LIBERAL GAINS IN WEST EXPECTED

Party Forecast Says Grits Will Take Six B. C. Seats of Tories

Similar Number of Captures in Alberta From Farmers Are Anticipated With Saskatchewan and Manitoba Holding Their Own

OTTAWA, July 25:—A Liberal gain of six seats in British Columbia at the expense of the Conservatives, of the same number in Alberta from the United Farmers and the retention of Saskatchewan and Manitoba is the National Liberal Bureau's summing up of the pre-election situation in the western provinces, according to the Dominion-wide survey issued by that organization today. The statement from the national headquarters of the Liberal party says "From British Columbia, which has heretofore been a

LOOKS BAD FOR BOAT

Ole Larsen, arriving in town last night, reported that the Aina had swamped and sunk in Hudson Bay Passage but that he picked up Anton Strand at 10 o'clock yesterday morning off Ilwette Point, at the north-east end of Dundas Island, and had taken him safely to Dundas Island fish camp. Mr. Larsen made the rescue with his trolling boat Boda. When the Aina sank, Strand swam ashore and during the night tramped five miles to the point where he was picked up.

Strand is now seeking assistance at Zayas Island in an effort to salvage the Aina. "It looks serious for him," it was stated yesterday afternoon by Capt. Johnny Clausen, well known fish packer, in speaking of the fish packer Aina which was reported missing yesterday. Anton Strand of Seventh Avenue West, Prince Rupert, was in charge of the Aina and was missing with it. Capt. Clausen is the owner of the Aina.

It was 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon that the Aina left Goose Bay, Dundas Island, for Inverness, heavily overloaded, particularly at the stern, with 1900 cohoes which she had picked up at Zayas Island. The boat should have reached Inverness by 8 o'clock Wednesday evening but failed to arrive.

The Aina set out into a choppy sea. As time passed, it was feared that disaster must have befallen her.

VOTING IS STARTED

First Federal Election Preferences Recorded at Advance Poll Here

Prince Rupert people cast their first ballots in the federal election last night when 26 persons took advantage of the advance poll to record their preferences. Twenty-six ballots were cast during the three hours that the advance poll was open. This poll is held for the benefit of railwaymen, mariners and commercial travelers whose work may take them out of the city on election day. Under the classification of mariners, fishermen are permitted to vote and it was mostly these who cast ballots last night.

The advance poll was open last night from 7 to 10 o'clock and will be in session again this evening between the same hours. Tomorrow the hours will be from 2 to 10 p.m.

W. D. Vance is deputy returning officer for the advance poll with G. W. Johnstone poll clerk and F. D. Rice and Ex-Ald. Oscar Larson agents for J. C. Brady and Olof Hanson respectively.

CANNERY IS LOST

Floating Plant Anna Baron of Atlantic Pacific Salmon Co. Piled Up In Icy Straits

JUNEAU, July 25:—The floating salmon cannery Anna Baron, the last steam craft of its kind in Southeastern Alaska, which piled up on Point Anasley in Icy Straits, is reported to be a total loss by Capt. George Black. It was valued by the owners at $27,000. The craft belonged to the Atlantic Pacific Salmon Co. The crew of seven men reached shore safely.

Premier King Renews Attack On Ferguson and Enquires Where Leading Tories Are Just Now

STRATFORD, Ont., July 25:—Driving home his statements with great emphasis, Premier King, speaking here last night, charged that Premier G. Howard Ferguson of Ontario had directed his efforts "not to assist unemployment but to keep men unemployed. The whole business has been a deception from the very start," Mr. King declared. "Machine politics now rule the city of Toronto. In that city," he continued, "you now have a situation in which no one dares speak his frank mind for fear of incurring the approbrium of those who control the political machine."

The Premier asked his audience if it wished such a condition to grow up in Canada. It had been the curse of the United States. Again Mr. King accused Mr. Ferguson of holding up expenditures on roads in order to influence votes. There was a curious thing about this election campaign, the Prime Minister asserted. In addition to Mr. Bennett, only three Conservatives formerly in Parliament were taking an active part. These were Mr. Stevens, who was having the fight of his life in Vancouver, and Mr. Guthrie and Dr. Manion. The last two named were "Tory leaders who went back on Liberalism. These are the men upon whom Mr. Bennett is relying in this campaign, these and Mr. Ferguson." The Conservatives were not participating generally in the campaign, he said.

