Strike Call is Issued to Four Million Coal Miners

Meeting between operators and men at Philadelphia having failed acting president Lewis sent out order to drop tools October 31.

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
Indianapolis, October 16.—John J. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, yesterday issued a strike call for midnight October 31, when 4,000,000 miners employed in the bituminous coal mines throughout the country will drop their picks and shovels and take a rest, unless there is a settlement in the meantime.
Representatives of the miners and operators met in Philadelphia last week but failed to reach an understanding.
The general opinion is that the long time given before the strike goes into effect is a hopeful feature. Many things may happen in two weeks and in the meantime every effort will be made to secure a settlement. The tying up of the coal mines at this time of year means a fuel famine and the men know that they have chosen the time for a strike when it is likely to be most effective.
Washington, October 16. (Noon).—The strike of bituminous coal miners which is called for November 1 will catch the railroads with ten days' supply of coal, according to data before the Senate coal investigating committee.
Industries throughout the United States will be paralyzed a month after the coal strike goes into effect, government experts estimated today.

COOK CHARGES A BOYCOTT BY PRODUCE MEN

Vancouver Parson Gives Evidence Before Cost of Living Inquiry Regarding Water Street Combine.
(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
Vancouver, Oct. 16.—Quoting length from statements made in examinations for discovery in results of Chess Bros. vs. Oppenheimer, and Chess Bros. vs. McCr., Rev. A. E. Cook contended the cost of living inquiry that sufficient evidence had been given to show that a combine exists among Water Street wholesalers and that this "king" held a boycott over one firm of produce dealers on the street.
The firm of Chess Bros. was not a member of the Vancouver Produce Association.
While Mr. Cook said he did not charge that there had been wholesale destruction of foodstuffs for consumption, he did maintain that produce was held for higher prices until it had become unfit for food.

WAR VETERANS ELECT OFFICERS

Simon Duff is President for Next Half Year.
The semi-annual meeting of the Great War Veterans' Association was held in the rooms last evening. The meeting was well attended, the most important business being the election of officers for the present half-year. All the officers with the exception of the secretary-treasurer ship were keenly contested.
It was decided to amalgamate the offices of secretary and treasurer and the officer elected will also attend to the canteen and spend all his time in the office, which opens at 11 o'clock in the mornings. The following is the result of the election of officers:
Honorary President, Col. Cyrus W. Peck, M. P., V. C.
Honorary Vice-President, Capt. J. McGregor, V. C.

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING DISCUSSED

National Industrial Conference Trying to Induce Conference To Agree on Question.
(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
Washington, October 16.—Despite the declarations by the employers' delegates that they never would approve intervention in the steel strike and the insistent demands from the same group that the labor arbitration proposal be disposed of definitely, the National Industrial Conference voted as an assembly today to defer action on the labor plan pending an effort by the central committee of fifteen to agree on the question of collective bargaining.

CARPENTERS DEMAND A DOLLAR INCREASE

Meeting Last Night Decides to Bring Wages up to Level of Vancouver.
The Carpenters' Union held a meeting in their hall last evening. There was a large attendance and several new members were received. These new members, several of whom came from Vancouver and other cities in the south, reported that the wages being paid for carpenters in the south is higher than those paid here. The carpenters are receiving $7 a day and upwards there, while the wage prevailing here is $6 per day.
The Union decided unanimously last evening to demand $7 a day in this city after November 15. This, they said, they considered fair in view of the same being paid in Vancouver. The date was set a month ahead in order to give contractors plenty of time to prepare for the increase.
This demand for an increase was the most important feature of the meeting, although there was considerable routine business attended to.

ASQUITH DESCRIBES PRESENT GOVERNMENT

HARD WORK COUNTS IN DAILY NEWS PRIZE CONTEST NOW UNDER WAY

Hard work is what counts in the Daily News Prize Contest. The canvasser cannot afford to lose any opportunity of getting busy. While there are three prizes, it is the first that is most attractive and the hard and persistent worker is the one that is likely to get it.
It must be remembered that out of town subscribers are just as easy to get as those in the city. Anyone having time to visit nearby points cannot fail to get results. Sometimes friends will secure subscriptions at outlying points, or work can be done through the mails. It does not matter how the points are secured so long as the records are turned in promptly and regularly.

MAYNARD LEADS ALL AVIATORS

Half Way Across Continent on Return Trip—Death Toll Stands at 9.

