NEW ZEALAND TALKS RETALIATION

BRITISH STEAMER TAHITI BEING ABANDONED IN PACIFIC

Would Void Preference On Canadian Motors If Butter Sale Stops

Hopes That Better Counsels Will Prevail In This Country So As Tariff War Between Dominions May Be Avoided

WELLINGTON, N. Z., Aug. 16:—Premier Forbes stated today that, unless Canada was prepared to buy New Zealand butter, his government might be compelled to consider the withdrawal of the application of the British preferential tariff on motor cars imported from Canada. "It is unfortunate," Premier Forbes said, "that the importation of New Zealand butter should have been made an issue in the recent general election." However, he hoped that better counsels would eventually prevail as he did not wish to adopt retaliatory measures. Canada, he said, had the advantage of being able to get her manufactured goods into New Zealand as British goods, this being a tremendous advantage particularly to Canada's motor car industry.

Passengers and Crew Are Leaving Vessel In Sinking Condition

Ship Lost One of Her Propellers Near Cook Group and Water Is Entering After End—Bulkhead Giving Away

SUVA, Fiji, Aug. 16:—The British steamer Tahiti has wireless that passengers and crew are abandoning the ship about 500 miles southwest of Rarotonga Island of the Cook group. The ship was carrying about 100 passengers and a crew of 152. The vessel's bulkhead was expected to give away at any moment, the message said. She lost one of her propellers and water was thus allowed to enter the after part of the vessel.

Other ships are hastening to the aid of the Tahiti.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16:—A wireless message to the Matson Navigation Co. here today from the liner Ventura said that the steamer Tahiti had been abandoned and that the Norwegian vessel Penybryn was expected to reach the Tahiti momentarily. The Ventura was 500 miles away and was making all speed towards the Tahiti.

It is believed that the passengers and crew of the sink-in vessel have taken to the lifeboats.

TOO MANY BABY FISH

Chicken Halibut Proportion Analyzed By Fishery Magazine In Editorial Article

Following the report for July of an unusually large catch of "baby" halibut, attention has been called to numerous other recent landings of undersized fish, giving an even more striking illustration of the critical condition in this fishery, says the Pacific Fisherman. Figures are cited showing the arrival at Seattle, from May 16 to July 15, of nine fairs by four vessels, in which "medium" fish, over 10 lbs. dressed, ranged from 1,000 to 6,000 lbs., and "chickens" and "babies" under 10 lbs., from 11,500 to 44,000 lbs., with a total of 31,500 lbs. of "mediums" and 270,500 lbs. of the small fish. It is reliably reported that these fairs were all taken in the Cape Addington district, which the International Fisheries Commission desires to set aside as a nursery preserve; and that the percentage of "babies," weighing under 5 lbs. with heads on, has been very large. The number of such fish required to make up this total of weight is tremendous, and they brought very low prices.

Including later returns to the end of July, the same vessels and one other in 15 trips landed 72,000 lbs. of "mediums" and 430,000 lbs. classed as "chickens," including "babies" not indicated in the haulings. During the same period 22 other sizable fairs were received at this port (not counting the smaller arrivals) in which "mediums" totaled about 95,000 lbs. and about 300,000 lbs. were classed as "chickens." This class of fish made up more than half the July landings, and arrivals for May, June and July totaled about 2,200,000 lbs. of small fish against 2,600,000 of "mediums."

Fishermen state that the more recent arrivals have not included so large a percentage of "babies" as some of those above mentioned; that they consisted mainly, at least, of "good merchantable fish." This expression, however, is applied to "chickens" weighing between 5 and 10 lbs. each. Such fish in general are immature, and their capture means the destruction of halibut which have not yet spawned, and are considerably less desirable commercially than those of mature size. If left for a few years, they would not only weigh out at considerably greater weight, and bring better prices per pound, but would have left at least some spawn for the future supply.

The reluctance of the International Fisheries Commission to take any drastic action is shown by its proposal to close only a few small areas.

BAND IS PRAISED

Local Boys Made Creditable Showing at Vancouver Exhibition

In juvenile band contests at the Vancouver Exhibition last week, the Prince Rupert Boys' Band was given a mark of 70 points. This standing is regarded as very creditable when it is taken into consideration that the winning band—a Vancouver group—was awarded but 74 points.

The criticisms offered the local band at Vancouver are considered helpful from an educational point of view. A judge's statement commented in part as follows: "The march pace was just right here and the phrasing was creditably managed. This is the best band to give us the right march pace in the recapitulation."

BUSINESS FALLS OFF

Outlook For Pole Industry Is None Too Bright With Camps Already Starting to Close

During the past week, the Hanson Timber & Lumber Co., principal timber producer of the central interior, sent to all its pole camps instructions to close down all operations until further notice. The company has many thousands of poles on hand and more cut in the bush. Meantime, there are no orders on hand and none in sight while the company has poles enough on hand to run a normal year. Thus the outlook for the industry during the coming fall and winter is none too bright.