Production of Metals Shows Increase Spite of Unfavorable Price

Semi-Annual Report of Minister of Mines Is Encouraging Document—Prosperity Mine at Stewart Boosts Silver Output

VICTORIA, July 25:—Despite world wide depression in the mining industry following the drop in metal prices, mining in British Columbia during the first half of this year has shown encouraging progress, according to the semi-annual summary issued yesterday by Hon. William A. McKenzie, minister of mines. There was an increased quantity production in aggregate of minerals and metals. Owing, however, to the low metal prices, the gross value dropped from approximately $34,250,000 in the first half of last year to about $30,000,000 in the first half of this year.

Death Toll Growing as Result of Catastrophe in Naples District of Italy

ROCHETTE, Italy, July 25:—General Daistrochi, commandant of the Neapolitan zone, today said that the total of dead in the province of Avellino was more than 2500 which, added to the totals in other provinces, would bring the death list as a result of the recent earthquake to 2930.

The township which was hardest hit seems to have been Lacedonia with 600 dead. Villanova was next with between 400 and 600 dead.

Vol. 1. Friday, July 25, 1930 No. 38.

Let the Taxpayer Beware

The "Financial Post" of Toronto, Canada's leading independent financial journal, points out that Mr. Bennett's bid for office—if he is successful—will cost Canada at least $400,000,000.

In other words he is attempting to win this election by wholesale bribery of the electorate throughout the Dominion.

The "Financial Post" points out that the total of these promises—special session of Parliament, Hudson Bay Route, Greater St. Lawrence Waterways, Etc.—is a greater sum than the entire national debt of Canada was in July 1914.

The Post further points out that if these promises are to be carried out it means an entire reversal of the policy of the Liberal Government during the last ten years.

It says "In these circumstances election promises may be redeemed only by borrowed money which will boost the debt charges, so laboriously whittled down in recent years, or by increasing taxation."

"Something of this kind will be necessary if the Dominion is to embark upon new expenditures aggregating hundreds of millions. Perhaps, nothing can be done, in this campaign about this 'business which really amounts to wholesale bribing of the electors' but it ought to be possible to demonstrate to public men that votes 'can be won by a policy of financial caution. Taxpayers must realize that it is their money which is at stake.'

How will the Prince Rupert taxpayer—who is trying to save his home and property—like to have his taxes raised still higher in order to redeem the election promises of Mr. Bennett the multi-millionaire leader of the Tory party?

VISITORS PUZZLED

Some of the officers and men of the visiting cruiser are much puzzled at the local political situation. While they are much interested in their own British political situation it is difficult for them to understand the Canadian line-up. By birth and training most of the visitors are Conservatives but if they had a vote here probably the majority would vote for Hanson because by doing so they are supporting the new British Empire movement which their own party at home backs.

Liberalism in Canada today means trade within the Empire whereas Conservatism means putting up a tariff barrier against Great Britain as well as all other countries of the world.

Already the Liberal party has placed a tariff barrier against all countries which refuse to grant reciprocal privileges. This applies more particularly to the United States because that country is such a close neighbor. It offsets the recent raise in tariff against this country imposed at Washington.

The recent Canadian law, generally known as the Dunning budget, transfers trade privileges from United States to Great Britain and other parts of the Empire and already the effect of it is being seen in the improvement of trade between Canada and those countries.

While the visitors to Canada just now are puzzled, Canadians are not. They realize the situation and will show by their votes Monday that they approve the change.

