LONDON HAS GREAT PORT

A port that can show 1,000,000 tons of shipping entering and leaving each week can lay claim to greatness. London has this distinction, for during the four weeks ended 27th June no less than 4,264 vessels, representing 4,120,403 net registered tons, used its docks and river berths.

POST MORTEM BY CABINET

Nothing For Publication at Gathering of Ministers at Ottawa Yesterday

OTTAWA, Aug. 2.—With the attendance of 14 ministers the Mackenzie King cabinet yesterday met for the first time since the elections. The meeting lasted four and a half hours but the Prime Minister had nothing to announce at its conclusion. "A post mortem and routine business" was the description of the meeting given by Mr. Mackenzie King.

Asked if he had received the resignation of Hon. Vincent Massey from the post of High Commissioner in London, the Premier replied that he had not. It is probable that there will be one or two more cabinet meetings next week.

No Unemployment In Prince Rupert

The local labor situation is fairly easy at present. There are not many without work and even these find casual jobs generally. It is not expected that there will be any demand for harvesters from Alberta or Saskatchewan this year. For those who may have employment arranged with farmers on the prairies it is expected that the reduced rates will go into force about August 12.

DAILY EDITION

Saturday, August 2, 1930.

NEED OF EXPERIENCE

Reference was made yesterday to the advances Germany had made in dirigible air travel and how she led the world in it. The commander of the R-100 hit the nail on the head when he said that what they lacked was experience.

During the war the Germans were using dirigibles with success and since the war they are still using them, and the completion of a second large one for commercial use is an indication that they are still forging ahead. The new Zeppelin is said to be expected to make something like 125 miles an hour, so that the British ship just making her first flight will be away out of date from the beginning.

The satisfactory feature of the situation is the fact that the British are now gaining experience and that they know they need it.

DIFFERENT WITH PLANES

With airplanes the situation is somewhat different. Britain seems to be holding her own there, as witness the remarkable flight of Amy Johnson to Australia from England. Lord Thomson recently announced that Britain is steadily fulfilling her function as the focus of the oceanic air services. The London-Karachi service had been extended into India and will be carried on to Australia. The London to Cape Town service will soon be in operation and an expedition has been organized to reconnoitre the Arctic route to Western Canada.

PAYING UP TAXES

It is reassuring to hear from the city treasurer that in spite of the general depression, mostly outside of Prince Rupert, the taxes have been paid up well and the bank charges against the city are being liquidated.

Some fears had been expressed that the taxes might not be paid well this year. When there is financial depression, taxes are apt to be withheld. While the treasurer says it will be several days before actual figures are available it is good to know that there is nothing to worry about.

FEW WEEKS TO FAIR

It is now only a few weeks to the opening of the fall fair. Secretary Vance is a busy man arranging for the concessions, the entries and other work in connection with the big event. The directors are standing by him and there is every indication that it will be a success.

Final definite arrangements have been made for the visit of three groups of entertainers from the south as well as the Greenville native band and the local boys' band so there will be music and other entertainment a plenty. There are also indications that exhibits will be in and especially entries in the big floral display which is a new feature this year with unusually large prizes.

EXCURSIONS TO SKEENA AND NAAS

A general complaint often heard locally is that there is no place where one can go for a day's trip readily. With a view to affording these people an opportunity to get out of the city for a day the Canadian National Steamships are inaugurating special excursion rates on the Prince William for trips to the Skeena and the Naas, during August.

The Skeena trips will be on Thursday and Saturday and the boat will leave at 8 a.m. returning the same evening.

The Naas River trip will be made on Fridays and the Prince William will leave at 8 a.m. returning the same evening.

These trips will give passengers a fine chance to see the scenery of the immediate coasts and also an opportunity to see some of the canneries in full swing.

ENTERTAIN PERSONAGES

Dinner and Luncheons Were Given By Chamber of Commerce Since Last Meeting

At the regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night, President Tinker reported on the dinner given to officials of the B. C. Packers, the entertainment at luncheon of Mr. Pooley of the Empire Marketing Board and of the luncheon to Sir Henry Thornton.

Mr. Bushby reported having taken Mr. Pooley out all day in one of his boats and shown him the canneries and other local plants. Mr. Pooley had said he was going back to England with very pleasant recollections of Prince Rupert.

The president thanked Mr. Bushby on behalf of the board for his work in entertaining the distinguished visitor.

