Two Thirds of Coal Miners Walked out in Response to Strike Order in the States

Union Leaders at Chicago Say That Upward of 394,000 Obeyed Call out of 615,000 Men Employed Throughout Country.

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
WASHINGTON, November 1. (8 a. m.) During the night mixed reports have been coming in from the mining states of men who decided to remain at work and others who went on strike, despite a restraining order of the Federal Court to prevent the strike leaders from taking action.
It is not possible to estimate what proportion of the 425,000 miners affected are remaining at work and what proportion walked out. The real test may not come until Monday. Saturday generally is a "dead day" in the mines. Meanwhile organized labor leaders showed signs of taking up the cudgels on the general issue over the right to strike.
President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, with Vice-President Voltan and Secretary Morrison, protested to Attorney-General Palmer against the action of the Government in issuing the injunction and predicted that it could "only result in creating new and more disturbing issues which may not be confined solely to miners." The heads of the great railway brotherhoods also conferred with the Attorney-General, but disclaimed that they did more than offer their services to intervene.
Attorney-General Palmer emphasized to the labor leaders that the Government's injunction was in nowise an infringement of the workingman's rights to strike, but was a lawful procedure against a calamity to the country.
An injunction has been issued for the Government acting for all the people and not for the employers, acting in conflict with their employees.
The Attorney-General declined to predict what would be done if the miners failed to heed the Federal court's order. The court itself possesses means to deal with those who disregard its mandates, he said.
CHICAGO, November 1. (Noon). Upward of 394,000 bituminous coal miners from a total of 615,000 employed throughout the country, walked out in response to the general strike call, according to reports received by union leaders.

Deputy Administrator Wires U. S. Railway Director Asking for Order.

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Holmes, Director General of the United States railways at Washington, requesting that an order be issued restraining the railways from consigning coal en route to Canada.

SIR GEORGE BURY LEAVES FOR ORIENT IN PULP INTERESTS

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
VANCOUVER, November 1.—Sir George Bury, managing director of the Whalen Pulp and Paper Mills, Ltd., left yesterday for China aboard the steamship Empress of Asia. "The enormous expansion of the pulp trade in the Orient has made it necessary for me to make this trip as several large deals are pending and British Columbia needs the business," said Sir George, who explained that already the Oriental trade in pulp had expanded to such an extent that his company's plant capacity has been increased from 56,000 tons per year to 75,000 tons.

Don Cameron returned to Alice this evening on the Prince Rupert.

BIG START FOR VICTORY LOAN

Grand Total of Subscriptions up to Last Night Was $129,781,600.

BONDS MORE POPULAR THAN A YEAR AGO

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
TORONTO, November 1.—The Victory Loan campaign for five days is nearly thirty million dollars ahead of the same time last year. The total subscriptions up to last night amount to $129,781,600, whereas for the first five days of last year the amount raised was $100,202,050. This is the official announcement made this morning.
The bonds seem more popular than they were a year ago or there is more money to invest. The indications are that the moneyed men of the country consider them good buying and will purchase heavily.

STEWART SHOWS GREAT ACTIVITY

Many People Will Winter There and Trial Shipments Will Be Made.

For the past few days there have been a large number of Stewart visitors in the city. They all maintain that Stewart is coming once again into its own and that the present renewed activity in the Portland Canal camp is permanent. Although the winter is coming on owners of many of the properties intend to go ahead with development work right through the season of snow. This accounts for the large shipments of materials and supplies that are being taken into the camp by every boat going there.
Although the Premier mine is the only property that has so far done any real commercial shipping, there are many others that will make trial shipments this winter and expect to be steady shippers by spring. In the meantime the necessary development work is going on unabated. There are some very high grade showings and every likely looking spot has been staked and the stakers are holding on.

Route to Mines.

The Premier mine which really started the place off on its latest boom is located some 15 miles from Tide water up the Salmon River. All packing of supplies is done up this river from Hyder and it is 13 miles before the pack trains finally cross into Canada, where the rich findings are located. This accounts for the fame and sudden growth of Hyder, Alaska, which along with Stewart is a distributing point for the new mining fields although it is located in Alaska, while the mines are in Canada. The reason for this course being taken is that there is better grade for trails and roads and it is more unobstructed. Any railroad that may be built into these mineral areas will have to take the present route.

Stay for Winter.

Many of the people are going to stay with the camp this winter. There will be at least 150 people wintering there and there are now 19 children attending school under the new teacher, Miss Thompson. In the spring there will be the usual influx of floating population to such a place and Stewart promises to be a live town next year when business gets started on a permanent basis.
Summing up what may be gathered from the remarks of people in all businesses from that point they appear to have unqualified confidence in the camp and they all have bright hopes of "making their pile." Stewart will be one of the richest mining camps in the world when the development dork has been carried on to such a point as to uncover the wealth and get out mineral to aid in developing and discovering further values.

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

HUNTING SEA LIONS TO GET THEIR HIDES

Victoria Man Kills 700 in Waters of Queen Charlotte Sound.

