Burke and Mechanic Emil Kading in an Air Land Manufacturing Co.'s commercial plane, is a noted pioneer of the north country. Better known as "Three Finger" Bob Martin, he is particularly well known in the Stewart and Alice Arm camps where he had interests years ago. When the plane in which he was travelling became lost, Mr. Martin was on his way to Liard to consult his partner, Oscar Anderson, who owns a trading post there, regarding a quartz proposition he had uncovered recently in the Atlin district.

ARDUOUS FLIGHT

Pilot Dorbrandt Reaches Telegraph Creek In Search For Capt. Burke

The Government Telegraphs reported last night that Pilot Frank Dorbrandt, American flyer, who is to conduct an aerial search in the Liard River Valley for Capt. E. J. A. Burke, missing-Atlin commercial flyer, reached Telegraph Creek at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon after an arduous five-hour flight from Hazelton. Dorbrandt hopped off from Hazelton at 12 noon yesterday and battled heavy snows for the most of the flight. So thick did the weather become over the Yukon Telegraph Line which Dorbrandt had intended to follow, that it was necessary to make a wide detour toward Stewart.

It is Dorbrandt's intention, today if possible, to make a non-stop flight from Telegraph Creek into the Liard River valley and return.

Pilot Dorbrandt was held up at Telegraph Creek today by a severe blizzard and it was uncertain as to when he might be able to hop off again. It is now understood that he may fly to Atlin after his trip through the Liard River valley instead of returning to Telegraph Creek as had been originally intended.

INQUEST IS BEING HELD

Circumstances of Death of Chinaman Thursday Night to Be Probed By Jury

An inquest was opened yesterday afternoon before Coroner C. L. Monroe into the circumstances of the death of Seto Dib, 45-year old Chinaman, who died yesterday morning in the Prince Rupert General Hospital after having been struck the night before on Second Avenue by an automobile driven by Cecil Rose who is charged with manslaughter. After the jury had viewed the body, the inquest was adjourned until Monday.

The jury consists of W. Vaughan Davies, George Hill, J. A. Dindsay, H. B. Rochester, G. H. Munro and D. C. McRae.

Seto Dib, the dead Chinaman, had lived in this district for nearly twenty years and for many years conducted a restaurant at Smithers. Business becoming quiet there, he closed up the place and came to Prince Rupert. Since then and up till just recently, he had cooked in the Rex Cafe.

Quitting his job in the Rex Cafe Seto had intended to go back to Smithers last Wednesday in connection with his business interests there but a friend had induced him to stay over and go to the interior with him in a few days.

The late Seto Dibb, who is survived by a widow and two grown up children in China, has a cousin Seo Chuck, who is identified with the staff of the Hazelton Hospital at Hazelton.

The funeral will take place tomorrow under the auspices of a local Chinese society.

BERLIN, Oct. 25.—The Hamburg-American steamer Baden reported to the home offices today that 18 persons aboard it were killed or wounded yesterday when a shell from Fort Chaopachana hit the ship as it was attempting to leave Rio de Janeiro Harbor for Buenos Ayres. Most of the casualties were Spanish immigrants bound for the Argentine. It was stated that the Brazilian revolutionary authorities alleged that they had intended the shot merely as a warning and it had hit the ship accidentally.

Leaving Telegraph Creek late in September, the young couple covered the 250 miles to Atlin in 16 days despite approaching winter, resting three days with sore feet.

Last summer the couple left California. They undertook the long hike from Prince George to Atlin despite the warning of veteran foresters who thought they would never be able to make it.

REPORT IS INCORRECT

Hanson Company Is Not Shutting Down Entirely By Any Means

While activity has been greatly curtailed, even to the extent of leaving only the men necessary to guard their interests, there is little if any substance to a report published last week in a district paper to the effect that the Hanson Timber & Lumber Co. had closed down tight. Certainly there was no foundation for the statement that the office in Smithers was included in the shutdown. The Smithers office is open as usual and key men are also being retained on the payroll.