LIBERAL TEA HELD

Beautiful Home of Mrs. Robert Gordon Scene of Successful Affair Yesterday

MRS. SMITH SPEAKS

The spacious home of Mrs. Robert Gordon, Seventh Avenue East, was the scene of a large and successful tea yesterday afternoon when ladies of Section Six were invited to meet and hear Mrs. Paul Smith of Vancouver who is on a visit to the city in connection with the campaign of Olof Hanson for election as Member of Parliament. There was a very large attendance and the feature of the proceedings was an interesting little speech by Mrs. Smith in support of Liberal policies at the forthcoming federal election. Mrs. Smith was tendered a warm reception.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses predominating. Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. Olof Hanson received the guests; Mrs. A. D. Gillies and Mrs. O. A. Johnson poured and served the teas. Mrs. H. F. Glassey, Mrs. G. W. Abbott, Mrs. James Simpson, Mrs. James L. Lee and Mrs. W. L. Sandison.

The Letter Box

THIS WORD "FOREIGNER"

Editor, Daily News:—
It makes me mad when I hear people talk about this "big Swede." Oh no! They would not vote for Hanson because he came from Sweden. A great percentage of people do not even know the difference between Sweden and Norway. Of course, that is nothing but lack of education. People like that ought to read their geography again. Hanson came from Sweden all right and I am sure he feels proud of that. It should not matter what country we saw the light in first. Has not Sweden or any of the countries in Scandinavia raised great men? What would U. S. A. be like today if they looked at nationalities the way a great many people do?

Here is a little incident. I met a man recently who told me he could get me a job on a seine boat. My accent did not give me away but he asked me where I came from before he told me that we were going to see the skipper. He grabbed hold of my chin and looked me in the face. "You are all right," he said, "you don't look like a squarehead. I think you will get the job all right."

I cannot find words for my indignation. It is mere nonsense, as everybody ought to know, when people say that Hanson cannot speak English. We all know differently. I often wonder why people do not have more respect for the Swedes, a word that seems to mean nothing in many persons' minds.

I could mention many things that would prove that the Scandinavians have the right to say we came from those countries without being looked at like naughty dogs. In years to come, I hope that this word "foreigner" will not mean what it does today right here in our city and other places.

There are many a good Ole and Knut if we just would admit it. Prince Rupert and Canada as well owe much to these people because they do make good citizens here and everywhere. That Olof Hanson is born in Sweden ought certainly not to bar him from the House where he will show the narrow minded ones of us, that the Swedes are just as good as the others. Forget the rest and look up to an immigrant boy who makes a success in a foreign country.

SCANDINAVIAN.

SKIDEGATE HOSPITAL DAY

Editor, Daily News:—
From an article appearing in the News of July 18, an impression is apt to be gathered that the doctor received the proceeds of the annual "Hospital Day" held at Queen Charlotte City on July 1. This impression is quite erroneous. As most of the local people know, the proceeds of the "Hospital Day" are devoted entirely to upkeep of the building itself and to necessary equipment or equipment renewals.

This responsibility belongs to the hospital society which vests control of its affairs in a board of directors, elected annually. To those who contributed and are not conversant with the "modus operandi" of hospital administration here, it is only fair that they should know that their donations are devoted entirely to the hospital. Current expenses are met out of current revenue. This part of the administration concerns the resident doctor.

Taking this opportunity of thanking all those who helped in so many ways to make this community effort a success.

VANCOUVER AND NORTH

Province Does Not Fear Competition of Ports on This Part of Coast

A tremendous lot of uncandied and pernicious nonsense about British Columbia's north country is being whispered and spoken in this campaign, says the Vancouver Province editorially. Hon. H. H. Stevens is painted as a rascal and an enemy of Vancouver because of his connection with a railroad designed to run from the Finlay River mining country into Stewart, and Hon. Ian Mackenzie is pictured as a ministering angel because his leader has promised a coast outlet to the Peace River country.

What is the truth about this? Why that every province in Canada that has a north country—and all have except the three Maritimes—is developing it as rapidly as it can and assuming that development is good for the province, for its leading cities and for Canada as a whole. British Columbia is not at all unique in having a developing north. But it seems to be unique in having foisted upon it canards about the imaginary evils which development may bring to communities already established.

