Asks Regard to Exhibition Policy At Rotary Club

At the Rotary Club luncheon yesterday, H. F. Pullen, the only director of the fair present, was asked to say something about the fair. He explained that a new line had been taken this year. Instead of spending money in trying to get exhibits from far away points an effort had been made to secure more local exhibits especially of flowers.

The speaker said the directors of the fair would be glad to know what the people generally thought of that policy, whether it would be better to spend more money in developing the showing of local grown flowers and vegetables or spend the same money in trying to bring exhibits from points as far away as Prince George. Expressed opinions in regard to which policy was favored would be welcome.

BRANCHES IN DOMINION

British Manufacturers Must Either Produce or Finish Goods Here, Says Railway Official

TORONTO, Sept. 5.—That the British manufacturer must establish Canadian branch factories if he desires to secure a permanent market for his goods in the Dominion was stated by T. A. Hooker, industrial agent of the Canadian National Railways with headquarters at London, England. At these factories either the finishing work on British made goods would be done or the complete article manufactured according to Canadian standards and design.

"Past experience has indicated," Mr. Hooker continued, "that the British manufacturer in a general way must adopt a new plan of merchandising if he is to build up a big export trade with Canada and it will be necessary for him either to produce or finish his article in a Canadian plant using Canadian workmen under Canadian management. Canadian distributing agencies should handle the goods which must conform to Canadian ideal of style." Mr. Hooker intimated that such a plan would no doubt involve time but that the Canadian business man could assist in its development by co-operation with British manufacturers' representatives stationed in Canada.

After spending several months in Eastern Canada in a study of opportunities in Canada for British industries Mr. Hooker will leave shortly for Winnipeg to continue his inspection of trade conditions in Western Canada.

MISSIONARY HAS PASSED

Late Canon T. J. Marsh Was Widely Known and Revered in North

REAL PIONEER

Had Been at Kalum Since 1908 and Before That Was in the Far North

Canon Thomas J. Marsh, venerable and revered pioneer Anglican Church missionary of the north, passed away yesterday afternoon in the Prince Rupert General Hospital. Death brought a happy release to the sufferings of deceased which had been long and trying. Although he had been in the hospital on this occasion for about two weeks, the end was not expected quite so soon and finally came rather unexpectedly.

Born in Clarksburg, Ont., 64 years ago, the late Canon Marsh was a graduate of Wycliffe College where he was a classmate of Bishop G. A. Rix. Then started an active and strenuous career for deceased in the work of his church. A very strong man, physically in younger days, in 1892 he volunteered for Indian missionary work in the Liard River country. After one year there he was transferred to Hay River on Great Slave Lake where he was for 14 years with the Indian diocesan school.

In 1897 he was married to Miss Alberta Deacon, a school teacher of Lindsay, Ont., who went with him into the remote north. In 1908 they went to Kitsumkalum with their little family, going in over the Kitimaat road for the railway was not to be built for years as yet. Around Kitsumkalum, deceased had since labored devoutly in the work of God. In the boisterous railway construction days, he was particularly active and he was a friend of all from the coast to Edmonton.

Although he had been in ill health for the last 17 years, it was only in the spring of 1926 that Canon Marsh, then a rural dean, resigned from the ministry. In recognition of his long and faithful service, he was created a canon at Christmas 1928 by Bishop Rix. Three years ago his sight failed him and at the time of his death he was blind.

The late Canon Marsh is survived, besides his widow, by one daughter—Mrs. James Farquhar of this city—and one son—Thomas Marsh of Terrace. To the bereaved family, the deepest of sympathy will be extended.

Accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Farquhar, the remains were sent on today's train to Terrace where interment will take place after a service in the little church on the side of the hill where deceased preached and ministered so long and so ably.

Prince George Wins Baseball

Defeated Smithers in Series of Two Games at First of This Week

Prince George defeated Smithers in a series of two ball games at Smithers at the first of this week. The first game resulted in a score of 9 to 7 for Prince George. The second game was so wild that Prince George made 27 runs before it was finally called. Doug Frizzell of this city played for Smithers in the first game.

Offsetting the heavy marketings, the movement to the head of the lakes is rapid. On Wednesday 4,661 cars were in transit to the lakehead, 677 cars had arrived, 563 were unloaded and 2,342 cars were awaiting unloading. Seven boats, according to the report issued by T. P. White, superintendent of car service, Canadian National Railways, western region, cleared from the lakehead with 1,819,000 bushels. Two are due to arrive and one boat is loading.

