OLOF HANSON MAKES MAIDEN SPEECH

WATT INQUIRY PROCEEDS BEFORE SUPREME COURT JUDGE

Local Member Offers Concrete Suggestion Whereby 8,000 Men May Be Employed This Winter

Proposes That Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways Might Give Orders For Ten Million Ties; Plan Endorsed By Former Minister of Trade and Commerce

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—Olof Hanson, Skeena's new Member of Parliament, made his first speech in the House of Commons on Saturday afternoon and it proved a very constructive and practical one. Mr. Hanson made a concrete suggestion to provide employment for an estimated total of eight thousand men for one hundred days, the suggestion being elaborated upon by Hon. James Malcolm. Mr. Hanson proposed that suggestions be made to the Canadian National and the Canadian Pacific Railways that they place immediate orders for ten million ties to be made as far as possible by hand labor in the bush this winter. Mr. Malcolm, the former minister of trade and commerce, suggested that the government might guarantee the interest charges to the railroads for the period of time before the ties would be actually needed.

GALES IN OLD LAND

Shipping In Distress and Small Vessels Sink—Floods Cause Loss of Livestock

LONDON, Sept. 22.—Six members of the crew of the French schooner Tristean were rescued on Saturday in a terrific gale which caused distress to numerous small vessels and lashed the southern coast of England and the northern coast of France. The rescue was performed by the Portland life saving crew by means of a rocket line. The Weymouth lifeboat rescued the crew of the French ketch Leone. The tug Auroch was standing by the Italian freighter Toscana Vivaldi which was in distress off Quessant, Brittany. Several ships were heading towards the British ship Temple Mead which asked for aid. Other smaller vessels reported minor difficulties. Harbors were crowded with stormbound shipping. There were considerable floods in Wales, Ireland and Scotland with losses of livestock.

New Legislation Forecast in House of Commons By Premier R. B. Bennett

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—Curtalement of the importation into Canada of certain printed matter bearing advertisements which would work injuriously on the national character of the country was foreshadowed in the House of Commons by Premier Bennett during the discussion of certain tariff changes affecting printed matter and forms of advertising but not magazines.

OFFICIAL HOST HERE

Norman Watt Inquiry Brings Influx of Visitors From Vancouver and Victoria

Some local people may be pardoned for their amusement at the fores, like an Indian summer tourist movement, which have been mustered in Prince Rupert for the inquiry which opens here today into the dismissal of Lieut. Norman A. Watt as government agent in the city. Indeed, to some it appears that the government is putting a great deal of effort into the endeavor to justify its action in having summarily dismissed Mr. Watt from office. It is to be noticed, however, that both Hon. W. C. Shelly, minister of finance, and his deputy minister, E. D. Johnson, are conspicuous by their absence. It was they who came to Prince Rupert 15 months ago to dismiss Mr. Watt. The inquiry, however, is not important enough to bring them back.

The officials here for the investigation are:

His Lordship, Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald of the Supreme Court of British Columbia.

W. J. Allen, from the office of the district registrar of the Supreme Court, Vancouver.

W. E. G. Johnson, official stenographer, Supreme Court of British Columbia.

Thomas Cole, assistant to the deputy minister of finance, Victoria.

A. B. McNeill, auditor of revenue, department of the comptroller-general, Victoria.

Walter Gale, sub-inspector of British Columbia police, Victoria.

W. H. Dixon, Vancouver barrister, has been here for the past two weeks preparing the case for the government. Associated with him in presenting the government's case will be Charles Locke K.C.

From the above, it is evident enough to all that efforts are being made to present as strong a case as possible against Lieut. Watt.

BOYS' WORK MAN HERE

Frank Fidler, Secretary For B.C. Week-End Visitor in City

Frank Fidler, Boys' Work secretary of the Religious Education Council of B.C., embracing all Protestant denominations, spent the last three days in the city in the interests of this important branch of the church's activities.

On Friday evening the Sunday School teachers and officers of the city churches met in First Baptist Church to hear Mr. Fidler speak on the recent World Sunday School convention held in Toronto. This convention marked the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Sunday School work by Robert Raikes in England. A statue of the founder was unveiled in that city to commemorate the event.

Saturday afternoon and evening a conclave of 29 teen age boys was held at Digby Island. Boats left the Yacht Club floats at 2 and 5 p.m. Softball was played in the afternoon between two picked teams, everyone taking part. After supper all gathered around a huge campfire for songs and the customary hot dogs and apples. As the embers of the fire dimmed and the shadows lengthened, Mr. Fidler told some very interesting Indian legends and linking them up with present day living, through team play and unselfish service, to gain the goal of Christian character. With the singing of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" and "Auld Lang Syne," the occasion was brought to a close. In spite of the rain and a little engine trouble, the boats returned about 10:30 p.m.