MOOSE HELD SUCCESSFUL WHIST DRIVE

The Moose white drive and dance held last evening in the Moose Hall was a very successful affair with over 140 people present.

Winners in the whist were: lady's first, Mrs. Wingham, 152; second, Mrs. Hudson, 145; with Miss E. Connery and Miss B. Briand tied for the consolation with 113 each.

The men's first prize went to Frank Fitch, 149, and the second to G. Brochu, 145. Mrs. A. Wicks, playing as a gentleman, won the consolation with 105 points.

The committee in general charge of affairs consisted of O. B. Sather, chairman; Gillis Royer, Pete Peterson, V. Peterson, W. Logan, C. Biggart, D. Long, E. Mariette, Mrs. C. Edwards, Mrs. Wicks, Mrs. Crosby and Mrs. McCarthy. At the door were J. L. Blaine, P. Cameron and D. S. Schubert.

For the dance which followed and which was kept up till 2 a.m. the Premier Orchestra supplied delightful and snappy music.

A fine four-horse team of imported Clydesdales was landed from the Prince George for a Skeena River logging company.

A short meeting of the executive council was held in Victoria to consider the application from the City of Prince Rupert for a special loan of $50,000 to acquire and install an electric plant.

Out of town people are recommended to make their plans now to attend the Fall Fair which promises to be the biggest and best ever held in the city, and to enter their exhibits with Secretary Vance at once.

They are also recommended to see that their subscriptions to the Daily News are paid up so that they may keep in touch with all the forward movements. It is a daily record of the doings of the district and a support of all that is best for Northern and Central B. C.

Married Wife A Second Time

LONDON, Aug. 1—Miss Marie Williams, a Scotch operatic singer, has married her husband, M. Sergei Radamsky, a Russo-American singer, for the second time. She explained that she married him first in Moscow. As he was a naturalized American citizen she assumed that she would automatically become an American citizen. The British authorities took this view and said that as Marie was no longer a British subject she was not entitled to a British passport.

Americans, however, decline to recognise weddings celebrated in Russia, and she was refused an American passport. The authorities stated that the solution was to re-marry in England, after which Marie becomes a provisional American citizen. M. Radamsky said pessimistically that he could see himself re-marrying his wife in every country to which they go together. He would not mind marrying her a hundred times, but it was likely to prove expensive.

When Pain Comes

Two hours after eating

What many people call indigestion very often means excess acid in the stomach. The stomach nerves have been over-stimulated, and food sours. The corrective is an alkali, which neutralizes acids instantly. And the best alkali known to medical science is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained the standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of this harmless, tasteless alkali in water will neutralize instantly many times as much acid, and the symptoms disappear at once. You will never use crude methods when once you learn the efficiency of this. Go get a small bottle to try.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. Each bottle contains full directions—any druggist.

Ford Executive Solves Problem of Travel Time With Airplane

Crowd Examining Ford Tri-Motor Plane, the First Air Transport Seen in Many of the Western Provinces.

—Mr. Wallace R. Campbell, President, Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited.

WHEN the modern executive plans a hurried inspection trip to his branch factories and dealers he turns to the airplane for rapid transportation and quick jumps over long distances.

When Mr. Wallace R. Campbell, president of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, found two weeks which he could devote to a long-deferred survey of his western Canada branches he chose a Ford tri-motor club plane as the vehicle best able to cover the territory in the time available. Travelling in the great luxurious air yacht was as comfortable as riding in the best Pullman train and thrice as fast. During the 12-day tour which carried the Canadian industrialist as far north as Edmonton and as far west as Calgary the plane travelled 3,700 miles in a total flying time of 36 hours, 10 minutes.

The tour enabled Mr. Campbell to inspect branch factories, confer with dealers, study economic conditions in the Prairie Provinces and shape the plans of his company for future activities in those areas. He found economic conditions improving, favorable prospects for a fair wheat crop and business men generally fighting vigorously to restore prosperity.

During the tour, Mr. Campbell had as his guests on plane flights Hon. J. D. McGregor, lieutenant-governor of Manitoba, and Hon. W. G. Egbert, lieutenant-governor of Saskatchewan, flew with the party from Regina to North Battleford, then to Moose Jaw, Minot, North Dakota, and St. Paul, back to East Windsor. Only once did weather conditions delay the party and that was when a violent dust storm raged over the prairies, forcing the plane back to Regina after it had fought its way against the storm and a 35-mile wind to a point 25 miles north of Moose Jaw, when all other planes, including the mail planes, were grounded.

