CITY COUNCIL PLANNING RELIEF WORK

TOLMIE'S ANSWER REGARDING PACIFIC GREAT EASTERN

Sum of $90,000 Will Be Spent Locally On Needed Public Works

Grading of Eleventh Avenue From McClymont Park to Conrad Street and Building Road to Fishermen's Floats Chief Items

The city council last night decided to expend about $90,000 this winter in relief work half of which it is expected will be paid by the Dominion and provincial governments in equal shares.

BISHOP IS BACK HOME

Rt. Rev. G. A. Rix Returns to City After Absence of Year—Spent Most Time in England

After an absence from the city of about a year, most of which time was spent in England where he attended Lambeth Conference, also touring the British Isles in the interests of Caledonia diocese, Rt. Rev. George A. Rix, Bishop of Caledonia, returned to the city on yesterday afternoon's train.

The bishop is looking very fit after a long trip which often proved arduous. He is receiving a hearty welcome home from his host of local friends.

Mrs. Rix is visiting in the east for a time before returning to the city.

Memorable Gathering

Lambeth Conference was a memorable gathering, Bishop Rix states. The conference, which is held every 10 years and is consultative rather than legislative, took place in Lambeth Palace, the

BUYS OUT PARTNERS

J. H. Pillsbury Now Sole Owner of Pacific Stevedoring Company In City

Ald. J. H. Pillsbury, manager of the Pacific Stevedoring and Contracting Company, has purchased the interests of M. P. McCaffery and Misak Alivazoff in the company and is now sole owner of the concern.

Mr. Pillsbury is planning to devote his entire energies to the stevedoring activities and is looking forward to a prosperous year in 1931.

NEW POWER EXPECTED ABOUT NOVEMBER 10

Owing to unfavorable weather and other unforeseen circumstances, it will not be possible to turn power from the new Falls River hydro-electric development into the city lines before November 10, it was announced today by J. J. Little, general manager of the Northern British Columbia Power Co. The exact date will be announced later.

The amount that the city has to bear, $45,000, will be raised by a by-law which the people of the city will be asked to approve. Debentures covering the work will be sold and the cost to the city for the annual charges will amount to one mill on the dollar.

As a result of the introduction by the city engineer of a new method of street repairing the city will be saved an amount equal to one mill on the dollar so that for this proposed work there will not necessarily be any increase in the taxes.

Eleventh Avenue is in bad condition and would have to be closed to traffic soon. For some years the owners have been asking for a road and this is the opportunity to give it to them. About two-thirds of the lots on the street are the property of the city and a number are owned by men who are unable to stand any great expenditures. These will be asked to pay a share of the cost of surfacing the street under a separate bylaw, after the grading is completed.

As it is proposed to make this avenue the main arterial highway connecting the business section of the city with the provincial highway, the road is to be built 20 feet wide instead of 16 1/2 feet as is done with the other streets. By doing this it is hoped later to get the provincial government to adopt this as a provincial highway and maintain it from provincial revenue.

Members of the city council last night were all present including the mayor, who has returned from the visit south when he attended the meeting of the Union of B.C. Municipalities.

The council was unanimous in its decision in regard to the relief work.

At present it was estimated that there were about 250 men out of work although only about 100 are registered at the employment office. Before the winter is over this number it was estimated would increase to 400 or more.

Application is being made at once to the provincial government for approval of this work and until their sanction is secured no further action can be taken.

STANDARDS FOR HOSPITALS

Some discussion has taken place in regard to a recent editorial in the Daily News dealing with the status of the Prince Rupert Hospital. It is pointed out that one reason for failure of the local hospital to secure recognition is the failure of the medical men to carry out their end of the work. While there is no regular staff of physicians at the hospital, all the doctors in the city use the institution and they constitute the staff and they have failed to live up to the requirements of the American College of Surgeons.

The hospital has been steadily improved. A new operating table, x-ray equipment and sterilizing instruments have been installed and an order is now being placed for a new fracture table and the question of better lighting is under consideration.

The requirements of any hospital to enable it to secure minimum standard rating follow:

1. That physicians and surgeons privileged to practice in the hospital be organized as a definite group or staff. Such organization has nothing to do with the question as to whether the hospital is "open" or "closed," nor need it affect the various existing types of staff organization. The word staff is here defined as the group of doctors who practice in the hospital inclusive of all groups such as the "regular staff," the "visiting staff" and the "associate staff."