TELLS OF METHOD ADOPTED BY FISHERMEN

James Gessford of Victoria has been hunting sea lions in his fishing boat and took 700 of them around Queen Charlotte Sound. In telling the Victoria Colonist about it he says:

"The method of hunting the lions is very interesting. You have to get them when they come out of the water upon the rocks, and hit them from an advantageous point higher up. The reason for this is that they never look up for danger. They always look straight out to sea, even if a shot were fired from above. We therefore always lodged on a rock higher up to do our shooting.

The Jugular Vein.
"One has to be a very good shot to be a successful hunter of sea lions. There is only one place where the shot will do its work. If the hunter hits the animal in any other part of its body, the only result will be that your prize will jump or roll into the water and immediately sink. As they never get far from the water's edge, it takes very little effort to get back into the water in case of danger. The one vital spot is behind the ears, and as the lions have very small ears, usually not more than an inch in size, it requires a very accurate aim to plunk your shot through the jugular vein.

Strange Rocks.
"The lions have a habit of pulling out to the most dangerous rocks to be found. This seems to be an instinctive effort towards self-preservation. They will lodge on rocks that are cauldrons when the storm-tossed seas sweep over them, and as usually there are only about three hours between the tides, when it is safe to venture to the rocks, the time in which the hunter can do his shooting is limited.

"The rocks on which the sea lions land are worth special mention. They are of a peculiar nature, and I would judge are of volcanic origin. The surface is like pulverized glass and it is impossible to slip on them. A pair of boots made of ordinary leather would be cut to pieces on those rocks in a very few hours. This fact is sufficient to demonstrate the quality of leather to be made from the hide of the lion. If land cattle were to infest the rocks their hides would be torn into shreds in an incredibly short time. But with the sea lion the hides remain intact—the grain is not scratched—and that is the important thing when it comes to tanning.

Like Taking Candy.
"When the cow lion is breeding the most dangerous of the rocks are chosen for the young litter, and at such times the hunting of pups is like taking candy from a baby.

"But after you have fired your first shot don't the rest of the lions jump into the water for safety?

"No. That is the strange part of it. They seem to have no thought of danger from any other source than from the sea. When a shot is fired from higher up the rock, the lions look straight ahead on the water for danger, and crouch further on to the rock for safety. All you have to do is sit there and pick them off if you are a good enough shot. But if you do not hit the jugular vein they roll into the water and sink like a piece of lead. If you hit them in the right place they drop right where they are hit, and emit long streams of blood from their wound.

"One lion will weigh anywhere from 2,000 to 2,500 pounds. The hides are about an inch thick, and very tough. It makes the very finest of rough leather, such as is used for workman's mitts, saddles and such like. The chief trouble seems to be that it wears so well that manufacturers buck it, because it reduces sales.

Destroy the Fish.
"There is, however, almost an inexhaustible supply, and they should be hunted down, not only for the hides, but because they eat up thousands of tons of fish each season. I have seen statistics somewhere which claimed that it takes 50 pounds of fish a day to

MANY REGISTER ON VOTERS' LIST
Over One Hundred Names Added Yesterday Before Final Closing of Lists.

Yesterday was a very busy day in the city clerk's office, as it was the last chance for householders and license holders to get their names on the voters' list for the 1920 municipal elections. There were more registrations this year than in the last four or five years and a greater interest was taken by the general public in getting on the lists. Even though the city officials had done everything to get people to realize that if they were classed as householders or license holders they must register before 5 o'clock last night, still it is known that many missed their voting privileges. Even a well-informed secretary of a local organization asked last night if a bunch of his members could go up after supper and register. City Clerk Woods even had a call at 1:30 this morning from some one wanting to register.

It is very likely that this year's voters' list will have in the neighborhood of 2,600 names on it or roughly speaking an increase of between 400 and 500 from last year, which was something over 2,100. There were 107 registrations made yesterday alone and 274 during the month of October. The city clerk is now busy compiling lists of the names and the complete list will be ready in December after all registrations close.

The time for property holders is up to the end of November.

The supplying case against Wm. Brown and O. Donald was disposed of in the police court this morning. They were found guilty of supplying extract to an Indian family and getting them all drunk.

Wm. Brown, who is not a stranger in local police circles, was given three months' imprisonment without the option of a fine. His partner in crime, O. Donald, drew a fine or three months' hard. W. O. Fulton appeared for the accused.

*Sam King, a Chinese, accused of having drugs in his possession was remanded till Monday.

INTEREST CONTINUES IN MUSICAL COMEDY

There promises to be a big crowd out tonight to the musical comedy at the Westholme Theatre tonight. Saturday is usually a popular night for theatre goers and it is not often they have an opportunity to go to anything but the pictures. That is the great reason why so many are turning out. The special feature in addition to the comedy is the Hawaiian trio and the lady who dances the hulu hulu so well.

Get Your Money's Worth

Hearing The New Edison for the first time is like opening the blinds to the sunlight.

You expect to hear the familiar "talking machine tone."

Instead—there pours forth the voice, or the music of the instrument, in all its natural beauty—pure and full, and indistinguishable from the living artist.