Olof Hanson, head of the company, will be leaving for the east shortly in an effort to secure some new business.

OCEAN FALLS CUTTING DOWN

Owing, it is understood, to market conditions, the big pulp and paper mill of the Pacific Mills at Ocean Falls has reduced operations from a six day to a five day a week basis, effective today. It is understood that the management hopes to resume full operations again before long.

TERRORS OF COAL MINING

People who burn coal cannot realize what dangers the miners brave in getting out what is to most of us a household luxury and possibly a necessity. Those who have lived in a coal mining town for any length of time are bound to feel acutely what it means to have a mine explosion. There is the horrible dread, the whispering of news, the bringing up of discolored bodies, the daily funerals, the fear of the women for the future, the tendency to blame someone for carelessness, the widows and orphans and the wonderful generosity of the men and women toward their neighbors who have suffered. These are the tales that the coal tells to those who have lived through such tragedies as we heard of yesterday at Coalmont.

TOLMIE FOR OTTAWA

Premier Tolmie is gone to Ottawa to discuss with Premier Bennett and the other provincial premiers the problem of unemployment. It is to be hoped that he will press hard for the Peace outlet and insist that it be constructed by both of the two big railway companies working together and that incidentally they have a common outlet at Prince Rupert.

If work were commenced at once on railway construction it would take care of a lot of men and at the same time would serve the most useful purpose that can at present be thought of.

THE MORAL OF KETCHIKAN

The Winnipeg Tribune has been studying the traffic problem in Ketchikan, and has seemingly come to the conclusion that that favored Alaskan town is a happy combination of everything that is good in Utopia and Erewhon, the isles of the blest and the happy hunting grounds, says the Vancouver Province. And all because its traffic problem is so simple.

The Ketchikan motorist, the Tribune has discovered, is limited to 14 miles of road, a circumstance which gives the traffic cop opportunities few other towns afford. If the erring motorist is missed on the way out, well, he will be along again shortly.

In Ketchikan, too, there is an average of one car to each eight persons. So, the Tribune deduces, the pedestrian's chances in the town are quite definitely known. And the preferred speed is 14 miles per hour—plenty of time to see the scenery, no dust and an opportunity for even the laggard pedestrian to hop out of the way.

"Oh for a few more Ketchikans," longs the Tribune. And at the same time, Ketchikan and other Alaskan towns not greatly different so far as roads are concerned, are burning themselves up with impatience for the arrival of Premier Tolmie's Midnight Sun Highway to come within tapping distance so that they may escape their bonds and be able to scurry in their cars, over the great road system of the continent. And not a few British Columbia towns have similar longings. Powell River, for instance, with not a great many more miles of road than Ketchikan, but with a great many more cars, has been agitating for roads and ferries to allow its prosperous people to motor to Vancouver.

Evidently there is no satisfying human beings. Give them the roads of a continent to play about in and they long for rocks and mountain sides and the unbridgeable sea. And give them just space enough to move about in and they yearn for the trail that has no end.

Interesting camera study of Judge J. H. Denton, one of Toronto's well-known veteran members of the bench.

Colors For Men In Parliament

MANCHESTER, Aug. 16:—Mr. Macquisten has appeared in the House of Commons in a suit of Shantung silk, courageously giving a lead to drably dressed politicians says a writer in The "Guardian." In 19th century Parliaments the attire of members must have made the House a feast of color. Chas. James Fox usually wore a blue frock-coat and buff waistcoat. John Wilkes was usually dressed in either a scarlet or a green suit edged with gold. The Prince of Wales opened Parliament in 1783 in a magnificent suit of "black velvet, most richly embroidered with gold, and pink spangles, and lined with pink satin. His shoes had pink heels; his hair was pressed much at the sides and very fully frizzed, with two very small curls at the bottom." There were no women members of Parliament then—but in view of such curls and colors, can they be said to have been really needed?

WHY are some women so patient with pain? Shopping with a head that throbs. Working when they ache all over. Sometimes it's hours before they take Aspirin and get relief! Most men take these tablets the moment that some sudden ache or pain threatens their comfort and so should you. Aspirin is perfectly harmless; it cannot depress the heart. The tablets stamped Bayer are always genuine Aspirin; always the same, always safe. So it isn't sensible to suffer with a headache, a cold, neuralgic pains, or anything else that these tablets relieve almost as soon as swallowed. Buy by the bottle and save money. Any drugstore has the 100-tablet size.