With the company's assembly yards, however, filled with close to 100,000 poles, all operations in the woods have been suspended entirely until shipping orders are effective in reducing the mountains of poles at Cedarvale and Nash. A large percentage of the stock on hand has already been contracted for but eastern companies are experiencing a decided slump in business and, with their private yards filled to capacity, they are withholding shipping instructions.

May Build New Church Soon In Business Section

He added that the report "looks far too much like a breach of national faith."

CZAR IS MARRIED

Princess Giovanni of Italy Becomes Bride of King Boris of Bulgaria Today

ASSISSI, Italy, Oct. 25.—Princess Giovanni of Italy and Czar Boris III of Bulgaria were married this morning in the Church of St. Francis. Their parents, other royal figures of Europe and Premier Benito Mussolini were among the distinguished gathering which witnessed the ceremony.

Heavy rain drenched many of the spectators. As Princess Giovanna, attired in beautiful white, stepped from her coach on to the red carpeted platform, a heavy drizzle commenced. At the Basilica's portal, an umbrella was held over the princess but a sudden burst of rain caught her and wet her dress badly. Some of the highest royal figures of Europe, not afforded even this protection, were drenched.

By the time King Boris and his suite arrived the rain had turned to hail and they were badly battered.

MAY TAKE MANY TIES

Speculation In Central Interior As to How Big C. N. R. Contracts May Bulk

While no definite word is as yet available, it is stated that, in line with the company's plan to let additional tie contracts this winter in order to aid in unemployment relief, the Canadian National Railways may take from one to two million ties in the central interior district. Even should the orders reach only three quarter of a million ties, it would mean a great deal of activity all through that section of the country and the contracts would be filled at a period of the year when practically all other work is at a standstill.

SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST

People who think that the survival of the fittest is not nature's way can be proven wrong, even in the matter of manufacture of automobiles. Since the beginning of the industry there have been 640 makes of cars offered to the buyers on this continent and of these only 45 have survived. The others were unfit.

Some of the cars almost died aborning while others succeeded for a brief period but failed to keep up to date. They were superceded by cars that the people liked better.

ADVERTISING AND MERCHANDISING

There is a great deal of talk about the value of advertising but not so much about the value of merchandising. Take as an example the "Made in Canada" movement. It has been more or less advertised. The newspapers of the country have done a great deal in advocating buying at home but they have not always been backed up by the merchants.

What is the use of asking customers to use Canadian made goods if merchants persist in constantly featuring foreign goods, that are advertised in Canada in foreign publications? Under those conditions customers will continue to buy foreign goods, even at higher prices, to the disadvantage of the home product.

Many an advertising campaign gets little result because of the failure on the part of correlated merchandising. While advertising induces buying the merchant must also make it easy to buy the goods advertised, for it is always difficult and slow work changing the habits of the public. If they are in the habit of buying a certain line of goods they will continue to do so until a sufficiently powerful force is exerted to change the habit.

In a general way people who deal at a certain store will continue to do so until some other store makes a more powerful appeal. That appeal may be the one of advertising, or merchandising values, or service. The combined appeal is the one that is most forceful.

What's ahead in business depends on what's in business heads.

THE TIE CONTRACTS

The Daily News is today advertising for ties to be cut for the Canadian National Railways. The contracts will be a great help to the settlers of the interior.

The Vancouver Sun gives credit for the suggestion that these be cut to the member for Prince Rupert, Olof Hanson. He made the suggestion in the House of Commons at Ottawa and the government took his suggestion even though he was speaking from the opposition benches. Also it may be mentioned that he had to fight to get his suggestion before the House because an attempt was made to have him ruled out of order.

At the time the suggestion was made many people seemed to think that Mr. Hanson was trying to get orders for his own firm, but the full report of the proceedings showed that this was not true. He advocated the doing of the work by hand labor instead of in mills so that more work would be provided for the actual settlers.