The grain movement to the Pacific Coast continues to be steady with 228 cars in transit, storage at Vancouver is 9,897,000 bushels and Prince Rupert reports 929,000 bushels in its elevator.

LAST CASE IS HEARD

G. M. Hunt Also to Be Committed For Trial on Perjury Charge

INTERESTING EVIDENCE

G. M. Hunt, local furniture dealer, the fourth defendant in perjury charges arising out of the recent federal election in this city, was remanded last night until September 10 by Police Magistrate Thomas McClymont who intimated that it was his intention to commit accused at that time for trial. This was similar to that taken in three cases previously heard.

Hunt is charged with making false statements in regard to the voting for certain men who voted in Prince Rupert.

The chief witness at last night's hearing was George J. Dawes, another furniture man, who testified that, while sitting in the polling booth at McMeekin's former brokerage office as a Conservative agent at the election, he saw Olier Besner draw up to the curb in his car containing members of the crews of the steamers Prince George and Prince Charles. Besner, he testified further, without coming out of his car, introduced these men at the curb to L. W. Patmore, Liberal campaign manager, who in turn took them into the polling booth and introduced them to Hunt, the accused. Dawes testified that there might have been from 10 to 17 men introduced in this manner at the polling booth.

Mr. Dawes told of a conversation he had had in the polling booth with Mr. Patmore. He had questioned Mr. Patmore as to Mr. Hunt's right to be in the polling booth. Mr. Patmore had told witness that he (Patmore) wanted Mr. Hunt there himself.

Still another conversation of which Mr. Dawes testified was one in which Mr. Patmore said to Mr. Hunt in the polling booth: "What are you doing, Mr. Hunt?" Mr. Hunt's reply was: "O, nothing in particular." "Well," according to words ascribed by witness to Mr. Patmore, "we shall want somebody to stick around here to vouch for the men as they come up from the boats." Mr. Hunt then remained in the booth for the whole of the election day.

Cross Examination

Milton Gonzales, defence counsel, subjected Mr. Dawes to a rather stiff cross-examination. Being told by witness that he had been appointed a fishery patrol skipper on August 26, Mr. Gonzales inquired: "Was this your little compensation for giving evidence in this case?" Mr. Dawes repudiated the suggestion, stating that he had applied for such a billet as far back as 1925. "But you did not get it until now?" asked Mr. Gonzales. "No," agreed witness.

Chinaman Dies Aboard Steamer

Jang Lim Passed Away on Cardena Last Night While on Way From Haysport Here

Jang Lim, a Vancouver Chinaman, who had been employed at Haysport Cannery, boarded the steamer Cardena there last evening, being ill at the time, and passed away aboard ship not long after it had left that point. The body was brought on here and an inquiry was held by Coroner C. L. Monroe. The belief is that a heart attack was the final cause of death which was quite natural.

The body will be forwarded tonight on the Cardena to Vancouver for burial. Deceased was 45 years of age and married.

A. Motherwell, chief inspector of fisheries, stated here. "To date," he said, "United States fishermen in northern Puget Sound have taken more than 150,000 cases of fish bred in British Columbia streams while the pack of the Fraser River canneries is as yet only about 29,000 cases."

THE FAIR

The annual Fall Fair was different this year from any that have gone before. It had two features that attracted great attention. One of these was the flower display which was far superior to anything ever attempted in the city before. The other was the large native exhibit.

It is urged by a good many that it is better to encourage the growing of flowers in the city than it is to bring in turnips and potatoes from distant places like Prince George. At the best only very few Prince George people visit Prince Rupert and do business here. The local gardens are, however, an attraction to all tourists as well as an aesthetic education to the residents of the city. Once the growing of flowers becomes general, the tendency to steal flowers will have passed. There will be no need to steal because there will be so many everywhere that stealing will be unnecessary. Not many cases of taking flowers have been reported this year but there have been a few outstanding ones and it is time to see that this stops.

Next year possibly the local fair board will see its way clear to offer larger prizes for various classes than was done this year and by collaboration with the flower growers other classes may be opened to exhibitors. If the exhibition can do anything toward improving the appearance of the city it will have been well worth while.

