, required by statute, may be resumed in the city. It was reported to the school board at its meeting last night by Secretary J. O. Williamson. The plan is that all the doctors of the city shall take part in the medical examinations at a price of 50c per child, a school nurse to be supplied while the examinations are being conducted. It was estimated that it would take about six weeks to make the examinations. The cost would, therefore, be $700-$850 for the doctors and $150 for the nurse for six weeks. The doctors would be prepared to go ahead with the work after the first of the year. The matter will come before the board again.

Winter Sports Getting Under Way at Schools

Softball and football schedules at the High School have been completed. Principal D. H. Hartness reported at last night's board meeting and basketball and badminton are now under consideration. The Exhibition Hall had been offered for basketball while for badminton the I. O. D. E. Hall could be used at a moderate rental.

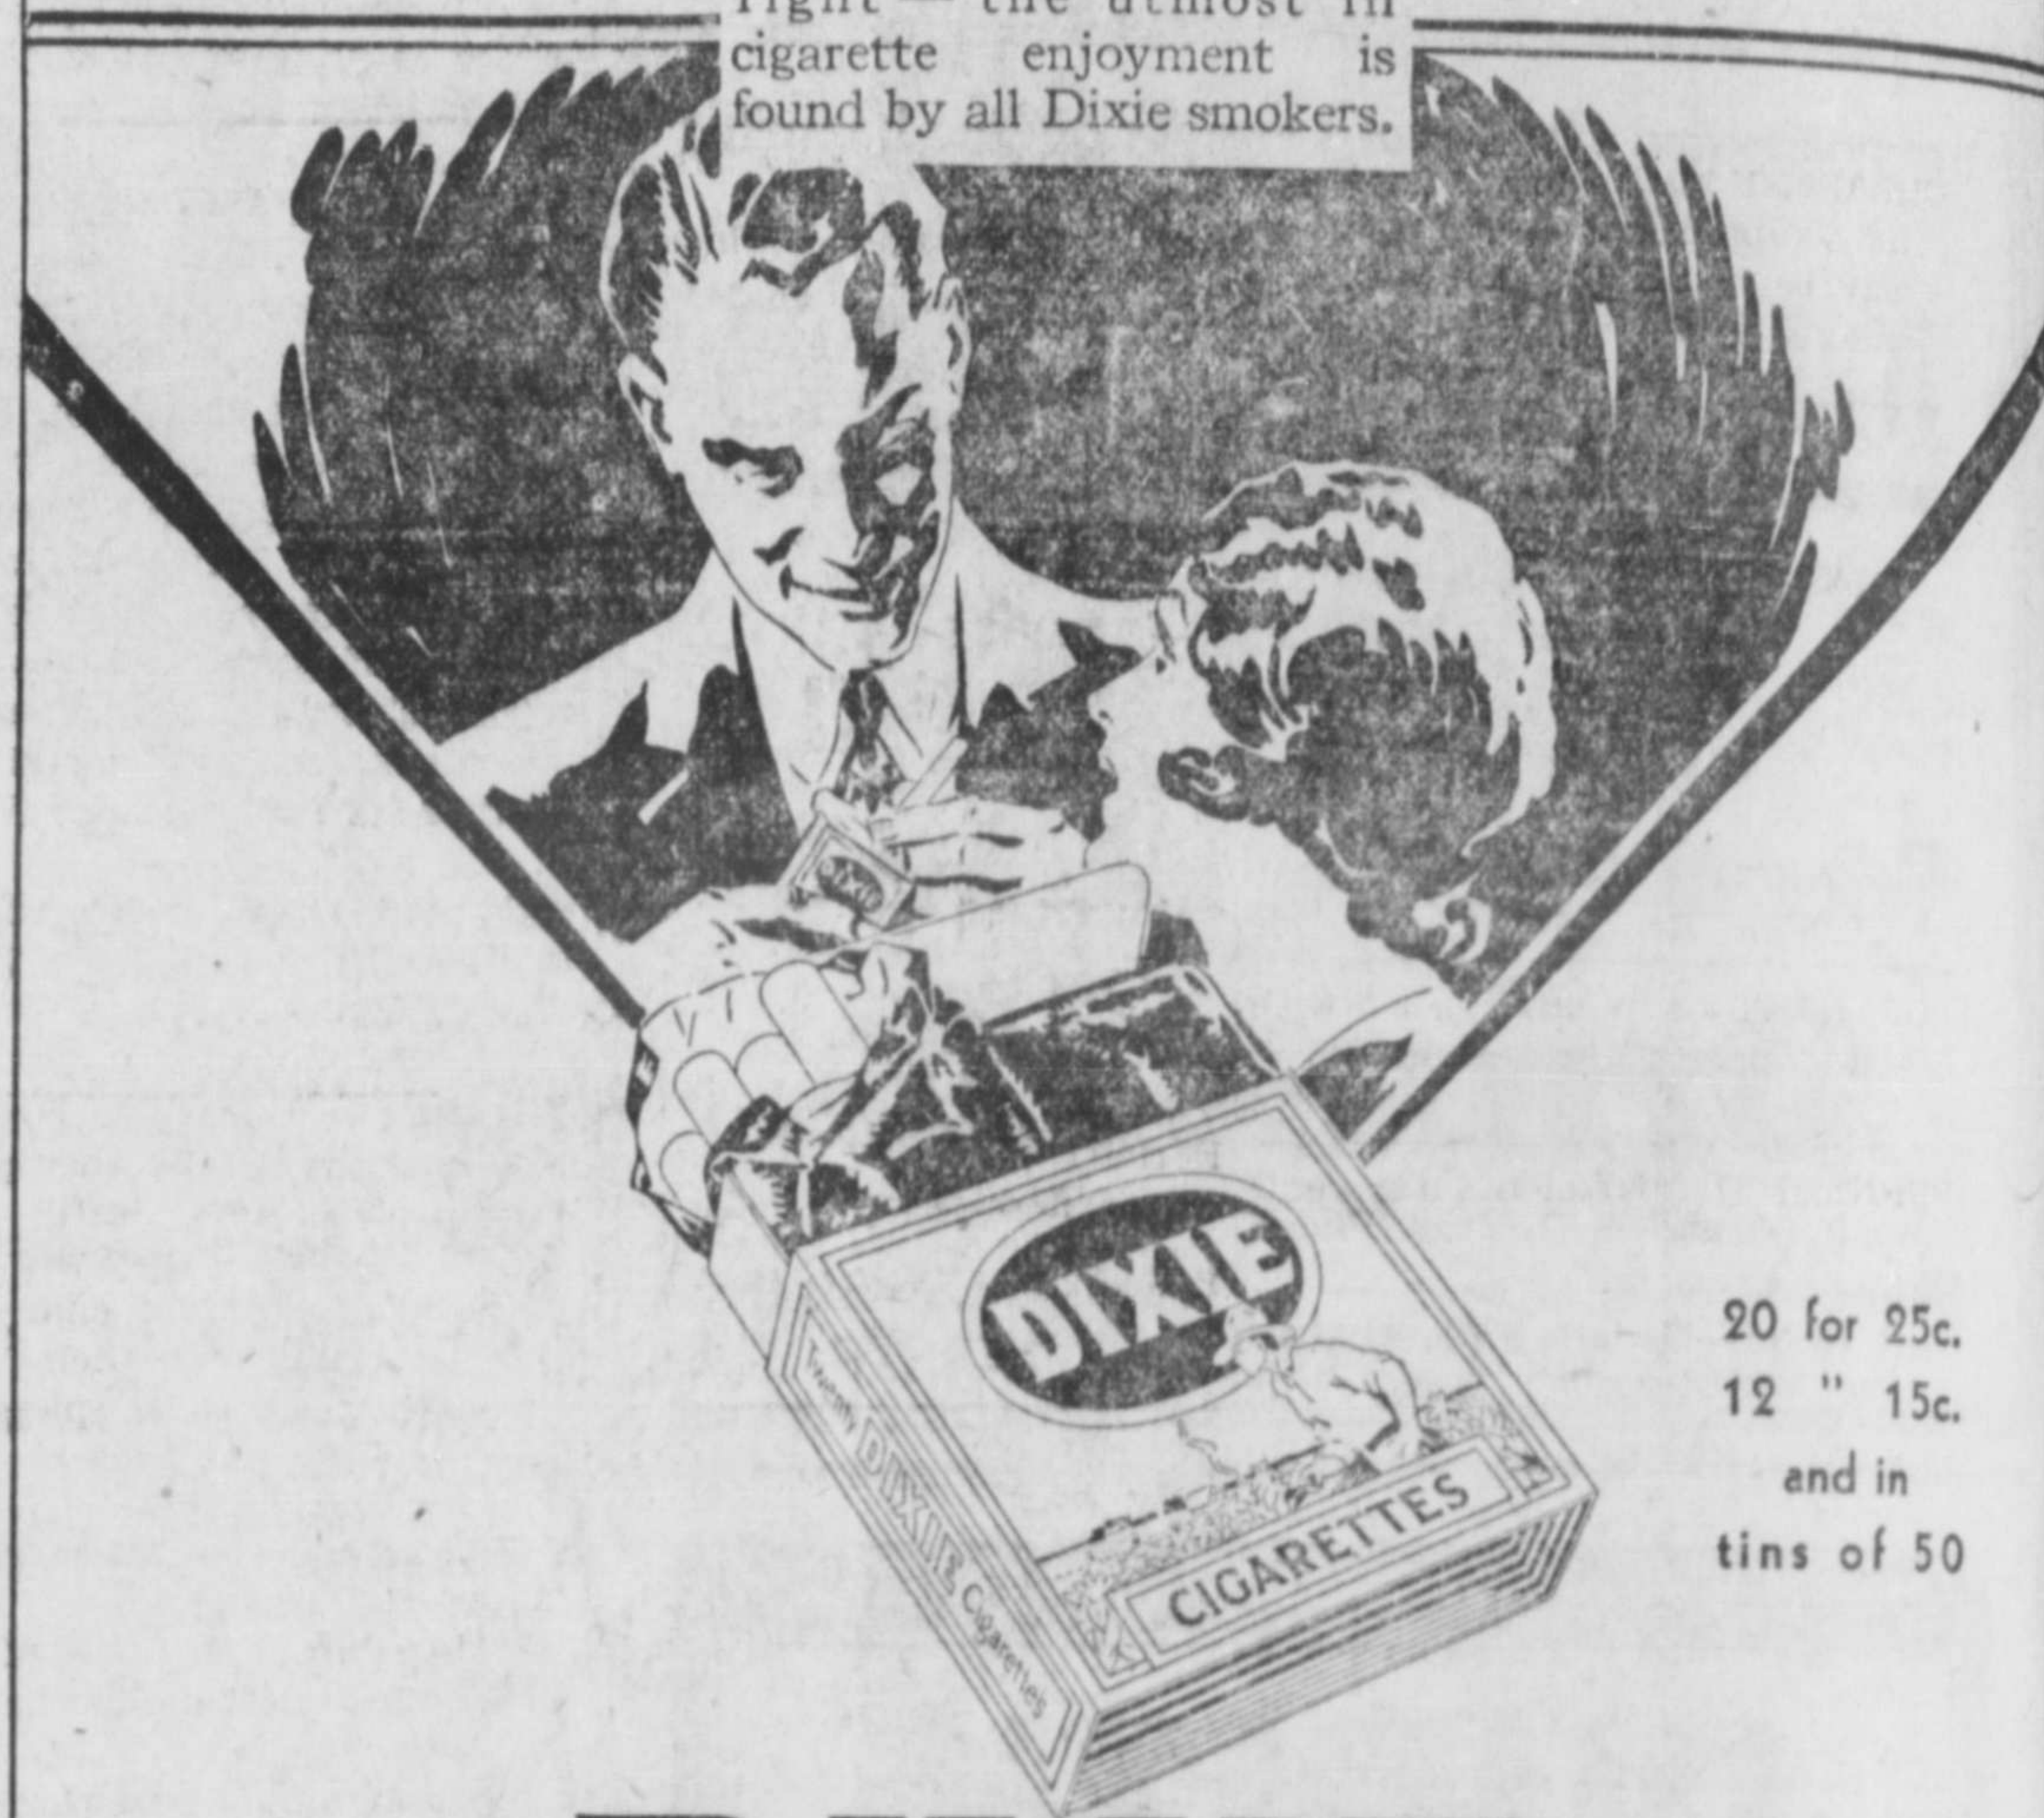

Miss E. A. Mercer reported basketball schedules for boys and girls under way at her schools.