Seen today in regard to the move, Mr. Hanson said he did not want any credit for what he had done. He simply was anxious that the men in the interior who so badly needed it should get the work for which they were seeking.

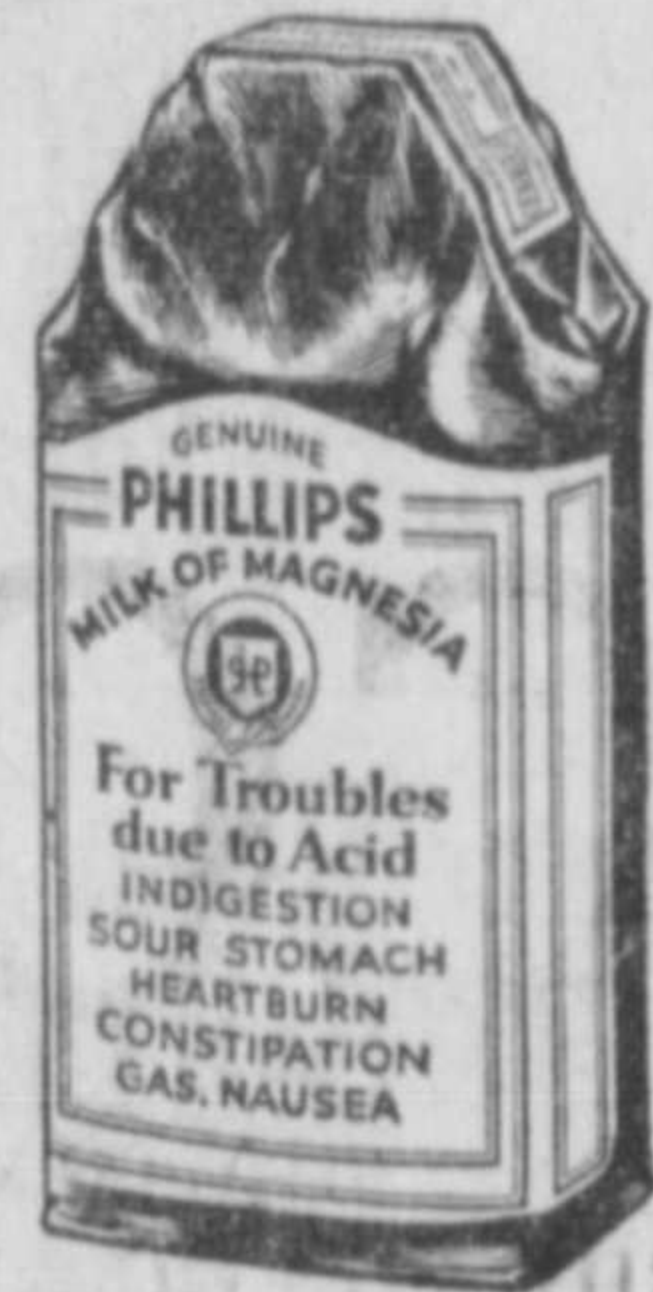

WHEN PAIN COMES...

Two hours after eating

WHAT many call "indigestion" is very often nothing but excess acid in the stomach. The stomach nerves have been over-stimulated, and food sours. The corrective is an alkali, which neutralizes acids instantly. The best alkali known to medical science is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained the standard anti-acid with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of this harmless, tasteless alkali will neutralize instantly many times as much acid, and the symptoms disappear at once. You will never use crude methods when once you learn the efficiency of this more pleasant way. A small bottle is sufficient to show its merit.

Be sure to get genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for more than 50 years in correcting excess acid. 50c a bottle; any drugstore. Complete directions for its many uses are enclosed with every bottle.

The Genuine Milk of Magnesia is always a liquid—never a tablet. Look for the Phillips name on the bottle.