It is hoped that, out of Mr. Fidler's visit, a Boys' Work Board will be formed locally to give direction to and promote the Religious Education Council program among the boys of the city. Mr. Fidler expressed the opinion that he would like to see a member from Prince Rupert constituency at the B.C. Boys' Parliament held in Victoria each year during the Christmas holidays. Mr. Fidler left on the Catala Sunday evening for Stewart and will return here Tuesday, leaving the following day for the interior points as far as Jasper.

Funeral of Peter Venn Was Held At Metlakatla

The funeral of the late Peter Venn took place Sunday afternoon at Metlakatla with Canon W. F. Rushbrook officiating. There was a large attendance and many floral tributes. Those sending flowers were: The family, Mr. and Mrs. C. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Leask, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Leighton, Mrs. S. Ryan, the G. P. B. A., Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Leighton, The Church Army, Mrs. F. Clifton, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Louth, Mrs. P. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Haldane and family and Mr. and Mrs. R. Leighton.

These five persons gathered in private Riverside Drive apartment, New York, to see, as well as hear, their favorite entertainers in the program sponsored by the American Radio News Corporation. This was the first serious attempt to put high-class visual broadcasting into the home.

RUSSIANS TO BLAME

Are Charged With Forcing Down Wheat Prices on Chicago Exchange

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—E. Y. Belitzky, vice-president and treasurer of the All Russian Textile Syndicate, said Saturday that the syndicate had sold wheat short in the Chicago market on orders from Russia.

Secretary of Agriculture Hyde, after a conference in Washington with President Hoover, sent a telegram to John A. Bunnell, president of the Chicago Board of Trade, charging the Russian government with partial responsibility for the latest record depression in wheat prices.

TARIFF IS FORECAST

Conservative Organizer in Britain Tells What Party May Do If Returned

LONDON, Sept. 22.—"If a Conservative government is returned to power at the next British general election, one of its first actions may be the introduction of an emergency tariff," declared Rt. Hon. Neville Chamberlain, Conservative general organizer and former cabinet minister.

"The new government of Canada brought in an emergency tariff of provisional character. Why should we not take a leaf out of the Canadian book? It is all in the family," he remarked.

Parliament Prorogues Today Following Passage of Tariff Bill; Bennett Off to London

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—Following the passage of the government's tariff bill, Parliament prorogued a few minutes before 5 o'clock this afternoon. The passage of the bill came following an agreement of all parties in the House to expedite the business of Parliament in order that Premier Bennett might leave tonight for London to attend the Imperial Conference.

By a vote of 196 to 58, the House declined to make an order "for a return showing the number of cases in which dumping duty had been refunded; after being collected during the past 12 months with particulars in each case." The motion was made by E. J. Young, Liberal member for Weyburn.

Hon. E. H. Ryckman, minister of national revenue, said that no such statistics were kept by the department and the gathering of the information would be a long and difficult task.

A clause will be inserted in the new tariff bill which will provide for non-application of the new rates upon bona fide contracts en-

Charges of Political Activity in Office of Agent Are Withdrawn

Matter of Coroner's Fees Only Matter Now Under Investigation—Informant Against Former Government Agent Failed Administration

On the opening of the Norman Watt inquiry this morning before Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald, all charges against Norman Watt that he had been engaged in political activities were formally withdrawn. C. H. Locke, on behalf of the provincial government, stating that the witness on whom they had relied had declared that he had made no such statement as had been attributed to him. This was the outstanding feature of the morning session of the inquiry. Mr. Locke is appearing for the government with A. M. Manson K.C., former attorney general and L. W. Patmore for Norman Watt. Sessions are being held in public although Mr. Locke suggested that it might be held in private. He said he understood Mr. Watt wished it to be public and he did not object.

Mr. Justice Macdonald said that, unless otherwise instructed, he would hold the inquiry in public. Mr. Locke further said Mr. Watt would be called in order that he might be able to give evidence in his own behalf.

Outlining the case for the government, Mr. Locke said it would be shown that Mr. Watt, while in the government employ as a civil servant, took fees to which he was not rightfully entitled, totalling some two hundred dollars. The charge was that he was under obligation to account for these fees to the provincial government, which he did not do.