2. That membership upon the staff be restricted to physicians and surgeons who are (a) competent in their respective fields and (b) worthy in character and in matters of professional ethics; that in this latter connection the practice of the division of fees, under any guise whatever, be prohibited.

3. That the staff initiate and, with the approval of the governing board of the hospital, adopt rules, regulations, and policies governing the professional work of the hospital; that these rules, regulations and policies specifically provide:

(a) That staff meetings be held at least once each month. (In large hospitals the departments may choose to meet separately.)

(b) That the staff review and analyze at regular intervals the clinical experience of the staff in the various departments of the hospital, such as medicine, surgery and obstetrics; the clinical records of patients, free and pay, to be the basis for such review and analyses.

4. That accurate and complete case records be written for all patients and filed in an accessible manner in the hospital, a complete case record being one, except in an emergency, which includes the personal history, the physical examination, with clinical, pathological, and x-ray findings when indicated; the working diagnosis; the treatment, medical and surgical; the medical progress; the condition on discharge with final diagnosis, and, in case of death, the autopsy findings when available.

5. That clinical laboratory facilities be available for the study, diagnosis, and treatment of patients, these facilities to include at least chemical, bacteriological, serological, histological, radiographic and fluoroscopic service in charge of trained technicians.

RIVAL POLICIES

The British Labor Government laid before the Imperial Conference a scheme for bulk purchase of wheat from Canada. This is a socialistic scheme inherited from the time of the great war.

The Canadian Premier refused to acquiesce in this scheme and in place of it suggested a scheme for Empire protection against the rest of the world. This is a scheme which is the very antithesis of socialism.

The Bennett scheme is likely to be agreed to by all the Dominions but not by the British Government. But the MacDonald Government is likely to go down before it at the election which may come soon. Then the Bennett scheme very possibly may go into force.

CANADA VITALLY INTERESTED

Canada is vitally interested in the outcome of the Old Country contest. The election will affect her more closely than any political fight since the days of Confederation. It is even possible that Canadian speakers may go to Britain to explain the scheme and urge its adoption, although such action would be resented by many as being an unwarranted interference.

The Bennett proposal seems to have put into the shade for the present the alternative of bulk purchase, partly because the Canadian Government is opposed to the latter and partly because most of the large newspapers of Great Britain are controlled by men who favor protection.

IS WINNER IN CONTEST

Essay By Rupert Ross on Prosperity Week

The following essay by Rupert Ross won second prize $5, presented by the Daily News, in the Prosperity Week contest:

"Prosperity Week" is here at last! Thousands of dollars are being spent in advertising it. In every city, town and village in Canada the posters cry out their declaration of war on pessimism and hardship. Stores are lowering their prices, money is getting into circulation and people are buying more Canadian goods than ever before. Economists are dusting up their hard-earned nickels and taking them to the stores to trade on Canadian-made articles. Canada is prosperous but up to date she alone lives on in ignorance of the fact. We have a better government and better living conditions than any other country in the world and we should be proud of it. Take the frowns off your faces and put them away for a more poverty-stricken age. Spread the news, tell your neighbors we're rich and want the world to know it.

This, in short, is the meaning of "Prosperity Week." To outlaw pessimism, to nourish optimism and to proclaim it to the world.

Since the stock market crash, and through the era of unemployment, Canada has been laboring under a cloud of pessimism. Even the well-to-do have kept their money out of circulation, promoting hard times. The present Prosperity Week campaign has been originated to encourage people to buy Canadian goods, thus increasing Canada's manufacturing output and giving more men work. We have yet to discover that we have the money, if it were in circulation, the natural resources, needing money to develop them, and a race of people wise and willing in every way but in realizing their own prosperity.

In Canada we often hear men speaking of the wealth and prosperity of other countries and of the poverty and desolation of our own. Many such people are only putting a general idea into words. Reading so much of unemployment, stock crashes, and the like, they think themselves abused, though they were never out of a position or bought a share of stock in their lives. If Canada's living conditions were more publicly compared with other countries, three-quarters of the pessimism would go, never to return.

Not only during Prosperity Week is it hoped we shall be optimists. The war on pessimism is to continue till every last pessimist is either driven out of the country or converted. We want prosperity, we need prosperity, and we'll have it, from Prosperity Week on.