ASKS IF THERE ARE TOO MANY TEACHERS HERE

S. J. Willis, superintendent of education for British Columbia, had a letter before the board of school trustees last night in which he stated that the total attendance in the schools of this city did not seem to warrant such a large number of teachers being used. There might be some special reasons, the superintendent admitted, but he suggested that Section 142 of the School Act

Night Classes Are Suggested

Would Give Young Men Better Chance Than They Are Getting Here Now

A letter from A. J. Croxford, urging the inauguration of night school classes in the city, was read at last night's meeting of the school board. The letter was one which had been originally addressed to Mayor C. H. Orme, who had passed it along to the board.

Night schools would do much for the welfare of the young men of the city, Mr. Croxford felt. There were few opportunities for them under present conditions to learn the trades. After leaving school, boys had a hard task to find an opening of any kind. Evening classes would give them an opportunity to improve themselves. If such classes were inaugurated, Mr. Croxford felt sure they would be taken advantage of by a goodly number of young men. A small fee might be imposed to help pay the expenses.

No action was taken by the board in connection with the letter.

Call at Curzon's when you want Men's Socks, Mitts, or Gloves.

REPAIRS IN SOME SCHOOLS ASKED

Minor repairs necessary in the schools of the city were reported to the board, at its meeting last night, by the principals and the matters brought up were ordered by the board to be attended to.

Principal D. H. Hartness reported that a radiator in the matric room of the High School was so close to some of the pupils' desks as to cause discomfort. If the board would obtain the few feet of pipe necessary, the janitor could do the work of moving the radiator.

Miss E. A. Mercer, principal of Booth Memorial School, reported that the deputy fire marshal had recommended the installation of two more exits in her school.

The stove in Grade Nine (Fulton Street) was continually smoking and was a great nuisance, Miss S. A. Mills, principal of Borden Street School, reported.

Miss Jessie Moffatt of Westview School asked that the stove in her school either be moved to another position or be protected by sheeting as it was too hot for some of her pupils.

IN THE LETTER BOX

A FASCIST ATROCITY

Editor, Daily News:—

Please publish the following editorial article from the American Stribran, published at Pittsburg, U.S.A.

LOUIS BILICH.

Less than two months ago the Italian government executed four Yugoslav youths, who were Italian subjects of Istria. Public opinion in Europe considers that execution an exhibition of savage terrorism such as one would never expect in a civilized country. Three of these youths were high school boys, and it is impossible to an impartial mind to believe that they were guilty of the crimes which the Fascist Italians charged against them. The records of those boys testify that from childhood up they were well behaved; no criminal charge was ever associated with their young lives until the Fascist spies managed to discover that they were plotting against the Italian state, and that in this plotting they had committed murders of unoffending Italian citizens. The Fascist court found them guilty after the short and perfunctory trial. They were shot three hours after the court had signed its verdict. The firing squad fired into their backs, treating them as treacherous criminals. They were not allowed to have their own lawyers to defend them. The defense was conducted by attorneys appointed by the Fascist authorities.

The great newspaper "Vorwärts" of Vienna states on good authority that these boys and other youths who were supposed to have been associated with them, were tortured while in prison. Three of the tortured youths died in prison, and the four who were condemned and shot were forced by tortures to sign a document admitting their guilt.

One revolts against the idea that the Fascist government should be guilty of so outrageous barbarities. But it is well known that among the half million Yugoslavs who were transferred to Italy by the Paris Peace Conference, the Fascist regime has been proceeding during the last 11 years with unheard of terrorism. Several thousands of them were killed, and some twenty thousand were imprisoned. For what offense? No other than their refusal to be Italianized. The Fascists demand that they give up their Slavonic or Italian names, that they give up their language not only in schools and churches, but also in private intercourse, and in their homes. The following bit of history will tell us what this demand means.