Marriage Of Atlin Doctor

Miss Phyllis Marion Lee Becomes Bride in Vancouver of Dr. H. J. Nunn

The following from the Vancouver Province describes the wedding of Miss Phyllis Marion Lee and Dr. H. J. Nunn who passed through the city this week en route to Atlin where they will reside.

"A quiet wedding of interest to many old residents of the Yukon was solemnized at Christ Church Cathedral on Monday afternoon, when Phyllis Marion, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Lee, was united in marriage to Dr. Herbert J. Nunn, formerly of London Ont., and Whitehorse, Y.T. The ceremony took place at 5:30 o'clock, the marriage services of the Anglican Church being performed by Very Rev. Dean Renison.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was wearing an ensemble of sapphire blue silk, cut in prevailing mode, over which was worn a short jacket of mirror velvet. Her close-fitting hat was of silver tissue, with matching slippers ornamented with buckles, and she carried an arm bouquet of bridal roses. Miss Katherine V. Lee, a sister of the bride, was her only attendant, and was wearing a frock of amethyst georgette, over which was worn a short coat of black velvet, and matching hat. Her slippers were of silver, and she carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses. The groomsmen were C. N. Compton.

Following the ceremony, which was attended by many old residents of the Yukon, a bridal dinner was held in the private dining-room of the Hotel Georgia, the bride's mother wearing a handsome gown of cut velvet in old wood rose coloring, with a hat in similar shades. Dr. and Mrs. Nunn later left for Atlin, where Dr. Nunn has been appointed physician in charge. The bride travelled in a frock of black silk, ornamented with touches of hand embroidery and wore a coat of Hudson seal and a close-fitting toque.

Farmers Must Engage More In Mixed Farming

T. H. Johnson Sees Hard Winter Ahead But Recovery Will Be Sure As Always In Past

The general impression, among economists seems to be that the farmers of both Canada and the United States will have to turn to mixed farming instead of grain growing, according to T. H. Johnson, manager of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. Ltd., who is home from a prolonged visit in the east during which he attended the joint convention of the Canadian and American Fisheries Associations. Now that the price of grain has dropped to such an extent as to make its raising unprofitable, the natural thing is to turn to more profitable branches of the industry. Mr. Johnson also remarked that it seemed likely that there would be hard times this winter, especially in the west, but that the country would weather the storm just as it had weathered similar periodic economic disturbances in the past.

Dr. John A. West, former local physician who is now located in Vancouver, arrived in the city on the steamer Prince Rupert this morning from the south for a brief visit in town.

Stage Replaces Stockholm Movies

Legitimate Scores Two Notable Successes In Sweden

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 24.—In the fierce competition between the cinema and the stage, now raging all over the world, the stage has scored two notable successes in Sweden, in as much as two Stockholm cinemas this autumn have been turned into theatres. This annual development gainsays any assumption that the Swedes have not enough interest in the drama. Another assumption that the Swedes have not talent for playwriting is likewise gainsaid by the fact that out of the many autumn premieres not less than five have featured new Swedish plays.