Vancouver is the largest industrial and commercial centre in British Columbia, and, having a long start over the others, it will probably remain largest. But it isn't reasonable for it to expect to be the only centre. Other cities will grow up and develop, and have every right to growth and development. It may be that in some lines they will be Vancouver's competitors. But they will be less competitive than complementary, less rivals than coadjutors, and a very large share of the business they create will flow through Vancouver's business houses for the simple reason that these are the only houses through which it will be convenient for that business to flow. If they grow, Vancouver will necessarily grow with them and because of them.

With the opening up of the Naas country, the Omameca country, the Finlay River country, Northern British Columbia will require a coast outlet, and if Mr. Stevens and the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company can give it the outlet it requires through a railway to Stewart, they will be doing British Columbia and Vancouver a good turn. Whatever is good for British Columbia is good for Vancouver. That is a truism which should require no elaboration.

It is suggested by those who are indulging in this campaign of near-slander that the railway to Stewart will eventually reach the Peace River country and rob Vancouver of the profitable trade of that great empire. There are just two things to say about that. The first is that the charter of the Canadian Northern Eastern Railway Company gives the company authority to build only as far as the Finlay River "at a point at or near Fort Grahame." Whether the railway will ever be extended into the agricultural part of the Peace River country rests not with the Consolidated or with Mr. Stevens but with the Legislature of British Columbia. The second point is that even if the railway in question does turn its nose southward and eastward and does eventually reach the Peace River country, Vancouver doesn't need to worry. If this city with its population of a quarter of a million, its great railroads, elevators, docks, factories, wholesale houses and other commercial equipment can't hold its own against Stewart with its 500 people and its primitive facilities, it deserves all that is coming to it.

INSANITY BELIEVED

Mrs. Kobayashi, who is alleged to have killed her two children at Lowe Inlet cannery, by cutting their throats, was brought to the city by police officers last night aboard the P. M. L. 8. The woman, who is believed to be insane, is now in hospital under police guard. It is likely that she will be committed to the asylum at once. She is reported to have attempted to take her own life after killing her children.

Mrs. Kobayashi's two dead children—a 17-month old girl and 5-month old boy—were also brought to the city last night and have been placed in charge of the B. C. Undertakers. The husband and father, a cannery employee at Lowe Inlet, arrived as well.

sive, and the prospects are good for the return of the new minister of immigration, while in Vancouver North, A. E. Munn will send the Conservative organizer into the back woods. New Westminster is a sure gain for the Liberal candidate there, Thomas Reed.

In the other constituencies the Liberals have excellent fighting chances.

In Alberta

In Alberta the Liberal campaign is progressing with great vigor. Edmonton East and West and Medicine Hat were the only ridings represented in the government during the last parliament, but indications are that, not only the Liberal party will retain these seats, they will add four more as the Conservative high protection policy is unpopular in the prairies. Mr. Bennett's plan of summoning a session of parliament if elected in order to deal with unemployment through the medium of still higher tariffs has definitely destroyed Conservative hopes in Alberta. The prodigality with which the opposition leader has promised to spend over a billion dollars, all over the country, and to raise that money by taxation, fails to impress the Alberta farmer. General predictions in Alberta note the return of eight Liberals, six United Farmers, one Labor and one Conservative.

Saskatchewan looks bright for the Liberal party with the certain return of all three candidate ministers and another Liberal sweep throughout the province. Premier Anderson has had the best intentions in the world in aligning himself with Mr. Bennett, but this support is at best a great embarrassment to the opposition who might have done better without it.

The Prime Minister's Regina meeting, characterized by the opposition newspapers as "the greatest political meeting ever held in the west," was a great exposure of Conservative claims and gave the quietus to Conservative hopes of Saskatchewan for next Monday at least.

The prospects are for the return of Liberals in Kindersley, Last Mountain, Mackenzie and Rosemount. In the last house these constituencies sent members to the Independent Progressive group.

Reports from Manitoba are encouraging and the last week has witnessed a tremendous advance for the Liberal candidates. The brunt of Conservative attention is being given to Winnipeg South and Springfield where vigorous hopes were entertained of defeating Mr. McDiarmid and Mr. Bisset.