NATIVE ARTS

The native exhibit this year was outstanding because of its splendid showing of native art. The young natives at Coqaleetza Institute are encouraged to use their own native motifs in their drawings and color work and the effect is wonderful. Some of the designs seen at the fair in the native section were far superior to those from the other schools because of the fact that they were different as well as splendidly executed. Pretty soon British Columbia should become well known for its Indian art, if only the young people will keep up the work after they leave school.

BASKETWORK AND CARVING

It seems a great pity that native basketwork and carving should have been discarded. It had a style all its own and examples of native work are still greatly in demand. The fact that cheap imitations are being made should not discourage the native people from keeping up the art handed down to them by their forefathers. The making of totems and baskets is something that cannot be done elsewhere just like the Indians here have done it, but the art is almost a lost one.

DIAMOND SERIES HERE HAS CLIMAX

Prince Rupert Winner Of Exciting Baseball Game from Vancouver

Eleven Inning Encounter, Memorable In Sporting Annals of City, Broken Up Yesterday Afternoon By Benny Wendle's Circuit Clout

In the most wildly exciting game ever played in the baseball history of Prince Rupert, Prince Rupert beat the stellar Vancouver Athletic Club nine by a score of four to three yesterday afternoon. It was the second game of the series of three which is being played in the Fair Week sports program here. A crowd which packed the stands cheered themselves hoarse and hoarser from the very start to the eleventh inning finish of an encounter which virtually scintillated with thrilling situations and brilliant plays.

Vancouver opened the scoring with a run in the second while Prince Rupert clouted out two hits for that number of runs to take the lead in their half. Vancouver was on top again with two runs in the seventh and Prince Rupert evened it up with one in the eighth. Thus they stood three all until Benny Wendle busted up the hectic party in the eleventh by knocking out a homer with nobody on board.

Vancouver made 10 hits and Prince Rupert 11. One error was marked up against each side. Vancouver had its pitching ace, Bill Richardson, Big League recruit, in the box while Prince Rupert pitched its own Bill Lambie.

The third and final game in the series will be played this evening and if ever there were prospects for a big attendance at a ball game in this old town it is today with the honors to date resting easy.

Richardson pitched fine ball and got himself out of some terrible holes. On two occasions, with a man on third, and one of them with the bases loaded and none out, he held the locals scoreless. Lambie pitched a fine game also, tightening up well in the pinches.

For the locals, Downie and Loblick each hit safely three times, the former getting two doubles, while George Howe got two safeties. Papke, Perkins and Cole each collected two hits for the visitors.

First Inning
Papke hit the first ball pitched to deep centre for two bases. Cross lifted one out to Arseneau. Jacobsen hit a high fly which Lambie caught. Hall drew a base on balls. Lewis struck out. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Prince Rupert—Wendle fouled out to Hall, W. Mitchell and Downie both struck out, Richardson's drop completely fooling them. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second Inning
V. A. C.—Perkins hit the first ball to centre for a single. Cole doubled to right, Perkins stopping at third. Richardson hit one to Bill Mitchell which he missed, Perkins scoring. Mitchell threw home to catch Cole at the plate and Downie threw to second and Richardson was caught out at first by Loblick. McKissock walked. Papke was thrown out at first, Lambie to Loblick. One run, two hits, one error.

Prince Rupert—Loblick singled. Lambie walked. Howe struck out. Arseneau was thrown out. Hall to Cross, both runners advancing. A. Mitchell hit a Texas Leaguer to left both runners scoring, and he took second on the throw-in. Chenoski went out to Cross, unassisted. Two runs, two hits, no errors.

Third Inning
V. A. C.—Cross struck out. Jacobsen rolled one down the first base line and hit the ball as he passed it and was called out for interference. Lambie threw out Hall. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Prince Rupert—Wendle fanned. W. Mitchell went out to Cross unassisted. Richardson threw out Downie. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning

V. A. C.—Lewis singled to centre. Perkins made his second single of the game. Cole and Richardson both were out on infield flies to W. Mitchell. McKissock drove one out to the left field fence which Arseneau caught without having to move 10 feet. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Prince Rupert—Loblick went out, Jacobsen to Cross. Lambie struck out. Howe singled to right. Arseneau struck out. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Fifth Inning
V. A. C.—Wendle threw out Papke at first. Cross was out, W. Mitchell to Loblick. Jacobsen fled out to Chenoski. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Prince Rupert—Richardson tossed A. Mitchell out at first. Chenoski singled through the pitcher's box. Wendle was robbed of a hit by Jacobsen's fine catch in left field. W. Mitchell hit a hard drive to right which McKissock caught. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Sixth Inning
V. A. C.—Hall struck out. Lewis fled out to Lambie. Perkins walked. Cole hit a fly to W. Mitchell. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Prince Rupert—Downie drove one down the third base line for two bases. Loblick was safe on an infield hit along the third base line. Lambie walked, filling the bases. Howe and Arseneau both struck out. Alex Mitchell was out, Papke to Cross. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Seventh Inning
V. A. C.—Richardson struck out. McKissock was thrown out, Chenoski to Loblick. Papke singled to centre. He stole second, and scored on Cross' single to centre, Cross going to second on the throw to the plate. Jacobsen singled to right. Cross scoring. Hall fled out to Arseneau. It was a fine catch. Two runs, three hits, no errors.

Prince Rupert—Chenoski struck out. Wendle fled out to Cole. Bill Mitchell struck out. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Eighth Inning
V. A. C.—Lewis struck out. Perkins went out, W. Mitchell to Loblick. Cole singled and stole second. Richardson struck out. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Prince Rupert—Downie singled, and went to second when Cross let Richardson's throw get past him. Loblick hit one down the third base line and Downie was safe when Richardson tried to catch him at third. Lambie struck out. Howe hit to right, Downie scoring. Richardson threw out Arseneau at first. A. Mitchell hit one to Richardson who tagged Loblick, trying to make home. One run, two hits, one error.

Ninth Inning
V. A. C.—McKissock was out on a liner to Lambie who made a nice stop. Straight, batting for Papke, drove a liner at Lambie who threw him out too. Cross was out, Chenoski to Loblick. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Prince Rupert—McKissock now playing second base and Straight in right field. Chenoski was thrown out. McKissock to Cross. Lewis caught Wendle's fly to centre. W. Mitchell was out, Richardson to Cross. No runs, no hits no errors.

Tenth Inning
V. A. C.—Jacobsen walked. Hall struck out. Lewis was thrown out. Lambie to Loblick. Jacobsen going to second. Perkins hit a hot one to short that Wendle got, making a wonderful catch. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Prince Rupert—Downie hit his second double down the third base line. Loblick repeated his former trick of an infield hit, Downie going to third. Lambie struck out. Howe struck out. Arseneau walked, filling the bases. A. Mitchell struck out. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Eleventh Inning
V. A. C.—Cole fled out to W. Mitchell. Richardson hit a double to left and went to third on slow fielding. McKissock struck out. Downie caught Straight's foul near the fence. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Prince Rupert—Chenoski struck out. Wendle hit one to deep centre for a home run. One run one hit, no errors.

It was a great pitchers' battle all the way with honors even until Wendle smacked that one in the eleventh.

George Arseneau nalled a couple of pretty ones in left field, the one Hall hit along the foul line and McKissock's fly which he was caught under, sitting on the fence post.

Pioneer of Gold Rush Has Passed Away In England

The romance of the Klondike gold rush is recalled by the death of Dr. Turner's Home, Newcastle, of John Wilkinson, of Rowantree, St. John's Chapel, Weardale, says an Old Country exchange.

He was one of a party of six who discovered the "El Dorado" claim. Mr. Wilkinson was 76 years of age and was a native of Weardale. His life was full of adventure and travel.

At an early age he emigrated to Canada, and in 1896 he and three other men—one of whom, William Sloan, afterwards became the Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines and Agriculture for British Columbia—formed a party and set out for the Yukon to prospect for gold.

After a journey full of hardship and danger, they ultimately arrived in the Yukon. When Mr. Wilkinson and five others discovered the "El Dorado" claim in the Klondike, he returned to Canada and gave the news to the world.

With his son, he again made the journey to the Klondike in 1898. On his return to England Mr. Wilkinson resided for some years in Newcastle, and it was only about two years ago that he took up residence in his native dale.