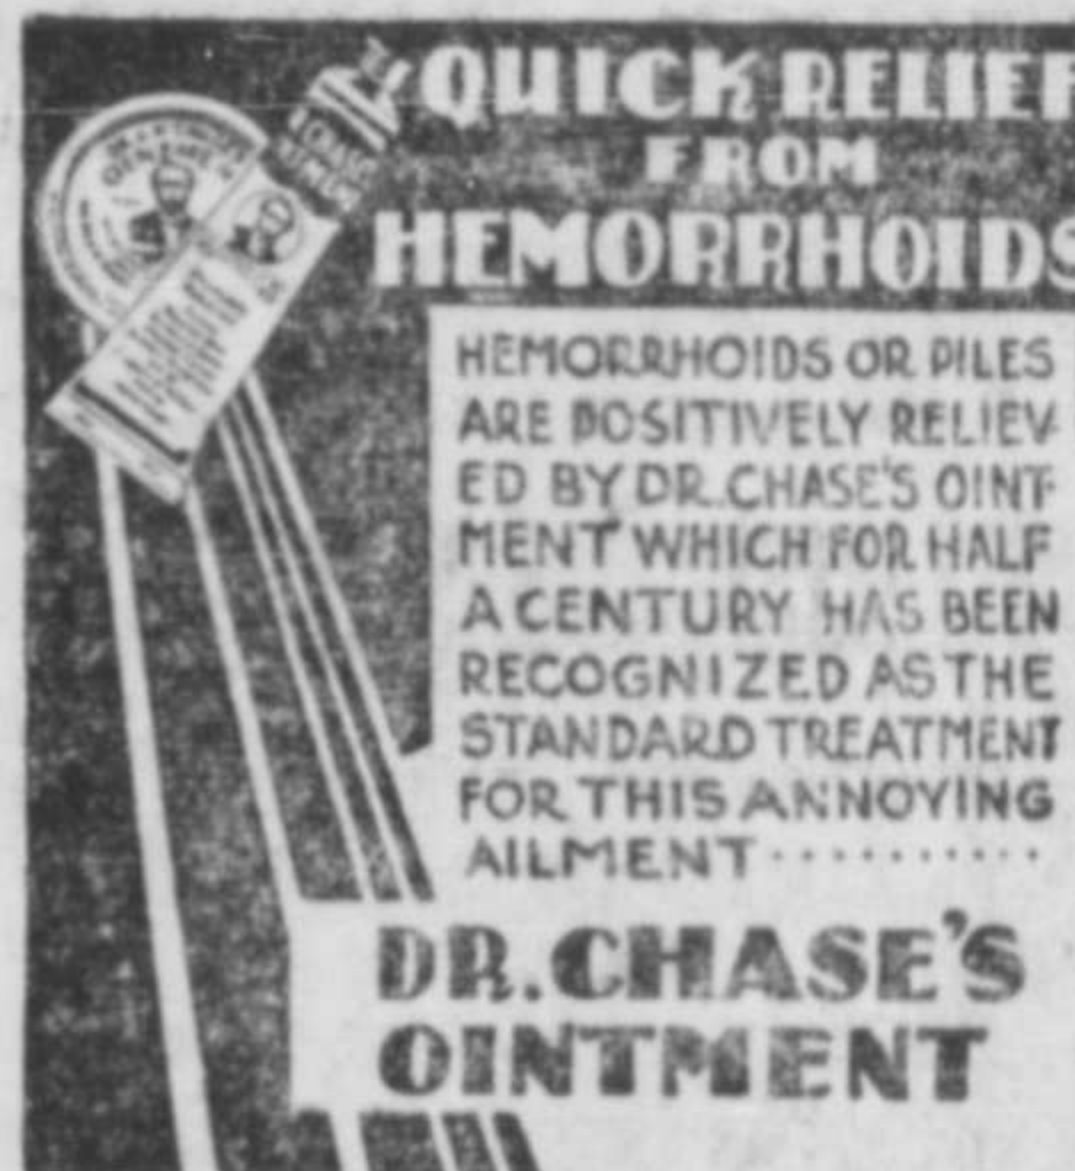

The two new theatres in Stockholm increase the number of stages in the Swedish capital from 15 to 17, which seem rather abundant in a city of 500,000 inhabitants. Half of the number, however, are small and easygoing undertakings, while the rest are well known and recognized theatres. The repertory announced for these theatres shows a serious vein in art combined with the effort to keep pace with new trends in the drama. Shakespeare's Midsummer Night's Dream, the immortal Hamlet, Shaw's Apple-Cart, Lope de Vega's, Iron Water in Madrid, Tolstoy's Power of Darkness, Stringberg's Gustavus Vasa and Charles VII, Rostand's Cyrano de Bergerac, Gerald's Wedding Days, all belong to the traditional and classic school. New features are "Grandmother's Revolution" by Jens Locher, a Dane, and some interesting Swedish novelties.