The fight continues with unab-

HANSON TO POLL HIGH AT LAKES

Forecast of Majorities at Burns Lake and South Received From Interior

Burns Lake, majority of 50.
Francis Lake North 15
Colleymount 5
Nadina River 15
Wistaria and Ootsa, about even.
Grassy Plains, majority of 3.
Southbank 30
Biekie 15
Total majority for Lakes country, 133.

Despatch Dance Very Enjoyable

There was a large attendance last night at a dance in the Moose Hall put on by the men from the visiting warship, H. M. S. Despatch. Bert Cameron of the local dry dock staff, who has been at Kelowna for the past two or three months, returned to the city on the Prince Rupert this morning from the south, accompanied by Mrs. Cameron and daughter.

I hate to say how big Hanson's majority will be, but if anybody will call around about Tuesday they can get a pretty good idea.

SPORT CHAT

A bumper crowd of football fans is expected to turn out tonight when H.M.S. Despatch and Prince Rupert soccer representatives meet in the second and deciding game for the Hanson Cup. Both sides are planning to put their strongest e-vents on the ground and it should be one of the hottest matches seen here this year. Having been defeated four to one in the first game on Wednesday evening, Prince Rupert players will take the field with a heavy handicap but are resolved to put up a valiant fight all the same. The boys from the visiting light cruiser are about the snappiest soccerists that have been seen in action here this year.

KNOCKOUTS REGISTERED

Three Boxers Took Count in Last Night's Boxing

Lively Card

Billy Bagshaw Beats A. B. Moore in Main Event

Boxing fans who turned out at the Exhibition Hall last night were treated to some lively bouts in which there were three knockouts. The card was held under the auspices of the R.C.N.V.R. and was staged for them by the local Eagles' lodge. Mayor Orme welcomed the officers and men of the visiting cruiser, H. M. S. Despatch. Thomas Clough introduced the referee, Lieut. Garrett, and the judges, Maj. Leith R. M. and Jack Judge.

The first bout of the evening was a three two-minute round affair between Young McLeod and Howie Keefe. McLeod showed better conditioning and earned a decision. Keefe was taken sick in the second round and did well to go the limit.

Able Seaman Mella won the decision over Pete Chenoski in the second fight. Mella had a decided edge all the way, and it surprised the fans to see Chenoski finish the bout. Signalman Bastin won over Earl Batt by a knockout in the second round of their scrap. Batt had the edge in the first round and floored Bastin once. In the second round, during a fast exchange, Batt went down from a right to the side of the head. He took a nine count but came up. Bastin landed heavily to the solar plexus and Batt fell on the ropes and failed to get up at the count of ten.

The fourth bout was for four two-minute rounds between Marine Curtiss and "Gorilla" Dutton. This match proved the liveliest on the card, with both men mixing well. Dutton floored Curtiss in the first round but didn't seem to hurt him. His style of bobbing from side to side seemed to puzzle the Marine but in the second round he landed one on Dutton's chin and he took a count of nine. He seemed to be tiring. In the third round Dutton went down for a seven count. He came back strong, however, and drove Curtiss into the ropes and then sent him through them for a nine count. When he came up Dutton landed another and Curtiss didn't hear the bell ring, ending the round. In the fourth round Dutton forced the going and pounded Curtiss through the ropes where he took counts of nine on three different occasions, and the final gong saved him from a knockout, as he was sitting outside the ropes with his feet inside at the time. Dutton was awarded a popular decision.

The Main Event
In the main event, Billy Bagshaw won over Able Seaman Moore by a knockout in the third round. During the first two rounds Moore displayed some fine boxing to outpoint Bagshaw. In the third round Moore went down from a right that appeared to be low. He rolled around on the canvass in pain but finally got up and started again after being allowed to recover. If the blow wasn't low he should have lost the fight then as he didn't start to fight for over ten seconds, and if it had been low, he should have been given the call. He failed to cover up and Bagshaw put him down with a right to the chin. He got up but Bagshaw finished him with a right smash to the mid-section.