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
Chicago, Oct. 16.—Lieut. Maynard, the leading transcontinental flier, is almost half way across the continent on his return trip. Through the snowstorms yesterday he made 136 miles in 56 minutes and another 93 mile dash in 33 minutes.
The death toll as a result of the race today stands at 9, with 39 pilots still in the contest.
Maynard Falls.
Omaha, Nebraska, October 16, 1:30 p. m.—Maynard, the flying parson, was forced down by a broken crank shaft at Wahoo, Nebraska, 30 miles west of here. Maynard was unhurt.
New York, Oct. 16.—All west-bound fliers are held by bad weather. Major Spatz at Rochester will probably not resume his flight until tomorrow.

RATIONING IN BRITAIN

Many Canadians Who are Overseas Would Come Home But no Ships.

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
Ottawa, Oct. 16.—The department of immigration and colonization has received a cable warning from England that thousands of Canadians are anxious to come home but are unable to secure passage for at least six months. When the cable was sent rationing had been resorted to. The weekly allowance was: butter, one ounce; sugar, six ounces; coal, one hundred pounds, and meat, forty cents worth.

AGRICULTURE TO BE ENCOURAGED IN GREAT BRITAIN

London, Oct. 14.—Agriculture is to be encouraged by the state in this country. A policy is being considered that will, it is expected, be brought before parliament in the near future.

MANITOBA UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT INSTALLED

FRENCH ARE NOW OUT AFTER PROHIBITION

WAR TO PEACE

London, Oct. 15.—A powerful fire extinguisher has been made from a German flame throwing device used in trench warfare.

Opening Skirmish Over Grand Trunk

House divides over going into committee and Government sustained by a majority of twenty.

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
Ottawa, October 16.—The opening skirmish in what promises to develop into a general engagement of some duration between the Government and opposition in the House of Commons over the Government's Grand Trunk resolution "that consideration of the resolution be taken up in committee" took place in the House to a motion made right after the House met.
Liberals raised objections and immediately divided the House. The Government won the first round with a majority of 20, the vote for the motion standing at 58 to 38. Many members were absent and the Government had to call its supporters who were sitting in committees to get the number of votes it did.

In committee the discussion did not take the form of a set debate but developed into a quest for information. Many questions were asked and answered. Apparently the Liberals were feeling their way and endeavored to lay the groundwork for speeches when the principles of the Government's proposals are discussed on the second reading of the bill.
The question of the nationalization of railways was not broached. It is thought probable that a development in the situation as reviewed today, would be the moving by the opposition of a six months' hoist at a later stage of the discussion.

WAR MEMORIAL STATEMENT

The financial report for the past half year ending September 30 and the memorial account was received by the semi-annual meeting of the G. W. V. A. The General Account of the Association's finances shows a balance on hand of $146.51. ## SITE CHOSEN FOR DRYDOCK AT ESQUIMALT

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
Victoria, October 16.—As a result of the negotiations lasting several weeks, Skinner's Cove, Esquimalt, has been selected as the site for the new Federal drydock.
Esquimalt is about four miles from Victoria and is the headquarters for the Canadian Naval department on this coast. It was formerly a British Government naval station for the North Pacific.

CHIEF MINING CENTRE IN NORTHERN B. C.

That is What E. E. Campbell Says of Stewart.

E. E. Campbell, mine manager at Anyox, was the chief speaker at the recent meeting of the North Coast branch of the Mining Institute held at Stewart a few days ago.

He pointed out the reawakened interest in the Portland Canal district, and he looked for this to be an exceptional camp. While it was not generally known, he said, the Granby Hidden Creek mine was the biggest copper mine in the British Empire. The Dolly Varden at Alice Arm was a fine property in a splendid section, and he looked for big things here. In fact, in regard to this district Mr. Campbell said during his address in the evening: "I am not given to making prophecies, but I prophesy that Stewart will become the chief mining centre in northern British Columbia. I travelled all over the northwest from Washington to Alaska when I was in the field for Granby and I never saw a district that has the potential possibilities that this has."

BORDEN MUST HAVE A PROLONGED REST

CARPENTERS' WAGES

Why We Said Railway Had Been Acquired.

Someone inquires how we said the Canadian Government had acquired the Grand Trunk Railway when the matter of taking over the line was still being discussed in parliament and the change being strongly opposed.

Anyone who asks a question of that kind does not fully understand the method of government in this country. The Canadian Cabinet has decided to take over the line. In all probability they have discussed the question beforehand in a private caucus of the members of the party in Parliament. At any rate they have confidence that their action will be supported by Parliament or they would not have committed themselves to so important a measure. Should Parliament decide not to complete the deal, there would be nothing for the Government to do but resign.