Beautiful hair!

Modern hair dressers arrange the hair so beautifully that it's bound to attract attention. That's why it's so important to guard its color and lustre; keep it in perfect condition.

There is no surer, simpler way to do this than with Danderine. Each time you use your brush, just moisten it with this delicately fragrant liquid. Then as you draw it through your hair, it removes the excess oil; brings out the natural color; makes the hair fairly sparkle with new life and lustre.

How much easier it is to arrange the hair afterwards. How it stays in place. And try "setting" the waves with Danderine. They stay in so much longer. Danderine quickly dissolves the crust of dandruff; puts the scalp in the pink of condition; helps the hair to grow long, silky and abundant!

SPORT CHAT

Some interesting revelations regarding the selection of the English Test match team were made by H. D. G. Leveson-Gower, chairman of the Test Match Selection Committee, at the annual dinner of the Ferrets Cricket Club in London recently. He denied the rumor that he and A. P. F. Chapman fell out. Nothing could have been further from the truth. They were the best of friends. "It was not an easy job," he said, "having regard to the matter at hand, that the Selection Committee had to do. Still, they tried to do their best with the greatest impartiality. The Australians were entitled on the run of the play to win 'The Ashes and I congratulate them.'"

Referring to the fact that, having spent hours over their task the Selection Committee were saddened, not to say sickened, by the number of letters they received criticising, in most cases in bitter words their work, Mr. Leveson-Gower said: "I myself received over 400 letters, but nothing, I think, was more despicable than that, after R. E. S. Wyatt had been chosen as captain in the concluding Test match, he should have received a number of anonymous letters saying that he should not play, and, in some cases, cursing him."

SAFETY'S TEN COMMANDMENTS

- First: Thou shalt have no other thoughts but thy work.
- Second: Thou shalt take no unnecessary risks, nor try to show off, nor play practical jokes, for by this carelessness thou mayst do injury which will have effect unto the third and fourth generations to follow.
- Third: Thou shalt not swear nor lose thy temper when things do not go just right.
- Fourth: Remember thou art not the only one on the job and that lives of others are just as important as thine own.
- Fifth: Honor thy job and thyself that thy days may be long in employment.
- Sixth: Thou shalt not clean machinery when it is in motion.
- Seventh: Thou shalt not watch thy neighbor's work, but attend to thine own.
- Eighth: Thou shalt not let the sleeves of thy shirt hang loose, nor the flaps of thy coat to be unbuttoned, as they may get caught in machinery and thereby do great bodily harm.
- Ninth: Thou shalt not throw matches nor greasy waste on the floor, nor scatter oil around the bearings, as a dirty worker is a clumsy worker and a clumsy worker is a menace to his fellow workers.
- Tenth: Thou shalt not interfere with the switches, nor the dynamos, nor the belts, nor the cables, nor the engines, nor anything else thou art told is dangerous.

Can't PLAY Can't REST

—child needs Castoria

WHEN a child is fretful and irritable, seems distressed and uncomfortable, can't play, can't sleep, it is a pretty sure sign that something is wrong. Right here is where Castoria fits into a child's scheme—the very purpose for which it was formulated years ago! A few drops and the condition which caused the trouble is righted; comfort quickly brings restful sleep.

Nothing can take the place of Castoria for children; it's perfectly harmless, yet always effective. For the protection of your wee one—for your own peace of mind—keep this old reliable preparation always on hand. But don't keep it just for emergencies; let it be an every-day aid. Its gentle action will ease and soothe the infant who cannot sleep. In more liberal doses it will effectively help to regulate sluggish bowels in an older child. All druggists have Castoria; it's genuine if you see Chas. H. Fletcher's signature and this name-plate:
