Homesteaders to Enjoy Full Proceeds of Sale Timber on Property

Pattullo Would Have Gone Even Further Than Government in Concessions to Settlers of Province

VICTORIA, Feb. 15.—Obligation of homesteaders to pay the government all money derived from the sale of more than the statutory amount of timber on their holdings is removed by amendments to the Land Act given second readings in the legislature yesterday. Hon. F. P. Burden, minister of lands, explained that land some times had been thrown open to pre-emption but was discovered later to carry more timber than was at first known. Under VANCOUVER, Feb. 15.—Japanese fishermen in British Columbia waters north of the north end of Vancouver Island are permitted to use power boats in their salmon gill net operations and are thus put on an equal competitive plane with white and Indian fishermen in an order from the Department of Fisheries at Ottawa.

VICTORIA, Feb. 14.—The opposition amendment calling for investigation by a Royal Commission of the Norman Watt charges was defeated by a vote of 29 to 11. Unique Kumeleon Inlet Scene of Discovery of Non-Metallic Minerals

Ore Body Found by Resident Engineer on Brozat Property Interesting; Also Sillimanite

The only known deposits of emery in British Columbia may have been found on claims of Pete Brozat of this city in Kumeleon Inlet, in Grenville Channel, some fifteen or twenty miles south of Prince Rupert. While making an examination of the property, upon which Brozat was working in sulphides for gold and silver, Dr. J. T. Mandy, resident mining engineer, noticed a peculiar rock formation of bronzite in which were veins and streaks of emery which is a mixture of corundum and magnetite. No prospecting or work of any kind has as yet been carried out on these particular showings and, whether or not they are of commercial importance, will depend of course, on the grade and extent of the body. Dr. Mandy believes, however, that there may be a commercial opportunity.

Pure pieces are to be sent to Ottawa for analysis. The showings are located right on seaboard. The use of emery for manufacture of sharpening tools is, of course, known. There may also be an opportunity on the same property for other refractory minerals such as sillimanite, which is used in the making of fire brick. Sillimanite is believed to occur in association with the bronzite in this unique area.

In the general endeavor to find metal prospects in this district, Dr. Mandy believes that very good non-metallic opportunities have been neglected such as the phosphates of the Queen Charlotte Islands and the clays in other parts of the north.

TO INCREASE SHOW PRICES

This Will Have to Be Done if Government Gives No Relief, Theatre Officials State

VANCOUVER, Feb. 15.—"Theatre prices will be increased five per cent, the amount of the provincial amusement tax, generally, all over British Columbia and the old amusement tax tickets will be re-instituted unless the government can see its way clear to carry out the policy of the late government and grant some relief to theatres which are absorbing the tax," it was stated yesterday by J. R. Muir, manager for British Columbia of the Famous Players Canadian Corporation, Ltd.

SITUATION SUMMED UP

Something Has to Be Done With Regard To Salmon Fisheries, Gosse Declares

VICTORIA, Feb. 15.—"It is well known that there is depletion of salmon in British Columbia waters, that the fishermen are not making money, that the manufacturers are not making enough money, and that something has to be done," declared Richard Gosse, general manager of the British Columbia Packers, Ltd., before the fisheries committee of the legislature yesterday.

MORE DETAILS OF BARGE CASE

Though Charges Said to Have Been Made Against Island Man, He Got Month's Bonus

(Special to Daily News)
VICTORIA, Feb. 15.—Refusal was given on behalf of the government by Hon. Joshua Hinchcliffe in the legislature Thursday to T. D. Pattullo's motion for a disclosure of the complaints on which John L. Barge, sub-agent at Queen Charlotte City, had been dismissed and then subjected to an investigation. Mr. Pattullo's motion was defeated on an unrecorded party vote.

A. M. Manson, K.C., analyzed the evidence at the enquiry and contended that Mr. Barge had not been proven guilty of any serious offense. He joined Mr. Pattullo in appealing to Premier Tolmie to right "a nasty piece of injustice to a fine old pioneer settler committed on highly technical grounds."

Mr. Pattullo asked whether the government was aware of the charges against Mr. Barge before it dismissed him.

The premier said there was enough information on which to act.

"Then how did you come to pass an order-in-council giving him a month's pay two weeks after he was dismissed?" demanded the opposition leader.

Sensational Charges Involving Prominent Lawyer Are Laid by Chief of Police in Vancouver

VANCOUVER, Feb. 15.—Police Chief Bingham, appearing before the police commission yesterday, branded as "an absolute fake" the recent alleged holdup of W. F. Brougham, city barrister, when jewels worth $7500 were reported to have been taken. Bingham also charged that fourteen recent holdups here were fakes. When Mayor W. H. Malkin asked the chief yesterday about the Brougham case: "What is your opinion, chief?" the latter replied: "It is an absolute fake, sir."

Referring to reports of the police commission meeting, Brougham last night said: "Referring to reports in the press, I wish to say that they are in part incorrect and so twisted about as to entirely change the reports I made to the detectives. The police commission heard one side of the story only and I wish the opportunity to present my version of the incident either before the police commission or in court."

AIMS BLOW AT RUPERT

Alaskan Cities Ask For Duty on Frozen Halibut Going Into States From Canada

JUNEAU, Feb. 15.—The Chamber of Commerce here decided to ask Congress through Delegate Sutherland to place a duty of 5 cents a pound on frozen halibut from foreign countries entering the United States. This is following a similar resolution passed at Ketchikan and forwarded to Washington.

The resolution is chiefly aimed at the custom of fishermen selling their catches in Prince Rupert, where part of it is frozen and later shipped into United States large cities.

Ald. Theo Collart, chairman of the Prince Rupert-Peace River Outlet Association, has sent a letter to H. E. Pawson, assistant commercial manager of the Power Corporation of Canada at Montreal, acknowledging interest that has been taken by him in the endeavor to secure the Peace River outlet here. Says Ald. Collart's letter in part: "The committee and the people of this city feel that, with the help of an organization like the Power Corporation of Canada, the chances for securing the outlet for Prince Rupert are considerably increased."

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. A. Johnstone, arrived in port at 8:30 last evening from the south with a light passenger list and sailed at midnight on her return to Vancouver and way ports.

PUBLIC INQUIRY

We are inclined to think that when the inquiry is held into the dismissal of Norman Watt from the Government service it should be held in public. The public have heard so much about it in the Legislature during the past few days that they now feel they are entitled to more than an official report of a commissioner.

If the inquiry is held in Prince Rupert and the public are admitted, there will certainly be a considerable audience, for this whole question of the dismissal of public servants is very much in the public mind today and the feeling against it is very strong except for very good cause.

HEALTH INSURANCE

If health insurance should become an accomplished fact, a good deal of credit for it will be due to Dr. Wrinch of Hazelton, who has spent a good deal of time and effort making investigations and drawing attention to the need. While a measure of this kind needs very careful compiling, it may become a very useful institution and it is to be hoped the present Government will give it careful consideration, as they doubtless will.

MASQUERADE SUCCESSFUL

Fine Party Staged by Elks' Lodge Last Night With Big Crowd in Attendance

The masquerade dance held last night by the Elks' Lodge in the Elks' Home was a great success. There were 140 persons in costume and many interesting and novel garbs were to be seen among the dancers. In addition, there were many who came without special costumes.

Dancing was in progress from 9 p.m. until 2 a.m., and the Grand March at 11:30 was, of course, the feature of the proceedings. Mayor C. H. Orme, Mrs. L. M. Fuller and G. E. Guilek were the judges and they made the following awards:

Best dressed man—William May as "Don Juan."
Best dressed lady—Miss May Ne as "Pierrette."
Most comical ladies' costume—Miss Emmy Zarelli as "Sis Hopkins."
Most comical men's costume—William Jackson as "Tramp."
Most "original" costume—Doug Scott as "Saturday Night."
Find dance music was furnished by Charlie Balagno's five-piece orchestra. At 11 o'clock there was the Elks' service and, at midnight after the unmasking and judging, delicious refreshments were served. George Mitchell was master of ceremonies; Harvey Fraser officiated at the punch bowl; and D. Vance presided at the door. Novelties during the evening included an exhibition dance by Sam Joy and songs by the Elks' Harmonized led by Stan Moran. The committee responsible for the success of the proceedings consisted of George Mitchell, chairman, Mike Budinich and Will Lambie.

Needless Pain!

The man who wouldn't drive his motorcar half a mile when it's out of order, will often drive his brain all day with a head that's throbbing.

