COL. McMORDIE AGAIN WINS ACTION

Appeal of Clift Ford Against Judgment of Supreme Court Loses

Owner of Old Westholme Theatre Loses Second Round in Legal Battle Over Fire Escape Repairs

VANCOUVER, March 5.—The British Columbia Court of Appeals yesterday dismissed an appeal of Clift Ford of London, England, from a Supreme Court decision of Mr. Justice Fisher who gave judgment in favor of Stewart P. McMordie in the sum of $1736 in an action surrounding the Westholme Theatre at Prince Rupert. The plaintiff's claim was based on expenditures made on the theatre pursuant to an order of the provincial fire marshal. The judgment was varied slightly. If the parties cannot agree upon the cost of certain minor changes in the theatre, the matter will be referred to the registrar.

The appeal of Mr. Ford was argued at Victoria early in January when Milton Gonzales appeared for the appellant and J. W. deB. Farris K.C. of Vancouver, on behalf of Col. McMordie.

Canada in Fifty Years To Be One of World's Great Powers--Howard

Retiring British Ambassador to United States Gives Glowing Address to Pilgrim's Club in London

LONDON, March 5.—(Canadian Press Cable)—“Canada in the next fifty years will be financially and economically one of the great powers of the world,” declared Sir Esme Howard, retiring British Ambassador to the United States in his address before the Pilgrims of London last night. He pictured in glowing words the future of Canada. “Her potential wealth in water-power, minerals and agricultural resources is beyond the dreams of avarice. Her people are strong, reliable, energetic and capable. Nothing so far as I can see threatens her from without or within. She is destined unquestionably to take the highest place among the nations and will be worthy of it.”

Court of Appeals Finds They Come Under Minimum Wage Act

VANCOUVER, March 5.—The British Columbia Court of Appeals decided yesterday that the Male Minimum Wage Board must fix a minimum wage for druggists. NEDDEN IN WINNIPEG

En Route to England Where He Will Take Charge of C.N.R. Steamer Prince David

WINNIPEG, March 5.—Capt. H. E. Nodden, veteran master of the Canadian National Steamships on the Pacific Coast, and Mrs. Nedden, passed through Winnipeg yesterday en route to Birkenhead, England, where Capt. Nedden will remain until the completion of two of the three new steamships now in the course of construction for the Pacific Coast service of the company.

Upon the completion of the Prince David, he will take charge of the palatial new liner and sail it to Vancouver, via the Panama Canal, early in June where it will inaugurate the new tri-city service between Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle on July 28 out of Vancouver.

This is the first time in 20 years that Capt. Nedden has visited the British Isles, having sailed the ss. Prince George, which has, during recent years been plying between Vancouver and Prince Rupert, from Glasgow, Scotland to Vancouver in 1910 via the Straits of Magellan. Mrs. Nedden came to Vancouver a year later on the completion of the Panama Canal.

Capt. and Mrs. Nedden will sail from Halifax on March 10, aboard the White Star liner Doric.

MATTER OF NEW HOTEL

Local Project Not Being Overlooked By Railway Company

While no information of an official nature is available locally, there is reason to believe that the Canadian National Railway is not overlooking the idea of establishing a new tourist hotel here. Representatives of the company have, it is understood, been looking over sites recently. A good harbor view, it is reported, is particularly desired as well as a central location.

More may be heard shortly of this matter which Sir Henry Thornton, president of the railway, has given assurance will receive attention. It was the suggestion of the railway head on one occasion that the hotel might be built here when the new coast steamers were placed in operation. That will be this summer.

RECORDS AT LIBRARY ARE ALL BEATEN

Total Volumes Taken Out In Twenty Days Was 5,112 During February

The month of February was the busiest the Prince Rupert public library ever had. During the 29 days the library was open to the public there were 5,112 books taken out or an average per day of 255.6.

During the same time 75 new borrowers were registered and 31 cancelled, making a net gain to the number of borrowers of 44, bringing the total borrowers up to 2955.

The month's borrowings included 3071 volumes of fiction, 699 non-fiction, 1256 juvenile and 185 in the duplicate pay department.

Books were received during the month, three by gift and 70 by purchase but to offset this 42 had to be removed from the shelves as no longer fit for circulation. The total number of books now in the library is 7,131.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Ex-president W. H. Taft, who has been seriously ill and not expected to live, made a noticeable rally yesterday and rested well last night.

from without or within. She is destined unquestionably to take the highest place among the nations and will be worthy of it.”

