DAILY EDITION Saturday, May 3, 1930.

THE FEDERAL BUDGET

The federal budget is an interesting one. The expected surplus announced on the year just ending is one of the outstanding features. If the country is so prosperous as to take in over forty million dollars more than was expected in revenue, the groans of all pre-election pessimists will be drowned in rejoicing that things are not as they had been painted.

The business people will be particularly interested in the cutting in half of the sales tax. While most people hoped that this tax would be wholly eliminated because of the bookkeeping required by the government and the amount of work in making out reports, the cut is a move in the right direction and makes it more likely that another year may see the total abolition of the tax.

BRITISH EMPIRE PREFERENCE

Outstanding too in the budget is the move toward Empire preference making 270 decreases in tariff on British goods. Farmers have been placated by the increase of duty on New Zealand butter and the promise of a new treaty with New Zealand following the abolition of the old one. Hon. Charles Dunning, minister of finance, announced that the changes in tariff, which were very many, were in accordance with the new Canadian spirit in view of the forthcoming Imperial Economic Conference in which Canada will take a prominent part.

In other words, the budget is a British budget, along the lines of the most recent move toward unification of the British Empire.

NOTABLE POLICY

The Dunning budget is a notable one in that it indicates a new trend in the policy of the Dominion. This was brought about largely by the recent policy of the United States in raising duties on Canadian goods entering their market. Even though Mr. Dunning protests that he is not influenced by it and does not intend to carry on a tariff war, the effect is the same. It indicates that Canada is defending herself against the tariff policy of the United States and is throwing in her lot with the new British Empire policy of preference to British people.

DUTY ON POLES

The duty has been removed from poles going into the United States from Canada and this will have an important effect on the business of the Prince Rupert district. The shipment of poles from the interior valleys has been an important industry. It has provided a great deal of employment to ranchers and others and has provided valuable freights for the railway. The duty which it had been proposed to be placed on these poles would have checked and possibly killed the industry, so far as the export business is concerned. Now, if no further change is made, the export will proceed and there will be better conditions obtaining in this part of the country.

Too Much ACID

Many people, two hours after eating, suffer indigestion as they call it. It is usually excess acid. Correct it with an alkali. The best way, the quick, harmless and efficient way, is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained for 50 years the standard with physicians. One spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in stomach acids, and at once. The symptoms disappear in five minutes.

You will never use crude methods when you know this better method. And you will never suffer from excess acid when you prove out this easy relief. Please do that—for your own sake—now.
Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. Each bottle contains full directions—any drugstore.

Captain Colthurst, who has been living near Victoria for the past eight months, returned Wednesday.

Lawrence Grieg, who has been attending the University of British Columbia, arrived home on Wednesday afternoon from Vancouver for the summer holidays.

Mr. Blackaby, former manager of the Bank of Montreal here, arrived Wednesday to relieve Mr. Scott, who is leaving for Banff.

Dr. Stanley Mills arrived in town Wednesday, to take over medical practice here.

Mrs. F. J. Kirkpatrick left Thursday for Vancouver where she will spend a few weeks holidaying.

Mr. Krammer, while unloading ties, had the misfortune to break his thumb and was taken to Rupert on a work train Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillon and family moved here Saturday from Vernon and are located on a farm.

SKIDEGATE

Frank Millard of Port Clements, who lost his home in a fire last summer, has now completed a splendid new 3-room bungalow on his farm.

L. Dyson of Port Clements and R. G. McKenzie of Queen Charlotte City are both carrying goodly numbers of passengers on their bus services between Queen Charlotte City and Port Clements.

Indian Agent James Gillett of Massett has been down to Skidegate on departmental business. Mr. Gillett has been ill for the past month and this was the first time he has been able to get around.

William Mitchell, manager of B. C. Packers' canneries on the Queen Charlotte Islands, has been down from Massett Inlet making arrangements for the operation of South Bay cannery during the coming season. Islanders are hoping that they will be given the preference this year when seineboats are required instead of bringing in crews from the south.

