BENNETT STATES CASE OF CANADA

RUPERT MAY WELL FEEL PROSPEROUS, SPEAKER SAYS

Dominion Premier Lays Plan For Reciprocal Preferences In Clear Manner Before Parley

Empire Free Trade Neither Desirable or Possible, Delegation Believes—Primary Concern of This Country Is to Sell Wheat

LONDON, Oct. 8.—Definitely and unequivocally, Premier R. B. Bennett of Canada today laid his plan for reciprocal Empire free trade preferences before the Imperial Conference. "I put the question definitely to you," he exclaimed, "and definitely it should be answered. There is no room here for compromise. There is no possibility of avoiding the issue. This is a time for plain speaking; and I speak plainly when I say that the day is now at hand when the peoples of the Empire must decide once and for all whether our welfare lies in closer economic union or whether it does not. Delay is hazardous and further discussion of the principle is surely unnecessary. The time for action has come."

M'ROBBIE RELEASED

Indecent Assault Charge Reduced and Eighteen Months Jail Cut to One Month

VANCOUVER, Oct. 8.—On the appeal of George McRobbie, the Court of Appeal here quashed a conviction against him of indecent assault and substituted a conviction for common assault. The court reduced the 18 month sentence which had been imposed by Judge Young, who conducted the trial at Prince Rupert in June, to a sentence of one month. McRobbie had been in Okalla since June 9 so was forthwith released.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Chappell of Vancouver are passengers making the round trip north aboard the steamer Prince George which is in port today. Mr. Chappell is a son of B. T. Chappell, general superintendent of the Canadian National Railways for British Columbia.

CANADIAN ISSUE OF BONDS OVERSUBSCRIBED

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The $100,000,000 issue of Canadian bonds, which was floated on the New York market yesterday, was heavily oversubscribed.

Premier MacDonald Makes It Plain That His Government Opposes Protective Tariffs

LLANDUDNO, Wales, Oct. 8.—Speaking to the Labor Party conference here yesterday, Premier Ramsay MacDonald made it plain that the British government did not favor protective tariffs. He declared that Britain signed the "tariff truce" agreement at Geneva only to permit of the opening of negotiations. He blamed British industry for failing to make the most of opportunities afforded it by the Labor government.

Referring to the Imperial Conference which in plenary session later this week will discuss Empire trade, Premier MacDonald said: "If we start a new system of trade protection of any kind we must apply it to the benefit of ourselves, not to quixotically look after every other interest but our own. There is not a single Prime Minister here from any Dominion who will not regard us as anything but shortsighted fools if we do anything else."

ASKS CUT TIES NOW

Mayor Malkin Urges Railways to Keep B. C. Loggers Employed

VANCOUVER, Oct. 8.—Cooperation of Canada's railways in keeping British Columbia loggers employed was requested yesterday by Mayor W. H. Malkin. "Keep the men in the and out of the bread line," was the motto uttered by Mayor Malkin as he wired the railway heads to ask them to let their tie contracts "now instead of in midwinter."

C. A. Cotterell, general superintendent in British Columbia for the Canadian Pacific Railway, thought the idea an excellent one when it was presented to him. He left last night for Winnipeg where he promises to put the point up to regional executives.

WERE WEDDED LAST EVENING

Norwegian Girl Became Bride of Juneau Man at Quiet Nuptials in Lutheran Church

The double ring service was used last night by Rev. John H. Hanson in St. Paul Lutheran Church in uniting in marriage Miss Dagne Hansen, who has just arrived from Norway where she was a stenographer, to Walluf Andreas Rasmussen, salesman and fox farmer of Juneau. The bride was given in marriage by Harold Gjostund and attendants of the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stevenson. Mrs. J. H. Hanson played the Wedding March.

Mr. Rasmussen will leave tomorrow night for a rush business trip to New York and Norway. Mrs. Rasmussen will remain here in the meantime and on her husband's return, will proceed with him to Juneau to take up residence.