The Liberal party has decided to oppose the transfer of the railway. If they can show the House of Commons that they are right and can induce them to vote according to their convictions the measure will be defeated. As they have already been consulted and have made up their minds, there is hardly any possibility for a change of policy now.

There is one other possibility in connection with an important measure such as this. If the country was very strongly opposed to it, meetings would be called and resolutions passed requesting the Government to stay its hand. Delegations might go to Ottawa to protest and the newspapers might howl in big headlines. Should it be shown that these objections were from the country as a whole and not only from the opposition party, the Government would be justified in backing down or the Governor might well refuse to sign the bill after it was passed.

Many Opposed to Government Policy.

In accepting the fact that the deal has been made, the Daily News had no intention of agreeing with the policy. On more than one occasion we expressed the opinion that it would be well to try out the experiment of government ownership of a transcontinental railway with the Canadian Northern which has been already acquired. We must admit, however, that the Government was in a difficult position. It could not allow the railway to shut down, as was proposed by the Company and the feeling is strong against paying the deficit year after year. A strong government with a wise leader might have evolved a policy, but the present leaders have not shown any flashes of brilliance and there seems nothing to do but accept the inevitable.

Businessmen Pleased With Prospect Here.

A businessman who was in the city yesterday with the purpose of deciding whether his firm would open here, said that the town looked very good to him and he intended to recommend favorably. He said that compared with towns of five to six thousand on the prairies there seemed just as much doing here, and there was much less danger of a poor crop than on the prairies. He said that he had noticed the large number of fruit stores and, fruit being a perishable commodity, it had to be sold. The stores would not be in business unless they were selling the product.

PRINCE RUPERT IS CITY OF DISTINCTION

So Says Well Known Writer Who Was Here Recently, in an Article in the Toronto Globe.

An article on Prince Rupert appeared a few days ago in the Toronto Globe under large headlines and signed with the initials S. J. D. These initials stand for Sarah Jeannette Duncan, the writer of novels and movie plays, and that lady is better known here as Mrs. E. C. Cotes, whose husband is the owner of the new block where the Teetzel music store is located, and who is now travelling with the Prince of Wales throughout Canada and the United States with a party of journalists.

The Adventure.

The article which is interesting throughout, is in part as follows: "In Prince Rupert we find the answer to the question that holds the mind all the way from Winnipeg, perhaps from Toronto, stirring uneasily under the matchless beauty of the journey, the comfort of the train, the civility of the service, the persistent prosaic question whether the great adventure was worth while. That is the character that clings to it, with its romantic name. Thrust out to battle with the winds of the Pacific, as Vancouver was once thrust out, the little city has a challenging air, as one who would say to depreciators: 'Have at you!' Prince Rupert is a seated city, not a perched, or a clinging one, or one that sprawls untidily into slums. Already, while she is the merest clever sketch of what she will be, that gives her a dignity.

A City of Distinction.

"High on the sheer face of her harbor, she has not an accidental nor an unplanned line. The brilliantly able town-planners of Boston, who were finally chosen to shape her personality, used the originality of her natural position to give her a distinction which she can never lose, and her taxpayers a yearly bill which they cannot lose either. But there are certain things that cannot be had for nothing, and doubtless the people of Rupert, when they vote the repairs of their trestled roadways, think of this. Plank walks are the rule in the West that is being born under the shadow of the spruce, but Rupert is more extensively and luxuriously planked than concrete minds could dream. The forest has literally laid itself down in her service and for miles the town is served with broad timbered roads and bridges over which the grocer's flivver dashes gaily, and the pedestrian goes dry shod in any weather. As the city prospers this temporary condition is changing and several of the main streets are now filled up in the ordinary way, but it has lasted long enough to establish the motor rather than the horse for private and the auto-bus for public transit. Rupert will probably never suffer the rigid indignity of street car lines or the hideous noise of their warning gongs. She will move delicately instead on her own gasoline, both ashore and afloat. For whatever the competition of her streets and avenues, Prince Rupert's Mall will always be her harbor.

A Beautiful Harbor.

"Clear and deep, and a mile across, island-dotted and mountain guarded, this harbor is one of the most beautiful thoroughfares in the world. The summer evening life of the city is all there. The opulent citizen of Rupert may possess a motor car, he will certainly possess a gasoline launch.