Speaking of the establishment of separate diplomatic missions in Washington by the Irish Free State, Canada and South Africa, he said: “I know there were plenty of croakers who believed that this meant the disruption of the Empire and even after the resolution of the Imperial conference of 1926 establishing complete independence in home and external affairs of various self-governing members of the Empire, there were persons who would have liked to put spokes in the wheel. There are those in this country who have not realized that George V is on the throne and not George III. To me, frankly, the establishment of this community of free states legations seemed but the logical evolution of the most marvellous political organization the world has ever seen built not on centralized force but on decentralized good will and mutual understanding.”

“Never from the arrival of the first Dominion minister, to my departure was there a shadow of misunderstanding between the Irish Legation, the Canadian Legation, the South Africa Legation and the British Embassy. We have all scrupulously respected each other's independence, we all co-operated in the common interest wherever that was needed. If we differed it was always a friendly difference of opinion. To my Dominion colleagues, one and all, therefore, I owe the most hearty thanks. But because there were so many more common interests with the Canadian Legation, we at the Embassy were in the most constant and closest touch with the Canadian Minister and his staff. Mr. Vincent Massey and I became almost brothers and the last house I slept in in Washington was the Canadian Legation. Mr. and Mrs. Massey being always the kindest and most thoughtful hosts asked us to be their guests during the last few days of our stay while the Embassy was being dismantled. “At the last indeed I wondered how we could ever have carried on as long as we did in Washington before a Canadian Legation was set up to look after Canadian affairs. You can easily imagine what a position it was. To be supposed to look after the affairs of a rapidly developing country of ten million inhabitants having a frontier of 3,000 miles in length continuous with the one to which I was accredited, and yet without any direct permanent link with that country. When I look back on the situation now, it makes my hair stand on end at the responsibility of the position and the thousand and one chances of serious misunderstanding that could have arisen. The fact is no other solution is possible.”

REPUDIATE PEACE JIM

Who Is This Mysterious Man Who Favors Southern Outlet

(By Page Rideout, member of Peace River & Prince Rupert Publicity Council)

We in the Peace River Country have read and heard a great deal of "Peace River Jim" but, as I have been in the country since 1914 and never as yet have seen or heard of this gentleman being anywhere on the 600 miles of its navigable waters in that time, we cannot but wonder how he lays claim to the title that he seems to enjoy so much.

And now as he is putting himself up as an authority in dictating the railway policies of the country, and, as his right bower, Mr. Dimsdale is trying to divert the attention of the railway people to the south, and "Peace River Jim" has his northern scheme both of which can be numbered among the many causes that have held up our Peace River and Prince Rupert railway these many years. The foundations of both their schemes are foreign to this. The real Peace River country, which is now putting up the wheat that, if it were handled as it should be, would have put our port of Prince Rupert on the map as it should have been years ago.

Therefore, we think it is high time that some one whose home is in the country should take a hand in their wild ideas.

If "Peace River Jim" had been in the Peace River country since Sir Henry Thornton's visit, he would have known that we took Sir Henry at his word and produced the ten million bushels of wheat the first year that he threw out the challenge. Yes, if Mr. Cornwall had the shadow of claim to his title he would have known that there has been nearly ten million bushels of wheat already shipped of the 1929 crop. It is now over a year since Mr. Beatty made his famous hop, skip and jump from his private car to the parliament buildings in Edmonton and grabbed this little system off the bargain counter of the the Alberta Government and yet there has not been a dollar expended in reconditioning the system.

Pleasing Mr. Beatty

On top of this we have Messrs. Cornwall and Dimsdale throwing out their side lines north and south—which is just what Mr. Beatty enjoys and says with a smile the whole thing will run a year or two yet while these guys are figuring out their schemes.

Now is it any wonder that we are of the opinion that it is high time for all outsiders, to stand aside while we are putting it up to the government of Canada to build a railway from Hazelton east to Hudson Hope and then if the C.P.R. and C.N.R. refuse to join up their branches from Fairview and Hythe with the new line at Hudson Hope. Then let the government come right on in the country with branch lines and pick up our wheat and take it to Prince Rupert where it belongs.

Let me tell Mr. Cornwall that he would be wise to forget his idea of opening up this great country that he is interested in by building a branch line off of this little jerk-water system which cannot put down a siding or put up a tank without the consent of the C.P.—the C.N.—and our Federal government, for his country is going to be opened up by the next trans-continental line which will be from Churchill to Stewart, and this will be built years before this little outfit will get a road to Fort Vermilion.