MEETING ON GYMNASIUM

Site on Fraser Street Expected to Be Granted By City Council

The committee of representatives from the different organizations in town interested in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium and swimming tank met last evening in the City Hall. In the absence of the chairman, W. H. Tobey, and the vice-chairman, C. H. Orme, who were both out of town, Alderman S. D. Macdonald occupied the chair. Others present were D. B. Finn, H. E. DeWolf, G. W. Johnstone, Ben Ferguson and P. C. Miller, representing the Boy Scouts, Denny Allen and R. Miller, representing Toc H; C. V. Evitt, Chamber of Commerce; A. E. Black and Joe Jack, I. O. O. F.; J. S. Wilson and H. Breen, secretary.

The secretary informed the meeting of the donations made by the Gyro Club and Mayor Orme, an announcement that was received with enthusiasm by the delegates.

A committee of three was appointed to examine all correspondence at present available regarding the value of the affiliation with the Y. M. C. A. and what obligations, if any, such affiliation entailed. This committee will consult with the chairman and vice-chairman and will report back to the next meeting which has been called for Thursday, August 21. The members of the committee are D. B. Finn, C. E. Evitt and H. Breen, secretary.

The question of the site was discussed and it was stated that the one on Fraser Street, south of the City Hall, would probably be granted by the city council.

CUBS BEAT BROOKLYN

Chicago Cubs Took First Two Games Lead in National League

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—Chicago Cubs took a two game lead in the National League pennant race yesterday by defeating the Brooklyn Robins in a 10 inning final game of their crucial series.

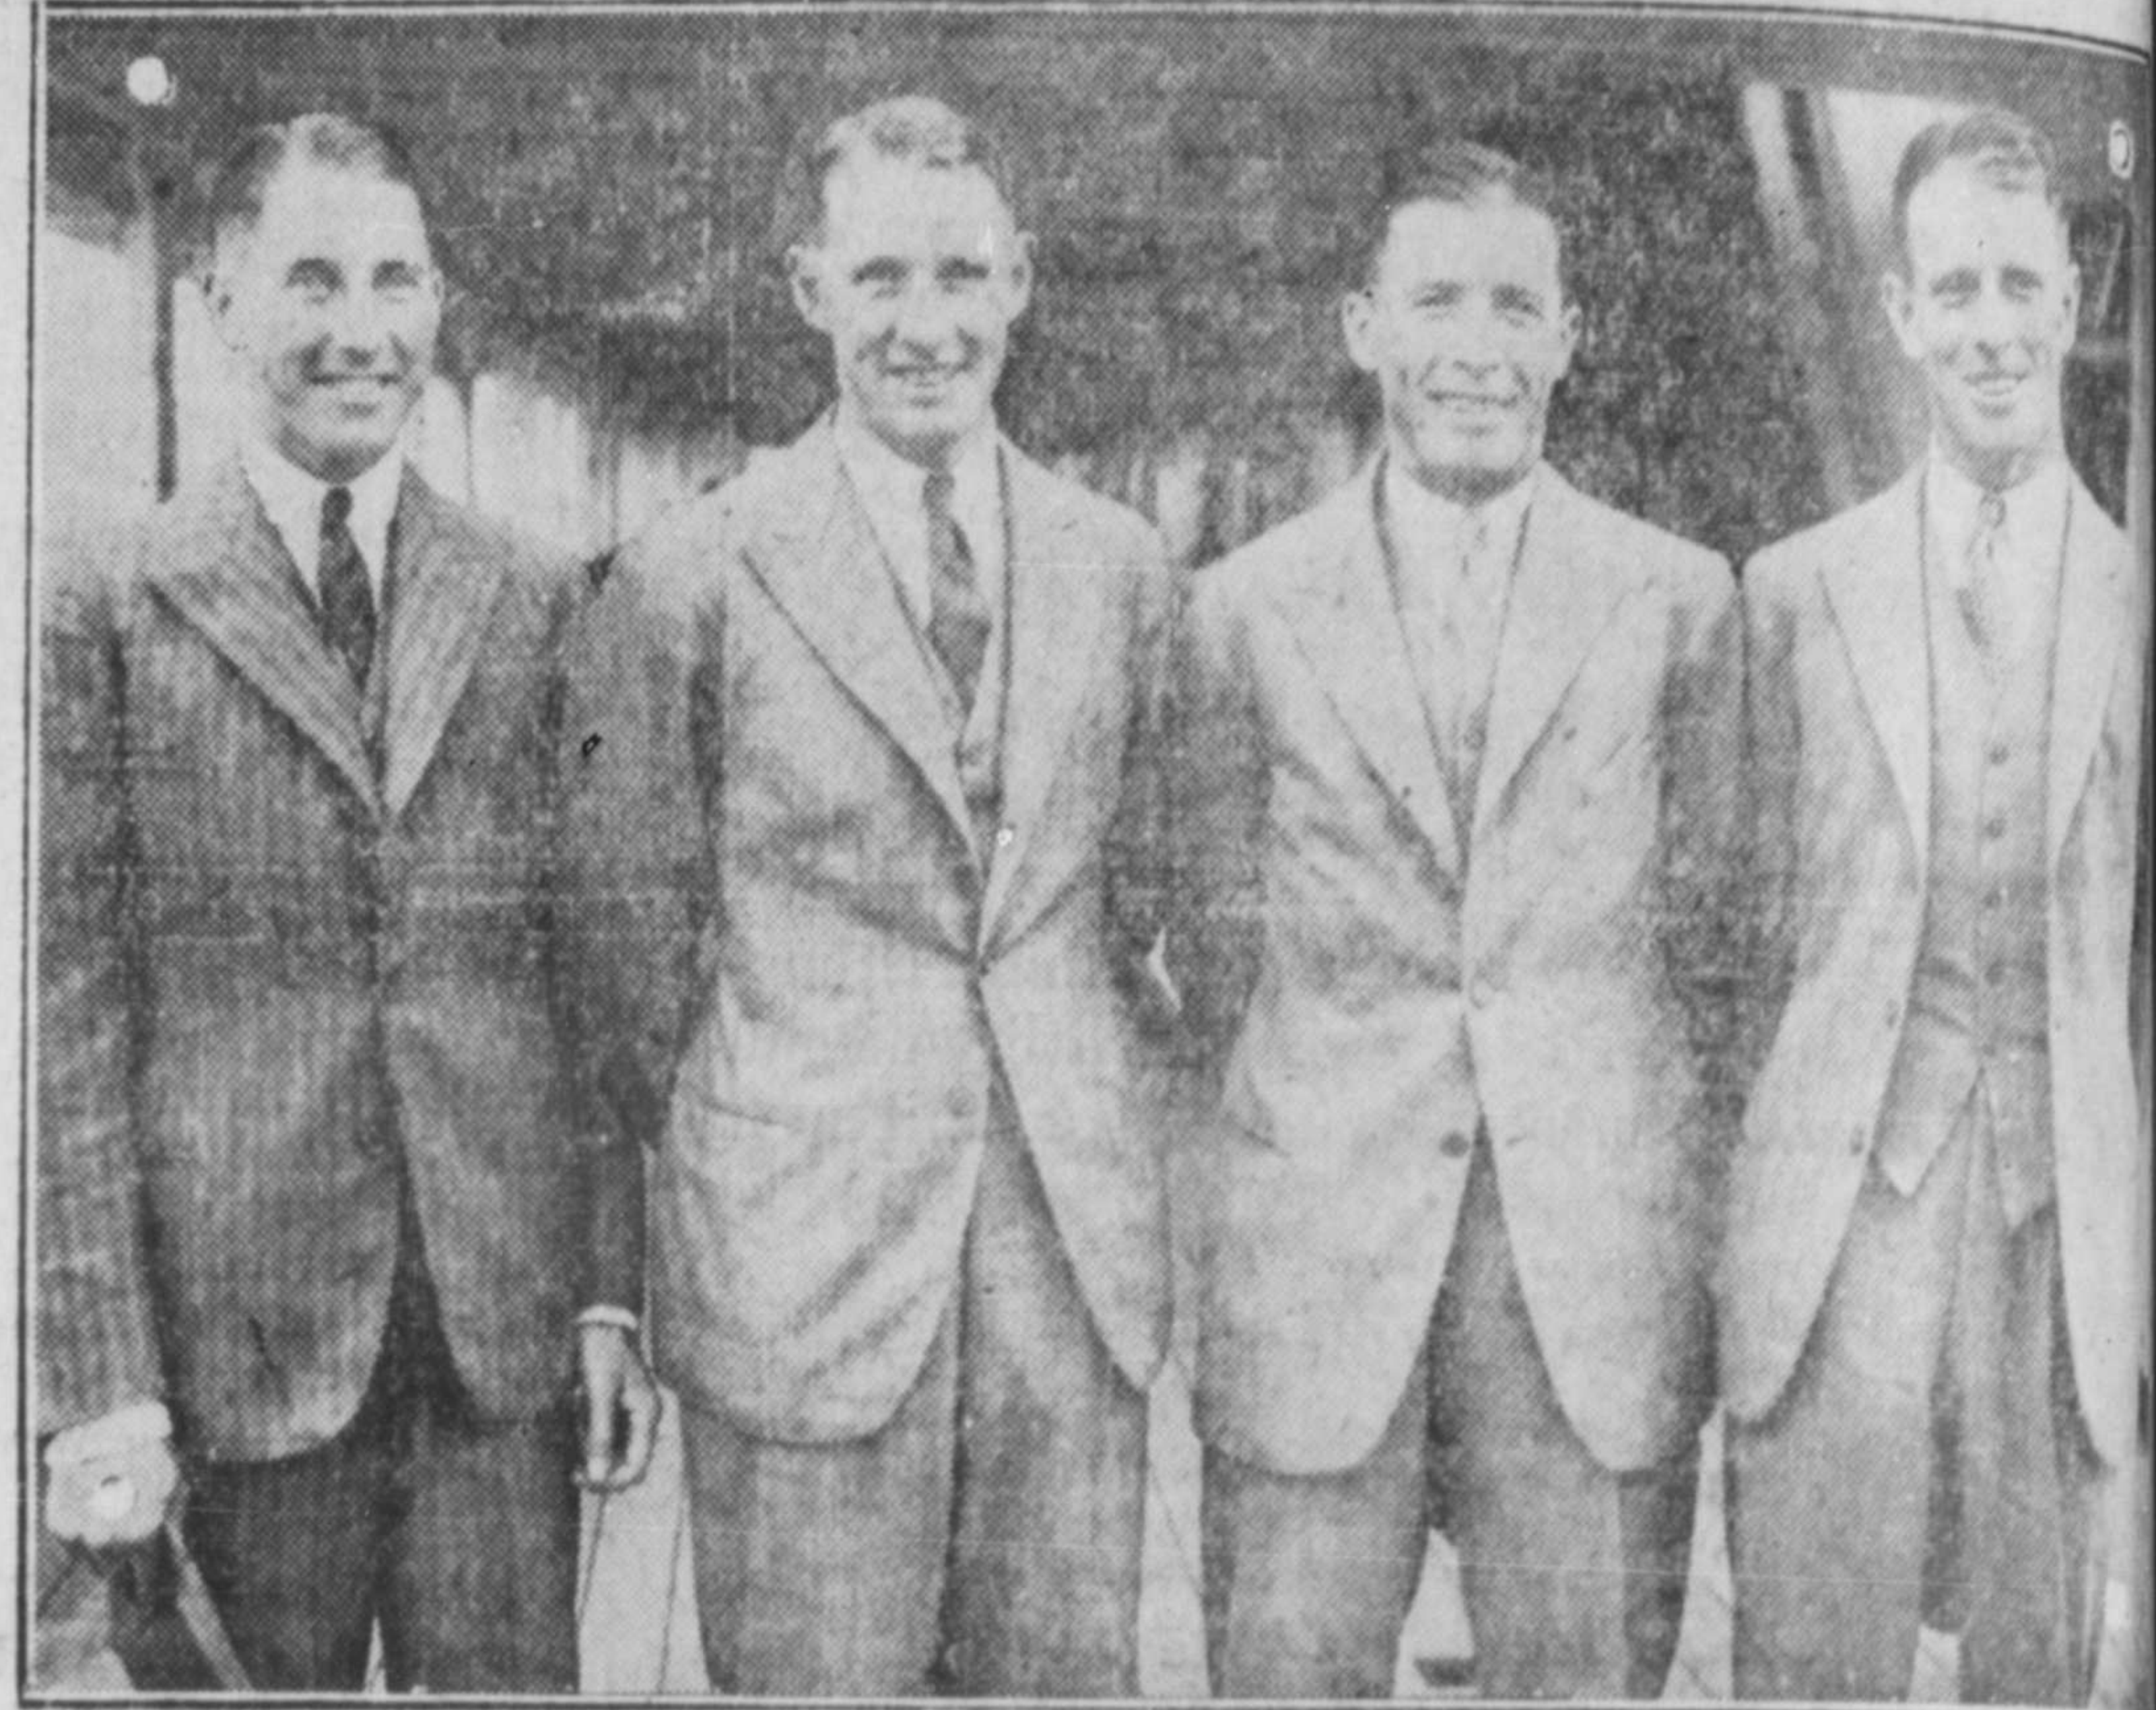

The New York Giants bunched their hits for a victory over Cincinnati Reds, Terry hitting and home run and flaring in four of the Giants tallies.

Pittsburg and Philadelphia divided a double header.

All American League games were postponed on account of rain.

Yesterday's scores:

National League
Philadelphia 7-0, Pittsburg 5-1.
New York 5, Cincinnati 0.
Brooklyn 3, Chicago 4.
Boston 4, St. Louis 2.

The famous Ashton quartet of polo players, made up of four brothers from Australia, are shown here as they arrived aboard the ss. Minnewaska to play in the coming Long Island polo season matches. Left to right, they are: Philip S. Geoffrey G., Capt. James H. and Robert R. Ashton.

ENGLAND MUDDLES

Blundered Through First Day of Fifth Test Cricket Match Today With Good Score

LONDON, Aug. 16.—Staggered under the skillful blows of Australia's crack bowlers, England blundered through the first day of the fifth test cricket match and when the stumps had been drawn had scored the comparatively good total of 316 runs for five wickets. A remarkable innings of Herbert Sutcliffe steadied the Homeland team down and took it around bad corners. His score at the end of play was 138 and he was not out. Jack Hobbs score 47 and Prince Du-leep Singhi, 50.

Sport Chat

Sons of Canada and Centrals will meet tomorrow afternoon at the Acropolis Hill grounds in a City League baseball match and an interesting encounter is assured. With three wins to their credit and but one loss against them, a win for the Canucks tomorrow would put them on top with a substantial lead. However, first place would be tied if the Hotel Men should win for, so far, in the second half, they have won twice and been beaten twice. With good weather apparently in store, the game should draw a large number of fans to the grounds.

Most of these European teams have been coached by English professional players who are past their playing prime. A recognized authority in England expects that Canada will win the 100 metres in the Empire Games at Hamilton, England has a good chance of the 400 yards relay, Canada should win the one mile relay while England hopes to supply the winner of the half-mile. He thinks that Thomas should win the mile for England and English runners will also win the mile and the 5,000 metres. Lord Burghley should win both the hurdle events, Nokes the hammer for England and her three Marathon runners are equal to the best in the world. He conceded the javelin event to Pilling of Canada, and the pole vault to Pickard of Hamilton.

The tennis games played at Wimbledon in England are played in grass courts. This is considered the ideal surface for the game. Good strokes can be most effectively made on the true grass surface while bad strokes can be most easily punished.

The selling of tickets for the coming contest between the locals and the Vacs of the Vancouver City League, is progressing favorably. A large amount of money is required to handle this series and if the Gods favor us with good weather there should be no trouble in putting it over successfully. Manager Moran has called a practice of prospective players in the series for Monday evening on Acropolis Hill. The following players being asked to turn out: Downie, Loblick, Lambie, W. Mitchell (captain), Harold Wendie, Farquhar, Arseneau, Chenoski, A. Mitchell, G. Mitchell, Howe, Eddie Smith, Gavin and Bury. The boys will be all out trying for a place on the all-star line-up and will be practicing almost every evening from now until the big games.

A wire received yesterday from the manager of the Vacs' stated that final arrangements were being made for the trip. The team is almost certain to be B. C. champions this year, as they are well out in front in the Vancouver City League which is supposed to turn out the fastest brand of ball played in the province. Manager Hall, who plays centre field on the team, is the big batter of the team, and is one of the best hitters in Vancouver. Their ace pitcher is a southpaw named Straight, who has been pitching a high brand of ball during the summer. Lewis and Puder are two more pitchers on the team, both right handers, and the former plays first base when he is not doing duty on the mound. Morse, who covets around third base and shortstop, is considered one of the best infielders in Vancouver. The team will probably be picked from amongst the following: Purmel, Camn, McKissock, Lewis, Jacobsen, Campbell, Morse, Cole, Kassner, Purcival, Hall, Tuson, Puder and Straight.

The International appeal of association football is once again demonstrated when we see that an American soccer team that played in the world's (so-called) championship recently at Monte Video more recently drew with the local team at Santos, Brazil. On the same day in New York a team from Budapest, the Hungarian champions, and one of the best teams in Europe, defeated the New York Nationals, who were specially reinforced for the occasion by 4-2.

Not Worth While Channel Swimmer Teacher Decides

Gertrude Ederle Loses Hearing and Regrets Her Exploit

RYE, N.Y., Aug. 16.—She teaches swimming in a boardwalk pool, a bronzed young woman with a determined grin. Unless you raise your voice she cannot hear you and looks at you with an expression that has in it embarrassment, bewilderment, fear. Across the back of her bathing suit is lettered: "Ederle."

Four years ago this August Gertrude Ederle swam the English Channel and came home to receive a Broadway welcome, congratulatory messages from President Coolidge and Governor Smith, and vaudeville offers that were said at the time to amount to nearly $1,000,000.

Today she pushed her hair back behind her ears—a gesture that has become characteristic since she began to lose her hearing two years ago as the result of those 14 hours in the English Channel—and said, a little wistfully:

"It wasn't worth while. I'm not sorry I did it. Only—if I'd known how it was going to be, that I'd lose my hearing—I don't think I'd have done it. It—it wasn't worth it."

Four years ago Gertrude Ederle rode up the bay on the Macon and up Broadway in an open car while crowds cheered and ticker tape and paper snow filled the air.

"Sometimes I kind of wonder if all that really happened to me," she said slowly. "But sometimes at dances the orchestra plays 'Let me Call You Sweetheart,' the song I kept humming while I was in the Channel—the song the bands played when I came home. And then it all sort of comes back over me again, and I have to sneak away or somebody will see me cry."

A year ago last fall, at the end of two years in vaudeville, Gertrude's hearing began to fail. Last winter she could not hear at all. It is better now, but already her voice has begun to take on the flat quality that the voices of the deaf have.