And there is more than a hint of Venice in the sight when one looks out across the sun-set water, cleft with the long following lines of the little pleasure boats among the incoming fishing craft or the passenger steamer from Vancouver and Alaska. The harbor is vocal too. All day long it speaks to the city with one or another well-remembered voice, and the inhabitants say 'That's the "John,"' or 'That's the "Mary,"' All sorts of craft on all sorts of business—bringing up pulp from Swanson Bay, lumber from Ocean Falls, to load for the East. Among them the other day a leviathan of 8,800 tons built in Vancouver for the coasting trade, the 'War Company.' No doubt Rupert went down five thousand strong to look at the 'War Company' in dock, while in imagination they tweaked the noses, so to speak, of the great Oriental traders that will one day, and that soon, warp themselves alongside.

Impudent Siren.

"There is a general note of hope and defiance in the harbor. Its most lively expression is emitted by the impudent siren of a little common carrier named the 'Alice B.' 'O-hy-O!' shrills the Alice B., entering or departing. 'You can't deny shipping to a harbor like this, O-hy-O!'"

Tobacco prices have taken another upward jump. Fifteen-cent cigarettes are now retailing for twenty cents or two for thirty-five cents.

CANCELLATION OF RESERVE

VICTORIA'S MAYOR VISITS THIS CITY

Returning From Prince of Wales' Banquet, He Speaks appreciatively of the Trip.

Mayor Porter of Victoria who spent yesterday in the city, went south last evening on the Camosun. He is returning from a visit to Winnipeg where he attended the Prince of Wales' banquet.

Mr. Porter was much interested in Prince Rupert and its future. The scenery and accommodation on the G. T. P. appealed to him strongly and he says that next summer he intends to bring his wife and make a trip through the country and see everything.

Speaking of the political contest in Victoria, Mr. Porter said it was surprising what opposition was developing to the candidature of Hon. S. F. Tolmie. Personally Dr. Tolmie was popular but he was being opposed because of his associations. "If there had been a strong local candidate he would have found it difficult to secure re-election," said Mr. Porter. As it is Mr. Barnard is a stranger to Victoria people and can hardly succeed.

TRAFALGAR DAY IS NAVY LEAGUE TAG

Daughters of the Empire to Aid Local Organization in Making Collection for Sailors.

The Navy League has enlisted the services of the local Daughters of the Empire to aid them in making a collection for the funds of the League on Trafalgar Day, which is Tuesday of next week.

The idea of the fund is to help train boys for the navy, to look after dependents of the tars who fight the battles of the country and to help keep up the various Seamen's Institutes and other organizations which cater to the needs of the sailors when in port. The local organization has J. H. McMullen for president and E. H. Mortimer for secretary-treasurer.

OFFICE BUILDING FOR ALBERT & M'CAFFERY

The new office building for Albert & McCaffery at their wharf is nearing completion. The building is about 20 ft. by 30 ft. and will cost in the neighborhood of $2,500. It is two storeys in height and the main floor will be used for a very commodious office while the upper floor will be used as living quarters for the office staff.

Mitchell & Currie, the builders, are about finished with their work and the painters are now working on the building. When completed it will be very attractive and will be of ample size to handle the business which is rapidly increasing.

Sport Briefs

Vancouver sporting men have in view the construction of a six-sheet rink there. Such a rink would accommodate 200 persons and it is expected that the capital stock will be readily subscribed. There seems to be more interest than ever being taken in curling and other winter sports in Vancouver.

A new world's record for the 100 mile motorcycle race was established at Los Angeles last Saturday when Albert Burns of that city did the distance in one hour and 6 minutes.

The Grand Trunk Railway Baseball Club of Belleville, Ont., are the champions of the Ontario Amateur Baseball Association. They won the title in a game played before 5,000 people when they defeated the Harvester team of Hamilton.

The Montreal Shamrocks won the championship of the National Lacrosse Union when they defeated Cornwall last Saturday.

Visitors arriving on the north-bound boat yesterday were Major General Sir E. W. B. Morrison, K.C., M.C., and Brigadier General McNaughton. They did not go north on the Prince George, neither did they go east on the railway.

A building permit has been issued to Wah Lee for $170 addition to his building on Third Ave. West.

MINING MAN AND NEW WIFE WELL RECEIVED

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stewart Given Royal Welcome After Being Married in this City.

Welcomed by the whole town, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stewart returned from Prince Rupert on Thursday's boat, the occasion being their marriage, says the Port-land Canal News. On Thursday night more than a score of the business men and old-timers of the camp participated in an old-fashioned charivari party, which welcomed the newly-weds to come and let the party in. Mr. Stewart made a happy speech, in which he renewed his numerous and everlasting predictions as to the future of the camp, for he is among the earliest pioneers. There were numerous speeches of welcome, in which Mr. Stewart heard many kind references to his sterling character, his energy and perseverance from the days of the boom through all the lean years of the camp.