Philadelphia Retains World Baseball Title Two Successive Years

Athletics Played Errorless Exhibition Behind Wonderful Pitching of George Earnshaw and Won Today Seven to One

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—Behind the wonderful pitching of George Earnshaw, Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics today won their second successive world's championship, crushing St. Louis Cardinals seven to one in the sixth and final game. The Mackmen hammered the offerings of "Wild Bill" Hallahan from the bushes, who was so effective last Saturday, and he went to the showers at the end of the second inning. Sylvester Johnson came to his rescue but Al Simmons, the first man up, crashed a homer into the high tiers of the stands. In the fourth, Jimmy Dykes repeated with another crash into the stands, scoring Max Bishop ahead of him. In the sixth, Johnson was replaced on the mound by Jim Lindsey and Gaby Street, Red Birds manager, threw everything but the bat boy into the game.

Earnshaw held the Cardinals in the palm of his hand until the ninth inning when St. Louis scored its only run of the game. Earnshaw permitted but five hits, three of which were for extra bases. The Athletics made all their seven blows count in scoring.

The score: R H E St. Louis 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1-15 1 Philadel. 2 0 1 2 1 1 0 0 x-7 7 0

Batteries: Hallahan and Wilson; Earnshaw and Cochrane.

First Inning St. Louis—Douthitt fanned swinging at third called strike. Adams rolled out to Foxx unassisted. Watkins fanned, swinging at third strike. No runs, no hits, no errors. Philadelphia—Bishop flied out to Frisch near second base. Dykes walked and scored on Cochrane's two base hit to right field. Watkins was charged with error when ball rolled through him. Cochrane went to third. Simmons fanned, swinging hard. Foxx walked. Cochrane scored on Miller's double to centre. Foxx made third. Watkins made great play to hold hit to a double. Moore flied out to Douthitt on first pitched ball. Two runs, two hits, one error. Two left on.

Second Inning St. Louis—Frisch flied out to

Col. McMordie Gives Merchants Heartening Better Times Address

Points to Factors Which Ensure This City's Progress—J. J. Little Describes Local Power Development

In view of accomplishments that had been achieved of late and of developments which he predicted were about to ensue, people of Prince Rupert had little reason to feel anything but prosperous and well content. Col. S. P. McMordie D.S.O., manager of the Capitol Theatre, told the Prince Rupert Retail Merchants' Association at dinner last night. Col. McMordie, who was speaking in connection with the forthcoming Canadian Prosperity Week, enumerated, as important accomplishments which would rebound to the great benefit of the city, the improvement of local steamship services, the obtaining of a boat to ply to industrial points in the immediate vicinity of the city, and the power development here.

The speaker was satisfied that the railway hotel, which had been promised, would materialize. There seemed to be little doubt that the construction of a Peace River railway outlet would commence soon and that that outlet would come to Prince Rupert. It was simply a matter of completing financial arrangements until the Canadian Pacific Railway would have a northern coast terminus in Prince Rupert. A trans-Pacific steamship line, the speaker thought, would be here before the most of people expected. As a matter of fact, ships could call here en route between the Orient and Vancouver and lose but six hours time because Prince Rupert was so much closer. A pulp and paper mill was another likely industrial development here. "The prospects of the city have never been brighter in years than they are today," the speaker summed up.

In view of all these things, Col. McMordie thought that the people might well talk good times and tell the world that Prince Rupert was the greatest little city in northwest America today. One of the ideas of Canadian Prosperity Week was to remove the feeling of financial unbusiness which, in the case of Prince Rupert at least, was very unjustifiable. The speaker outlined some of the proposals which had been made for the observance of Prosperity Week.

J. J. Little, manager of the Northern British Columbia Power Co., was another speaker at the dinner. He expressed regret that it was impossible to turn on the switch of the Falls River power development during Canadian Prosperity Week. Speaking of local prosperity, Mr. Little expressed the belief that local merchants had done more business this year than for some years past and predicted that next year would be even better.

Big Investment The Power Corporation of Canada, Mr. Little continued, had spent some one and a half million dollars in the Falls River power development and, together with investments and investigations at Stewart, Meziaden Lake, Naas River, etc., had put some $2,500,000 in this area to date. Such concerns as the Power Corporation and Nesbitt & Thomson were not spending this money if there was a chance of losing it. At the present time, there was not the electrical consumption to justify the spending of the money but the company had an aggressive industrial department which had been instrumental in bringing industries to other areas. If the people would be patient, similar results would naturally follow.

low here. In a comparatively short time, he had no doubt but that the earnings of the local development would be covering all interest charges. The company, Mr. Little announced, was preparing to turn the power from Falls River into the city lines toward the end of October. About the same time, a new system of fifty ornamental light standards would go into operation in the business section of the city. There was nothing that made a better impression than good street lighting, Mr. Little felt.