Now for a little history. About the time our Federal government will bring Mr. Palmer from London to do some expert harbor engineering around Nelson and Churchill, one, S. Sainbury, who seems to possess as wide a knowledge of our north country as any man in Canada, told us some things about Churchill and Nelson and if our government had just taken his word and taken action they would have done just the thing they did do, which says that Mr. Sainbury was right. If he were right on his Nelson and Churchill statement, then we can put our faith in something more he told us of our north, which is, the Hudson Bay route will never be a real success until the government puts in a dam in the straits of Fury and Hecla at Normenda Island and stop the ice from coming down through Fox Channel into the Hudson Strait, which is causing the trouble in the straits today.

Hudson Bay

When we were coming home from overseas the second day off the coast of Newfoundland we encountered a field of icebergs which our captain said was off the West Coast of Greenland, but when we passed through them we saw no more ice. Mr. Sainbury would have the ice that is causing trouble in the straits today go the route of the icebergs which I have referred to, away out to sea, and, changing the climatic conditions so that a small ice breaker could keep Churchill Harbor clear the year round.

We will say there are two ocean liners, one in St. John and the other in Vancouver Harbor. The passengers and mail on these liners must be carried by train 3300 miles to get from one to the other. Now, we will put the same boats in the Stewart and Churchill harbors and they are only 1350 miles apart and it is this quick connection that will cause some of the big steamship companies to build this line of railway and operate it as part of its system. This line would probably touch Lake Athabasca, Fort Vermilion, Hay River country, Laurier Pass, Ground Hog coal fields and come south to Stewart and then Mr. Cornwall's country will come to its own. Churchill will be a Montreal of the north and the Portland Canal will come to its own as the St. Lawrence of the Pacific, and Peace River will have a branch line from Fort Vermilion which will put a few competing points in our country.

North to Figure Prominently in B.C. Mining—Hovland Speaks Highly of Portland Canal—Taku Still Frozen Over

There will be more mining development work in British Columbia and bigger mining payrolls this year than in any previous year, it is declared by Frank Woodside of Vancouver, manager of the British Columbia Chamber of Mines. This opinion is shared by other officials of the chamber including the president, Dr. Victor Dolmage. Activity will be spread over the whole province, Mr. Woodside says, but the most important will be on Vancouver Island, in the Portland Canal district, the Ingenika and

Harry Charlesworth General Secretary of B.C. Teachers' Federation, Visits North

A busy program has been arranged for Harry Charlesworth of Vancouver, general secretary of the British Columbia Teachers' Federation, when he arrives here tomorrow evening after making the round trip to Anxox and Stewart on the steamer Prince George on which he is going north today from Vancouver.

Tomorrow evening Mr. Charlesworth will be the chief speaker at a public meeting in the auditorium of Booth Memorial School. Mayor C. H. Orme and Mrs. T. M. Spencer, chairman of the school board, will also speak briefly at this gathering.

On Friday afternoon, Mr. Charlesworth will confer with the local Teachers' Federation and that evening will speak at a dinner of the Women's Canadian Club. On Friday at midnight, Mr.

"The Portland Canal district will, in my opinion, become a great mining centre," said John Hovland, one of the best known mining men in the Stewart-Hyder district, in addressing the Seattle Mining Club recently. "It is true that it has been very slow and expensive to develop but that condition should now be overcome owing to the knowledge we have gained from the development of the Premier and the adjoining property, the B. C. Silver. From an investing standpoint, it seems to me that a person will get a better run for his money in an old and established district than in a new district where he would have to face all the difficulties involved in developing a mine."

"The Taku River is still frozen over and old-timers around here say that it will not open up until about the middle of April," writes George Bacon to the Stewart News. "The people here at Juneau are very enthused over the prospects of the Taku and expect quite a boom. One transportation company is building a new river boat and I have it on good authority that the Barrington River Transport Co. of the Sukine River are putting on a boat as well."

Dividend disbursements by Canadian mining companies for February will be the heaviest of any one group. The mines take the most important place for the month with four companies rewarding their shareholders with $2,342,000. Granby Consolidated leads the group with $900,000, followed by Teck Hughes with $712,000, International Nickel has $484,000 and Hollinger, $246,000.

B. F. Messner, managing director of the Lorraine Copper-Silver Mines Ltd., Smithers, is negotiating for an important deal in connection with which he visited Vancouver recently. Speaking of the outlook in the Babine region, Mr. Messner intimates that there are silver showings of remarkable richness on the surface.