Capt. C. B. Haan, after giving his large seineboat Beatrice H. a thorough overhaul, is now making a trip to Shannon Bay with her, towing up a large scow for the B. C. Packers. Later Capt. Haan will pack spring salmon from the islands.

Capt. C. Valley has built a large addition to his home on the Burbank estate. He facetiously says that this new addition will be the Labor headquarters for the coming federal election.

Up to date not a single spring salmon has been caught in Skidegate Inlet although many rowboats have been trying every day. This is very unusual in the inlet as there have always previously been salmon caught with the spring run of herring.

Salary of Harbor Master Discussed; No Tax on Boats

There seems little hope for the port warden and harbor master getting more than the very meagre salary he is paid at present unless some other means of raising it can be found. A committee of the board of trade, headed by George Bushby, reported to the board last night that the marine department refused to sanction collecting money from the fishing fleet unless it could be shown that the harbor-master gave some direct service to them. This the committee decided ended the matter for the present. It was left to the committee to go into the matter further and see if any means could be found as they could not expect to retain a harbor master unless he was remunerated.

Paul Armour drew attention to the fact that dues for Canadian boats at Ketchikan were $11 for each call. Here there was no fee on American vessels. He showed how only recently two menaces to shipping were seen floating in the harbor. There should be someone with authority and funds to remove them. He thought Capt. Elfert should have a fund with which he could do work of that kind.

The matter was dropped on the understanding that the committee continue to investigate with the possibility of making a recommendation.

MASQUERADE PICTURESQUE

Affair For Children Staged Last Night By Women of Mooseheart Legion

The children's masquerade of the Women of the Mooseheart Legion last night in the Moose Hall was a very picturesque and successful affair, about one hundred children, the most of these in costume, and fifty grown-ups being present.

The affair opened at 8 p.m. and at 10 o'clock the Grand March was led by Mrs. D. Lund and Mrs. H. Skattebol while the judges—Mayor C. H. Orme, Miss S. A. Mills, Miss E. A. Mercer and Miss E. M. Earle—awarded prizes as follows:

Girls, 10 to 13 years, best character costume, Elizabeth Sturgeon; second, Betty Inglis; best comic costume, Mildred Hunt; second,

The children's dance concluded at 11 o'clock and from then until 2 a.m. the floor was occupied by adults. Gillis Royer was master of ceremonies and music was by the Premier Orchestra. Delicious refreshments were served, the committee in charge consisting of Mrs. N. Mus-sallem, convener, Mrs. Einar Larsen, Mrs. A. Ohnesorg, Mrs. H. Skattebol, Mrs. P. Wingham, Mrs. A. G. Bartlett, Mrs. Robert McCarthy, Miss Thora Pedersen and Mrs. C. Edwards. Mrs. F. M. Crosby and Mrs. P. J. Ryan presided at the dance, assisted by A. G. Bartlett.

Peter Black, Jr., who is studying at the University of British Columbia, arrived in the city on the morning train this morning from Vancouver to join the summer staff of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station. Mrs. Black, his mother, came north with him.

"—with all his worldly goods"

HERE, in this old strong-box, so long guarded and locked, is his "estate" . . . the "worldly goods" which he has bequeathed to her.

One by one her adviser takes out the temptingly engraved certificates and examines them. One by one he lays them down with a sorrowful shake of the head—

Slowly the truth dawns upon her. Those wonderful purchases that were to make them rich . . . independent. These speculations that were to lead them to fortune . . . many of them now are WORTHLESS!

But at the bottom of the box there lies an unpretentious document, which suddenly she recollects. It cannot have depreciated. It must still be safe and sure . . .

She reaches in and draws forth his Life Insurance Policy.

Amid the wreckage of thousands of estates, Life Insurance stands as the final and enduring refuge in time of need.