ESSAY THAT WON PRIZE

Miss Ruth Wilkinson Received Ten Dollars Donated By Rose, Cowan & Latta

"Prosperity Week" is a week set aside this year to encourage the people of Canada to buy Canadian materials and goods, thereby developing Canada's natural resources and trade. Canadian goods are advertised in all Canadian newspapers and magazines and all the merchants of the cities are cooperating to turn the thoughts of the masses to the wealth that is Canada's today, by displaying Canadian materials in brightly decorated and attractive windows.

One of the main causes of unemployment in Canada is the inability of manufacturers to dispose of their products, due to the indifference of the public as a whole as to where their purchases are manufactured. American goods are very heavily advertised and because of the great quantities in which they are produced they can be sold cheaper. But the latter reason does not affect Canada very much now, because of the increased tariff put on American goods sent into Canada.

American people do not buy Canadian manufactures and therefore the citizens of Canada should avoid buying American products as much as possible. In doing this, Canadians would increase the prosperity of Canada and find employment for her people.

It is surprising to note that American magazines have a far larger sale in Canada than Canadian magazines. It is no wonder, then, that American goods are so widely used throughout Canada, for pages and pages of these magazines are given over to the advertising of American products. Seeds of desire are sown in the minds of the Canadians who read these attractive descriptions of American products, and they ask the merchant if he sells the advertised goods. If he does not have any in his stock he will readily secure them for his customer and soon the customers as well as their friends are using the American products continually.

Reverse this state of affairs. Buy Canadian goods as much as possible. The merchant will give you what you demand and as a citizen of Canada he would prefer to sell you Canadian goods. The responsibility rests with the people of Canada, with the people of British Columbia, with the people of Prince Rupert, with you. Insist on Canadian manufactures and the prosperity of Canada is assured.

Think of the hours spent and the reams of paper used to explain the simplest proposition. Except from a trained hand, one cannot always see on the paper the smile, the good-fellowship, the brotherly intention... the telephone, however, transmits the chuckle, the tone of displeasure, the forgiving voice, the firm intent. At once the reaction on the part of the listener at the other end of the wire can be detected, and the sails of conversation be trimmed, as necessary, to meet an unfavourable, or propitious reply.

The telephone stands today at the head of humanizing agencies.

SPORT CHAT

Another English Rugby season is under way in the Maritime Provinces and if the games played to date can be taken as a criterion of what is to come Maritime football followers are due for a fine season. The Halifax City League is well under way, with the Wanderers out in front with victories over Dalhousie and Acadia. Last season the Halifax City League winners, holders of the McCurdy Trophy since it was first offered as emblematic of the Maritime English league championship, did not compete for the trophy, finishing their league schedule too late to challenge. University of New Brunswick scored their first victory on the trophy by upsetting Caledonia, Cape Breton champions after the latter team had won the McTier Trophy, at Montreal.

U.N.B., to date, has shown another strong team while Caledonia with all of last year's regulars and a few newcomers in uniform, are aiming at the McCurdy Trophy. Caledonia faces a hard schedule, there being four teams in the Cape Breton League, but to date, the McTier Cup holders have not experienced any great difficulty in winning. Unless the Wanderers crack, they should win in Halifax, although the light young Acadia fifteen, which held the Reds to a 6-3 score, may rally. The Dalhousie Tigers do not appear to be as strong as last year, when they won the city championship. Mount Allison defeated by Charlottetown Aboquwits and Dalhousie seem to be out of the championship picture. As has been the case the last few seasons, Halifax champions, University of New Brunswick and Caledonia are expected to be in the final playoffs for the Maritime supremacy.

A Mid-Atlantic Hello

"Hello Mother. We're having a wonderful voyage, left Southampton day before yesterday and arrive Quebec day after tomorrow." The young man whose phantom outline shows in the picture of one of the deluxe apartments of the new Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Britain will be between Quebec and Southampton next June, to talk to anyone in Europe or the Americas for the first time in Canada's maritime history. Above, a recent photograph shows the new liner nearing completion on the Clyde, and the telephone installation that will be a feature of every first class bedroom or apartment. Direct connection through the ship's switchboard with any land telephone will make calling Vancouver or Glasgow from mid-Atlantic just a matter of lifting the receiver and asking for the number. The Canadian Pacific announces that the wireless telephone will be so powerful that continuous touch will be maintained with both sides of the Atlantic. The magnificent new Empress of Britain, 760 feet long, 97½ feet wide and with a speed of 24 knots, will bring Cherbourg, Southampton and Quebec more than a day closer.