Mr. Little explained the nature of the formal opening of the Falls River power plant would take. Arrangements were being made to specially mark the occasion. Mr. Little endorsed Col. McMordie's idea of Canadian Prosperity Week and told how the Power Corporation had been much more successful in merchandising here than had been expected.

Archie Knight, D. H. Anderson and William Trotter, Vancouver travelling salesmen, and A. Barratt of the Vancouver Sun made brief remarks.

The Canadian Prosperity Week proposal was then endorsed on motion of Joe Brown and N. Mussall and, at the suggestion of Frank Dibb, the executive was instructed, in co-operation with Col. McMordie, to make suitable arrangements for the observance of the week.

Votes of thanks to Col. McMordie and Mr. Little for their addresses were passed on motion of Mr. Dibb and Dan Jabour before the meeting concluded.

Bert Morgan, president of the association, was in the chair.

SERIOUS FOR BRITAIN

The destruction of the R-101 with loss of nearly fifty lives is a very severe setback to British airship development. It is another argument in favor of the heavier than air ship as against the dirigible.

Britain has lagged behind in dirigible construction and experimentation. This ship took a year longer than was expected to bring it to such a point that it was considered safe for navigation and even before it sailed, doubts were expressed in regard to it.

The pity is that so many valuable lives should have been lost in what was but an experiment. The loss of a few million dollars was a minor matter compared with the loss of the men.

It takes nerve to make a good liar and also a good memory is desirable.

TIED BY CHAINS OF SPORT INTEREST

One of the ties that bind Canada to the United States is that of sport interest. All Canada is watching with keen appreciation the splendid baseball games played at St. Louis and Philadelphia. The space given in newspapers to the events exceeded that given any other sports during the year. Many Canadians are familiar with the men and their ability on the diamond and have followed the games throughout.

Similarly in winter Canadians are interested in the big hockey matches in which Canadians also take part. In fact most of the players on the American side have been trained in Canada.

With such ties as these, there are bound to be the most friendly relations between the two countries and possibly the raising of the tariff just now on this side will bring about more quickly the time when the tariff wall may be abolished on both sides of the boundary line.

Many a man like the R-101 is carried to earth by the weight of his own dignity.

It is much better to have a sense of humor than no sense at all.

Eight Tons of High Grade Ore Sent Out From Kenneth at Stewart

STEWART, Oct. 8.—Eight tons of high-grade ore from the Kenneth group was packed down the hill this week and will be sent to the smelter at Tacoma.

Samples of native silver bearing ore of decidedly spectacular appearance have been coming down from the Kenneth for weeks past. The property, which was formerly known as the Mobile, is controlled by the Argentine Syndicate of which Clay Porter, noted local mining man and developer of the Porter-Idaho property, is the leading figure.

A sample of rich silver ore seen last week carries a nugget of native silver fully three-quarters of an inch in length and nearly a half inch wide in its widest part, in addition to many smaller particles disseminated throughout the rock. The ore was obtained from a recently opened lead which has widened from a foot or so at the surface to approximately six feet within a short distance from the surface. The ore body in question carries a vein of the rich silver ore a foot wide, which shows native silver wherever broken. The lead is one of a series of three large and heavily mineralized zones found on the property and is to all appearances a true fissure with the walls clearly defined and free from the ore body. One of the zones is 30 ft. or more in width and all three yield high silver assays, in addition to other values.

Ruby silver is said to be so prevalent in one of the veins that drill bits when drawn from the drill holes appear to be bloodstained. The rich silver ore referred to above has not been assayed, but samples taken earlier from the several leads are said to have ranged from a few hundred to nearly a thousand ounces in silver. Some lead and zinc values are also shown, with the latter predominating.