"The doctors say it was the swim that did it," she said, "plus those two terribly strenuous years when I was in the water too much and never had any chance to rest."

J. G. Stephens, tennis champion of the Smithers division of the C. N. R., arrived from Smithers today and will play games with the local champions this evening.

DRY DOCK IS WINNER

Beat Round House at Softball 7 to 3

In a game replete with errors, committed by players of both sides, the Dry Dock won out to the tune of 7 to 3 in a ragged game of softball last night.

At no stage of the game were there any outstanding features, outside of the combined efforts of the infield of each team.

From the spectators point of view, it was, nevertheless, a very interesting game.

Dry Dock: E. Smith, Wendie, J. Smith, Kelsey, Bury, Gaven, Nelson, Hunt and Geddes.

Round House: Raby, Tulloch, Hibbs, Wick, Nelson, Cameron, Smith, Coonie and Scherk.

Batteries—Dry Dock, Wendie and Smith; Round House, Raby and Smith.

Umpires: Comadina and Horton. The next game will be played on August 20 between the Station and Round House.

SHARKEY MATCHED

Will Meet Vittorio Campolo, the Argentinean, on September 25

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Jack Sharkey yesterday dropped negotiations for a heavyweight engagement with Primo Carnera, the giant Italian, and signed with Madison Square Garden to fight Vittorio Campolo, rugged Argentine battler, here on September 25.

It will be a 15-round bout and Sharkey gets $100,000 guaranteed and the privilege of 45% of the net receipts.

TRANSFERRED FROM HERE

A. C. Brand, who has been accountant in the Prince Rupert branch of the Royal Bank of Canada for the past two and a half years, is being transferred to Victoria.

Mr. Brand, who actually began his banking career in this city in 1912, left for overseas service and returned to Prince Rupert in September 1927 when he was appointed accountant here. For the last few days he has been relieving at Hazelton where the manager of the branch, R. Hunter, was injured when his horse threw him.

City tennis circles will miss Mr. Brand as he has been Prince Rupert's leading tennis player since his arrival, having won the city and the club championships on many occasions. As goalkeeper of the Regiment football team, he displayed soccer talent of the highest quality and was the first choice to represent the city in representative games. He has also played badminton with success.

Mrs. Brand will be also missed in the social life of the city and in the I. O. D. E. in which she has taken a prominent part.

The best wishes of the community will go with Mr. and Mrs. Brand and congratulations on his appointment to the important position in charge of the securities department of the main branch of the bank in Victoria. His successor will be Mr. Commons who will arrive in town during the first week of September.

The upsets of Children

All children are subject to little upsets. They come at unexpected times. They seem twice as serious in the dead of night. But there's one form of comfort on which a mother can always rely; good old Castoria. This pure vegetable preparation can't harm the tiniest infant. Yet mild as it is, it soothes a restless, fretful baby like nothing else. Its quick relief soon sees the youngster comfortable once more, back to sleep. Even an attack of colic, or diarrhea, yields to the soothing influence of Castoria. Keep Castoria in mind, and keep a bottle in the house—always. Give a few drops to any child whose tongue is coated, or whose breath is bad. Continue with Castoria until the child is grown! Every drugstore has Castoria; the genuine has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper.

CLEANING UP COW BAY

Gang of Men Have Been at Work Making Place More Respectable

City Engineer Good has had a gang of men working at the cleaning out of Cow Bay with the result that this eyesore and nuisance is being rapidly removed. The large shed on the west side of the bridge has been burned down and most of the piling destroyed. Staging and old planking are being torn down and the old waterlogged boats are being removed.

The Power Company has a gang clearing and levelling the back part where they will have transformers placed, so that within the next few weeks instead of the terrible collection of rubbish and waste material there will be a properly constructed transforming plant in respectable surroundings.

Raymond A. Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fisher, formerly of this city, is now identified with the staff of the University of Saskatchewan in Saskatoon.

Halibut Landings Lower For Week—Little Happenings of Prince Rupert's Mosquito Craft and People Along Waterfront

Halibut landings for the week were below the previous week's total, being 734,900 pounds compared with 805,000 pounds. American sales during the week amounted to 445,200 pounds, a decrease from the previous week of 79,500 pounds. Canadian boats showed an increase of 9,400 pounds above the previous week.

The best price obtained by American boats was 12.2c and 5c which the Glacier obtained on Tuesday for 8,000 pounds. The best Canadian price was 10.1c and 5c which several boats obtained.

American sales through this port for the year are now over the ten million pounds mark being 10,322,100 pounds. Canadian sales will likely pass the five million mark this week. The Canadian total is 4,738,200 pounds.