Such punishment isn't very good for one's nerves! It's unwise, and it's unnecessary. For a tablet or two of Aspirin will relieve a headache every time. So, remember this accepted antidote for pain, and spare yourself a lot of needless suffering. Read the proven directions and you'll discover many valuable uses for these tablets. For headaches; to check colds. To ease a sore throat and reduce the infection. For relieving neuralgic, neuritic, rheumatic pain.

People used to wonder if Aspirin might be harmful. The doctors answered that question years ago.

It is not. Some folks still wonder if it really does relieve pain. That's settled! For millions of men and women have found it does. To cure the cause of any pain you must consult your doctor; but you may always turn to Aspirin for immediate relief.

Restless Children

Children will fret, often for no apparent reason. But there's always one sure way to comfort a restless, fretful child. Castoria! Harmless as the recipe on the wrapper; mild and bland as it tastes. But its gentle action soothes a youngster more surely than some powerful medicine that is meant for the stronger systems of adults.

That's the beauty of this special children's remedy! It may be given the tiniest infant—as often as is any need. In cases of colic, diarrhea, or similar disturbance, it is invaluable. But it has everyday uses all mothers should understand. A coated tongue calls for a few drops to ward off constipation; so does any suggestion of bad breath. Whenever children don't eat well, don't rest well, or have any little upset—this pure vegetable preparation is usually all that's needed to set everything to rights. Genuine Castoria has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper. Doctors prescribe it.

"Now I Do Enjoy My Meals"

What a pleasure it is to sit down and eat a good, hearty meal without a premonition that there will be pain and discomfort in the process of digestion.

Chronic indigestion usually results from torpid liver and a consequently constipated condition of the bowels. Naturally, there are headaches and biliousness in many cases and much irritability and depressed feelings.

It is so easy to allow this condition to develop that almost before you know it you become a "dyspeptic."

But what a relief when you learn about Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and put them to a test. In a day or two you are feeling fine and soon you realize that you have discovered the most effective regulator of the liver, kidneys and bowels.

What many people call indigestion very often means excess acid in the stomach. The stomach nerves have been over-stimulated, and food sours. The corrective is an alkali, which neutralizes acids instantly. And the best alkali known to medical science is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained the standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. Each bottle contains full directions—any drugstore.

The SEVEN DIALS MYSTERY

INSTALLMENT XXXVIII

Alfred Gets Warning

The journey to London was without adventure, except such as was habitually provided by Bundle's driving. They left the car at a garage and proceeded direct to the Seven Dials Club.

The door was opened to them by Alfred. Bundle pushed her way past him without ceremony and Loraine followed.

"Oh, my lady!"

Alfred turned chalk white.

"I've come to warn you because you did me a good turn the other night," went on Bundle rapidly. "There's a warrant out for Mr. Mosgorovsky and the best thing you can do is to clear out of here as quick as you can. If you're not found here, they won't bother you. Here's ten pounds to help you get away somewhere."

In three minutes' time an incoherent and badly scared Alfred had left 14 Hunstanton Street with only one idea in his head—never to return.

"Well, I've managed that all right," said Bundle with satisfaction.

"Was it necessary to be so—well, drastic?" Loraine demurred.

"It's safer," said Bundle. "I don't know what Jimmy and Bill are up to, but we don't want Alfred coming back in the middle of it and wrecking everything. Hallo, here they are. Well, they haven't wasted much time. Probably watching around the corner to see Alfred leave. Go down and open the door to them, Loraine."

Loraine obeyed. Jimmy Thesiger alighted from the driving seat.

"You stop there for a moment, Bill," he said. "Blow the horn if you think any one's watching the place."

He ran up the steps and banged the door behind him. He looked pink and elated.

"Hallo, Bundle, there you are. Now then, we've got to get down to it. Where's the key of the room you got into last time?"

"It was one of the downstairs keys. We'd better bring the lot up."

"Right you are, but be quick. Time's short."

The key was easily found, the baize-lined door swung back and the three entered. The room was exactly as Bundle had seen it before, with the seven chairs grouped round the table. Jimmy surveyed it for a minute or two in silence. Then his eye went to the two cupboards.

"Which is the cupboard you hid in Bundle?"

"This one."

Jimmy went to it and flung the door open. The same collection of miscellaneous glassware covered the shelves.