LAST CASE IS HEARD

Mr. Gonzales examined witness closely as to his memory and hearing. Counsel thought it was strange that witness could remember everything that happened on election day so clearly while he was not so sure about other days thereafter. Mr. Gonzales also questioned Mr. Dawes' ability to hear the conversation that had gone on at the curb between Mr. Besner and Mr. Patmore from where he sat in a busy polling booth supposedly engaged in his duties as agent. In spite of questioning along this line, Mr. Dawes stuck resolutely to his original statements as to what he had heard on election day. At one point on being asked what he was doing on the morning before election day, Mr. Dawes declined to answer. The magistrate ruled that he should answer. Mr. Dawes then said he did not know what he had been doing then. Witness said that he was clear about what had happened on election day before he was aware that the charges being brought forward were serious. Mr. Dawes would not admit that Mr. Hunt was a competitor of his in business. Witness had seen Mr. Patmore hand no slips to the voters concerned so as to save confusion. He knew nothing about this. At one point Mr. Dawes requested that Mr. Gonzales not stand so close to him and speak more civilly.

A. H. Robson, purser of the steamer Prince George, gave evidence as to George S. Doherty, third officer; Maurice A. Martin, assistant purser; Ernest Blatchford, junior engineer; Albert J. Edgecumbe, extra first officer; Peter T. Kikulesky, fireman; James Hardcastle, oiler; Robert Baldwin, junior engineer; Walter Cowan; Cecil Robson, junior officer, and Percy McIntyre, second officer, being members of the crew of the steamer when it was in port on election day. He (witness) had known all these men personally over periods of years and testified that the home of each man was in Vancouver. No further reference was made to any of these names except that Mr. Dawes, in his evidence, recalled the name of Hardcastle as being that of one of the men he had heard being introduced.

E. H. Mortimer gave technical evidence as to the conduct of the election. He identified several books and documents including a card showing oath forms to be taken by voters whose names were not on the list and also the oath for the person vouching for such a voter. In the poll book the name of Mr. Hunt was shown several times as having vouched for such voters. There were only the three witnesses.

CONCERT IS FINE

Greenville Band Acquitted Itself Creditably In Recital Last Night At Fair Building

Entertainment last night at the fair building was featured by the concert rendered by the Greenville band which demonstrated fully the skill and harmony of this fine musical organization, whose conductor is Fred McKay and manager, Johnson Russ. Outstanding of the band selections was a rendition of the overture "Raymond." The band had prepared this in anticipation of a band contest being held here but, seeing there was no contest, decided to play it anyway. Judges of music in the audience were well pleased. In addition to the band numbers, there were remarkable bass solos by George Leeson, a 12-year-old boy. "Light Cavalry" was rendered delightfully by Prof. Owens of Vancouver, and Charles McNeill, Herbert Martin and Joshua McKay as a band instrument quartette. During the evening selections were rendered by the Prince Rupert Boys' Band in their usual capable style and a full vaudeville program by outside entertainers was dispensed.

NATIVE COPPER

Rather Unique Find Made on A. and T. Group at Stewart

STEWART, Sept. 5.—Bill Tooth came to town recently from the A. & T. group with a few samples of copper ore taken from a vein considerably farther up the hill from where previous work on this property has been done. One of these samples, taken from the vein capping, was unique in that it contained flakes of native copper which could be picked from the rock with a pen-knife. Native copper is not found in the district to any great extent.

Another grab sample, taken from the vein proper and assayed by C. M. Bryant, astonished the owners with its high gold content worth $27.20, in addition to 5.2% copper and 3 ounces silver to the ton.

Mr. Tooth and Jack Howse have been doing considerable prospecting on the property in the last three weeks and have come to a new conclusion regarding the vein system. It will be remembered that last year the Consolidated M. & S. Co. had the A. & T. under option but relinquished it after a program of diamond drilling. The new owners believe, however, that if they are right about the vein system the future development of the property will take on an entirely different complexion. Dr. Mandy, resident government engineer, has been asked to pay a visit to the property and check up on their findings. The A. & T. is situated on Bear River ridge about eight miles north of Stewart.

HIGHWAY SURVEYS

The first large aerial road survey ever undertaken by the province is under way in the north, to locate the proposed Alaska highway. Planes carrying engineers have been operating over a vast territory between Hazelton and the Yukon boundary, in co-operation with ground parties. The progress of the ground surveys has been facilitated by the transportation of surveyors by air as far north as Dease Lake. As a result, the government hopes to have a fairly good idea of a possible road location by the time snow flies.

Ronald Bartlett, formerly of the local Post Office staff, has now joined the Railway Mail Service and is running on the trains between here and Prince George.