BIRTHDAY IS MARKED

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, Ninth Avenue West, in honor of their son Henry, who celebrated his twenty-first birthday. The room was beautifully decorated.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Holmes, Mrs. T. Carlyle, Mr. McKenny, Mr. Robertson, Howard Chalk, Jack Wide, Tom Smith, Edward Kane, Lewis Wade, John Pierce, David Deacon, Miss M. Joy, Mary Robertson, Alva Williams, Dolly Smith, Evelyn Pierce, Evelyn White, Rosie Smith, Annie Smith. Mr. McKenna proposed the toast and Mr. Robertson responded. Mrs. Carlyle and Mrs. Holmes assisted Mrs. Smith in serving. Games and singing were enjoyed until the early hours of the morning.

The Importance of the Kellogg Peace Pact

An essay by Margaret Glass which won First Prize at the Terrace Fair in the competition for Grade XI pupils.

The Peace Pact is a treaty proposed by Mr. Briand, French foreign minister, that the United States and France sign this treaty, agreeing to renounce war as a national policy, and to adopt pacific means of settling disputes. Mr. Kellogg, United States secretary of state, suggested that the treaty be extended to other countries, as a gap had been left in the League of Nations' Covenant, stating that war could be resorted to after all peaceful means of settling disputes had failed.

This Peace Pact was signed April 28, 1928, tenth anniversary of the entry of the United States into the world war. Some of the countries which signed this treaty are France, Germany, England, Canada, Russia, China and Japan.

The Kellogg Peace Pact is the most important pact in the history of the world, since the formation of the League of Nations. Its purpose is essentially an endeavor to develop and focus world opinion against war. Nations which accept it, renounce war as an instrument of national policy, and agree that the settlement of all disputes which may arise among them, will never be sought except by peaceful means. Its purpose is to rally the imagination and conscience of mankind to the recognition of the fact that war is an obsolete, and futile means of settling international disputes, and to proclaim a guarantee of world peace.

It marks a change. It means a reversal of the policies of all countries concerned. Formerly they had been used to resorting to war to settle disputes; but now they have agreed to settle their disputes by arbitration.

Economically it will be of great importance. It will bring about the saving of huge finances. Money will not be spent on the training of soldiers, transporting of soldiers to battle fields, or on armour and on ammunition.

Morally the results will be remarkable. It marks another stage in the development of civilization, by showing that man no longer resorts to brute force to overcome his enemies but finds a peaceful way to settle his disputes.

The obvious effect of the renunciation of war by the Pact of Paris, is to make war illegal, to turn the whole body of international law against war. If war comes, it must now come against the grain of international law. It always has been otherwise, war has been the supreme legality. International law might undertake to control war, to regulate it, and to "humanize" it, but these very "laws of war" only further entrench the war system within the system of law, by recognizing the fundamental right of any sovereign power to go to war whenever it pleased, for whatever purpose it pleased. But in this treaty the nations have voluntarily given up this sovereign right.

The outlawry of war is only one side of the question. The other side is the "inlawry of peace." Peace is now within the law. The pacific method of settling international disputes has been standardized by absolute law, permitting of no exception whatever. The peace maker, therefore is now working inside the law, and for the law. He is working with his government, and for his government. The war maker and the militarist is working against his government. He is henceforth an enemy of the state.

There have been differences, some of which might have led to war, had not war been renounced as an instrument of national policy, and with it the instrument of war as well. Ceasing to rely upon force, we have looked to reason as the method of solving our differences, and reason has supplied us from time to time with conference, conciliation or arbitration in a form sufficient to settle our various differences as they have arisen.

It is encouraging to note that this pact has been a great success so far. Nearly fifty nations have signed it and no one has yet broken the promise to maintain peace.

S. A. Gourlay, chief travelling auditor, Canadian National Railways, western region, and Mrs. Gourlay arrived in the city by train yesterday afternoon from the East and will sail tomorrow on the Prince George for Vancouver.

DEPARTMENT OF TRADE AND COMMERCE
OTTAWA, CANADA

October 4th, 1930.

To My Fellow Citizens, In Every Part of the Dominion.

To Give Canadians Work, Buy Canadian Products!

To-day the opportunity is yours to render your country a service of inestimable value. And you can do it absolutely without cost to yourself in time or money. Exercise a little intelligent discrimination in your daily buying, and the thing is done!