"Out" but Not Dead

"We shall have to shift all this stuff," he murmured. "Run down and get Bill, Loraine. There's no need for him to keep watch outside any longer."

Loraine ran off.

"What are you going to do?" inquired Bundle impatiently.

Jimmy was down on his knees, trying to peer through the crack of the other cupboard door.

"Wait till Bill comes and you shall hear the whole story. This is his staff work—and a jolly creditable bit of work it is. Hallo—what's Loraine flying up the stairs for as though she'd got a mad bull after her?"

Loraine was indeed racing up the stairs as fast as she could. She burst in upon them with an ashen face and terror in her eyes.

"Bill—Bill—oh, Bundle—Bill!"

"What about Bill?"

Jimmy caught her by the shoulder.

"For God's sake, Loraine, what's happened?"

"Bill—I think he's dead—he's in the car still—but he doesn't move or speak. I'm sure he's dead."

Jimmy muttered an oath and sprang for the stairs. Bundle behind him, her heart pounding unevenly and an awful feeling of desolation spreading over her.

Bill—dead? Oh, no! Oh, no! Not that. Please God—not that.

Together she and Jimmy reached the car. Loraine behind them.

Jimmy peered under the hood. Bill was sitting as he had left him, leaning back. But his eyes were closed and Jimmy's pull at his arm brought no response.

"I can't understand it," muttered Jimmy. "But he's not dead. Cheer up, Bundle. Look here, we've got to get him into the house. Let's pray to goodness no policeman comes along. If any one says anything, he's our sick friend we're helping into the house."

Between the three of them they got Bill into the house without much difficulty, and without attracting much attention, save for an unshaven gentleman who said sympathetically:

"Gennenman's 'ad a couple, I see," and nodded his head sapiently.

"Into the little back room downstairs," said Jimmy. "There's a sofa there."

They got him safely onto the sofa and Bundle knelt down beside him and took his limp wrist in her hand.

"His pulse is beating," she said.

"What is the matter with him?"

"He was all right when I left him just now," said Jimmy. "I wonder if some one's managed to inject some stuff into him. It would be easily done—just a prick. The man might have been asking him the time. There's only one thing for it. I must get a doctor at once. You stay here and look after him."

He hurried to the door, then paused.

Lumberman Named Mayor of Grande Prairie in Peace

GRADE PRAIRIE, Feb. 15—R. A. McMillan, manager of the Frontier Lumber Co., has been elected mayor of Grande Prairie for the year 1934 by acclamation, no candidates having offered to oppose him. He succeeds William Sharpe, who was retired as chief magistrate after six years' good service.

ARREST DETAILS

Further Particulars in Connection
With Taking of Suspected
Counterfeiter

Further particulars have been received here of the arrest last Saturday night on a train westbound from Prince George of Nicolai Martynowicz, who is charged with having forged bank notes in his possession and to whom, it is believed, a valise containing nitro-glycerine, loaded revolvers, explosives and ammunition, which was found in the local baggage room this week, belonged.

The arrest of Martynowicz, who is a Russian-Pole and claims to be thirty-five years of age, was made by an officer on the train after he had presented suspicious looking currency to Conductor T. M. Spencer for payment of fare to Smithers. The man was taken from the train at Vanderhoof and returned to Prince George. He actually had no baggage with him, although the valise, found on another seat, was believed to have been his.

Martynowicz first was brought to police attention through the dropping on the street in Prince George of a Dominion of Canada one dollar note, and two pieces of white paper on which off-sets of the face and back of the note had been made. On the bank note and the printed paper there was a strong odor of something like lysol. The bank note had evidently been saturated in the lysol so that the printed colors were loosened sufficiently to transfer them to the white paper, making a very faint negative of the face and back of the bank note. The effect of the chemical was evident on the note, as the colors were somewhat bleached out of it.

The bank note and the two negatives of it were taken to Sergeant Service of the provincial police, with a description of the man who had dropped them, and the sergeant decided to look the man up and see what his specialty was. A watch was kept at the train to see if the suspect boarded it, and a plain-clothes man was a passenger to watch developments from that side.

Martynowicz slipped on the train, but omitted the formality of purchasing a ticket. The conductor was tipped off to the police move and given a description of Martynowicz. When he went through the train Martynowicz tendered him two five-dollar notes in payment for a passage to Smithers. The notes were genuine, but one of them had been faded out, and there was the same strong odor of lysol. The arrest of Martynowicz followed. He had very little money on his person but he had two Dominion one dollar notes which appeared to have been subjected to some unusual treatment, in addition to the five-dollar Canadian Bank of Commerce note which had been tendered to the conductor in payment of the fare.