The waterfront habitues had a couple of little incidents to amuse them when the Prince Charles was docking on Thursday afternoon. It could be seen from the distance that the boat had a big cargo for she was lower down forward than aft. One facetiously suggested that by the time the deck load of salmon was all on board her propeller would be in the air. First of all one of the mooring lines fouled one of the pier booms and as the line was drawn tight the booms were rapidly elevated till it was taken off and was lowered again and released.

Then the stewards were anxious to gain time by unloading the soiled laundry. One made a bad shot and the bundle missed the wharf and landed on one of the booms at the bottom. Here later a steward could be seen retrieving the linen.

The Frank Waterhouse line is finding the big salmon run a profitable asset to their shipping. They have four or five boats chartered to handle the salmon from the canneries. These include the Prince Albert, the Granger and the Border Queen. Of these the Prince Albert has a rather interesting history. Formerly owned by the C. N. S. S. she was sold, and according to rumor was engaged in rum-running. Seized by the United States she was confiscated and sold. Rumor says she was bought back by the same rum-running interests again. Now, however, she is engaged in legitimate "fishy" business and is one of the boats serving the canneries on the Skeena by supplying cans and taking out the canned fish.

Captain Tait who was injured on the Border Queen some time ago, sustaining a fractured skull, is making a splendid recovery and the doctor is having difficulty in making him realize that he has had a bed accident and needs rest.

Several boats requiring repairs have kept N. McLean's Seal Cove slips busy. The Ethelda, formerly belonging to Wallace, but now owned by Wright and Hinton the surveyors, has had the hull practically rebuilt.

Repairs to the Cape Race which was in collision with a scow recently are about completed. The inside lining had to be replaced and the hull on the port side rebuilt. The engine bed was shifted by the impact and a new one has been put in.

While the repairs to the Union Oil Barge were being completed at the local dry dock the tug Pacific Foam was undergoing repairs at the McLean yards. The hull had been badly splintered and the tail shaft bushings damaged.

W. J. Kirkpatrick, of the Customs and Excise staff has been regaling his confreres with his experiences aboard the Prince Henry when he made the trip north on board the flagship of the northern waters. Kirk cannot speak too highly of the service on the boat, the exquisite fittings and luxurious accommodations. He is particularly enthusiastic in regard to the arrangements for informing the passengers of times of arrival and departure from the various ports called at, by means of the loud speakers that are in position in different strategic rooms on the boat.

While at Wrangell they experienced what the crew called a harbor storm and according to accounts it was bad enough, a high wind blowing and heavy seas running. The weather on the trip was not good. On the return voyage the announcement was made through the above mentioned loud speaker that there was a Canadian Customs officer on board who would make the necessary inspections and save trouble at Prince Rupert. This was received with mixed feelings. "What have we got to go through this all again and turn out everything?" was the remark of one lady who had probably had her baggage examined at Vancouver, at Ketchikan, and now again returning therefrom.

A trip past the mouth of the Skeena at night now is an interesting experience. It provides a visitor with a weird thrill. To all intents and purposes there is a city with a million lights stretched out over a very large area. The lights are of course those of the fishing boat and their floats. It has to be seen to be fully realized, but when one considers that there are 1100 boats in that river and then one tries to visualize the effect of them all with their dual lights he may get a faint idea of the beauty of the scene.

A trip through these nets is equally thrilling though not very restful. They provided a problem for the big boats. A channel is supposed to be left open for navigation but this is difficult when the tide is running strongly and carrying boats and gear swiftly with it. It reminded the writer of his first experience in the Ypres Salient in 1915 when in the front line we could not see any gaps in the ring of flares that lit up the country at night. How did we get in? How can we get out? There seems no end to the lights on the Skeena and it is easily understood why shipping at night in its estuary is a thing to be avoided.

Accommodation for their fishing gear is an important consideration with the fishermen during the winter and the Home Oil Distributors have recognized this in a practical way. They have just finished their shed 50 feet by 36 which is for the exclusive use of the fishermen during the close season. Already there is a quantity of gear under cover there.

Andrew Jansen skipper of the Alken who came in Wednesday with his boat is a patient in the local hospital. His many friends will be glad to see him around again.

Several repair jobs are occupying the pontoons at the dry dock at present. The Chuchona II which struck a rock is having a new fore-foot built and part of the hull is being replaced.

Another repair job is being started on the packer Fraga Nemus which was salvaged by the Helac II in Gunboat Passage. The CN which recovered from Kitkatla where she sank last May is also on the pontoons. There is considerable discussion regarding this sinking. On the port side forward below the waterline is a hole apparently responsible for the sinking of the boat. Much of the equipment and gear had been saved before the sinking as dishes and batteries were not found on board after the salvaging.

A major piece of work at the dry dock is the construction of the car barge for the C. N. R. similar to the one constructed here last year. Construction of this may be said to be well under way. The keel has been laid and the staging erected.

Another repair job at the dry dock is one of the Bushby scows which is badly holed under the waterline.