It is the one investment no man can afford to be without.

Benny Wendle Wins Over Henry Deeth With Good Point Margin; Two Knockouts Last Evening

In the main event of the boxing card last night in the Exhibition Building before a good sized crowd, Benny Wendle, local boy, won a six-round decision over Henry Deeth of Anyox. It was a fast fight from the opening bell, both boys mixing well. Deeth was very aggressive and displayed a world of gameness under Wendle's slashing attack in the latter rounds. He won a host of admirers by his showing against the Prince Rupert boy and will, no doubt, be a good drawing card, should he appear here again. Wendle won all but one round.

Benny Wendle entered the ring first and Deeth entered shortly afterwards. Both received a good hand from the crowd. Wendle's weight was announced at 136 and Deeth's at 138. The first round opened with both boys boxing cautiously. Deeth missed a hard right for Benny's jaw. They exchanged lefts. Even round.

Second Round—Deeth was aggressive with Benny holding him off with left jabs to the face. Deeth landed hard rights to Wendle's head and Benny came back with a flurry of blows to the head and body which sent Deeth to the ropes. Deeth missed repeatedly. Wendle's round by a shade.

Third Round—Wendle seemed to have gained more confidence and opened at a fast pace. He landed to the head consistently. Deeth was still forcing the fight although missing badly at times. Wendle started a slashing attack and had the boy from the smelter town on the ropes as the bell rang. Wendle's round.

Fourth Round—Deeth seemed to have recovered when the round started and they exchanged blows freely. Benny landed some hard right uppercuts which weakened his opponent noticeably. Deeth clinched, working into his own corner as the bell sounded. It was Wendle's round by a big margin.

Fifth Round—Both boys were showing the effect of the fast pace set in the previous rounds. Wendle landed some stiff blows to the head. Deeth showed flashes of his earlier speed but could not land effectively. Wendle blocking him with left jabs to the chin. Deeth was weakening fast but fought gamely to the bell. Wendle's round.

Sixth Round—The round opened fast, with Deeth still coming in but missing badly. Wendle landed a smashing uppercut to the jaw which rocked his opponent. Deeth was forced to the ropes. Benny landed a series of lefts and rights to the head but seemed unable to finish his man. Deeth was groggy but still fighting gamely at the final gong. Wendle's round again.

Semi-Final

In the scheduled six-round semi-final Andy Wilson of Vancouver was awarded the decision over Wildcat Carthum of Prince Rupert in the fifth round on a foul. Wilson displayed marked superiority throughout the fight landing at will with his right and blocking effectively. Carthum was warned twice in earlier rounds for hitting low and Referee Skinner stopped the fight in the fifth after Wilson had been hit low several times.

In the fourth bout of the evening Al Bach of Burns Lake kayoed Pat Clanton, colored boy of Victoria in the first round. Both boys weighed 140 pounds. Clanton opened the fight at a whirlwind pace and Bach seemed groggy. However he came back strongly and during the mix-up that followed, dropped Clanton to the canvas with a right smash to the jaw. Clanton was carried to the dressing room still unconscious.

Jimmy Lawson, Port Simpson middleweight, knocked out Henry Boy, Vancouver, in the second round of the third event. Lawson won the first round handily landing terrific blows to the head. It was apparent that the fight would not last the three rounds. Lawson landed heavily in the second and put Boy away with a right to the jaw in a little over a minute.

Young Kennedy, 105, and Johnny Roma, 115, fought a three-round no-decision bout in the deuce-spot. Kennedy showed more speed and cleverness but was at a disadvantage in reach and weight.

The curtain raiser, between the Murray brothers, Alex and Johnny, was a lively affair, both lads displaying considerable skill. Appreciation of their efforts was shown by a shower of silver.

Announcement

Before the main event Art Eason announced that on June 24 the Empress Club will put on a fight card to entertain the visiting yachtsmen from Seattle. A Seattle boy will come north to fight Frankie Neal in the main event.