Most of the exploratory work on the Independence Gold Mining Co.'s holdings at Stewart has been done at an elevation of three thousand feet, says a report of Dr. George Hanson of the Geological Survey. The mining deposits are situated along a zone of dykes striking southeast across Bear River ridge and valley and the country rock is mainly dykes of quartz diorite. Most of the development work, consisting of several open cuts and a long adit, has been done on a vein two to twenty-five feet wide and proved to be at least seven hundred feet long. Several narrower parallel veins two to six feet wide outcrop a few hundred feet north of the large vein. The veins contain sparsely disseminated galena, sphalerite and pyrite in a gangue of quartz, barite, jasper and calcite. The chief value is in gold and silver but most of the veins are below commercial grade. It is evident, however, from the adit that a tonnage large enough to operate a 100-ton per day mill for several years could be very likely developed. Development has proceeded far enough to permit of systematic sampling and this should prove definitely whether or not the vein matter can be mined with profit.

There is only one way to reach the people of Northern B.C. That is through the Daily News.

The next time a headache makes you stay at home—

Or some other ache or pain prevents your keeping an engagement— Remember Aspirin! For there is scarcely any sort of pain it cannot relieve, and relieve promptly.

These tablets give real relief, or millions would not continue to take them. They are quite harmless, or the medical profession would not constantly prescribe them.

Don't be a martyr to unnecessary pain. To colds that might so easily be checked; neuritis, neuralgia; to those pains peculiar to women; or any suffering for which Aspirin is such an effective antidote.

You need not hesitate to take Aspirin. It is safe. It is always the same. It never depresses the heart, so use it as often as needed; but the cause of any pain can be treated only by a doctor.

BROTHERHOOD REORGANIZED

The Baptist Brotherhood, an organization which is undenominational although it bears a church name and which is open to men and boys over the age of 12 years, its objects being spiritual, moral, social and physical betterment of its members, came into being again in this city last night at an organization meeting in First Baptist Church with G. W. Johnstone in the chair and J. H. Smith acting as secretary pro-tem. There will be two separate organizations — one for men and the other for boys, the latter being under the direction of the senior body. It was decided to hold meetings every Tuesday night. Before the war, there was a Baptist Brotherhood here which did good work, particularly in the way of athletics. One of the principal ideas now is to encourage sport among the younger boys and the organization has in mind the launching of junior baseball and football leagues as well as establishing a gymnasium. There was a large attendance at last night's meeting and enthusiasm marked the preliminary organization.

After the organization committee had reported in favor of proceeding with organization, officers were elected as follows:

- Honorary President, Rev. Dr. F. W. Dafeo.
- President, George W. Johnstone.
- First Vice-President, W. Wilson.
- Second Vice-President, Sid Hamblin.
- Secretary Treasurer, Melvin Dafeo.
- Press Correspondent, Vic Houston.
- Committees were named as follows:
 - Sports—Lee Dell, chairman, Sam Currie, Frank Glass and Melvin Dafeo.
 - Literary—Ald. P. H. Linzey, chairman, Clifford Gilker and Rev. Dr. F. W. Dafeo.
 - Bylaws—Lee Dell, chairman, J. H. Smith, Melvin Dafeo and Sid Hamblin.

LOCALS WON HOOP GAME

Kincolith Seniors and Intermediates Were Beaten Last Night

The local teams proved to be too good for the visitors in last evening's basketball attraction at the Exhibition Hall. The Rupert Seniors defeated Kincolith 31-24. The Rupert Intermediates defeated the Kincolith Intermediates 63-23.

The senior game was not very interesting to watch during the first half. The play was slow and ragged although both teams were fighting hard to obtain possession of the ball. The score at half time was 13-11 in favor of Kincolith.

During the second half Rupert scored four baskets in quick succession to take a lead of 20-14. Both teams were off form and did not display the basketball that they are capable of showing. Robinson and Allen were sent from the floor for unnecessary roughness, which weakened Kincolith considerably during the latter part of the game.

Johnstone, the Kincolith centre, was high scorer for the game with 12 points. The individual scores were:

Kincolith—Robinson, 4; Stuart, 4; Bolton, 4; Dangel; Johnstone, 12; Aksidan; Allen; Alexander; total, 24.

Rupert—Lambie, 6; A. Mitchell, 7; D. Gurvich, 3; Doug. Frizzell, 1; E. Ratchford, 4; W. Mitchell, 9; V. Meaghers, 1; total, 31.