He understood that Mr. Watt admitted having received the amounts but claimed that he was entitled to retain them under the provisions of the Civil Service Act or at any rate that he understood he could retain them.

Mr. Manson thanked the counsel for the government for his frankness in entirely exculpating his client from the charge of political action while in the government employ. He admitted having received the coroner's fees and retaining them. The question was now one of right to do so.

Mr. Manson claimed that provision was made under the Revenue Act for recovering such monies through the courts if they were wrongfully retained. This was a matter affecting many others besides Mr. Watt, as all his predecessors had retained such fees. The attorney general need not accept the finding of this inquiry as he could still sue for the recovery of the $210 involved.

The judge then asked the origin of the commission. He said it was the first time he knew of a busy judge being taken away from his duties to deal with such a matter.

Mr. Manson explained that Mr. Watt had been dismissed May 15 for political activities and later the attorney general had written and inquired in regard to the coroner's fees. Then further charges of theft had been made in strong language. Ultimately, on the suggestion of Colonel Peck a resolution had been passed calling for a commission. He contended that it was now a point of law and proper action would be through the courts.

Mr. Locke said there was something more than that. While he knew nothing about what led up to the inquiry there was the question of coroner's fees to be inquired into. The commission must decide if he had taken them knowing that his action was contrary to his oath of office. This he thought should be investigated here.

Mr. Locke then proceeded to put in as evidence a number of documents in connection with the appointment of Mr. Watt including orders in council, and copies of the oaths of office, which Mr. Watt had taken. One letter in which the salary paid Mr. Watt was compared with salaries of other government agents was designated by the judge as propaganda and was held back.

An order in council put in as evidence explicitly stated that no employee of the government should receive an emolument other than his salary unless otherwise specified. This was passed in the time of Joseph Martin but no evidence was given that this had ever been brought to the attention of Mr. Watt.

Mr. Manson declared that the order had become obsolete and was never observed. He was prepared to go into the witness box himself and swear to it.

"Window Dressing"
The commissioner commenting on the ancient order in council said he took it as "window dressing."
Mr. Locke: "There is no evidence to show that anyone was notified."
Mr. Manson: "The order is ultra vires. I never even heard of it until recently."
Mr. Locke then put in the declaration of the Civil Service commission which stated that no official should receive any fees or emolument other than his salary except by special instruction of the commission.
Mr. Manson: "Watt received no fee as coroner. This was specifically mentioned."
Mr. Locke claimed that this service was included in the salary as government agent although not specifically so stated.
City Treasurer D. J. Matheson told of coroner's fees that had been paid by the city between the years 1913 and 1922 totalling $495. Of this $210 had been paid to Watt while others who had received such fees

BANGOR, Me., Sept. 22.—The steady increase of aliens running over the Canadian border has crowded the Bangor jail to capacity during the week just past and has necessitated the removal of several prisoners to Machias for adequate housing. The jail now holds 97 prisoners, although its accommodations call for but 75.

PROVIDE FOR UNEMPLOYMENT

It is undoubtedly an immediate duty of the various governments concerned to provide for the unemployed in those cities where there are large numbers out of work. Premier Tolmie has the right idea when he says that he plans to deal with the situation by providing employment for the men rather than by giving them money. That is what the unemployed want.

The average man out of work does not wish a handout. He wants to be able to earn his living. In a new province like British Columbia there is all sorts of work to be done and the proposal of the government to employ the men on this work is the best possible solution of the problem. In this undoubtedly, the federal government will help.

WHY NOT WITHDRAW?

As the idea back of the prosecutions under the election act seemed to have been actuated by the desire to unseat Olof Hanson, why not withdraw the charges, now that the idea of unseating the sitting member has been given up?

The prosecution has been taken out of the hands of local authorities, but, even so, it would seem as if it might be possible to end right now all cause of political friction by the attorney general calling the cases off. Already the witnesses are scattered and before a jury trial can be given at the next assizes there will be few that can be secured.

We do not think the cases will ever be tried. Undoubtedly it was an unwise move from the first and could be attributed only to political excitement. Now that the excitement has passed, why penalize the men who have been made the victims?

CONCRETE SIDEWALKS

In order to give local people an idea what the city of Nelson is doing in the matter of sidewalks, we quote the following from the Nelson News:

"Sidewalk petitions are still coming along, some of them for a matter of blocks, showing that the campaign for concrete improvements for the season is still far from being over.