SHE THOUGHT:
"Our first date—and our last."
Yet, to be polite,
SHE SAID:
"Wonderful picture! I'm glad we came."

A budding romance...almost shattered by "B.O."

(Body Odor)

THEIR first date! Bob was thrilled. Gladys, too—until she noticed "B.O."

Body Odor! She couldn't forgive that—even though it was a hot day.

Then Gladys had an idea. She asked her brother, who was Bob's closest friend, to tell him the truth. Today Bob and Gladys are engaged. He's not guilty of "B.O." now.

Perspiration stays odorless
A warm stuffy day—crowds—excitement. How quickly at such times does perspiration make us guilty of "B.O." We can't always tell when we offend, because we become insensitive to ever-present odors. But we can't avoid perspiring. Our pores give off as much as a quart of odor-causing waste daily.

Why risk embarrassment? Keep safe the delightful way millions know—Lifebuoy. Its refreshing, antiseptic lather deeply purifies all pores. After a Lifebuoy bath you actually feel the difference—a sparkling, wide-awake cleanliness that lasts. No fear of "B.O."

Complexions, too, stay fresh and smooth with Lifebuoy. It guards health—by removing germs. Lifebuoy's pleasant, extra-clean scent, which vanishes as you rinse, tells you it purifies. Adopt Lifebuoy today.

WATERFRONT WHIFFS

Still Battling With Halibut Question; Police Boat Under Discussion; Spring Salmon Scarce

Fisheries experts representing both Canada and the United States are still baffled by the origin of one of the coast's most valuable commercial fish, the halibut. Thousands of dollars have been spent on experimental work and observation, but the experts themselves admit that so far they have only touched the fringe of the mystery. For several years scientists have patrolled the coast in government vessels under charter to the International Fisheries Commission and have engaged in "tagging" operations. Live halibut have been taken from the water, a metal tag fixed to them and then returned to the sea. Subsequent catches give the commission valuable data as records are kept of the tags and the numbers stamped on them, so that it has become possible to check up fairly accurately on the halibut's movements from season to season. The theory generally held by the experts is that the halibut lay their larvae on the banks off the west coast of Vancouver Island and further north, off the Queen Charlotte Islands and the Alaskan coast. One of the most difficult problems is the supposed drift of the larvae from the banks to other areas of the sea with the result that it has been impossible to apply restrictive fishing measures with a view to conservation with certainty of effect. Depletion of the halibut banks constitutes one of the gravest problems faced by the fishing industry in the North Pacific.

Provincial politicians, seeking all they may devour in the way of embarrassing questions, have picked on Prince Rupert's very own police boat P. M. L. 8, which local police officers are so very proud or are supposed to be if they are not. Votes and proceedings of the House divulge some information about the P. M. L. 8 which proves of interest. The questions regarding the vessel were asked by that doughty Caledonian Grit, Ian Mackenzie, who must have had his ear to the water this time instead of to the proverbial ground. The questions were answered by the learned attorney-general, who has to know a little, if not a lot, about everything now, including gas boats, and the less he knows about those, the happier he will probably be. The facts of the matter are, as stated by Mr. Pooley in his answers, the cost of the P. M. L. 8 was $16,370.06, tenders were called for the building of the boat, a 75 h.p. Fairbanks-Morse reversible engine was installed, the engine being supplied by the contractor on the specifications calling for a 75 h.p. diesel engine of approved make.

Fish freezing has been receiving considerable attention in Australia and experiments have been made with the Ottesen brine freezing process and air frozen fish. The Australian board found that the brine frozen fish was superior to air frozen fish, especially if same had been glazed before placing in storage. Even after 12 months storage brine frozen fish cooked could not be distinguished from fresh fish in appearance and flavor.

Try Out New Boat

A 22-foot clinker built runabout built at the floats of the Pacific Salvage Co. here was given its trial runs on Thursday and functioned well. The boat is equipped with a 12 h.p. Ford engine and is to be used by Power Corporation of Canada officials in making trips between the city and the Falls River power house.