The intermediate game was very one-sided from the beginning when Rupert scored at will to take a lead of 21-0. Kincolith then scored on a foul. The local team was playing a good combination game and the showing they put up during last evening's game would make a senior team work. The individual scoring was:

Rupert—S. Styles, 6; A. Cross, 2;

R. Stalker, 12; W. Harold, R. Irvine, 10; E. Smith, 17; H. Macdonald, 6; D. Morrison, 8; total, 63.

Kincolith—Hubert, 2; Frank, 3; Clayton; Aksidan; Stuart, 7; Robinson, 4; Rufus, 7; Felix; total, 23.

R. B. Skinner refereed both the games. Olof Hanson Jr. was scorekeeper, Mike Budinich timekeeper, and George Mitchell was at the door.

Oscar Loudry, successor to John Dore as district superintendent of government telegraphs here, arrived on the Prince George today from Vancouver to assume his new duties. Mr. Dore will be leaving in a few days for Victoria to take over his new post as superintendent of the Vancouver Island division.

Two Games of Billiards Are So Far Played

Only two of the five games in last night's Billiard League fixture were played and the Grotto has a substantial lead over the Canadian Legion as a result. The individual scores of the two games were:

Marcus Andrews (Canadian Legion), 185; George Waugh (Grotto), 250.

G. P. Tinker, 250; M. M. McLachlan 240.

Games remaining to be played: Col. S. P. McMordie vs. Don Brown.

A. Murray vs. W. J. Nelson.
 J. W. Scott vs. James Andrews.

ANALYZE THE ALLOWANCE ON YOUR USED CAR

If a dealer pays you more than the true worth of the car he must make up the difference by extra charges on the new car or re-sell it to some one else at too high a price

PERMANENT value is always better than a temporary bargain in the purchase of an automobile. It pays to look ahead and consider reliability and ultimate up-keep costs, as well as comfort, safety, speed, and beauty of line and color.

Since most automobiles are bought for replacement, the value set on your used car is a factor in almost every purchase. Frequently it is given an importance beyond its true worth.

Used cars have a definite market value and you are justly entitled to an allowance based on that value. It is not fair that you receive less. It is not to your best interests to receive more.

If a dealer pays you more than the true worth of the car he must either re-sell it to some one else at too high a price or make up the difference on the new car. This he cannot do unless he is allowed an excessive profit on the car or on financing, extra equipment and other charges. In either case, you pay the bill, for no way has yet been found to give something for nothing. The money must come from somewhere.

It is good for you to have a true picture of the used-car situation and its secondary importance in the purchase of an automobile.

YOU may not get the largest used-car allowance from the Ford dealer, yet you gain in the long run. You save far more than the seeming difference in trade allowance because of the lower first cost of the Ford, the low charges for selling, financing and accessories, and the lower cost of operation, service and replacement parts. The profits of the Ford dealer are not marked up or increased to cover a high allowance on a used car.

FURTHERMORE, at least $75 extra value is given to you in the new Ford in the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, the Rustless Steel, the five steel-spoke wheels, and the four Houdaille hydraulic double-acting shock absorbers. The unusually large number of ball and roller bearings, and the extensive use of fine steel forgings instead of castings or stampings, are other features that show the extra quality built into the Ford car.

Aware of Destiny

Sir Esme then expressed his admiration and confident hope for the Dominion saying: "I am thankful indeed that she is well aware of her destiny and the dignity of her nationhood. The days of Goldwin Smith and those dreary economists who preached the inevitability of the annexation of Canada to the United States are long passed. Canada needs no leading strings from either side of the Atlantic. In this I frankly rejoice! seeing a beginning here of that new British Empire or Commonwealth or League or whatever you like to call it, in which each partner being strong with the others in matters of common interest for the Empire and the benefit of the world at large."

Sir Esme, making what he intimated would be his last public address, was in his best vein of quiet humor and wisdom. He talked a bit of diplomacy and said its art consisted in making friends and trying to understand the other fellow's point of view.

Reviewing Anglo-American relations during his six years at Washington he touched upon liquor smuggling and the fiasco of the disarmament conference at Geneva. With respect to the first matter the only serious incident he thought of was the "I'm Alone" which was dealt with by his Canadian colleague. The feeling stirred up after Geneva did not go much deeper than the newspapers which were responsible for it, he said. Here Sir Esme digressed to pay a tribute to the press of the United States to whom he was greatly indebted. "Unfortunately," he continued, "the public is more interested in a dog fight than in an agreement or a peaceable conference; it is only natural therefore that journalists seeking a story with headlines—in other words sensations—should try to give the impression that a really serious fight is on, when as a matter of fact, there is only a difference of opinion."