"This is an excellent thing. Each new concrete sidewalk, besides benefitting those who are voluntarily assuming half the cost of the improvement by giving them an attractive facility, extends the city's concrete sidewalk mileage and benefits everybody.

"If there are property owners who are in doubt about whether to petition this year for a concrete sidewalk or whether to put the improvement over, they should resolve their doubts by taking action now. This will have the effect of giving them enjoyment of the new facility at once, and will also do its share to extend city work and distribute additional wages.

As the first payments will not be called for until next summer, with the 1931 taxes, the property owner who may be feeling a stringency at the moment will not be adding to his immediate burdens.

"Few civic moves have been wiser than that of the council, who, to encourage concrete sidewalks raised to 50 per cent the proportion of the cost that the city should bear. Since that time between 100 and 150 projects have been realized aggregating many miles of walks, which, beside their own enormous utility, have been incidentally the inspiration for many other concrete and other improvements."

High School Had to Extend Hours to Beat Booth Two to Nil

The meeting of the High and Booth Schools in the Junior Football League on Saturday produced a splendid game with High winning by two goals to nil.

Booth played nobly in the first half but held their opponents to a solitary goal and it was not till a few minutes before full time that High got their second goal. Walters got the first and Fisher the second after a fine run by Cross.

For the elementary school team Ferguson did well in goal, making one splendid stop in the first half. He had no chance with either of the scoring shots. Ferguson and Sather both did well at back. Gomez was the pick of the halves with Mikkelsen a close second, holding Walters and Marshall well checked. Wardroper played a stellar game at outside right with Cromo on the other wing a clever player too. Christison was always a rare fighter and Santurbane put up a good show. Ivarson was clever and tried hard but hung on too long.

For High, Suehiro was very safe. Davies was the better back though both he and Blake found the Booth combination hard to check. Cross was the best of the High team. Fisher was often dangerous and was on hand to score the second goal. Walters and Marshall were the best of the forwards but were closely checked by the Booth defenders.

Jack Campbell refereed and linesmen were T. Dugate and J. Campbell jr.

Booth and Borden meet next Wednesday evening, the game being called for 6 p.m.

High School—Suehiro; Blake, Davies; Eby, Cross, Fisher; Marshall, Hill, Walters, Church, Wells. Booth—Bremner; Sather, Ferguson; Nelson, Gomez, Mikkelsen, Wardroper, Christison, Ivarson, Santurbane, Cromp.

Injury to Bagshaw Side Necessitates Calling Off Match Set For Friday

An unfortunate occurrence over the week-end, when Billy Bagshaw seriously injured his side in training, makes it necessary to postpone his match scheduled for Friday next against Henry Deeth of Anjox.

While a later date for the match cannot yet be announced, it is hoped that Billy's injury will soon heal up and that the match will take place next month!

SPORT CHAT

Hack Wilson of the Chicago Cubs, violently threatens to equal or surpass the mark of 50 home runs set by Babe Ruth. The little bull-necked bomber from Martinsburg is giving to the National League the thrill that the younger circuit had all to itself for several seasons. All through the league the fans are responding to the hitting of Hack just as they greeted Babe Ruth, with admiration and the raucous razz. The baseball fan seems to be a different sort of person from the follower of any other sport. In Ruth's most heroic years, he was accorded the Bronx cheer and the catcall whenever he whiffed. Hack Wilson is getting it now.

The two men differ in many ways. Ruth has something in native color that Hack does not possess. There is a certain boyish irresponsibility about the Babe, while Hack is a very serious person about his work. Babe can be serious, too, deadly serious, but he doesn't take things to heart the way Hack does. Hack's color is a different sort. It is hard to understand how they can razz the little fellow when he whiffs. He is so goddamned sorry about it, so crestfallen, perturbed. He takes on the air of a man who has just had his last chance and couldn't come through. And the jeers bite deep.

Ruth has learned to let criticism go into one ear and out the other. For a long while he was razzed every time the fans had a chance to yell at him. He learned to take it in good nature. Hack never could be that lenient with himself. The Babe, just the same, is very determined and intent when he goes to that plate, and proud of his work. Babe is a good outfielder. But Hack is just as good an outfielder, even if one does read about his errors more than one odes about Ruth's. In the days when Hack was in the Giants' outfield, the only thing that kept him with the club was his ability as a fielder, as he wasn't hitting in those days. Ross Young, who played next to him in the McGraw outfield, said Hack was the best man who ever had played beside him. He can run and his industry is prodigious.