Next to William Noble, who introduced him here a short time, "Jack" Stewart is the pioneer of the camp, having come to this section in 1902. All of his interests are wrapped up in Stewart and he has lived here practically ever since, and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will continue to reside here.

With his brothers, Mr. Stewart started the Stewart Land Company, owners of the townsite; the Stewart Trading Co., the Stewart Mining Co., and other enterprises in the early days of the camp, and it is a tribute to their business ability that all of these concerns weathered the lean years and years of mining camp adversity.

The bride is a charming lady from Edinburgh, Scotland, Miss May Macan, and her marriage in Prince Rupert was the culmination of a romance extending over several years. The marriage could have been consummated long ago were it not for the war. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Grant, of Prince Rupert, shortly after the arrival of the bride. She made the long journey from her home in Scotland and was more than happy to be welcomed comfortably in the home of the Stewarts on Sixth Street.

MUSIC AND CHURCHES

Our Daily News:—It is unfortunate that the president of the Prince Rupert Musical Society to give the public chance to hear a better class of music should be the means of starting a controversy as to the value of the church and music. Both fill a need in the community and one is indeed a grow minded who finds it necessary to belittle either of them in championing the cause of the other. Most of your correspondents seem to think this necessary in presenting their arguments properly. Your unfortunate editorial on Wednesday was unnecessarily so.

Let us have good music by all means, on Sunday or any other day, but let us not make the mistake of sacrificing our religious life for the enjoyment of our ultimate pleasure and relaxation. In this age of liberal ideas we have a different conception of Sabbath than our fathers had. Christianity means more than going to church on Sunday. Yet if we were not for our churches and our unselfish devotion of our pastors and priests under the most discouraging conditions, how long would our boasted civilization stand. We owe a great debt to them and if instead of belittling their efforts and calling attention to their shortcomings, we would join our efforts to theirs possibly we would be able to create an interest in ourselves and so recognize their true value. Sneering at the lack of interest of the people towards "the long sermons and prayers" is a confession of failure to understand the real purpose of the church. Spiritual nourishment comes through a sincere and receptive state of mind and heart of the worshiper and is not solely dependant on the length of the prayers and sermons, nor the elaborate music which oft times makes possible a popular concert under the guise of public worship.

Sunday is a day of rest and the Lord's day. It is given to us for the purpose of religious devotion and physical and mental relaxation. The neglect of our religious duties is a thing apart from innocent rest and amusement. The enjoyment of nature's innumerable beauties and lessons as well as fine music is conducive to a healthful state of mind whether enjoyed on Sunday or any other day of the week and cannot possibly desecrate the Sabbath.

Among our returned soldiers there are thousands of practical farmers. Still other thousands are studying farming under Canada's supervision, by hiring out to farmers, and by taking courses in agricultural colleges. These men want to "go on the land," but they have no capital. So, through the medium of the Soldiers' Land Settlement Act, Canada says to them "If you are fully qualified to farm, I will lend you money to purchase land, stock and implements. You may pay it back within a stated time, and for the loan of it, I will charge you only a moderate rate of interest."

Canada makes this offer, not only because men who have fought deserve well of their country, but because it is of prime importance that more land should be cultivated.

The love of outdoor life and the resourcefulness of our soldier citizens are just the qualities to make them successful farmers, and upholders of the best Canadian tradition.

As evidence of the value of the Land Settlement Act, the following figures were available on August 15:—

Number of applications from soldiers.....	29,495
Number of applications investigated and approved (not all placed).....	22,281
Number of soldiers actually farming this year.....	9,043
Average amount of loan to each soldier.....	$2,960
Total amount of loans.....	$26,767,304
Average size of farm.....	160 acres
Total amount of homestead lands—that is, virgin soil placed under cultivation.....	1,000,000 acres

This million acres was divided among 3,768 soldiers, 160 acres each being the original allotment; but 2,512 soldiers availed themselves of the privilege open to all soldier-homesteaders to obtain an additional 160 acres, making their allotment 320 acres each.

In addition to a million acres of virgin soil already placed under cultivation, more than 6,000 other farms are now being worked, many of which would have been less productive if returned soldiers had not taken them over.

It is just as true to-day as it was before the war that big crops favourably marketed mean general prosperity for Canada.

The more wheat and farm products Canada grows and sells, the more money will be spread through all classes of the community. Not only the farmer, but the merchant, the manufacturer, the industrial wage earner and the professional man will benefit.

Here is where YOU come in.