Mr. Campbell found the people of Western Canada very air-minded and actively supporting the development of some of the finest airports to be found in the Dominion. Crowds of 10,000 to 15,000 persons turned out in some of the larger cities to greet the party and view the Ford plane, the first tri-motor transport to be seen in those provinces outside of Winnipeg.

The route of the tour from Winnipeg was via Brandon and Virtnip to Regina; Moose Jaw, Saskatoon and North Battleford to Edmonton; thence to Calgary and through Medicine Hat, Moose Jaw, Minot, North Dakota, and St. Paul, back to East Windsor. Only once did weather conditions delay the party and that was when a violent dust storm raged over the prairies, forcing the plane back to Regina after it had fought its way against the storm and a 35-mile wind to a point 25 miles north of Moose Jaw, when all other planes, including the mail planes, were grounded.

The first day's flight from East Windsor, Ontario, carried Mr. Campbell and his party via St. Paul to Winnipeg, a distance of 929 miles, in 8 hours, 45 minutes, much of the time against head winds. The same jump by train would have required 36 hours, or the total time consumed on the 3,700 mile flying survey trip.

MOBLEY CUP GAME DRAW

Athletics Clashed With Regiment in Soccer In City League Match

The opening game of the Mobley Cup, City Football League, took place last evening between the Athletic Club and the Regiment and resulted in a draw 2-2.

The game was late in starting and then the Athletic Club was short. The Regiment had more of the game but the Club made many dangerous raids.

The Club now added a new player and play for a time was very ragged. From a penalty kick A. Dickens scored after Bradshaw had saved his first shot.

Referee, C. Barker. The game was very patchy. Currie for the Club turned in a good game and kept a fine goal in the first half and in the second was a great aid to the defence.

LIPTON MAY WIN RACE

Shamrock V Said to Be Very Likely to Meet With Success In Fall

LONDON, Aug. 2:—Hope runs high in the British Isles that Shamrock V, Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger for the America Cup, will be successful.

"In the past contests for the America's Cup the challengers were frequently of such fragile construction that the crossing was likely to (and did) impose severe strains, to which, of course, the defenders were not subjected."

Fine Shooting of Miss Foster Bisley Meeting

Appreciation of Wonderful Marksmanship of Woman Winner of King's Prize

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 2:—Commenting editorially on the victory at Bisley of Miss Marjorie Foster, winner of the King's Prize, the Globe says:

"One hundred crack shots from all parts of the Empire, among them six former winners of the trophy, took their places at the historic ranges. Enough to break the nerve of any man, but not the cool, keen-eyed, steady-handed woman who battled her way right through to victory.