Doug Frizzell refereed the first four bouts and "Brick" Skinner the semi-final and main event. Jack Judge and W. Sherman acted as judges and Max Heilbronner was timekeeper.

Young boys, hovering around the doors, were admitted free of charge to the hall before the card started by Owen Fisher, the promoter.

INTERVIEW CARNERA

Giant Heavyweight Appeared Before the Mike Last Night But Said Little

MANAGER OPTIMISTIC

In a radio interview last night Primo Carnera said that Young Stribling had given him the hardest fight of his life. Asked what he thought of America he said it was a "very nice country" and, answering another question, he said American girls were very nice but he had no time for them. He was too busy.

Then he spoke in Italian to his countrymen who were listening in, his English not being very good. Primo's manager, who spoke first, was very optimistic. He said he thought either Sharkey or Schmeling would be the next world champion but Carnera would win as soon as he got a chance. He was the biggest, heaviest and fastest of the heavies and after only 16 months of training had done more than any other man. In six months he would be unbeatable. He would be ready to take the best man in America.

An Italian alderman of the city of Seattle said Italian-Americans were all proud of Carnera. He was a marvel and had shown what he could do that evening in the exhibition bout against three heavyweights.

DEVELOPMENT OF SCALES KEPT PACE WITH THE GROWTH OF TRADE

During the early Biblical Period about 4000 B.C., a crude form of the even balance was in evidence

Soft, wavy hair!

The modern sculptured bobs do wonders to bring out your personality. But like other present-day modes of arranging the hair, they call attention to it. That's why it's so important nowadays to keep your hair soft, lustrous, abundant. The easiest and quickest way to give new lustre and color to hair, which has begun to look dull and lifeless, is with Danderine. And it makes the hair softer, easier to arrange; holds it in place.

Here's all you do. Each time you use your brush just put a little Danderine on it. It removes the oily film from your hair; brings out its natural color; gives it more gloss than brilliantine. Waves "set" with it stay in longer.

Danderine dissolves the crust of dandruff; puts the scalp in the pink of condition. It stops falling hair. A small bottle is enough to show its merit. Start on it tonight.

Prince William Commissioned in Service—Taku Fleet Ready to Leave—Towboat Fleet Is Busy

An outstanding event in marine affairs of the week here was the institution of the steamer Prince William, formerly the Greek ship Aktion, in local service out of this port on Thursday afternoon when the vessel sailed for her maiden trip to the Queen Charlotte Islands. After having been tied up for nearly a year at the dry dock where she underwent a complete reconditioning to fit her for her new work, the Prince William moved down to the Canadian National wharves for the first time on Thursday and many persons took advantage of the opportunity that afternoon to make an inspection of her. Things were still rather topsy-turvy on board with some of the carpenter work hardly complete but it was possible to see that this trim little vessel should be well suited for the service she will be called upon to carry out in local waters. She is a model pretty much of her own and it would be difficult to think up a vessel on this coast with which she could be compared. Of racy lines from outward appearance, the Prince William, within, is a compact and neatly appointed vessel and has evoked considerable favorable comment. The main deck contains practically all her passenger accommodation and, in anticipation of the tempestuous waters she will have to navigate, particularly on the Queen Charlotte Island run, this accommodation is practically all covered in between sides and decks. On the boat deck aft is situated a well lighted and sunny combination smoke and observation room. The main deck is pretty well devoted to stateroom accommodation with a covered deck amidships on either side of the engine room well and an attractive dining saloon aft. The staterooms, while not large, are cozy and attractively and modernly fitted. There is ample hold space for freight cargo. Withal, the vessel should be fully capable of carrying out the service for which she has been designed and a fine addition to the Canadian National Coast Steamships fleet. Following are the principal officers of the Prince William:

Captain, William Thomas.
Chief Officer, B. McKillop.
Second Officer, E. C. Swank.
Chief Engineer, J. McGregor White.