When you choose an Edison RE-CREATION, you receive the actual voice of the artist or his masterly instrumental performance—nothing more, nothing less.

We know that when you select an Edison RE-CREATION, you are getting your full money's worth because we have proof.

Two thousand musical critics have endorsed our claim that

The NEW EDISON
"The Phonograph with a Soul"

RE-CREATES the human voice and the music of human played instruments without the slightest deviation from the original.

"What the Critics Say", tells the story completely. Ask for a copy; and also for our beautiful new look "Edison and Music" when you come to hear the New Edison.

HOSPITAL DANCE A HUGE SUCCESS

Large Number Present to Celebrate Hallowe'en and Benefit Local Institution.

The Hallowe'en Ball given by the Ladies Auxiliary of the General Hospital in the St. Andrew's hall last evening was undoubtedly one of the largest and most successful dances ever held in the city. The affair was put on for the benefit of the local General Hospital and the energetic and efficient arrangements which the ladies have been working on for the last few weeks were well rewarded by the big success which was attained. There were hundreds of tickets sold before the dance and many more paid admission at the door. There must have been something like 400 people present and it is expected that the affair will be quite as successful financially as it was from every other standpoint.

Although the ball was of a more or less informal nature a number of new and beautiful gowns made their appearance and the floor with its crowd of dancers presented a beautiful scene. The moonlight waltzes quite carried the more sentimental away, with the seducing strains of the appropriate music provided by Prof. Harvey and his full orchestra. For the fox trots and one steps they gave the necessary vivacity while for their waltzes the proper dreaminess was evident. The floor was in excellent shape and with the taking out of the old platform where the orchestra used to be placed much more room was given for dancing. The orchestra now plays on the balcony and the music is carried much better from the new position.

Decorations.

The hall was tastefully and appropriately decorated, symbolic of the Hallowe'en season with black and yellow designs and hangings. The lamps were all hung in yellow white the walls covered with yellow bunting, were relieved with silhouette cuttings of all the Hallowe'en legendary associations such as owls, black cats, witches and so forth. For the beautiful appearance and order of the hall much credit is due to the decoration committee which was convened by Mrs. L. W. Kerwin, assisted by Mrs. Dawson and Miss Rothwell.

The dancing began about 10 o'clock and supper started at midnight. Owing to the large number of guests there were fully four sittings in the supper room which was another picture in tasteful decoration. The supper itself was also typical of the occasion and consisted chiefly of pumpkin pie, doughnuts, gingerbread and coffee. Here another compliment might be paid to the ladies in charge, the supper was well handled and despite the big task of feeding so many, all went away pleased at one of the most tasty suppers provided at any dance in the city. When, finally, at 2:30 a.m. the orchestra played the same waltz there was not a person ready to go home.

Committees.

The committee in charge of the dance consisted of Mrs. McClymont, Mrs. Darton, Mrs. Carmichael, Mrs. Blance, Mrs. Pringle, Mrs. D. Thomson, Mrs. L. W. Kerwin and Mrs. Reddie. Each and every one of the ladies worked unsparingly for the pleasure of the guests and the success of the gathering. Mr. Blance officiated at the door and Geo. Frizzell in his own genial and popular way made an excellent master of ceremonies.

The patronesses were Mrs. McClymont, Mrs. D. G. Stewart, Mrs. C. A. Eggert, Mrs. W. T. Kergin, Mrs. L. W. Kergin, Mrs. J. P. Cade and Mrs. N. M. McNeill.

The directors of the hospital and the matron and a number of the nurses were present.

Buy Victory Bonds Through the Banks on the Instalment Plan

CANADA'S banks will make it possible for every Canadian man and woman to buy all the Victory Bonds they can pay for in ten months.

The Finance Minister has made arrangements with the bank managers throughout the Dominion to give every co-operation to enable you to buy all the Victory Bonds you can possibly pay for on the instalment plan.

You do not need to be a customer of a bank to buy bonds under this instalment plan—it is open to everyone.

Put every dollar you can gather together into Victory Bonds—and then go to any bank and buy on the instalment plan all the Victory Bonds you can pay for during the next ten months.

Under this plan you pay ten per cent. on or before November 15th, and ten per cent. each month till August 16, 1920, when you will get your bond. The interest charged you by the bank is balanced by the interest you get on your Victory Bonds.

Any branch of any bank will store the Victory Bonds of small investors for safe keeping for a year without charge.

Buy all the Victory Bonds you can pay for — then buy more on the instalment plan. The banks will help you.

Employers' Credits—The banks have decided to make loans to employers of labour covering the subscriptions of their employees—the rate of interest to be the same as the yield of the bonds—5½%—the loans to be made for 90 per cent. of the amount subscribed—and to be paid off in monthly instalments. The banks have unanimously agreed that these loans will not be considered as impairing the amounts of credits for other purposes.

Advances to Investors—The banks have agreed also to grant reasonable credits to subscribers to the Loan at the rate of 5½% per annum, on loans to be repaid within one year. The amount loaned will be 90 per cent. of the subscription.

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee, in co-operation with the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada.