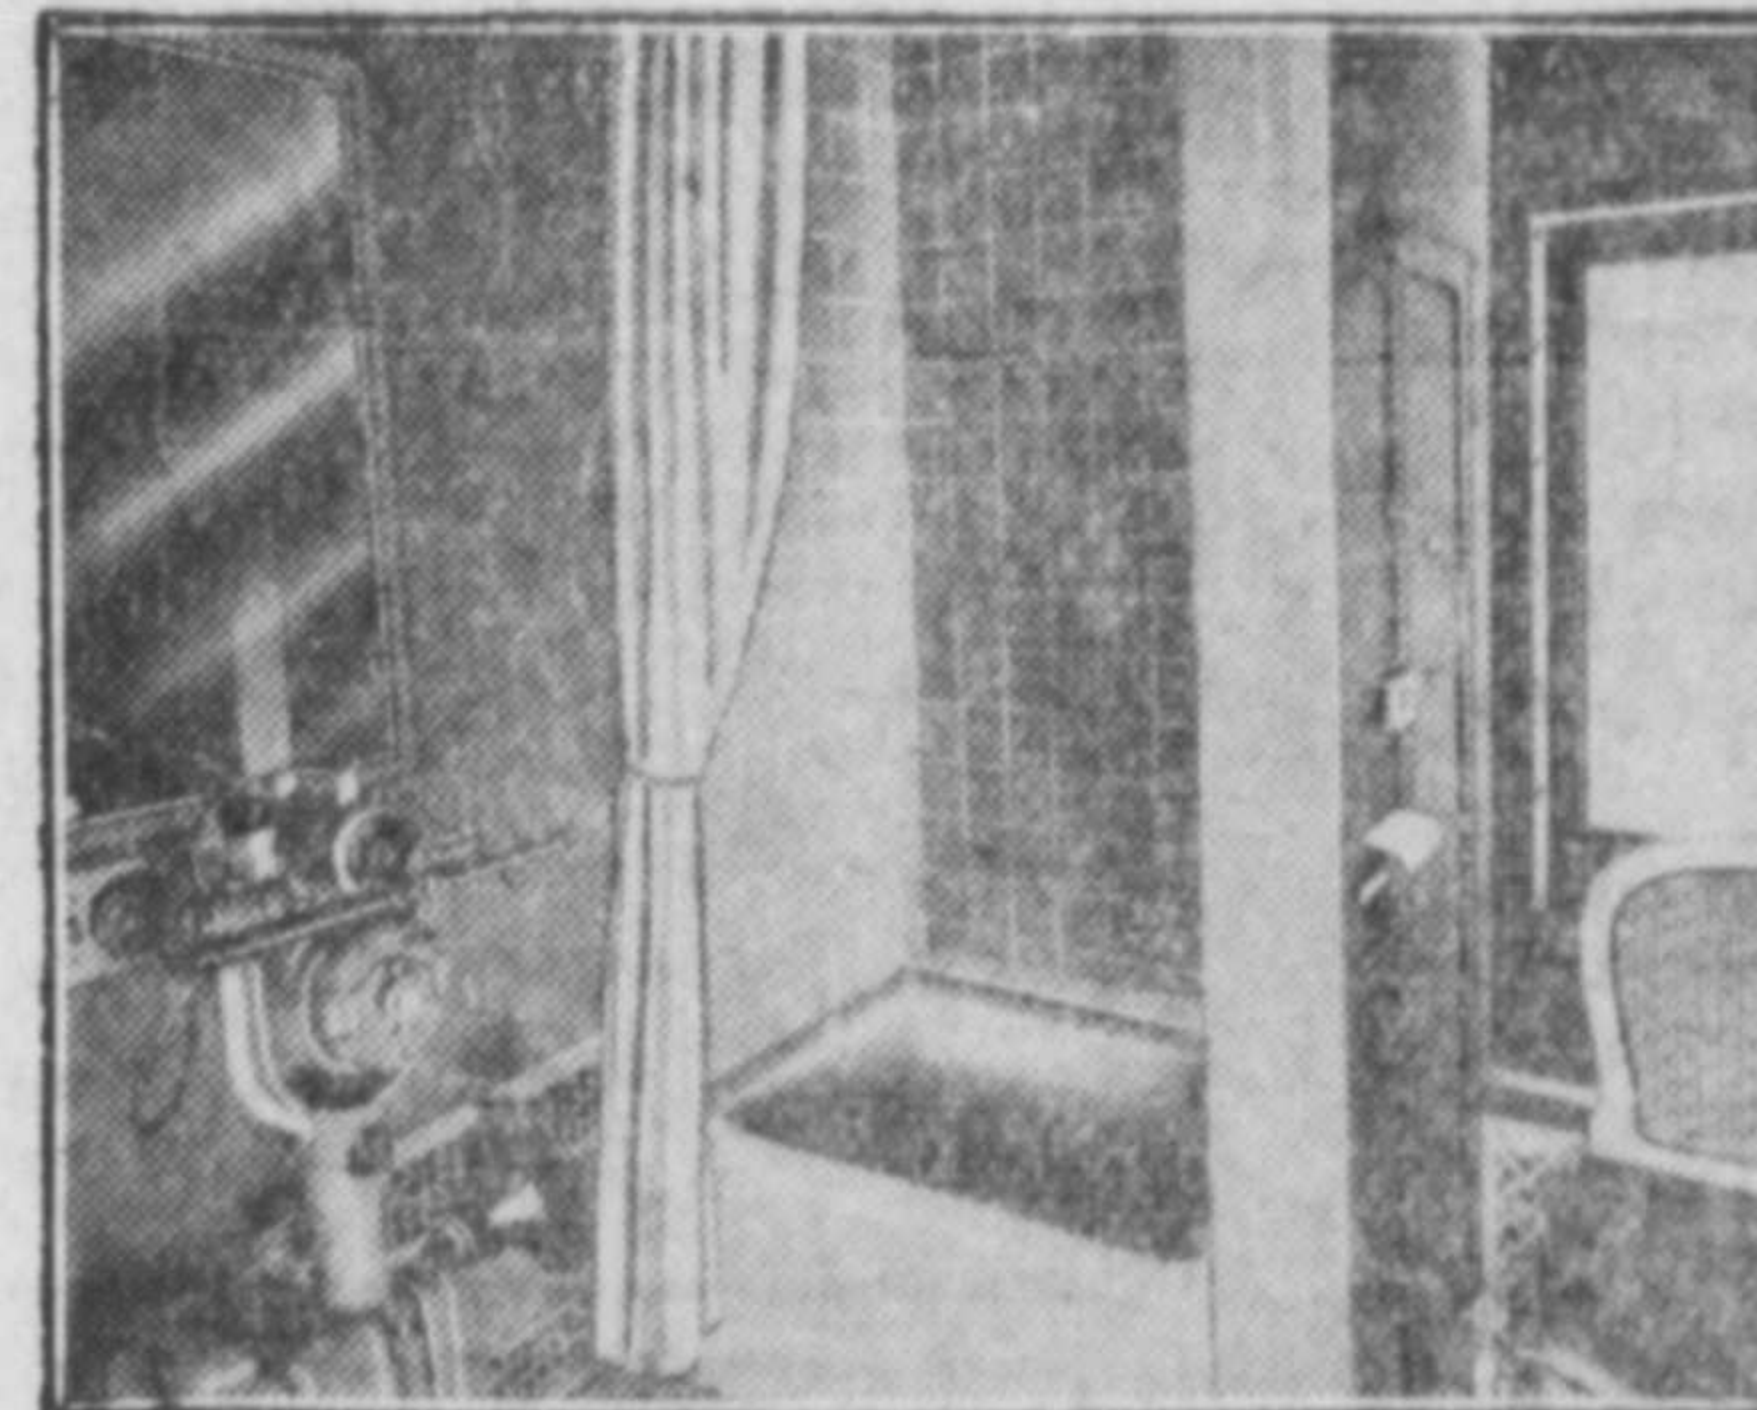

garded as the exclusive domain of man. In business, in the professions and in the arts she is firmly established, and in the realm of lighter sports she is challenging the supremacy of male contenders.

The Mail and Empire says of her: "Miss Marjorie Foster has been shooting at Bisley for seven years and, though she entered for the King's Prize previously, this is the first time that she was able to enter the final stage, and it is peculiar that her best shooting was in the most difficult part of the competition."

Women now days are doing in many lines of sport and benefiting, both physically and mentally, by the freedom from restrictions and prejudices of the Victorian age.

Restless Children

Children will fret, often for no apparent reason. But there's always one sure way to comfort a restless, fretful child. Castoria! Harmless as the recipe on the wrapper; mild and bland as it tastes. But its gentle action soothes a youngster more surely than some powerful medicine that is meant for the stronger systems of adults.

That's the beauty of this special children's remedy! It may be given the tiniest infant—as often as there is any need. In cases of colic, diarrhea, or similar disturbance, it is invaluable. But it has everyday uses all mothers should understand. A coated tongue calls for a few drops to ward off constipation; so does any suggestion of bad breath. Whenever children don't eat well, don't rest well, or have any little upset—this pure vegetable preparation is usually all that's needed to set everything to rights. Genuine Castoria has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper. Doctors prescribe it.

GIANT TUNA ARE CAUGHT

HALIFAX, Aug. 2.—Formerly fishermen despised the "horse mackerel" or giant tuna even as they did and still do the dogfish, writes Alfred Elden in the current issue of a fishermen's magazine. The giant tuna of the North Atlantic is gradually attaining commercial importance. In the Mediterranean and in California the tuna is a highly prized food fish. On the Atlantic coast, however, it is only in recent years that they have been saleable in any quantities.

Not only do they scatter the herring schools and mackerel by dashing through and devouring them by the hundreds, but they follow them into the weirs and pounds. There they tear their way through the nets to freedom unless they are harpooned.

Casco Bay fishermen took keen delight in harpooning one of the monsters whenever possible. They would lance it through the gills and leave it bleeding and dying as a "horrible example" to others of its species. Fifty years ago when fish was more valuable than it is today a few tuna were occasionally killed for oil which was taken out of the heads and bellies. There was no demand for the meat.