It was only this year that the Dalmatians celebrated the thousandth anniversary of the death of their famous bishop, Grgur Ninski, who protested against the use of the Latin language in the Croatian churches of his diocese. The Pope finally consented that the Slavonic language replace the Latin in the Roman Catholic churches of Bishop Ninski's diocese. The Croatians of Istria of those days were the most enthusiastic supporters of Bishop Ninski. The old Glagolice language and script were retained in their churches down to the present time. This year, the grateful people of Dalmatia erected to the memory of Grgur Ninski, their great bishop of a thousand years ago, a magnificent monument at Split; it is one of the finest conceptions of the famous Yugoslav sculptor Mestrovich.

This bit of history shows that no people in the world are more passionately attached to their language and to their old religious and cultural traditions than the people of Dalmatia, Istria and Gorizia.

Does Mussolini and his Fascists expect that these people give up without a single protest their Slavonic language, and their religious and cultural heritage for which their forefathers fought during a thousands years? Do they expect to persuade the world that these protests are acts of treason to be punished by death? The English, French, German, Austrian and the Czechoslovak press answer this question by a most indignant condemnation of the Fascist terrorism. The Czechoslovak press appeals to its readers to boycott Italy. Nay, even the press of the Italian exiles in France laments that it will take a century to wash away the taint of disgrace which the Fascist barbarism inflicted upon the face of Italy when it murdered those Istrian boys.

Michael Pupin.

SANITY AND SENTIMENT

To The Editor—

In connection with the Memorial Services held on Tuesday evening at the Cenotaph, I wish to publicly voice my protest against taking young girls and boys on parade in weather conditions such as prevailed during the service. In my opinion, to expose young children needlessly in such weather, was an act amounting to criminal thoughtlessness, and I sincerely hope that this letter will be the means of preventing a recurrence.

Thanking you for your courtesy for giving this letter publicity,

Yours sincerely,
SYDNEY E. THOMSON.

BUS SERVICE

OH IS REQUESTED

After a lengthy discussion on a petition from 53 citizens of Westview requesting bus service for pupils of that section of the city attending downtown schools, the school board decided last night to request the parents of pupils concerned to get together and decide whether or not they were willing to at least partially pay the cost of such a service. At the rate of $1 per day for a minimum load of 20 children and 5c additional for each child over, the cost would be at least $4 per day of $80 a month. Members of the board felt that, under present financial conditions, they were hardly warranted in incurring the expense.

Trustee L. W. Waugh made the suggestion that parents concerned be requested to at least partially meet the cost. The suggestion found favor with other members of the board and was finally passed as a motion seconded by Trustee J. H. Thompson.

Trustee W. R. McAfee felt that, if pupils of Westview were given the service, pupils from Seal Cove should also get it.

This afternoon's train, due from the East at 3:30, was reported this morning to be on time.

FARCE IS ENJOYABLE

Play Staged Last Night In United Church Appreciated—Will Be Repeated Tonight

Farce presentations in Prince Rupert always prove popular and the staging of "Amy from Arizona" under the auspices of the Sunday School in First United Church last evening was no exception. Deservedly enough, for it was a very entertaining and well acted show, there was a large audience which almost filled the church. All were pleased and, if the good reports that were to be heard last night after the performance was over have the expected effect, there should be even a larger house tonight when the second and final presentation is made.

Mrs. John Manson, who directed the farce, and all members of the cast are deserving of congratulations on the fine success achieved after a comparatively brief time of rehearsal. Earl Barrie is stage manager and has also contributed considerably to the success. He has charge of scenery and settings which are effective indeed.

As for the cast, the leading roles are taken capably by Miss Cathie Irvine and Earl Barrie who appear as a young married couple. Among other of the major parts are that of the mother-in-law acted splendidly by Miss E. M. Earle and that of an actress and domestic intruder in which Miss Victoria Krikevsky makes a great hit. The title role is in the hands of Miss Eleanor Patmore who excels herself. Others who hold up their ends well and contribute in an important way to the general effectiveness are Bruce Stevens, a friend of the young husband; J. Sinclair, as the brother of the young wife; Robert Irvine, as a butler, and Miss E. P. Grassie, as a maid.

There are three acts and the duration of the entertainment is a little short of two hours. During the intermissions, there is radio music.