It was because Hack failed miserably at the plate that McGraw sent him to Toledo, five years ago. At that time Hack was battling under an intense nervous strain and was sick from worry. From day to day he was expecting to receive word from home that he had become a father. Hack is a little past 30 and Ruth will be 37 in February. According to the average span of life in the big leagues, Hack has several seasons in which to bang away at Babe's record. If he doesn't set a new mark this year, he may do it in 1931.

Nantucket Has Town Crier

At Least One Reminder of Another Day in Eastern Town

NANTUCKET, Mass., Sept. 20.—Experts in efficiency may have their undisputed way throughout the great majority of American centres, but in this town off the Massachusetts coast is preserved at least one reminder of another day. Edgar F. Wier is no mean or half-hearted reminder. His brass bell and copper horn are rarely silent in Nantucket's streets. For Wier represents a custom, no one knows how old, brought to this continent with the first settlers who bulwarked towns. He is the official town crier of Nantucket.

Every day, rain or shine, Wier walks the streets of the town, ringing his bell, blowing his horn, and advising inhabitants what the news may be at home and the world over. The duties of his office are not particularly arduous, as no one complains when he stops to chat or omits to cry some particularly succulent bit of humor. His badge of office, in addition to the bell and horn, is a high silk 'plug' hat.

Wier, employed by the Nantucket Historical Society, is an old time whaling man. He has now been ashore for some years, but succeeded the previous crier only a few months ago. The society pays him one hundred dollars a month, a princely salary in comparison with the sixty-two cents a day recently reported to be the stipend of one of the last criers in the Old Country.

CHARGES OF POLITICAL ACTIVITY IN OFFICE OF AGENT, ETC.

were Col. J. H. McMullin, John Conway, Walter Gale and J. R. Tannock. Under cross-examination, Mr. Matheson stated that he had a letter on his file from Oscar Bass, deputy attorney general, dated October 10, 1929, on the matter of coroner's fees paid by the city to the government agents. This letter, Mr. Matheson said, he would be able to produce this afternoon on resumption of the hearing, together with his (Mr. Matheson's) reply to same. Mr. Locke intimated that he intended to object to the admission of the letters as irrelevant.

There was considerable argument between Mr. Manson and Mr. Locke as to the admissibility of Mr. Manson's question as to when first inquiry had been made of Mr. Matheson by any government official as to what coroner's fees had been paid by the city. Mr. Locke contended that this had nothing to do with the matter under investigation.

Mr. Manson reminded Mr. Locke that a serious charge of theft had been made against his client. Mr. Locke did not think Mr. Manson should say that. No charge of theft had been laid. This was merely an inquiry.

Mr. Manson replied that he could appreciate Mr. Locke's position. Possibly he (Mr. Locke) did not see any evidence to justify a charge of theft. Nevertheless such a serious had appeared in the press.

As far as he was aware, Mr. Matheson said, no instructions had been received by the city to have coroner's fees made payable to the government and not to the coroner. Mr. Matheson was asked, on returning to the stand this afternoon, to produce checks that might have been paid to Col. McMullin or Mr. Gale for coroner's fees.

A. B. McNeill, auditor of revenue for the government, told how the auditing work was carried out. Auditor's came regularly once a year to each government agency. All civil servants, Mr. McNeill declared, had specific instructions that they were to account to the government for all fees they received except in the case of official administrators' commissions, up to $500 per annum being allowed in these. If Mr. Watt had been absent from his office for a whole day except on government business, it should have been reported, Mr. McNeill declared.

At 1 o'clock, the inquiry was adjourned until 2.15. It was announced by Mr. Manson that Mr. Watt would voluntarily go on the witness stand at the conclusion of the government's evidence. Efforts are being made to conclude the hearing by tomorrow and it is possible there may be a session tonight.

North Vancouver Girl Is Bride of Ocean Falls Man

St. John's Church, North Vancouver, was the scene of a pretty wedding recently, when Annie Mary (May), eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Moffat of North Vancouver, became the bride of Robert Brown, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. Brown of Birkenhead, Cheshire, England.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was dressed in cream silk lace over bridal satin, fashioned on Princess lines, with uneven hemline drooping to the floor at the back. A large satin bow was attached at the neckline. Her veil of hand embroidered silk net was fashioned into a cap which was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Josephine Moffat, as bridesmaid, who chose a gown of coral-pink brocade silk with a jacquette of cream lace. Her hat, a French model, was of natural colored fabric, and her bouquet consisted of carnations. The two flower girls, Miss Winnifred Moffat and Miss Josephine Elley, were dressed alike in pale blue and pale yellow, respectively, and carried baskets of pink and yellow carnations and roses. The ushers were Frank Skinner and Robert Patton jr.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Queens Hall, where the bride and groom were assisted in receiving by the bride's mother, who wore a black silk gown with an imported silk hat to match. Her corsage bouquet was of sweet peas the bride's table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake.