From June until October, these monsters school in vast numbers from Massachusetts Bay to the shores of Nova Scotia. With the possible exception of one or two species of sharks these giant tuna are the largest fish found in these waters. They reach a length of 14 feet or more and a weight of 1,500 to 1,600 pounds, with 1,000 pounders not too uncommon. Still the majority of those brought to market run from 400 to 800 pounds.

WATERFRONT WHIFFS
Boat and Scow Collide—White Hope Off On Maiden Trip—Salvaging of Cape Ball Completed During Week

Things along the waterfront were very quiet when the scribe's deputy made his tour yesterday afternoon. It might seem that after the fury and excitement of the election the habitues had put into effect the oft given, if not always obeyed admonition, "Now that the election is over let us settle down to work." There was not even any bragging about bets won for if rumor speaks true, according to one individual, anyway, there was so little doubt of the outcome that he could not get his money covered. Just as well, now all have as much as they had before the momentous Monday.

LIVED ON RAW FISH TWO DAYS
Two Newfoundland Fishermen Had Harrowing Experience After Losing Schooner in Fog

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Aug. 2.—The blood and flesh of raw codfish was the drink and food that sustained two Newfoundlanders during the 48 hours they were astray from the Lunenburg fishing schooner Alsatian recently. Low fog beneath brilliant sun and a water surface like glass were the conditions under which Alfred Hardy, 19, and James Baker, 29, both of Rencontre East, finally reached land by oar and sail after leaving the schooner in a dory and failing to locate the vessel later owing to the low-lying fog.

The Alsatian, commanded by Captain Harold Corkum, took on baiting at Caplin Bay and sailed for the Grand Banks, where it engaged in fishing for four days. On the morning of the last day, Monday, Hardy and Baker left the schooner as dory mates. Their duty was to shift the 24 lines each being 50 fathoms in length. They then steered a course in the apparent direction of the schooner. No bell or horn was heard, however, and no sign of the schooner could be detected in the dense fog. The fishermen rowed until night approached, when they set a northwest course by their compass and put up sail in hope of striking land or being sighted by some craft.

On Tuesday morning the weather was very warm. Their thirst became almost unbearable, the men split some of the fish in the dory, drinking the blood and eating some of the flesh. Little was said of how the men spent the rest of that day and night, but the continued warm weather and lack of supplies indicates to some extent the ordeal suffered. At daybreak Wednesday morning, a reflected light in the sky led Baker to believe St. John's was within reach. An hour later they thought they were off Cape St. Francis. Taking down sail, they rowed to a fishing stage near a house and found they were at Flat Rock, St. John's East, where neither had ever been before. They were given food, tobacco and shelter, and left later in the day for St. John's. Shaken by their experience, Hardy and Baker decided to give up the fishing voyage for this year.

Every dory belonging to a schooner operating on the Grand Banks is required to carry an emergency supply of food and water, but their dory was not so supplied, said the men.

Improvements At Boston Fish Pier

BOSTON, Aug. 2.—Improvements totalling $750,000 are to be made at Boston Fish Pier by the tenants to care of Boston's rapidly growing fish business.

Twelve new piers, each 80 feet long by 25 feet wide, are to be erected at right angles to the main pier in order to increase the berthing space available. These will enable the Fish Pier to handle four or five times more than the present business.

As an experiment three of these piers will first be constructed and if the arrangement is satisfactory nine additional piers will be built. The new piers will thus provide space for 24 fishing boats to unload at one time as compared with the present berthing space for about eight boats at a time.

The secretary of the Chamber of Commerce last night read a letter from the Financial Post in reply to a protest from the Chamber that the Prince Rupert elevator picture had not been used when all the other western elevators were pictured. It was pointed out that the Prince Rupert picture had already been published two or three times recently.

Trawlers Fish With Mother Ship Out of Iceland

NORTH SYDNEY, Aug. 2.—The beam trawlers which come out annually from France and Spain to the Grand Banks, this year are trying an experiment new to them. In other years these trawlers fished on the local banks, coming in here for coal, oil and salt, but this season they went to the Iceland and Greenland Banks for their fish in the belief that as the water gets warmer the fish go farther north to a lower temperature.

Fishing so far from port, the trawlers receive necessary supplies through a "mother ship." This boat loads up with a cargo of salt or coal, taking it to the fleet.

North Sydney misses these fishermen considerably, as on an average of one a day the beam trawlers in other years called at this port. Whether or not this new experiment will be a success remains to be seen. Before they return to Europe the trawlers will probably call at this port for bunker.

There are about 600 different languages spoken in Africa.