After the program, Thomas Clough, on behalf of the Eagles' Lodge, presented the sailors who fought, with individual medals and cups as mementos of their visit to Prince Rupert.

BOYS' BAND READY FOR TRIP SOUTH

Will Give Theatre Concert Sunday Night and Render Contest Pieces

The Prince Rupert Boys' Band, which will leave here a week from tomorrow for the south, will compete in two band events at the Vancouver Exhibition—the band competition and the quartet. Bandmaster Thomas Wilson is desirous that the boys should play the contest pieces in public at home before leaving and it has, therefore, been arranged to hold a concert Sunday night in the Capitol Theatre when the band will be assisted by local talent.

On the way to Vancouver by rail, the band will give concerts at Prince George and Jasper Park.

Tonight at the naval dance in the Exhibition Hall, the drawings will take place for a list of prizes that has been raffled by the band to assist in financing the trip to Vancouver.

Bert Kergin On Q. C. Islands In Campaign Tour

SKIDEGATE, July 25.—H. F. Kergin, M. L. A. for Atlin, visited everyone at Skidegate, Queen Charlotte City, South Bay, Sandspit and Logan Inlet last week in the course of a tour of the Queen Charlotte Islands on behalf of Olof Hanson, Liberal candidate for Skeena in the forthcoming federal election. At every point he was given a splendid reception.

At Sandspit Mr. Kergin saw large fields of green hay and vegetables and they were far from looking D-E-S-O-L-A-T-E as Mr. Brady might say.

PIONEER AVIATOR

Glenn H. Curtiss Did Much For Development of Airplane Manufacture in World

Glenn Hammond Curtiss, pioneer aviator, who died Wednesday at Buffalo at the age of 52, was born at Hammondsport, New York, and was educated there. He was president of the G. H. Curtiss Manufacturing Co., the Curtiss Airplane Co., the Curtiss Motor Co. and the Curtiss Engineering Co.

Early in life, the late Mr. Curtiss began experiments with motor vehicles and in 1902 established a motor vehicle company at Hammondsport. He rode his own machines and established several speed records. He designed aeronautical motors for dirigibles as early as 1907 including the motor for the first dirigible accepted by the United States government. He supervised the construction and piloted the "June Bug" on July 4, 1908, for the first public flight of a mile in the United States, winning the Scientific American trophy. He experimented with the "Loon," an airplane fitted with pontoons, in 1908. He won the Gordon Bennett Cup and prix de la vitesse at Rheims, France in the International Aviation meet. He won the New York World prize of $10,000 in a flight from Albany to New York in two hours and 51 minutes in May, 1910. He also invented the hydro-aeroplane.

He established flying schools in a number of cities of the United States and introduced the flying boat in Brazil, Australia, Russia, Italy and Germany. He was also the inventor of the first multi-motored flying machine. During the war he did much to speed up airplane manufacture for the requirements of the Allies. Since the war he had engaged principally in the commercial manufacture of airplanes and was responsible for the introduction of many new types and designs.

DESPATCH IS LARGE SHIP

Sister of H. M. S. Durban Which Was Here Two Years Ago—450 Officers and Men

H. M. S. light cruiser Despatch, flagship of the American West Indies squadron, which is paying a visit to this port in the course of a Pacific Coast cruise, is a sister ship of H. M. S. Durban which visited Prince Rupert two years ago. This trim, gray warship, kept up in the usual British style, is 480 feet long and is of the 5,000-6,000 tonnage class. Her principal armaments include six 6-inch guns, three 4-inch high-angle or anti-aircraft guns and 12 torpedo tubes.

The Despatch carries a total complement of 450 officers and men, all being active service naval men. Aboard the vessel is Vice-Admiral V. S. Haggard C. B., C. M. G., commander-in-chief of the American West Indies squadron. The commander of the Despatch is Capt. A. T. B. Curtis.

Prince Rupert is the first port that the Despatch is visiting in the course of her cruise in British Columbia waters. Leaving here Saturday morning, she will proceed to Stewart for a stay of two days, later visiting Victoria, Vancouver and Nanaimo as well as other ports on the south coast of the province.