As you know, thousands upon thousands of your fellow Canadians are out of work. Unemployment, always a serious problem when it occurs, is more serious than ever just now, not only because it has lasted so long and been so widespread, but because of the unusually large numbers who, by reason of it, are being forced to suffer real hardships.

And it is all so unnecessary, so easily preventable!

Every year for the past few years Canada has been importing $800,000,000 worth of merchandise that she might just as well have been producing from her own mines, on her own farms, or in her own factories. Some things of course, like raw cotton and raw rubber, she must import. But making due allowance for such items, the fact remains that $800,000,000 of her annual imports have been of a class or kind that she was quite capable of producing for herself.

With the aid of statistics giving the annual value of Canadian factory production and the number of persons employed therein, it requires little figuring to show that every $5,600 worth of goods turned out has meant a job for one person. Assuming that something close to that ratio would hold good as the average for all classes of products, it follows that were we to produce in Canada the $800,000,000 worth of merchandise that we have been importing unnecessarily, we would be giving direct employment to 147,527 workers more than are now employed, to say nothing of the thousands of others to whom employment would come indirectly, as a result of this new stimulus to business in general.

Now do you see how true it is that were we all to practise a little intelligent discrimination in our daily buying, our unemployment problem would quickly and permanently disappear?

Every time we buy an imported article, when we might just as easily have found a Canadian article to serve our purpose equally well, we are helping to do some fellow Canadian out of a job, and making the job of some foreign workman just that much more secure! Conversely, every time we purposely give the preference to a Canadian article, we are helping to create employment for Canadian workers, and doing our bit towards making Canada as a whole more prosperous!

Think it over! Discuss it with your friends! Study it if you will not only from the standpoints of patriotism and charity, but from the standpoint of self-interest. The farther you go into it the more convinced you will become that giving Canadian products a preference over foreign products is the common sense thing to do.

Very sincerely yours,

A. H. Stevens
Minister of Trade and Commerce.

SOFTBALL AT SCHOOL

Much Activity in Athletic Line Going On At High School

In the High School Softball League Unger's team defeated Tobey's 6-1 on Tuesday afternoon. The game was uneventful until the third inning when, with bases full, Walter Cross hit a three-bagger, driving in Marshall, Bridden and Walters to score. Gillis and Unger had already made runs. Pitcher Tobey then regained control. Cross was caught on the next play as he tried to get home. The next two batters were retired.

In the fourth, Bishop Thurber attempted to start an equalizing rally when he made the circuit of the bases. However, McMeekin and Palmer hit out and although Allen got to first he was called out for leaving it too soon.

In the final inning, Tobey's team tried again to bring up their score. With only one out, McCaffery singled to first and stole second but, when R. Morrison hit the next ball, the winners closed the game with a brilliant double play, Gillis to Cross to Walters.

GREAT NEED OF BUILDING FOR LIBRARY

Magazine Table May Have to Be Excluded to Make Room For Books

The need of a new library building was expressed last night when it was debated whether the big reading table would have to be turned out to make room for book-cases or whether the present book-cases could be stacked more closely together to avoid such a contingency.

Miss Cruikshank, the librarian, was opposed to giving up the magazines if it could be possibly avoided as she said they were used a great deal.

After considerable discussion it was decided to leave the whole matter in the hands of the book committee to make recommendations at the next meeting of the board. In the meantime the orders for new magazines are held up pending a decision.

The regular monthly meeting of the Auto Mechanics' Union, scheduled for last night, was postponed until later in the week.

Do You Play Bridge

THE chap who overbids his hand always loses in the long run. No person can continually bid what he hasn't got and make it.

Business in one way is something like a game of bridge . . . with merchants and manufacturers playing for your patronage. You want furniture and breakfast foods, books and clothes, radios, cigarettes and toys, groceries, fruits, vegetables, etc.—they want to sell you theirs. They bid with advertising.

The merchant who advertises an unworthy product can't win. He is simply inducing more people to find out in a shorter time how poor it is. He is overbidding his hand, and is bound to get set. Losing is too costly . . . depend upon it, products that are advertised must be good!

The advertisements in this newspaper are guides to the finest merchandise of every sort, merchandise carefully and faithfully made, of certain, honest value. You can trust the manufacturers who write them.

It pays to read the advertisements. They are bids backed by products that can compete in the open . . . and win.