Purser, Donald Jenkins.
Chief Steward, A. Brush.
The Prince William is expected to return to port Sunday night or Monday morning from her first trip to the islands.

Rapid progress is being made by the Pacific Salvage Co. and the Carter-Halls-Aldinger Co. on the contract for the construction of four piers and two shore towers which will carry the Power Corporation of Canada's transmission line across the Skeena River. Wooden piles for the first two piers have now been driven and, on the first pier, bracing and capping will have been completed by the end of this week. Then the steel piling will go in and pouring of concrete for this first pier should be ready to start next week. Work on the other piers will follow. Excavations have also been completed for the tower on the north shore and here pouring of concrete will also be started next week. No start has yet been made on the towers on the south shore.

With an expert here from Vancouver, opportunity was taken this week to check up the radiotelephone equipment aboard the Pacific Salvage Co.'s power tug Salvage Princess in the course of her regular work with particular reference to such "dead zones" as may exist. The Salvage Princess went out Thursday afternoon to take the pilot, Capt. Larry Thomson, off the outgoing grain ship Roxen at Triple Island. While on this as well as other trips during the week, the vessel was in hourly communication with company headquarters in port. It is such radiophones as the one on the Princess which are proposed for installation on lonely light-houses of the north coast. They would be a great boon in getting in touch with the outside world in case of illness or distress of those tending these isolated aids to navigation where communication with the outside world is all too seldom.

Towing Fleet Busy

The local branch of the Pacific Salvage Co. is having about the busiest time just now so far in its history and it has been necessary to call outside boats into use to augment the regular fleet of the company. The Salvage Princess and Pachena are engaged in general duty while the Red Boy stands by in port in case she should be needed for salvage work. The B. C. Packers' Nishga and the Massett Cannery's Delphinium are under charter to the company and are being kept fully occupied while it has been necessary to charter the Massett Cannery's Jedway for special trips twice this week.

Much of this work is arising from the construction operations of the Power Corporation of Canada and the reopening of the salmon canning season although there is also a lot of general marine activity.

On Wednesday the Delphinium made a trip to Galloway Rapids with a shipment of powder for the provincial public works department. The powder is for use in construction work on the highway on the other side of the rapids and a powder house has been put up in which to store it. Incidentally, slashing and clearing of the roadway route is proceeding steadily with about 60 men employed. Before long, actual grading will commence for it is planned to put through five miles of road on the mainland side during the coming season.

An interesting announcement this week was that of the incorporation of the new $100,000 Taku Transportation & Trading Co. which has been formed here to conduct freight and passenger service up the river of that name to the new Tulsequah River mining field. The company already has the power vessel Taku River, formerly Naas River, which it has chartered from the Pacific Salvage Co. with option of purchase, ready to go north as soon as navigation on the Taku opens to enter service on the river. At the local dry dock, the river boat Tahltan, which the company has bought, is being reconditioned, with the installation of two engines, for the service. The Taku River and the Tahltan, if it is ready in time, will be taken north in tow of the Salvage Princess which, at the same time, will take to the Taku a scow containing 50,000 feet of lumber and on board a quantity of general freight. Word of the break-up of the ice on the Taku is expected daily.

Boats of the fishery patrol fleet are now being put in shape for the forthcoming season's operations and, in many cases, the crews have been signed on. By the opening of the sockeye salmon fishing season on June 20, all the boats of the fleet will be at their respective posts in the district. Recently, improvements have been made at headquarters floats on the local waterfront including the driving of new mooring piles.

Jack McAuley's power cruiser Harmona is the first of the C.N.R. Yacht Club's fleet to take up mooring for the summer at the floats at the foot of McBride Street. Considerable damage was done to these floats by the storms of the past winter and repairs will have to be made there before all the boats of the fleet can come out of winter quarters and take up their summer moorings.