All is pretty well in readiness for the opening of the 1930 halibut season and, by March 1, when the various fleets have mutually agreed to start fishing operations, most of the boats should be on the banks. It is likely that much if any fish will be landed until March 1, although fishing legally opens today, unless it should be a small amount of halibut coming from nearby waters and going on the local retail market.

T. Machida of Mill Bay has had registered a new fishing boat Irene May which he built on the Naas River. The vessel is 43.8 feet in length, with 13.2 feet beam, and is equipped with a Fairbanks-Morse full diesel engine. The owner of the boat is T. Uyeda of Mill Bay.

Repair is proceeding at the drydock of Flewin & Brown's fish packer Taplow II, on which considerable damage was done last week when the vessel broke away from anchorage at Port Simpson and drifted on to rocks of Birnie Island, about two miles distant. The owners are congratulating themselves that the vessel was not a total loss, as she might easily have been under such circumstances. As it is, it should not take more than two or three weeks to make repairs and have her back in service again. Meantime, they have their old boat Taplow I, available should it be necessary to make use of some vessel.

Salmon Falling Off

After a rather good run for a week or so just after Christmas, spring salmon are reported to be scarce again in waters of this district. It is very few, if any, of these luscious fish that have been brought in during the past few weeks. However, trollers should soon be getting busy again. There is a ready market for the mouths of most everyone are beginning to water now for fresh fish.

Herring have been running strong in Pearl Harbor, near Port Simpson, during the past week. The harvest continues to be made for the halibut store of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. and the reduction plant of the Rupert Marine Products Ltd. Both plants this week have had all the fish they could handle. The Cold Storage has now put up about one quarter of its objective of 1600 tons.

Dining Fishermen

Saturday night, February 22, is the date now decided upon for Ketchikan to officially welcome the return of the halibut fleet, as the men of the fleet have requested that the Commercial Club banquet and dance be given on that date. Arrangements have been made for the banquet to be held at the Blue Fox Cafe, and will be followed by the annual "fishermen's ball," which will be given at the Red Men's Hall. Because of the fact that the fishermen asked that the celebration be on February 22 the Red Men's lodge at Ketchikan decided not to go ahead with its plans for the Washington's birthday dance, given annually by the lodge. There is no record of the lodge ever before cancelling this affair on any occasion for any organization.

W. E. Willisroft, having resigned recently from the City Hall staff, has now joined the navigation staff of the Pacific Salvage Co. here. He made a couple of trips for the company this week as skipper of the P. M. L. 2. There should be no question about Bill making good on the new job, for there is no mariner hereabouts more seasoned or better acquainted with the waters of this part of the coast than he.

Pacific Salvage Co.'s power vessel Salvage Princess, Capt. Frank Tyler, made a trip on Wednesday to Gibson Island, taking there a party of four or five men who will be engaged in development work on the Cole and Keys copper and zinc mineral claims which have been optioned by Smelters.

The Salvage Princess returned on Monday from Georgia River, having in tow the Georgia River Gold Mining Co.'s power cruiser Overseas which struck a rock recently and was subsequently beached. Repair work on the Overseas II is to be carried out at the Salvage dock. Her forefoot, keel and sternpost were torn and planking on both sides will have to be renewed. The engine and ignition system will also have to be overhauled following the vessel's immersion.

The power tug Pachena has been making a number of trips to the Skeena River this week for gravel to be used by Mitchell & Currie, the contractors, in connection with the building of the new annex here to the fisheries experimental station at the foot of McBride Street. Despite unfavorable weather conditions, good progress is being made

New Boat Launched

The launching took place from the McLean yard at Seal Cove on Wednesday of Olof Andreasson's new halibut boat which is to be named Gony. Good time is being made on the construction of this vessel and she will be ready for service not long after the opening of the fishing season. She is fifty feet long and is being equipped with a 36 h.p. Rap engine.

E. Davidson, well known in local fishing circles as dock foreman for the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co., will be leaving toward the end of March for a six months' trip to his native home in Scotland on which he will be accompanied by Mrs. Davidson and little daughter. It will be Mr. Davidson's first visit home since landing in Prince Rupert seventeen years ago and his first real holiday during the thirteen years he has been identified with the service of the Cold Storage. They will travel over via the Panama Canal, embarking aboard their steamer at Vancouver for the long trip. Mr. Davidson's many friends will wish him a pleasant journey and a good holiday.