For travelling, the bride wore a navy blue tulle with hat to match. After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Brown left for Ocean Falls, where they will reside.

BACKACHE

Wonderful relief from pain

Backache is one of those wearying complaints which bind all their victims together with a common bond of misery. And when any one suffers from backache finds a sure remedy, fellowship prompts the quick report of that discovery to others. Here's a woman who has her friend to thank for knowledge of a remarkably successful treatment. Now gratitude compels her, in turn, to pass along the good news to you.

"I am writing to tell you of the great benefit I have received from Kruschen Salts. My friend, Mrs. H., had received so much benefit that she begged me to give Kruschen a trial, although at first I was doubtful, because I had tried so many things. At last, however, I tried some of her Kruschen, and feeling hopeful, I purchased a bottle, and I can honestly say that before I had finished the bottle my backache had gone. I have suffered for years with kidney trouble and dreadful headaches, and now to be free from the pain altogether is wonderful." (Mrs. C.)

Native Wedding In Hazelton Has Large Attendance

HAZELTON, Sept. 22.—One of the largest congregations of natives assembled in Hazelton on Saturday to witness the marriage ceremony of Miss Martha Muldo of Hazelton to Elijah Turner of Kitwanga.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. H. Wright B.A., of the United Church, assisted by Ensign Yarlett. At 12 o'clock noon, the Salvation Army Hall, where the marriage took place, was filled to capacity with natives and whites. Capt. Mortimer, Indian Agent, was an interested spectator during the proceedings.

Mrs. Charles Sampore of Kitwanga, and Neil Sheritt of Hazelton assisted the bride and groom. The combined native brass bands of Hazelton and Kispiox enlivened the proceedings with appropriate music. First they marched in procession bringing the groom and his attendants, afterwards going for the bride, flower girls, and bridesmaids to the hall.

A great feast was afterwards spread in the Kitamian Hall. Ensign Yarlett and Rev. T. H. Wright gave appropriate addresses, and the band gave several selections during the banquet hours.

HINTS FOR GARDENERS

FALL BULBS

It is a simple matter to have brilliant display of bloom within a few weeks after the snow disappears. To get this, secure bulb now and plant outside. The bulb are imported by seedmen usually from Holland, where they have been grown this year and which the flower for next year already formed. On this account it is advisable to get the large-size bulbs, as these naturally contain the largest flowers, and when used there are fewer "misses." For Spring blooming, bulbs such as daffodils, are usually planted outside in September, where they will develop root growth before the freeze-up, and to be in a good position to spring forth as soon as the snow disappears six or seven months from now. Snowdrops will bloom as soon as the snow is gone and these are followed in rapid succession by scillas, crocuses, etc.

By selecting varieties carefully keeping in mind the time of blooming, there will be some flowering by these bulbs from early April until almost July. Tulips, narcissus and hyacinths, mostly grown inside here for the winter, should be planted from four to six inches deep and about the same distance apart, while the smaller bulb, should be planted about two inches apart and an inch or two deep. The very tall later tulips will stand more erect if planted from eight to ten inches deep. In very heavy soil, follow the shallow planting described above, with deeper plantings if the soil is light.

Bella Coola Girl Wedded Recently

Miss Evelyn Gordon Became Bride of Jack Bushell of Ocean Falls at Home Ceremony

A pretty wedding took place recently at the home of the bride's parents in Bella Coola. Rev. Peter Kelly officiating, when Miss Evelyn Gordon, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Gordon, was united in marriage to Jack Bushell of Ocean Falls. The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle and godfather, Ivar Nygaard, wore a dress of turquoise blue flat crepe with flares of tulle in matching shades and carried a shower bouquet of gladioli and fern. The bridesmaid, Miss Ursula McKay of Ocean Falls, wore a frock of shell pink taffeta, her bouquet consisting of sweet peas and fern. Melvin Nygaard, cousin of the bride, acted as groomsmen and the wedding march was played by Mrs. Robert Stranahan, sister of the bride. After the ceremony, a buffet supper was served and a solo rendered by Mrs. Kelly.

After a honeymoon trip to Vancouver and Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Bushell will take up residence in Ocean Falls.