Since the war things had greatly improved Anglo-American relations. These were the Irish settlement and the war debt funding. When asked by the people in the United States how he felt about the war debt, Sir Esme said he had always replied that taking all circumstances into consideration he considered Great Britain had gotten off cheaply, but "if ever the people of the United States thought it was in their own interest to suggest a revision downward, we might be persuaded to give it favorable consideration. This has always been received in the most friendly spirit."

"Now that I am coming to the end of it all," he concluded, speaking of his travels and adventures in various parts of the world, "I can say with Flecker's Hassan:

"How sweet at eve to ride out from the Wells Where pass gigantic shadows on the sand, And through the silence softly beat the bells Along the golden road to Samarcand."

EXPERT ON ELECTRICITY IN THE HOME

Miss E. Frances Thompson to Show Women How to Use Appliances

Prince Rupert women will have the opportunity this week of learning from one of the best-known home economists in the country, the most efficient way of utilizing the many latent possibilities of electricity in the home. The economist in question is Miss E. Frances Thompson, who is internationally known for her work in household economics. She holds diplomas for dietetics and home economics awarded by the Board of Education in England; and lectured for several years on these subjects in London day and evening schools as home economist for the London County Council. In Canada she has addressed numerous women's organizations throughout Ontario and the Maritime Provinces. Miss Thompson's weekly radio hour over CKGW has been a feature eagerly looked forward to by numerous housewives.

Miss Thompson is giving a series of lectures at 2:30 p.m. each afternoon and 7:30 p.m. each evening, Friday, Saturday and Monday in the Moose Hall. She is to speak on the general subject of electricity in the home.

Her addresses are based on the belief that the average woman is somewhat bewildered by the variety of uses for electricity that have been developed during the last few years with a view to lightening household tasks. Few women, in Miss Thompson's opinion, are able to make the best use of the scores of ranges, irons, vacuum cleaners, refrigerators, washing machines, toasters, hot-water heaters and other devices which in expert hands can make all the difference between comfort and drudgery.

Miss Thompson is one of the few women who have devoted lengthy study to the development of the most efficient method of utilizing all these electric servants. The result of her labors has been extremely interesting, and it is the benefit of these researches that she plans to give to her Prince Rupert audiences. So important do the manufacturers treat Miss Thompson's services, that she is at present engaged in making a number of tests on a new electric range before its appearance on the market.

Through the courtesy of the Northern B. C. Power Co. Ltd., the meetings will be held in the Moose Hall, where a model electric kitchen has been installed in miniature. Miss Thompson is speaking under the auspices of the Northern B. C. Power Company, Ltd., and the Canadian General Electric Company. According to J. J. Little, General manager of Northern B. C. Power Co. Ltd., invitations have been sent out to all women's organizations whose names could be obtained. Nevertheless, Mr. Little pointed out that many omissions were inevitable; and he emphasized that any woman interested in the use of electricity in the home would be welcome whether she had received an invitation or not.

G. A. Bryant who has been on a holiday visit to Vancouver and Seattle, returned to the city on the Prince George this morning.

Right Place to Buy All Kinds of Men's Goods

Montreal Importers Has Very Large Stock to Choose From and Prices Are Eastern

There is one place that leads all others in Prince Rupert in the matter of prices and that is the Montreal Importers. Mr. Miller, who manages that emporium, says he aims to give the people of Prince Rupert mall order prices, so they will not need to send away for what they want. He makes a special feature of work clothes for men and of this kind of goods he has the largest stock in the city and the quality is of the best.

Those who have not inspected his stock in his large double store opposite the Empress Hotel on Third Ave. should do so at once. It is the place to get big values at the lowest possible prices.—Adv.

THEIR first date! Bob was thrilled. Gladys, too—until she noticed "B. O."

Body Odor! She couldn't forgive that—even though it was a hot day.

Then Gladys had an idea. She asked her brother, who was Bob's closest friend, to tell him the truth. Today Bob and Gladys are engaged. He's not guilty of "B. O." now.

Perspiration stays odorless

A warm stuffy day—crowds—excitement. How quickly at such times does perspiration make us guilty of "B. O." We can't always tell when we offend, because we become insensitive to ever-present odors. But we can't avoid perspiring. Our pores give off as much as a quart of odor-causing waste daily.