At last Jim Norrington and Shel Darton, they of Cold Storage calculation fame but for whose wizardry that great establishment and all of Prince Rupert might long ere this have found itself upon the rocks, have come through with a badminton championship, thus earning for themselves the plaudits of the marine multitude and the hearty congratulations of all and sundry on their startling proof that they are adepts with the little ball and catgut bat in addition to their proclivities at driving the accountant's quill. Yes, Jim and Shel acquitted themselves with glory and eclat in the finals at Rupert East on Monday night and the sporting world still marvels. Even though the management did bar all previous winners from the contest, they got there just the same. We knew they would and so did everybody else for these two popular east enders have nothing if not perseverance. The badminton season may well close now with harmony and peace prevailing for Jim and Shel have retrieved themselves to the satisfaction of themselves and the lasting glory for the next 12 months of the I.O.D.E. Badminton Club.

River Boats Popular

The Pacific Salvage Co. had 14 flatbottomed boats, from 24 to 28 feet long and equipped with 14 h.p. Johnson outboard motors, built here this spring for use on the Taku River to the new mining fields. The boats made such a hit around Prince Rupert, however, that six of them have been sold privately before they had a chance to be shipped north. The speed of the light boats, which can be driven up to 12 miles an hour, seemed to be the particular attraction. Two of the six that were sold were purchased by the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. and two more by the Northern B. C. Power Co.

Capt. George Fritz is expected back any time now, being indeed a little late, from Vancouver where he took his hallibut boat Margaret I. to have a new engine installed. He has been away since about the middle of March.

The Linde Canadian Refrigerating Co. of Vancouver has been given the order to supply refrigeration equipment for the new annex to the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station. Delivery of the machinery is expected to be made shortly and installation will at once proceed.

C. Vollum of the University of British Columbia has arrived at Prince Rupert to join the summer staff of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station. He will assist in the biochemical laboratory. A. Tipsen from McGill University is expected to arrive from Montreal shortly. He will engage during the summer in the study of oil problems.

H. N. Brocklesby, who has been spending the past year at Montreal completing work which will give him the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, is expected back in Prince Rupert early in June to resume his duties as assistant director of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station. He is to write his examination about the middle of May and then return west via Winnipeg, where Mrs. Brocklesby and family have been in residence during his absence, and Vancouver, where his parents reside.

Capt. George Cook had to return to port on Wednesday, his new hallibut boat Teeny Milly, built at Prince Rupert during the past winter, having suffered engine bearing trouble on its maiden trip to the banks. Repairs were soon made and the Teeny Milly was away again to the fishing grounds yesterday morning.

The Prince Rupert hallibut boat Rose Spit, owned by Capt. Axel Olsen and skippered by Capt. Emil Pedersen, will soon be fishing again after having been tied up since her first trip of the season on which she had an engine breakdown and had to be towed back to port. The delay in getting out again has been due to the fact that delivery of new cylinder blocks from Seattle had to be awaited. On their arrival, the repair job was speedily completed by the Star Welding Works. While the Rose Spit was tied up, Capt. Pedersen made a few trips with Capt. Paddy Ivarson on the Signal.

Hallibut Landings

Hallibut landings at the port of Prince Rupert for the week of April 26-May 2 inclusive totalled 751,900 pounds of which 262,200 was Canadian fish and 489,700 pounds American. The total for the season to date, taking this week into account, was 5,537,900 pounds including 1,604,500 pounds landed by Canadian boats and 3,933,400 pounds by American.

There was a slight improvement in the price average from the week previous. The top bid for Canadian fish was 12.6c and 6c which the Vera Beatrice received for 5.50 pounds and the low, 9.5c and 8c which several boats were paid. The highest bid for American fish was 12.4c and 5c which the Reliance 1 and Condor were paid for catches of 14,000 and 9,000 pounds respectively. The low American bid was 9.5c and 5c which the Constitution received for 40,000 pounds.