headquarters and residence of the Archbishop of Canterbury, who is the head of the Anglican Church in the world. There were present no less than 307 bishops and archbishops. These were of all races, all nationalities and came from all parts of the world. The United States was represented with over 50 bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church. All Canada's archbishops or bishops were there with the exception of three whom illness prevented from attending.
Lambeth Conference lasted for over five weeks and the remainder of the time that Bishop Rix was in England he spent in missionary work on behalf of this diocese. The most of the time was spent in England where Bishop Rix visited some one hundred places. He spent two weeks in Scotland and, before coming home, visited the Continent for three weeks, going to Paris, Brussels and Antwerp. His daughter, Mrs. C. W. Breukleman, who has been living at The Hague, visited with him in Paris. Incidentally, Mr. and Mrs. Breukleman are about to leave Europe for Oklahoma where they will spend three or four months before embarking on Victoria for Java where they expect to reside for some years. Mr. Breukleman is in the service of the Shell Oil Co. and his duties necessitate extensive travelling.
Bishop Rix, asked regarding conditions in the Old Land, expressed the opinion that a person who had been there even for a year was hardly qualified to speak. As for himself, he saw little to indicate that there was want or privation although he knew it was there. Even in the slums of London, children looked stout and healthy. The dole was instrumental in this condition of affairs. Many men were getting as much under the dole as they had ever earned. The dole was an abomination, the Bishop declared. Yet it seemed that it was needed. Explaining a report as to making his last official appearance at Vanderhoof, Bishop Rix explained that this was due to the fact that Cariboo diocese was taking over the work at Vanderhoof which really belonged in that diocese but which had been administered up to now by Caledonia diocese.

Premier Takes Bond on Property in Kamloops District—Promotions in Britannia Group Service.

Premier Gold Mining Co. Ltd. has taken a bond on the Lakeview group of 12 claims situated 10 miles northwest of Mount Olie on the Canadian National Railway about 60 miles north of Kamloops in the valley of the North Thompson River. The Premier Co. will start exploration and development work at once, it is announced by Dale Pitt, general manager of the company, who recently visited the property. The new field was discovered only about a month ago and since then there has been a great deal of prospecting in the district. The new field will be quite accessible by wagon road. Samples which have been assayed show the ore to be of pyrrhotite containing good values in gold and of arsenical iron sulphide also running high values in gold. It is said that the assays have run from $80 to $130.

W. J. Sweeney, well known Smithers prospector and mining man, who has spent the past summer prospecting for the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. at the headwaters of the Morice River, has returned to Smithers where he will spend the fall and winter.

C. V. Brennan, mine superintendent of the Britannia Mining & Smelting Co., who is well known in the Alice Arm district which he visited on several occasions while in the field service of the company, has been promoted to the position of assistant general manager of the company. The appointment has been made because of the increasing expansion of the company's interests. Mr. Brennan, who has been with the company for over six years is a mining engineer and a graduate of McGill University.

EMPLOYMENT OFFICE READY PROVIDE MEN

In view of the unemployment problem with which the city has to deal it would tend to improve matters if those wishing work done of any kind would telephone the employment office, Phone 138, and ask that a man be sent to do the work. Even such trivial tasks as carrying in a load of wood, cleaning up the back yard or similar services can be looked after and those getting the work will be that much better off. Already a number of citizens are doing this but more might take the hint. The office is open all day and the men are ready and willing to work.

SAFETY'S TEN COMMANDMENTS

First: Thou shalt have no other thoughts but thy work.

Second: Thou shalt take no unnecessary risks, nor try to show off, nor play practical jokes, for by this carelessness thou mayst do injury which will have effect unto the third and fourth generations to follow.

Third: Thou shalt not swear nor lose thy temper when things do not go just right.

Fourth: Remember thou art not the only one on the job and that lives of others are just as important as thine own.

Fifth: Honor thy job and thyself that thy days may be long in employment.

Sixth: Thou shalt not clean machinery when it is in motion.

Seventh: Thou shalt not watch thy neighbor's work, but attend to thine own.

Eighth: Thou shalt not let the sleeves of thy shirt hang loose, nor the flaps of thy coat to be unbuttoned, as they may get caught in machinery and thereby do great bodily harm.

Ninth: Thou shalt not throw matches nor greasy waste on the floor, nor scatter oil around the bearings, as a dirty worker is a clumsy worker and a clumsy worker is a menace to his fellow workers.

Tenth: Thou shalt not interfere with the switches, nor the dynamos, nor the belts, nor the cables, nor the engines, nor anything else thou art told is dangerous.
